(e) the transferee and transferor are jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable to pay under this Act an amount equal to the lesser of

(i) the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property at the time it was transferred exceeds the fair market value at that time of the consideration given for the property, and

(ii) the total of all amounts each of which is an amount that the transferor is liable to pay under this Act (including, for greater certainty, an amount that the transferor is liable to pay under this section, regardless of whether the Minister has made an assessment under subsection (2) for that amount) in or in respect of the taxation year in which the property was transferred or any preceding taxation year, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of the transferor under any other provision of this Act or of the transferee for the interest that the transferee is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of the amount that the transferee is liable to pay because of this subsection.

c) une personne avec laquelle elle avait un lien de dépendance,

les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

d) le bénéficiaire et l'auteur du transfert sont solidairement responsables du paiement d'une partie de l'impôt de l'auteur du transfert en vertu de la présente partie pour chaque année d'imposition égale à l'excédent de l'impôt pour l'année sur ce que cet impôt aurait été sans l'application des articles 74.1 à 75.1 de la présente loi et de l'article 74 de la Loi de l'impôt sur le revenu, chapitre 148 des Statuts revisés du Canada de 1952, à l'égard de tout revenu tiré des biens ainsi transférés ou des biens y substitués ou à l'égard de tout gain tiré de la disposition de tels biens;

e) le bénéficiaire et l'auteur du transfert sont solidairement responsables du paiement en vertu de la présente loi d'un montant égal au moins élevé des montants suivants :

(i) l'excédent éventuel de la juste valeur marchande des biens au moment du transfert sur la juste valeur marchande à ce moment de la contrepartie donnée pour le bien,

(ii) le total des montants représentant chacun un montant que l'auteur du transfert doit payer en vertu de la présente loi (notamment un montant ayant ou non fait l'objet d'une cotisation en application du paragraphe (2) qu'il doit payer en vertu du présent article) au cours de l'année d'imposition où les biens ont été transférés ou d'une année d'imposition antérieure ou pour une de ces années.

Toutefois, le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité de l'auteur du transfert en vertu de quelque autre disposition de la présente loi ni celle du bénéficiaire du transfert quant aux intérêts dont il est redevable en vertu de la présente loi sur une cotisation établie à l'égard du montant qu'il doit payer par l'effet du présent paragraphe.

Joint and several, or solidary, liability — subsection 69(11)

(1.1) If a particular person or partnership is deemed by subsection 69(11) to have disposed of a property at any time, the person referred to in that subsection to whom a benefit described in that subsection was available in respect of a subsequent disposition of the property or property substituted for the property is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with each other taxpayer to pay a part of the other taxpayer's liabilities under this Act in respect of each taxation year equal to the amount determined by the formula

A - B

Responsabilité solidaire

(1.1) Dans le cas où une personne ou une société de personnes donnée est réputée par le paragraphe 69(11) avoir disposé d'un bien, la personne visée aux alinéas a) ou b) de ce paragraphe est solidairement responsable, avec chaque autre contribuable, du paiement d'une partie des sommes dont l'autre contribuable est redevable en vertu de la présente loi pour chaque année d'imposition. Cette partie correspond au résultat du calcul suivant :

A - B

A is the total of amounts payable under this Act by the other taxpayer in respect of the year, and

B is the amount that would, if the particular person or partnership were not deemed by subsection 69(11) to have disposed of the property, be determined for A in respect of the other taxpayer in respect of the year, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of the other taxpayer under any other provision of this Act or of any person for the interest that the person is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of the amount that the person is liable to pay because of this subsection.

A représente le total des montants payables par l'autre contribuable pour l'année en vertu de la présente loi;

B le montant que représenterait l'élément A relativement à l'autre contribuable pour l'année si la personne ou la société de personnes donnée n'était pas réputée par le paragraphe 69(11) avoir disposé du bien.

Toutefois, le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité de l'autre contribuable en vertu d'une autre disposition de la présente loi ni celle de quiconque quant aux intérêts dont il est redevable en vertu de la présente loi sur une cotisation établie à l'égard du montant qu'il doit payer par l'effet du présent paragraphe.

(e) was a shareholder of a professional corporation, dividends on the shares of the capital stock of which were directly or indirectly included in computing the individual's split income for the year, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of the specified individual under any other provision of this Act or of the parent for the interest that the parent is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of the amount that the parent is liable to pay because of this subsection.

à des dividendes qui ont été inclus, directement ou indirectement, dans le calcul du revenu fractionné du particulier pour l'année.

Toutefois, le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité du particulier déterminé en vertu d'une autre disposition de la présente loi ni celle du père ou de la mère quant aux intérêts dont il ou elle est redevable en vertu de la présente loi sur une cotisation établie à l'égard du montant qu'il ou qu'elle doit payer par l'effet du présent paragraphe.

Responsabilité solidaire — fiducie pour conjoint et fiducie semblabe provisions in respect of interest payable) apply, with any modifications that the circumstances require, in respect of an assessment made under this section as though it had been made under section 152 in respect of taxes payable under this Part.

(1.4) Si une somme est réputée, en application du paragraphe 104(13.4), être devenue à payer à un particulier au cours d'une année d'imposition d'une fiducie, le particulier et la fiducie sont solidairement responsables du paiement de l'impôt payable par le particulier en vertu de la présente partie pour l'année d'imposition du particulier au cours de laquelle il décède, dans la mesure où cet impôt est supérieur à ce qu'il aurait été si aucune somme n'avait été ajoutée dans le calcul du revenu du particulier en vertu de la présente partie pour l'année.

Discharge of liability

(3) If a particular taxpayer has become jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with another taxpayer under this section or because of paragraph 94(3)(d) or (e) or subsection 94(17) in respect of part or all of a liability under this Act of the other taxpayer,

(a) a payment by the particular taxpayer on account of that taxpayer's liability shall to the extent of the payment discharge their liability; but

(b) a payment by the other taxpayer on account of that taxpayer's liability discharges the particular taxpayer's liability only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce that other taxpayer's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the particular taxpayer is, by this section, made jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable.

(3) Dans le cas où un contribuable donné devient, en vertu du présent article ou par l'effet des alinéas 94(3)d) ou e) ou du paragraphe 94(17), solidairement responsable, avec un autre contribuable, de tout ou partie d'une obligation de ce dernier en vertu de la présente loi, les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

a) tout paiement fait par le contribuable donné au titre de son obligation éteint d'autant leur obligation;

b) tout paiement fait par l'autre contribuable au titre de son obligation n'éteint l'obligation du contribuable donné que dans la mesure où le paiement sert à réduire l'obligation de l'autre contribuable à une somme inférieure à celle dont le contribuable donné est solidairement responsable en vertu du présent article.

Juste valeur marchande d'un droit ou intérêt indivis

(3.1) Pour l'application du présent article et de l'article 160.4, la juste valeur marchande, à un moment donné, d'un intérêt indivis ou, pour l'application du droit civil, d'un droit indivis sur un bien, exprimé sous forme d'un intérêt ou d'un droit proportionnel sur ce bien, est réputée être égale, sous réserve du paragraphe (4), à la proportion correspondante de la juste valeur marchande du bien à ce moment.

Règles concernant les transferts à un époux ou conjoint de fait

(4) Malgré le paragraphe (1), lorsqu'un contribuable a transféré un bien à son époux ou conjoint de fait en vertu d'une ordonnance ou d'un jugement d'un tribunal compétent ou en vertu d'un accord écrit de séparation et que, au moment du transfert, le contribuable et son époux ou conjoint de fait vivaient séparément par suite de la rupture de leur mariage ou union de fait, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) relativement à un bien ainsi transféré après le 15 février 1984:

(i) l'époux ou conjoint de fait ne peut être tenu, en vertu du paragraphe (1), de payer un montant relatif au revenu provenant du bien transféré ou du bien qui y est substitué ou un montant relatif au gain provenant de la disposition du bien transféré ou du bien qui y est substitué,

(ii) for the purposes of paragraph 160(1)(e), the fair market value of the property at the time it was transferred shall be deemed to be nil, and

(b) in respect of property so transferred before February 16, 1984, where the spouse common-law partner would, but for this paragraph, be liable to pay an amount under this Act by virtue of subsection 160(1), the spouse's or common-law partner's liability in respect of that amount shall be deemed to have been discharged on February 16, 1984, but nothing in this subsection shall operate to reduce the taxpayer's liability under any other provision of this Act.

(ii) pour l'application de l'alinéa (1)e), la juste valeur marchande du bien au moment du transfert est réputée être nulle;

b) relativement à un bien ainsi transféré avant le 16 février 1984, lorsque l'époux ou conjoint de fait serait, sans le présent alinéa, tenu de payer un montant en application de la présente loi en vertu du paragraphe (1), il est réputé s'être acquitté de son obligation relativement à ce montant le 16 février 1984;

aucune disposition du présent paragraphe n'a toutefois pour effet de réduire les obligations du contribuable en vertu d'une autre disposition de la présente loi.

NOTE : Les dispositions d'application ne sont pas incluses dans la présente codification; voir les lois modificatives appropriées. L.R. (1985), ch. 1 (5e suppl.), art. 160; 1998, ch. 19, art. 186; 2000 ch. 12, art. 142, ch. 19, art. 46, ch. 30, art. 170; 2007, ch. 29, art. 23; 2013, ch. 34, art. 16, 141 et 313; 2014, ch. 39, art. 57.

(b) the taxpayer shall pay to the Receiver General interest at the prescribed rate on the excess (other than any portion thereof that can reasonably be considered to arise as a consequence of the operation of section 122.5 or 122.61) from the day it became payable to the date of payment.

Remboursement en trop

160.1 (1) Lorsque le ministre détermine qu'un contribuable a été remboursé pour une année d'imposition d'un montant supérieur à celui auquel il avait droit en application de la présente loi, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) l'excédent est réputé représenter un montant qui est payable par le contribuable à compter de la date du remboursement;

b) le contribuable doit payer au receveur général des intérêts sur l'excédent, sauf toute partie de l'excédent qu'il est raisonnable de considérer comme découlant de l'application des articles 122.5 ou 122.61, calculés au taux prescrit, pour la période allant du jour où cet excédent est devenu payable jusqu'à la date du paiement.

Liability for refunds by reason of section 122.61

(2.1) If a person was a cohabiting spouse or common-law partner (within the meaning assigned by section 122.6) of an individual at the end of a taxation year, the person and the individual are jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable to pay any excess described in subsection (1) that was refunded in respect of the year to, or applied to a liability of, the individual as a consequence of the operation of section 122.61 if the person was the individual's cohabiting spouse or common-law partner at the time the excess was refunded, but nothing in this subsection is deemed to limit the liability of any person under any other provision of this Act.

Liability for excess refunds under section 126.1 to partners

(2.2) Every taxpayer who, on the day on which an amount has been refunded to, or applied to the liability of, a member of a partnership as a consequence of the operation of subsection 126.1(7) or (13) in excess of the amount to which the member was so entitled, is a member of that partnership is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with each other taxpayer who on that day is a member of the partnership to pay the excess and to pay interest on the excess, but nothing in this subsection is deemed to limit the liability of any person under any other provision of this Act.

160.2 (1) Where

(a) an amount is received out of or under a registered retirement savings plan by a taxpayer other than an annuitant (within the meaning assigned by subsection 146(1)) under the plan, and

(b) that amount or part thereof would, but for paragraph (a) of the definition benefit in subsection 146(1), be received by the taxpayer as a benefit (within the meaning assigned by that definition), the taxpayer and the last annuitant under the plan are jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable to pay a part of the annuitant's tax under this Part for the year of the annuitant's death equal to that proportion of the amount by which the annuitant's tax for the year is greater than it would have been if it were not for the operation of subsection 146(8.8) that the total of all amounts each of which is an amount determined under paragraph (b) in respect of the taxpayer is of the amount included in computing the annuitant's income because of that subsection, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of the annuitant under any other provision of this Act or of the taxpayer for the interest that the taxpayer is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of the amount that the taxpayer is liable to pay because of this subsection.

b) cette somme serait en tout ou en partie reçue par le contribuable à titre de prestation (au sens du paragraphe 146(1)), compte non tenu de l'alinéa a) de cette définition, le contribuable et le dernier rentier en vertu du régime sont solidairement responsables du paiement de la partie de l'impôt auquel est tenu le rentier en vertu de la présente partie pour l'année de son décès égale au résultat de la multiplication de l'excédent de l'impôt du rentier pour l'année sur ce que cet impôt aurait été sans l'application du paragraphe 146(8.8) par le rapport entre, d'une part, le total des sommes représentant chacune une somme déterminée conformément à l'alinéa b) à l'égard du contribuable et, d'autre part, la somme incluse dans le calcul du revenu du rentier par l'effet de ce paragraphe. Le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité du rentier découlant d'une autre disposition de la présente loi ni celle du contribuable quant aux intérêts dont il est redevable en vertu de la présente loi sur une cotisation établie à l'égard du montant qu'il doit payer par l'effet du présent paragraphe.

the taxpayer and the annuitant are jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable to pay a part of the annuitant's tax under this Part for the year of the annuitant's death equal to that proportion of the amount by which the annuitant's tax for the year is greater than it would have been if it were not for the operation of subsection 146.3(6) that the amount determined under paragraph (b) is of the amount included in computing the annuitant's income because of that subsection, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of the annuitant under any other provision of this Act or of the taxpayer for the interest that the taxpayer is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of the amount that the taxpayer is liable to pay because of this subsection.

Joint and several liability in respect of a qualifying trust annuity

(2.1) If a taxpayer is deemed by section 75.2 to have received at any time an amount out of or under an annuity that is a qualifying trust annuity with respect to the taxpayer, the taxpayer, the annuitant under the annuity and the policyholder are jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable to pay the part of the taxpayer's tax under this Part for the taxation year of the taxpayer that includes that time that is equal to the amount, if any, determined by the formula

A is the amount of the taxpayer's tax under this Part for that taxation year; and

B is the amount that would be the taxpayer's tax under this Part for that taxation year if no amount were deemed by section 75.2 to have been received by the taxpayer out of or under the annuity in that taxation year.

No limitation on liability

(2.2) Subsection (2.1) limits neither

(a) the liability of the taxpayer referred to in that subsection under any other provision of this Act; nor le contribuable et le rentier sont solidairement responsables du paiement de la partie de l'impôt auquel est tenu le rentier en vertu de la présente partie pour l'année de son décès égale au résultat de la multiplication de l'excédent de l'impôt du rentier pour l'année sur ce que cet impôt aurait été sans l'application du paragraphe 146.3(6) par le rapport entre, d'une part, la somme déterminée conformément à l'alinéa b) et, d'autre part, la somme incluse dans le calcul du revenu du rentier par l'effet de ce paragraphe. Le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité du rentier découlant d'une autre disposition de la présente loi ni celle du contribuable quant aux intérêts dont il est redevable en vertu de la présente loi sur une cotisation établie à l'égard du montant qu'il doit payer par l'effet du présent paragraphe.

Responsabilité solidaire à l'égard d'une rente admissible de fiducie

(2.1) Le contribuable qui est réputé, en vertu de l'article 75.2, avoir reçu, à un moment donné, une somme dans le cadre d'une rente qui est une rente admissible de fiducie relativement à lui est solidairement responsable, avec le rentier en vertu du contrat de rente et le titulaire de police, du paiement de la partie de l'impôt auquel il est tenu en vertu de la présente partie pour son année d'imposition qui comprend ce moment, égale au montant obtenu par la formule suivante :

A – B

où :

A représente le montant de l'impôt du contribuable en vertu de la présente partie pour l'année;

B la somme qui correspondrait à l'impôt du contribuable en vertu de la présente partie pour l'année si aucune somme n'était réputée, en vertu de l'article 75.2, avoir été reçue par lui dans le cadre de la rente au cours de l'année.

Responsabilité du contribuable — rente admissible de fiducie

(2.2) Le paragraphe (2.1) n'a pas pour effet de limiter :

a) la responsabilité du contribuable visée à ce paragraphe découlant d'une autre disposition de la présente loi;

b) la responsabilité d'un rentier ou d'un titulaire de police, visée à ce paragraphe, pour le paiement des intérêts dont il est redevable en vertu de la présente loi sur une cotisation établie à l'égard du montant qu'il doit payer par l'effet de ce paragraphe.

Rules applicable

(4) If a taxpayer and an annuitant have, by virtue of subsection (1) or (2), become jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable in respect of part or all of a liability of the annuitant under this Act, the following rules apply:

(a) a payment by the taxpayer on account of the taxpayer's liability shall to the extent thereof discharge their liability; but

(b) a payment by the annuitant on account of the annuitant's liability discharges the taxpayer's liability only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the annuitant's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the taxpayer was, by subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, made jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable.

Rules applicable — qualifying trust annuity

(5) If an annuitant or policyholder has, because of subsection (2.1), become jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with a taxpayer in respect of part or all of a liability of the taxpayer under this Act, the following rules apply:

(a) a payment by the annuitant on account of the annuitant's liability, or by the policyholder on account of the policyholder's liability, shall to the extent of the payment discharge their liability, but

Liability in respect of transfers by insolvent corporations

160.4 (1) If property is transferred at any time by a corporation to a taxpayer with whom the corporation does not deal at arm's length at that time and the corporation is not entitled because of subsection 61.3(3) to deduct an amount under section 61.3 in computing its income for a taxation year because of the transfer or because of the transfer and one or more other transactions, the taxpayer is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the corporation to pay the lesser of the corporation's tax payable under this Part for the year and the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property at that time exceeds the fair market value at that time of the consideration given for the property, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of the corporation under any other provision of this Act or of the taxpayer for the interest that the taxpayer is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of the amount that the taxpayer is liable to pay because of this subsection.

Toutefois, le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité de la société découlant d'une autre disposition de la présente loi ni celle du contribuable quant aux intérêts dont il est redevable en vertu de la présente loi sur une cotisation établie à l'égard du montant qu'il doit payer par l'effet du présent paragraphe.

Indirect transfers

(2) Where

(b) the transferor is liable because of subsection 160.4(1) or this subsection to pay an amount of the tax of another person (in this subsection referred to as the "debtor") under this Part, and

(c) it can reasonably be considered that one of the reasons of the transfer would, but for this subsection, be to prevent the enforcement of this section, the transferee is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the transferor and the debtor to pay an amount of the debtor's tax under this Part equal to the lesser of the amount of that tax that the transferor was liable to pay at that time and the amount, if any, by which the fair market value of the property at that time exceeds the fair market value at that time of the consideration given for the property, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of the debtor or the transferor under any provision

Transferts indirects

(2) Dans le cas où les conditions suivantes sont réunies :

b) le cédant est responsable, par l'effet du paragraphe (1) ou du présent paragraphe, du paiement d'une partie de l'impôt d'une autre personne (appelé « débiteur » au présent paragraphe) en vertu de la présente partie;

c) il est raisonnable de considérer que l'un des motifs du transfert consisterait, n'eût été le présent paragraphe, à empêcher l'application du présent article, le cessionnaire est solidairement responsable, avec le cédant et le débiteur, du paiement de la partie de l'impôt du débiteur en vertu de la présente partie qui représente la partie de cet impôt dont le cédant était redevable au moment du transfert ou, s'il est moins élevé, l'excédent de la juste valeur marchande du bien à ce moment sur la juste valeur marchande, à ce même moment, de la contrepartie donnée pour le bien. Toutefois, le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité of this Act or of the transferee for the interest that the transferee is liable to pay under this Act on an assessment in respect of the amount that the transferee is liable to pay because of this subsection.

Assessment

(3) The Minister may at any time assess a person in respect of any amount payable by the person because of this section, and the provisions of this Division (including, for greater certainty, the provisions in respect of interest payable) apply, with any modifications that the circumstances require, in respect of an assessment made under this section, as though it had been made under section 152 in respect of taxes payable under this Part.

Rules applicable

(4) If a corporation and another person have, because of subsection (1) or (2), become jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable in respect of part or all of a liability of the corporation under this Act

(a) a payment by the other person on account of that person's liability shall to the extent thereof discharge their liability; and

(b) a payment by the corporation on account of the corporation's liability discharges the other person's liability only to the extent that the payment operates to reduce the corporation's liability to an amount less than the amount in respect of which the other person was, by subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, made jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable.

Avis de requête

Application des par. 225.2(4), (10), (12) et (13)

b) il est raisonnable de conclure que le total de ces acomptes excède le total des impôts qui seront payables par le contribuable pour l'année en vertu de ces parties;

c) le ministre est convaincu que le versement des acomptes a porté ou portera indûment préjudice au contribuable.

Instalment refund

(1.52) If this subsection applies to a taxpayer for a taxation year, the Minister may refund to the taxpayer all or any part of the excess referred to in paragraph (1.51)(b).

Remboursement

Effet sur les pénalités et les intérêts

(1.53) Pour ce qui est du calcul d'une pénalité ou d'intérêts sous le régime de la présente loi, un acompte provisionnel est réputé ne pas avoir été versé dans la mesure où il est raisonnable de considérer que tout ou partie de l'acompte a été remboursé en vertu du paragraphe (1.52).

Application to other debts

(2) Instead of making a refund or repayment that might otherwise be made under this section, the Minister may, where the taxpayer is, or is about to become, liable to make any payment to Her Majesty in right of Canada or in right of a province, apply the amount of the refund or repayment to that other liability and notify the taxpayer of that action.

Imputation du remboursement

(2) Lorsque le contribuable est redevable d'un montant à Sa Majesté du chef du Canada ou du chef d'une province ou est sur le point de l'être, le ministre peut, au lieu de rembourser un paiement en trop ou une somme en litige, qui pourrait par ailleurs être remboursé en vertu du présent article, imputer la somme à rembourser sur ce dont le contribuable est ainsi redevable et en aviser celui-ci.

Withholding of refunds

(2.01) The Minister shall not, in respect of a taxpayer, refund, repay, apply to other debts or set-off amounts under this Act at any time unless all returns of which the Minister has knowledge and that are required to be filed by the taxpayer at or before that time under this Act, the Air Travellers Security Charge Act, the Excise Act, 2001 and the Excise Tax Act have been filed with the Minister.

(a) under subsection 67.5(2) or 152(1.8), subparagraph 152(4)(b)(i) or subsection 152(4.3) or (6), 161.1(7), 164(4.1), 220(3.4) or 245(8) or in accordance with an order of a court vacating, varying or restoring an assessment or referring the assessment back to the Minister for reconsideration and reassessment,

Opposition à la cotisation

Opposition à la cotisation

165 (1) Le contribuable qui s'oppose à une cotisation prévue par la présente partie peut signifier au ministre, par écrit, un avis d'opposition exposant les motifs de son opposition et tous les faits pertinents, dans les délais suivants :

a) s'il s'agit d'une cotisation, pour une année d'imposition, relative à un contribuable qui est un particulier (sauf une fiducie) ou une succession assujettie à l'imposition à taux progressifs pour l'année, au plus tard au dernier en date des jours suivants :

(i) le jour qui tombe un an après la date d'échéance de production qui est applicable au contribuable pour l'année,

(ii) le quatre-vingt-dixième jour suivant la date d'envoi de l'avis de cotisation;

b) dans les autres cas, au plus tard le quatre-vingt-dixième jour suivant la date d'envoi de l'avis de cotisation.

Restriction

(1.1) Malgré le paragraphe (1), dans le cas où, à un moment donné, le ministre établit une cotisation concernant l'impôt, les intérêts, les pénalités ou d'autres montants payables par un contribuable en vertu de la présente partie ou détermine un montant à l'égard d'un contribuable :

a) soit en application des paragraphes 67.5(2) ou 152(1.8), du sous-alinéa 152(4)b)(i) ou des paragraphes 152(4.3) ou (6), 161.1(7), 164(4.1), 220(3.4) ou 245(8) ou en conformité avec l'ordonnance d'un tribunal qui annule, modifie ou rétablit la cotisation ou la renvoie au ministre pour nouvel examen et nouvelle cotisation;

(b) under subsection 165(3) where the underlying objection relates to an assessment or a determination made under any of the provisions or circumstances referred to in paragraph 165(1.1)(a), or

(c) under a provision of an Act of Parliament requiring an assessment to be made that, but for that provision, would not be made because of subsections 152(4) to 152(5),

(d) where the assessment or determination was made under subsection 152(1.8), as relating to any matter or conclusion specified in paragraph 152(1.8)(a), 152(1.8)(b) or 152(1.8)(c), and

(e) in any other case, as relating to any matter that gave rise to the assessment or determination and that was not conclusively determined by the court, and this subsection shall not be read or construed as limiting the right of the taxpayer to object to an assessment or a determination issued or made before that time.

b) soit en application du paragraphe (3), à la suite d'un avis d'opposition relatif à une cotisation établie ou un montant déterminé en application des dispositions visées à l'alinéa a) ou dans les circonstances qui y sont indiquées;

c) soit en application d'une disposition d'une loi fédérale exigeant l'établissement d'une cotisation qui, sans cette disposition, ne serait pas établie en vertu des paragraphes 152(4) à (5), le contribuable peut faire opposition à la cotisation ou au montant déterminé dans les 90 jours suivant la date d'envoi de l'avis de cotisation ou de l'avis portant qu'un montant a été déterminé, mais seulement dans la mesure où il est raisonnable de considérer que les motifs d'opposition sont liés à l'une des questions ci-après que le tribunal n'a pas tranchée définitivement :

d) dans le cas où la cotisation a été établie ou le montant, déterminé en application du paragraphe 152(1.8), une question précisée aux alinéas 152(1.8)a), b) ou c);

(b) only with respect to the relief sought in respect of that issue as specified by the corporation in the notice.

Application of subsection (1.13)

(1.14) Where a particular assessment is made under subsection 165(3) pursuant to an objection made by a taxpayer to an earlier assessment, subsection 165(1.13) does not limit the right of the taxpayer to object to the particular assessment in respect of an issue that was part of the particular assessment and not part of the earlier assessment.

a) seulement si, relativement à cette question, elle s'est conformée au paragraphe (1.11) dans l'avis;

b) seulement à l'égard du redressement, tel qu'il est exposé dans l'avis, qu'elle demande relativement à cette question.

Application du paragraphe (1.13)

(1.14) Dans le cas où une cotisation est établie en application du paragraphe (3) par suite d'une opposition faite par un contribuable à une cotisation précédente, le paragraphe (1.13) n'a pas pour effet de limiter le droit du contribuable de s'opposer à la cotisation relativement à une question sur laquelle porte cette cotisation mais non la cotisation précédente.

Dons de biens écosensibles

(1.1) Le contribuable qui dispose d'un bien dont la juste valeur marchande a été confirmée ou fixée de nouveau par le ministre de l'Environnement aux termes du paragraphe 118.1(10.4) peut, dans les 90 jours suivant le jour où ce ministre a délivré l'attestation prévue au paragraphe 118.1(10.5), interjeter appel auprès de la Cour canadienne de l'impôt pour faire modifier la valeur ainsi confirmée ou fixée de nouveau.

Restriction

(2) Malgré le paragraphe (1), dans le cas où, à un moment donné, le ministre établit une cotisation concernant l'impôt, les intérêts, les pénalités ou d'autres montants payables par un contribuable en vertu de la présente partie ou détermine un montant à l'égard d'un contribuable :

Exceptions

(1.1) Pour l'application du paragraphe 125(5.1), de la définition de crédit de surtaxe inutilisé aux paragraphes 181.1(6) et 190.1(5) et du paragraphe 225.1(8), l'impôt relatif à une société en vertu du paragraphe 181.1(1) pour une année d'imposition est déterminé comme si la mention « 50 000 000 $ » au paragraphe (1) valait mention de « 10 000 000 $ ».

(2) Sous réserve du paragraphe (4.1), la société donnée qui est liée à une autre société à un moment de son année d'imposition se terminant au cours d'une année civile peut présenter au ministre, sur le formulaire prescrit, un accord, au nom du groupe lié dont elle est membre, qui prévoit la répartition d'un montant qui ne dépasse pas exceed $50 million is allocated among all corporations that are members of the related group for each taxation year of each such corporation ending in the calendar year and at a time when it was a member of the related group.

Allocation by Minister

(3) Subject to subsection (4.1), the Minister may request a corporation that is related to any other corporation at the end of a taxation year to file with the Minister an agreement referred to in subsection (2) and, if the corporation does not file such an agreement within 30 days after receiving the request, the Minister may allocate an amount among the members of the related group of which the corporation is a member for the taxation year not exceeding $50 million.

Idem

(4) The least amount allocated for a taxation year to a member of a related group under an agreement described in subsection 181.5(2) or by the Minister pursuant to subsection 181.5(3) is the capital deduction of that member for that taxation year.

Exceptions

(4.1) For the purposes of applying subsection 125(5.1), the definitions unused surtax credit in subsections 181.1(6) and 190.1(5), and subsection 225.1(8), subsections (2) to (4) are to be read as if the amount determined under subsection (2) or (3), as the case may be, in respect of the corporation for the taxation year were that proportion of $10 million that the amount otherwise determined in respect of the corporation for the taxation year under that subsection is of $50 million.

Idem

(5) Where a corporation (in this subsection referred to as the "first corporation") has more than one taxation year ending in the same calendar year and is related in 2 or more of those taxation years to another corporation that has a taxation year ending in that calendar year, the capital deduction of the first corporation for each such taxation year at the end of which it is related to the other corporation is an amount equal to its capital deduction for the first such taxation year.

Idem

(6) Two corporations that would, but for this subsection, be related to each other by reason only of

(a) the control of any corporation by Her Majesty in right of Canada or a province, or

(b) a right referred to in paragraph 251(5)(b),

50 000 000 $ entre les sociétés membres du groupe lié pour chaque année d'imposition de chacune de celles-ci se terminant dans l'année civile et à un moment où la société donnée est membre du groupe lié.

Répartition par le ministre

(3) Sous réserve du paragraphe (4.1), le ministre peut demander à la société qui est liée à une autre société à la fin d'une année d'imposition de lui présenter l'accord visé au paragraphe (2). Si la société ne présente pas cet accord dans les 30 jours suivant la réception de la demande, le ministre peut répartir un montant qui ne dépasse pas 50 000 000 $ entre les membres du groupe lié dont la société est membre pour l'année.

Idem

(4) Le montant le moins élevé qui est attribué pour une année d'imposition à un membre d'un groupe lié selon l'accord visé au paragraphe (2) ou par le ministre conformément au paragraphe (3) représente l'abattement de capital de ce membre pour cette année.

Exceptions

(4.1) Pour l'application du paragraphe 125(5.1), de la définition de crédit de surtaxe inutilisé aux paragraphes 181.1(6) et 190.1(5) et du paragraphe 225.1(8), les paragraphes (2) à (4) sont réputés être libellés comme si le montant déterminé selon les paragraphes (2) ou (3), selon le cas, relativement à la société pour l'année d'imposition correspondait au produit de 10 000 000 $ par le rapport entre le montant déterminé par ailleurs relativement à la société pour l'année en vertu de ce paragraphe et 50 000 000 $.

Idem

(5) Lorsque plus d'une année d'imposition d'une société donnée se termine au cours de la même année civile et que la société est liée, au cours d'au moins deux de ces années, à une autre société dont une des années d'imposition se termine au cours de cette année civile, l'abattement de capital de la société donnée pour chacune de ces années d'imposition à la fin desquelles elle est liée à l'autre société correspond à son abattement de capital pour la première de ces années.

Idem

(6) Pour l'application du présent article et du paragraphe 181.3(4), sont réputées ne pas être liées entre elles deux sociétés qui, compte non tenu du présent paragraphe, seraient liées du seul fait, selon le cas :

a) que Sa Majesté du chef du Canada ou d'une province contrôle une société; are, for the purposes of this section and subsection 181.3(4), deemed not to be related to each other except that, where at any time a taxpayer has a right referred to in paragraph 251(5)(b) with respect to shares and it can reasonably be considered that one of the main purposes for the acquisition of the right was to avoid any limitation on the amount of a corporation's capital deduction for a taxation year, for the purpose of determining whether a corporation is related to any other corporation, the corporations are, for the purposes of this section, deemed to be in the same position in relation to each other as if the right were immediate and absolute and as if the taxpayer had exercised the right at that time.

b) qu'il existe un droit visé à l'alinéa 251(5)b).

Toutefois, dans le cas où, à un moment donné, un contribuable a un droit visé à l'alinéa 251(5)b) relatif à des actions et qu'il est raisonnable de considérer que l'un des principaux motifs de l'acquisition de ce droit consiste à éviter une restriction au montant de l'abattement de capital d'une société pour une année d'imposition, pour déterminer si une société est liée à une autre société, les sociétés sont réputées, pour l'application du présent article, être dans la même position l'une par rapport à l'autre que si le droit était immédiat et absolu et que si le contribuable l'avait exercé à ce moment.

Related corporations that are not associated

(7) For the purposes of subsection 181.3(4) and this section, a Canadian-controlled private corporation and another corporation to which it would, but for this subsection, be related at any time shall be deemed not to be related to each other at that time where the corporations are not associated with each other at that time.

NOTE: Application provisions are not included in the consolidated text; see relevant amending Acts. R.S., 1985, c. 1 (5th Supp.), s. 181.5; 1994, c. 7, Sch. II, s. 150; 1998, c. 19, s. 198; 2003, c. 15, s. 86.

Sociétés liées mais non associées

(7) Pour l'application du paragraphe 181.3(4) et du présent article, une société privée sous contrôle canadien et une autre société à laquelle elle serait liée à un moment donné sans le présent paragraphe sont réputées ne pas être liées à ce moment si elles ne sont pas alors associées.

Impôt sur certaines distributions de surplus

Application

183.1 (1) La présente partie s'applique à une société, à l'exclusion d'une société de placement à capital variable, qui, à un moment d'une année d'imposition :

a) soit est une société publique;

b) soit réside au Canada et a une catégorie d'actions en circulation qui ont été achetées et vendues de la façon que des actions semblables seraient normalement achetées et vendues par le public sur le marché libre.

Impôt payable

(2) Si, à un moment donné, dans le cadre d'une opération ou d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements :

a) d'une part, une société ou une personne avec laquelle elle a un lien de dépendance paie un montant, directement ou indirectement, à une personne à titre de produit de disposition d'un bien;

(b) all or any portion of the amount may reasonably be considered, having regard to all the circumstances, to have been paid as a substitute for dividends that would otherwise have been paid in the normal course by the corporation, the corporation shall, on or before its balance-due day for its taxation year that includes that time, pay tax of 45% of that amount or portion of it, as the case may be.

b) d'autre part, il est raisonnable de considérer, compte tenu des circonstances, que tout ou partie de ce montant a été payé en remplacement de dividendes que la société aurait versés par ailleurs dans le cours normal de ses activités, la société est redevable, au plus tard à la date d'exigibilité du solde qui lui est applicable pour son année d'imposition qui comprend ce moment, d'un impôt au taux de 45 % de tout ou partie de ce montant, selon le cas.

Stock dividend

(3) Where, as a part of a transaction or series of transactions or events,

(a) a share was issued by a corporation as a stock dividend and the amount of the stock dividend was less than the fair market value of the share at the time that it was issued, and

(b) the share or any other share of the capital stock of the corporation was purchased, directly or indirectly, by the corporation, or by a person with whom the corporation was not dealing at arm's length, for an amount in excess of its paid-up capital, that excess shall, for the purposes of subsection 183.1(2), be deemed to have been paid as a substitute for dividends that would otherwise have been paid in the normal course by the corporation.

Dividende en actions

(3) Si, dans le cadre d'une opération ou d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements :

a) d'une part, une société émet une action à titre de dividende en actions dont le montant est inférieur à la juste valeur marchande de l'action au moment de son émission;

b) d'autre part, l'action ou toute autre action du capital-actions de la société a été achetée, directement ou indirectement, par la société ou par une personne avec laquelle elle a un lien de dépendance, pour un montant dépassant le capital versé au titre de l'action, l'excédent est réputé, pour l'application du paragraphe (2), payé en remplacement des dividendes que la société aurait versés par ailleurs dans le cours normal de ses activités.

Purchase of shares

(4) Where, as a part of a transaction or series of transactions or events,

(a) a share of the capital stock of a corporation was purchased, directly or indirectly, by the corporation, or by any person with whom the corporation was not dealing at arm's length, and

(b) any portion of the amount paid for the share may reasonably be considered, having regard to all the circumstances, as consideration for a dividend that had been declared, but not yet paid, on the share, that portion of the amount shall, for the purposes of subsection 183.1(2), be deemed to have been paid as a substitute for dividends that would otherwise have been paid in the normal course by the corporation notwithstanding that the dividend was actually paid thereafter.

Achat d'actions

(4) Si, dans le cadre d'une opération ou d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements :

a) d'une part, une action du capital-actions d'une société est achetée, directement ou indirectement, par la société ou par une personne avec laquelle elle a un lien de dépendance;

b) d'autre part, il est raisonnable de considérer, compte tenu des circonstances, une partie du montant payé pour l'action comme la contrepartie d'un dividende déclaré, mais non encore versé, sur l'action, cette partie est réputée, pour l'application du paragraphe (2), payée en remplacement des dividendes que la société aurait versés par ailleurs dans le cours normal de ses activités, même si les dividendes sont effectivement versés par la suite.

Indirect payment

(5) Where, as a part of a transaction or series of transactions or events, a person received a payment from a corporation, or from any person with whom the corporation was not dealing at arm's length, in consideration, in whole or in part, for paying an amount to any other

Paiement indirect

(5) Si, dans le cadre d'une opération ou d'une série d'opérations ou d'événements, une personne reçoit un paiement d'une société ou d'une personne avec laquelle celle-ci a un lien de dépendance, en contrepartie totale ou partielle du paiement d'un montant à une autre personne person as proceeds of disposition of any property, the corporation shall, for the purposes of subsection 183.1(2), be deemed to have paid the amount indirectly to the other person.

Where s. (2) does not apply

(6) Subsection 183.1(2) does not apply if none of the purposes of the transaction or series of transactions or events referred to therein may reasonably be considered, having regard to all the circumstances, to have been to enable shareholders of a corporation who are individuals or non-resident persons to receive an amount, directly or indirectly, as proceeds of disposition of property rather than as a dividend on a share that was of a class that was listed on a stock exchange or that was purchased and sold in the manner in which shares are normally purchased and sold by any member of the public in the open market.

Where s. 110.6(8) does not apply

(7) Where this section has been applied in respect of an amount, subsection 110.6(8) does not apply to the capital gain in respect of which the amount formed all or a part of the proceeds of disposition.

NOTE: Application provisions are not included in the consolidated text; see relevant amending Acts. R.S., 1985, c. 1 (5th Supp.), s. 183.1; 2003, c. 15, s. 119.

Non-application du par. (2)

(6) Le paragraphe (2) ne s'applique pas s'il est raisonnable de considérer, compte tenu des circonstances, qu'aucun des objets de l'opération ou de la série d'opérations ou d'événements en question ne consiste à permettre aux actionnaires d'une société qui sont des particuliers ou des personnes non-résidentes de recevoir un montant, directement ou indirectement, comme produit de disposition d'un bien plutôt que comme dividende sur une action d'une catégorie cotée en bourse ou sur une action achetée et vendue de la façon qu'une action semblable serait normalement achetée et vendue par le public sur le marché libre.

Non-application du par. 110.6(8)

(7) Dans le cas où le présent article s'applique à un montant, le paragraphe 110.6(8) ne s'applique pas au gain en capital au titre duquel le montant représente tout ou partie du produit de disposition.

amount of any dividend payable by it on shares of any class of its capital stock (in this section referred to as the "original dividend") and the full amount of the original dividend exceeds the portion of the original dividend deemed by that subsection to be a capital dividend or capital gains dividend, as the case may be, the corporation shall, at the time of the election, pay a tax under this Part equal to 3/5 of the excess.

(2.1) [Repealed, 2013, c. 34, s. 327]

Election to treat excess as separate dividend

(3) If, in respect of an original dividend payable at a particular time, a corporation would, but for this subsection, be required to pay a tax under this Part in respect of an excess referred to in subsection (2), and the corporation elects in prescribed manner on or before the day that is 90 days after the day of sending of the notice of assessment in respect of the tax that would otherwise be payable under this Part, the following rules apply:

(a) the portion of the original dividend deemed by subsection 83(2), 130.1(4) or 131(1) to be a capital dividend or capital gains dividend, as the case may be, is deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the amount of a separate dividend that became payable at the particular time;

(2.1) [Abrogé, 2013, ch. 34, art. 327]

Choix de considérer l'excédent comme un dividende distinct

(3) Dans le cas où une société serait tenue, en l'absence du présent paragraphe, de payer, en vertu de la présente partie, à l'égard d'un dividende initial payable à un moment donné, un impôt au titre de l'excédent visé au paragraphe (2), les règles ci-après s'appliquent si la société en fait le choix selon les modalités réglementaires au plus tard le quatre-vingt-dixième jour suivant la date d'envoi de l'avis de cotisation relatif à l'impôt payable par ailleurs en vertu de la présente partie :

a) la partie du dividende initial qui est réputée, par le paragraphe 83(2), 130.1(4) ou 131(1), être un dividende en capital ou un dividende sur les gains en capital, selon le cas, est réputée, pour l'application de la présente loi, être un dividende distinct qui est devenu payable au moment donné;

b) la partie de l'excédent que la société a désignée dans son choix est réputée, pour l'application d'un choix concernant cette partie fait en vertu du paragraphe 83(2), 130.1(4) ou 131(1), et, si la société fait un tel choix, pour l'application de la présente loi, être un dividende distinct qui est devenu payable immédiatement après le moment donné;

c) la partie de l'excédent qui excède la partie réputée, par l'alinéa b), être un dividende distinct pour l'application de la présente loi est réputée être un dividende imposable distinct qui est devenu payable au moment donné;

(i) n'avoir reçu aucune partie du dividende initial,

(ii) avoir reçu, au moment où un dividende distinct déterminé selon l'un des alinéas a) à c) est devenu payable, la proportion de ce dividende que représente le rapport entre le nombre d'actions de cette catégorie qu'elle détenait au moment donné et le

(3.1) and (3.2) [Repealed, 2013, c. 34, s. 327]

Concurrence with election

(4) An election under subsection (3) is valid only if

(a) it is made with the concurrence of the corporation and all its shareholders

(i) who received or were entitled to receive all or any portion of the original dividend, and

(ii) whose addresses were known to the corporation; and

(b) either

(i) it is made on or before the day that is 30 months after the day on which the original dividend became payable, or

(ii) each shareholder described in subparagraph (a)(i) concurs with the election, in which case, notwithstanding subsections 152(4) to (5), any assessment of the tax, interest and penalties payable by each of those shareholders for any taxation year shall be made that is necessary to take the corporation's election into account.

Exception for non-taxable shareholders

(5) If each person who, in respect of an election made under subsection (3), is deemed by subsection (3) to have received a dividend at a particular time is also, at the particular time, a person all of whose taxable income is exempt from tax under Part I,

(a) subsection (4) does not apply to the election; and

(b) the election is valid only if it is made on or before the day that is 30 months after the day on which the original dividend became payable.

185 (1) The Minister shall, with all due dispatch, examine each election made by a corporation in accordance with subsection 83(2), 130.1(4) or 131(1), assess the tax, if any, payable under this Part in respect of the election and send a notice of assessment to the corporation.

nombre d'actions de cette catégorie qui étaient en circulation à ce moment; toutefois, pour l'application de la partie XIII, le dividende distinct est réputé être versé le jour où le choix prévu au présent paragraphe est fait.

(3.1) et (3.2) [Abrogés, 2013, ch. 34, art. 327]

Approbation du choix

(4) Le choix prévu au paragraphe (3) n'est valide que si, à la fois :

a) il est fait avec l'assentiment de la société et de ceux de ses actionnaires — dont la société connaissait les adresses — qui ont reçu ou avaient le droit de recevoir tout ou partie du dividende initial;

b) l'une des conditions ci-après est remplie :

(i) le choix est fait au plus tard le jour qui suit de 30 mois le jour où le dividende initial est devenu payable,

(ii) chaque actionnaire qui a reçu ou avait le droit le recevoir tout ou partie du dividende initial a donné son assentiment au choix, auquel cas le ministre établit, malgré les paragraphes 152(4) à (5), les cotisations voulues concernant l'impôt, les intérêts et les pénalités payables par chacun de ces actionnaires pour une année d'imposition pour tenir compte du choix de la société.

Exception — actionnaires non assujettis à l'impôt

(5) Si chaque personne qui est réputée par le paragraphe (3) avoir reçu un dividende à un moment donné en raison du choix prévu à ce paragraphe est aussi, à ce moment, une personne dont le revenu imposable est exonéré de l'impôt prévu à la partie I, les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

a) le paragraphe (4) ne s'applique pas au choix;

b) le choix n'est valide que s'il est fait au plus tard le jour qui suit de 30 mois le jour où le dividende initial est devenu payable.

Cotisation

185 (1) Le ministre examine avec diligence chaque choix que fait une société conformément au paragraphe 83(2), 130.1(4) ou 131(1), établit en tenant compte de ce choix l'impôt éventuel payable en vertu de la présente partie et envoie un avis de cotisation à la société.

Payment of tax and interest

(2) Where an election has been made by a corporation in accordance with subsection 83(2), 130.1(4) or 131(1) and the Minister mails a notice of assessment under this Part in respect of the election, that part of the amount assessed then remaining unpaid and interest thereon at the prescribed rate computed from the day of the election to the day of payment is payable forthwith by the corporation to the Receiver General.

Provisions applicable to Part

(3) Subsections 152(3), 152(4), 152(5), 152(7) and 152(8) and 161(11), sections 163 to 167 and Division J of Part I are applicable to this Part with such modifications as the circumstances require.

Joint and several, or solidary, liability from excessive elections

(4) Each person who has received a dividend from a corporation in respect of which the corporation elected under subsection 83(2), 130.1(4) or 131(1) is jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable with the corporation to pay that proportion of the corporation's tax payable under this Part because of the election that

(a) the amount of the dividend received by the person

(b) the full amount of the dividend in respect of which the election was made, but nothing in this subsection limits the liability of any person under any other provision of this Act.

Assessment

(5) The Minister may, at any time after the last day on which a corporation may make an election under subsection 184(3) in respect of a dividend, assess a person in respect of any amount payable under subsection 185(4) in respect of the dividend, and the provisions of Division I of Part I apply, with such modifications as the circumstances require, to an assessment made under this subsection as though it were made under section 152.

Rules applicable

(6) If under subsection (4) a corporation and another person have become jointly and severally, or solidarily, liable to pay part or all of the corporation's tax payable under this Part in respect of a dividend described in that subsection,

Paiement de l'impôt et des intérêts

(2) Lorsqu'une société fait un choix conformément au paragraphe 83(2), 130.1(4) ou 131(1) et que le ministre poste un avis de cotisation en vertu de la présente partie qui tient compte de ce choix, la société doit payer immédiatement au receveur général la partie impayée du montant établi dans l'avis ainsi que les intérêts y afférents calculés au taux prescrit pour la période allant de la date du choix à la date du paiement.

Dispositions applicables

(3) Les paragraphes 152(3), (4), (5), (7) et (8) et 161(11), les articles 163 à 167 et la section J de la partie I s'appliquent à la présente partie, avec les adaptations nécessaires.

Responsabilité solidaire

(4) Toute personne qui a reçu d'une société un dividende visé par un choix fait en application des paragraphes 83(2), 130.1(4) ou 131(1) est solidairement tenue, avec la société, de payer la fraction de l'impôt payable par la société en vertu de la présente partie par suite du choix, représentée par le rapport entre :

a) d'une part, le montant du dividende reçu par la personne;

b) d'autre part, le plein montant du dividende visé par le choix.

Toutefois, le présent paragraphe n'a pas pour effet de limiter la responsabilité d'une personne en vertu d'une autre disposition de la présente loi.

Cotisation

(5) Le ministre peut, à un moment postérieur au dernier jour où une société peut faire le choix prévu au paragraphe 184(3) relativement à un dividende, établir une cotisation à l'égard d'une personne concernant un montant payable en vertu du paragraphe (4) relativement au dividende. Dès lors, les dispositions de la section I de la partie I s'appliquent à la cotisation, avec les adaptions nécessaires, comme si elle avait été établie en application de l'article 152.

Règles applicables

(6) Dans le cas où une société et une autre personne sont solidairement tenues, par application du paragraphe (4), de payer tout ou partie de l'impôt payable par la société en vertu de la présente partie relativement à un dividende visé à ce paragraphe, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

(a) a payment at any time by the other person on account of the liability shall, to the extent of the payment, discharge their liability after that time; and

(b) a payment at any time by the corporation on account of its liability shall discharge the other person's liability only to the extent of the amount determined by the formula

(ii) the amount of the payment,

B is the amount of the corporation's liability, immediately before that time, under this Act,

C is the amount of the dividend received by the other person, and

a) tout paiement fait par l'autre personne à un moment donné au titre de l'obligation éteint d'autant leur obligation après ce moment;

b) tout paiement fait par la société à un moment donné au titre de son obligation n'éteint l'obligation de l'autre personne qu'à concurrence du résultat du calcul suivant :

(A - B) × C/D

où :

A représente le total du montant du paiement et du montant de l'obligation de la société en vertu de la présente partie, immédiatement avant ce moment, au titre du plein montant du dividende,

B le montant de l'obligation de la société en vertu de la présente loi immédiatement avant ce moment,

(4) The Minister may, at any time after the last day on which a corporation may make an election under subsection 185.1(2) in respect of an excessive eligible dividend designation, assess a person in respect of any amount payable under subsection (3) in respect of the designation, and the provisions of Division I of Part I (including, for greater certainty, the provisions in respect of interest payable) apply, with any modifications that the circumstances require, to an assessment made under this subsection as though it were made under section 152.

Avoidance of divestiture

(3.2) If, at the end of a taxation year, a private foundation would — but for a transaction or series of transactions entered into by the private foundation or a relevant person in respect of the private foundation (in this subsection referred to as the "holder") a result of which is that the holder holds, directly or indirectly, an interest (or for civil law, a right), in a corporation other than shares — have a divestment obligation percentage for that taxation year in respect of the private foundation's holdings of a class of shares of the capital stock of the corporation, and it can reasonably be considered that a purpose of the transaction or series is to avoid that divestment obligation percentage by substituting shares of the class for that interest or right, for the purposes of applying this section, subsection 149.1(1) and section 149.2,

(a) each of those interests or rights is deemed to have been converted, immediately after the time it was first held, directly or indirectly by the holder, into that number of shares of that class that would, if those shares were shares of the class that were issued by the corporation, have a fair market value equal to the fair market value of the interest or right at that time;

(b) each such share is deemed to be a share that is issued by the corporation and outstanding and to continue to be held by the holder until such time as the holder no longer holds the interest or right; and

(c) each of those shares is deemed to have a fair market value, at the particular time, equal to the fair market value, at the particular time, of a share of the class issued by the corporation, determined without reference to this subsection.

Évitement de l'obligation de dessaisissement

(3.2) Dans le cas où une fondation privée aurait à la fin d'une année d'imposition — en l'absence d'une opération ou d'une série d'opérations effectuée par elle ou par une personne intéressée quant à elle (appelées « détenteur » au présent paragraphe) par suite de laquelle le détenteur détient, directement ou indirectement, un intérêt ou, pour l'application du droit civil, un droit dans une société qui n'est pas sous forme d'actions — un pourcentage de dessaisissement pour l'année relativement aux actions qu'elle détient d'une catégorie du capital-actions d'une société, et où il est raisonnable de considérer que l'un des objets de l'opération ou de la série consiste à éviter ce pourcentage de dessaisissement en substituant cet intérêt ou ce droit aux actions de la catégorie, les règles ci-après s'appliquent dans le cadre du présent article, du paragraphe 149.1(1) et de l'article 149.2 :

a) chacun des intérêts ou droits en cause est réputé avoir été converti, immédiatement après le moment où il est détenu pour la première fois, directement ou indirectement, par le détenteur, en un nombre d'actions de la catégorie qui, s'il s'agissait d'actions de la catégorie qui ont été émises par la société, auraient une juste valeur marchande égale à celle de l'intérêt ou du droit à ce moment;

b) chacune des actions en cause est réputée être une action émise par la société qui est en circulation et qui continue d'être détenue par le détenteur jusqu'à ce qu'il ne soit plus détenteur de l'intérêt ou du droit;

c) chacune des actions en cause est réputée avoir une juste valeur marchande, au moment considéré, égale à la juste valeur marchande, à ce moment, d'une action de la catégorie émise par la société, déterminée compte non tenu du présent paragraphe.

Where subsection (3.5) applies

(3.3) Subsection (3.5) applies to a private foundation at a particular time in a taxation year if

(b) at or before the particular time

(i) the insider acquired an interest in or under the trust, or

(ii) the trust acquired a property;

(c) it may reasonably be considered that a purpose of the acquisition described in paragraph (b) was to hold, directly or indirectly, shares of a class of the capital stock of a corporation (referred to in subsection (3.5) as the "subject corporation");

(d) the shares described in paragraph (c) would, if they were held by the insider, cause the private foundation to have a divestment obligation percentage for the taxation year; and

(e) at the particular time, the insider holds the interest described in subparagraph (b)(i), or the trust holds the property described in subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be.

Application du par. (3.5)

(3.3) Le paragraphe (3.5) s'applique à une fondation privée à un moment donné d'une année d'imposition si les conditions suivantes sont réunies :

a) au moment donné, une personne (appelée « initié » au présent paragraphe et au paragraphe (3.5)) qui est la fondation ou une personne intéressée quant à elle est bénéficiaire d'une fiducie;

b) au moment donné ou avant ce moment, selon le cas :

(i) l'initié a acquis une participation dans la fiducie,

(ii) la fiducie a acquis un bien;

c) il est raisonnable de considérer que l'acquisition visée à l'alinéa b) a été effectuée notamment afin de détenir, directement ou indirectement, des actions d'une catégorie du capital-actions d'une société (appelée « société visée » au paragraphe (3.5));

d) si les actions visées à l'alinéa c) étaient détenues par l'initié, la fondation aurait un pourcentage de dessaisissement pour l'année;

e) au moment donné, l'initié détient la participation visée au sous-alinéa b)(i), ou la fiducie détient le bien visé au sous-alinéa b)(ii), selon le cas.

(b) if the amount of income or capital of the trust that a person may receive as a beneficiary under the trust depends on the exercise by any person of, or the failure by any person to exercise, a discretionary power, that person is deemed to have fully exercised, or to have failed to exercise, the power, as the case may be.

Règles applicables

(3.4) Pour l'application des paragraphes (3.3) et (3.5) :

b) si le montant de revenu ou de capital de la fiducie qu'une personne peut recevoir à titre de bénéficiaire de la fiducie est fonction de l'exercice ou de l'absence d'exercice, par quiconque, d'un pouvoir discrétionnaire, ce pouvoir est réputé, selon le cas, avoir été pleinement exercé ou ne pas avoir été exercé.

Interprétation

(2) Pour l'application du paragraphe (1), un placement admissible d'une société dans une institution financière est une action du capital-actions ou une dette du passif à long terme (et, si la société est une compagnie d'assurance, un bien non réservé au sens du paragraphe 138(12)) de l'institution financière ou tout surplus de celle-ci apporté par la société (sauf un montant inclus par ailleurs à titre d'action ou de dette) si l'institution financière répond aux conditions suivantes à la fin de l'année :

a) elle est liée à la société;

b) elle réside au Canada ou il est raisonnable de considérer qu'elle utilise le surplus ou le produit de l'action ou de la dette dans le cadre d'une entreprise qu'elle exploite par l'entremise d'un établissement stable, au sens du Règlement de l'impôt sur le revenu, au Canada.

Related financial institution

(2) A corporation that is a financial institution at any time during a taxation year and that was related to another financial institution at the end of the year may file with the Minister an agreement in prescribed form on behalf of the related group of which the corporation is a member under which an amount that does not exceed $1 billion is allocated among the members of the related group for the taxation year.

Allocation by Minister

(3) The Minister may request a corporation that is a financial institution at any time during a taxation year and that was related to any other financial institution at the end of the year to file with the Minister an agreement referred to in subsection (2) and, if the corporation does not file such an agreement within 30 days after receiving the request, the Minister may allocate an amount among the members of the related group of which the corporation is a member for the year not exceeding $1 billion.

Idem

(4) For the purposes of this Part, the least amount allocated for a taxation year to each member of a related group under an agreement described in subsection 190.15(2) or by the Minister pursuant to subsection 190.15(3) is the capital deduction for the taxation year of that member, but, if no such allocation is made, the capital deduction of each member of the related group for that year is nil.

Idem

(5) Where a corporation (in this subsection referred to as the "first corporation") has more than one taxation year ending in the same calendar year and is related in 2 or more of those taxation years to another corporation that has a taxation year ending in that calendar year, the capital deduction of the first corporation for each such taxation year at the end of which it is related to the other corporation is, for the purposes of this Part, an amount equal to its capital deduction for the first such taxation year.

Répartition par le ministre

(3) Le ministre peut demander à la société qui est une institution financière au cours d'une année d'imposition et qui est liée à une autre institution financière à la fin de l'année de lui présenter l'accord visé au paragraphe (2). Si la société ne présente pas cet accord dans les 30 jours suivant la réception de la demande, le ministre peut répartir pour l'année, entre les membres du groupe lié dont la société est membre, une somme n'excédant pas 1 000 000 000 $.

Idem

(4) Pour l'application de la présente partie, le montant le moins élevé qui est attribué, pour une année d'imposition, à chaque membre d'un groupe lié selon l'accord visé au paragraphe (2) ou par le ministre conformément au paragraphe (3) représente l'abattement de capital du membre pour cette année; si aucune répartition n'est faite, l'abattement de capital de chaque membre du groupe lié est nul pour cette année.

Idem

(5) Lorsque plus d'une année d'imposition d'une société donnée se termine au cours de la même année civile et que la société est liée, au cours d'au moins deux de ces années, à une autre société dont une des années d'imposition se termine au cours de cette année civile, l'abattement de capital de la société donnée pour chacune de ces années d'imposition à la fin desquelles elle est liée à l'autre société correspond, pour l'application de la présente partie, à son abattement de capital pour la première de ces années.

Idem

(6) Pour l'application du présent article et de l'article 190.14, sont réputées ne pas être liées entre elles deux sociétés qui, si ce n'était le présent paragraphe, seraient liées du seul fait que Sa Majesté du chef du Canada ou d'une province contrôle une société ou qu'il existe un droit visé à l'alinéa 251(5)b). Toutefois, lorsque, à un

(b) a right referred to in paragraph 251(5)(b), chaque catégorie qui n'a pas été choisie en application du paragraphe 191.2(1), sur l'excédent éventuel de l'exemption pour dividendes applicable à la société pour l'année sur le total des dividendes visés aux sous-alinéas (i) et (ii),

(iv) le total des montants dont chacun représente pour la société un montant déterminé pour l'année en application de l'alinéa 191.3(1)b);

Dividend allowance

(2) For the purposes of this section, a taxable Canadian corporation's dividend allowance for a taxation year is the amount, if any, by which

(a) $500,000

exceeds

unless the corporation is associated in the taxation year with one or more other taxable Canadian corporations, in which case, except as otherwise provided in this section, its dividend allowance for the year is nil.

Exemption pour dividendes

(2) Pour l'application du présent article, l'exemption pour dividendes applicable à une société canadienne imposable pour une année d'imposition est l'excédent éventuel de 500 000 $ sur l'excédent éventuel du total des dividendes imposables, sauf des dividendes exclus, versés par la société sur des actions privilégiées imposables ou sur des actions qui en seraient si elles étaient émises après le 18 juin 1987 et si elles n'étaient pas des actions de régime transitoire, au cours de l'année civile qui précède celle au cours de laquelle l'année d'imposition se termine, sur 1 000 000 $. Toutefois, si au cours de l'année d'imposition la société est associée avec une ou plusieurs autres sociétés canadiennes imposables, l'exemption pour dividendes qui lui est applicable pour l'année est nulle, sauf disposition contraire du présent article.

Associated corporations

(3) If all of the taxable Canadian corporations that are associated with each other in a taxation year and that have paid taxable dividends (other than excluded dividends) on taxable preferred shares in the year have filed with the Minister in prescribed form an agreement whereby, for the purposes of this section, they allocate an amount to one or more of them for the taxation year, and the amount so allocated or the total of the amounts so allocated, as the case may be, is equal to the total dividend allowance for the year of those corporations and all other taxable Canadian corporations with which each such corporation is associated in the year, the dividend allowance for the year for each of the corporations is the amount so allocated to it.

Sociétés associées

(3) Si toutes les sociétés canadiennes imposables qui sont associées entre elles au cours d'une année d'imposition au cours de laquelle elles ont versé des dividendes imposables, sauf des dividendes exclus, sur des actions privilégiées imposables présentent au ministre, sur formulaire prescrit, une convention qui prévoit, pour l'application du présent article, l'attribution à l'une d'elles ou la répartition entre plusieurs d'entre elles de l'exemption totale pour dividendes applicable pour l'année à celles-ci et à toutes les autres sociétés canadiennes imposables avec qui chacune d'elles est associée au cours de l'année, l'exemption pour dividendes applicable à chaque société pour l'année est le montant qui lui est ainsi attribué.

Total dividend allowance

(4) For the purposes of this section, the total dividend allowance of a group of taxable Canadian corporations

Exemption totale pour dividendes

(4) Pour l'application du présent article, l'exemption totale pour dividendes applicable à un groupe de sociétés canadiennes imposables associées entre elles au cours that are associated with each other in a taxation year is the amount, if any, by which

(a) $500,000

(b) the amount, if any, by which the total of taxable dividends (other than excluded dividends) paid by those corporations on taxable preferred shares, or shares that would be taxable preferred shares if they were issued after June 18, 1987 and were not grandfathered shares, in the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in which the taxation year ended exceeds $1,000,000.

d'une année d'imposition est l'excédent éventuel de 500 000 $ sur l'excédent éventuel du total des dividendes imposables, sauf des dividendes exclus, que ces sociétés ont versés sur des actions privilégiées imposables ou sur des actions qui en seraient si elles étaient émises après le 18 juin 1987 et si elles n'étaient pas des actions de régime transitoire, au cours de l'année civile qui précède celle au cours de laquelle l'année d'imposition se termine, sur 1 000 000 $.

Failure to file agreement

(5) If any of the taxable Canadian corporations that are associated with each other in a taxation year and that have paid taxable dividends (other than excluded dividends) on taxable preferred shares in the year has failed to file with the Minister an agreement as contemplated by subsection 191.1(3) within 30 days after notice in writing by the Minister has been forwarded to any of them that such an agreement is required for the purpose of any assessment of tax under this Part, the Minister shall, for the purpose of this section, allocate an amount to one or more of them for the taxation year, which amount or the total of which amounts, as the case may be, shall equal the total dividend allowance for the year for those corporations and all other taxable Canadian corporations with which each such corporation is associated in the year, and the dividend allowance for the year of each of the corporations is the amount so allocated to it.

Répartition par le ministre

(5) Si l'une des sociétés canadiennes imposables qui sont associées entre elles au cours d'une année d'imposition au cours de laquelle elles ont versé des dividendes imposables, sauf des dividendes exclus, sur des actions privilégiées imposables ne présente pas la convention visée au paragraphe (3) dans les 30 jours suivant l'avis écrit du ministre envoyé à l'une d'elles portant qu'une telle convention est nécessaire à l'établissement d'une cotisation concernant l'impôt en vertu de la présente partie, le ministre doit, pour l'application du présent article, attribuer à l'une d'elles ou répartir entre plusieurs d'entre elles pour l'année l'exemption totale pour dividendes applicable pour l'année à celles-ci et aux autres sociétés avec qui chacune d'elles est associée au cours de l'année. L'exemption pour dividendes applicable à chaque société pour l'année est alors le montant qui lui est ainsi attribué.

Dividend allowance in short years

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section,

(a) where a corporation has a taxation year that is less than 51 weeks, its dividend allowance for the year is that proportion of its dividend allowance for the year determined without reference to this paragraph that the number of days in the year is of 365; and

(b) where a taxable Canadian corporation (in this paragraph referred to as the "first corporation") has more than one taxation year ending in a calendar year and is associated in two or more of those taxation years with another taxable Canadian corporation that has a taxation year ending in that calendar year, the dividend allowance of the first corporation for each taxation year in which it is associated with the other corporation ending in that calendar year is, subject to the application of paragraph 191.1(6)(a), an amount equal to the amount that would be its dividend

Exemption pour dividendes pour une année d'imposition de courte durée

(6) Malgré les autres dispositions du présent article :

a) l'exemption pour dividendes applicable à une société pour une année d'imposition qui compte moins de 51 semaines est réduite en proportion du nombre de jours de l'année par rapport à 365;

b) dans le cas où une société canadienne imposable compte plus d'une année d'imposition se terminant au cours d'une même année civile et où elle est associée dans au moins deux de ces années d'imposition à une autre société canadienne imposable dont l'année d'imposition se termine au cours de cette année civile, l'exemption pour dividendes applicable à la société pour chaque année d'imposition dans laquelle elle est associée à l'autre société et qui se termine au cours de cette année civile est, sous réserve de l'application de l'alinéa a), égale à l'exemption pour dividendes qui lui serait applicable pour la première de ces années

où :

F représente le moins élevé des montants suivants :

(1.31) For the purposes of the description of F in paragraph (1.3)(a), a qualifying group plan amount in respect of an individual is a premium paid under a registered retirement savings plan or an amount contributed by an employer or former employer of the individual to an account of the individual under a pooled registered pension plan if

(a) the plan is part of a qualifying arrangement or is a pooled registered pension plan,

(b) the premium or contribution is an amount to which the individual is entitled for services rendered by the individual (whether or not as an employee), and

(c) the premium or contribution was remitted to the plan on behalf of the individual by the person or body of persons that is required to remunerate the individual for the services, or by an agent for that person or body, but does not include the part, if any, of a premium or contribution that, by making (or failing to make) an election or exercising (or failing to exercise) any other right under the plan after beginning to participate in the plan and within 12 months before the time the premium was paid or the contribution was made, the individual could have prevented the premium or contribution and that would not as a consequence have been required to be remitted on behalf of the individual to another registered retirement savings plan or pooled registered pension plan or to a money purchase provision of a registered pension plan.

Montant admissible relatif à un régime collectif

(1.31) Pour l'application de l'élément F de la formule figurant à l'alinéa (1.3)a), est un montant admissible relatif à un régime collectif quant à un particulier une prime versée dans le cadre d'un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite ou une cotisation versée au compte du particulier dans le cadre d'un régime de pension agréé collectif par son employeur ou ancien employeur si, à la fois :

c) la prime ou la cotisation a été versée au régime pour le compte du particulier par la personne ou le groupe de personnes qui est tenu de le rémunérer pour les services, ou par le mandataire de cette personne ou de ce groupe.

N'est pas un montant admissible relatif à un régime collectif la partie d'une prime ou d'une cotisation dont le particulier aurait pu empêcher le versement dans le cadre du régime en faisant ou en s'abstenant de faire un choix ou en exerçant ou en s'abstenant d'exercer un autre droit dans le cadre du régime après le début de sa participation à celui-ci et dans les douze mois précédant le versement de la prime ou de la cotisation et qui, en conséquence, n'aurait pas été à verser pour le compte du particulier à un autre régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite ou régime de pension agréé collectif ou à une disposition à cotisations déterminées d'un régime de pension agréé.

Qualifying arrangement

(1.32) For the purpose of paragraph 204.2(1.31)(a), a qualifying arrangement is an arrangement under which premiums that satisfy the conditions in paragraphs 204.2(1.31)(b) and 204.2(1.31)(c) are remitted to registered retirement savings plans on behalf of two or more individuals, but does not include an arrangement where it is reasonable to consider that one of the main purposes of the arrangement is to reduce tax payable under this Part.

Arrangement admissible

(1.32) Pour l'application de l'alinéa (1.31)a), un arrangement admissible est un arrangement dans le cadre duquel des primes, qui remplissent les conditions énoncées aux alinéas (1.31)b) et c), sont versées à des régimes enregistrés d'épargne-retraite pour le compte de plusieurs particuliers. Règle anti-évitement — catégorie transfrontalière

(6) Une catégorie donnée des actions d'une société résidente ou d'une société de substitution admissible qui, en l'absence du présent paragraphe, serait une catégorie transfrontalière relativement à un placement est réputée ne pas être une catégorie transfrontalière relativement au placement si les faits ci-après s'avèrent :

(I) le financement donne lieu à une augmentation, égale aux fonds reçus, du capital versé au titre des actions d'une catégorie d'actions du capital-actions de la société donnée ou de l'autre société qui est une catégorie transfrontalière relativement au placement,

(II) l'augmentation visée à la sous-division (I) est survenue au plus tard au moment de la majoration du capital versé au titre de la catégorie donnée;

b) il est raisonnable de considérer que l'un des principaux motifs de l'acquisition ou du financement, selon le cas, était l'augmentation de la somme à déduire en application des alinéas (7)b) ou c) dans le calcul du capital versé au titre des actions de la catégorie donnée qui appartiennent à la société donnée.

Reduction of deemed dividend

(a) where the CRIC demonstrates — in respect of one or more classes of shares of the capital stock of the CRIC, or of a qualifying substitute corporation, all the issued and outstanding shares of which are owned, immediately after the dividend time in respect of the investment, by persons that deal at arm's length with the CRIC — that an amount of paid-up capital in respect of each of the classes arose as a consequence of one or more transfers of property, directly or indirectly, to the CRIC and that all of the property transferred was used by the CRIC to make, in whole or in part, the investment (or, in the case of an investment described in paragraph (10)(f), the direct acquisition referred to in that paragraph), then

(i) the amount, determined without reference to this subsection, of the dividend deemed under paragraph (2)(a) to have been paid and received, is reduced by the lesser of

(A) that amount, and

(B) the total of all amounts of paid-up capital so demonstrated by the CRIC, and

(ii) in computing the paid-up capital in respect of each class described in this paragraph, at any time after the dividend time, there is to be deducted an amount equal to the portion of the amount determined under subparagraph (i) that can reasonably be considered to relate to that class;

Réduction d'un dividende réputé

(7) En cas d'application de l'alinéa (2)a) à un placement qu'une société résidente fait dans une société déterminée, les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

a) si la société résidente démontre — à l'égard d'au moins une catégorie des actions de son capital-actions, ou de celui d'une société de substitution admissible, dont les actions émises et en circulation appartiennent en totalité, à un moment immédiatement postérieur au moment du dividende relatif au placement, à des personnes qui n'ont pas de lien de dépendance avec la société résidente — qu'une partie du capital versé au titre de chacune des catégories d'actions est le résultat d'au moins un transfert direct ou indirect de biens à la société résidente et que tous les biens ainsi transférés ont été utilisés par celle-ci pour faire, en tout ou en partie, le placement (ou, dans le cas d'un placement visé à l'alinéa (10)f), l'acquisition directe visée par cet alinéa), auquel cas les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

(i) le montant, déterminé compte non tenu du présent paragraphe, du dividende réputé en application de l'alinéa (2)a) avoir été versé et reçu est réduit par la moindre des sommes suivantes :

(A) ce montant,

(B) le total des sommes au titre du capital versé ainsi démontrées par la société résidente,

(ii) est déduite, dans le calcul du capital versé au titre de chaque catégorie visée au présent alinéa effectué à un moment postérieur au moment du dividende, une somme égale à la partie du montant déterminé selon le sous-alinéa (i) qu'il est raisonnable de considérer comme étant liée à cette catégorie;

(b) where the amount, determined without reference to this paragraph, of the dividend deemed under paragraph (2)(a) to have been paid and received is equal to or greater than the total of all amounts each of which is an amount of paid-up capital immediately after the dividend time, determined without reference to this paragraph, of a cross-border class in respect of the investment, then

(i) the amount of the dividend is reduced by the total referred to in this paragraph, and

(ii) in computing, at any time after the dividend time, the paid-up capital in respect of each cross-border class in respect of the investment, there is to be deducted an amount equal to the paid-up capital in respect of that class immediately after the dividend time, determined without reference to this paragraph;

(c) where paragraph (b) does not apply and there is at least one cross-border class in respect of the investment,

(i) the amount, determined without reference to this paragraph, of the dividend is reduced to nil,

(ii) in computing, at any time after the dividend time, the paid-up capital in respect of a particular cross-border class in respect of the investment, there is to be deducted the amount, if any, that when added to the total of all amounts that are deducted under this paragraph in computing the paid-up capital of other cross-border classes, results in the greatest total reduction because of this paragraph, immediately after the dividend time, of the paid-up capital in respect of shares of cross-border classes that are owned by the parent or another non-resident corporation with which the parent does not, at the dividend time, deal at arm's length,

(iii) if the proportion of the shares of a particular class owned, in aggregate, by the parent and non-resident corporations that do not deal at arm's length with the parent is equal to the proportion so owned of one or more other cross-border classes (in this subparagraph all those classes, together with the particular class, referred to as the "relevant classes"), then the proportion that the reduction under subparagraph (ii) to the paid-up capital in respect of the particular class is of the paid-up capital, determined immediately after the dividend time and without reference to this paragraph, in respect of that class is to be equal to the proportion that the

b) si le montant du dividende qui, en l'absence du présent alinéa, serait réputé en vertu de l'alinéa (2)a) avoir été versé et reçu est égal ou supérieur au total des sommes dont chacune représente un montant de capital versé, déterminé immédiatement après le moment du dividende et compte non tenu du présent alinéa, au titre d'une catégorie transfrontalière relativement au placement, les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

(i) le montant du dividende est réduit par le total des sommes visé au présent alinéa,

(ii) est déduite, dans le calcul — effectué après le moment du dividende — du capital versé au titre de chaque catégorie transfrontalière relativement au placement, une somme égale au capital versé au titre de cette catégorie immédiatement après le moment du dividende, déterminé compte non tenu du présent alinéa;

c) si l'alinéa b) ne s'applique pas et qu'il existe au moins une catégorie transfrontalière relativement au placement, les règles ci-après s'appliquent :

(i) le montant du dividende, déterminé compte non tenu du présent alinéa, est ramené à zéro,

(ii) est déduite, dans le calcul du capital versé au titre d'une catégorie transfrontalière donnée relativement au placement effectué après le moment du dividende, la somme qui, lorsqu'elle est ajoutée au total des sommes déduites en application du présent alinéa dans le calcul du capital versé au titre d'autres catégories transfrontalières, donne lieu à la réduction totale la plus élevée par l'effet du présent alinéa, immédiatement après le moment du dividende, du capital versé au titre d'actions de catégories transfrontalières qui appartiennent à la société mère ou à une autre société non-résidente avec laquelle celle-ci a un lien de dépendance au moment du dividende,

(iii) si la proportion des actions d'une catégorie d'actions donnée qui appartiennent à la société mère et aux sociétés non-résidentes qui ont un lien de dépendance avec la société mère est égale à la proportion des actions qui leur appartiennent d'au moins une autre catégorie transfrontalière (au présent sous-alinéa l'ensemble de ces catégories et de la catégorie donnée étant appelées conjointement « catégories pertinentes »), la proportion de la déduction opérée par l'effet du sous-alinéa (ii) du capital versé au titre d'actions de la catégorie donnée sur le capital versé, déterminé au moment immédiatement postérieur au moment du dividende et compte non tenu du présent alinéa, au titre de cette

(ii) if the form is not filed on or before the CRIC's filing-due date for its taxation year that includes the dividend time, the CRIC is deemed to have paid to the parent, and the parent is deemed to have received from the CRIC, on the filing-due date, a dividend equal to the total of all amounts each of which is the amount of a reduction because of any of subparagraphs (a)(i), (b)(i) and (c)(i).

Limitation on rate of branch tax

219.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where an agreement or convention between the Government of Canada and the government of another country that has the force of law in Canada

(a) does not limit the rate of tax under this Part on corporations resident in that other country, and

(b) provides that, where a dividend is paid by a corporation resident in Canada to a corporation resident in that other country that owns all of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation resident in Canada, the rate of tax imposed on the dividend shall not exceed a specified rate, any reference in section 219 to a rate of tax shall, in respect of a taxation year of a corporation to which that agreement or convention applies on the last day of that year, be read as a reference to the specified rate.

Restriction au taux de l'impôt de succursale

219.2 Malgré les autres dispositions de la présente loi, lorsqu'un accord ou une convention conclu entre le gouvernement du Canada et le gouvernement d'un autre pays et ayant force de loi au Canada :

a) d'une part, ne limite pas le taux d'imposition en vertu de la présente partie des sociétés résidant dans l'autre pays;

b) d'autre part, limite à un taux déterminé le taux d'imposition d'un dividende qu'une société résidant au Canada verse à une société résidant dans l'autre pays qui possède l'ensemble des actions du capital-actions de la société résidant au Canada, le taux déterminé remplace tout taux d'imposition mentionné à l'article 219 pour une année d'imposition d'une société à laquelle l'accord ou la convention s'applique le dernier jour de cette année.

Effect of tax treaty

219.3 For the purpose of section 219.1, where an agreement or convention between the Government of Canada and the government of another country that has the force of law in Canada provides that the rate of tax imposed on a dividend paid by a corporation resident in Canada to a corporation resident in the other country that owns all of the shares of the capital stock of the corporation resident in Canada shall not exceed a specified rate, the reference in section 219.1 to "25%" shall, in respect of a corporation that ceased to be resident in Canada and to which the agreement or convention applies at the beginning of its first taxation year after its taxation year that is deemed by paragraph 128.1(4)(a) to have ended, be read as a reference to the specified rate unless it can reasonably be concluded that one of the main reasons that the corporation became resident in the other country was to reduce the amount of tax payable under this Part or Part XIII.

NOTE: Application provisions are not included in the consolidated text; see relevant amending Acts. 1994, c. 21, s. 100; 1998, c. 19, s. 220.1.

Effet

219.3 Pour l'application de l'article 219.1, lorsqu'un accord ou une convention conclu entre le gouvernement du Canada et le gouvernement d'un autre pays et ayant force de loi au Canada limite à un taux déterminé le taux d'imposition d'un dividende qu'une société résidant au Canada verse à une société résidant dans l'autre pays qui possède l'ensemble des actions du capital-actions de la société résidant au Canada, la mention de 25 % à l'article 219.1 vaut mention du taux déterminé pour ce qui est d'une société qui a cessé de résider au Canada et à laquelle l'accord ou la convention s'applique au début de sa première année d'imposition suivant son année d'imposition qui est réputée par l'alinéa 128.1(4)a) avoir pris fin, sauf s'il est raisonnable de conclure que l'un des principaux motifs pour lesquels la société a commencé à résider dans l'autre pays était de réduire l'impôt payable en vertu de la présente partie ou de la partie XIII.

Garantie réputée

(4.51) Si un particulier (sauf une fiducie) fait un choix, aux termes du paragraphe (4.5), afin que ce paragraphe s'applique à une année d'imposition, le ministre est réputé, pour l'application du présent paragraphe et des paragraphes (4.5) et (4.52) à (4.54), avoir accepté, à un moment après que le choix est fait, une garantie suffisante pour un montant total d'impôts payables en vertu des parties I et I.1 par le particulier pour l'année de l'émigration, égale au moins élevé des montants suivants :

a) le montant total de ces impôts qui serait payable pour l'année par une fiducie résidant au Canada (sauf une succession assujettie à l'imposition à taux progressifs ou une fiducie admissible pour personne handicapée au sens du paragraphe 122(3)) dont le revenu imposable pour l'année s'établit à 50 000 $;

b) le montant le plus élevé pour lequel le ministre est tenu d'accepter une garantie fournie par le particulier ou en son nom aux termes du paragraphe (4.5) à ce moment pour l'année de l'émigration.

Cette garantie est réputée avoir été fournie par le particulier avant la date d'exigibilité du solde qui lui est applicable pour l'année de l'émigration.

Restriction

(4.52) Malgré les paragraphes (4.5) et (4.51), le ministre est réputé, à un moment donné, ne pas avoir accepté de garantie aux termes du paragraphe (4.5) pour l'année de l'émigration d'un particulier pour un montant supérieur à l'excédent éventuel du total visé à l'alinéa a) sur le total visé à l'alinéa b):

a) le total des impôts qui seraient payables par le particulier en vertu des parties I et I.1 pour l'année s'il n'était pas tenu compte de l'exclusion ou de la déduction de chaque montant visé à l'alinéa 161(7)a) relativement auquel le jour déterminé selon l'alinéa 161(7)b) est postérieur à ce moment;

b) le total des impôts qui seraient déterminés selon l'alinéa a) s'il n'était pas tenu compte du paragraphe 128.1(4).

Inadequate security

(4.53) Subject to subsection (4.7), if it is determined at any particular time that security accepted by the Minister under subsection (4.5) is not adequate to secure the particular amount for which it was furnished by or on behalf of an individual,

(a) subject to a subsequent application of this subsection, the security shall be considered after the particular time to secure only the amount for which it is adequate security at the particular time;

(b) the Minister shall notify the individual in writing of the determination and shall accept adequate security, for all or any part of the particular amount, furnished by or on behalf of the individual within 90 days after the day of notification; and

(c) any security accepted in accordance with paragraph (b) is deemed to have been accepted by the Minister under subsection (4.5) on account of the particular amount at the particular time.

Extension of time

(4.54) If in the opinion of the Minister it would be just and equitable to do so, the Minister may at any time extend

(a) the time for making an election under subsection (4.5);

(b) the time for furnishing and accepting security under subsection (4.5); or

(c) the 90-day period for the acceptance of security under paragraph (4.53)(b).

Security for tax on distributions of taxable Canadian property to non-resident beneficiaries

(4.6) Where

(a) solely because of the application of subsection 107(5), paragraphs 107(2)(a) to (c) do not apply to a distribution by a trust in a particular taxation year (in this section referred to as the trust's "distribution year") of taxable Canadian property, and

(b) the trust elects, in prescribed manner on or before the trust's balance-due day for the distribution year, that this subsection and subsections (4.61) to (4.63) apply in respect of the distribution year, the following rules apply:

Garantie insuffisante

(4.53) Sous réserve du paragraphe (4.7), lorsqu'il est déterminé à un moment donné que la garantie acceptée par le ministre aux termes du paragraphe (4.5) ne suffit pas à garantir le montant pour lequel elle a été fournie par un particulier ou en son nom, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) sous réserve de l'application ultérieure du présent paragraphe, la garantie est considérée, après le moment donné, ne porter que sur le montant pour lequel elle constitue une garantie suffisante à ce moment;

b) le ministre avise le particulier de la détermination par écrit et accepte une garantie suffisante pour tout ou partie du montant fournie, dans les 90 jours suivant cet avis, par le particulier ou en son nom;

c) toute garantie acceptée en conformité avec l'alinéa b) est réputée l'avoir été par le ministre aux termes du paragraphe (4.5) au titre du montant au moment donné.

Prorogation du délai

(4.54) Le ministre peut, à tout moment, proroger les délais ci-après s'il est d'avis qu'il est juste et équitable de le faire :

a) le délai de production du document concernant le choix prévu au paragraphe (4.5);

b) le délai de fourniture et d'acceptation de la garantie aux termes du paragraphe (4.5);

c) le délai de 90 jours fixé à l'alinéa (4.53)b).

Garantie pour l'impôt sur les attributions de biens canadiens imposables à des bénéficiaires non-résidents

(4.6) Dans le cas où les conditions suivantes sont réunies :

a) par le seul effet du paragraphe 107(5), les alinéas 107(2)a) à c) ne s'appliquent pas à une distribution de biens canadiens imposables effectuée par une fiducie au cours d'une année d'imposition (appelée « année de la distribution » au présent article);

b) la fiducie fait un choix, selon les modalités réglementaires et au plus tard à la date d'exigibilité du solde qui lui est applicable pour l'année de l'attribution, afin que le présent paragraphe et les paragraphes (4.61) à (4.63) s'appliquent à l'année de l'attribution,

les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

(c) the Minister shall, until the trust's balance-due day for a subsequent taxation year, accept adequate security furnished by or on behalf of the trust on or before the trust's balance-due day for the distribution year for the lesser of

(i) the amount determined by the formula

where

A is the total amount of taxes under Parts I and I.1 that would be payable by the trust for the distribution year if the exclusion or deduction of each amount referred to in paragraph 161(7)(a) were not taken into account,

B is the total amount of taxes under those Parts that would have been so payable if the rules in subsection 107(2) (other than the election referred to in that subsection) had applied to each disposition by the trust in the distribution year of property (other than property subsequently disposed of before the beginning of the subsequent year) to which paragraph (a) applies, and

C is the total of all amounts deemed under this or any other Act to have been paid on account of the trust's tax under this Part for the distribution year, and

(ii) where the subsequent year immediately follows the distribution year, the amount determined under subparagraph (i), and in any other case, the amount determined under this paragraph in respect of the trust for the taxation year that immediately precedes the subsequent year, and

(d) except for the purposes of subsections 161(2), (4) and (4.01),

(i) interest under this Act for any period that ends on the trust's balance-due day for the subsequent year and throughout which security is accepted by the Minister, and

(ii) any penalty under this Act computed with reference to the trust's tax payable for the year that was, without reference to this paragraph, unpaid shall be computed as if the particular amount for which adequate security has been accepted under this subsection were an amount paid by the trust on account of the particular amount.

c) le ministre accepte, jusqu'à la date d'exigibilité du solde applicable à la fiducie pour une année d'imposition ultérieure, une garantie suffisante fournie par la fiducie, ou en son nom, au plus tard à la date d'exigibilité du solde qui lui est applicable pour l'année de la distribution pour le moins élevé des montants suivants :

(i) le montant obtenu par la formule suivante :

A représente le total des impôts prévus par les parties I et I.1 qui seraient payables par la fiducie pour l'année de la distribution s'il n'était pas tenu compte de l'exclusion ou de la déduction de chaque montant visé à l'alinéa 161(7)a),

B le total des impôts prévus par ces parties qui auraient été ainsi payables si les règles énoncées au paragraphe 107(2) (sauf celle portant sur le choix prévu à ce paragraphe) s'étaient appliquées à chaque distribution, effectuée par la fiducie au cours de l'année de la distribution, de biens auxquels s'applique l'alinéa a) (sauf les biens dont il est disposé ultérieurement avant le début de l'année ultérieure),

C le total des montants réputés par la présente loi ou une autre loi avoir été payés au titre de l'impôt de la fiducie en vertu de la présente partie pour l'année de la distribution,

(ii) si l'année ultérieure suit immédiatement l'année de la distribution, le montant déterminé selon le sous-alinéa (i); sinon, le montant déterminé selon le présent alinéa relativement à la fiducie pour l'année d'imposition précédant l'année ultérieure;

d) sauf pour l'application des paragraphes 161(2), (4) et (4.01), les intérêts et pénalité ci-après sont calculés comme si le montant pour lequel la garantie suffisante a été acceptée aux termes du présent paragraphe était une somme payée par la fiducie au titre du montant :

(i) les intérêts calculés en vertu de la présente loi pour toute période se terminant à la date d'exigibilité du solde applicable à la fiducie pour l'année ultérieure et tout au long de laquelle la garantie est acceptée par le ministre,

(ii) toute pénalité prévue par la présente loi, calculée par rapport à l'impôt payable par la fiducie pour l'année qui était impayé, compte non tenu du présent alinéa.

Limit

(4.61) Notwithstanding subsection (4.6), the Minister is deemed at any time not to have accepted security under that subsection in respect of a trust's distribution year for any amount greater than the amount, if any, by which

(a) the total amount of taxes that would be payable by the trust under Parts I and I.1 for the year if the exclusion or deduction of each amount referred to in paragraph 161(7)(a), in respect of which the day determined under paragraph 161(7)(b) is after that time, were not taken into account

(b) the total amount of taxes that would be determined under paragraph (a) if paragraphs 107(2)(a) to (c) had applied to each distribution by the trust in the year of property to which paragraph (1)(a) applies.

Inadequate security

(4.62) Subject to subsection (4.7), where it is determined at any particular time that security accepted by the Minister under subsection (4.6) is not adequate to secure the particular amount for which it was furnished by or on behalf of a trust,

(a) subject to a subsequent application of this subsection, the security shall be considered after the particular time to secure only the amount for which it is adequate security at the particular time;

(b) the Minister shall notify the trust in writing of the determination and shall accept adequate security, for all or any part of the particular amount, furnished by or on behalf of the trust within 90 days after the notification; and

(c) any security accepted in accordance with paragraph (b) is deemed to have been accepted by the Minister under subsection (4.6) on account of the particular amount at the particular time.

Extension of time

(4.63) Where in the opinion of the Minister it would be just and equitable to do so, the Minister may at any time extend

(a) the time for making an election under subsection (4.6);

(b) the time for furnishing and accepting security under subsection (4.6); or

(c) the 90-day period for the acceptance of the security under paragraph (4.62)(b).

Restriction

(4.61) Malgré le paragraphe (4.6), le ministre est réputé, à un moment donné, ne pas avoir accepté de garantie aux termes de ce paragraphe pour l'année de la distribution d'une fiducie pour un montant supérieur à l'excédent du total visé à l'alinéa a) sur le total visé à l'alinéa b) :

a) le total des impôts qui seraient payables par la fiducie en vertu des parties I et I.1 pour l'année s'il n'était pas tenu compte de l'exclusion ou de la déduction de chaque montant visé à l'alinéa 161(7)a) relativement auquel le jour déterminé selon l'alinéa 161(7)b) est postérieur à ce moment;

b) le total des impôts qui seraient déterminés selon l'alinéa a) si les alinéas 107(2)a) à c) s'étaient appliqués à chaque distribution effectuée par la fiducie au cours de l'année de biens auxquels s'applique l'alinéa (1)a).

Garantie insuffisante

(4.62) Sous réserve du paragraphe (4.7), lorsqu'il est déterminé à un moment donné que la garantie acceptée par le ministre aux termes du paragraphe (4.6) ne suffit pas à garantir le montant pour lequel elle a été fournie par une fiducie ou en son nom, les règles suivantes s'appliquent :

a) sous réserve de l'application ultérieure du présent paragraphe, la garantie est considérée, après le moment donné, ne porter que sur le montant pour lequel elle constitue une garantie suffisante à ce moment;

b) le ministre avise la fiducie de la détermination par écrit et accepte une garantie suffisante pour tout ou partie du montant fournie, dans les 90 jours suivant cet avis, par la fiducie ou en son nom;

c) toute garantie acceptée en conformité avec l'alinéa b) est réputée l'avoir été par le ministre aux termes du paragraphe (4.6) au titre du montant au moment donné.

Prorogation du délai

(4.63) Le ministre peut proroger les délais ci-après s'il est d'avis qu'il est juste et équitable de le faire :

a) le délai de production du document concernant le choix prévu au paragraphe (4.6);

b) le délai de fourniture et d'acceptation de la garantie aux termes du paragraphe (4.6);

c) le délai de 90 jours fixé à l'alinéa (4.62)b).

Undue hardship

(4.7) If, in respect of any period of time, the Minister determines that an individual who has made an election under either subsection (4.5) or (4.6)

(a) cannot, without undue hardship, pay or reasonably arrange to have paid on the individual's behalf, an amount of taxes to which security under that subsection would relate, and

(b) cannot, without undue hardship, provide or reasonably arrange to have provided on the individual's behalf, adequate security under that subsection, the Minister may, in respect of the election, accept for the period security different from, or of lesser value than, that which the Minister would otherwise accept under that subsection.

Limit

(4.71) In making a determination under subsection (4.7), the Minister shall ignore any transaction that is a disposition, lease, encumbrance, mortgage, hypothec, or other voluntary restriction by a person or partnership of the person's or partnership's rights in respect of a property, if the transaction can reasonably be considered to have been entered into for the purpose of influencing the determination.

Administration of oaths

(5) Any officer or servant employed in connection with the administration or enforcement of this Act, if designated by the Minister for the purpose, may, in the course of that employment, administer oaths and take and receive affidavits, declarations and affirmations for the purposes of or incidental to the administration or enforcement of this Act or regulations made thereunder, and every officer or servant so designated has for those purposes all the powers of a commissioner for administering oaths or taking affidavits.

Assignment by corporation

(6) Notwithstanding section 67 of the Financial Administration Act and any other provision of a law of Canada or a province, a corporation may assign any amount payable to it under this Act.

Effect of assignment

(7) An assignment referred to in subsection 220(6) is not binding on Her Majesty in right of Canada and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

(a) the Minister is not required to pay to the assignee the assigned amount;

Préjudice

(4.7) Le ministre peut accepter pour une période, relativement au choix fait par un particulier en vertu de l'un ou l'autre des paragraphes (4.5) ou (4.6), une garantie de valeur moindre que celle qu'il accepterait par ailleurs aux termes de ce paragraphe, ou de nature différente, s'il détermine pour la période que le particulier ne peut :

a) d'une part, sans subir un préjudice injustifié, payer un montant d'impôt auquel se rapporterait une garantie fournie aux termes de ce paragraphe ou prendre des mesures raisonnables pour qu'un tel montant soit payé en son nom;

b) d'autre part, sans subir un préjudice injustifié, fournir une garantie acceptable aux termes de ce paragraphe ou prendre des mesures raisonnables pour qu'une telle garantie soit fournie en son nom.

Restriction

(4.71) Lorsqu'il fait la détermination visée au paragraphe (4.7), le ministre fait abstraction de toute opération — disposition, bail, charge, hypothèque ou autre limitation volontaire — effectuée par une personne ou une société de personnes et portant sur ses droits relatifs à un bien, s'il est raisonnable de considérer que l'opération a été conclue dans le but d'influer sur la détermination.

Assermentation

(5) Tout fonctionnaire ou préposé, employé à l'application ou à l'exécution de la présente loi, s'il est désigné par le ministre à cette fin, peut, au cours de son emploi, faire prêter des serments et recevoir des affidavits, déclarations et affirmations solennelles pour l'application ou l'exécution de la présente loi ou de son règlement, ou connexes à cette application ou exécution, et tout fonctionnaire ou préposé ainsi désigné possède à cet effet les pouvoirs d'un commissaire aux serments.

Cession par une société

(6) Malgré l'article 67 de la Loi sur la gestion des finances publiques et toute autre disposition d'une loi fédérale ou provinciale, une société peut céder tout montant qui lui est payable en vertu de la présente loi.

Effet de la cession

(7) La cession ne lie pas Sa Majesté du chef du Canada. Par ailleurs :

a) le ministre n'est pas tenu de verser le montant cédé au cessionnaire;

(b) the assignment does not create any liability of Her Majesty in right of Canada to the assignee; and

(c) the rights of the assignee are subject to all equitable and statutory rights of set-off in favour of Her Majesty in right of Canada.

b) la cession ne donne naissance à aucune obligation de Sa Majesté du chef du Canada envers le cessionnaire;

c) les droits du cessionnaire sont assujettis à tous les droits de compensation, en equity ou prévus par une loi, en faveur de Sa Majesté du chef du Canada.

NOTE : Les dispositions d'application ne sont pas incluses dans la présente codification; voir les lois modificatives appropriées. 1998, ch. 19, art. 223.

b.1) un montant payable en application de la Loi sur l'assurance-chômage;

c) un montant payable par elle en application du Régime de pensions du Canada;

Certificat

(2) Le ministre peut, par certificat, attester qu'un montant ou une partie de montant payable par une personne — appelée « débiteur » au présent article — mais qui est impayé est un montant payable par elle.

Registration in court

(3) On production to the Federal Court, a certificate made under subsection 223(2) in respect of a debtor shall be registered in the Court and when so registered has the same effect, and all proceedings may be taken thereon, as if the certificate were a judgment obtained in the Court against the debtor for a debt in the amount certified plus interest thereon to the day of payment as provided by the statute or statutes referred to in subsection 223(1) under which the amount is payable and, for the purpose of any such proceedings, the certificate shall be deemed to be a judgment of the Court against the debtor for a debt due to Her Majesty, enforceable in the amount certified plus interest thereon to the day of payment as provided by that statute or statutes.

Enregistrement à la cour

(3) Sur production à la Cour fédérale, un certificat fait en application du paragraphe (2) à l'égard d'un débiteur est enregistré à cette cour. Il a alors le même effet que s'il s'agissait d'un jugement rendu par cette cour contre le débiteur pour une dette du montant attesté dans le certificat, augmenté des intérêts courus jusqu'à la date du paiement comme le prévoit les lois visées au paragraphe (1) en application desquelles le montant est payable, et toutes les procédures peuvent être engagées à la faveur du certificat comme s'il s'agissait d'un tel jugement. Dans le cadre de ces procédures, le certificat est réputé être un jugement exécutoire rendu par cette cour contre le débiteur pour une dette envers Sa Majesté du montant attesté dans le certificat, augmenté des intérêts courus jusqu'à la date du paiement comme le prévoit ces lois.

Costs

(4) All reasonable costs and charges incurred or paid in respect of the registration in the Court of a certificate made under subsection 223(2) or in respect of any proceedings taken to collect the amount certified are recoverable in like manner as if they had been included in the amount certified in the certificate when it was registered.

Frais

(4) Les frais et dépens raisonnables engagés ou payés en vue de l'enregistrement à la Cour fédérale d'un certificat fait en application du paragraphe (2) ou de l'exécution des procédures de recouvrement du montant attesté dans le certificat sont recouvrables de la même manière que s'ils avaient été inclus dans ce montant au moment de l'enregistrement du certificat.

Charge on property

(5) A document issued by the Federal Court evidencing a certificate in respect of a debtor registered under subsection (3), a writ of that Court issued pursuant to the certificate or any notification of the document or writ (such document, writ or notification in this section referred to as a "memorial") may be filed, registered or otherwise recorded for the purpose of creating a charge, lien or priority on, or a binding interest in, property in a province, or any interest in, or for civil law any right in, such property, held by the debtor in the same manner as a document evidencing

(a) a judgment of the superior court of the province against a person for a debt owing by the person, or

(b) an amount payable or required to be remitted by a person in the province in respect of a debt owing to Her Majesty in right of the province may be filed, registered or otherwise recorded in accordance with or pursuant to the law of the province to create a charge, lien or priority on, or a binding interest in, the property or interest.

Charge sur un bien

(5) Un document délivré par la Cour fédérale et faisant preuve du contenu d'un certificat enregistré à l'égard d'un débiteur en application du paragraphe (3), un bref de cette cour délivré au titre du certificat ou toute notification du document ou du bref (ce document ou bref ou cette notification étant appelé « extrait » au présent article) peut être produit, enregistré ou autrement inscrit en vue de grever d'une sûreté, d'une priorité ou d'une autre charge, un bien du débiteur situé dans une province, ou un intérêt ou, pour l'application du droit civil, un droit sur un tel bien, de la même manière que peut l'être, au titre ou en application de la loi provinciale, un document faisant preuve :

a) soit du contenu d'un jugement rendu par la cour supérieure de la province contre une personne pour une dette de celle-ci;

b) soit d'un montant payable ou à remettre par une personne dans la province au titre d'une créance de Sa Majesté du chef de la province.

Creation of charge

(6) If a memorial has been filed, registered or otherwise recorded under subsection (5),

(a) a charge, lien or priority is created on, or a binding interest is created in, property in the province, or any interest in, or for civil law any right in, such property, held by the debtor, or

(b) such property, or interest or right in the property, is otherwise bound,

in the same manner and to the same extent as if the memorial were a document evidencing a judgment referred to in paragraph (5)(a) or an amount referred to in paragraph (5)(b), and the charge, lien, priority or binding interest created shall be subordinate to any charge, lien, priority or binding interest in respect of which all steps necessary to make it effective against other creditors were taken before the time the memorial was filed, registered or otherwise recorded.

Charge sur un bien

(6) Une fois l'extrait produit, enregistré ou autrement inscrit en application du paragraphe (5), une sûreté, une priorité ou une autre charge grève un bien du débiteur situé dans la province, ou un intérêt ou, pour l'application du droit civil, un droit sur un tel bien, de la même manière et dans la même mesure que si l'extrait était un document faisant preuve du contenu d'un jugement visé à l'alinéa (5)a) ou d'un montant visé à l'alinéa (5)b). Cette sûreté, priorité ou autre charge prend rang après toute autre sûreté, priorité ou charge à l'égard de laquelle les mesures requises pour la rendre opposable aux autres créanciers ont été prises avant la production, l'enregistrement ou autre inscription de l'extrait.

Proceedings in respect of memorial

(7) If a memorial is filed, registered or otherwise recorded in a province under subsection 223(5), proceedings may be taken in the province in respect of the memorial, including proceedings

(a) to enforce payment of the amount evidenced by the memorial, interest on the amount and all costs and charges paid or incurred in respect of

Procédures engagées en faveur d'un extrait

(7) L'extrait produit, enregistré ou autrement inscrit dans une province en application du paragraphe (5) peut, de la même manière et dans la même mesure que s'il s'agissait d'un document faisant preuve du contenu d'un jugement visé à l'alinéa (5)a) ou d'un montant visé à l'alinéa (5)b), faire l'objet dans la province de procédures visant notamment :

(i) the filing, registration or other recording of the memorial, and

(ii) proceedings taken to collect the amount,

(b) to renew or otherwise prolong the effectiveness of the filing, registration or other recording of the memorial,

(c) to cancel or withdraw the memorial wholly or in respect of any of the property, or interests or rights, affected by the memorial, or

(d) to postpone the effectiveness of the filing, registration or other recording of the memorial in favour of any right, charge, lien or priority that has been or is intended to be filed, registered or otherwise recorded in respect of any property, or interest or right, affected by the memorial,

in the same manner and to the same extent as if the memorial were a document evidencing a judgment referred to in paragraph 223(5)(a) or an amount referred to in paragraph 223(5)(b), except that if in any such proceeding or as a condition precedent to any such proceeding any order, consent or ruling is required under the law of the province to be made or given by the superior court of the province or a judge or official of the court, a like order, consent or ruling may be made or given by the Federal Court or a judge or official of the Federal Court and, when so made or given, has the same effect for the purposes of the proceeding as if it were made or given by the superior court of the province or a judge or official of the court.

a) à exiger le paiement du montant attesté par l'extrait, des intérêts y afférents et des frais et dépens payés ou engagés en vue de la production, de l'enregistrement ou autre inscription de l'extrait ou en vue de l'exécution des procédures de recouvrement du montant;

b) à renouveler ou autrement prolonger l'effet de la production, de l'enregistrement ou autre inscription de l'extrait;

c) à annuler ou à retirer l'extrait dans son ensemble ou uniquement en ce qui concerne un ou plusieurs biens ou intérêts ou droits sur lesquels l'extrait a une incidence;

d) à différer l'effet de la production, de l'enregistrement ou autre inscription de l'extrait en faveur d'un droit, d'une sûreté, d'une priorité ou d'une autre charge qui a été ou qui sera produit, enregistré ou autrement inscrit à l'égard d'un bien ou d'un intérêt ou d'un droit sur lequel l'extrait a une incidence.

Toutefois, dans le cas où la loi provinciale exige — soit dans le cadre de ces procédures, soit préalablement à leur exécution — l'obtention d'une ordonnance, d'une décision ou d'un consentement de la cour supérieure de la province ou d'un juge ou d'un fonctionnaire de celle-ci, la Cour fédérale ou un juge ou un fonctionnaire de celle-ci peut rendre une telle ordonnance ou décision ou donner un tel consentement. Cette ordonnance, cette décision ou ce consentement a alors le même effet dans le cadre des procédures que s'il était rendu ou donné par la cour supérieure de la province ou par un juge ou un fonctionnaire de celle-ci.

Presentation of documents

(8) If

(a) a memorial is presented for filing, registration or other recording under subsection (5) or a document relating to the memorial is presented for filing, registration or other recording for the purpose of any proceeding described in subsection (7) to any official in the land registry system, personal property or movable property registry system, or other registry system, of a province, it shall be accepted for filing, registration or other recording, or

(b) access is sought to any person, place or thing in a province to make the filing, registration or other recording, the access shall be granted

Aux fins de la production, de l'enregistrement ou autre inscription de cet extrait ou ce document, l'accès à une personne, à un endroit ou à une chose situé dans une province est donné de la même manière et dans la même mesure que si l'extrait ou le document était un document semblable ainsi délivré ou établi. Lorsque l'extrait ou le document est délivré par la Cour 223(5)(b) for the purpose of a like proceeding, as the case may be, except that, if the memorial or document is issued by the Federal Court or signed or certified by a judge or official of the Court, any affidavit, declaration or other evidence required under the law of the province to be provided with or to accompany the memorial or document in the proceedings is deemed to have been provided with or to have accompanied the memorial or document as so required.

Sale, etc.

(9) Notwithstanding any law of Canada or of a province, a sheriff or other person shall not, without the written consent of the Minister, sell or otherwise dispose of any property, or publish any notice or otherwise advertise in respect of any sale or other disposition of any property pursuant to any process issued or charge, lien, priority or binding interest created in any proceeding to collect an amount certified in a certificate made under subsection 223(2), interest on the amount and costs, but if that consent is subsequently given, any property that would have been affected by such a process, charge, lien, priority or binding interest if the Minister's consent had been given at the time the process was issued or the charge, lien, priority or binding interest was created, as the case may be, shall be bound, seized, attached, charged or otherwise affected as it would be if that consent had been given at the time the process was issued or the charge, lien, priority or binding interest was created, as the case may be.

Completion of notices, etc.

(10) If information required to be set out by any sheriff or other person in a minute, notice or document required to be completed for any purpose cannot, by reason of subsection 223(9), be so set out, the sheriff or other person shall complete the minute, notice or document to the extent possible without that information and, when the consent of the Minister is given under that subsection, a further minute, notice or document setting out all the information shall be completed for the same purpose, and the sheriff or other person having complied with this subsection is deemed to have complied with the Act, regulation or rule requiring the information to be set out in the minute, notice or document.

Application for an order

(11) A sheriff or other person who is unable, by reason of subsection 223(9) or 223(10), to comply with any law or rule of court is bound by any order made by a judge of the Federal Court, on an ex parte application by the Minister, for the purpose of giving effect to the proceeding, charge, lien, priority or binding interest.

fédérale ou porte la signature ou fait l'objet d'un certificat d'un juge ou d'un fonctionnaire de cette cour, tout affidavit, toute déclaration ou tout autre élément de preuve qui doit, selon la loi provinciale, être fourni avec l'extrait ou le document ou l'accompagner dans le cadre des procédures est réputé avoir été ainsi fourni ou accompagner ainsi l'extrait ou le document.

Interdiction de vendre

(9) Malgré les lois fédérales et provinciales, ni le shérif ni une autre personne ne peut, sans le consentement écrit du ministre, vendre un bien ou autrement en disposer ou publier un avis concernant la vente ou la disposition d'un bien ou autrement l'annoncer, par suite de l'émission d'un bref ou de la création d'une sûreté, d'une priorité ou d'une autre charge dans le cadre de procédures de recouvrement d'un montant attesté dans un certificat fait en application du paragraphe (2), des intérêts y afférents et des frais. Toutefois, si ce consentement est obtenu ultérieurement, tout bien sur lequel un tel bref ou une telle sûreté, priorité ou charge aurait une incidence si ce consentement avait été obtenu au moment de l'émission du bref ou de la création de la sûreté, priorité ou charge, selon le cas, est saisi ou autrement grevé comme si le consentement avait été obtenu à ce moment.

Établissement des avis

(10) Dans le cas où des renseignements qu'un shérif ou une autre personne doit indiquer dans un procès-verbal, un avis ou un document à établir à une fin quelconque ne peuvent, en raison du paragraphe (9), être ainsi indiqués, le shérif ou l'autre personne doit établir le procès-verbal, l'avis ou le document en omettant les renseignements en question. Une fois le consentement du ministre obtenu pour l'application de ce paragraphe, un autre procès-verbal, avis ou document indiquant tous les renseignements doit être établi à la même fin. S'il se conforme au présent paragraphe, le shérif ou l'autre personne est réputé se conformer à la loi, à la disposition réglementaire ou à la règle qui exige que les renseignements soient indiqués dans le procès-verbal, l'avis ou le document.

Demande d'ordonnance

(11) S'il ne peut se conformer à une loi ou à une règle de pratique en raison des paragraphes (9) ou (10), le shérif ou l'autre personne est lié par toute ordonnance rendue, sur requête ex parte du ministre, par un juge de la Cour fédérale visant à donner effet à des procédures ou à une sûreté, une priorité ou une autre charge.

Deemed security

(11.1) When a charge, lien, priority or binding interest created under subsection 223(6) by filing, registering or otherwise recording a memorial under subsection 223(5) is registered in accordance with subsection 87(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, it is deemed

(b) to also be a claim referred to in paragraph 86(2)(a) of that Act.

Details in certificates and memorials

(12) Notwithstanding any law of Canada or of a province, in any certificate made under subsection 223(2) in respect of a debtor, in any memorial evidencing the certificate or in any writ or document issued for the purpose of collecting an amount certified, it is sufficient for all purposes

(a) to set out, as the amount payable by the debtor, the total of amounts payable by the debtor without setting out the separate making up that total; and

(b) to refer to the rate of interest to be charged on the separate amounts making up the amount payable in general terms as interest at the rate prescribed under this Act applicable from time to time on amounts payable to the Receiver General without indicating the specific rates of interest to be charged on each of the separate amounts or to be charged for any particular period of time.

Authorization to proceed forthwith

(2) Notwithstanding section 225.1, where, on ex parte application by the Minister, a judge is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the collection of all or any part of an amount assessed in respect of a taxpayer would be jeopardized by a delay in the collection of that amount, the judge shall, on such terms as the judge considers reasonable in the circumstances, authorize the Minister to take forthwith any of the actions described in paragraphs 225.1(1)(a) to 225.1(1)(g) with respect to the amount.

Recouvrement compromis

(2) Malgré l'article 225.1, sur requête ex parte du ministre, le juge saisi autorise le ministre à prendre immédiatement des mesures visées aux alinéas 225.1(1)a) à g) à l'égard du montant d'une cotisation établie relativement à un contribuable, aux conditions qu'il estime raisonnables dans les circonstances, s'il est convaincu qu'il existe des motifs raisonnables de croire que l'octroi à ce contribuable d'un délai pour payer le montant compromettrait le recouvrement de tout ou partie de ce montant.

Notice of assessment not sent

(3) An authorization under subsection 225.2(2) in respect of an amount assessed in respect of a taxpayer may be granted by a judge notwithstanding that a notice of assessment in respect of that amount has not been sent to the taxpayer at or before the time the application is made where the judge is satisfied that the receipt of the notice of assessment by the taxpayer would likely further jeopardize the collection of the amount, and for the purposes of sections 222, 223, 224, 224.1, 224.3 and 225, the amount in respect of which an authorization is so granted shall be deemed to be an amount payable under this Act.

(3) Le juge saisi peut accorder l'autorisation visée au paragraphe (2), même si un avis de cotisation pour le montant de la cotisation établie à l'égard du contribuable n'a pas été envoyé à ce dernier au plus tard à la date de la présentation de la requête, s'il est convaincu que la réception de cet avis par ce dernier compromettrait davantage, selon toute vraisemblance, le recouvrement du montant. Pour l'application des articles 222, 223, 224, 224.1, 224.3 et 225, le montant visé par l'autorisation est réputé être un montant payable en vertu de la présente loi.

L'avis de cotisation est signifié en même temps que l'autorisation s'il n'a pas été envoyé au contribuable au plus tard au moment de la présentation de la requête.

Mode de signification

(6) Pour l'application du paragraphe (5), l'autorisation est signifiée au contribuable soit par voie de signification à personne, soit par tout autre mode ordonné par le juge.

Limitation period for review application

(9) An application under subsection 225.2(8) shall be made
