Thanks Jon.

I think that it would be helpful to have a quick call about the revised provision clarifying the province's right to excess cash where it has paid under the terms of the guarantee and also the new provision protecting the Province's position in th event there are unguaranteed obligations outstanding so that everyone has an understanding of it. Would be possible to for you to write a plain language summary of the effect of the provisions? I think that this would be very helpful. I think that we will have to include a sentence about this in our covering email too.

Subject: Circulation of drafts of the Change of Law Protection Agreement and the Change of Law Process Agreement

Hi.

After our meeting yesterday, we made the changes identified in the attached blacklines and sent the clean versions to Torys (transmittal email is included below, sent Thursday at 9 p.m. ET).

Please note that these revised versions delete a number of the "Notes" we had previously included for your consideration and our follow-up. Those deletions do not necessarily mean that an issue has been resolved, but rather we thought it best to not identify certain of those deleted items in the external circulation. Our work to resolve those open items will be on-going.

As discussed, Mike or Ken will be sending a follow-on email to OPG to emphasize that these drafts represent an advanced consideration of what the Province is able to do, that the drafts have moved considerably towards OPG's proposed approach, and that only comments on critical issues will be appropriate given the limited time available. You will see that my cover email to Torys suggested that the next step should be for the Province to receive a consolidated mark-up that reflects all essential inputs (i.e., OPG, E&Y, Dealers, Osler and ideally rating agencies) and then to have an all-hands business meeting to resolve any outstanding points. It would be helpful if a similar approach is proposed in Mike's/Ken's follow-on email.

Please feel free to call if you have any questions or concerns.

Regards, Steve

Rima, Krista, Nina and Michael,

Here are drafts of the Change of Law Protection Agreement and Change of Law Process Agreement. Please note that while various people at the Province have provided considerable thought and input into these drafts, they remain subject to on-going review, comment and consideration (including where indicated in the drafts) by the Province, and of course remain subject to ultimate consideration and approval by the Ministers. This circulation is for discussion purposes only. Please feel free to circulate these drafts to OPG, E&Y, Osler and the Dealers, reflecting that understanding.

We propose that a consolidated mark-up be prepared that reflects all of the issues that you or those others may have, and ideally reflects input from the rating agencies. Once that mark-up is available, we propose that a meeting of interested parties be held to resolve any outstanding issues.

In the meantime, please feel free to call Malle, Toby, Tom, Alena or me if you have questions or concerns.

Regards, Steve

Draft: November 2, 2017

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC.

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG"), is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of ■, 2017, the FSM established the Financing Entity as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.[1]

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, OPG provided the Province with copies of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has confirmed by a notice delivered to OPG that the reviewed forms (as further described in such notice) shall be Reviewed Documentation for the purposes of this Agreement.

This Agreement sets out the obligations OPG has agreed to perform and assurances OPG has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of OPG, and of the Province in accordance with the Act, have been done.

[1] Note: This draft only addresses the first Financing Entity. If additional financing entities are established, revisions to this Agreement may be made at that time, in context. Any additional financing entities contemplated should be as contemplated in the Financing Plan.

Such updated forecast shall be further updated on a similar basis with respect to each successive 24 month period or more frequently if at any time OPG has knowledge that the most recent forecast is materially inaccurate (the Initial Forecast and each such updated forecast, each a "Forecast").

(d) Upon receiving an updated Forecast, the Province shall determine whether or not the Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised. In determining whether the Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised, the Province may have regard to (but not be bound by) such updated Forecast. Any determination by the Province to revise the Protection Agreement Maximum will be confirmed by setting out a new Protection Agreement Maximum in a written notice from the Province to the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, the delivery of which will be conclusive evidence that such new Protection Agreement Maximum will apply until it may be further so revised.

The trustee of the Financing Entity in its capacity as Financing Entity Trustee and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

OPG and the Province will concurrently enter into the Process Agreement, under which OPG will agree to perform certain related activities and to provide certain assurances on which the Province will rely, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved

Obligation and ensuring that the Province's assumption right may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity Trustee, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS AND OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

1.01 Interpretation

For all purposes of this Agreement, except as otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) the terms used in this Agreement that are defined in Schedule A have the meanings assigned to them in Schedule A;

(b) words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa, words importing general shall include all genders or the neuter, and words importing the neuter shall include all genders;

(c) all references to any Person shall include such Person's permitted successors and assigns, and any reference to a Person in a particular capacity excludes such Person in other capacities;

(d) references to any law, rule, regulation or order of a Governmental Authority (including, for greater certainty, references to the Act and the General Regulation) shall include such law, rule, regulation or order as from time to time in effect, including any amendment, modification, codification, replacement or reenactment thereof or any substitution therefor;

(e) the word "will" shall be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word "shall". The word "or" is not exclusive;

(f) any reference to this Agreement or any other agreement, document or instrument shall be construed as a reference to this Agreement or, as the case may be, such other agreement, document or instrument as the same may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, varied, replaced, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified;

(g) all references in this Agreement to designated "Articles", "Sections", "Subsections", "Schedules", "Exhibits" and other subdivisions are to the designated

Articles, Sections, Subsections, Schedules, Exhibits and other subdivisions of this Agreement as originally executed. (h) "including" and words of similar import will be deemed to be followed by "without limitation"; and

(i) with respect to the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, unless otherwise expressly stated, the word "from" means "from and including" and the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding".

1.02 Trustee to act in accordance with the Trust Indenture

Any action taken, required to be taken or permitted to be taken by the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall only be taken in the manner, at the times, for the purposes, subject to the prerequisites, conditions, requirements and limitations, and with the benefits, exculpations, indemnities and protections that are provided to the Indenture Trustee, in each case in respect of such action taken, required to be taken or permitted to be taken by it under the Trust Indenture.

1.03 Proof of Approved Obligations

The efficacy of any agreement, instrument or writing evidencing a Primary Obligation may, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusively proved in any manner that the Indenture Trustee deems to be sufficient.

Any statement of account prepared by the Indenture Trustee as regards the Primary Obligations shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount which, as at the date of the statement so prepared, is due and payable by the Financing Entity to the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee and the Province hereby acknowledges and agrees that, absent manifest error, it shall be bound by each such statement. The Indenture Trustee agrees to provide the Province with the computations and calculations used by the Indenture Trustee to prepare each such statement of account promptly following a request therefor.

1.04 Limitation on Rights of and Actions by Specified Creditors

Specified Creditors, as Beneficiaries, shall not have or be permitted to exercise any rights, interests, or elections under this Agreement, other than in the manner and to the extent effected and exercised through the Indenture Trustee under, in accordance with and subject to the limitations set forth in the Trust Indenture. No Specified Creditor will have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Agreement.

1.05 Province Retains Rights of Beneficiaries

Without limiting any rights of subrogation or succession that arise pursuant to applicable law or pursuant to the Province's rights as an assignee, subrogee or pursuant to Section 5.01, all of the rights, interests, elections and privileges that would arise in favour of a Beneficiary under the Trust Indenture or other agreement under which a related Primary Obligation arises shall automatically arise, vest in and be available to the Province upon performance by the Province of the Primary Obligation.

1.06 Effect of Headings

The Article and Section headings herein are for convenience only and will not affect the construction hereof.

1.07 Successors and Assigns

All covenants and agreements in this Agreement by the parties will bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. All covenants and agreements of the Indenture Trustee or the FSM in this Agreement shall bind their respective successors, co-trustees and agents.

1.08 Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

1.10 Proceedings Against the Crown Act

NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PROGRAM AGREEMENTS AFFECTS THE RIGHTS, PROTECTIONS AND IMMUNITIES OF THE CROWN UNDER THE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE CROWN ACT.

1.11 Attornment

EACH PARTY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY ONTARIO COURTS SITTING IN TORONTO IN ANY ACTION, APPLICATION, REFERENCE OR OTHER PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT THEY MAY

HAVE TO REQUIRE A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY PROCEEDING COMMENCED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

1.12 Counterparts; Electronic Delivery

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed will be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts will together constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by a party by electronic transmission will be as effective as delivery of a manually executed copy of the Agreement by such party.

1.13 Change of Law Protection Agreement Referred to in the Trust Indenture

This Agreement is the "Change of Law Protection Agreement" referred to in the Trust Indenture.

1.14 Non-Business Days

Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due, any period of time would begin or end, any calculation is to be made or any other action to be taken hereunder shall be stated to be required to be taken, on a day other than a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement) such payment shall be made, such period of time shall begin or end, such calculations shall be made and such other action shall be taken on the next succeeding Business Day.

1.15 Waiver, Amendment

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision nor will any waiver of any provision of this Agreement constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

1.17 Currency

Unless stated otherwise, all amounts herein are stated in Canadian Dollars.

1.18 References to Acts of the Financing Entity Trustee

For greater certainty, where any reference is made in this Agreement, or in any other instrument executed pursuant hereto or contemplated hereby to which the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee, as trustee of the Financing Entity, is party, to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against, or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to (i) the Financing Entity or (ii) the Financing Entity Trustee, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to, the Financing Entity Trustee as trustee of the Financing Entity.

1.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Financing Entity shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.19 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may provide a written demand, in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand"), to the Province requiring the Province to pay the Approved Obligations owing from time to time by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee as and when they become due and payable, without Acceleration[1]. A Payment Demand will not be valid with respect to an Approved Obligation until the amount claimed becomes due and payable in respect of the Approved Obligation (without Acceleration) in accordance with the Trust Indenture and has not otherwise been paid by the Financing Entity.

(b) Following receipt of a valid Payment Demand under Subsection 2.01(a), the Province shall pay the amounts owing by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, on behalf of the applicable Beneficiaries, in respect of each Approved Obligation[2], in each case as and when the Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms and on its scheduled, specified or determined payment date, as determined without regard to any Acceleration or rights of Acceleration arising under the Approved Obligation, in each case by the Province depositing or causing the deposit of the applicable payment amount into the Collection Account (the "Limited Guarantee"). For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation, including (i) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the Financing Entity following a Protection Event, and (ii) amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the Financing Entity into any Capital Account, Finance Reserve Account or a Supplemental Reserve Account.

(c) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(d) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

[1] Consider mechanics for notifying the Province regarding the specific amounts payable and their due dates. Consider attaching a detailed schedule of payments under the Payment Demand and the respective due date of each payment.

[2] Under Subsection 5(3) of the Act, the Province can guarantee only obligations "associated with an investment interest". The guarantee in Section 2.01 of the draft agreement guarantees "Approved Obligations", which in turn relies on the definition of Primary Obligations. The connection between a Primary Obligations and an "investment interest" is therefore crucial. Blakes is considering how to more precisely connect these concepts.

(e) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

2.02 Gross-up

[All amounts payable by the Province under this Agreement shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings of any kind. If the Province is obliged to deduct or withhold an amount in respect of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings, then in such event the Province shall deposit into the Collection Account such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the Indenture Trustee receives (on an after-tax basis, after payment of any and all income taxes on such additional amounts) an amount equal to the full amount otherwise due and payable in respect of the related Approved Obligation, net of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings.][3]

2.03 Absence of Set-off

The Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Collection Account in Satisfaction

Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Indenture Trustee shall apply the full amount paid by the Province into the Collection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation to pay the corresponding amount due and payable to the applicable Beneficiaries under the Approved Obligation.[4] Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Collection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation, the amount so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries and thereby reduce the amount due and payable under the Approved Obligation, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid[5].

[3] Under consideration.

[4] This will need to operate in tandem with the Trust Indenture waterfall. The idea is that the Approved Obligations may not necessarily follow the sequence of the "payment waterfall" included in the Trust Indenture, and so amounts from the Province would need to operate independently.

[5] Consider how Beneficiary rights under Obligations Secured will be amended under an agreement to which a Beneficiary is not directly a party. To achieve a binding relationship, a corresponding provision should appear in the Trust Indenture and each other contract under which the Obligation Secured arises, to the effect that the Beneficiaries will be deemed to be bound by the agreement of the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations, or until the Province is no longer required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee in accordance with Section 6.03].

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine, provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee shall not permit any change, modification, alteration, amendment, supplement, extension, renewal, compromise, novation, replacement, suspension or waiver of the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral therefor expect with the prior written consent of the Province having first been obtained.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if (a) the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied; or (b) the Province has specifically approved in writing the particular terms, conditions and documentation for the Primary Obligation.

4.02 Adherence Conditions

The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to a Primary Obligation:

(a) the Primary Obligation is contemplated under the Trust Indenture as an Obligation Secured;

(b) at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments[6] under the Primary Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum;

(c) the FSM delivers a notice to the Indenture Trustee, with a copy to the Province, one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, setting out the Protection Agreement Maximum;

(d) the FSM delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG) and addressed to the Province and the Indenture Trustee, one Business Day prior to the earlier of (i) one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, and (ii) on the Business Day on which the financial terms of the Primary Obligation are definitively determined (including the interest or discount rate applicable to any notes, bonds or other securities), setting out the following with respect to the Primary Obligation:

i. confirmation that, at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under the Primary Obligation (if any), together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not and will not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum; and

ii. confirmation that the FSM has delivered to the Province a certificate in accordance with the Process Agreement confirming, among other things, that the transaction documents in respect of the Primary Obligation are in substantially the form of the documentation reviewed by the Province; and

[6] Use of the concept of "repayments" under the OFHPA for this purpose is under consideration.

(e) the Province has not provided a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

4.03 Evidence of Satisfaction

A closing certificate signed by at least two executive officers of OPG in connection with an incurrence or amendment of a Primary Obligation shall be determinative as to whether the applicable Adherence Conditions with respect thereto have been satisfied, notwithstanding that such certificate may include inaccuracies, be incomplete or otherwise be defect or deficient, and such closing certificate may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

ARTICLE V
RIGHTS OF THE PROVINCE

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation:

(a) to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee; or

(b) as a result of assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI,

the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (i) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive distributions of such amount by the Financing Entity in accordance with and in the priority applicable to the Approved Obligation applicable in respect of the payment under the Trust Indenture, (ii) the benefits of the related Collateral and (iii) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a secured party under the Trust Indenture) under such Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including, if applicable, as a Noteholder) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

5.02 Priorities

For greater certainty, the rights, interests and entitlements of the Province as an assignee and subrogee of and with respect to an Approved Obligation shall rank equally with the rights, interests and entitlements of a Beneficiary for whom a Limited Guarantee payment is made in respect of, and to the extent of the payment made to satisfy, the Approved Obligation and the Province shall not be subject to postponement or subordination with respect thereto except to the extent of the priorities established in relation to the Approved Obligation under the Trust Indenture.

5.03 Voting Rights under "Outstanding Notes"

Notwithstanding the last three sentences of the definition of "Outstanding" in the Trust Indenture[7]:

(a) Notes in connection with Approved Obligations in respect of which the Province has rights and interest pursuant to Section 5.01 shall be regarded as "Outstanding" within the meaning of the Trust Indenture; and

(b) in determining whether Noteholders of the requisite principal amount of Notes that are Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) have taken any Action under the Trust Indenture, and for the purposes of Article X of the Trust Indenture, the Province shall be deemed to have the amount of Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) Notes in proportion to its interest in such Notes based on the amounts that the Province has paid in respect of Approved Obligations under this Agreement.

5.04 Province May Perform Other Program Agreement Covenants.

If the Financing Entity fails to perform any covenant under any Program Agreement, the Province may (but, except as expressly provided for under this Agreement, shall not be obligated to) perform such covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity. If the Province performs such a covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity, all sums expended or advanced by the Province in so performing the covenant will bear interest at the rate of interest determined by the Province to reflect market terms and conditions for a borrowing made by the Province at the relevant time from the date of expenditure until repayment by the Financing Entity and will (together with such interest) be paid by the Financing Entity upon demand and will until paid form part of the Obligations Secured and constitute a Finance Amount.[8]

[7] This concept needs to be reflected in the Trust Indenture.

[8] General Regulation to be revised such that "Finance Amount" picks up guarantor amounts. Under consideration by MOE.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS SECURED

6.01 Delivery of Assumption Notice

Following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may provide notice (in the form of Exhibit B) to the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the terms of the Process Agreement, that the Province has elected to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor (the "Assumption Notice"). The Assumption Notice shall specify the date on which the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured will be effective (the "Assumption Closing Date").

6.02 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

The Indenture Trustee, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Province will cooperate and use best efforts to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the Assumption Closing Date.[9]

6.03 Effect of Assumption

On the date that the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province becomes effective (the "Assumption Effective Date"), the Province shall no longer be required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee.

6.04 Interim Period

Until the effective time of the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province on the Assumption Effective Date, the Province shall continue to perform and be obligated under the Limited Guarantee.

ARTICLE VII
INDENTURE TRUSTEE MATTERS

7.01 Limited Recourse

No recourse may be taken, directly or indirectly, with respect to the obligations of the Financing Entity under this Agreement, or any certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or therewith, against (a) the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, (b) any owner of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or (c) any partner, owner, beneficiary, agent, officer, director, employee or agent of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, any holder of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee or of any successor or assign of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, except as any such Person may have expressly agreed (it being understood that the Financing Entity Trustee has no such obligations in its individual capacity).

[9] Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be considered.

7.02 Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes

The recitals contained herein will be taken as the statements of the Province and the FSM, and the Indenture Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Indenture Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement.

7.03 Representations and Covenants of the Indenture Trustee

The Indenture Trustee represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) the Indenture Trustee is a trust company organized, existing and in good standing under the laws of Canada;

(b) the Indenture Trustee has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Agreement and other documents to which it is a party;

(c) each of this Agreement and the other documents to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by the Indenture Trustee and constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation in accordance with its terms; and

(d) the Indenture Trustee is authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each of the provinces and territories of Canada.

7.04 Release of all Collateral

(a) The Indenture Trustee shall not execute instruments to release Collateral from the Security Interest of the Trust Indenture, or convey the Indenture Trustee's interest (which is held by the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Specified Creditors) in the same, unless and until the rights and interests of the Province under Section 5.01 or otherwise as an assignee of any of the Obligations Secured or as a subrogee have been satisfied in full and the Province has no continuing obligations under this Agreement.

(b) The Province shall be entitled to receive at least 10 Business Days' written notice when the Indenture Trustee proposes to take any action pursuant to Subsection 7.04(a), accompanied by copies of any instruments involved.

7.05 Right to Notice and Attend Meetings

The Financing Entity shall ensure that the Province receives advance notice of any meeting or proposed written resolution of Specified Creditors (or any of them) and the Province and its legal advisers shall be permitted to attend and be represented at any meeting of such Specified Creditors.

ARTICLE VIII
SUSPENSION OF ADHERENCE FOR NEW PRIMARY OBLIGATIONS

8.01 Suspension Notice

A written notice in the form of Exhibit C (a "Suspension Notice"):

(a) shall be provided by the FSM or the Province to the Indenture Trustee promptly following the occurrence of a Program Breach; and

(b) may be provided by the Province to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity following the occurrence of a Breach Event that has not been waived in writing by the Province.

8.02 Suspension

If a Suspension Notice has been provided under Section 8.01 (the provision of such notice being a "Suspension Event"), the Financing Entity shall not incur any new or additional Obligation Secured and shall not amend or terminate any existing Obligation Secured except with the prior written consent of the Province.

8.03 Termination Notice

On the occurrence of a Suspension Event, the Province may provide to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity a notice in the form of Exhibit D (a "Termination Notice").

8.04 No Impact on Adherence

For greater certainty, the occurrence of Suspension Event or a failure by the FSM or the Financing Entity to perform its covenants under this Agreement will not invalidate or extinguish the obligations of the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of Approved Obligations in existence prior to the occurrence of the Suspension Event.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Hi Anis,

We are hosting a meeting here at 1 Dundas (Executive Boardroom) that will run from 10am to 1pm today. It occurred to me that we should probably provide lunch around noon.

Would you be able to take care of the lunch order? At this point, I'm not sure how many will attend in person versus dial-in. But at our last meeting of this length, we had almost everyone in the room. Perhaps you could use the same order that you used on Thursday, November 2nd?

Thanks, Anna

Hi Hilary,

You may have seen the invite that I sent out just now to Steen, Daniel and Tim. This meeting will be the last opportunity for us to provide input/edits to the Provincial Protection and Process agreements as we have committed to assisting OPG in meeting their Board timelines (materials, including the Protection and Process Agreements must be sent to their Board members by tomorrow for their meeting on the 20th).

We would really appreciate representation from Energy at today's meeting – even just one representative would be sufficient – in order to make sure we are accounting for all of the policy considerations. Happy to discuss.

Thanks, Anna

Rima, Krista, Nina and Michael,

Here are drafts of the Change of Law Protection Agreement and Change of Law Process Agreement. Please note that while various people at the Province have provided considerable thought and input into these drafts, they remain subject to on-going review, comment and consideration (including where indicated in the drafts) by the Province, and of course remain subject to ultimate consideration and approval by the Ministers. This circulation is for discussion purposes only. Please feel free to circulate these drafts to OPG, E&Y, Osler and the Dealers, reflecting that understanding.

We propose that a consolidated mark-up be prepared that reflects all of the issues that you or those others may have, and ideally reflects input from the rating agencies. Once that mark-up is available, we propose that a meeting of interested parties be held to resolve any outstanding issues.

In the meantime, please feel free to call Malle, Toby, Tom, Alena or me if you have questions or concerns.

Regards, Steve

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

1.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the ~~Financing Entity~~Province shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.19 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may provide a written demand, in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand"), to the Province requiring the Province to pay the amount of the Approved Obligations ~~owing~~that would have been payable from Available Collections had the Protection Event not occurred[3] from time to time by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee as and when they become due and payable, without Acceleration[1]. A Payment Demand will not be valid with respect to an Approved Obligation until the amount claimed becomes due and payable in respect of the Approved Obligation, ~~(~~without Acceleration~~)~~, in accordance with the Trust Indenture and has not otherwise been paid by the Financing Entity.

(b) Following receipt of a valid Payment Demand under Subsection 2.01(a), the Province shall pay the amounts ~~owing~~that would have been payable from Available Collections had the Protection Event not occurred by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, on behalf of the applicable Beneficiaries, in respect of each Approved Obligation[2], in each case as and when the Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms and on its scheduled, specified or determined

[3] The amount "owing" under an obligation (i.e., balloon) will different from the amount available to be paid in respect of such owed amount (based on Available Collections). The Province is not obligated to pay more than the obligations that would have been paid from CEAs had they been collected.

~~[1] Consider mechanics for notifying the Province regarding the specific amounts payable and their due dates. Consider attaching a detailed schedule of payments under the Payment Demand and the respective due date of each payment.~~ payment date, as determined without regard to any Acceleration or rights of Acceleration arising under the Approved Obligation, in each case by the Province depositing or causing the deposit of the applicable payment amount into the ~~Collection Account~~ Protection Account[4] on or before the day on which the applicable Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms (the "Limited Guarantee"). For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation~~, including (i) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the Financing Entity following a Protection Event, and (ii) amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the Financing Entity into any Capital Account, Finance Reserve Account or a Supplemental Reserve Account~~.

(c) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(d) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

(e) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

2.02 ~~Gross-up~~Intentionally Deleted.

~~[All amounts payable by the Province under this Agreement shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings of any kind. If the Province is obliged to deduct or withhold an amount in respect of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings, then in such event the Province shall deposit into the Collection Account such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the Indenture Trustee receives (on an after-tax basis, after payment of any and all income taxes on such additional amounts) an amount equal to the full amount otherwise due and payable in respect of the related Approved Obligation, net of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings.]~~[3]

[4] Province needs to see how the Trust Indenture will be modified to address addition of Protection Account (i.e., payment mechanics; Protection Account to be part of the Collateral; mechanics of how funds move to Collection Account; absence of equitable claims; etc.). Province will need to know that all amounts will be applied for their intended purposes without undermining Province's step-in and subrogation rights.

2.03 Absence of Set-off

~~The~~Subject to applicable law, the Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into ~~Collection~~Protection Account[5] in Satisfaction

(a) On or before the date of delivery of a Payment Demand to the Province, the Indenture Trustee shall cause to be established and maintained an Eligible Deposit Account (the "Protection Account") in the name of the Indenture Trustee, bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds and other property credited thereto are held for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Beneficiaries. The Protection Account shall be under the control of the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. If, at any time, the institution holding the Protection Account ceases to be an Eligible Institution, the FSM shall notify the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee upon being notified in writing of such ineligibility (or the FSM on its behalf) shall within 30 days (or such longer period, not to exceed 45 days, so long as the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied) establish a new Protection Account that is an Eligible Deposit Account and shall transfer any funds or other property from such Protection Account to such new Protection Account. From the date each such new Protection Account is established, it shall be the "Protection Account." for purposes of this Agreement. Funds credited to the Protection Account will be invested and held in accordance with Section 7.03 of the Trust Indenture on the basis that it is an Issuer Account.

(b) Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Indenture Trustee shall apply the full amount paid by the Province into the ~~Collection~~Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation to pay the corresponding amount due and payable to the applicable Beneficiaries under the Approved Obligation.[4] Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the ~~Collection~~Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation, the amount so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries and thereby reduce the amount due and payable ~~under~~to such Beneficiaries in respect of the Approved Obligation, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved

[4] ~~This will need to operate in tandem with the Trust Indenture waterfall. The idea is that the Approved Obligations may not necessarily follow the sequence of the "payment waterfall" included in the Trust Indenture, and so amounts from the Province would need to operate independently.~~

Obligation to the extent so paid[5]6. For greater certainty, the obligations arising in respect of the Approved Obligation shall not be reduced by such payment as the Province shall become entitled to the rights contemplated under Section 5.01 in relation to such continuing obligations.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment,

[5] ~~Consider how Beneficiary rights under Obligations Secured will be amended under an agreement to which a Beneficiary is not directly a party. To achieve a binding relationship, a~~[6] A corresponding provision ~~should appear in~~needs to be added to the Trust Indenture and each other contract under which the Obligation Secured arises, ~~to the effect~~so that the Beneficiaries ~~will be deemed to be~~are bound by these applications and the agreement of the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement.

decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations, or until the Province is no longer required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee in accordance with Section 6.03~~]~~.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine,

provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee shall not permit any change, modification, alteration, amendment, supplement, extension, renewal, compromise, novation, replacement, suspension or waiver of the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral therefor expect with the prior written consent of the Province having first been obtained.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV

4.02 Adherence Conditions

(a) the Primary Obligation is contemplated under the Trust Indenture as an Obligation Secured; and

~~(b) at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments[6] under the Primary Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum;~~

(b) ~~(d)~~ the FSM delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG and, for clarity, such certificate is to be provided by such officers in their capacity as officers of OPG acting in its capacity as FSM) and addressed to the ~~Province and the~~ Indenture Trustee, ~~one Business Day~~ prior to the earlier of (i) one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, and (ii) on the Business Day on which the financial terms of the Primary Obligation are definitively determined (including the interest or discount rate applicable to any notes, bonds or other securities), ~~setting out the following with respect to the Primary Obligation:~~confirming that the FSM

has delivered to the Province a Process Certificate in accordance with Section [3.01] of the Process Agreement; and

~~i. confirmation that, at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under the Primary Obligation (if any), together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not and will not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum; and~~

~~(a) to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee; or~~

~~(b) as a result of assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI,~~

(a) Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee, the

Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (i) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive distributions of such amount by the Financing Entity in accordance with and in the priority applicable to the Approved Obligation applicable in respect of the payment under the Trust Indenture, (ii) the benefits of the related Collateral and (iii) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a ~~secured party~~Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture~~)~~ on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)), under and in respect of such Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including~~, if applicable, as a Noteholder~~ as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

(a) The Province (i) acknowledges and agrees in favour of the Indenture Trustee that, upon being subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation in accordance with Section 5.01(a), the Province, in its capacity as a Specified Creditor, will be subject to the provisions applicable to Specified Creditors under the Trust Indenture, including [Section 7.11 (Payments Held in Trust), Section 8.12 (Limitation on Suits), Sections 7.04 and 8.13 (Payment Priorities), Section 8.14 (Limited Recourse) and Section 16.01 (No Petition) thereof] and (ii) confirms that the Indenture Trustee shall send notices to the Province, in its capacity as a Specified Creditor, in accordance with Section 9.02.

5.02 Priorities

For greater certainty, the rights, interests and entitlements of the Province as an assignee and subrogee of and with respect to an Approved Obligation shall rank equally with the rights, interests and entitlements of a Beneficiary for whom a Limited Guarantee payment is made in respect of, and to the extent of the payment made to satisfy, the Approved Obligation and the Province shall not be subject to postponement or subordination with respect thereto except to the extent of the priorities established in relation to the Approved Obligation under the Trust Indenture.

~~5.03 Voting Rights under "Outstanding Notes"~~

~~Notwithstanding the last three sentences of the definition of "Outstanding" in the Trust Indenture[7]:~~

~~(a) Notes in connection with Approved Obligations in respect of which the Province has rights and interest pursuant to Section 5.01 shall be regarded as "Outstanding" within the meaning of the Trust Indenture; and~~

~~(b) in determining whether Noteholders of the requisite principal amount of Notes that are Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) have taken any Action under the Trust Indenture, and for the purposes of Article X of the Trust Indenture, the Province shall be deemed to have the amount of Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) Notes in proportion to its interest in such Notes based on the amounts that the Province has paid in respect of Approved Obligations under this Agreement.~~

5.03 ~~5.04~~ Province May Perform Other Program Agreement Covenants.

If the Financing Entity fails to perform any covenant under any Program Agreement, the Province may (but, except as expressly provided for under this Agreement, shall not be obligated to) perform such covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity. If the Province performs such a covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity, all sums expended or advanced by the Province in so performing the covenant will bear interest at the rate of interest determined by the Province to reflect market terms and conditions for a borrowing made by the Province at the relevant time from the date of expenditure until repayment by the Financing Entity and will (together with such interest) be paid by the Financing Entity upon demand and will until paid form part of the Obligations Secured subject to Sections [7.04 and 8.13] of the Trust Indenture and constitute a Finance Amount.[8]

5.04 Representations and Warranties

(a) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Province have been authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Province;

(b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Province do not result in the violation of any applicable law; and

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Province.

[7] ~~This concept needs to be reflected in the Trust Indenture.~~

[8] ~~General Regulation to be revised such that "Finance Amount" picks up guarantor amounts. Under consideration by MOE~~ Payments to be addressed in the Trust Indenture like servicer advances under the waterfall provisions.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS SECURED

6.01 Delivery of Assumption Notice

Following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may provide notice (in the form of Exhibit B) to the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the terms of the Process Agreement, that the Province has elected to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor (the "Assumption Notice"). The Assumption Notice shall specify the date on which the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured will be effective (the "Assumption Closing Date").

6.02 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

The Indenture Trustee, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Province will cooperate and use best efforts to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the Assumption Closing Date.[9]

6.03 Effect of Assumption

On the date that the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province becomes effective (the "Assumption Effective Date"), the Province shall no longer be required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee~~.~~ but will instead become a primary obligor under the Obligations Secured assumed pursuant to and in accordance with an applicable Assumption Agreement. For greater certainty, the obligations of the Province so assumed will not be secured obligations of the Province and the obligees thereof will have no right, interest or claim to or in respect of the Collateral or any proceeds therefrom. [NTD: Need to move Article VI of the Change of Law Process Agreement into this Article VI and amend accordingly.[10] Also, we will need to attach the form of Assumption Agreement as an Exhibit to this Agreement that will be used for the assignment and assumption of all Obligations Secured. Contrary to the statement in Section 6.02(f) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, there will not be a separate form of Assumption Agreement for each Obligation Secured.[11]]

6.04 Interim Period

Until the effective time of the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province on the Assumption Effective Date, the Province shall continue to perform and be obligated under the Limited Guarantee.

[9] Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be ~~considered~~provided by OPG.

[10] The idea was to not burden the external agreement with the necessary steps for the Province to be in a position to step-in. If the preference is to include more in this external agreement, the Province will not object subject to further consideration of drafting issues.

[11] It has been assumed that there may be variations depending on the nature of the underlying obligations. A root form of Assumption Agreement, modified to conform substantially to that form in connection with a particular obligation, was the idea. To be further discussed.

6.05 Rights in respect of the Assets Comprising the Collateral

Upon assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the Financing Entity's rights and interests under and in respect of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral and all proceeds therefrom, free and clear of any liens, encumbrances or restrictions arising under or as a result of the Trust Indenture. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all such rights and interests as an absolute assignee of the Financing Entity, with effect from and after the time of such assumption, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights, interests or equities that arise thereafter in respect of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral as between the Beneficiaries and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall thereupon recognize the Province as the absolute owner of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral.

Dated as of [■], 2017

This AGREEMENT, among Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), ~~Ontario Power Generation Inc., as the Manager and~~Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as ~~Manager~~trustee (the "Financing Entity Trustee") of Fair Hydro Trust, a trust ~~settled by the FSM~~ under the laws of the Province of Ontario (the "Financing Entity")[1], Ontario Power Generation Inc., in its capacity as Manager of the Financing Entity~~"), Ontario Power Generation Inc.~~ and in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the Act (the "FSM") and BNY Trust Company of Canada, a trust company existing under the laws of Canada, as Indenture Trustee ~~and in its capacity as trustee for the Beneficiaries in accordance with the Trust Indenture~~, is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council dated as of ■ (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust[2] dated as of ■, 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The ~~FSM, as agent of the~~ Financing Entity Trustee, in its capacity as trustee of the Financing Entity, and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

The FSM and the Province will concurrently enter into the Process Agreement, under which the FSM will agree to perform certain related activities and to provide certain assurances on which the Province will rely, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation and ensuring that the Province's assumption right may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

1.03 ~~1.02~~ Proof of Approved Obligations

The efficacy of any agreement, instrument or writing evidencing a Primary Obligation may, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusively proved in any manner that the Indenture Trustee deems to be sufficient.

Any statement of account prepared by the Indenture Trustee as regards the Primary Obligations shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount which, as at the date of the statement so prepared, is due and payable by the Financing Entity to the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee and the Province hereby acknowledges and agrees that, absent manifest error, it shall be bound by each such statement. The Indenture Trustee agrees to provide the Province with the computations and calculations used by the Indenture Trustee to prepare each such statement of account promptly following a request therefor.

1.05 ~~1.04~~ Province Retains Rights of Beneficiaries

Without limiting any rights of subrogation or succession that arise pursuant to applicable law or pursuant to the Province's rights as an assignee, subrogee or pursuant to Section 5.01, all of the rights, interests, elections and privileges that would arise in favour of a Beneficiary under the Trust Indenture or other Funding Obligation Agreement under which a related Primary Obligation arises shall automatically arise, vest in and be available to the Province ~~upon~~to the extent of the performance by the Province of the Primary Obligation. ~~To the extent of any conflict between this Agreement and the Indemnity Agreement by the Province in favour of OPG dated June 1, 2017 in respect of any matter relating to the Province's obligations to indemnify the FSM or the Financing Entity, the latter shall prevail.~~

1.06 ~~1.05~~ Effect of Headings

The Article and Section headings herein are for convenience only and will not affect the construction hereof.

1.07 ~~1.06~~ Successors and Assigns

All covenants and agreements in this Agreement by the parties will bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. All covenants and agreements of the Indenture Trustee, the Financing Entity, the Financing Entity Trustee or the FSM in this Agreement shall bind their respective successors, co-trustees and agents.

1.08 ~~1.07~~ Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

1.09 ~~1.08~~ Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

1.12 ~~1.11~~ Counterparts; Electronic Delivery

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed will be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts will together constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by a party by electronic transmission will be as effective as delivery of a manually executed copy of the Agreement by such party.

1.13 ~~1.12~~ Change of Law Protection Agreement Referred to in the Trust Indenture

This Agreement is the "Change of Law Protection Agreement" referred to in the Trust Indenture.

1.14 ~~1.13~~ Non-Business Days

Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due, any period of time would begin or end, any calculation is to be made or any other action to be taken hereunder shall be stated to be required to be taken, on a day other than a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement) such payment shall be made, such period of time shall begin or end, such calculations shall be made and such other action shall be taken on the next succeeding Business Day.

1.15 ~~1.14~~ Waiver, Amendment

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision nor will any waiver of any provision of this Agreement constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 ~~1.15~~ Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

1.17 ~~1.16~~ Currency

Unless stated otherwise, all amounts herein are stated in Canadian Dollars.

1.18 ~~1.17~~ References to Acts of the Financing Entity

For greater certainty, where any reference is made in this Agreement, or in any other instrument executed pursuant hereto or contemplated hereby to which the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee, as trustee of the Financing Entity, is party, to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against, or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to (i) the Financing Entity or (ii) the Financing Entity Trustee, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to, ~~the FSM as agent for~~ the Financing Entity Trustee ~~(in its capacity~~ as trustee of the Financing Entity~~). [NTD: Discuss whether the Financing Entity Trustee should be a party to this Agreement and references to the Financing Entity Trustee re-inserted into this section and others.]~~.

1.19 ~~1.18~~ Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Province shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.19 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may provide a written demand, in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand"), to the Province requiring the Province to pay the amount of the Approved Obligations ~~owing~~that would have been payable from Available Collections had the Protection Event not occurred[3] from time to time by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee as and when they become due and payable[1], without Acceleration. A Payment Demand will not be valid with respect to an Approved Obligation until the amount claimed becomes due and payable in respect of the Approved Obligation, without Acceleration, in accordance with the Trust Indenture and has not otherwise been paid by the Financing Entity.

(b) Following receipt of a valid Payment Demand under Subsection 2.01(a), the Province shall pay the amounts ~~owing~~that would have been payable from Available Collections had the Protection Event not occurred by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, on behalf of the applicable Beneficiaries, in respect of each Approved Obligation[2], in each case as

[3] The amount "owing" under an obligation (i.e., balloon) will different from the amount available to be paid in respect of such owed amount (based on Available Collections). The Province is not obligated to pay more than the obligations that would have been paid from CEAs had they been collected.

[1] ~~Consider mechanics for notifying the Province regarding the specific amounts payable and their due dates. Consider attaching a detailed schedule of payments under the Payment Demand and the respective due date of each payment.~~ and when the Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms and on its scheduled, specified or determined payment date, as determined without regard to any Acceleration or rights of Acceleration arising under the Approved Obligation, in each case by the Province depositing or causing the deposit of the applicable payment amount into the Protection Account ~~5 Business Days prior to the fifteen day of each calendar month~~[4] on or before the day on which the applicable Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms (the "Limited Guarantee"). For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation.

(c) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(d) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

(e) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

2.02 ~~Gross-up~~Intentionally Deleted.

~~All amounts payable by the Province under this Agreement shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings of any kind. If the Province is obliged to deduct or withhold an amount in respect of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings, then in such event the Province shall deposit into the Protection Account such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the Indenture Trustee receives (on an after-tax basis, after payment of any and all income taxes on such additional amounts) an amount equal to the full amount otherwise due and payable in respect of the related Approved Obligation, net of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings.~~

2.03 Absence of Set-off

~~The~~Subject to applicable law, the Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Protection Account[5] in Satisfaction

(a) On or before the date of delivery of a Payment Demand to the Province, the Indenture Trustee shall cause to be established and maintained an Eligible Deposit Account (the "Protection Account") in the name of the Indenture Trustee, bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds and other property credited thereto are held for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Beneficiaries. The Protection Account shall be under the control of the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. If, at any time, the institution holding the Protection Account ceases to be an Eligible Institution, the FSM shall notify the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee upon being notified in writing of such ineligibility (or the FSM on its behalf) shall within 30 days (or such longer period, not to exceed 45 days, so long as the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied) establish a new Protection Account that is an Eligible Deposit Account and shall transfer any funds or other property from such Protection Account to such new Protection Account. From the date each such new Protection Account is established, it shall be the "Protection Account." for purposes of this Agreement. Funds credited to the Protection Account will be invested and held in accordance with Section 7.03 of the Trust Indenture ~~as if~~on the basis that it ~~were~~is an Issuer Account.

(b) Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Indenture Trustee shall apply the full amount paid by the Province into the Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation to pay the corresponding amount due and payable to the applicable Beneficiaries under the Approved Obligation. Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation, the amount so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries and thereby reduce the amount due and payable ~~under~~to such Beneficiaries in respect of the Approved Obligation, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid[3~~6~~]. For greater certainty, the obligations arising in respect of the Approved Obligation shall not be reduced by such payment as the Province shall become

[5] Use of Protection Account to be considered by Province after required modifications to Trust Indenture have been provided.

[3] ~~Consider how Beneficiary rights under Obligations Secured will be amended under an agreement to which a Beneficiary is not directly a party. To achieve a binding relationship, a~~[6] A corresponding provision ~~should appear in~~needs to be added to the Trust Indenture and each other contract under which the Obligation Secured arises, ~~to the effect~~so that the Beneficiaries ~~will be deemed to be~~are bound by these applications and the agreement of the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. ~~Please see our addition in Section 9.08. The Specified Creditors already make the necessary acknowledgement in Article 5 of the Trust Indenture. Isn't this also addressed in section 1.03 above?~~ entitled to the rights contemplated under Section 5.01 in relation to such continuing obligations.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety. ~~[NTD: Further consideration required as to whether there should be a waiver of any other equitable defences.]~~

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations ~~and termination of the Trust Indenture~~, or until the Province is no longer required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee in accordance with Section 6.03.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine~~.~~,

provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee shall not permit any change, modification, alteration, amendment, supplement, extension, renewal, compromise, novation, replacement, suspension or waiver of the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral therefor expect with the prior written consent of the Province having first been obtained.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied.

4.02 Adherence Conditions

The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to a Primary Obligation:

(a) the Primary Obligation is contemplated under the Trust Indenture as an Obligation Secured; and

~~(b) [NTD: already covered in process certificate in section 3.01 of the Process Agreement]~~

~~(c) [NTD: already covered under Process Agreement.]~~

(b) ~~(d)~~ the FSM delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG and, for clarity, such certificate is to be provided ~~in OPG's~~by such officers in their capacity as officers of OPG acting in its capacity as FSM) and addressed to the Indenture Trustee, ~~one Business Day~~ prior to the earlier of (i) one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, and (ii) on the Business Day on which the financial terms of the Primary Obligation are definitively determined (including the interest or discount rate applicable to any notes, bonds or other securities), confirming that the FSM has delivered to the Province a Process Certificate in accordance with Section [3.01] of the Process Agreement; and

(c) ~~(e) [NTD: This is more properly dealt with in Section 8.02~~the Province has not provided a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.~~]~~ [7]

[7] Province wants this mechanic embedded in the adherence conditions so it is explicitly understood and mechanically contemplated as the way the Province be sure future Limited Guarantees are cut-off opposite the indenture trustee.

4.03 Evidence of Satisfaction

A closing certificate delivered in accordance with Section 4.02 in connection with an incurrence or amendment of a Primary Obligation shall be determinative as to whether the applicable Adherence Conditions with respect thereto have been satisfied, notwithstanding that such certificate may include inaccuracies, be incomplete or otherwise be defective or deficient, and such closing certificate may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

ARTICLE V
PROVINCE MATTERS

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

~~(a) Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation:~~

~~i. to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee; or~~

~~ii. [as a result of assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI,] [NTD: This requires further discussion depending on the terms of the assignment and assumption agreement. If the Obligations Secured are assigned and assumed by the Province under Article VI, how would the Province be subrogated and entitled to the Beneficiary's rights and interests under the Approved Obligation? Consider limiting the application of this section 5.01 to the Limited Guarantee.]~~

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC.[, AS FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER[1]]

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

[1] OPG to consider if this agreement should form part of the overall covenant pattern (Program Agreement). We assume not. If OPG signs as FSM, consider the potential impact on the Trust, if the FSM is considered to be contracting on behalf of the Trust as principal. The intention was to keep these terms 'behind the scenes' and as between OPG and the Province.

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG")[, as Financial Services Manager for the Financing Entity in accordance with the Act,] is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of [■], 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.[1]

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, the [FSM] provided the Province with copies of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has confirmed by a notice delivered to [the FSM] that the reviewed forms (as further described in such notice) shall be Reviewed Documentation for the purposes of this Agreement.

This Agreement sets out the obligations [the FSM] has agreed to perform and assurances [the FSM] has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of [the FSM], and of the Province in accordance with the Act, have been done.

[1] ~~Note: This draft only addresses the first Financing Entity. If additional financing entities are established, revisions to this Agreement may be made at that time, in context. Any additional financing entities contemplated should be as contemplated in the Financing Plan.~~

ELECTION[2] TO ASSUME APPROVED OBLIGATIONS~~[2]~~

6.01 Election by the Province

At any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may (but shall not be obligated) elect to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor. To make such election, the Province shall duly complete and deliver to [the FSM] a notice in the form of Exhibit A (an "Election Notice"), which in turn will set forth the form of agreement (an "Assumption Agreement") setting forth the material terms and conditions under which the Province would assume and become obligated under each of the Obligations Secured. The Election Notice shall, among other things, specify the date on which the Province proposes to assume the Obligations Secured, which date shall be no earlier than 20 Business Days following delivery of the Election Notice to [the FSM] (the "Proposed Assumption Date").

6.02 Details regarding Obligations Secured

Promptly following the delivery of the Election Notice to [the FSM], [the FSM] shall provide the following information and documentation to the Province:

(a) a summary of the amounts that will be owing under all Obligations Secured as of the Proposed Assumption Date, together with a detailed schedule setting out the dates on which such amounts will become due and payable under the Obligations Secured;

(b) a summary of the rights arising under the Obligations Secured that permit the Financing Entity to assign the Obligations Secured to the Province, including details regarding any conditions precedent to such assignment and the related assumption becoming effective and any notices, filings, consents or other actions that will be required in order to implement and effect such assignment and assumption;

(c) current versions of all documentation under which the Obligations Secured arise;

[2] OPG's proposal to move Art VI to the Protection Agreement is not consistent with the original basis for the Process Agreement - to keep the details and plumbing out of the "external" document. If we move toward putting all of this into the Protection Agreement, it will raise additional drafting issues (e.g., we will have to have a parallel "Breach Event" concept in the Protection Agreement that will deal with these sorts of undertakings and allow for a suspension of the Limited Guarantee). OPG to advise if that approach is preferred.

~~[2] Note to Province/Blakes: Article 6 to be moved and merged with Article 6 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement with appropriate revisions. It is more appropriate in that agreement. See also the comments in Article 6 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement.~~

(e) all income tax returns and assessments, financial statements and notices of proceedings of or pertaining to the Financing Entity or its business and any documentation related thereto, including any pleadings, appeals, objections, qualifications or other similar materials in respect of the Financing Entity or any Program Agreement; and

(f) the form of Assumption Agreement in respect of the assignment and assumption of all Obligations Secured ~~is~~ attached as Exhibit E to the Change of Law Protection Agreement.[3]

6.03 Settlement of Terms

Within ~~20~~30 Business Days following receipt by the Province of the information and documentation to be provided under Section 6.02, the Province shall confirm in writing whether or not it will proceed with the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured and, if it will be proceeding with the assignment and assumption, the date on which the Province intends that assignment and assumption will be effected, which may not be earlier than the Proposed Assumption Date. If it will be proceeding with such assignment and assumption, the Province will deliver an Assumption Notice as contemplated under Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, which will specify such date as the "Assumption Closing Date" for the purposes thereof.

6.04 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

[The FSM] shall cooperate with the Province and will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Financing Entity to cooperate, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the applicable Assumption Closing Date.[4]

6.05 Terms of Obligations Secured

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC.[, AS FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER[1]]

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

[1] OPG to consider if this agreement should form part of the overall covenant pattern (Program Agreement). We assume not. If OPG signs as FSM, consider the potential impact on the Trust, if the FSM is considered to be contracting on behalf of the Trust as principal. The intention was to keep these terms 'behind the scenes' and as between OPG and the Province.

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG")[, as Financial Services Manager for the Financing Entity in accordance with the Act,] is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of [■], 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, the [FSM] provided the Province with copies of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has confirmed by a notice delivered to [the FSM] that the reviewed forms (as further described in such notice) shall be Reviewed Documentation for the purposes of this Agreement.

This Agreement sets out the obligations [the FSM] has agreed to perform and assurances [the FSM] has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of [the FSM], and of the Province in accordance with the Act, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

(d) a statement confirming that any disclosure made in respect of the Primary Obligation (including any Disclosure Document, press release or other written communication prepared for dissemination to third parties in relation to the Primary Obligation) that refers to or describes the terms, effect or adherence of or to this Agreement or the Change of Law Protection Agreement has been made available for review to the Province prior to use or dissemination and the Province provided its written consent to such use or dissemination, other than where such disclosure was substantially the same as a disclosure previously made and for which the Province had previously provided its written consent;

(e) a statement that no Breach Event has occurred on or prior to the date of the Process Certificate, unless such Breach Event has been waived by the Province in writing; and

(f) confirmation that, at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under the Primary Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under all Approved Obligations, do not and will not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum; for clarity, Repayments under Obligations Secured owing in currencies other than Canadian dollars and in respect of which a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures shall be valued for this purpose on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars for so long as such Derivative Agreement is in good standing.

3.02 Acknowledgment

The parties acknowledge that the Process Certificate is the "process certificate" referred to in Subsection 4.02(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

3.03 Meaning of "Reviewed Documentation"

For the purposes of Subsection 3.01(c), the term "Reviewed Documentation" shall mean each Transaction Document (including any change, addition or supplement thereto) that, at the relevant time:

(a) is a Transaction Document provided to the Province prior to the making of this Agreement and in respect of which the notice contemplated in the fifth recital to this Agreement has been delivered by the Province to [the FSM]; or

(b) is a Transaction Document provided to the Province in accordance with Subsection 2.01(b) that has been accepted by the Province, as confirmed by way of a written notice of acceptance from the Province delivered to [the FSM].

3.04 Meaning of "Substantially in the Form"

For the purposes of Subsection 3.01(c), the term "Substantially in the Form" shall mean:

(a) with respect to the Reviewed Documentation referred to in clauses (i) to (xi) of the definition of "Transaction Documents", that there are no differences between the proposed documents and such Reviewed Documentation that could result in a change in the material terms or conditions applicable to the applicable Primary Obligation, including regarding the timing of or circumstances under which related payments are or may become due or accrue (including as a result of any default, acceleration, termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization), or that would affect the Province's rights of subrogation or assignment (including pursuant to Section 5.01 or Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement) or its interests as a subrogee or an assignee, that would arise as a result of performing the Limited Guarantee in respect of the applicable Primary Obligation or upon the assumption of obligations in accordance with Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing does not apply to any variable terms to be set forth in the proposed documents as are reasonably contemplated in the Reviewed Documentation, including the particular financial terms, rates and levels set forth in the proposed documents other than to the extent that the forms of Reviewed Documentation themselves specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters with respect to such financial terms, rates, levels and parameters; and

(b) with respect to the Reviewed Documentation referred to in clause (xii) of the definition of "Transaction Documents", that there are no material differences between the form and substance of the proposed Disclosure Document and such form of Disclosure Document and that the proposed Disclosure Document complies in all material respects with all applicable securities disclosure requirements relating to the Primary Obligation subject to distribution thereunder.

ARTICLE IV
PROTECTION AGREEMENT MAXIMUM

4.01 Protection Agreement Maximum

(a) Not less than 15 Business Days prior to the proposed incurrence of the first Funding Obligation, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province: (i) a forecast setting out OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the next following 24 month period (the "Initial Forecast Period"), which expectations shall be consistent with the Financing Plan (the "Initial Forecast"); and (ii) notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum, which may not exceed the Initial Forecast.

(b) Not more than 10 Business Days following receipt of the Initial Forecast and notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(a), the Province may disagree with the Initial Forecast and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or the Initial Forecast, (ii) the Initial Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the initial Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the Initial Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of the Province, and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.

(c) Between nine (9) and twelve (12) months prior to the end of the Initial Forecast Period, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province an updated forecast setting out the sum of (1) the aggregate amount of Repayments that will arise in the future under Approved Obligations that are then outstanding and (2) OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the period ending 24 months following the Initial Forecast Period, which expectation shall be consistent with the then applicable Financing Plan. Such updated forecast shall be further updated on a similar basis with respect to each successive 24 month period or more frequently with the consent of the Province if at any time OPG has knowledge that the most recent forecast is materially inaccurate (the Initial Forecast and each such updated forecast, each a "Forecast"). Together with each Forecast, OPG shall also provide a revised Protection Agreement Maximum, which may not exceed such Forecast.

(d) Not more than 10 Business Days following receipt of any further Forecast and notice of the revised Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(c), the Province may disagree with such further Forecast or revised Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or such further Forecast, (ii) the further Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the revised Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the further Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of the Province, and the revised Protection Agreement Maximum will be further revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.

(e) For clarity, Repayments under Obligations Secured owing in currencies other than Canadian dollars and in respect of which a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures shall be valued for the purposes of this Section 4.01 on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars for so long as such Derivative Agreement is in good standing.

ARTICLE V
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

5.01 Representations and Warranties of [the FSM]

[The FSM] represents and warrants that on the date hereof and on each day that a Primary Obligation is incurred or amended:

(a) The Financing Entity is a trust duly constituted and validly existing under the laws of the Province of Ontario, is duly qualified to carry on its business in each jurisdiction in which it carries on business, and has the power and authority to perform the acts that OPG, as the FSM, may cause it to perform pursuant to this Agreement and to own its property and carry on its business in accordance with the Program Agreements.

(b) OPG is a corporation duly constituted and validly existing under the laws of the Province of Ontario and has the power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement and all instruments and agreements delivered pursuant hereto.

(c) OPG has been validly appointed, and has irrecovably accepted such appointment, as the FSM in accordance with the Act. OPG has the power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations as the FSM under the Program Agreements and all instruments and agreements delivered pursuant thereto.

(d) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and every instrument or agreement delivered pursuant hereto or in its capacity as the FSM has been or will be duly authorized by all requisite action by OPG and constitute a valid and binding obligation in accordance with its terms subject to (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium and similar laws at the time in effect affecting the rights of creditors generally, and (ii) equitable principles which may limit the availability of certain remedies, including the remedy of specific performance.

(e) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of OPG, threatened against or affecting the Financing Entity at law or in equity or before or by any Governmental Authority, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which would result in any material adverse change in the business, operations, prospects, properties, assets or condition, financial or otherwise, of the Financing Entity or in the ability of the Financing Entity to perform its obligations under the Program Agreements.

(f) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of OPG, threatened against or affecting OPG at law or in equity or before or by any Governmental Authority, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which would result in any material adverse change in the business, operations, prospects, properties, assets or condition, financial or otherwise, of OPG or in the ability of the OPG to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any Program Agreements.

(g) The performance by the Financing Entity of the Program Agreements does not conflict with, will not conflict with, does not result in, and will not result in, any breach of, and does not constitute, a default under, the Declaration of Trust or any agreements or instruments to which the Financing Entity is a party or by which it or any of its property and assets are bound.

(h) Neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement, the Program Agreements nor any agreements or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, the consummation of the transactions herein or therein, nor compliance with the terms, conditions and provisions hereof or thereof conflicts with or will conflict with, or results or will result in any breach of, or constitutes a default under, any of the provisions of the constating documents of OPG or any agreements or instruments to which OPG is a party or by which it or any of its property and assets are bound.

(i) No consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, registration, filing or qualification with, or giving of notice to, or taking of any other action in respect of, any Governmental Authority on the part of OPG is required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Program Agreements or any agreements or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement, the Program Agreements or any agreements or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, except those which have been obtained.

5.02 Representations and Warranties of the Province

The Province hereby represents and warrants that:

(a) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Province have been authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Province;

(b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Province do not result in the violation of any applicable law; and

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Province.

ARTICLE VI
ELECTION[2] TO ASSUME APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

6.01 Election by the Province

At any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may (but shall not be obligated) elect to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor. To make such election, the Province shall duly complete and deliver to [the FSM] a notice in the form of Exhibit A (an "Election Notice"), which in turn will set forth the form of agreement (an "Assumption Agreement") setting forth the material terms and conditions under which the Province would assume and become obligated under each of the Obligations Secured. The Election Notice shall, among other things, specify the date on which the Province proposes to assume the Obligations Secured, which date shall be no earlier than 20 Business Days following delivery of the Election Notice to [the FSM] (the "Proposed Assumption Date").

6.02 Details regarding Obligations Secured

Promptly following the delivery of the Election Notice to [the FSM], [the FSM] shall provide the following information and documentation to the Province:

[2] OPG's proposal to move Art VI to the Protection Agreement is not consistent with the original basis for the Process Agreement - to keep the details and plumbing out of the "external" document. If we move toward putting all of this into the Protection Agreement, it will raise additional drafting issues (e.g., we will have to have a parallel "Breach Event" concept in the Protection Agreement that will deal with these sorts of undertakings and allow for a suspension of the Limited Guarantee). OPG to advise if that approach is preferred.

(a) a summary of the amounts that will be owing under all Obligations Secured as of the Proposed Assumption Date, together with a detailed schedule setting out the dates on which such amounts will become due and payable under the Obligations Secured;

(b) a summary of the rights arising under the Obligations Secured that permit the Financing Entity to assign the Obligations Secured to the Province, including details regarding any conditions precedent to such assignment and the related assumption becoming effective and any notices, filings, consents or other actions that will be required in order to implement and effect such assignment and assumption;

(c) current versions of all documentation under which the Obligations Secured arise;

(d) copies of all correspondence exchanged between OPG, as the FSM, or the Financing Entity, on the one hand, and any Specified Creditor, Rating Agency or the Indenture Trustee, on the other hand, in each case that may reasonably be considered to be material to the assumption and performance of the Obligations Secured by the Province;

(e) all income tax returns and assessments, financial statements and notices of proceedings of or pertaining to the Financing Entity or its business and any documentation related thereto, including any pleadings, appeals, objections, qualifications or other similar materials in respect of the Financing Entity or any Program Agreement; and

(f) the form of Assumption Agreement in respect of the assignment and assumption of all Obligations Secured attached as Exhibit E to the Change of Law Protection Agreement.[3]

6.03 Settlement of Terms

Within 30 Business Days following receipt by the Province of the information and documentation to be provided under Section 6.02, the Province shall confirm in writing whether or not it will proceed with the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured and, if it will be proceeding with the assignment and assumption, the date on which the Province intends that assignment and assumption will be effected, which may not be earlier than the Proposed Assumption Date. If it will be proceeding with such assignment and assumption, the Province will deliver an Assumption Notice as contemplated under Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, which will specify such date as the "Assumption Closing Date" for the purposes thereof.

[3] Torys to provide a draft of the proposed form of global Assumption Agreement for all Obligations Secured. The Province may be guided by OPG on this, but we note that it seems simplistic to think that the same assumption agreement will work for swaps, debt and service obligations.

6.04 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

[The FSM] shall cooperate with the Province and will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Financing Entity to cooperate, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the applicable Assumption Closing Date.

6.05 Terms of Obligations Secured

In order to permit the Province to assume the Obligations Secured in the circumstances contemplated herein, [the FSM] shall cause the Financing Entity to ensure that all Obligations Secured permit such an assignment to and assumption by the Province substantially in accordance with the terms and on the basis contemplated in the Assumption Agreement, without any penalty or make-whole payment, or any requirement for further consent, approval or agreement, or alternatively, in the case of any Obligations Secured entered into by or on behalf of the Financing Entity for the provision of on-going services to the Financing Entity permitting the satisfaction and termination of such Obligations Secured on or prior to the effective time of such assumption without any acceleration of future fees, profits or other like amounts, other than to the extent of payment obligations arise under market standard mark-to-market payment terms and conditions included on a commercially reasonable basis under a Derivative Agreement.[4]

BREACH EVENTS

7.01 Breach Events

"Breach Event" shall mean the occurrence or existence of any one or more of the following:

(a) a default in the performance, or breach, of any covenants of [the FSM] under this Agreement, which continues for thirty (30) days after written notice by the Province to [the FSM] of such default or breach;

(b) any representation or warranty made by [the FSM] in this Agreement, any certification made in a Process Certificate, or any certification made in a certificate contemplated by Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, proves to be incorrect on the date made and, if curable, is not cured

[4]The Trust Indenture will need to permit the obligations of the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee and the Noteholders to be assigned to and assumed by the Province in accordance with an assumption agreement, substantially in a form of agreement to be set out in an exhibit to the Trust Indenture. The Province agrees that the same form of the assumption agreement should also be an exhibit to the Change of Law Protection Agreement. The Trust Indenture will need to be revised to ensure that the Province's assignment and assumption right is fully contemplated and may be implemented without any requirement for further Specified Creditor or other third party consents. Among other changes, it is contemplated that Torys will add the following to the MTI to address this requirement: (i) Specified Creditors will be required to acknowledge the rights of the Province to assume the Obligations Secured on the basis contemplated in the form of assumption agreement, and (ii) the Indenture Trustee will be permitted to enter into and give effect to the global Assumption Agreement without the consent of Specified Creditors or any other third parties.

within thirty (30) days after written notice by the Province to [the FSM] of such misrepresentation; or

(c) OPG is no longer the Manager or actions have been taken by or on behalf of the Indenture Trustee to remove OPG as the Manager.

7.02 Notice on Breach Event

If any Breach Event shall have occurred and not been waived in writing by the Province, the Province shall have the right at its option, upon written notice to [the FSM], and in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies available hereunder at law or equity, to provide a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, [the FSM] and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC.[, AS FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER[1]]

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

[1] OPG to consider if this agreement should form part of the overall covenant pattern (Program Agreement). We assume not. If OPG signs as FSM, consider the potential impact on the Trust, if the FSM is considered to be contracting on behalf of the Trust as principal. The intention was to keep these terms 'behind the scenes' and as between OPG and the Province.

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG")~~,~~[, as Financial Services Manager for the Financing Entity in accordance with the Act,] is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of [■], 2017, ~~the FSM established~~ the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.[1]

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, ~~OPG~~the [FSM] provided the Province with copies of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has confirmed by a notice delivered to ~~OPG~~[the FSM] that the reviewed forms (as further described in such notice) shall be Reviewed Documentation for the purposes of this Agreement.

This Agreement sets out the obligations ~~OPG~~[the FSM] has agreed to perform and assurances ~~OPG~~[the FSM] has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of ~~OPG~~[the FSM], and of the Province in accordance with the Act, have been done.

[1] ~~Note: This draft only addresses the first Financing Entity. If additional financing entities are established, revisions to this Agreement may be made at that time, in context. Any additional financing entities contemplated should be as contemplated in the Financing Plan.~~

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS AND OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

1.01 Interpretation

inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the initial Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the Initial Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of the Province, and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.

(c) Between nine (9) and twelve (12) months prior to the end of the Initial Forecast Period, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province an updated forecast setting out the sum of (1) the aggregate amount of Repayments that will arise in the future under Approved Obligations that are then outstanding and (2) OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the period ending 24 months following the Initial Forecast Period, which expectation shall be consistent with the then applicable Financing Plan. Such updated forecast shall be further updated on a similar basis with respect to each successive 24 month period or more frequently with the consent of the Province if at any time OPG has knowledge that the most recent forecast is materially inaccurate (the Initial Forecast and each such updated forecast, each a "Forecast"). Together with each Forecast, OPG shall also provide a revised Protection Agreement Maximum, which may not exceed such Forecast.

(d) ~~Upon receiving an updated Forecast, the Province shall determine whether or not the Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised. In determining whether the Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised, the Province may have regard to (but not be bound by) such updated Forecast. Any determination by the Province to revise the Protection Agreement Maximum will be confirmed by setting out a new Protection Agreement Maximum in a written notice from the Province to the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, the delivery of which will be conclusive evidence that such new Protection Agreement Maximum will apply until it may be further so revised.~~ Not more than 10 Business Days following receipt of any further Forecast and notice of the revised Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(c), the Province may disagree with such further Forecast or revised Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or such further Forecast, (ii) the further Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the revised Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the further Forecast. (e) For clarity, Repayments under Obligations Secured owing in currencies other than Canadian dollars and in respect of which a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures shall be valued for the purposes of this Section 4.01 on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars for so long as such Derivative Agreement is in good standing.

6.01 Election by the Province

To make such election, the Province shall duly complete and deliver to ~~OPG~~[the FSM] a notice in the form of Exhibit A (an "Election Notice"), which in turn will set forth the form of agreement (an "Assumption Agreement") setting forth the material terms and conditions under which the Province would assume and become obligated under each of the Obligations Secured. The Election Notice shall, among other things, specify the date on which the Province proposes to assume the Obligations Secured, which date shall be no earlier than 20 Business Days following delivery of the Election Notice to ~~OPG~~[the FSM] (the "Proposed Assumption Date").

6.02 Details regarding Obligations Secured

Promptly following the delivery of the Election Notice to ~~OPG, OPG~~[the FSM], [the FSM] shall provide the following information and documentation to the Province:

(a) a summary of the amounts that will be owing under all Obligations Secured as of the Proposed Assumption Date, together with a detailed schedule setting out the dates on which such amounts will become due and payable under the Obligations Secured;

(e) all income tax returns and assessments, financial statements and notices of proceedings of or pertaining to the Financing Entity or its business and any

[2] OPG's proposal to move Art VI to the Protection Agreement is not consistent with the original basis for the Process Agreement - to keep the details and plumbing out of the "external" document. If we move toward putting all of this into the Protection Agreement, it will raise additional drafting issues (e.g., we will have to have a parallel "Breach Event" concept in the Protection Agreement that will deal with these sorts of undertakings and allow for a suspension of the Limited Guarantee). OPG to advise if that approach is preferred.

documentation related thereto, including any pleadings, appeals, objections, qualifications or other similar materials in respect of the Financing Entity or any Program Agreement; and

(f) ~~a draft version of~~ the form of Assumption Agreement ~~prepared in relation to each Obligation Secured, prepared in accordance with and having regard to the requirements of the relevant agreement(s) under which the Obligation Secured arises.~~ in respect of the assignment and assumption of all Obligations Secured attached as Exhibit E to the Change of Law Protection Agreement.[3]

6.03 Settlement of Terms

Within ~~20~~30 Business Days following receipt by the Province of the information and documentation to be provided under Section 6.02, the Province shall confirm in writing whether or not it will proceed with the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured and, if it will be proceeding with the assignment and assumption, the date on which the Province intends that assignment and assumption will be effected, which may not be earlier than the Proposed Assumption Date. If it will be proceeding with such assignment and assumption, the Province will deliver an Assumption Notice as contemplated under Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, which will specify such date as the "Assumption Closing Date" for the purposes thereof.

6.04 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

~~OPG~~[The FSM] shall cooperate with the Province and~~, as FSM,~~ will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Financing Entity to cooperate, and ~~each~~ shall use its ~~best~~commercially reasonable efforts, to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the applicable Assumption Closing Date.~~3~~

[3] Torys to provide a draft of the proposed form of global Assumption Agreement for all Obligations Secured. The Province may be guided by OPG on this, but we note that it seems simplistic to think that the same assumption agreement will work for swaps, debt and service obligations.

~~[3] Note: Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be considered.~~

(b) any representation or warranty made by ~~OPG~~[the FSM] in this Agreement, any certification made in a Process Certificate, or any certification made in a certificate contemplated by Section ~~4.03~~4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, proves to be incorrect on the date made and, if curable, is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by the Province to [the FSM] of such misrepresentation; or

(c) OPG is no longer the ~~FSM, the Administrative Agent or the~~ Manager or actions have been taken by or on behalf of the Indenture Trustee to remove OPG as ~~the FSM, the Administrative Agent or~~ the Manager.

7.02 Notice on Breach Event

If any Breach Event shall have occurred and not been waived in writing by the Province, the Province shall have the right at its option, upon written notice to ~~OPG~~[the FSM], and in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies available hereunder at law or equity, to provide a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, [the FSM] and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

[4] ~~Note:~~ The Trust Indenture will need to ~~include a clause providing that~~permit the obligations of the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee and the Noteholders ~~may~~to be assigned to and assumed by the Province in accordance with an assumption agreement, substantially in ~~the~~a form of agreement to be set out in an exhibit to the Trust Indenture. The Trust Indenture will need to be revised to ensure that the Province's assignment and assumption right is fully contemplated and may be implemented without any requirement for further Specified Creditor or other third party consents. Among other changes, it is contemplated that Torys will add the following to the MTI to address this requirement: (i) Specified Creditors will be required to acknowledge the rights of the Province to assume the Obligations Secured on the basis contemplated in the form of assumption agreement, and (ii) the Indenture Trustee will be permitted to enter into and give effect to the global Assumption Agreement without the consent of Specified Creditors or any other third parties.

AND

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, AS TRUSTEE OF FAIR HYDRO TRUST

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC., AS FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER

AND

BNY TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, AS INDENTURE TRUSTEE

CHANGE OF LAW PROTECTION AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

This AGREEMENT, among Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Financing Entity Trustee") of Fair Hydro Trust, a trust under the laws of the Province of Ontario (the "Financing Entity")[1], Ontario Power Generation Inc., in its capacity as Manager of the Financing Entity and in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the Act (the "FSM") and BNY Trust Company of Canada, a trust company existing under the laws of Canada, as Indenture Trustee, is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council dated as of ■ (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust[2] dated as of ■, 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The Financing Entity Trustee, in its capacity as trustee of the Financing Entity, and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

[1] Province needs the Trust as a party to be assured of its rights of subrogation, step-in, etc.

[2] Torys to confirm that Trust is a "financing entity" under OFHPA. Under definition, FSM to establish or cause to be established. DofT indicates Computershare declares trust. Need to have this confirmed for purposes of authority under OFHPA 5(3), among other things.

The FSM and the Province will concurrently enter into the Process Agreement, under which the FSM will agree to perform certain related activities and to provide certain assurances on which the Province will rely, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation and ensuring that the Province's assumption right may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

The Indenture Trustee agrees to provide the Province with the computations and calculations used by the Indenture Trustee to prepare each such statement of account promptly following a request therefor.

All covenants and agreements of the Indenture Trustee, the Financing Entity, the Financing Entity Trustee or the FSM in this Agreement shall bind their respective successors, co-trustees and agents.

1.08 Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

Unless stated otherwise, all amounts herein are stated in Canadian Dollars.

1.18 References to Acts of the Financing Entity

For greater certainty, where any reference is made in this Agreement, or in any other instrument executed pursuant hereto or contemplated hereby to which the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee, as trustee of the Financing Entity, is party, to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against, or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to (i) the Financing Entity or (ii) the Financing Entity Trustee, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to, the Financing Entity Trustee as trustee of the Financing Entity.

1.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Province shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.19 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may provide a written demand, in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand"), to the Province requiring the Province to pay the amount of the Approved Obligations that would have been payable from Available Collections had the Protection Event not occurred[3] from time to time by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee as and when they become due and payable, without Acceleration. A Payment Demand will not be valid with respect to an Approved Obligation until the amount claimed becomes due and payable in respect of the Approved Obligation, without Acceleration, in accordance with the Trust Indenture and has not otherwise been paid by the Financing Entity.

(b) Following receipt of a valid Payment Demand under Subsection 2.01(a), the Province shall pay the amounts that would have been payable from Available Collections had the Protection Event not occurred by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, on behalf of the applicable Beneficiaries, in respect of each Approved Obligation, in each case as and when the Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms and on its scheduled, specified or determined payment date, as determined without regard to any Acceleration or rights of Acceleration arising under the Approved Obligation, in each case by the Province depositing or causing the deposit of the applicable payment amount into the Protection Account[4] on or before the day on which the applicable Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms (the "Limited Guarantee"). For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation.

(c) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

[3] The amount "owing" under an obligation (i.e., balloon) will different from the amount available to be paid in respect of such owed amount (based on Available Collections). The Province is not obligated to pay more than the obligations that would have been paid from CEAs had they been collected.

[4] Province needs to see how the Trust Indenture will be modified to address addition of Protection Account (i.e., payment mechanics; Protection Account to be part of the Collateral; mechanics of how funds move to Collection Account; absence of equitable claims; etc.). Province will need to know that all amounts will be applied for their intended purposes without undermining Province's step-in and subrogation rights.

(d) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

(e) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

2.02 Intentionally Deleted.

2.03 Absence of Set-off

Subject to applicable law, the Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Protection Account[5] in Satisfaction

(a) On or before the date of delivery of a Payment Demand to the Province, the Indenture Trustee shall cause to be established and maintained an Eligible Deposit Account (the "Protection Account") in the name of the Indenture Trustee, bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds and other property credited thereto are held for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Beneficiaries. The Protection Account shall be under the control of the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. If, at any time, the institution holding the Protection Account ceases to be an Eligible Institution, the FSM shall notify the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee upon being notified in writing of such ineligibility (or the FSM on its behalf) shall within 30 days (or such longer period, not to exceed 45 days, so long as the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied) establish a new Protection Account that is an Eligible Deposit Account and shall transfer any funds or other property from such Protection Account to such new Protection Account. From the date each such new Protection Account is established, it shall be the "Protection Account." for purposes of this Agreement. Funds credited to the Protection Account will be invested and held in accordance with Section 7.03 of the Trust Indenture on the basis that it is an Issuer Account.

(b) Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Indenture Trustee shall apply the full amount paid by the Province into the Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation to pay the corresponding amount due and payable to the applicable Beneficiaries under the Approved Obligation. Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation, the amount so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries and thereby reduce the amount due and payable to such Beneficiaries in respect of the Approved Obligation, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid[6]. For greater certainty, the obligations arising in respect of the Approved Obligation shall not be reduced by such payment as the Province shall become entitled to the rights contemplated under Section 5.01 in relation to such continuing obligations.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

[6] A corresponding provision needs to be added to the Trust Indenture and each other contract under which the Obligation Secured arises, so that the Beneficiaries are bound by these applications and the agreement of the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations, or until the Province is no longer required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee in accordance with Section 6.03.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine,

provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee shall not permit any change, modification, alteration, amendment, supplement, extension, renewal, compromise, novation, replacement, suspension or waiver of the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral therefor expect with the prior written consent of the Province having first been obtained.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied.

4.02 Adherence Conditions

The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to a Primary Obligation:

(a) the Primary Obligation is contemplated under the Trust Indenture as an Obligation Secured; and

(b) the FSM delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG and, for clarity, such certificate is to be provided by such officers in their capacity as officers of OPG acting in its capacity as FSM) and addressed to the Indenture Trustee, prior to the earlier of (i) one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, and (ii) on the Business Day on which the financial terms of the Primary Obligation are definitively determined (including the interest or discount rate applicable to any notes, bonds or other securities), confirming that the FSM has delivered to the Province a Process Certificate in accordance with Section [3.01] of the Process Agreement; and

(c) the Province has not provided a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. [7]

4.03 Evidence of Satisfaction

A closing certificate delivered in accordance with Section 4.02 in connection with an incurrence or amendment of a Primary Obligation shall be determinative as to whether the applicable Adherence Conditions with respect thereto have been satisfied, notwithstanding that such certificate may include inaccuracies, be incomplete or otherwise be defective or deficient, and such closing certificate may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

ARTICLE V
PROVINCE MATTERS

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

(a) Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (i) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive distributions of such amount by the Financing Entity in accordance with and in the priority applicable to the Approved Obligation applicable in respect of the payment under the Trust Indenture, (ii) the benefits of the related Collateral and (iii) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)), under and in respect of such Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

[7] Province wants this mechanic embedded in the adherence conditions so it is explicitly understood and mechanically contemplated as the way the Province be sure future Limited Guarantees are cut-off opposite the indenture trustee.

(a) The Province (i) acknowledges and agrees in favour of the Indenture Trustee that, upon being subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation in accordance with Section 5.01(a), the Province, in its capacity as a Specified Creditor, will be subject to the provisions applicable to Specified Creditors under the Trust Indenture, including [Section 7.11 (Payments Held in Trust), Section 8.12 (Limitation on Suits), Sections 7.04 and 8.13 (Payment Priorities), Section 8.14 (Limited Recourse) and Section 16.01 (No Petition) thereof] and (ii) confirms that the Indenture Trustee shall send notices to the Province, in its capacity as a Specified Creditor, in accordance with Section 9.02.

5.02 Priorities

For greater certainty, the rights, interests and entitlements of the Province as an assignee and subrogee of and with respect to an Approved Obligation shall rank equally with the rights, interests and entitlements of a Beneficiary for whom a Limited Guarantee payment is made in respect of, and to the extent of the payment made to satisfy, the Approved Obligation and the Province shall not be subject to postponement or subordination with respect thereto except to the extent of the priorities established in relation to the Approved Obligation under the Trust Indenture.

5.03 Province May Perform Other Program Agreement Covenants.

If the Financing Entity fails to perform any covenant under any Program Agreement, the Province may (but, except as expressly provided for under this Agreement, shall not be obligated to) perform such covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity. If the Province performs such a covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity, all sums expended or advanced by the Province in so performing the covenant will bear interest at the rate of interest determined by the Province to reflect market terms and conditions for a borrowing made by the Province at the relevant time from the date of expenditure until repayment by the Financing Entity and will (together with such interest) be paid by the Financing Entity upon demand and will until paid form part of the Obligations Secured subject to Sections [7.04 and 8.13] of the Trust Indenture and constitute a Finance Amount.[8]

5.04 Representations and Warranties

The Province hereby represents and warrants that:

(a) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Province have been authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Province;

(b) the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Province do not result in the violation of any applicable law; and

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Province.

[8] Payments to be addressed in the Trust Indenture like servicer advances under the waterfall provisions.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS SECURED

6.01 Delivery of Assumption Notice

Following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may provide notice (in the form of Exhibit B) to the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the terms of the Process Agreement, that the Province has elected to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor (the "Assumption Notice"). The Assumption Notice shall specify the date on which the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured will be effective (the "Assumption Closing Date").

6.02 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

The Indenture Trustee, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Province will cooperate and use best efforts to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the Assumption Closing Date.[9]

6.03 Effect of Assumption

On the date that the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province becomes effective (the "Assumption Effective Date"), the Province shall no longer be required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee but will instead become a primary obligor under the Obligations Secured assumed pursuant to and in accordance with an applicable Assumption Agreement. For greater certainty, the obligations of the Province so assumed will not be secured obligations of the Province and the obligees thereof will have no right, interest or claim to or in respect of the Collateral or any proceeds therefrom. [NTD: Need to move Article VI of the Change of Law Process Agreement into this Article VI and amend accordingly.[10] Also, we will need to attach the form of Assumption Agreement as an Exhibit to this Agreement that will be used for the assignment and assumption of all Obligations Secured. Contrary to the statement in Section 6.02(f) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, there will not be a separate form of Assumption Agreement for each Obligation Secured. [11]]

6.04 Interim Period

Until the effective time of the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province on the Assumption Effective Date, the Province shall continue to perform and be obligated under the Limited Guarantee.

[9] Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be provided by OPG.

[10] The idea was to not burden the external agreement with the necessary steps for the Province to be in a position to step-in. If the preference is to include more in this external agreement, the Province will not object subject to further consideration of drafting issues.

[11] It has been assumed that there may be variations depending on the nature of the underlying obligations. A root form of Assumption Agreement, modified to conform substantially to that form in connection with a particular obligation, was the idea. To be further discussed.

6.05 Rights in respect of the Assets Comprising the Collateral

Upon assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the Financing Entity's rights and interests under and in respect of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral and all proceeds therefrom, free and clear of any liens, encumbrances or restrictions arising under or as a result of the Trust Indenture. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all such rights and interests as an absolute assignee of the Financing Entity, with effect from and after the time of such assumption, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights, interests or equities that arise thereafter in respect of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral as between the Beneficiaries and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall thereupon recognize the Province as the absolute owner of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral.

ARTICLE VII
INDENTURE TRUSTEE MATTERS

7.01 Limited Recourse

No recourse may be taken, directly or indirectly, with respect to the obligations of the Financing Entity under this Agreement, or any certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or therewith, against (a) the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, (b) any owner of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or (c) any partner, owner, beneficiary, agent, officer, director, employee or agent of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, any holder of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee or of any successor or assign of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, except as any such Person may have expressly agreed (it being understood that the Financing Entity Trustee has no such obligations in its individual capacity).

7.02 Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes

The recitals contained herein will be taken as the statements of the Province and the FSM, and the Indenture Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Indenture Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement.

7.03 Representations and Covenants of the Indenture Trustee

The Indenture Trustee represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) the Indenture Trustee is a trust company organized, existing and in good standing under the laws of Canada;

(b) the Indenture Trustee has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Agreement and other documents to which it is a party;

(c) each of this Agreement and the other documents to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by the Indenture Trustee and constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation in accordance with its terms; and

(d) the Indenture Trustee is authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each of the provinces and territories of Canada.

ARTICLE VIII
SUSPENSION OF ADHERENCE FOR NEW PRIMARY OBLIGATIONS

8.01 Suspension Notice

A written notice in the form of Exhibit C (a "Suspension Notice") may be provided by the Province to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity:

(a) upon the Province becoming aware of the occurrence of a Program Breach; and

(b) following the occurrence of a Breach Event that has not been waived in writing by the Province.

8.02 Suspension

If a Suspension Notice has been provided under Section 8.01 (the provision of such notice being a "Suspension Event"), the Limited Guarantee shall not apply in respect of any Obligation Secured incurred on or after the time such Suspension Notice is delivered. For greater certainty, the rights of the Province under Article VI shall apply in respect of all Obligations Secured, including if incurred on or after the time such Suspension Notice is delivered.

8.03 Termination Notice

On (a) the occurrence of a Suspension Event or (b) the Assumption Effective Date, the Province may provide to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity a notice in the form of Exhibit D (a "Termination Notice").[12]

8.04 No Impact on Adherence

For greater certainty, the occurrence of Suspension Event or a failure by the FSM or the Financing Entity to perform its covenants under this Agreement will not invalidate or extinguish the obligations of the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of Approved Obligations

[12] The suspension right in favour of the Province is intended to allow the Province to cut-off future obligations under this Agreement, but not affect rights that have arisen prior to the suspension notice. The termination notice is a further step that allows the Province to bring this agreement to an end, but that only happens (under section 9.01) after all amounts capable of becoming due under the Limited Guarantee have been paid (i.e., the last obligation incurred prior to the suspension notice has been satisfied), including as a result of an assumption under Art VI.

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council dated as of ■ (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust[2] dated as of ■, 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The ~~FSM, as agent of the~~ Financing Entity Trustee, in its capacity as trustee of the Financing Entity, and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the

The FSM[3] and the Province will concurrently enter into the Process Agreement, under which the FSM will agree to perform certain related activities and to provide certain assurances on which the Province will rely, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation and ensuring that the Province's assumption right may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity, the FSM[4] and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS AND OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

1.01 Interpretation

For all purposes of this Agreement, except as otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) the terms used in this Agreement that are defined in Schedule A have the meanings assigned to them in Schedule A;

(b) words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa, words importing general shall include all genders or the neuter, and words importing the neuter shall include all genders;

[3] ~~Need to confirm parties to the Process Agreement. OPG, acting as FSM, implies potential limitation on OPG's liability.~~

[4] ~~Deletion of the Trust as a party is unacceptable since would impact Province's rights against Trust's assets (e.g., as a subrogee).~~ therefor~~, [except in each case as referenced in the definition of Protection Event]~~[5];

(e) the word "will" shall be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word "shall". The word "or" is not exclusive;

(f) any reference to this Agreement or any other agreement, document or instrument shall be construed as a reference to this Agreement or, as the case may be, such other agreement, document or instrument as the same may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, varied, replaced, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified;

The words "herein", "hereof" and "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Article, Section, Subsection, Schedule, Exhibit or other subdivision;

(h) "including" and words of similar import will be deemed to be followed by "without limitation"; and

(i) with respect to the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, unless otherwise expressly stated, the word "from" means "from and including" and the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding".

1.02 Trustee to act in accordance with the Trust Indenture

Any action taken, required to be taken or permitted to be taken by the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall only be taken in the manner, at the times, for the purposes, subject to the prerequisites, conditions, requirements and limitations, and with the benefits, exculpations, indemnities and protections that are provided to the Indenture Trustee, in each case in respect of such action taken, required to be taken or permitted to be taken by it under the Trust Indenture.[6]

1.03 Proof of Approved Obligations

The efficacy of any agreement, instrument or writing evidencing a Primary Obligation may, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusively proved in any manner that the Indenture Trustee deems to be sufficient.

Any statement of account prepared by the Indenture Trustee as regards the Primary Obligations shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount which, as at the date of the [6] ~~Enforcement of the Limited Guarantee under this Agreement must be limited to enforcement by the Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Beneficiaries. The Trust Indenture should deal with the manner and limitations on the Indenture Trustee's actions with respect to enforcement.~~ statement so prepared, is due and payable by the Financing Entity to the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee and the Province hereby acknowledges and agrees that, absent manifest error, it shall be bound by each such statement. The Indenture Trustee agrees to provide the Province with the computations and calculations used by the Indenture Trustee to prepare each such statement of account promptly following a request therefor.

1.04 Limitation on Rights of and Actions by Specified Creditors

Specified Creditors, as Beneficiaries, shall not have or be permitted to exercise any rights, interests, or elections under this Agreement, other than in the manner and to the extent effected and exercised through the Indenture Trustee under, in accordance with and subject to the limitations set forth in the Trust Indenture. No Specified Creditor will have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to this Agreement.~~7~~

1.05 Province Retains Rights of Beneficiaries

Without limiting any rights of subrogation or succession that arise pursuant to applicable law or pursuant to the Province's rights as an assignee, subrogee or pursuant to Section 5.01, all of the rights, interests, elections and privileges that would arise in favour of a Beneficiary under the Trust Indenture or other Funding Obligation Agreement under which a related Primary Obligation arises shall automatically arise, vest in and be available to the Province ~~upon~~to the extent of the performance by the Province of the Primary Obligation. ~~[To the extent of any conflict between this Agreement and the Indemnity Agreement by the Province in favour of OPG dated June 1, 2017 in respect of any matter relating to the Province's obligations to indemnify the FSM or the Financing Entity, the latter shall prevail.]~~[8]

1.06 Effect of Headings

The Article and Section headings herein are for convenience only and will not affect the construction hereof.

1.07 Successors and Assigns

All covenants and agreements in this Agreement by the parties will bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. All covenants and agreements of the Indenture Trustee, the Financing Entity, the Financing Entity Trustee or the FSM in this Agreement shall bind their respective successors, co-trustees and agents.

1.08 Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof.

~~7 There is no intention to provide a separate cause of action for individual Beneficiaries.~~

~~8 Explanation required. Indemnity is a separate cause of action and should not limit the Province's primary entitlements under this Agreement, opposite the Trust and the Indenture Trustee. If an override in favour of OPG is contemplated, that should be clearly set out and understood. This provision confuses concepts. In any event, the Trust is not a party to or a protected person under the indemnity.~~

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

1.10 Proceedings Against the Crown Act

NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PROGRAM AGREEMENTS AFFECTS THE RIGHTS, PROTECTIONS AND IMMUNITIES OF THE CROWN UNDER THE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE CROWN ACT.

1.11 Attornment

EACH PARTY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY ONTARIO COURTS SITTING IN TORONTO IN ANY ACTION, APPLICATION, REFERENCE OR OTHER PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT THEY MAY HAVE TO REQUIRE A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY PROCEEDING COMMENCED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

1.12 Counterparts; Electronic Delivery

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed will be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts will together constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by a party by electronic transmission will be as effective as delivery of a manually executed copy of the Agreement by such party.

1.13 Change of Law Protection Agreement Referred to in the Trust Indenture

This Agreement is the "Change of Law Protection Agreement" referred to in the Trust Indenture.

1.14 Non-Business Days

Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due, any period of time would begin or end, any calculation is to be made or any other action to be taken hereunder shall be stated to be required to be taken, on a day other than a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement) such payment shall be made, such period of time shall begin or end, such calculations shall be made and such other action shall be taken on the next succeeding Business Day.

1.15 Waiver, Amendment

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision nor will any waiver of any provision of this Agreement constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

1.17 Currency

Unless stated otherwise, all amounts herein are stated in Canadian Dollars.

1.18 References to Acts of the Financing Entity

For greater certainty, where any reference is made in this Agreement, or in any other instrument executed pursuant hereto or contemplated hereby to which the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee, as trustee of the Financing Entity, is party, to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against, or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to (i) the Financing Entity or (ii) the Financing Entity Trustee, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to, ~~the FSM as agent for~~ the Financing Entity Trustee ~~(in its capacity~~ as trustee of the Financing Entity~~). [NTD: Discuss whether the Financing Entity Trustee should~~

~~be a party to this Agreement and references to the Financing Entity Trustee re-inserted into this section and others.]~~[9].

1.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Province shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.19 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may provide a written demand, in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand"), to the Province requiring the Province to pay the amount of the Approved Obligations ~~[~~that would have been payable from Available

[9] ~~Otherwise validity of Trust obligations becomes questionable and opinion qualifications would become likely. Revert to Blakes language.~~

Collections had the Protection Event not occurred~~]~~[10]~~[owing]~~[11]3 from time to time by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee as and when they become due and payable~~[~~, without Acceleration~~]~~[12]. A Payment Demand will not be valid with respect to an Approved Obligation until the amount claimed becomes due and payable in respect of the Approved Obligation~~[~~, without Acceleration,~~]~~[13] in accordance with the Trust Indenture and has not otherwise been paid by the Financing Entity.

(b) Following receipt of a valid Payment Demand under Subsection 2.01(a), the Province shall pay the amounts ~~[~~that would have been payable from Available Collections had the Protection Event not occurred~~] [owing]~~ by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, on behalf of the applicable Beneficiaries, in respect of each Approved Obligation[14], in each case as and when the Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms and on its scheduled, specified or determined payment date, as determined without regard to any Acceleration or rights of Acceleration arising under the Approved Obligation, in each case by the Province depositing or causing the deposit of the applicable payment amount into the ~~[~~Protection Account~~]~~[15]4 ~~[5 Business Days prior to the fifteen day of each calendar month]~~[16] on or before the day on which the applicable Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms (the "Limited Guarantee"). For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation~~, including (i) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the Financing Entity following a Protection Event,~~

~~10 The amount "owing" under an obligation (i.e., balloon) will different from the amount available to be paid in respect of such owed amount (based on Available Collections). The Province is not obligated to pay more than the obligations that would have been paid from CEAs had they been collected. This language is an alternative to the simple drafting approach contemplated in the term sheet ("without acceleration"), and is more complex. It would also make the new "additional amount" (i.e., extra amounts up to the FAA) part of the Province's obligations, which has not been contemplated by the OFA to date and will need to be considered separately.~~

~~11 This would mean that the entire amount of the Notes would become payable, as a balloon. That is not the deal.~~

3 The amount "owing" under an obligation (i.e., balloon) will different from the amount available to be paid in respect of such owed amount (based on Available Collections). The Province is not obligated to pay more than the obligations that would have been paid from CEAs had they been collected.

~~12 This is a simpler and preferred formulation for the relevant concept. Also, consider mechanics for notifying the Province regarding the specific amounts payable and their due dates. Consider attaching a detailed schedule of payments under the Payment Demand and the respective due date of each payment.~~

~~13 If alternative approach is preferred (as described above), this will also need to be modified.~~

~~14 Under Subsection 5(3) of the Act, the Province can guarantee only obligations "associated with an investment interest". The guarantee in Section 2.01 of the draft agreement guarantees "Approved Obligations", which in turn relies on the definition of Primary Obligations. The connection between a Primary Obligations and an "investment interest" is therefore crucial. Blakes is considering how to more precisely connect these concepts.~~

~~15 Addition of Protection Account step will require further consideration.~~ 4 Province needs to see how the Trust Indenture will be modified to address ~~this mechanically (i.e.,~~addition of Protection Account (i.e., payment mechanics; Protection Account to be part of the Collateral; mechanics of how funds move to Collection Account; absence of equitable claims; etc.). Province will need to know that all amounts will be applied for their intended purposes without undermining Province's step-in and subrogation rights~~)~~.

~~16 Delete. Province will pay on the date amounts would have otherwise been paid; not in advance.~~

~~and (ii) amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the Financing Entity into any Capital Account, Finance Reserve Account or a Supplemental Reserve Account~~.

(c) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(d) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

(e) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

2.02 Intentionally Deleted.

2.03 Absence of Set-off

~~The~~Subject to applicable law, the Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Protection Account~~175~~[5] in Satisfaction

(a) ~~[~~On or before the date of delivery of a Payment Demand to the Province, the Indenture Trustee shall cause to be established and maintained an Eligible Deposit Account (the "Protection Account") in the name of the Indenture Trustee, bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds and other property credited thereto are held for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Beneficiaries. The Protection Account shall be under the control of the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. If, at any time, the institution holding the Protection Account ceases to be an Eligible Institution, the FSM shall notify the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee upon being notified in writing of such ineligibility (or the FSM on its behalf) shall within 30 days (or such longer period, not to exceed 45 days, so long as the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied) establish a new Protection Account that is an Eligible Deposit Account and shall transfer any funds or other property from such Protection Account to such new Protection Account. From the date each such new Protection Account is established, it shall be the "Protection Account." for purposes of this Agreement. Funds credited to the Protection Account will be invested and held in accordance with Section 7.03 of the Trust Indenture as ifon the basis that it wereis an Issuer Account.]

~~175~~[5] Use of Protection Account to be considered by Province after required modifications to Trust Indenture have been provided.

(b) Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Indenture Trustee shall apply the full amount paid by the Province into the Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation to pay the corresponding amount due and payable to the applicable Beneficiaries under the Approved Obligation. Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Protection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation, the amount so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries and thereby reduce the amount due and payable to such Beneficiaries in respect of the Approved Obligation, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid[186]. For greater certainty, the obligations arising in respect of the Approved Obligation shall not be reduced by such payment as the Province shall become entitled to the rights contemplated under Section 5.01 in relation to such continuing obligations.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

[18] Consider how Beneficiary rights under Obligations Secured will be amended under an agreement to which a Beneficiary is not directly a party. To achieve a binding relationship, a[6] A corresponding provision should appear inneeds to be added to the Trust Indenture and each other contract under which the Obligation Secured arises, to the effectso that the Beneficiaries will be deemed to beare bound by these applications and the agreement of the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Please see our addition in Section 9.08. The Specified Creditors already make the necessary acknowledgement in Article 5 of the Trust Indenture. Isn't this also addressed in section 1.03 above?

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations, or until the Province is no longer required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee in accordance with Section 6.03.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine,

provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee shall not permit any change, modification, alteration, amendment, supplement, extension, renewal, compromise, novation, replacement, suspension or waiver of the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral therefor expect with the prior written consent of the Province having first been obtained.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied.

4.02 Adherence Conditions

The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to a Primary Obligation:

(a) the Primary Obligation is contemplated under the Trust Indenture as an Obligation Secured; and

~~(b) at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments[19] under the Primary Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of~~

~~[19] Use of the concept of "repayments" under the OFHPA for this purpose is under consideration.~~

Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum;[20]

(c) the FSM delivers a notice to the Indenture Trustee, with a copy to the Province, one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, setting out the Protection Agreement Maximum;

(b) (d) the FSM delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG [and, for clarity, such certificate is to be provided in OPG'sby such officers in their capacity as officers of OPG acting in its capacity as FSM]][21]) and addressed to the Indenture Trustee and the Province[22], one Business Day, prior to the earlier of (i) one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, and (ii) on the Business Day on which the financial terms of the Primary Obligation are definitively determined (including the interest or discount rate applicable to any notes, bonds or other securities), setting out the following with respect to the Primary Obligation:

i. confirmation that, at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under the Primary Obligation (if any), together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not and will not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum[23]; and

ii. confirmation that [the FSM has delivered to the Province a certificate in accordance with the Process Agreement confirming, among other things, that the transaction documents in respect of the Primary Obligation are in substantially the form of the documentation reviewed by the Province]][confirming that the FSM

[20] Province needs this to be part of the adherence process opposite the indenture trustee. Since the PAM will be objectively determined and within the knowledge of the indenture trustee (as contemplated in para (c)), this should not raise practical constraints. This is analogous to current procedures undertaken in connection with the incurrence of provincial obligations, where the conditions to issuance involve specific affirmation that the issuance is within the prescribed borrowing limit.

[21] OPG's capacity in certifying is under consideration, having regard to the inherent limitations associated with actions undertaken as FSM.

[22] Certificate is intended as Province's closing due diligence and so needs to be addressed and delivered to Province. Otherwise Province will need to become directly involved in the closing process. Province is prepared to rely on OPG for this purpose to accommodate OPG's logistical concerns, but that does not mean that Province can be removed from the closing process altogether, without the benefit of these required affirmations.

[23] Province wants OPG to specifically confirm this at the time of closing, to support the Province's reliance on OPG for this critical purpose.

has delivered to the Province a Process Certificate in accordance with Section [3.01] of the Process Agreement][24]; and ; and

(c) (e) the Province has not provided a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee[25], the FSM and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.[7]

(g) , confirming that the FSM has delivered to the Province a Process Certificate in accordance with Section [3.01] of the Process Agreement; and

(h) [NTD: This is more properly dealt with in Section 8.02 of this Agreement.].

4.03 Evidence of Satisfaction

A closing certificate delivered in accordance with Section 4.02 in connection with an incurrence or amendment of a Primary Obligation shall be determinative as to whether the applicable Adherence Conditions with respect thereto have been satisfied, notwithstanding that such certificate may include inaccuracies, be incomplete or otherwise be defective or deficient, and such closing certificate may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

ARTICLE V
PROVINCE MATTERS

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

(a) Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation:

i. to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee; or

ii. as a result of assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI, [NTD: This requires further discussion depending on the terms of the assignment and assumption agreement. If the Obligations Secured are assigned and assumed by the Province under Article VI, how [24] The intention was not to incorporate specific terms of the Process Agreement into the Protection Agreement, to avoid the need for investors, relying on the Protection Agreement, to be concerned about its contents. If there is a preference to hard-code the Process Agreement in the Protection Agreement, the Province will not object but further drafting considerations will arise.

[25] Province wants this mechanic embedded in the adherence conditions so it is explicitly understood and mechanically contemplated as the way the Province can cut-off future Limited Guarantees opposite the indenture trustee.

[7] Province wants this mechanic embedded in the adherence conditions so it is explicitly understood and mechanically contemplated as the way the Province be sure future Limited Guarantees are cut-off opposite the indenture trustee.

~~would the Province be subrogated and entitled to the Beneficiary's rights and interests under the Approved Obligation? Consider limiting the application of this section 5.01 to the Limited Guarantee.]~~ [26]

(a) Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (i) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive distributions of such amount by the Financing Entity in accordance with and in the priority applicable to the Approved Obligation applicable in respect of the payment under the Trust Indenture, (ii) the benefits of the related Collateral and (iii) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)), under and in respect of such Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

(a) ~~(b)~~ The Province (i) acknowledges and agrees in favour of the Indenture Trustee that, upon being subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation in accordance with Section 5.01(a), the Province, in its capacity as a Specified Creditor, will be subject to the provisions applicable to Specified Creditors under the Trust Indenture, including [Section 7.11 (Payments Held in Trust), Section 8.12 (Limitation on Suits), Sections 7.04 and 8.13 (Payment Priorities), Section 8.14 (Limited Recourse) and Section 16.01 (No Petition) thereof] and (ii) confirms that the Indenture Trustee shall send notices to the Province, in its capacity as a Specified Creditor, in accordance with Section 9.02.

[26] ~~The idea is that if the Province steps in and becomes the obligor, it will get all of the underlying interests in the Trust's property (i.e., "interests … in respect of the Approved Obligation" = collateral). If this seems confusing, a parallel provision can be added to Art VI to address the step-in scenario specifically. Discussion of any concerns will be useful.~~

5.02 Priorities

For greater certainty, the rights, interests and entitlements of the Province as an assignee and subrogee of and with respect to an Approved Obligation shall rank equally with the rights, interests and entitlements of a Beneficiary for whom a Limited Guarantee payment is made in respect of, and to the extent of the payment made to satisfy, the Approved Obligation and the Province shall not be subject to postponement or subordination with respect thereto except to the extent of the priorities established in relation to the Approved Obligation under the Trust Indenture.

~~5.03 Voting Rights under "Outstanding Notes"~~

~~[Notwithstanding the last three sentences of the definition of "Outstanding" in the Trust Indenture[27]:~~

~~(a) Notes in connection with Approved Obligations in respect of which the Province has rights and interest pursuant to Section 5.01 shall be regarded as "Outstanding" within the meaning of the Trust Indenture; and~~

~~(b) in determining whether Noteholders of the requisite principal amount of Notes that are Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) have taken any Action under the Trust Indenture, and for the purposes of Article X of the Trust Indenture, the Province shall be deemed to have the amount of Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) Notes in proportion to its interest in such Notes based on the amounts that the Province has paid in respect of Approved Obligations under this Agreement.] [NTD: To be discussed. Explanation required regarding why not restricting these voting rights to the Province may affect the marketability of the debt under this program.]~~

5.03 ~~5.04~~ Province May Perform Other Program Agreement Covenants.

If the Financing Entity fails to perform any covenant under any Program Agreement, the Province may (but, except as expressly provided for under this Agreement, shall not be obligated to) perform such covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity. If the Province performs such a covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity, all sums expended or advanced by the Province in so performing the covenant will bear interest at the rate of interest determined by the Province to reflect market terms and conditions for a borrowing made by the Province at the relevant time from the date of expenditure until repayment by the Financing Entity and will (together with such interest) be paid by the Financing Entity upon demand and will until paid form part of the Obligations Secured subject to Sections [7.04 and 8.13] of the Trust Indenture and constitute a Finance Amount.[28]~~8~~ ~~[NTD: Discussion required as to how these repayments will be dealt with under the MTI, and in particular, under the waterfall provisions.]~~

[27] ~~This concept needs to be reflected in the Trust Indenture. This requires further discussion (see NTD above).~~

[28] ~~General Regulation to be revised such that "Finance Amount" picks up guarantor amounts. Under consideration by MOE~~[8] Payments to be addressed in the Trust Indenture like servicer advances under the waterfall provisions.

5.04 ~~5.05~~ Representations and Warranties

The Province hereby represents and warrants[29] that:

(a) the ~~Province has the necessary power, authority and capacity to execute and perform its obligations under this Agreement;~~execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Province have been authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Province;

(b) the execution, delivery and performance ~~by the Province~~ of this Agreement ~~and the completion of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will~~by the Province do not result in ~~a~~the violation of any applicable law;

~~(c) all necessary action has been taken by the Province including under sections 5(2) and 5(3) of the Act and section 28(1.1) of the Financial Administration Act, R.S.O. 1990 c. F. 12, to authorize the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Province and the performance by the Province of its obligations hereunder;~~ and

(c) ~~(d)~~ this Agreement has been duly ~~authorized,~~ executed and delivered ~~on behalf of~~by the Province ~~and is a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Province, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms~~.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS SECURED

6.01 Delivery of Assumption Notice

Following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may provide notice (in the form of Exhibit B) to the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the terms of the Process Agreement, that the Province has elected to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor (the "Assumption Notice"). The Assumption Notice shall specify the date on which the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured will be effective (the "Assumption Closing Date").

6.02 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

The Indenture Trustee, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Province will cooperate and use best efforts to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the Assumption Closing Date.[309]

[29] ~~Province input required.~~

[309] Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be ~~considered~~provided by OPG.

6.03 Effect of Assumption

On the date that the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province becomes effective (the "Assumption Effective Date"), the Province shall no longer be required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee but will instead become a primary obligor under the Obligations Secured assumed pursuant to and in accordance with an applicable Assumption Agreement. For greater certainty, the obligations of the Province so assumed will not be secured obligations of the Province and the obligees thereof will have no right, interest or claim to or in respect of the Collateral or any proceeds therefrom. [NTD: Need to move Article VI of the Change of Law Process Agreement into this Article VI and amend accordingly.~~31~~10 Also, we will need to attach the form of Assumption Agreement as an Exhibit to this Agreement that will be used for the assignment and assumption of all Obligations Secured. Contrary to the statement in Section 6.02(f) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, there will not be a separate form of Assumption Agreement for each Obligation Secured.~~32~~11]

6.04 Interim Period

Until the effective time of the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province on the Assumption Effective Date, the Province shall continue to perform and be obligated under the Limited Guarantee.

6.05 Rights in respect of the Assets Comprising the Collateral

Upon assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the Financing Entity's rights and interests under and in respect of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral and all proceeds therefrom, free and clear of any liens, encumbrances or restrictions arising under or as a result of the Trust Indenture. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all such rights and interests as an absolute assignee of the Financing Entity, with effect from and after the time of such assumption, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights, interests or equities that arise thereafter in respect of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral as between the Beneficiaries and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall thereupon recognize the Province as the absolute owner of the assets, property and undertaking comprising the Collateral.

~~31~~10 The idea was to not burden the external agreement with the necessary steps for the Province to be in a position to step-in. If the preference is to include more in this external agreement, the Province will not object subject to further consideration of drafting issues.

~~32~~11 It has been assumed that there may be variations depending on the nature of the underlying obligations. A root form of Assumption Agreement, modified to conform substantially to that form in connection with a particular obligation, was the idea. To be further discussed.

ARTICLE VII
INDENTURE TRUSTEE MATTERS

7.01 Limited Recourse

No recourse may be taken, directly or indirectly, with respect to the obligations of the Financing Entity under this Agreement, or any certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or therewith, against (a) the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, (b) any owner of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or (c) any partner, owner, beneficiary, agent, officer, director, employee or agent of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, any holder of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee or of any successor or assign of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, except as any such Person may have expressly agreed (it being understood that the Financing Entity Trustee has no such obligations in its individual capacity).

7.02 Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes

The recitals contained herein will be taken as the statements of the Province and the FSM, and the Indenture Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Indenture Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement.

7.03 Representations and Covenants of the Indenture Trustee

The Indenture Trustee represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) the Indenture Trustee is a trust company organized, existing and in good standing under the laws of Canada;

(b) the Indenture Trustee has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Agreement and other documents to which it is a party;

(c) each of this Agreement and the other documents to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by the Indenture Trustee and constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation in accordance with its terms; and

(d) the Indenture Trustee is authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each of the provinces and territories of Canada.

7.04 Release of all Collateral[33]

(a) The Indenture Trustee shall not execute instruments to release Collateral from the Security Interest of the Trust Indenture, or convey the Indenture Trustee's interest (which is held by the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Specified Creditors) in the same, unless and until the rights and interests of the Province under Section 5.01 or otherwise as an assignee of any of the Obligations Secured or as a subrogee have been satisfied in full and the Province has no continuing obligations under this Agreement.

(b) The Province shall be entitled to receive at least 10 Business Days' written notice when the Indenture Trustee proposes to take any action pursuant to Subsection 7.04(a), accompanied by copies of any instruments involved.

7.05 Right to Notice and Attend Meetings[34]

The Financing Entity shall ensure that the Province receives advance notice of any meeting or proposed written resolution of Specified Creditors (or any of them) and the Province and its legal advisers shall be permitted to attend and be represented at any meeting of such Specified Creditors.

[Note: Any right to such matters will be the general rights of Specified Creditors[35] as set out in the Trust Indenture.]

ARTICLE VIII
SUSPENSION OF ADHERENCE FOR NEW PRIMARY OBLIGATIONS

8.01 Suspension NoticeSuspension Notice

A written notice in the form of Exhibit C (a "Suspension Notice") may be provided by the Province to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity:

(a) shall be provided by the FSM to the Province and the Indenture Trustee promptly following the occurrence of a Program Breach; upon the Province becoming aware of the occurrence of a Program Breach; and

(b) may be provided by the Province to the Indenture Trustee upon the Province becoming aware of the occurrence of a Program Breach; and

[33] Before the Province is called to perform its obligations under this Agreement (only then becoming a Specified Creditor based on the current drafting), the Province needs to know that the Collateral available to it as a subrogee/assignee will be protected. Province may have different interests than Specified Creditors, who may make concessions based on the protections under this Agreement being available to them in lieu of the Collateral.

[34] Again, before the Province is called to perform its obligations under this Agreement (only then becoming a Specified Creditor based on the current drafting), the Province needs information that could affect its future rights as a subrogee/assignee. This is not a voting right; rather just a right to know what is going on. Why a problem?

[35] As explained above, Province needs rights prior to a Protection Event.

(b) ~~(c) may be provided by the Province to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity~~ following the occurrence of a Breach Event that has not been waived in writing by the Province.

8.02 Suspension

If a Suspension Notice has been provided under Section 8.01 (the provision of such notice being a "Suspension Event"), the Limited Guarantee shall not apply in respect of any Obligation Secured incurred on or after the time such Suspension Notice is delivered. For greater certainty, the rights of the Province under Article VI shall apply in respect of all Obligations Secured, including if incurred on or after the time such Suspension Notice is delivered.

8.03 Termination Notice

On ~~the earlier to occur of~~ (a) the occurrence of a Suspension Event or (b) the Assumption Effective Date, the Province may provide to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity a notice in the form of Exhibit D (a "Termination Notice").~~36~~12

8.04 No Impact on Adherence

For greater certainty, the occurrence of Suspension Event or a failure by the FSM or the Financing Entity to perform its covenants under this Agreement will not invalidate or extinguish the obligations of the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of Approved Obligations in existence prior to the occurrence of the Suspension Event, nor will it in any way impact the Obligations Secured which are assumed by the Province in accordance with Article VI.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

9.01 Term of Agreement

This Agreement will continue until the later of:

(a) the date that no amount is or may become due and payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee; and

(b) the date that a Termination Notice delivered in accordance with Section 8.03 is received by the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity.

~~36~~12 The suspension right in favour of the Province is intended to allow the Province to cut-off future obligations under this Agreement, but not affect rights that have arisen prior to the suspension notice. The termination notice is a further step that allows the Province to bring this agreement to an end, but that only happens (under section 9.01) after all amounts capable of becoming due under the Limited Guarantee have been paid (i.e., the last obligation incurred prior to the suspension notice has been satisfied), including as a result of an assumption under Art VI.

9.02 Notices

Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given hereunder will be in writing and will be given by prepaid first-class mail, by facsimile or other means of electronic communication or by hand-delivery as hereinafter provided. Any such notice or other communication, if mailed by prepaid first-class mail at any time other than during a general discontinuance of postal service due to strike, lockout or otherwise, will be deemed to have been received on the fourth Business Day after the post-marked date thereof, or if sent by facsimile or other means of electronic communication, will be deemed to have been received on the Business Day following the sending, or if delivered by hand will be deemed to have been received at the time it is delivered to the applicable address noted below either to the individual designated below or to an individual at such address having apparent authority to accept deliveries on behalf of the addressee. Notice of change of address will also be governed by this Section. In the event of a general discontinuance of postal service due to strike, lock-out or otherwise, notices or other communications will be delivered by hand or sent by facsimile or other means of electronic communication and will be deemed to have been received in accordance with this Section. (b) Any purported assignment of this Agreement in violation of this Section 9.03 shall be null and void.

9.04 Enurement

This Agreement will enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

9.05 FIPPA

9.06 No Petition

The Province agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, that at no time until one year and one day following repayment in full of all Primary Obligations shall it commence, or join in commencing, a bankruptcy case or other insolvency or similar proceeding under the laws of any jurisdiction against the Financing Entity.

9.07 Intentionally Deleted

9.08 Third Party Rights

This Agreement is not intended to create rights for any Person not party to this Agreement. HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC.[, AS FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER~~]~~[1]]

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

[1] ~~Province~~OPG to consider ~~whether liability of OPG should be primary, or subject to the inherent limitations (e.g., duty/standard of care) implied by its role as FSM. Primary responsibility for the 'behind the scenes obligations' contemplated in this Process Agreement would be more meaningful to the extent that potential corporate liability promotes compliance~~ if this agreement should form part of the overall covenant pattern (Program Agreement). We assume not. If OPG signs as FSM, consider the potential impact on the Trust, if the FSM is considered to be contracting on behalf of the Trust as principal. The intention was to keep these terms 'behind the scenes' and as between OPG and the Province.

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG")[, as Financial Services Manager for the Financing Entity in accordance with the Act,] is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of [■], 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.[2]

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, ~~[~~the [FSM] provided the Province with copies of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has confirmed by a notice delivered to [the FSM] that the reviewed forms (as further described in such notice) shall be Reviewed Documentation for the purposes of this Agreement.

This Agreement sets out the obligations [the FSM] has agreed to perform and assurances [the FSM] has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of [the FSM], and of the Province in accordance with the Act, have been done.

~~[2] Note: This draft only addresses the first Financing Entity. If additional financing entities are established, revisions to this Agreement may be made at that time, in context. Any additional financing entities contemplated should be as contemplated in the Financing Plan.~~

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

PROTECTION AGREEMENT MAXIMUM

4.01 Protection Agreement Maximum[10]

(a) [Not less than [■]15 Business Days prior to the proposed incurrence of the first Funding Obligation, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province: (i) a forecast setting out OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the next following 24 month period (the "Initial Forecast Period"), which expectations shall be consistent with the Financing Plan (the "Initial Forecast"); and (ii) notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum, which shall be based onmay not exceed the Initial Forecast.

(b) Not more than [■]10 Business Days following receipt of the Initial Forecast and notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(a), the Province shall confirm its agreement with the initial Protection Agreement Maximum or if the Province does not agree with the determination of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum, which disagreement

[10] Province to consider OPG's proposal for Program Agreement Maximum. In effect, the discretion of the Province is removed and the limiter is tied directly to OPG's forecast (to be consistent with the financing plan required by the Act). This means that the Province has no independent escape hatch to limit its potential fiscal exposure under the Protection Agreement. As discussed, the actual exposure will depend on the determinations to use the IESO sale mechanics to fund shortfalls – in other words, if IESO were to not sell investment interests, then the corresponding funding obligations subject to the Protection Agreement would not arise. Note that the financing plan is almost entirely within OPG's discretion and is based on long-term estimates that assume maximum use of the IESO sale mechanics. Has the Province confirmed that committing to this arrangement for the term (30 years) of the OFHPA, without a limiter that is within the Province's control, will not result in a huge contingent liability being booked in the Province's accounts (i.e., maximum fundings for 30 years)? Has the Province determined whether there are other internal governance reasons to require an escape hatch for the purposes of its fiscal management purposes? Note that Protection Events are not all within the Government's control (e.g., ultra vires and invalidity issues).

~~may only be on the basis that the Initial Forecast does not accord with the Financing Plan and not on any other basis, the Province and~~may disagree with the Initial Forecast and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or the Initial Forecast, (ii) the Initial Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the initial Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the Initial Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG ~~will~~shall discuss ~~and~~any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies ~~in the Financing Plan~~ and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of ~~both parties~~the Province, and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.~~]~~

(c) Between nine (9) and twelve (12) months prior to the end of the Initial Forecast Period, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province an updated forecast setting out the sum of (1) the aggregate amount of Repayments that will arise in the future under Approved Obligations that are then outstanding and (2) OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the period ending 24 months following the Initial Forecast Period, which expectation shall be consistent with the then applicable Financing Plan. Such updated forecast shall be further updated on a similar basis with respect to each successive 24 month period or more frequently with the consent of the Province if at any time OPG has knowledge that the most recent forecast is materially inaccurate (the Initial Forecast and each such updated forecast, each a "Forecast"). Together with each Forecast, OPG shall also provide a revised Protection Agreement Maximum ~~based on~~, which may not exceed such Forecast.

(d) Not more than ~~[■]~~10 Business Days following receipt of any further Forecast and notice of the revised Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(c), the Province ~~shall confirm its agreement with the revised Protection Agreement Maximum or if the Province does not agree with the determination of the revised Protection Agreement Maximum, which disagreement may only be on the basis that the further Forecast does not accord with the Financing Plan and not on any other basis, the Province and OPG will~~may disagree with such further Forecast or revised Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or such further Forecast, (ii) the further Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the revised Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the further Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss ~~and~~any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies ~~in the Financing Plan~~ and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of ~~both parties~~the Province, and the revised Protection Agreement Maximum will be further revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.

(e) For clarity, Repayments under Obligations Secured owing in currencies other than Canadian dollars and in respect of which a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures shall be valued for the purposes of this Section 4.01 on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars for so long as such Derivative Agreement is in good standing.

ARTICLE VI
ELECTION[17]2 TO ASSUME APPROVED OBLIGATIONS[18]

6.01 Election by the Province

At any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may (but shall not be obligated) elect to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor. To make such election, the Province shall duly complete and [15] Deleted by OPG. Province to consider.

[16] Province to consider OPG's request for these representations. Does the Province make these sorts of representations in a commercial agreement? To the extent that the Province makes a statement (such as 5.02(d)) that is not caveated by the usual considerations applicable to a Crown obligation, the parallel rep requested in the Protection Agreement could be held out as a misstatement and itself provoke a "Protection Event" – suggesting that these sorts of "nice to have" reps from the Province will be more work (and potentially dangerous) than they are worth.

[17] Province to consider2 OPG's proposal to move Art VI to the Protection Agreement. The approach taken originally was motivated by the desire is not consistent with the original basis for the Process Agreement - to keep the details and plumbing out of the "external" document. If we move toward putting all of this into the Protection Agreement, it will raise additional drafting issues (e.g., we will have to have a parallel "Breach Event" concept in the Protection Agreement that will deal with these sorts of undertakings and allow for a suspension of the Limited Guarantee), but should otherwise be fine in principle. OPG to advise if that approach is preferred.

[18] Note to Province/Blakes: Article 6 to be moved and merged with Article 6 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement with appropriate revisions. It is more appropriate in that agreement. See also the comments in Article 6 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

deliver to [the FSM] a notice in the form of Exhibit A (an "Election Notice"), which in turn will set forth the form of agreement (an "Assumption Agreement") setting forth the material terms and conditions under which the Province would assume and become obligated under each of the Obligations Secured. The Election Notice shall, among other things, specify the date on which the Province proposes to assume the Obligations Secured, which date shall be no earlier than 20 Business Days following delivery of the Election Notice to [the FSM] (the "Proposed Assumption Date").

6.02 Details regarding Obligations Secured

Promptly following the delivery of the Election Notice to [the FSM], [the FSM] shall provide the following information and documentation to the Province:

(a) a summary of the amounts that will be owing under all Obligations Secured as of the Proposed Assumption Date, together with a detailed schedule setting out the dates on which such amounts will become due and payable under the Obligations Secured;

(b) a summary of the rights arising under the Obligations Secured that permit the Financing Entity to assign the Obligations Secured to the Province, including details regarding any conditions precedent to such assignment and the related assumption becoming effective and any notices, filings, consents or other actions that will be required in order to implement and effect such assignment and assumption;

(c) current versions of all documentation under which the Obligations Secured arise;

(d) copies of all correspondence exchanged between OPG, as the FSM, or the Financing Entity, on the one hand, and any Specified Creditor, Rating Agency or the Indenture Trustee, on the other hand, in each case that may reasonably be considered to be material to the assumption and performance of the Obligations Secured by the Province;

(e) all income tax returns and assessments, financial statements and notices of proceedings of or pertaining to the Financing Entity or its business and any documentation related thereto, including any pleadings, appeals, objections, qualifications or other similar materials in respect of the Financing Entity or any Program Agreement; and

(f) the form of Assumption Agreement in respect of the assignment and assumption of all Obligations Secured ~~is~~ attached as Exhibit E to the Change of Law Protection Agreement.[19]~~3~~

[19] ~~Note to Province: A~~[3] Torys to provide a draft of the proposed form of global Assumption Agreement for all Obligations Secured ~~is required. It is impractical to have an assumption agreement for each type of Obligation Secured. Province: We can~~. The Province may be guided by OPG on this, but we note that it seems simplistic to think that the same assumption agreement will work for swaps, debt and service obligations. ~~Ultimately, this is a mechanics point.~~

Within ~~20~~30 Business Days following receipt by the Province of the information and documentation to be provided under Section 6.02, the Province shall confirm in writing whether or not it will proceed with the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured and, if it will be proceeding with the assignment and assumption, the date on which the Province intends that assignment and assumption will be effected, which may not be earlier than the Proposed Assumption Date. If it will be proceeding with such assignment and assumption, the Province will deliver an Assumption Notice as contemplated under Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, which will specify such date as the "Assumption Closing Date" for the purposes thereof.

6.04 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

[The FSM] shall cooperate with the Province and will ~~[~~use commercially reasonable efforts to~~]~~[20] cause the Financing Entity to cooperate, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the applicable Assumption Closing Date.~~21~~

6.05 Terms of Obligations Secured

In order to permit the Province to assume the Obligations Secured in the circumstances contemplated herein, [the FSM~~ will use commercially reasonable efforts to~~] shall cause the Financing Entity to~~, [use commercially reasonably efforts to]~~ ensure that all Obligations Secured permit such an assignment to and assumption by the Province substantially in accordance with the terms and on the basis contemplated in the Assumption Agreement, without any penalty or make-whole payment, or any requirement for further consent, approval or agreement, or alternatively, in the case of any Obligations Secured entered into by or on behalf of the Financing Entity for the provision of on-going services to the Financing Entity permitting the satisfaction and termination of such Obligations Secured on or prior to the effective time of such assumption without any acceleration of future fees, profits or other like amounts, other than to the extent of payment obligations arise under market standard mark-to-market payment terms and conditions included on a commercially reasonable basis under a Derivative Agreement.~~22~~[4]

~~20 Province to consider scope of commitment.~~

~~21 Note: Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be considered.~~

~~22 Note:~~ [4]The Trust Indenture will need to ~~include a clause providing that~~permit the obligations of the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee and the Noteholders ~~may~~to be assigned to and assumed by the Province in accordance with an assumption agreement, substantially in ~~the~~a form of agreement to be set out in an exhibit to the Trust Indenture. ~~[NTD: The form of Assumption Agreement shall~~The Province agrees that the same form of the assumption agreement should also be an exhibit to the Change of Law Protection Agreement~~ (consistent with our comment to move Article 6 here to the Change of Law Protection Agreement). We~~, The Trust Indenture will need to be revised to ensure that the Province's assignment and assumption right is fully contemplated and may be implemented without any requirement for further Specified Creditor or other third party consents. Among other changes, it is contemplated that Torys will add the following to the MTI to ~~otherwise~~ address ~~your comment~~this requirement: (i) Specified Creditors will be required to acknowledge the rights of the Province to assume the Obligations Secured ~~pursuant to Sections 5.01(f) and 5.03(b) of the MTI, and (ii) we will add language in section 11.01 of the MTI that allows~~on the basis contemplated in the form of assumption agreement, and (ii) the Indenture Trustee will be permitted to enter into and give effect to the global Assumption Agreement without the consent of Specified Creditors or any other third parties.~~]~~

BREACH EVENTS

7.01 Breach Events

"Breach Event" shall mean the occurrence or existence of any one or more of the following:

(a) a default in the performance, or breach, of any covenants of [the FSM] under this Agreement, ~~[~~which continues for ~~sixty~~thirty (~~60~~30) days after written notice by the Province to [the FSM] of such default or breach~~]~~[23];

(b) any representation or warranty made by [the FSM] in this Agreement, any certification made in a Process Certificate, or any certification made in a certificate contemplated by Section ~~4.03~~4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, proves to be incorrect on the date made ~~[~~and, if curable, is not cured within ~~sixty~~thirty (~~60~~30) days after written notice by the Province to [the FSM] of such misrepresentation~~]~~[24]; or

(c) OPG is no longer the Manager or actions have been taken by or on behalf of the Indenture Trustee to remove OPG as the Manager. ~~[NTD: The FSM is a statutory role and OPG can only be removed as FSM by the Province.]~~[25]

7.02 Notice on Breach Event

If any Breach Event shall have occurred and not been waived in writing by the Province, the Province shall have the right at its option, upon written notice to [the FSM], and in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies available hereunder at law or equity, to provide a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, [the FSM] and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

Provincial Protection and Assurances Agreement

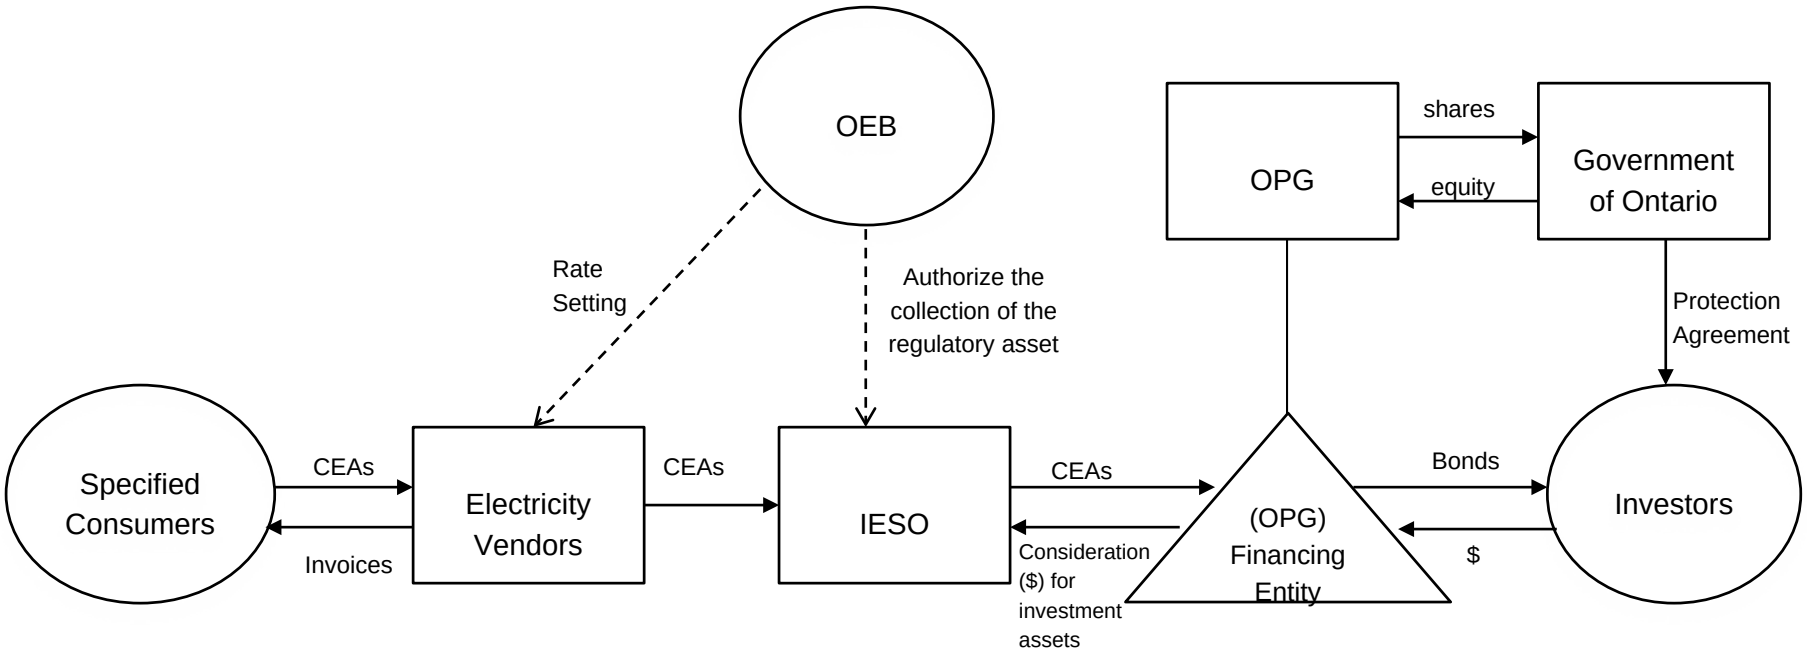
September 20, 2017

CONFIDENTIAL & COMMERCIALLY SENSITIVE

Background

- The Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, enables the IESO to establish a variance account to record the deferral amounts from the difference between collections from current ratepayers and payment obligations to generators and conservation, and to create a regulatory asset to recover the balance in the variance account
    - The IESO can then sell the regulatory asset – the right to recover those deferred amounts from specified consumers in the future
    - OPG, as the Financial Services Manager, is authorized to establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations
    - The Financing Entity will purchase the regulatory asset, effectively financing the shortfall in current rates not received from ratepayers
- To purchase the regulatory asset from the IESO, the Financing Entity must borrow a portion of the funds from capital markets (planned to be 51%, with other financing to come from OPG and, indirectly, the Province)
    - OPG's financial advisors have indicated that without adequate protection against legislative, judicial and organizational risk, the debt would not be financeable or would result in higher financing costs, to be passed on to ratepayers
- OPG has requested that the Province provide a protection agreement that supports the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would take over the funding obligations of the Financing Entity

Global Adjustment Refinancing – Roles and Responsibilities



Note: CEAs are “clean energy adjustments”

Provisions Under the Act

- As contemplated under the Act, OPG is requesting a Provincial commitment to support the planned Financing Entity's ability to borrow to finance the deferral of global adjustment amounts in certain limited circumstances
- Under s.5(3) of the OFHP Act,
  - The LGIC may by order,
    - Authorize the Minister (of Energy) and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province,
      - To agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest, and
      - To determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity
    - Specify terms and conditions that must be included in any guarantee or indemnity given by the Minister and the Minister of Finance
    - Specify a maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity

Provincial Protection Agreement

- OFA, the Ministry of Finance and external advisors – consistent with OPG advice – recommend limiting activation of the protection agreement to the following circumstances:
  - Actions of the Legislative Assembly that undermine the financing arrangement, i.e., repeal or amendment of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, or new legislation that adversely affect the Financing Entity
  - A court decision that declares the rights of the Financing Entity to recover amounts from ratepayers to be invalid or unenforceable
  - Changes to the organization, structure or operations of IESO or a change in the electricity market structure or operations that adversely affects the ability of the Financing Entity to recover amounts related to funding obligations.
- In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province will be required to pay the obligations of the Financing Entity including principal and interest payments on debt issued to date, any payments to derivatives counterparties and any outstanding payments to service providers
  - The Province could potentially service the debt and other obligations and could replace OPG as the financial services manager
- The protection agreement may need to be revised at a future date, or approval from the Province may be required, if the financing entity must access US market as investors in that market will likely require additional compensation if the assumption agreement is triggered

Considerations

- If a protection agreement is not provided, the Financing Entity would either be unable to raise sufficient financing from capital markets to purchase the regulatory asset from the IESO or the cost of the financing will be potentially materially greater than it otherwise would be
- If a protection agreement is provided, the Province takes on a contingent liability
  - The creation of a contingent liability will not currently affect net debt
  - The amount of the contingent liability will increase over the duration of the Fair Hydro Plan and peak at an estimated $20B of debt (final cost forecasts TBC), including principal and accumulated interest
- In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt will most likely increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability at that point in time
  - The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it has assumed under the protection agreement
  - IOD expense may increase between $0.8B and $1.0B per annum, assuming the protection agreement is triggered when debt is at its peak, and depending on the interest rate at which the Financing entity will be able to borrow at

Proposed Minute

The Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Energy request that Treasury Board/Management Board of Cabinet:

a) Approve that the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy provide a protection agreement, to be authorized by Order in Council under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the debts, obligations, securities and undertakings of one or more OPG Financing Entities substantially reflecting the terms set out in the Provincial Protection and Assurances Indicative Term Sheet and subject to such revisions that the two ministers acting together may determine;

b) Recommend that Cabinet approve an Order in Council, in accordance with section 5 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 that authorizes the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Energy, acting together on behalf of the Province,

   i. to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest; and

   ii. to determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

PROVINCIAL PROTECTION AND ASSURANCES AGREEMENT

1. PROGRAM/BRANCH: Ontario Financing Authority

2. SUMMARY OF REQUEST:

Provide protection and assurance arrangements in respect of debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with investment interests acquired by one or more financing entities established by Ontario Power Generation Inc. pursuant to s. 22 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 ("OPG Financing Entities"), that, under certain circumstances as set out in the proposed arrangements the Province would pay when due amounts in respect of the obligations of the Financing Entity.

The Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Energy request that Treasury Board/Management Board of Cabinet:

(a) Approve that the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy, on behalf of Ontario, provide a protection agreement, to be authorized by Order in Council under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the debts, obligations, securities and undertakings of one or more OPG Financing Entities substantially reflecting the terms set out in the Provincial Protection and Assurances Indicative Term Sheet and subject to such revisions that the two ministers acting together may determine;

(b) Recommend that Cabinet approve an Order in Council, to be made under subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 that authorizes the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Energy, acting together on behalf of the Province,

(i) to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest; and
(ii) to determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

3. BACKGROUND:

On March 2, 2017, the government announced its proposed Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan (OFHP) to lower electricity bills by 25%, on average, for a typical residential consumer, and holding increases to the rate of inflation for four years. As part of OFHP, it was announced that a portion of the Global Adjustment (GA) would be refinanced in order to fairly allocate costs across present and future generations of electricity consumers with respect to investments made to decarbonize (i.e., phase-out coal) and modernize Ontario's electricity system (i.e., build and maintain a reliable electricity system). This would be achieved by spreading the cost of electricity investments so that they are shared proportionately by future consumers who cause a need for, or benefit from, the province's multi-billion dollar investments in electricity infrastructure.

To this end, immediate rate relief to eligible ratepayers is provided by deferring and spreading the cost recovery of electricity investments over a longer period of time. Under forecasts provided by the Ministry of Energy at the time of the OFHP announcement in March, the immediate reduction would be about $2.5 billion per year on average over the first ten years. The Ministry of Energy will report back to TB/MBC in fall 2017-18 with an update on out-year projections following analysis on rate applications before the Ontario Energy Board.

Under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, (the "OFHPA"), which enables GA Refinancing, the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) will have a funding gap resulting from the reduction in amounts collected over four years. The legislation enables IESO to record the under-collection of GA in a variance account, and deems this under-collected amount to be a "Regulatory Asset". The OFHPA provides for the IESO to sell all or a portion of the regulatory asset; i.e., the right to recover those deferred amounts from specified consumers in the future. Under the OFHPA, a Financing Entity (i.e., an entity established or caused to be established by OPG as the Financial Services Manager under the OFHPA) will purchase the regulatory asset, effectively financing the shortfall in current rates not received from the ratepayers.

To purchase the regulatory asset from IESO, the Financing Entity must borrow a portion of the funds (planned to be 51%, with other financing to come from OPG and, indirectly, the Province) from the capital markets; however, OPG's financial advisors have indicated that without adequate protection against legislative and judicial risk, the debt would not be financeable. OPG, therefore, has advised that the Government of Ontario provide a protection agreement to the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would pay the funding obligations of the Financing Entity.

OFA, the Ministry of Finance and external advisors – consistent with OPG advice – recommend limiting activation of the protection agreement to the following circumstances:

- Actions of the Legislative Assembly that undermine the financing arrangement, i.e., repeal or amendment of the OFHPA or new legislation that adversely affects the ability of an OPG Financing Entity to receive amounts relating to its investments interest so that it can pay its funding obligations;
- A court decision that declares the ability of an OPG Financing Entity to receive amounts on its investment interest so it can pay its funding obligations to be invalid or unenforceable; or
- Changes to the organization, structure or operations of IESO or a change in the electricity market structure or operations that adversely affects the ability of the Financing Entity to receive amounts on its investment interest such that it can pay its specified creditors, including making payments on its debt obligations.

In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province would be required to pay principal and interest on debt issued by the Financing Entity and other obligations of the Financing Entity as they come due (without acceleration). The Province may also be required to pay other obligations which may include payments under derivatives agreements and to service providers.

In addition, the Province would also have the option to directly replace the OPG Financing Entity with respect to its outstanding rights obligations and liabilities, but if the Province decided to do so additional authority would be required.

The protection agreement would continue until all guaranteed obligations of the Financing Entity are fully discharged.

Section 28 of the Financial Administration Act (FAA), 1990 requires that the Minister of Finance's approval is obtained before a ministry seeks an Order in Council (OIC) to enter into a guarantee or indemnity that would increase the contingent liabilities of Ontario. The Minister of Finance has given Section 28 approval for the Minister of Energy, together with the Minister of Finance to recommend the OIC to Cabinet and will, acting together with the Minister of Energy, determine the terms and conditions of and execute the proposed guarantee/indemnity in accordance with the OIC, if approved.

5. ADMINISTRATIVE IMPACTS:

To be managed by existing staff.

6. RISKS:

If the protection agreement is not approved, the Financing Entity would either be unable to raise sufficient financing from capital markets to purchase the regulatory asset from IESO or the cost of the financing will be potentially materially greater than it otherwise would be.

If the protection agreement is provided, the Province takes on a contingent liability. The amount of the liability would increase over the duration of the OFHP and peak at an estimated $20B of debt (final cost forecasts TBC), including principal and accumulated interest.

In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt would be expected to increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability for the debt outstanding at that point in time. The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it will be required to make under the protection agreement. In addition there may be additional payments on derivatives agreements and for service providers that the Province will be required to make.

While it is difficult to estimate the actual impact to the Province's interest on debt (IOD) expense, the worst case scenario would be the Province assuming the debt at its peak. If so, IOD expense may increase between $0.8B and $1.0B per annum (final cost forecasts TBC), depending on the interest rate at which the Financing Entity will be able to borrow at.

It is important to note that, if the protection agreement is triggered, and the Province becomes responsible for the obligation to service and pay down the debt, that the magnitude of the fiscal impact (IOD expense) will depend on whether or not some portions of the OFHPA continue in some form, or not. If the payment streams from ratepayers via the collection of the Clean Energy Adjustment (CEA) continue, this would offset the debt and interest payments; however, if the CEA is ended (e.g., if the OFHPA is repealed or is determined by a court not to be constitutional) and not replaced by another authorized charge, the incremental IOD expense would impact the Government's fiscal plan and likely takes away fiscal resources that can be otherwise used. Also, debt incurred to benefit the ratepayer becomes the responsibility of the taxpayer.

7. COMMUNICATION PLAN

Key Messages

- Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan has resulted in the biggest electricity rate reduction in the history of our province.

- We have heard from Ontarians across the province that the price of electricity has risen too quickly: that's why we moved forward with a plan to ensure the costs are shared more evenly over the years ahead.
- Our government is following through on its commitment to balance the books as announced in the 2017 Budget, while continuing to make investments in priority areas such as electricity price relief.
- This agreement is a key step in lowering electricity costs province-wide as part of the Fair Hydro Plan.

Strategic Approach

- Low-profile, reactive and targeted to industry stakeholders and government employees, as necessary. Reactive messaging contingent on legislative changes only with back-pocket QAs to support as needed.
- Communications support will continue to be led by the Ministry of Energy.

8. RECOMMENDATION

The Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Energy request that Treasury Board/Management Board of Cabinet:

(a) Approve that the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy provide a protection agreement, to be authorized by Order in Council under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the debts, obligations, securities and undertakings of one or more OPG Financing Entities substantially reflecting the terms set out in the Provincial Protection and Assurances Indicative Term Sheet and subject to such revisions that the two ministers acting together may determine;

(b) Recommend that Cabinet approve an Order in Council, in accordance with section 5 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, that authorizes the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Energy, acting together on behalf of the Province,

(i) to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest; and
(ii) to determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

PROVINCIAL PROTECTION AND ASSURANCES AGREEMENT

1. PROGRAM/BRANCH: Ontario Financing Authority

2. SUMMARY OF REQUEST:

Provide protection and assurance arrangements in respect of debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with investment interests acquired by one or more financing entities established by Ontario Power Generation Inc. pursuant to s. 22 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 ("OPG Financing Entities"), that, under certain circumstances as set out in the proposed arrangements the Province would pay when due amounts in respect of the obligations of the Financing Entity.

Section 28 of the Financial Administration Act (FAA), 1990 requires that the Minister of Finance's approval is obtained before a ministry seeks an Order in Council (OIC) to enter into a guarantee or indemnity that would increase the contingent liabilities of Ontario. The Minister of Finance has given Section 28 approval for the Minister of Energy, together with the Minister of Finance to recommend the OIC to Cabinet and will, acting together with the Minister of Energy, determine the terms and conditions of and execute the proposed guarantee/indemnity in accordance with the OIC, if approved.

5. ADMINISTRATIVE IMPACTS:

To be managed by existing staff.

6. RISKS:

If the protection agreement is not approved, the Financing Entity would either be unable to raise sufficient financing from capital markets to purchase the regulatory asset from IESO or the cost of the financing will be potentially materially greater than it otherwise would be.

If the protection agreement is provided, the Province takes on a contingent liability. The amount of the liability would increase over the duration of the OFHP and peak at an estimated $~~24B to $26~~20B of debt (final cost forecasts TBC), including principal and accumulated interest.

In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt would be expected to increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability for the debt outstanding at that point in time. The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it will be required to make under the protection agreement. If so, IOD expense may increase between $0.8B and $1.0~~3~~B per annum (final cost forecasts TBC), depending on the interest rate at which the Financing Entity will be able to borrow at.

Commented [AS1]: Using updated forecast of peak debt at $20B and interest rate range of 4.2% to 5.0%

It is important to note that, if the protection agreement is triggered, and the Province becomes responsible for the obligation to service and pay down the debt, that the magnitude of the fiscal impact (IOD expense) will depend on whether or not some portions of the OFHPA continue in some form, or not. If the payment streams from ratepayers via the collection of the Clean Energy Adjustment (CEA) continue, this would offset the debt and interest payments; however, if the CEA is ended (e.g., if the OFHPA is repealed or is determined by a court not to be constitutional) and not replaced by another authorized charge, the incremental IOD expense would impact the Government's fiscal plan and likely takes away fiscal resources that can be otherwise used. Also, debt incurred to benefit the ratepayer becomes the responsibility of the taxpayer.

7. COMMUNICATION PLAN

Key Messages

- Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan has resulted in the biggest electricity rate reduction in ~~Ontario's~~ the history of our province.

- We have heard from Ontarians across the province that the price of electricity has risen too quickly: ~~, which is~~ that's why we moved forward with a plan to ensure the costs are shared more evenly over the years ahead.
- ~~The~~ Our government is following through on its commitment to balance the books as announced in ~~its~~ the 2017 Budget, while continuing to make investments in priority areas such as electricity price relief.
- This agreement is a key step in lowering electricity costs province-wide as part of the Fair Hydro Plan.

Strategic Approach

- Low-profile, reactive and targeted to industry stakeholders and government employees, as necessary. Reactive messaging contingent ~~upon~~ on legislative changes only with back-pocket QAs to support as needed.
- Communications support will continue to be led by the Ministry of Energy.

8. RECOMMENDATION

(b) Recommend that Cabinet approve an Order in Council, in accordance with section 5 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, that authorizes the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Energy, acting together on behalf of the Province,

(i) to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest; and

(ii) to determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

Indicative Term Sheet

Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017

This indicative term sheet (the "Term Sheet") relates to transactions contemplated to be undertaken under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act") and the regulations made thereunder (the "Regulation"). This Term Sheet is to be held confidential. Unless otherwise specified, defined terms used herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Act. The provincial protection and assurance arrangements contemplated in this Term Sheet will include such terms and conditions as the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance determine to be appropriate. This Term Sheet is not intended to create any obligations or be binding.

Change of Law Protection Agreement:	A Change of Law Protection Agreement will be among the Obligor, a Financing Entity and an Indenture Trustee, acting for and on behalf of the Beneficiaries in accordance with a Trust Indenture.
Obligor:	The Province of Ontario, by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance acting together.
Indenture Trustee:	An indenture trustee, acting for itself and on behalf of other persons entitled under an applicable Trust Indenture.
Beneficiaries:	The Indenture Trustee, acting for itself and on behalf of other persons entitled under Specified Claims.
Specified Claims:	Payment obligations of the Financing Entity that are secured under the Trust Indenture and that are approved as contemplated below under Obligor Approval.
Protection Events:	Any of the following would constitute a Protection Event: (A) (1) the Legislature repeals (and does not replace on an equivalent basis) or amends the Act or any portion thereof; (2) the Legislature enacts or amends any other statute; (3) the Lieutenant Governor in Council repeals (and does not replace on an equivalent basis) or amends

	the Regulation made under the Act or any portion thereof; or (4) the Lieutenant Governor in Council, a minister of the Crown, an official of the government or a board or commission all the members of which are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council makes or amends any "regulation" (as defined in Part III of the Legislation Act, 2006); (5) there is a change in the organization or structure of the IESO or Ontario's electricity market undertaken at the initiative of the Province or an entity controlled by the Province, in each case, that [materially][1] and adversely affects (a) the ability of the Financing Entity to receive amounts on its investment interest so that it can pay Specified Claims, or (b) the Change of Law Protection Agreement or any of the agreements under which Specified Claims arise, other than if the Indenture Trustee has confirmed in writing that the affect under such agreements is otherwise acceptable; or (B) a court of competent jurisdiction [in a final and non-appealable judgement][2] determines that all or a portion of the Act or the Regulation is ultra vires or invalid in a way that [materially][3] and adversely affects the ability of the Financing Entity to receive amounts on its investment interest so that it can pay Specified Claims.
Obligation to Pay Specified Claims:	Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee will have the right to require the Obligor to pay the Specified Claims owing by the Financing Entity when they become due and payable (without acceleration). The exercise of such right by the Indenture Trustee in accordance with the Trust Indenture shall constitute the only remedy available under the Change of Law Protection Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Obligor be obligated to pay or indemnify a Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

[1] Under consideration to assess the marketability implications of materiality threshold.

[2] Under consideration to assess the marketability implications of this phrase.

[3] See footnote 1, above.

Subrogation:	Upon paying a Specified Claim to a Beneficiary, the Obligor as guarantor shall have rights of subrogation, including becoming entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Specified Claim, including the security interest in each related investment interest and related property of the Financing Entity.
Optional Assumption:	At any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Obligor shall be entitled (but not obligated) to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of Specified Claims as obligor and debtor. The Financing Entity (including through the Financial Services Manager) will ensure that Specified Claims permit such an assumption by the Obligor without any penalty or make-whole payment (or, in the case of any contract for the provision of on-going services to the Financing Entity, the satisfaction and termination of the Specified Claims without any acceleration of future fees, profits or other like amounts), or any requirement for further consent, approval or agreement.
Term:	The Change of Law Protection Agreement will continue for as long as any Specified Claim remains outstanding.
Obligor Approval:	The process by which a Specified Claim will become subject to the Change of Law Protection Agreement will be determined by the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy in negotiation with the Financing Entity.
FIPPA:	The Change of Law Protection Agreement will acknowledge that the Obligor will be bound by the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Ontario) and that any information provided to the Obligor, or any agent or representative of the Obligor in connection with the Change of Law Protection Agreement, may be subject to disclosure in accordance with the act or as otherwise required by law.
Representations and Warranties:	To be determined by the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy in negotiation with the Financing Entity.
Confidentiality Obligations:	To be determined based on what would be customary and appropriate for similar types of arrangements and is acceptable to the Obligor and the Financing Entity.
Governing Law:	Province of Ontario.

Change of Law Protection Agreement

September 15, 2017

CONFIDENTIAL & COMMERCIALLY SENSITIVE

Background

- The Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, enables the IESO to establish a variance account to record the deferral amounts from the difference between collections from current ratepayers and payment obligations to generators and conservation, and to create a regulatory asset to recover the balance in the variance account
    - The IESO can then sell the regulatory asset – the right to recover those deferred amounts from specified consumers in the future
    - OPG, as the Financial Services Manager, is authorized to establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations
    - The Financing Entity will purchase the regulatory asset, effectively financing the shortfall in current rates not received from ratepayers
- To purchase the regulatory asset from the IESO, the Financing Entity must borrow a portion of the funds from capital markets (planned to be 51%, with other financing to come from OPG and, indirectly, the Province)
    - OPG's financial advisors have indicated that without adequate protection against legislative, judicial and organizational risk, the debt would not be financeable or would result in higher financing costs, to be passed on to ratepayers
- OPG has requested that the Province provide a protection agreement that supports the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would take over the funding obligations of the Financing Entity

Note: CEAs are "clean energy adjustments"

Provisions Under the Act

- As contemplated under the Act, OPG is requesting a Provincial commitment to support the planned Financing Entity's ability to borrow to finance the deferral of global adjustment amounts in certain limited circumstances
- Under s.5(3) of the OFHP Act,
  - The LGIC may by order,
    - Authorize the Minister (of Energy) and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province,
      - To agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest, and
      - To determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity
    - Specify terms and conditions that must be included in any guarantee or indemnity given by the Minister and the Minister of Finance
    - Specify a maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity

Provincial Protection Agreement

- OFA, the Ministry of Finance and external advisors – consistent with OPG advice – recommend limiting activation of the protection agreement to the following circumstances:
    - Actions of the Legislative Assembly that undermine the financing arrangement, i.e., repeal or amendment of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, or new legislation that adversely affect the Financing Entity
    - A court decision that declares the rights of the Financing Entity to recover amounts from ratepayers to be invalid or unenforceable
    - Changes to the organization, structure or operations of IESO or a change in the electricity market structure or operations that adversely affects the ability of the Financing Entity to recover amounts related to funding obligations.
- In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province will be required to pay the obligations of the Financing Entity including principal and interest payments on debt issued to date, any payments to derivatives counterparties and any outstanding payments to service providers
    - The Province could potentially service the debt and other obligations and could replace OPG as the financial services manager
- The protection agreement may need to be revised at a future date, or approval from the Province may be required, if the financing entity must access US market as investors in that market will likely require additional compensation if the assumption agreement is triggered

Considerations

- If a protection agreement is not provided, the Financing Entity would either be unable to raise sufficient financing from capital markets to purchase the regulatory asset from the IESO or the cost of the financing will be potentially materially greater than it otherwise would be
- If a protection agreement is provided, the Province takes on a contingent liability
  - The creation of a contingent liability will not currently affect net debt
  - The amount of the contingent liability will increase over the duration of the Fair Hydro Plan and peak at an estimated $24B to $26B of debt (final cost forecasts TBC), including principal and accumulated interest
- In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt will most likely increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability at that point in time
  - The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it has assumed under the protection agreement
  - IOD expense may increase between $0.8B and $1.3B per annum, assuming the protection agreement is triggered when debt is at its peak, and depending on the interest rate at which the Financing entity will be able to borrow at

The Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Energy request that Treasury Board/Management Board of Cabinet:

a) Approve that the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy provide a protection agreement, to be authorized by Order in Council under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the debts, obligations, securities and undertakings of one or more OPG Financing Entities substantially reflecting the terms set out in the Provincial Protection and Assurances Indicative Term Sheet and subject to such revisions that the two ministers acting together may determine;

b) Recommend that Cabinet approve an Order in Council, in accordance with section 5 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 that authorizes the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Energy, acting together on behalf of the Province,

   i. to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest; and

   ii. to determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

Hi Anna,

Just as a comment, it may be better not to send out attachments with meeting notices (and send them instead in a separate email) unless the meeting can be made "Private" by Outlook.

I believe that anyone who has access to an OFA boardroom in the Outlook Calendar can view all meetings scheduled, including attachments.

Questions for MOE and OFA to consider regarding OPG's Proposed Adherence Terms

A. Scope of Province's Obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (CLPA)

1. On a Protection Event, should the Province become responsible for the payment of taxes (if any) owing by the Financing Entity?

2. On a Protection Event, should the Province become liable to pay amounts owing by the Financing Entity to OPG (e.g., FSM fees and expenses)?

3. On a Protection Event, should all available funds (e.g., funds accumulated in sinking funds) be immediately applied to reduce the amount that the Province would be liable for under the CLPA?

4. Should the Province set a "Protection Agreement Maximum" (previously called the "Program Maximum") that measures and relates only to "principal amounts"? In other words, should the limitation be tied only to principal obligations, while the Province's actual obligations would automatically extend, without specific quantum limits, to the other payment obligations under "funding obligations" (e.g., interest, swaps, standby liquidity commitment fees, servicer fees and expenses)?

5. Is the Province comfortable guaranteeing contingent obligations (e.g., indemnity obligations) of the Financing Entity? If so, should the Province require that such contingent obligations be "capped" within the funding obligation itself or should the exposure of the Province be otherwise limited under the CLPA?

6. Should the Province be required to deposit funds to meet sinking fund or collateral deposits (i.e., deposit obligations incorporated in the financing structure on the basis that the "clean energy" cash flows will service the obligations, rather than the Province), notwithstanding that the Province would have become primarily liable for payment obligations under the CLPA?

B. Adhesion

7. Is the Province okay splitting the maximum exposure limitations and "process-related" matters (see below) into a separate agreement - away from the terms of the agreement under which the Province's payment obligations would bind the Province opposite the Indenture Trustee? OPG proposes this in order to keep the optics of the CLPA as simple and straightforward as possible. In other words, is the Province prepared to leave all of the important details regarding what OPG is supposed to do before incurring an obligation that binds the Province to a side agreement with OPG, that is opaque to the Indenture Trustee and Underwriters at the time a funding obligation is incurred and not requiring any third party to have notice or regard to the Province's requirements?

8. OPG proposes that delivery of an officers' certificate to a third party, in OPG's capacity as FSM, will in and of itself bind the Province under the CLPA. That certificate would simply indicate that the Province is bound under the CLPA with respect to the specified funding obligation. It would not be addressed to the Province (although a pre-closing certificate is contemplated to be delivered to the Province) and the "Protection Agreement Maximum" concept would not be incorporated as a specific condition (other than to the extent that OPG is bound to the Province under the side agreement with the Province). Is this acceptable to the Province? Does this raise any governance/authority issues for the Province (e.g., limit on incurrence needing to be specifically confirmed at closing? scope of permitted delegation to bind? FAA compliance?)

C. "Protection Agreement Maximum" (formerly "Program Maximum" (PAM)

9. OPG proposes that the PAM will be determined based on a mechanical calculation and without any real discretion on the part of the Province to set or object to the PAM. Is this acceptable to the Province?

10. OPG's proposed mechanical process to determine PAM would be based on OPG's 24 month forecast (estimate) of payments to be made by the Financing Entity. So long as that forecast (and any refresh) is consistent with the "Financing Plan" (also prepared by OPG) and is "reasonably expected to align with the fair allocation amount", the Province will be required to accept the PAM based on OPG's forecast – i.e., no discretion to reject or modify the aggregate amount of the Province's commitment initially or from time to time. Is the Province prepared to tie its CLPA obligation automatically to the operation of the OFHPA in this way, without review and with perpetual effect?

11. Is the proposed mechanical link to the OFHPA calculations consistent with the OIC or other governance requirements applicable to the Province's authority to approve the CLPA?

12. Is the initial 24 month forecast period appropriate (e.g., 2.5B x 2 – large)? Is OPG's proposed refresh of the PAM (mechanically tied to the new forecast), 9 to 12 months prior to the end of the 24 month forecast period, appropriate?

D. "Process-Related" Matters

13. Assuming the Province is okay with the arrangements described in question 7, above, we would envision a mechanism where the Province could give the Indenture Trustee notice of a breach (if known) by OPG of the PAM or process-related side agreement, and that such a notice would have the effect of cutting off the application of the CLPA for any future incurrences unless the Province further agrees otherwise. Does the Province agree that this sort of failsafe is essential? Note that OPG's suggestion has been that no pre-incurrence non-adherence/failsafe provision be provided, in order to allow the Province to provide notice that the CLPA will not apply to a pending/proposed incurrence.

14. Does the Province need to contemplate other scenarios where the CLPA would become ineffective in respect of future incurrences, such as:

    a. an OPG change of control

    b. a policy-based determination by a future government

    c. an unanticipated circumstance, such as the incurrence by the Financing Entity of assessed tax liabilities, indemnity payments, "increased costs", rating downgrades, offering disclosure-based claims, defaults under the program, insolvency of a major counterparty (e.g., swap counterparty or services provider), etc.

d. a discretionary circumstance where the Province decides it no longer wishes to be liable under the CLPA?

We expect that OPG would push back so that any suspension of new obligations by the Province would not hamper OPG's ability to complete an anticipated/needed refinancing.

15. Does the Province have any reservations about letting OPG at any time provide a binding certificate to third parties regarding adherence, which would be determinative of the Province's obligations. What conditions for this sort of certificate would make sense (e.g., preview and consent by the Province)? Does this proposal raise any governance/authority issues for the Province (e.g., scope of delegation; FAA compliance)?

16. If the Province is prepared to be liable for taxes owing by the Financing Entity (see question 1, above), what oversight, assurances, documentation and reporting regarding the potential for entity-level taxes should the Province require (if any)?

17. OPG is proposing that the Province will receive a certificate prior to the Financing Entity incurring a funding obligation, that sets out "the material terms of the funding obligations pertaining to the principal amount, pricing and third party fees". Is that a sufficient amount of detail, or would the Province like to specifically itemize its information expectations, to cover things such as:

    a. details respecting any principal obligation, such as:

        i. the amount, timing and conditions of repayments (including any redemption or extension rights)

        ii. the basis for OPG's expectations regarding the availability of any related refinancings

        iii. any required deposits to be made into a capital account or a finance reserve account in order to provide for payment of the principal obligation

        iv. the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the principal repayment of the funding obligation

        v. details respecting any redemption rights, including the nature and conditions applicable to any exercise and OPG's expected basis for determining whether or not to exercise a redemption right, option or privilege;

    b. details respecting interest obligations, such as:

        i. the anticipated interest or discount rate or rates (including default rates)

        ii. the timing/frequency/conditions of coupon payments

iii. any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account

iv. the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of interest

v. the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the interest obligation;

c. details respecting any hedging obligation (e.g., interest or FX swaps, options or other derivatives), such as:

i. the name of the counterparty and credit details

ii. the credit ratings (if any) of the payor(s)

iii. the risks sought to be mitigated by the derivative

iv. anticipated circumstances (if any) in which the derivative may not achieve such mitigation or be subject to early termination

v. whether collateral posting requirements will apply;

d. details respecting other funding obligations, such as:

i. the payee

ii. the timing and any conditions of payments

iii. any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account or the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of such obligations

iv. in the case of a contingent obligation (e.g., indemnities), the nature and extent of any contingency affecting the payment obligation, the circumstances in which a payment obligation may arise and any specified maximum claim amount

e. assuming that the Province would be liable for capital, reserve or supplementary account deposit obligations (see question 6, above), details respecting the schedule for such deposits and the conditions for the application of such amounts to pay such amounts and the related priorities for application.

18. OPG (and presumably OPG's accountants) is contemplating that the Province will be provided transaction documentation "in substantially final form" and that the Province will not be entitled to provide input "other than in its capacity as obligor under the [CLPA]". In other words, assuming that the CLPA is signed in advance, the Province will have no real opportunity to comment on the forms of transaction documents to be used, and will have a limited opportunity to "not accept" [1] the documentation. Can the Province live with these limitations?

19. The proposed OPG certificate (pre-incurrence) would include an attestation by OPG regarding the use of pre-reviewed documentation. The test for conformity of the to-be-used documentation, compared to the pre-reviewed documentation, would focus only on whether "the covenants of the Financing Entity are no more onerous in any material respect" and that the "events of default" are consistent "in all material respects". Is the limited scope of this conformity test acceptable, or should it be broadened and cover specific items such as:

    a. no differences in the timing of or circumstances under which payments are or may become due (for example, as a result of any termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization)

    b. no differences that could affect the Province's rights of subrogation or interests as a subrogee

    c. with respect to the anticipated form of series specific documents (as opposed to the upfront terms of program-wide "master" documents), confirming that the variable terms set forth in the proposed documents are as reasonably contemplated in the reviewed forms, having regard to such matters as:

        i. the type of instrument to be issued (i.e., debt (bullet vs. amortizing), equity-linked, pass-through instruments, etc.)

        ii. the scope of the related obligations (e.g., redemption or extension features or other optionality)

        iii. the extent of the related obligations (e.g., limited recourse features, limitations on indemnities, etc.)

        iv. the timing, conditions and circumstances in which payment obligations may arise,

    but making it clear that conformity would not include a comparison to the particular financial terms, rates, levels and parameters of the obligations other than if the reviewed forms specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters.

20. How much time is sufficient for the Province:

    a. to do an initial review of the main transaction documentation (including forms of series-specific documents), which would set the acceptable pattern for future

[1] Note that the proposed OPG language is not crystal clear that the Province can reject the reviewed documentation, which we expect is merely drafting, but that will need to be confirmed assuming the Province wishes to work within the OPG/Tory mark-up.

issuances? The proposal is 15 BDs, although that does not seem to make sense given that OPG proposes that the Province must confirm acceptance of the terms within 15 BDs of receipt of the documentation

b. to do a review of any changes to the main transaction documentation (including forms of series-specific documents), which would reset the acceptable pattern for future issuances? The proposal is to receive proposed amendments at least 15 BDs prior to first use, and the Province would confirm acceptance of the terms within 15 BDs of receipt of the documentation

c. to review applicable details of a proposed funding obligation in advance of an incurrence (proposal is 10BDs)?

21. What other items should be incorporated into the timeline from the Province's perspective?

E. Information, Reporting and Other Covenants

22. OPG proposes to provide the Province with an applicable "Financing Plan" only after an incurrence. Does the Province need to see this document as it is issued and changed, rather than only after the time of an incurrence?

23. OPG proposes to provide the Province with any actual offering/disclosure documents only after it is used. Does the Province need to have input into offering/disclosure document before use or dissemination (e.g., the description of the CLPA)?

24. OPG has limited its negative covenant on elections by the Financing Entity following a Protection Event to actions that would accelerate obligations. Should this be broader to cover extensions or other consensual changes that could affect the obligations (e.g., creditor concessions).

F. Parties

25. Will it be sufficient for the CLPA (and any procedural side-letter) to be signed by OPG, acting solely in its capacity as "financial services manager" (i.e., with OPG's liability being limited by the terms of the related management or administrative agreement)? How does this interplay with any other indemnities or exculpatory provisions that the Province is anticipating for OPG (corporate) and its officers?

26. Who from OPG should sign the officer's certificate? The OPG proposal is 2 "executive officers".

27. OPG proposes that a failure to comply with the PAM or "approval process" will not result in any breach. Assuming that OPG is in fact proposing that its failure would have no consequences, including as between the Province and OPG whatsoever, are the process aspects of the OPG proposal even meaningful to the Province?

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council dated as of ■ (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of ■, 2017, the FSM established the Financing Entity as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The trustee of the Financing Entity in its capacity as Financing Entity Trustee and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

OPG and the Province will concurrently enter into the Process Agreement, under which OPG will agree to perform certain related activities and to provide certain assurances on which the Province will rely, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved

Obligation and ensuring that the Province's assumption right may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity Trustee, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

All covenants and agreements in this Agreement by the parties will bind their respective successors and permitted assigns, whether so expressed or not. All covenants and agreements of the Indenture Trustee or the FSM in this Agreement shall bind their respective successors, co-trustees and agents.

1.08 Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

1.10 Proceedings Against the Crown Act

NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PROGRAM AGREEMENTS AFFECTS THE RIGHTS, PROTECTIONS AND IMMUNITIES OF THE CROWN UNDER THE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE CROWN ACT.

1.11 Attornment

EACH PARTY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY ONTARIO COURTS SITTING IN TORONTO IN ANY ACTION, APPLICATION, REFERENCE OR OTHER PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT THEY MAY

HAVE TO REQUIRE A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY PROCEEDING COMMENCED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

1.12 Counterparts; Electronic Delivery

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed will be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts will together constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by a party by electronic transmission will be as effective as delivery of a manually executed copy of the Agreement by such party.

1.13 Change of Law Protection Agreement Referred to in the Trust Indenture

This Agreement is the "Change of Law Protection Agreement" referred to in the Trust Indenture.

1.14 Non-Business Days

Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due, any period of time would begin or end, any calculation is to be made or any other action to be taken hereunder shall be stated to be required to be taken, on a day other than a Business Day, then (notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement) such payment shall be made, such period of time shall begin or end, such calculations shall be made and such other action shall be taken on the next succeeding Business Day.

1.15 Waiver, Amendment

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision nor will any waiver of any provision of this Agreement constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

1.17 Currency

Unless stated otherwise, all amounts herein are stated in Canadian Dollars.

1.18 References to Acts of the Financing Entity Trustee

For greater certainty, where any reference is made in this Agreement, or in any other instrument executed pursuant hereto or contemplated hereby to which the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee, as trustee of the Financing Entity, is party, to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against, or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to (i) the Financing Entity or (ii) the Financing Entity Trustee, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to, the Financing Entity Trustee as trustee of the Financing Entity.

1.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Financing Entity shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.19 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may provide a written demand, in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand"), to the Province requiring the Province to pay the Approved Obligations owing from time to time by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee as and when they become due and payable, without Acceleration[1]. A Payment Demand will not be valid with respect to an Approved Obligation until the amount claimed becomes due and payable in respect of the Approved Obligation (without Acceleration) in accordance with the Trust Indenture and has not otherwise been paid by the Financing Entity.

(b) Following receipt of a valid Payment Demand under Subsection 2.01(a), the Province shall pay the amounts owing by the Financing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, on behalf of the applicable Beneficiaries, in respect of each Approved Obligation[2], in each case as and when the Approved Obligation becomes due and payable in accordance with its terms and on its scheduled, specified or determined payment date, as determined without regard to any Acceleration or rights of Acceleration arising under the Approved Obligation, in each case by the Province depositing or causing the deposit of the applicable payment amount into the Collection Account (the "Limited Guarantee"). For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation, including (i) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the Financing Entity following a Protection Event, and (ii) amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the Financing Entity into any Capital Account, Finance Reserve Account or a Supplemental Reserve Account.

(c) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(d) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

[1] Consider mechanics for notifying the Province regarding the specific amounts payable and their due dates. Consider attaching a detailed schedule of payments under the Payment Demand and the respective due date of each payment.

[2] Under Subsection 5(3) of the Act, the Province can guarantee only obligations "associated with an investment interest". The guarantee in Section 2.01 of the draft agreement guarantees "Approved Obligations", which in turn relies on the definition of Primary Obligations. The connection between a Primary Obligations and an "investment interest" is therefore crucial. Blakes is considering how to more precisely connect these concepts.

(e) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits.

2.02 Gross-up

[All amounts payable by the Province under this Agreement shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings of any kind. If the Province is obliged to deduct or withhold an amount in respect of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings, then in such event the Province shall deposit into the Collection Account such additional amount as is necessary to ensure that the Indenture Trustee receives (on an after-tax basis, after payment of any and all income taxes on such additional amounts) an amount equal to the full amount otherwise due and payable in respect of the related Approved Obligation, net of any such taxes, charges, fees, levies, duties or withholdings.][3]

2.03 Absence of Set-off

The Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Collection Account in Satisfaction

Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Indenture Trustee shall apply the full amount paid by the Province into the Collection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation to pay the corresponding amount due and payable to the applicable Beneficiaries under the Approved Obligation.[4] Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Collection Account in respect of an Approved Obligation, the amount so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries and thereby reduce the amount due and payable under the Approved Obligation, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid[5].

[3] Under consideration.

[4] This will need to operate in tandem with the Trust Indenture waterfall. The idea is that the Approved Obligations may not necessarily follow the sequence of the "payment waterfall" included in the Trust Indenture, and so amounts from the Province would need to operate independently.

[5] Consider how Beneficiary rights under Obligations Secured will be amended under an agreement to which a Beneficiary is not directly a party. To achieve a binding relationship, a corresponding provision should appear in the Trust Indenture and each other contract under which the Obligation Secured arises, to the effect that the Beneficiaries will be deemed to be bound by the agreement of the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations, or until the Province is no longer required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee in accordance with Section 6.03].

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine,

provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee shall not permit any change, modification, alteration, amendment, supplement, extension, renewal, compromise, novation, replacement, suspension or waiver of the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral therefor expect with the prior written consent of the Province having first been obtained.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if (a) the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied; or (b) the Province has specifically approved in writing the particular terms, conditions and documentation for the Primary Obligation.

4.02 Adherence Conditions

The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to a Primary Obligation:

(a) the Primary Obligation is contemplated under the Trust Indenture as an Obligation Secured;

(b) at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments[6] under the Primary Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum;

(c) the FSM delivers a notice to the Indenture Trustee, with a copy to the Province, one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, setting out the Protection Agreement Maximum;

(d) the FSM delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG) and addressed to the Province and the Indenture Trustee, one Business Day prior to the earlier of (i) one Business Day prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the Primary Obligation, and (ii) on the Business Day on which the financial terms of the Primary Obligation are definitively determined (including the interest or discount rate applicable to any notes, bonds or other securities), setting out the following with respect to the Primary Obligation:

i. confirmation that, at the time the Primary Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under the Primary Obligation (if any), together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under Approved Obligations, do not and will not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum; and

ii. confirmation that the FSM has delivered to the Province a certificate in accordance with the Process Agreement confirming, among other things, that the transaction documents in respect of the Primary Obligation are in substantially the form of the documentation reviewed by the Province; and

[6] Use of the concept of "repayments" under the OFHPA for this purpose is under consideration.

(e) the Province has not provided a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

4.03 Evidence of Satisfaction

A closing certificate signed by at least two executive officers of OPG in connection with an incurrence or amendment of a Primary Obligation shall be determinative as to whether the applicable Adherence Conditions with respect thereto have been satisfied, notwithstanding that such certificate may include inaccuracies, be incomplete or otherwise be defect or deficient, and such closing certificate may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

ARTICLE V
RIGHTS OF THE PROVINCE

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation:

(a) to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee; or

(b) as a result of assuming the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured under Article VI,

the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (i) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive distributions of such amount by the Financing Entity in accordance with and in the priority applicable to the Approved Obligation applicable in respect of the payment under the Trust Indenture, (ii) the benefits of the related Collateral and (iii) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a secured party under the Trust Indenture) under such Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including, if applicable, as a Noteholder) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

5.02 Priorities

For greater certainty, the rights, interests and entitlements of the Province as an assignee and subrogee of and with respect to an Approved Obligation shall rank equally with the rights, interests and entitlements of a Beneficiary for whom a Limited Guarantee payment is made in respect of, and to the extent of the payment made to satisfy, the Approved Obligation and the Province shall not be subject to postponement or subordination with respect thereto except to the extent of the priorities established in relation to the Approved Obligation under the Trust Indenture.

5.03 Voting Rights under "Outstanding Notes"

Notwithstanding the last three sentences of the definition of "Outstanding" in the Trust Indenture[7]:

(a) Notes in connection with Approved Obligations in respect of which the Province has rights and interest pursuant to Section 5.01 shall be regarded as "Outstanding" within the meaning of the Trust Indenture; and

(b) in determining whether Noteholders of the requisite principal amount of Notes that are Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) have taken any Action under the Trust Indenture, and for the purposes of Article X of the Trust Indenture, the Province shall be deemed to have the amount of Outstanding (as defined in the Trust Indenture) Notes in proportion to its interest in such Notes based on the amounts that the Province has paid in respect of Approved Obligations under this Agreement.

5.04 Province May Perform Other Program Agreement Covenants.

If the Financing Entity fails to perform any covenant under any Program Agreement, the Province may (but, except as expressly provided for under this Agreement, shall not be obligated to) perform such covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity. If the Province performs such a covenant on behalf of the Financing Entity, all sums expended or advanced by the Province in so performing the covenant will bear interest at the rate of interest determined by the Province to reflect market terms and conditions for a borrowing made by the Province at the relevant time from the date of expenditure until repayment by the Financing Entity and will (together with such interest) be paid by the Financing Entity upon demand and will until paid form part of the Obligations Secured and constitute a Finance Amount.[8]

[7] This concept needs to be reflected in the Trust Indenture.

[8] General Regulation to be revised such that "Finance Amount" picks up guarantor amounts. Under consideration by MOE.

ARTICLE VI
NOTICE OF ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATIONS SECURED

6.01 Delivery of Assumption Notice

Following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may provide notice (in the form of Exhibit B) to the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the terms of the Process Agreement, that the Province has elected to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor (the "Assumption Notice"). The Assumption Notice shall specify the date on which the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured will be effective (the "Assumption Closing Date").

6.02 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

The Indenture Trustee, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Province will cooperate and use best efforts to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the Assumption Closing Date.[9]

6.03 Effect of Assumption

On the date that the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province becomes effective (the "Assumption Effective Date"), the Province shall no longer be required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee.

6.04 Interim Period

Until the effective time of the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province on the Assumption Effective Date, the Province shall continue to perform and be obligated under the Limited Guarantee.

ARTICLE VII
INDENTURE TRUSTEE MATTERS

7.01 Limited Recourse

No recourse may be taken, directly or indirectly, with respect to the obligations of the Financing Entity under this Agreement, or any certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or therewith, against (a) the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, (b) any owner of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or (c) any partner, owner, beneficiary, agent, officer, director, employee or agent of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, any holder of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee or of any successor or assign of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, except as any such Person may have expressly agreed (it being understood that the Financing Entity Trustee has no such obligations in its individual capacity).

[9] Further details regarding obtaining of third party consents and rating agency approvals to be considered.

7.02 Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Notes

The recitals contained herein will be taken as the statements of the Province and the FSM, and the Indenture Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Indenture Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement.

7.03 Representations and Covenants of the Indenture Trustee

The Indenture Trustee represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) the Indenture Trustee is a trust company organized, existing and in good standing under the laws of Canada;

(b) the Indenture Trustee has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Agreement and other documents to which it is a party;

(c) each of this Agreement and the other documents to which it is a party has been duly executed and delivered by the Indenture Trustee and constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation in accordance with its terms; and

(d) the Indenture Trustee is authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each of the provinces and territories of Canada.

7.04 Release of all Collateral

(a) The Indenture Trustee shall not execute instruments to release Collateral from the Security Interest of the Trust Indenture, or convey the Indenture Trustee's interest (which is held by the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Specified Creditors) in the same, unless and until the rights and interests of the Province under Section 5.01 or otherwise as an assignee of any of the Obligations Secured or as a subrogee have been satisfied in full and the Province has no continuing obligations under this Agreement.

(b) The Province shall be entitled to receive at least 10 Business Days' written notice when the Indenture Trustee proposes to take any action pursuant to Subsection 7.04(a), accompanied by copies of any instruments involved.

7.05 Right to Notice and Attend Meetings

The Financing Entity shall ensure that the Province receives advance notice of any meeting or proposed written resolution of Specified Creditors (or any of them) and the Province and its legal advisers shall be permitted to attend and be represented at any meeting of such Specified Creditors.

ARTICLE VIII
SUSPENSION OF ADHERENCE FOR NEW PRIMARY OBLIGATIONS

8.01 Suspension Notice

A written notice in the form of Exhibit C (a "Suspension Notice"):

(a) shall be provided by the FSM or the Province to the Indenture Trustee promptly following the occurrence of a Program Breach; and

(b) may be provided by the Province to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity following the occurrence of a Breach Event that has not been waived in writing by the Province.

8.02 Suspension

If a Suspension Notice has been provided under Section 8.01 (the provision of such notice being a "Suspension Event"), the Financing Entity shall not incur any new or additional Obligation Secured and shall not amend or terminate any existing Obligation Secured except with the prior written consent of the Province.

8.03 Termination Notice

On the occurrence of a Suspension Event, the Province may provide to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity a notice in the form of Exhibit D (a "Termination Notice").

8.04 No Impact on Adherence

For greater certainty, the occurrence of Suspension Event or a failure by the FSM or the Financing Entity to perform its covenants under this Agreement will not invalidate or extinguish the obligations of the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of Approved Obligations in existence prior to the occurrence of the Suspension Event.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

9.01 Term of Agreement

This Agreement will continue until the later of:

(a) the date that no amount is or may become due and payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee; and

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG"), is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of ■, 2017, the FSM established the Financing Entity as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.[1]

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, OPG provided the Province with copies of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has confirmed by a notice delivered to OPG that the reviewed forms (as further described in such notice) shall be Reviewed Documentation for the purposes of this Agreement.

This Agreement sets out the obligations OPG has agreed to perform and assurances OPG has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied in connection with the incurrence or amendment of an Approved Obligation, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of OPG, and of the Province in accordance with the Act, have been done.

[1] Note: This draft only addresses the first Financing Entity. If additional financing entities are established, revisions to this Agreement may be made at that time, in context. Any additional financing entities contemplated should be as contemplated in the Financing Plan.

(f) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of OPG, threatened against or affecting OPG at law or in equity or before or by any Governmental Authority, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which would result in any material adverse change in the business, operations, prospects, properties, assets or condition, financial or otherwise, of OPG or in the ability of the OPG to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any Program Agreements.

ARTICLE VI
ELECTION TO ASSUME APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

6.01 Election by the Province

At any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may (but shall not be obligated) to elect to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor. To make such election, the Province shall duly complete and deliver to OPG a notice in the form of Exhibit A (an "Election Notice"), which in turn will set forth the form of agreement (an "Assumption Agreement") setting forth the material terms and conditions under which the Province would assume and become obligated under each of the Obligations Secured. The Election Notice shall, among other things, specify the date on which the Province proposes to assume the Obligations Secured, which date shall be no earlier than 20 Business Days following delivery of the Election Notice to OPG (the "Proposed Assumption Date").

6.02 Details regarding Obligations Secured

Promptly following the delivery of the Election Notice to OPG, OPG shall provide the following information and documentation to the Province:

(a) a summary of the amounts that will be owing under all Obligations Secured as of the Proposed Assumption Date, together with a detailed schedule setting out the dates on which such amounts will become due and payable under the Obligations Secured;

(b) a summary of the rights arising under the Obligations Secured that permit the Financing Entity to assign the Obligations Secured to the Province, including details regarding any conditions precedent to such assignment and the related assumption becoming effective and any notices, filings, consents or other actions that will be required in order to implement and effect such assignment and assumption;

(c) current versions of all documentation under which the Obligations Secured arise;

(d) copies of all correspondence exchanged between OPG, as the FSM, or the Financing Entity, on the one hand, and any Specified Creditor, Rating Agency or the Indenture Trustee, on the other hand, in each case that may reasonably be considered to be material to the assumption and performance of the Obligations Secured by the Province;

(e) all income tax returns and assessments, financial statements and notices of proceedings of or pertaining to the Financing Entity or its business and any documentation related thereto, including any pleadings, appeals, objections, qualifications or other similar materials in respect of the Financing Entity or any Program Agreement; and

(f) a draft version of the Assumption Agreement prepared in relation to each Obligation Secured, prepared in accordance with and having regard to the requirements of the relevant agreement(s) under which the Obligation Secured arises.

6.03 Settlement of Terms

Within 20 Business Days following receipt by the Province of the information and documentation to be provided under Section 6.02, the Province shall confirm in writing whether or not it will proceed with the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured and, if it will be proceeding with the assignment and assumption, the date on which the Province intends that assignment and assumption will be effected, which may not be earlier than the Proposed Assumption Date. If it will be proceeding with such assignment and assumption, the Province will deliver an Assumption Notice as contemplated under Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, which will specify such date as the "Assumption Closing Date" for the purposes thereof.

6.04 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

OPG shall cooperate with the Province and, as FSM, will cause the Financing Entity to cooperate, and each shall use its best efforts, to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the applicable Assumption Closing Date.[3]

6.05 Terms of Obligations Secured

In order to permit the Province to assume the Obligations Secured in the circumstances contemplated herein, OPG will, and as FSM, will cause the Financing Entity to, ensure that all Obligations Secured permit such an assignment to and assumption by the Province substantially in accordance with the terms and on the basis contemplated in the Assumption Agreement, without any penalty or make-whole payment, or any requirement for further consent, approval or agreement, or alternatively, in the case of any Obligations Secured entered into by or on behalf of the Financing Entity for the provision of on-going services to the Financing Entity, permitting

7.02 Notice on Breach Event

If any Breach Event shall have occurred and not been waived in writing by the Province, the Province shall have the right at its option, upon written notice to OPG, and in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies available hereunder at law or equity, to provide a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity in accordance with the terms of the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

Good evening,

Please find attached, the final term sheet for the Provincial Protection Agreement (clean and black-lined). You'll see the attached reflects today's decision to square bracket the word "materially". This version also incorporates minor edits from Tory's sent by Rima on Thursday evening (the addition of "or amends" and the word "electricity").

Thank you,

Anna

Dear Toby,

Just checking to see if you have had a chance to review our comments and whether the Province had any questions. We expect that the change of law protection agreement will be a topic of discussion at the Thursday morning rate-mitigation meeting and wanted to identify/address any questions from the Province beforehand if possible. Appreciate if you could let us know.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.

- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

We expect that the change of law protection agreement will be a topic of discussion at the Thursday morning rate-mitigation meeting and wanted to identify/address any questions from the Province beforehand if possible. Appreciate if you could let us know.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.

- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by

the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Hi Ron, thank you for raising that. The deck was merely meant as a compliment to the TB submission, and was used primarily by the Energy MO for their pre-briefs with TB/MBC members. It was updated by me to reflect changes and edits to the submission. I did not circulate it for input, but rather used everyone's edits to the submission to inform my edits to the deck.

Of course, it may have been better to circulate the two products in tandem. I'm happy to consider that approach going forward.

Version 11 (attached) was the final version.

Hi Anna,

On a process question, on the slide deck, I don't think that CEFD had had any input on those slides since a very early version that GBED had circulated In August when they were doing a deck to brief the Minister of Energy. Would you know what the process was for updating the deck subsequently? And would you be able to share the final electronic version in ppt (I have the pdf that was appended to the end of the pdf of the submission you circulated last week).

Thanks,
Ron

Provincial Protection and Assurances Agreement

September 20, 2017

CONFIDENTIAL & COMMERCIALLY SENSITIVE

Background

- The Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, enables the IESO to establish a variance account to record the deferral amounts from the difference between collections from current ratepayers and payment obligations to generators and conservation, and to create a regulatory asset to recover the balance in the variance account
    - The IESO can then sell the regulatory asset – the right to recover those deferred amounts from specified consumers in the future
    - OPG, as the Financial Services Manager, is authorized to establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations
    - The Financing Entity will purchase the regulatory asset, effectively financing the shortfall in current rates not received from ratepayers
- To purchase the regulatory asset from the IESO, the Financing Entity must borrow a portion of the funds from capital markets (planned to be 51%, with other financing to come from OPG and, indirectly, the Province)
    - OPG's financial advisors have indicated that without adequate protection against legislative, judicial and organizational risk, the debt would not be financeable or would result in higher financing costs, to be passed on to ratepayers
- OPG has requested that the Province provide a protection agreement that supports the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would take over the funding obligations of the Financing Entity

Note: CEAs are “clean energy adjustments”

Provisions Under the Act

- As contemplated under the Act, OPG is requesting a Provincial commitment to support the planned Financing Entity's ability to borrow to finance the deferral of global adjustment amounts in certain limited circumstances
- Under s.5(3) of the OFHP Act,
  - The LGIC may by order,
    - Authorize the Minister (of Energy) and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province,
      - To agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest, and
      - To determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity
    - Specify terms and conditions that must be included in any guarantee or indemnity given by the Minister and the Minister of Finance
    - Specify a maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity

Provincial Protection Agreement

- OFA, the Ministry of Finance and external advisors – consistent with OPG advice – recommend limiting activation of the protection agreement to the following circumstances:
  - Actions of the Legislative Assembly that undermine the financing arrangement, i.e., repeal or amendment of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, or new legislation that adversely affect the Financing Entity
  - A court decision that declares the rights of the Financing Entity to recover amounts from ratepayers to be invalid or unenforceable
  - Changes to the organization, structure or operations of IESO or a change in the electricity market structure or operations that adversely affects the ability of the Financing Entity to recover amounts related to funding obligations.
- In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province will be required to pay the obligations of the Financing Entity including principal and interest payments on debt issued to date, any payments to derivatives counterparties and any outstanding payments to service providers
  - The Province could potentially service the debt and other obligations and could replace OPG as the financial services manager
- The protection agreement may need to be revised at a future date, or approval from the Province may be required, if the financing entity must access US market as investors in that market will likely require additional compensation if the assumption agreement is triggered

Considerations

- If a protection agreement is not provided, the Financing Entity would either be unable to raise sufficient financing from capital markets to purchase the regulatory asset from the IESO or the cost of the financing will be potentially materially greater than it otherwise would be
- If a protection agreement is provided, the Province takes on a contingent liability
  - The creation of a contingent liability will not currently affect net debt
  - The amount of the contingent liability will increase over the duration of the Fair Hydro Plan and peak at an estimated $20B of debt (final cost forecasts TBC), including principal and accumulated interest
- In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt will most likely increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability at that point in time
  - The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it has assumed under the protection agreement
  - IOD expense may increase between $0.8B and $1.0B per annum, assuming the protection agreement is triggered when debt is at its peak, and depending on the interest rate at which the Financing entity will be able to borrow at

The Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Energy request that Treasury Board/Management Board of Cabinet:

a) Approve that the Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy provide a protection agreement, to be authorized by Order in Council under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the debts, obligations, securities and undertakings of one or more OPG Financing Entities substantially reflecting the terms set out in the Provincial Protection and Assurances Indicative Term Sheet and subject to such revisions that the two ministers acting together may determine;

b) Recommend that Cabinet approve an Order in Council, in accordance with section 5 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 that authorizes the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Energy, acting together on behalf of the Province,

   i. to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest; and

   ii. to determine terms and conditions of the guarantee or indemnity and the maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

IV. KEY COMMENTS AND CONSIDERATIONS

Under the Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, (FHPA), which enables Global Adjustments (GA) Refinancing, the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) will have a funding gap resulting from the reduction in amounts collected from consumers.

- IESO will incur a cash shortfall, as the amounts collected from the consumers of electricity (collected by local distribution companies) will be reduced, but the amounts paid to the generators of electricity will remain at the market and/or contractual rates.

The legislation enables IESO to record the under-collection of GA in a variance account, and deems this under-collected amount to be a "Regulatory Asset".

The OFHPA provides for IESO to sell all or a portion of the Regulatory Asset (i.e., to sell the right to recover those deferred amounts from specified consumers in the future). Under the FHPA, a Financing Entity (i.e., an entity established or caused to be established by OPG as the Financial Services Manager under the FHPA) will he the right, but not the obligation to purchase the regulatory asset, effectively financing the shortfall generated by the reduction in amounts collected from eligible ratepayers.

To purchase the regulatory asset from IESO, the Financing Entity will borrow a portion of the funds (planned to be 51%, with other financing to come from OPG and, indirectly the Province) from the capital markets.

OPG's financial advisors have indicated that without adequate protection against legislative and judicial risk, the debt would not be financeable. OPG, therefore, has advised that the Government of Ontario provide a protection agreement to the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would pay the funding obligations of the Financing Entity.

- Providing this through Provincial assurance and guarantee provisions was recommended in a May 2017 TB/MBC item reviewing proposed FHPA.

What would trigger the protection agreement?

Ontario Financing Authority (OFA), the Ministry of Finance and external advisors recommend limiting activation of the protection agreement to the following circumstances (Appendix C provides the non-binding term sheet):

- Actions of the Legislative Assembly that undermine the financing arrangement, i.e., repeal or amendment of the FHPA/related regulations or new legislation that materially and adversely affects the ability of an OPG Financing Entity to receive amounts relating to its investments interest so that it can pay its funding obligations
- A court decision that declares the ability of an OPG Financing Entity to receive amounts on its investment interest so it can pay its funding obligations to be invalid; and
- A change in the organization or structure of the IESO or Ontario's electricity market undertaken at the initiative of the Province or an entity controlled by the Province that materially and adversely affects the ability of an OPG Financing Entity to receive amounts relating to its investment interest so that it can pay its funding obligations.

Financial:

If the protection agreement is provided, the Province takes on a contingent liability. The amount of the contingent liability would increase over the duration of Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan (OFHP) and peak at approximately $20B of debt (final cost forecasts TBC), including principal and accumulated interest.

- In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt would be expected to increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability for the debt outstanding at that point in time.

- The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it will be required to make under the protection agreement. In addition there may be additional payments related to derivatives agreements and for service providers that the Province will be required to make. The fiscal impact of the increased interest payments will depend on the circumstances of the change (e.g. will the amounts continue to be recovered from the ratepayers through the clean energy adjustment as provided for under the FHPA).

Financial (Risk) – In the event the protection agreement is triggered:

The Province would be required to pay principal and interest on debt issued by the Financing Entity and other obligations of the Financing Entity as they come due (without acceleration). The Province may also be required to pay other obligations which may include payments under derivatives agreements (e.g. the Financing Entity might enter into interest rate swap agreements to hedge the interest rate payable on its issued debt) and to service providers.

- The Minister of Finance and Minister of Energy will negotiate terms and conditions as part of the proposed protection agreement that would provide a process for determining which future obligations, securities/derivatives would have the benefit of the protection agreement. The process and framework is currently under development but may include approving standard terms and conditions of debt issuances in advance, setting a maximum amount of debt that may be issued within a period.

This would likely have implications for the Province's fiscal plan and appropriation requirements.

- The Province's net debt would be expected to increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability for the debt outstanding at that point in time, and the Province may incur an expense equal to the amount of the debt.
- The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it will be required to make under the protection agreement. The worst case scenario would be the Province assuming the debt at its peak at which point interest on debt (IOD) expense could increase between $0.8B and $1.3B per annum (final cost forecasts TBC), depending on the interest rate at which the Financing Entity will be able to borrow at.
- In addition there may be additional payments on derivatives agreements and for service providers that the Province will be required to make.

The protection agreement would continue until all guaranteed obligations of the Financing Entity are fully discharged. In addition, the Province would have the option to directly replace the OPG Financing Entity with respect to its outstanding rights obligations and liabilities, but if the Province decided to do so additional authority would be required and may require a change in legislation.

The Ministries indicate that if the protection agreement is triggered, and the Province becomes responsible for the obligation to service and pay down the debt, that the magnitude of the fiscal impact (IOD expense) will depend on whether or not some portions of the OFHPA continue in some form, or not.

- For example, if the payment streams from ratepayers via the collection of the Clean Energy Adjustment (CEA) continue, this would offset the debt and interest payments, albeit not necessarily in the same fiscal period; however, if the CEA is ended (e.g., if the OFHPA is repealed or is determined by a court not to be constitutional) and not replaced by another authorized charge, the incremental IOD expense as well as any continued impact of reduced electricity rates would impact the Government's fiscal plan and likely takes away fiscal resources that can be otherwise used.

- Debt incurred to benefit the ratepayer could become the responsibility of the taxpayer.

TBS staff note the protection agreement, assuming the Board proceeds with the request, would be approved prior to the commercial agreements being finalized. Also from an accounting perspective, previously provided opinions/memos from KPMG re: IESO and EY re: OPG have yet to be updated.

Implementation
The Minister of Finance will be asked to approve for the purpose of FAA s. 28 the two Ministers seeking the OIC in the form attached to the final TB/MBC Submission.

The Minister of Finance will also be requested to approve under FAA s. 28 the final form of protection agreement to be entered into by the Minister of Energy and the Ministry of Finance as authorized by the OIC.

MOF Legal indicates the intention is that the protection agreement signed by the two Ministers would apply to all subsequent agreements entered into by the Financing Entity subject to compliance with the terms and conditions set out in the protection agreement. A section 28 approval of the protection agreement should cover these subsequent agreements. This may change as the protection agreement and the terms and conditions of the process have not been determined by the Ministers.

This Term Sheet is to be held confidential. Unless otherwise specified, defined terms used herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Act. The provincial protection and assurance arrangements contemplated in this Term Sheet will include such terms and conditions as the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance determine to be appropriate. This Term Sheet is not intended to create any obligations or be binding.*

Change of Law Protection Agreement:	A Change of Law Protection Agreement will be among the Obligor, a Financing Entity and an Indenture Trustee, acting for and on behalf of the Beneficiaries in accordance with a Trust Indenture.
Obligor:	The Province of Ontario, by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance acting together.
Indenture Trustee:	An indenture trustee, acting for itself and on behalf of other persons entitled under an applicable Trust Indenture.

APPENDIX F: RISK UPDATE

The current submission, Provincial Protection Agreement, is reflected under the risk "Refinancing GA costs through an OPG SPV Trust may increase costs and/or require provincial funding" as part of risk mitigating strategy.

Risk	Level of Risk	Risk Response
Refinancing GA costs through an OPG SPV Trust may increase costs and/or require provincial funding.	Risk Likelihood: Possible Risk Impact: Major Time Scale: 12 to 24 months Rationale • The proposed borrowing structure will be reviewed by credit agencies to allow OPG to borrow in the open market. Depending on assessment, there may be an impact on the interest rate for borrowing, the amount of equity / funding the province may need to provide and the requirement for a provincial guarantee. • As the OPG SPV/Trust will be borrowing in its own corporate capacity from the public markets, it will likely incur a higher interest cost compared to the Province's borrowing. • There is a risk that credit rating agencies may perceive OPG SPV/Trust's borrowing as debt supported by Province, impacting Province's own ratings and cost of borrowing. • If the Trust can't raise the full funding requirements, additional cash injections would be required. If the borrowing cap of $28B (in the March 1, 2017 Cabinet Submission) is reached sooner than forecast, the province may have to provide incremental funding to float the program to 2047. • Beyond 2022, when steep increases are required, there will likely be additional pressure on the province to offset a part of the scheduled increases. • Fiscal impacts will be subject to fluctuations in Ontario electricity demand, GA and interests rates in the medium-to long term. As well as if a protection agreement is called upon: o OPG, has advised that the Government of Ontario provide a change of law protection agreement to the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would pay the funding obligations of the Financing Entity.	Risk can be mitigated by: • Providing a "provincial guarantee" for the cost of borrowing. • Drafting legislation to provide assurance to OPG and investors regarding the permanence of the GA refinancing framework and the authority of the legislation to pass the legislation; and enable the Province to guarantee borrowing of the trust in the event of a market disruption. • Specifics of a guarantee are dependent on the negotiation of agreements not yet initiated. Limiting triggers of a protection agreement to legislative (regulatory) changes and/or judicial decisions etc. • Equity injections from the province to support OPG as the owner and manager of GA refinancing and allow OPG to strengthen the capital structure of the Trust in order to secure financing at a reasonable cost.

Hi Ron, I just got off the phone with James.

Looks like James will start off with his presentation. The Minister of Energy may want to add remarks when James is done, but more likely the Minister may just open it up to questions. The Minister, his CoS and Steen will be seated at the table, with Steen expected to answer any high level policy questions. OFA will be seated behind them, against the wall, to answer any more technical questions.

Let me know if there are any other questions.

Hi Anna,

On a process question, on the slide deck, I don't think that CEFD had had any input on those slides since a very early version that GBED had circulated In August when they were doing a deck to brief the Minister of Energy. Would you know what the process was for updating the deck subsequently? And would you be able to share the final electronic version in ppt (I have the pdf that was appended to the end of the pdf of the submission you circulated last week).

Thanks,

Provincial Protection and Assurances Agreement
Treasury Board/Management Board of Cabinet (TB/MBC) Submission

ISSUE

To seek Minister's approval of a joint Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Energy TB/MBC submission to provide protection and assurance arrangements in respect of debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with investment interests acquired by one or more financing entities established by Ontario Power Generation (OPG) Inc. pursuant to s. 22 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, ("OPG Financing Entities"), that, under certain circumstances as set out in the proposed arrangements the Province would pay when due amounts in respect of the obligations of the Financing Entity.

This item is tracking for TB/MBC on September 25, 2017, with expedited Cabinet ratification requested for September 27, 2017.

KEY POINTS

- On March 2, 2017, the government announced its proposed Ontario's Fair Hydro Plan (OFHP), to lower electricity bills by 25%, on average, for a typical residential consumer, starting in the summer of 2017 and holding increases to the rate of inflation for four years.

- In order to deliver on the hydro rate reduction under the OFHP, the Ministry of Finance (MOF) and Ministry of Energy (MOE) are coming forward with a proposed Provincial Protection Agreement ("protection agreement") that supports the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would take over the funding obligations of the Financing Entity.

- OPG financial advisors have indicated that without provincial protection against legislative, judicial and organizational risks, the debt would not be financeable or would result in higher financing costs, to be passed on to ratepayers.

- The protection agreement would last until all obligations of the Financing Entity that are "guaranteed" under the protection agreement are paid, estimated at 30 years.

- Activation of the protection agreement would be limited to certain triggering events, such as a change in legislation, court decision, organizational change to the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) or change in the electricity market that would impede the ability of the Financing Entity to receive payments on its investment interest.

- The protection agreement creates a contingent liability for the Province that would be presented in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in the Public Accounts of the Province.

- This request is not expected to have a fiscal impact and there is no offset required.
- The Term Sheet, which sets out the parameters of the protection agreement, has been developed in consultation with OPG, OPCD, OFA, MOF Legal and external legal counsel. Details of the Term Sheet can be found in Appendix B.
- Provincial Law would govern the agreement, and investors from the Canadian market place would participate in the debt offering.
- The Minister of Finance's approval under s. 28 of the Financial Administration Act is required before MOF and MOE seek an OIC for a protection agreement, to enter into a guarantee or indemnity that would increase the contingent liabilities of the Province. A request is included with this submission for the Minister of Finance's approval under s. 28 of the Financial Administration Act.
- At the time of the OFHP announcement in March 2017, the MOE provided a forecast of the immediate reduction of about $2.5 billion per year on average over the first 10 years. MOE will report back to TB/MBC in fall 2017-18 with an update on out-year projections following analysis on rate applications before the Ontario Energy Board.
- MOE, OFA, and MOF Legal have reviewed and provided sign-off on the submission.
- The protection agreement may need to be revised at a future date, or approval from the Province may be required, if the OPG Financing Entity accesses the U.S. market. It is likely that investors would require additional compensation if the support agreement is triggered.
- Communications under the government's FHPA would continue to be led by MOE.
- This submission is moving forward on a priority basis to the September 25, 2017 TB/MBC meeting to ensure that OPG is able to complete their initial financing for the Trust by calendar year-end.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS

This request is not expected to have a fiscal impact. No offset is required.

In the event the protection agreement is triggered;

- the contingent liability would become a liability for the Province.
- the Province's net debt will most likely increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability for debt outstanding at that point in time, which could peak at an estimated $20 billion, dependent on a variety of factors.

- the Province would be required to pay principal and interest on debt issued by the Financing Entity and other obligations of the Financing Entity as they come due. The Province may also be required to pay other obligations which may include payments under derivatives agreements and to service providers.

- the Province's IOD expense while difficult to estimate, under the worst case scenario would be the Province assuming the debt at its peak. If so, the IOD expense may increase between $0.8 and $1.0 billion per year depending on the interest rate at which the financing entity will be able to borrow at. Interest on Debt (IOD) would be reported by Treasury Program (OFA) and consolidated under MOF in Volume 1 of the Public Accounts.

- Debt incurred to the benefit of the ratepayer becomes the responsibility of the taxpayer.

KEY RISKS

Should the protection agreement not be approved, the Financing Entity would either be unable to raise sufficient financing from capital markets to purchase the regulatory asset from the Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) or the cost of financing will be potentially materially greater than it otherwise would be.

If the protection agreement is provided, the Province takes on a contingent liability. The amount of liability would increase over the duration of the OFHP and could peak at an estimated $20 billion of debt, dependent on a variety of factors including principal and accumulated interest.

Should the protection agreement be triggered, and the Province becomes responsible for the obligation to service and pay down the debt. The magnitude of the fiscal impact (IOD expense) will depend on whether or not some portions of the OFHPA continue in some form or not, and the incremental IOD expense would impact the government's fiscal plan.

Communications would be managed through MOE with a low profile approach that includes on a need to know basis, and support as needed.

BACKGROUND

As part of the OFHP, it was announced that a portion of the Global Adjustment (GA) would be refinanced in order to fairly allocate costs across present and future generations of electricity consumers with respect to investments made to decarbonize and modernize Ontario's electricity system. This would be achieved by spreading the cost of electricity investments so that they are shared proportionately by future consumers who cause a need for, or benefit from, the province's multi-billion dollar investments in electricity infrastructure. To this end, immediate rate relief to eligible ratepayers is provided by deferring and spreading the cost recovery of electricity investments over a longer period of time.

Under the OFHPA, which enables the GA Refinancing, the IESO will have a funding gap resulting from the reduction in amounts collected over four years. The legislation enables IESO to record the under-collection of GA in a variance account and deems this under-collected amount to be a “Regulatory Asset”. The OFHPA provides for the IESO to sell all or a portion of the regulatory asset. Under OFHPA a Financing Entity (an entity established or caused to be established by OPG as the Financial Services Manager under the OFHPA) will purchase the regulatory asset, effectively financing the shortfall in current rates not received from ratepayers.

To purchase the regulatory asset from IESO, the Financing Entity must borrow a portion of the funds (planned to be 51%, with other financing to come from OPG and indirectly, the Province) from capital markets. OPG has advised that without adequate protection against legislative and judicial risk, the debt would not be financeable.

As a result, OPG through the Ontario Financing Authority is requesting that the Government of Ontario provide a protection agreement to the Financing Entity and prospective debt holders such that, under certain circumstances, the Province would pay the funding obligations of the Financing Entity.

Hi Ron, thank you for raising that. The deck was merely meant as a compliment to the TB submission, and was used primarily by the Energy MO for their pre-briefs with TB/MBC members. It was updated by me to reflect changes and edits to the submission. I did not circulate it for input, but rather used everyone's edits to the submission to inform my edits to the deck.

Of course, it may have been better to circulate the two products in tandem. I'm happy to consider that approach going forward.

Version 11 (attached) was the final version.

Hi Anna,

On a process question, on the slide deck, I don't think that CEFD had had any input on those slides since a very early version that GBED had circulated In August when they were doing a deck to brief the Minister of Energy. Would you know what the process was for updating the deck subsequently? And would you be able to share the final electronic version in ppt (I have the pdf that was appended to the end of the pdf of the submission you circulated last week).

Thanks,

All,

Attached for your review is a revised draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, clean and blacklined to the last version circulated by Blakes and reflecting the meetings held earlier today. As discussed, we need to provide the attached to the rating agencies by no later than noon tomorrow in order to meet our end of year financing deadline. Accordingly, we will be circulating a calendar invite to this group for 10 a.m. tomorrow morning to confirm the parties are signed off. If Osler or Blakes have any comments on the attached, we would ask that they be circulated to this group prior to the 10 a.m. call.

Kind regards,
Brett

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro - Change of Law Protection Agreement

Hi,

Attached is a revised version of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. I believe that most of the changes reflected from last night's Osler version (blackline is attached) are of a drafting or conforming nature, other than: (1) the Province disagrees that Approved Refinancing terms should be unfettered by adherence conditions post-Suspension Event and (2) the proposed rating-based "materially and adversely" qualification in the definition of Protection Event (and in fact any such qualification) is not acceptable to the Province. With regard to (1), this version comes into line with the proposed approach (i.e., using a modified adherence condition) that was incorporated into the version of the Change of Law Process Agreement I circulated yesterday. A further turn of that Agreement, to conform the open item identified in section 3.02 to the revised Change of Law Protection Agreement, is also included here for your reference.

Please note that the Province is working through the drafting concurrently and so further drafting comments may be provided.

As mentioned yesterday, the Province would like to proceed with the Ministers sign-off briefing early next week, on the basis that these versions (minus the explanatory notes) are now in substantially final form. Please identify if you believe there are other 'must have' points (other than the 2 mentioned above).

Regards, Steve

All,

Attached for your review is a revised draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, clean and blacklined to the last version circulated by Blakes and reflecting the meetings held earlier today. As discussed, we need to provide the attached to the rating agencies by no later than noon tomorrow in order to meet our end of year financing deadline. Accordingly, we will be circulating a calendar invite to this group for 10 a.m. tomorrow morning to confirm the parties are signed off. If Osler or Blakes have any comments on the attached, we would ask that they be circulated to this group prior to the 10 a.m. call.

Kind regards,

Brett

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro - Change of Law Protection Agreement

Hi,

Attached is a revised version of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. I believe that most of the changes reflected from last night's Osler version (blackline is attached) are of a drafting or conforming nature, other than: (1) the Province disagrees that Approved Refinancing terms should be unfettered by adherence conditions post-Suspension Event and (2) the proposed rating-based "materially and adversely" qualification in the definition of Protection Event (and in fact any such qualification) is not acceptable to the Province. With regard to (1), this version comes into line with the proposed approach (i.e., using a modified adherence condition) that was incorporated into the version of the Change of Law Process Agreement I circulated yesterday. A further turn of that Agreement, to conform the open item identified in section 3.02 to the revised Change of Law Protection Agreement, is also included here for your reference.

Please note that the Province is working through the drafting concurrently and so further drafting comments may be provided.

As mentioned yesterday, the Province would like to proceed with the Ministers sign-off briefing early next week, on the basis that these versions (minus the explanatory notes) are now in substantially final form. Please identify if you believe there are other 'must have' points (other than the 2 mentioned above).

Regards, Steve

Hi all,

We have now received a revised version of the Protection Agreement. Should we schedule a call for about 1pm to go through this draft? I don't think that I will be available before 1pm. Perhaps Anna can arrange the call?

Thanks

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

Hi,

Please find (attached) a further turn of the Change of Law Process Agreement, reflecting the Province's comments on the mark-up of the Agreement circulated yesterday afternoon by Torys. The attached blackline shows changes made to yesterday's Torys mark-up.

This version addresses concerns Rocco raised last night, to the extent the Province feels that the issues can be accommodated. For your information, I have set out below responses to Rocco's comments/observations (in CAPs).

The Province would like to proceed with the Ministers briefing early next week, on the basis that this version (minus the explanatory notes) is now in final form. If there are any critical revisions that the other parties believe reflect 'must have' priority, then the Province would like to have a call to discuss them as soon as possible.

Responses to Rocco's Points:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration. [AGREED. 7.01(b) and 7.01(c) will need to mirror the cure language we settle on in the Process Agreement (see my earlier comments). Perhaps the "which continues ..." language in 7.01(B) can be revised to read: "to the extent that the Province would be entitled to provide a Suspension Notice in accordance with the terms of the agreement or agreements between the Province and OPG under which such obligations, requirements and processes arise". SIMILAR CHANGE FOR 7.01(C).

2. The right of the Province to issue an objection notice under Section 3.04(b) in connection with a Transaction Document provided to the Province which is required for a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation remains an outstanding issue. Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings. [THAT IS THE INTENDED EFFECT. THE ADHERENCE CONDITIONS WOULD APPLY TO THE REFINANCING, SO IF THE REFINANCING TERMS DEVIATED MATERIALLY (BASED ON THE SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM' THRESHOLD'), THEN OPG WOULD REQUIRE THE PROVINCE NOT TO OBJECT IN ORDER TO PROCEED WITH THOSE NEW TERMS. OTHERWISE, THE REFINANCING COULD INCORPORATE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, WHICH WOULD BIND THE PROVINCE UNDER THE LIMITED GUARANTEE, THAT WOULD BE UNCONSTRAINED AND WITHOUT ANY ACCOUNTABILITY TO THE PROVINCE. IN ROCCO'S EXAMPLE, THAT MIGHT MEAN THAT OPG WOULD NEED TO RESORT TO UNRATED DEBT, IF THE PROVINCE WAS UNWILLING TO ACCEPT THE NEW TERMS. PRESUMABLY EVERYONE WOULD ACT RATIONALLY. HOWEVER, AS A FAILSAFE, OPG COULD OFFER INCREASED PRICING IN ORDER TO ATTRACT INVESTORS TO ACCEPT THE EARLIER VETTED TERMS (BASED ON THE THEN ACCEPTED REVIEWED DOCUMENTATION).]

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. There are a couple of ways to deal with this point. The first is to a add a beneficiary/third party rights clause in the Change of Law Process Agreement which acknowledges that the Indenture Trustee is a beneficiary of certain provisions of this agreement and as a result, the agreement cannot be amended without the consent of the Indenture Trustee. The second is to ensure that the Adherence Conditions relating to Refinancings under the Change of Law Protection Agreement are not dependent upon the terms of the Change of Law Process Agreement. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable. [THE SUGGESTION REGARDING THE PROVINCE PREVENTING A REFINANCING IS ADDRESSED IN #2. IF THE REFINANCING TERMS WOULD EXCEED THE SCOPE OF THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS REVIEWED AND NOT OBJECTED TO BY THE PROVINCE, THEN THAT SUGGESTS THERE IS A MATERIAL EFFECT ON THE PROVINCE AND SO THE PROVINCE WOULD NEED THE ABILITY TO REVIEW AND CONSIDER THE PROPRIETY OF THOSE NEW TERMS FROM ITS PERSPECTIVE. AS FOR THE STANDALONE NATURE OF THE PROCESS AGREEMENT, THE INTENTION IS THAT THE PROCESS AGREEMENT BE UNCOUPLED AND NOT PART OF THE COLLATERAL, AND AS MICHAEL FELDMAN HAS EXPLAINED, LEAVE FUTURE FLEXIBILITY FOR THIS LONG-TERM STRUCTURE. TO ADDRESS ROCCO'S CONCERN THAT THE PROVINCE AND OPG COULD CHANGE THE UNDERLYING OBLIGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ADHERENCE IN RELATION TO A NEW OBLIGATION, REQUIREMENT OR PROCESS IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT THAT WOULD MAKE A REFINANCING LESS LIKELY TO OCCUR, WE HAVE ADDED AND USED IN THE ATTACHED VERSION A NEW DEFFINTION:

"Approved Refinancing" means a Certified Primary Obligation proposed to be incurred as a Refinancing of an existing Certified Primary Obligation in respect of which the Adherence Conditions had been satisfied on the date such existing Certified Primary Obligation was incurred, that, at the time of incurrence, satisfies each of each of the Adherence Conditions except that the certificate contemplated to be delivered under Section 4.02(b) shall instead confirm that OPG has delivered to the Province a certificate by its applicable officers confirming that OPG would be in compliance with all obligations to the Province and internal requirements and processes in connection with the adherence of the Limited Guarantee to the proposed Certified Primary Obligation that applied as between the Province and OPG on the date of issuance of such existing Certified Primary Obligation." Various references to "Refinancing" in the Protection Agreement can also be revised to refer to "Approved Refinancing", as required.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

I have reviewed the revised draft of the Change of Law Process Agreement that Torys has prepared and would like to pass along the following comments/observations:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration.

Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings.

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable.

Blakes team,

Please find attached OPG and Torys' comments on the Process Agreement reflecting our discussions from yesterday's call. Please note that this draft is subject to continuing review and comment by Osler and the dealers. As discussed at the tail end of our call yesterday, the section in the Process Agreement that gives the Province the right to object to new and material changes to transaction documents dovetails with the Protection Agreement so additional comments from Oslers may be forthcoming on this draft.

We are working on getting you a revised draft of the Protection Agreement either later today or tomorrow. In the meantime, please let us know if you have any comments or questions on the Process Agreement.

Best Regards,
Nina

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council 1981/2017 (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of ■, 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The Financing Entity Trustee, in its capacity as trustee of the Financing Entity, and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Primary Obligations that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

ii. On each such Guarantee Payment Date, the Province shall deposit the Aggregate Approved Obligations Amount into the Protection Account.

On each such Guarantee Payment Date, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee shall ensure that the amounts on deposit in the Protection Account are applied to pay each Beneficiary to whom an amount is due and payable under an Approved Obligation on the Guarantee Payment Date the Approved Obligation Amount for such Beneficiary in respect of such Approved Obligation on such Guarantee Payment Date; provided that if the amount deposited pursuant to clause 2.01(a)ii is insufficient to pay all such Approved Obligation Amounts in full, the amount on deposit in the Protection Account on the Guarantee Payment Date shall be applied to pay Beneficiaries in the order of priority in which such Approved Obligations are payable under the payment provisions of the Trust Indenture applicable to the making of such payments on the Guarantee Payment Date (each, a "Beneficiary Payee" and each payment made to a Beneficiary Payee on a Guarantee Payment Date, a "Guarantee Payment").

iv. On any Guarantee Payment Date on which an amount is paid by the Province pursuant to clause 2.01(a)ii, the applicable payment provisions of the Trust Indenture shall, notwithstanding any express terms of such provisions set forth in the Trust Indenture to the contrary, be applied and operate on the following basis:

(C) no Beneficiary having a right to be paid an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation, and no other Person entitled under an Obligation Secured, in each case that ranks equal with or subordinate to an Approved Obligation in respect of which a Subrogation Amount is payable to the Province under subclause 2.01(a)iv(B), shall be entitled to make any claim or assert any right in or to the amounts paid or payable to the Province under such subclause (including any right of set-off, offset, reimbursement, contribution or indemnity) and no such Beneficiary or other Person shall have any right or interest in, to or under the Collateral or any proceeds therefrom in respect of any such Subrogation Amount.

v. vi. On any Guarantee Payment Date and on the Determination Date, the Indenture Trustee shall release and pay to the Province free and clear of any Liens any amount remaining on deposit in the Protection Account that has not been applied to pay Guarantee Payments to Beneficiary Payees on the Guarantee Payment Date in accordance with clause 2.01(a)iii or that otherwise remains on deposit in the Protection Account on the Determination Date.

vii. In preparing any payment instructions under the Trust Indenture, the Manager shall reflect the amounts payable under Section 2.01(a).

(b) The Province shall, as a payee of Subrogation Amounts under clause 2.01(a)iv(B), as a payee of each Final Subrogation Amount under clause 2.01(a)v and as a payee of any amounts payable under clause 2.01(a)vi, be a "Specified Creditor" under the Trust Indenture and have the benefit of the Collateral thereunder.

(c) For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation and will be limited to the right to receive the Approved Obligation Amounts, if any, for payment to Beneficiary Payees and will be subject to the priorities and to the Province's rights to Subrogation Entitlements, set forth in Section 2.01(a).

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(e) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid by the Province when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation by their terms.

(f) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee (and to the Beneficiaries, to the extent they are permitted to exercise any rights, interests, or elections under and in accordance with the Trust Indenture) under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits; provided that, for greater certainty, economic loss shall not include any amount in respect of any amount due and payable to a Beneficiary Payee under the Limited Guarantee.

2.02 Intentionally Deleted.

2.03 Absence of Set-off

Subject to applicable law, the Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Protection Account in Satisfaction

(a) On or before the date of delivery of a Payment Demand to the Province, the Indenture Trustee shall cause to be established and maintained an Eligible Deposit

Account (the "Protection Account") in the name of the Indenture Trustee, bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds and other property credited thereto are held for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Beneficiaries. The Protection Account shall be under the control of the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. If, at any time, the institution holding the Protection Account ceases to be an Eligible Institution, the FSM shall notify the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee upon being notified in writing of such ineligibility (or the FSM on its behalf) shall within 30 days (or such longer period, not to exceed 45 days, so long as the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied) establish a new Protection Account that is an Eligible Deposit Account and shall transfer any funds or other property from such Protection Account to such new Protection Account. From the date each such new Protection Account is established, it shall be the "Protection Account" for purposes of this Agreement. Funds credited to the Protection Account will be invested and held in accordance with Section [7.03] of the Trust Indenture on the basis that it is an Issuer Account.

(b) Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee shall ensure that all amounts paid by the Province into the Protection Account on a Guarantee Payment Date in respect of an Approved Obligation are applied to pay the amounts due and payable to the Beneficiaries as and to the extent provided for in Section 2.01(a). Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Protection Account, the amounts so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries as provided for in Section 2.01(a) and thereby reduce the amount due and payable to such Beneficiaries in respect of the applicable Approved Obligations, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid. For greater certainty, the obligations arising in respect of an applicable Approved Obligation shall not be reduced by such payment as the Province shall become entitled to be paid related Subrogation Entitlements and the rights contemplated under Section 2.01(a) and Section 5.01 in relation to such continuing obligations.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations in accordance with Section 8.01.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if (i) the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied at the time the Primary Obligation was incurred, or (ii) the Province, in its sole discretion, designates in writing that it is an Approved Obligation.

4.02 Adherence Conditions

(a) The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to each Certified Primary Obligation:

i. the Certified Primary Obligation when incurred is an Obligation Secured under the Trust Indenture; and

ii. OPG, as FSM, delivers an Adherence Compliance Certificate in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B-1 signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG, or any two Executive Officers of OPG (for clarity, such certificate is to be provided by such officers in their capacity as officers of OPG acting in its capacity as FSM) and addressed to the Indenture Trustee, on or before the incurrence of a Certified Primary Obligation (provided that delivery may not be more than 5 Business Days before the incurrence of the Certified Primary Obligation);[3] and

iii. the Province has not provided a Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, OPG and the Financing Entity.

(b) The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to each Approved Refinancing:

(c) For greater certainty, satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions for a Certified Primary Obligation or an Approved Refinancing shall be deemed satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions in respect of all principal, interest and other amounts owing under the Certified Primary Obligation or the Approved Refinancing, as applicable.

(d) Without limiting any obligations of OPG to the Province arising other than pursuant to this Agreement, a Certified Primary Obligation may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time.

(e) An Approved Refinancing may not be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified without the consent of the Province.

(f) For greater certainty, there shall be no Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to a Primary Obligation that is not a Certified Primary Obligation or an Approved Refinancing.

An Adherence Compliance Certificate that purports on its face to be signed by officers specified in clause 4.02(a)ii or clause 4.02(b)ii, as applicable, may be relied upon by any addressee without further enquiry or evidence as to the incumbency or signatures of such officers. If an Adherence Compliance Certificate is not delivered in accordance with the timing requirements of clause 4.02(a)ii or clause 4.02(b)ii, as applicable, such certificate may be delivered at a later date, and be effective as if it had been delivered in accordance with the timing requirement of clause 4.02(a)ii or clause 4.02(b)ii, as applicable, if at the time such certificate was required to be delivered OPG had delivered to the Province all certifications required by the Province in connection with the adherence of the Limited Guarantee to the Certified Primary Obligation or the Approved Refinancing.

ARTICLE V
PROVINCE MATTERS

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

(a) Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (i) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive the related Subrogation Entitlements, (ii) the benefits of the related Collateral and (iii) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)), under and in respect of such Approved Obligation to the extent of the payment by the Province in respect of the Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

(b) The Province (i) acknowledges and agrees in favour of the Indenture Trustee that, upon being subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation in accordance with Section 5.01(a), the Province, in its capacity as a Specified Creditor, will be subject to the provisions applicable to Specified Creditors under the Trust Indenture, including Sections [7.04] through [7.11] and [8.13] (Payment Priorities), Section [7.12] (Payments Held in Trust), Section [8.11] (Control by Controlling Class Creditors), Section [8.12] (Limitation on Suits), Section [8.14] (Limited Recourse), Article IX (The Indenture Trustee), including all limitations of liability thereunder, Section [9.14] (Communications to Specified Creditors) and Section [16.01] (No Petition); (ii) consents, requests and authorizes the Issuer and the Indenture Trustee to (x) add the Province to the register of Specified Creditors described in subsection [13.13(b)] of the Trust Indenture and (y) disseminate the notice details of the Province to other Specified Creditors for the purposes set out in subsection [9.14(b)] of the Trust Indenture, and (iii) confirms that it will execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all such further agreements, documents and instruments in connection with this Section 5.01 as the Indenture Trustee may request from time to time for the purpose of giving effect to the terms of this Section 5.01.

5.02 Priorities

For greater certainty, the rights, interests and entitlements of the Province as an assignee and subrogee of and with respect to an Approved Obligation shall rank equally with the rights, interests and entitlements of a Beneficiary to whom a Limited Guarantee payment is made in respect of, and to the extent of the payment made to satisfy, the Approved Obligation and the Province shall not be subject to postponement or subordination with respect thereto except to the extent of the priorities established in relation to the Approved Obligation under the Trust Indenture in the manner and to the extent contemplated in Section [7.10] of the Trust Indenture.

5.03 Intentionally Deleted

5.04 Representations and Warranties

The Province hereby represents and warrants that:

(a) the execution and delivery of, and the performance of its obligations under, this Agreement by the Province have been authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Province;

(b) the execution and delivery of, and the performance of its obligations under, this Agreement by the Province do not result in the violation of any applicable law; and

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Province.

ARTICLE VI
INDENTURE TRUSTEE MATTERS

6.01 Limited Recourse

No recourse may be taken, directly or indirectly, with respect to the obligations of the Financing Entity under this Agreement, or any certificate or other writing delivered in connection herewith or therewith, against (a) the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, (b) any owner of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or (c) any partner, owner, beneficiary, agent, officer, director, employee or agent of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, any holder of a beneficial interest in the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee or of any successor or assign of the Financing Entity Trustee in its individual capacity, except as any such Person may have expressly agreed (it being understood that the Financing Entity Trustee has no such obligations in its individual capacity).

6.02 Not Responsible for Recitals

The recitals contained herein will be taken as the statements of the Province, the Financing Entity and the FSM, and the Indenture Trustee assumes no responsibility for their correctness. The Indenture Trustee makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement.

6.03 Representations and Covenants of the Indenture Trustee[5]

The Indenture Trustee represents, warrants and covenants that:

(a) the Indenture Trustee is a trust company organized, existing and in good standing under the laws of Canada;

(b) the Indenture Trustee has full power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Agreement;

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Indenture Trustee and constitutes its legal, valid and binding obligation in accordance with its terms; and

(d) the Indenture Trustee is authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each of the provinces and territories of Canada. If, notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection 6.03(d), the Indenture Trustee ceases to be so authorized to carry on business, the validity and enforceability of this Agreement shall not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only of such event.

[5] Explanatory Note: Indenture Trustee representations have been conformed to the MTI and are subject to review and sign off by the Indenture Trustee.

ARTICLE VII
SUSPENSION OF ADHERENCE FOR NEW PRIMARY OBLIGATIONS

7.01 Suspension Notice

Upon:

(a) a Program Breach;

(b) a default in the performance, or breach, of any covenants of OPG, as FSM, or OPG, in its corporate capacity, in each case to the Province in connection with its obligations to the Province pursuant to internal requirements and processes in connection with the provision or adherence of the Limited Guarantee to or in respect of any Certified Primary Obligation and the expiration of any applicable cure period;

(c) a representation or warranty made by OPG or a certification made by one or more officers of OPG, in each case whether as FSM or in its corporate capacity, to the Province in connection with its obligations to the Province and its internal requirements and processes in connection with the provision or adherence of the Limited Guarantee to or in respect of any Certified Primary Obligations, proves to be incorrect in any material respect on the date made and the expiration of any applicable cure period; or

(d) the FSM no longer being the Manager or actions having been taken by or on behalf of the Indenture Trustee to remove the FSM as the Manager, the Province may declare that the Limited Guarantee under this Agreement shall not apply to any Primary Obligations incurred on or after such declaration, other than any Approved Refinancing, by delivering a written notice in the form of Exhibit C (a "Suspension Notice") to the Indenture Trustee, the FSM and the Financing Entity.[6]

7.02 Suspension

If a Suspension Notice has been provided under Section 7.01 (the provision of such notice being a "Suspension Event"), the Limited Guarantee shall not apply in respect of: (i) any Primary Obligation incurred or amended on or after the time such Suspension Notice is delivered, other than any Approved Refinancing.

[6] The paragraph that was deleted from Section 7.01 was modified slightly and moved to the form of the Adherence Compliance Certificate set out in Exhibit B-2 as the Adherence Condition for the Refinancing so that it is clear what conditions have to be satisfied for a Refinancing to be an Approved Obligation. As discussed in our meeting with the principals and in response to the DBRS comments, debt issued on a refinancing of protected debt should continue to be protected debt.

7.03 No Impact on Adherence

For greater certainty, the occurrence of a Suspension Event or a failure by the FSM or the Financing Entity to perform its covenants under this Agreement will not invalidate or extinguish the obligations of the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of Approved Obligations in existence prior to the occurrence of the Suspension Event or in respect of any Approved Refinancing.

ARTICLE VIII

[9] Explanatory Note: The General Regulation provides that debt can be considered a "Refinancing" when incurred within the 6 months prior to the maturity date of a funding obligation. The Act/Regulation's definition doesn't require that "Refinancings" be simultaneous with the repayment of existing Approved Obligations. We have added a certificate mechanic in 7.01 by which there can be certainty when an obligation is incurred that if the obligation is intended to be a refinancing, it will be covered by the guarantee.

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council 1981/2017 (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of ■, 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The Financing Entity Trustee, in its capacity as trustee of the Financing Entity, and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Primary Obligations that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

(b) The Province shall, as a payee of Subrogation Amounts under clause 2.01(a)iv(B), as a payee of each Final Subrogation Amount under clause 2.01(a)~~(iv)(D)~~v and as a payee of any amounts payable under clause 2.01(a)vi, be a "Specified Creditor" under the Trust Indenture and have the benefit of the Collateral thereunder.

(c) For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation and will be limited to the right to receive the Approved Obligation Amounts, if any, for payment to Beneficiary Payees and will be subject to the priorities and to the Province's rights to Subrogation Entitlements, set forth in Section 2.01(a).

Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits; provided that, for greater certainty, economic loss shall not include any amount in respect of any amount due and payable to a Beneficiary Payee under the Limited Guarantee.

2.02 Intentionally Deleted.

2.03 Absence of Set-off

Subject to applicable law, the Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Protection Account in Satisfaction

(a) On or before the date of delivery of a Payment Demand to the Province, the Indenture Trustee shall cause to be established and maintained an Eligible Deposit Account (the "Protection Account") in the name of the Indenture Trustee, bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds and other property credited thereto are held for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Beneficiaries. The Protection Account shall be under the control of the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. If, at any time, the institution holding the Protection Account ceases to be an Eligible Institution, the FSM shall notify the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee upon being notified in writing of such ineligibility (or the FSM on its behalf) shall within 30 days (or such longer period, not to exceed 45 days, so long as the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied) establish a new Protection Account that is an Eligible Deposit Account and shall transfer any funds or other property from such Protection Account to such new Protection Account. From the date each such new Protection Account is established, it shall be the "Protection Account" for purposes of this Agreement. Funds credited to the Protection Account will be invested and held in accordance with Section [7.03] of the Trust Indenture on the basis that it is an Issuer Account.

(b) Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee shall ensure that all amounts paid by the Province into the Protection Account on a Guarantee Payment Date in respect of an Approved Obligation are applied to pay the amounts due and payable to the Beneficiaries as and to the extent provided for in Section 2.01(a). Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Protection Account, the amounts so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries as provided for in Section 2.01(a) and thereby reduce the amount due and payable to such Beneficiaries in respect of the applicable Approved Obligations, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid. For greater certainty, the obligations arising in respect of an applicable Approved Obligation shall not be reduced by such payment as the Province shall become entitled to be paid related Subrogation Entitlements and the rights contemplated under Section 2.01(a) and Section 5.01 in relation to such continuing obligations.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations in accordance with Section 8.01.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine.

All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

[109] Explanatory Note: The General Regulation provides that debt can be considered a "Refinancing" when incurred within the 6 months prior to the maturity date of a funding obligation. The Act/Regulation's definition doesn't require that "Refinancings" be simultaneous with the repayment of existing Approved Obligations. Hi all,

We have now received a revised version of the Protection Agreement. Should we schedule a call for about 1pm to go through this draft? I don't think that I will be available before 1pm. Perhaps Anna can arrange the call?

Thanks

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

Hi,

Please find (attached) a further turn of the Change of Law Process Agreement, reflecting the Province's comments on the mark-up of the Agreement circulated yesterday afternoon by Torys. The attached blackline shows changes made to yesterday's Torys mark-up.

This version addresses concerns Rocco raised last night, to the extent the Province feels that the issues can be accommodated. For your information, I have set out below responses to Rocco's comments/observations (in CAPs).

The Province would like to proceed with the Ministers briefing early next week, on the basis that this version (minus the explanatory notes) is now in final form. If there are any critical revisions that the other parties believe reflect 'must have' priority, then the Province would like to have a call to discuss them as soon as possible.

Responses to Rocco's Points:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration. [AGREED. 7.01(b) and 7.01(c) will need to mirror the cure language we settle on in the Process Agreement (see my earlier comments). Perhaps the "which continues …" language in 7.01(B) can be revised to read: "to the extent that the Province would be entitled to provide a Suspension Notice in accordance with the terms of the agreement or agreements between the Province and OPG under which such obligations, requirements and processes arise". SIMILAR CHANGE FOR 7.01(C).

2. The right of the Province to issue an objection notice under Section 3.04(b) in connection with a Transaction Document provided to the Province which is required for a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation remains an outstanding issue. Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings. [THAT IS THE INTENDED EFFECT. THE ADHERENCE CONDITIONS WOULD APPLY TO THE REFINANCING, SO IF THE REFINANCING TERMS DEVIATED MATERIALLY (BASED ON THE SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM" THRESHOLD"), THEN OPG WOULD REQUIRE THE PROVINCE NOT TO OBJECT IN ORDER TO PROCEED WITH THOSE NEW TERMS. OTHERWISE, THE REFINANCING COULD INCORPORATE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, WHICH WOULD BIND THE PROVINCE UNDER THE LIMITED GUARANTEE, THAT WOULD BE UNCONSTRAINED AND WITHOUT ANY ACCOUNTABILITY TO THE PROVINCE. IN ROCCO'S EXAMPLE, THAT MIGHT MEAN THAT OPG WOULD NEED TO RESORT TO UNRATED DEBT, IF THE PROVINCE WAS UNWILLING TO ACCEPT THE NEW TERMS. PRESUMABLY EVERYONE WOULD ACT RATIONALLY. HOWEVER, AS A FAILSAFE, OPG COULD OFFER INCREASED PRICING IN ORDER TO ATTRACT INVESTORS TO ACCEPT THE EARLIER VETTED TERMS (BASED ON THE THEN ACCEPTED REVIEWED DOCUMENTATION).]

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. There are a couple of ways to deal with this point. The first is to a add a beneficiary/third party rights clause in the Change of Law Process Agreement which acknowledges that the Indenture Trustee is a beneficiary of certain provisions of this agreement and as a result, the agreement cannot be amended without the consent of the Indenture Trustee. The second is to ensure that the Adherence Conditions relating to Refinancings under the Change of Law Protection Agreement are not dependent upon the terms of the Change of Law Process Agreement. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable. [THE SUGGESTION REGARDING THE PROVINCE PREVENTING A REFINANCING IS ADDRESSED IN #2. IF THE REFINANCING TERMS WOULD EXCEED THE SCOPE OF THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS REVIEWED AND NOT OBJECTED TO BY THE PROVINCE, THEN THAT SUGGESTS THERE IS A MATERIAL EFFECT ON THE PROVINCE AND SO THE PROVINCE WOULD NEED THE ABILITY TO REVIEW AND CONSIDER THE PROPRIETY OF THOSE NEW TERMS FROM ITS PERSPECTIVE. AS FOR THE STANDALONE NATURE OF THE PROCESS AGREEMENT, THE INTENTION IS THAT THE PROCESS AGREEMENT BE UNCOUPLED AND NOT PART OF THE COLLATERAL, AND AS MICHAEL FELDMAN HAS EXPLAINED, LEAVE FUTURE FLEXIBILITY FOR THIS LONG-TERM STRUCTURE. TO ADDRESS ROCCO'S CONCERN THAT THE PROVINCE AND OPG COULD CHANGE THE UNDERLYING OBLIGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ADHERENCE IN RELATION TO A NEW OBLIGATION, REQUIREMENT OR PROCESS IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT THAT WOULD MAKE A REFINANCING LESS LIKELY TO OCCUR, WE HAVE ADDED AND USED IN THE ATTACHED VERSION A NEW DEFFINITON:

"Approved Refinancing" means a Certified Primary Obligation proposed to be incurred as a Refinancing of an existing Certified Primary Obligation in respect of which the Adherence Conditions had been satisfied on the date such existing Certified Primary Obligation was incurred, that, at the time of incurrence, satisfies each of each of the Adherence Conditions except that the certificate contemplated to be delivered under Section 4.02(b) shall instead confirm that OPG has delivered to the Province a certificate by its applicable officers confirming that OPG would be in compliance with all obligations to the Province and internal requirements and processes in connection with the adherence of the Limited Guarantee to the proposed Certified Primary Obligation that applied as between the Province and OPG on the date of issuance of such existing Certified Primary Obligation." Various references to "Refinancing" in the Protection Agreement can also be revised to refer to "Approved Refinancing", as required.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

I have reviewed the revised draft of the Change of Law Process Agreement that Torys has prepared and would like to pass along the following comments/observations:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration.

2. The right of the Province to issue an objection notice under Section 3.04(b) in connection with a Transaction Document provided to the Province which is required for a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation remains an outstanding issue. Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings.

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. There are a couple of ways to deal with this point. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable.

Blakes team,

Please find attached OPG and Torys' comments on the Process Agreement reflecting our discussions from yesterday's call. Please note that this draft is subject to continuing review and comment by Osler and the dealers. As discussed at the tail end of our call yesterday, the section in the Process Agreement that gives the Province the right to object to new and material changes to transaction documents dovetails with the Protection Agreement so additional comments from Oslers may be forthcoming on this draft.

We are working on getting you a revised draft of the Protection Agreement either later today or tomorrow. In the meantime, please let us know if you have any comments or questions on the Process Agreement.

Best Regards,
Nina

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

Hi,

Please find (attached) a further turn of the Change of Law Process Agreement, reflecting the Province's comments on the mark-up of the Agreement circulated yesterday afternoon by Torys. The attached blackline shows changes made to yesterday's Torys mark-up.

This version addresses concerns Rocco raised last night, to the extent the Province feels that the issues can be accommodated. For your information, I have set out below responses to Rocco's comments/observations (in CAPs).

The Province would like to proceed with the Ministers briefing early next week, on the basis that this version (minus the explanatory notes) is now in final form. If there are any critical revisions that the other parties believe reflect 'must have' priority, then the Province would like to have a call to discuss them as soon as possible.

Responses to Rocco's Points:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration. [AGREED. 7.01(b) and 7.01(c) WILL NEED TO MIRROR THE CURE LANGUAGE WE SETTLE ON IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT (SEE MY EARLIER COMMENTS). PERHAPS THE "which continues …" LANGUAGE IN 7.01(B) CAN BE REVISED TO READ: "to the extent that the Province would be entitled to provide a Suspension Notice in accordance with the terms of the agreement or agreements between the Province and OPG under which such obligations, requirements and processes arise". SIMILAR CHANGE FOR 7.01(C).

2. The right of the Province to issue an objection notice under Section 3.04(b) in connection with a Transaction Document provided to the Province which is required for a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation remains an outstanding issue. Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings. [THAT IS THE INTENDED EFFECT. THE ADHERENCE CONDITIONS WOULD APPLY TO THE REFINANCING, SO IF THE REFINANCING TERMS DEVIATED MATERIALLY (BASED ON THE SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM" THRESHOLD"), THEN OPG WOULD REQUIRE THE PROVINCE NOT TO OBJECT IN ORDER TO PROCEED WITH THOSE NEW TERMS. OTHERWISE, THE REFINANCING COULD INCORPORATE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, WHICH WOULD BIND THE PROVINCE UNDER THE LIMITED GUARANTEE, THAT WOULD BE UNCONSTRAINED AND WITHOUT ANY ACCOUNTABILITY TO THE PROVINCE. IN ROCCO'S EXAMPLE, THAT MIGHT MEAN THAT OPG WOULD NEED TO RESORT TO UNRATED DEBT, IF THE PROVINCE WAS UNWILLING TO ACCEPT THE NEW TERMS. PRESUMABLY EVERYONE WOULD ACT RATIONALLY. HOWEVER, AS A FAILSAFE, OPG COULD OFFER INCREASED PRICING IN ORDER TO ATTRACT INVESTORS TO ACCEPT THE EARLIER VETTED TERMS (BASED ON THE THEN ACCEPTED REVIEWED DOCUMENTATION).]

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. There are a couple of ways to deal with this point. The first is to a add a beneficiary/third party rights clause in the Change of Law Process Agreement which acknowledges that the Indenture Trustee is a beneficiary of certain provisions of this agreement and as a result, the agreement cannot be amended without the consent of the Indenture Trustee. The second is to ensure that the Adherence Conditions relating to Refinancings under the Change of Law Protection Agreement are not dependent upon the terms of the Change of Law Process Agreement. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable. [THE SUGGESTION REGARDING THE PROVINCE PREVENTING A REFINANCING IS ADDRESSED IN #2. IF THE REFINANCING TERMS WOULD EXCEED THE SCOPE OF THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS REVIEWED AND NOT OBJECTED TO BY THE PROVINCE, THEN THAT SUGGESTS THERE IS A MATERIAL EFFECT ON THE PROVINCE AND SO THE PROVINCE WOULD NEED THE ABILITY TO REVIEW AND CONSIDER THE PROPRIETY OF THOSE NEW TERMS FROM ITS PERSPECTIVE. AS FOR THE STANDALONE NATURE OF THE PROCESS AGREEMENT, THE INTENTION IS THAT THE PROCESS AGREEMENT BE UNCOUPLED AND NOT PART OF THE COLLATERAL, AND AS MICHAEL FELDMAN HAS EXPLAINED, LEAVE FUTURE FLEXIBILITY FOR THIS LONG-TERM STRUCTURE. TO ADDRESS ROCCO'S CONCERN THAT THE PROVINCE AND OPG COULD CHANGE THE UNDERLYING OBLIGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ADHERENCE IN RELATION TO A NEW OBLIGATION, REQUIREMENT OR PROCESS IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT THAT WOULD MAKE A REFINANCING LESS LIKELY TO OCCUR, WE HAVE ADDED AND USED IN THE ATTACHED VERSION A NEW DEFFINTION:

"Approved Refinancing" means a Certified Primary Obligation proposed to be incurred as a Refinancing of an existing Certified Primary Obligation in respect of which the Adherence Conditions had been satisfied on the date such existing Certified Primary Obligation was incurred, that, at the time of incurrence, satisfies each of each of the Adherence Conditions except that the certificate contemplated to be delivered under Section 4.02(b) shall instead confirm that OPG has delivered to the Province a certificate by its applicable officers confirming that OPG would be in compliance with all obligations to the Province and internal requirements and processes in connection with the adherence of the Limited Guarantee to the proposed Certified Primary Obligation that applied as between the Province and OPG on the date of issuance of such existing Certified Primary Obligation." Various references to "Refinancing" in the Protection Agreement can also be revised to refer to "Approved Refinancing", as required.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

I have reviewed the revised draft of the Change of Law Process Agreement that Torys has prepared and would like to pass along the following comments/observations:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration.

We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings.

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. Blakes team,

Please find attached OPG and Torys' comments on the Process Agreement reflecting our discussions from yesterday's call. Please note that this draft is subject to continuing review and comment by Osler and the dealers. As discussed at the tail end of our call yesterday, the section in the Process Agreement that gives the Province the right to object to new and material changes to transaction documents dovetails with the Protection Agreement so additional comments from Oslers may be forthcoming on this draft.

We are working on getting you a revised draft of the Protection Agreement either later today or tomorrow. In the meantime, please let us know if you have any comments or questions on the Process Agreement.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

Hi,

Please find (attached) a further turn of the Change of Law Process Agreement, reflecting the Province's comments on the mark-up of the Agreement circulated yesterday afternoon by Torys. The attached blackline shows changes made to yesterday's Torys mark-up.

This version addresses concerns Rocco raised last night, to the extent the Province feels that the issues can be accommodated. For your information, I have set out below responses to Rocco's comments/observations (in CAPs).

The Province would like to proceed with the Ministers briefing early next week, on the basis that this version (minus the explanatory notes) is now in final form. If there are any critical revisions that the other parties believe reflect 'must have' priority, then the Province would like to have a call to discuss them as soon as possible.

Responses to Rocco's Points:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration. [AGREED. 7.01(b) and 7.01(c) WILL NEED TO MIRROR THE CURE LANGUAGE WE SETTLE ON IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT (SEE MY EARLIER COMMENTS). PERHAPS THE "which continues …" LANGUAGE IN 7.01(B) CAN BE REVISED TO READ: "to the extent that the Province would be entitled to provide a Suspension Notice in accordance with the terms of the agreement or agreements between the Province and OPG under which such obligations, requirements and processes arise". SIMILAR CHANGE FOR 7.01(C).

2. The right of the Province to issue an objection notice under Section 3.04(b) in connection with a Transaction Document provided to the Province which is required for a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation remains an outstanding issue. Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings. [THAT IS THE INTENDED EFFECT. THE ADHERENCE CONDITIONS WOULD APPLY TO THE REFINANCING, SO IF THE REFINANCING TERMS DEVIATED MATERIALLY (BASED ON THE SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM" THRESHOLD"), THEN OPG WOULD REQUIRE THE PROVINCE NOT TO OBJECT IN ORDER TO PROCEED WITH THOSE NEW TERMS. OTHERWISE, THE REFINANCING COULD INCORPORATE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, WHICH WOULD BIND THE PROVINCE UNDER THE LIMITED GUARANTEE, THAT WOULD BE UNCONSTRAINED AND WITHOUT ANY ACCOUNTABILITY TO THE PROVINCE. IN ROCCO'S EXAMPLE, THAT MIGHT MEAN THAT OPG WOULD NEED TO RESORT TO UNRATED DEBT, IF THE PROVINCE WAS UNWILLING TO ACCEPT THE NEW TERMS. PRESUMABLY EVERYONE WOULD ACT RATIONALLY. HOWEVER, AS A FAILSAFE, OPG COULD OFFER INCREASED PRICING IN ORDER TO ATTRACT INVESTORS TO ACCEPT THE EARLIER VETTED TERMS (BASED ON THE THEN ACCEPTED REVIEWED DOCUMENTATION).]

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. There are a couple of ways to deal with this point. The first is to a add a beneficiary/third party rights clause in the Change of Law Process Agreement which acknowledges that the Indenture Trustee is a beneficiary of certain provisions of this agreement and as a result, the agreement cannot be amended without the consent of the Indenture Trustee. The second is to ensure that the Adherence Conditions relating to Refinancings under the Change of Law Protection Agreement are not dependent upon the terms of the Change of Law Process Agreement. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable. [THE SUGGESTION REGARDING THE PROVINCE PREVENTING A REFINANCING IS ADDRESSED IN #2. IF THE REFINANCING TERMS WOULD EXCEED THE SCOPE OF THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS REVIEWED AND NOT OBJECTED TO BY THE PROVINCE, THEN THAT SUGGESTS THERE IS A MATERIAL EFFECT ON THE PROVINCE AND SO THE PROVINCE WOULD NEED THE ABILITY TO REVIEW AND CONSIDER THE PROPRIETY OF THOSE NEW TERMS FROM ITS PERSPECTIVE. AS FOR THE STANDALONE NATURE OF THE PROCESS AGREEMENT, THE INTENTION IS THAT THE PROCESS AGREEMENT BE UNCOUPLED AND NOT PART OF THE COLLATERAL, AND AS MICHAEL FELDMAN HAS EXPLAINED, LEAVE FUTURE FLEXIBILITY FOR THIS LONG-TERM STRUCTURE. TO ADDRESS ROCCO'S CONCERN THAT THE PROVINCE AND OPG COULD CHANGE THE UNDERLYING OBLIGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ADHERENCE IN RELATION TO A NEW OBLIGATION, REQUIREMENT OR PROCESS IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT THAT WOULD MAKE A REFINANCING LESS LIKELY TO OCCUR, WE HAVE ADDED AND USED IN THE ATTACHED VERSION A NEW DEFFINTION:

> "Approved Refinancing" means a Certified Primary Obligation proposed to be incurred as a Refinancing of an existing Certified Primary Obligation in respect of which the Adherence Conditions had been satisfied on the date such existing Certified Primary Obligation was incurred, that, at the time of incurrence, satisfies each of each of the Adherence Conditions except that the certificate contemplated to be delivered under Section 4.02(b) shall instead confirm that OPG has delivered to the Province a certificate by its applicable officers confirming that OPG would be in compliance with all obligations to the Province and internal requirements and processes in connection with the adherence of the Limited Guarantee to the proposed Certified Primary Obligation that applied as between the Province and OPG on the date of issuance of such existing Certified Primary Obligation." Various references to "Refinancing" in the Protection Agreement can also be revised to refer to "Approved Refinancing", as required.

I have reviewed the revised draft of the Change of Law Process Agreement that Torys has prepared and would like to pass along the following comments/observations:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration.

Blakes team,

Please find attached OPG and Torys' comments on the Process Agreement reflecting our discussions from yesterday's call. Please note that this draft is subject to continuing review and comment by Osler and the dealers. As discussed at the tail end of our call yesterday, the section in the Process Agreement that gives the Province the right to object to new and material changes to transaction documents dovetails with the Protection Agreement so additional comments from Oslers may be forthcoming on this draft.

We are working on getting you a revised draft of the Protection Agreement either later today or tomorrow. In the meantime, please let us know if you have any comments or questions on the Process Agreement.

Best Regards,
Nina

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

Hi,

Please find (attached) a further turn of the Change of Law Process Agreement, reflecting the Province's comments on the mark-up of the Agreement circulated yesterday afternoon by Torys. The attached blackline shows changes made to yesterday's Torys mark-up.

This version addresses concerns Rocco raised last night, to the extent the Province feels that the issues can be accommodated. For your information, I have set out below responses to Rocco's comments/observations (in CAPs).

The Province would like to proceed with the Ministers briefing early next week, on the basis that this version (minus the explanatory notes) is now in final form. If there are any critical revisions that the other parties believe reflect 'must have' priority, then the Province would like to have a call to discuss them as soon as possible.

Responses to Rocco's Points:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration. [AGREED. 7.01(b) and 7.01(c) WILL NEED TO MIRROR THE CURE LANGUAGE WE SETTLE ON IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT (SEE MY EARLIER COMMENTS). PERHAPS THE "which continues …" LANGUAGE IN 7.01(B) CAN BE REVISED TO READ: "to the extent that the Province would be entitled to provide a Suspension Notice in accordance with the terms of the agreement or agreements between the Province and OPG under which such obligations, requirements and processes arise". SIMILAR CHANGE FOR 7.01(C).

2. The right of the Province to issue an objection notice under Section 3.04(b) in connection with a Transaction Document provided to the Province which is required for a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation remains an outstanding issue. Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings. [THAT IS THE INTENDED EFFECT. THE ADHERENCE CONDITIONS WOULD APPLY TO THE REFINANCING, SO IF THE REFINANCING TERMS DEVIATED MATERIALLY (BASED ON THE SUBSTANTIALLY IN THE FORM" THRESHOLD"), THEN OPG WOULD REQUIRE THE PROVINCE NOT TO OBJECT IN ORDER TO PROCEED WITH THOSE NEW TERMS. HOWEVER, AS A FAILSAFE, OPG COULD OFFER INCREASED PRICING IN ORDER TO ATTRACT INVESTORS TO ACCEPT THE EARLIER VETTED TERMS (BASED ON THE THEN ACCEPTED REVIEWED DOCUMENTATION).]

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. There are a couple of ways to deal with this point. The first is to a add a beneficiary/third party rights clause in the Change of Law Process Agreement which acknowledges that the Indenture Trustee is a beneficiary of certain provisions of this agreement and as a result, the agreement cannot be amended without the consent of the Indenture Trustee. The second is to ensure that the Adherence Conditions relating to Refinancings under the Change of Law Protection Agreement are not dependent upon the terms of the Change of Law Process Agreement. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable. [THE SUGGESTION REGARDING THE PROVINCE PREVENTING A REFINANCING IS ADDRESSED IN #2. IF THE REFINANCING TERMS WOULD EXCEED THE SCOPE OF THE TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS REVIEWED AND NOT OBJECTED TO BY THE PROVINCE, THEN THAT SUGGESTS THERE IS A MATERIAL EFFECT ON THE PROVINCE AND SO THE PROVINCE WOULD NEED THE ABILITY TO REVIEW AND CONSIDER THE PROPRIETY OF THOSE NEW TERMS FROM ITS PERSPECTIVE. AS FOR THE STANDALONE NATURE OF THE PROCESS AGREEMENT, THE INTENTION IS THAT THE PROCESS AGREEMENT BE UNCOUPLED AND NOT PART OF THE COLLATERAL, AND AS MICHAEL FELDMAN HAS EXPLAINED, LEAVE FUTURE FLEXIBILITY FOR THIS LONG-TERM STRUCTURE. TO ADDRESS ROCCO'S CONCERN THAT THE PROVINCE AND OPG COULD CHANGE THE UNDERLYING OBLIGATIONS APPLICABLE TO ADHERENCE IN RELATION TO A NEW OBLIGATION, REQUIREMENT OR PROCESS IN THE PROCESS AGREEMENT THAT WOULD MAKE A REFINANCING LESS LIKELY TO OCCUR, WE HAVE ADDED AND USED IN THE ATTACHED VERSION A NEW DEFFINTION:

> "Approved Refinancing" means a Certified Primary Obligation proposed to be incurred as a Refinancing of an existing Certified Primary Obligation in respect of which the Adherence Conditions had been satisfied on the date such existing Certified Primary Obligation was incurred, that, at the time of incurrence, satisfies each of each of the Adherence Conditions except that the certificate contemplated to be delivered under Section 4.02(b) shall instead confirm that OPG has delivered to the Province a certificate by its applicable officers confirming that OPG would be in compliance with all obligations to the Province and internal requirements and processes in connection with the adherence of the Limited Guarantee to the proposed Certified Primary Obligation that applied as between the Province and OPG on the date of issuance of such existing Certified Primary Obligation." Various references to "Refinancing" in the Protection Agreement can also be revised to refer to "Approved Refinancing", as required.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Process Agreement

I have reviewed the revised draft of the Change of Law Process Agreement that Torys has prepared and would like to pass along the following comments/observations:

1. The change of the definition of Breach Event in Section 6.01 (i.e., the change to clause (a) and the addition of clause (b)) will result in an inconsistency with section 7.01(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. This will require further consideration.

2. The right of the Province to issue an objection notice under Section 3.04(b) in connection with a Transaction Document provided to the Province which is required for a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation remains an outstanding issue. Clearly, this will depend upon what Adherence Conditions will be required under Section 4.02 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement in order to permit such Refinancing to become an Approved Obligation. If the Adherence Conditions set out in Section 4.02(a) of the Province's draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement of December 4 were to apply to such Refinancing, to the extent that such refinancing required a change to a Transaction Document (e.g., as a result of a change to some rating agency condition or criteria), the Province's ability to issue an objection notice and thereby prevent the issuance of a Process Certificate under Section 3.01 (by virtue of Section 3.04) would have the effect of preventing a Refinancing. We trust that this was an unintended outcome of the drafting of Section 3.04 and/or the Adherence Conditions applicable to Refinancings.

3. Given that the Indenture Trustee is not a party to the Change of Law Process Agreement, the Province and OPG can amend the terms and conditions of this agreement without the consent of the indenture Trustee. Specified Creditors under an Approved Obligation need to be assured that the Province cannot prevent a Refinancing of an Approved Obligation either by virtue of the objection notice discussed in point #2 above or as a result of a future amendment to the agreement. There are a couple of ways to deal with this point. The first is to a add a beneficiary/third party rights clause in the Change of Law Process Agreement which acknowledges that the Indenture Trustee is a beneficiary of certain provisions of this agreement and as a result, the agreement cannot be amended without the consent of the Indenture Trustee. The second is to ensure that the Adherence Conditions relating to Refinancings under the Change of Law Protection Agreement are not dependent upon the terms of the Change of Law Process Agreement. In light of the desire to not disclose the terms and conditions of the Change of Law Process Agreement to the rating agencies, especially at this late stage in the process, we would expect that the latter approach would be preferable.

Blakes team,

Please find attached OPG and Torys' comments on the Process Agreement reflecting our discussions from yesterday's call. Please note that this draft is subject to continuing review and comment by Osler and the dealers. As discussed at the tail end of our call yesterday, the section in the Process Agreement that gives the Province the right to object to new and material changes to transaction documents dovetails with the Protection Agreement so additional comments from Oslers may be forthcoming on this draft.

We are working on getting you a revised draft of the Protection Agreement either later today or tomorrow. In the meantime, please let us know if you have any comments or questions on the Process Agreement.

Best Regards,
Nina

Attached for your review is a revised draft of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, clean and blacklined to the last version circulated by Blakes and reflecting the meetings held earlier today. As discussed, we need to provide the attached to the rating agencies by no later than noon tomorrow in order to meet our end of year financing deadline. Accordingly, we will be circulating a calendar invite to this group for 10 a.m. tomorrow morning to confirm the parties are signed off. If Osler or Blakes have any comments on the attached, we would ask that they be circulated to this group prior to the 10 a.m. call.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro - Change of Law Protection Agreement

Hi,

Attached is a revised version of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. I believe that most of the changes reflected from last night's Osler version (blackline is attached) are of a drafting or conforming nature, other than: (1) the Province disagrees that Approved Refinancing terms should be unfettered by adherence conditions post-Suspension Event and (2) the proposed rating-based "materially and adversely" qualification in the definition of Protection Event (and in fact any such qualification) is not acceptable to the Province. With regard to (1), this version comes into line with the proposed approach (i.e., using a modified adherence condition) that was incorporated into the version of the Change of Law Process Agreement I circulated yesterday. A further turn of that Agreement, to conform the open item identified in section 3.02 to the revised Change of Law Protection Agreement, is also included here for your reference.

Please note that the Province is working through the drafting concurrently and so further drafting comments may be provided.

As mentioned yesterday, the Province would like to proceed with the Ministers sign-off briefing early next week, on the basis that these versions (minus the explanatory notes) are now in substantially final form. Please identify if you believe there are other 'must have'

points (other than the 2 mentioned above).

Regards, Steve

Hi Ron, Ken, Mike,

Toby has asked me to set up a meeting to discuss the attached discussion document drafted by Stephen Ashbourne. Toby and Malle have a preference for tomorrow morning, but I wanted to choose a time that would be convenient for all three of you. Any preferences for tomorrow morning/afternoon or Friday?

Thanks, Anna

Anna – can you please set up a meeting to discuss the Agreement and the questions we circulated yesterday?

It would be helpful if we can make sure that decision makers are there and able to give some direction. Maybe it is worthwhile canvassing Gadi, Mike and Ken about whether they will be able to attend/who should attend in order to be able to give direction on our response/next steps.

Thanks
Toby

Further to OPG's response to our proposals, please find attached a discussion document drafted by our outside legal counsel Stephen Ashbourne and based on discussions amongst our Provincial legal teams.

This document sets out a number of questions that we need to consider and answer in order to respond to OPG with the Province's position.

A meeting amongst this group would be useful to discuss these issues and to inform a response to OPG.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.

- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Questions for MOE and OFA to consider regarding OPG's Proposed Adherence Terms

A. Scope of Province's Obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (CLPA)

1. On a Protection Event, should the Province become responsible for the payment of taxes (if any) owing by the Financing Entity?

2. On a Protection Event, should the Province become liable to pay amounts owing by the Financing Entity to OPG (e.g., FSM fees and expenses)?

3. On a Protection Event, should all available funds (e.g., funds accumulated in sinking funds) be immediately applied to reduce the amount that the Province would be liable for under the CLPA?

4. Should the Province set a "Protection Agreement Maximum" (previously called the "Program Maximum") that measures and relates only to "principal amounts"? In other words, should the limitation be tied only to principal obligations, while the Province's actual obligations would automatically extend, without specific quantum limits, to the other payment obligations under "funding obligations" (e.g., interest, swaps, standby liquidity commitment fees, servicer fees and expenses)?

5. Is the Province comfortable guaranteeing contingent obligations (e.g., indemnity obligations) of the Financing Entity? If so, should the Province require that such contingent obligations be "capped" within the funding obligation itself or should the exposure of the Province be otherwise limited under the CLPA?

6. Should the Province be required to deposit funds to meet sinking fund or collateral deposits (i.e., deposit obligations incorporated in the financing structure on the basis that the "clean energy" cash flows will service the obligations, rather than the Province), notwithstanding that the Province would have become primarily liable for payment obligations under the CLPA?

B. Adhesion

7. Is the Province okay splitting the maximum exposure limitations and "process-related" matters (see below) into a separate agreement - away from the terms of the agreement under which the Province's payment obligations would bind the Province opposite the Indenture Trustee? OPG proposes this in order to keep the optics of the CLPA as simple and straightforward as possible. In other words, is the Province prepared to leave all of the important details regarding what OPG is supposed to do before incurring an obligation that binds the Province to a side agreement with OPG, that is opaque to the Indenture Trustee and Underwriters at the time a funding obligation is incurred and not requiring any third party to have notice or regard to the Province's requirements?

8. OPG proposes that delivery of an officers' certificate to a third party, in OPG's capacity as FSM, will in and of itself bind the Province under the CLPA. That certificate would simply indicate that the Province is bound under the CLPA with respect to the specified funding obligation. It would not be addressed to the Province (although a pre-closing certificate is contemplated to be delivered to the Province) and the "Protection Agreement Maximum" concept would not be incorporated as a specific condition (other than to the extent that OPG is bound to the Province under the side agreement with the Province). Is this acceptable to the Province? Does this raise any governance/authority issues for the Province (e.g., limit on incurrence needing to be specifically confirmed at closing? scope of permitted delegation to bind? FAA compliance?)

C. "Protection Agreement Maximum" (formerly "Program Maximum" (PAM)

9. OPG proposes that the PAM will be determined based on a mechanical calculation and without any real discretion on the part of the Province to set or object to the PAM. Is this acceptable to the Province?

10. OPG's proposed mechanical process to determine PAM would be based on OPG's 24 month forecast (estimate) of payments to be made by the Financing Entity. So long as that forecast (and any refresh) is consistent with the "Financing Plan" (also prepared by OPG) and is "reasonably expected to align with the fair allocation amount", the Province will be required to accept the PAM based on OPG's forecast – i.e., no discretion to reject or modify the aggregate amount of the Province's commitment initially or from time to time. Is the Province prepared to tie its CLPA obligation automatically to the operation of the OFHPA in this way, without review and with perpetual effect?

11. Is the proposed mechanical link to the OFHPA calculations consistent with the OIC or other governance requirements applicable to the Province's authority to approve the CLPA?

12. Is the initial 24 month forecast period appropriate (e.g., 2.5B x 2 – large)? Is OPG's proposed refresh of the PAM (mechanically tied to the new forecast), 9 to 12 months prior to the end of the 24 month forecast period, appropriate?

D. "Process-Related" Matters

13. Assuming the Province is okay with the arrangements described in question 7, above, we would envision a mechanism where the Province could give the Indenture Trustee notice of a breach (if known) by OPG of the PAM or process-related side agreement, and that such a notice would have the effect of cutting off the application of the CLPA for any future incurrences unless the Province further agrees otherwise. Does the Province agree that this sort of failsafe is essential? Note that OPG's suggestion has been that no pre-incurrence non-adherence/failsafe provision be provided, in order to allow the Province to provide notice that the CLPA will not apply to a pending/proposed incurrence.

14. Does the Province need to contemplate other scenarios where the CLPA would become ineffective in respect of future incurrences, such as:

    a. an OPG change of control

    b. a policy-based determination by a future government

    c. an unanticipated circumstance, such as the incurrence by the Financing Entity of assessed tax liabilities, indemnity payments, "increased costs", rating downgrades, offering disclosure-based claims, defaults under the program, insolvency of a major counterparty (e.g., swap counterparty or services provider), etc.

d. a discretionary circumstance where the Province decides it no longer wishes to be liable under the CLPA?

We expect that OPG would push back so that any suspension of new obligations by the Province would not hamper OPG's ability to complete an anticipated/needed refinancing.

15. Does the Province have any reservations about letting OPG at any time provide a binding certificate to third parties regarding adherence, which would be determinative of the Province's obligations. What conditions for this sort of certificate would make sense (e.g., preview and consent by the Province)? Does this proposal raise any governance/authority issues for the Province (e.g., scope of delegation; FAA compliance)?

16. If the Province is prepared to be liable for taxes owing by the Financing Entity (see question 1, above), what oversight, assurances, documentation and reporting regarding the potential for entity-level taxes should the Province require (if any)?

17. OPG is proposing that the Province will receive a certificate prior to the Financing Entity incurring a funding obligation, that sets out "the material terms of the funding obligations pertaining to the principal amount, pricing and third party fees". Is that a sufficient amount of detail, or would the Province like to specifically itemize its information expectations, to cover things such as:

    a. details respecting any principal obligation, such as:

        i. the amount, timing and conditions of repayments (including any redemption or extension rights)

        ii. the basis for OPG's expectations regarding the availability of any related refinancings

        iii. any required deposits to be made into a capital account or a finance reserve account in order to provide for payment of the principal obligation

        iv. the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the principal repayment of the funding obligation

        v. details respecting any redemption rights, including the nature and conditions applicable to any exercise and OPG's expected basis for determining whether or not to exercise a redemption right, option or privilege;

    b. details respecting interest obligations, such as:

        i. the anticipated interest or discount rate or rates (including default rates)

        ii. the timing/frequency/conditions of coupon payments

iii. any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account

iv. the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of interest

v. the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the interest obligation;

c. details respecting any hedging obligation (e.g., interest or FX swaps, options or other derivatives), such as:

i. the name of the counterparty and credit details

ii. the credit ratings (if any) of the payor(s)

iii. the risks sought to be mitigated by the derivative

iv. anticipated circumstances (if any) in which the derivative may not achieve such mitigation or be subject to early termination

v. whether collateral posting requirements will apply;

d. details respecting other funding obligations, such as:

i. the payee

ii. the timing and any conditions of payments

iii. any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account or the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of such obligations

iv. in the case of a contingent obligation (e.g., indemnities), the nature and extent of any contingency affecting the payment obligation, the circumstances in which a payment obligation may arise and any specified maximum claim amount

e. assuming that the Province would be liable for capital, reserve or supplementary account deposit obligations (see question 6, above), details respecting the schedule for such deposits and the conditions for the application of such amounts to pay such amounts and the related priorities for application.

18. OPG (and presumably OPG's accountants) is contemplating that the Province will be provided transaction documentation "in substantially final form" and that the Province will not be entitled to provide input "other than in its capacity as obligor under the [CLPA]". In other words, assuming that the CLPA is signed in advance, the Province will have no real opportunity to comment on the forms of transaction documents to be used, and will have a limited opportunity to "not accept" [1] the documentation. Can the Province live with these limitations?

19. The proposed OPG certificate (pre-incurrence) would include an attestation by OPG regarding the use of pre-reviewed documentation. The test for conformity of the to-be-used documentation, compared to the pre-reviewed documentation, would focus only on whether "the covenants of the Financing Entity are no more onerous in any material respect" and that the "events of default" are consistent "in all material respects". Is the limited scope of this conformity test acceptable, or should it be broadened and cover specific items such as:

    a. no differences in the timing of or circumstances under which payments are or may become due (for example, as a result of any termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization)

    b. no differences that could affect the Province's rights of subrogation or interests as a subrogee

    c. with respect to the anticipated form of series specific documents (as opposed to the upfront terms of program-wide "master" documents), confirming that the variable terms set forth in the proposed documents are as reasonably contemplated in the reviewed forms, having regard to such matters as:

        i. the type of instrument to be issued (i.e., debt (bullet vs. amortizing), equity-linked, pass-through instruments, etc.)

        ii. the scope of the related obligations (e.g., redemption or extension features or other optionality)

        iii. the extent of the related obligations (e.g., limited recourse features, limitations on indemnities, etc.)

        iv. the timing, conditions and circumstances in which payment obligations may arise,

    but making it clear that conformity would not include a comparison to the particular financial terms, rates, levels and parameters of the obligations other than if the reviewed forms specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters.

20. How much time is sufficient for the Province:

    a. to do an initial review of the main transaction documentation (including forms of series-specific documents), which would set the acceptable pattern for future

[1] Note that the proposed OPG language is not crystal clear that the Province can reject the reviewed documentation, which we expect is merely drafting, but that will need to be confirmed assuming the Province wishes to work within the OPG/Tory mark-up.

issuances? The proposal is 15 BDs, although that does not seem to make sense given that OPG proposes that the Province must confirm acceptance of the terms within 15 BDs of receipt of the documentation

b. to do a review of any changes to the main transaction documentation (including forms of series-specific documents), which would reset the acceptable pattern for future issuances? The proposal is to receive proposed amendments at least 15 BDs prior to first use, and the Province would confirm acceptance of the terms within 15 BDs of receipt of the documentation

c. to review applicable details of a proposed funding obligation in advance of an incurrence (proposal is 10BDs)?

21. What other items should be incorporated into the timeline from the Province's perspective?

E. Information, Reporting and Other Covenants

22. OPG proposes to provide the Province with an applicable "Financing Plan" only after an incurrence. Does the Province need to see this document as it is issued and changed, rather than only after the time of an incurrence?

23. OPG proposes to provide the Province with any actual offering/disclosure documents only after it is used. Does the Province need to have input into offering/disclosure document before use or dissemination (e.g., the description of the CLPA)?

24. OPG has limited its negative covenant on elections by the Financing Entity following a Protection Event to actions that would accelerate obligations. Should this be broader to cover extensions or other consensual changes that could affect the obligations (e.g., creditor concessions).

F. Parties

25. Will it be sufficient for the CLPA (and any procedural side-letter) to be signed by OPG, acting solely in its capacity as "financial services manager" (i.e., with OPG's liability being limited by the terms of the related management or administrative agreement)? How does this interplay with any other indemnities or exculpatory provisions that the Province is anticipating for OPG (corporate) and its officers?

26. Who from OPG should sign the officer's certificate? The OPG proposal is 2 "executive officers".

27. OPG proposes that a failure to comply with the PAM or "approval process" will not result in any breach. Assuming that OPG is in fact proposing that its failure would have no consequences, including as between the Province and OPG whatsoever, are the process aspects of the OPG proposal even meaningful to the Province?

Thanks, Ron. Mike was of the same view. Even more reason for them not to do US$ deals if they can avoid them. I'm wondering if we should ask them, when they're negotiating their ISDA agreements, to put a clause in that would allow those swaps, if they were to be transferred to the Province under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement, to then be governed under the Province's ISDA agreement with that entity, if one is already in place, rather than us being stuck with one negotiated by OPG?

Hi Gadi,

Mike and Ken may have more to add, but I believe the TB submission noted the following (emphasis added):

> In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt would be expected to increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability for the debt outstanding at that point in time. The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it will be required to make under the protection agreement. In addition there may be additional payments on derivatives agreements and for service providers that the Province will be required to make.

Good Morning Malle,

In terms of Program Agreements, here is an update:

-we have previously circulated the MTI and MTSA to Blakes. Both of these agreements are in mid-turn but we will send you the next circulation of these agreements once available.
-we received an initial draft supplemental for the warehouse facility on Tuesday from the dealers' counsel. We have not yet reviewed it nor have we discussed it with Oslers so we will send you the next circulation of this document.
-I am attaching the most current versions of the Declaration of Trust and the Management Agreement (which are subject to the continuing review of the working group).
-we'll have a form of ISDA Schedule to you soon.
-we don't expect to have a substantially advanced draft of the OM to share until November.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi Nina,

We will be reviewing your comments and mark-up.

On a related point, do you have available yet drafts of any of the other agreements that will be required in connection with a proposed issuance by the financing entity and that we have previously discussed and requested copies of such as a draft supplemental indenture, draft disclosure documents, drafts of other agreements referenced in the master trust indenture to the extent they would be used in or related to an issuance by the Financing Entity etc. The Protection Agreement is proposed to work in the context of these other agreements and this would provide a better context for review by the Province. If they are not yet available, when are they expected to be available?

Thank you.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

? The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection

Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.

- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Hi Gadi,

Mike and Ken may have more to add, but I believe the TB submission noted the following (emphasis added):

> In the event the protection agreement is triggered, the Province's net debt would be expected to increase by an amount equal to the contingent liability for the debt outstanding at that point in time. The Province's interest payments will also increase by the debt interest servicing of the debt payment obligations it will be required to make under the protection agreement. In addition there may be additional payments on derivatives agreements and for service providers that the Province will be required to make.

Good Morning Malle,

In terms of Program Agreements, here is an update:

-we have previously circulated the MTI and MTSA to Blakes. Both of these agreements are in mid-turn but we will send you the next circulation of these agreements once available.
-we received an initial draft supplemental for the warehouse facility on Tuesday from the dealers' counsel. We have not yet reviewed it nor have we discussed it with Oslers so we will send you the next circulation of this document.
-I am attaching the most current versions of the Declaration of Trust and the Management Agreement (which are subject to the continuing review of the working group).
-we'll have a form of ISDA Schedule to you soon.
-we don't expect to have a substantially advanced draft of the OM to share until November.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best Regards,
Nina

Hi Nina,

We will be reviewing your comments and mark-up.

On a related point, do you have available yet drafts of any of the other agreements that will be required in connection with a proposed issuance by the financing entity and that we have previously discussed and requested copies of such as a draft supplemental indenture, draft disclosure documents, drafts of other agreements referenced in the master trust indenture to the extent they would be used in or related to an issuance by the Financing Entity etc. The Protection Agreement is proposed to work in the context of these other agreements and this would provide a better context for review by the Province. If they are not yet available, when are they expected to be available?

Thank you.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Nina

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.

- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Subject: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Assumption Agreement

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Good Morning Malle,

In terms of Program Agreements, here is an update:

-we have previously circulated the MTI and MTSA to Blakes. Both of these agreements are in mid-turn but we will send you the next circulation of these agreements once available.
-we received an initial draft supplemental for the warehouse facility on Tuesday from the dealers' counsel. We have not yet reviewed it nor have we discussed it with Oslers so we will send you the next circulation of this document.
-I am attaching the most current versions of the Declaration of Trust and the Management Agreement (which are subject to the continuing review of the working group).
-we'll have a form of ISDA Schedule to you soon.
-we don't expect to have a substantially advanced draft of the OM to share until November.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi Nina,

We will be reviewing your comments and mark-up.

On a related point, do you have available yet drafts of any of the other agreements that will be required in connection with a proposed issuance by the financing entity and that we have previously discussed and requested copies of such as a draft supplemental indenture, draft disclosure documents, drafts of other agreements referenced in the master trust indenture to the extent they would be used in or related to an issuance by the Financing Entity etc. The Protection Agreement is proposed to work in the context of these other agreements and this would provide a better context for review by the Province. If they are not yet available, when are they expected to be available?

Thank you.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence

-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Subject: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Assumption Agreement

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;

(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

My pleasure, Malle. Yes, there will be a supplemental indenture for the long term financing. Oslers is working on that but we have not yet received a draft. Once it is in an advanced form, we will also provide that to this group.

Good Morning Malle,

In terms of Program Agreements, here is an update:

-we have previously circulated the MTI and MTSA to Blakes. Both of these agreements are in mid-turn but we will send you the next circulation of these agreements once available.
-we received an initial draft supplemental for the warehouse facility on Tuesday from the dealers' counsel. We have not yet reviewed it nor have we discussed it with Oslers so we will send you the next circulation of this document.
-I am attaching the most current versions of the Declaration of Trust and the Management Agreement (which are subject to the continuing review of the working group).
-we'll have a form of ISDA Schedule to you soon.
-we don't expect to have a substantially advanced draft of the OM to share until November.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi Nina,

We will be reviewing your comments and mark-up.

On a related point, do you have available yet drafts of any of the other agreements that will be required in connection with a proposed issuance by the financing entity and that we have previously discussed and requested copies of such as a draft supplemental indenture, draft disclosure documents, drafts of other agreements referenced in the master trust indenture to the extent they would be used in or related to an issuance by the Financing Entity etc. The Protection Agreement is proposed to work in the context of these other agreements and this would provide a better context for review by the Province. If they are not yet available, when are they expected to be available?

Thank you.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Nina

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Good Morning Malle,

In terms of Program Agreements, here is an update:

-we have previously circulated the MTI and MTSA to Blakes. Both of these agreements are in mid-turn but we will send you the next circulation of these agreements once available.
-we received an initial draft supplemental for the warehouse facility on Tuesday from the dealers' counsel. We have not yet reviewed it nor have we discussed it with Oslers so we will send you the next circulation of this document.
-I am attaching the most current versions of the Declaration of Trust and the Management Agreement (which are subject to the continuing review of the working group).
-we'll have a form of ISDA Schedule to you soon.
-we don't expect to have a substantially advanced draft of the OM to share until November.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best Regards,
Nina

Hi Nina,

We will be reviewing your comments and mark-up.

On a related point, do you have available yet drafts of any of the other agreements that will be required in connection with a proposed issuance by the financing entity and that we have previously discussed and requested copies of such as a draft supplemental indenture, draft disclosure documents, drafts of other agreements referenced in the master trust indenture to the extent they would be used in or related to an issuance by the Financing Entity etc. The Protection Agreement is proposed to work in the context of these other agreements and this would provide a better context for review by the Province. If they are not yet available, when are they expected to be available?

Thank you.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Nina

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.

We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?

- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Hi Nina,

We will be reviewing your comments and mark-up.

On a related point, do you have available yet drafts of any of the other agreements that will be required in connection with a proposed issuance by the financing entity and that we have previously discussed and requested copies of such as a draft supplemental indenture, draft disclosure documents, drafts of other agreements referenced in the master trust indenture to the extent they would be used in or related to an issuance by the Financing Entity etc. The Protection Agreement is proposed to work in the context of these other agreements and this would provide a better context for review by the Province. If they are not yet available, when are they expected to be available?

Thank you.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Nina

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

5.1 Standard of Care

The Manager will perform its duties hereunder (including, for so long as it is the Financial Services Manager, its duties as Financial Services Manager under the Act and the Regulations) diligently and in conformity with the Issuer's obligations under the Program Agreements and with the Act and the Regulations, as applicable, and honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Issuer and, in connection therewith, will exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent Person would exercise in comparable circumstances (the "Standard of Care"). In carrying out its obligations hereunder, the Manager may rely upon the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any counsel, auditor, valuer or certificates from officers of any of the other parties to Program Agreements. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, the Manager will not be required to give bond, surety or security in any jurisdiction for the performance of any duties or obligations hereunder. The Manager will not be required to devote its entire time to its duties hereunder. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary herein contained, nothing herein shall be interpreted or construed as an obligation of or on the part of the Manager, and the Manager shall not be liable or obligated, to pay or make any payment of, on or in respect of any debt, liability or obligation of the Issuer (including any payment of, on or in respect of any Issuer Funding Obligations or under any other Program Agreement), as agent for or on behalf of the Issuer or otherwise, except from the monies or funds of the Issuer which are made available to the Manager pursuant to this Agreement or the other Program Agreements for the purpose of such payment.

5.2 Compliance with Program Agreements; Conformity with Law

The Manager acknowledges that it has received copies of the Program Agreements, the Act and the Regulations in effect on the date hereof and is familiar with and understands the duties of the respective parties thereto or governed thereby, including those duties of the Issuer which are being delegated to the Manager hereunder. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Manager shall perform its duties hereunder in a manner consistent with any applicable provisions of the Program Agreements in effect from time to time, and the Manager will not, in performing its obligations hereunder, take any action which it knows or ought reasonably to know would cause it or the Issuer to be in violation of any law, rule or regulation applicable to it. The Manager will use reasonable commercial efforts to comply with the terms applicable to the Issuer when acting on its behalf under all Program Agreements and will use reasonable commercial efforts in accordance with its Standard of Care to take such actions as would reasonably be expected to result in the representations and warranties given by the Issuer in any Program Agreement being true and correct in all material respects when made.

5.3 Liabilities

Except as provided in Section 5.6,

(a) the Manager will not be liable for any liabilities of the Issuer; and

(b) subject to the payment priorities specified in the Program Agreements, the Issuer agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Manager from and against any and all liabilities which may be imposed on, incurred by or assessed against the Manager as a result of any act or omission of the Issuer or the Manager under this Agreement or under any Program Agreement; provided that this Section 5.3(b) does not apply to the extent that in any circumstances there has been wilful misconduct or gross negligence of the Manager or its respective officers, employees or agents or any failure to comply with the standard of care required under Section 5.1.

To the extent that a liability is attributable solely to a single Series or a number of specific Series of Issuer Funding Obligations, the Manager will first exhaust its recourse against the assets available for recovery of such liability and designated to such Series of Issuer Funding Obligations. If such assets are insufficient to satisfy the indemnity set out in this Section 5.3, or if the liability is not attributable to a single Series or a number of specific Series of Issuer Funding Obligations, the liability will be satisfied on a pro rata basis as among the assets available for recovery of such liability and designated to all Issuer Funding Obligations.

Each party expressly disclaims any intention to create a partnership, and neither the Issuer nor the Manager will be deemed to be carrying on business in partnership by reason of its execution and delivery of this Agreement or the exercise or performance by it of its respective rights and obligations hereunder.

5.4 Compensation of the Manager

In consideration of and as compensation for all services provided and duties performed by the Manager pursuant to this Agreement, the Issuer will pay to the Manager, subject to the payment priorities specified in the Program Agreements, the Management Fees. The Management Fees are exclusive of any applicable sales taxes and the Issuer shall pay to the Manager the amount of any applicable sales taxes in addition to such fees.

5.5 Compensation of the Issuer

In consideration of the Issuer engaging in the activities contemplated by the Act, the Manager will pay to the Issuer, on a monthly basis, the sum of $10 per month for any month or part thereof that the Issuer is engaged in such activities (the "Issuer Compensation"). The Issuer Compensation is exclusive of any applicable sales taxes and the Manager shall pay to the Issuer the amount of any applicable sales taxes in addition to the Issuer Compensation.

The Issuer and the Manager agree that in respect of any month that the Issuer has an amount payable to the Manager under Section 5.4 in an amount that is not less than $10 (plus the amount of any applicable sales taxes on the Issuer Compensation), the Manager's obligation to pay the compensation to the Issuer under this Section will be fully satisfied by way of setting-off $10 (plus the amount of any applicable sales taxes on the Issuer Compensation) of the amount payable by the Issuer to the Manager under Section 5.4 against the Manager's amount payable to the Issuer under this Section.

5.6 Indemnification by Manager

The Manager agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Issuer from and against any and all liabilities which may be imposed on, incurred by or assessed against the Issuer as the result of any wilful misconduct or gross negligence by the Manager, its officers, employees or agents or any failure to comply with the standard of care required under Section 5.1, provided that the Manager will have the exclusive right to compromise or defend, through counsel selected and retained by the Manager, any such liabilities or related claims at its own expense, which decision will be binding upon the Issuer. It is, however, expressly understood that the Manager is not agreeing to indemnify or hold the Issuer harmless with respect to any of the following:

(a) payments due on Issuer Funding Obligations or other amounts borrowed;

(b) any breach or failure to perform on the part of any other third party under any Program Agreement;

(c) any claim arising out of the assessment of any tax or payments in lieu of tax by a taxing authority against the Issuer;

(d) any amount for which the Issuer agrees to indemnify the Manager hereunder;

(e) any liability of the Issuer accruing after the termination of this Agreement unless attributable to the actions or omissions of the Manager prior to such termination;

(f) any losses of the Issuer arising due to risks inherent in the Issuer Investment Interest; or

(g) any statements or certificates provided by the Issuer to the effect that

(i) any Funding Obligation is consistent with the Financing Plan, or

(ii) the estimated Finance Amount that would have become due and payable in any Reference Period is expected to align with the Fair Allocation Amount determined in respect of such Reference Period.

It is further understood that the Manager is not agreeing to indemnify or hold harmless the Issuer Trustee with respect to any liabilities resulting from the failure of the Issuer Trustee to satisfy the standard of care set out in the Declaration of Trust. Where the Manager has assumed total defense of a claim, it shall agree to ensure that any settlement of such claim does not include any form of admission of liability on the part of the Issuer Trustee (in its personal capacity).

The Manager agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Indenture Trustee from and against any and all liabilities which may be imposed on, incurred by or asserted against the Indenture Trustee as the result of any wilful misconduct or gross negligence relating to the maintenance and custody by the Manager, as custodian, of the Investment Interest Records; provided that (a) the Manager will have the exclusive right to compromise or defend, through counsel selected and retained by the Manager, any such liabilities or related claims at its own expense, which decision will be binding upon the Indenture Trustee and (b) the Manager shall not be liable for any portion of any liability resulting from the wilful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence of the Indenture Trustee.

5.7 Contracting with Itself and Affiliates

In the exercise of its rights, duties and obligations, the Manager may, if it is acting in good faith, enter into, as Manager for the Issuer, agreements and other contracts to which the Manager, in its personal capacity, or an Affiliate of the Manager, is a party.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no termination shall be effective until a replacement manager that satisfies the Rating Agency Condition has been approved and has entered into a management agreement whereby the replacement manager agrees to assume, in substance, the obligations of the Manager hereunder. Upon the termination of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, the Manager will notify the Rating Agencies and, promptly and upon the request of the Issuer, deliver to the Issuer all

ARTICLE 8
MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Appointment of Manager as Attorney-in-Fact

Subject to any Program Agreement, the Issuer hereby irrevocably appoints the Manager as the Issuer's attorney-in-fact during the term of this Agreement, with full authority in the place and stead of and in the name of the Issuer or otherwise, including full power of substitution, from time to time in the Manager's discretion or as required by this Agreement, to take such actions on behalf of the Issuer as the Manager may deem necessary or advisable to comply with or effect the purposes of this Agreement and any Program Agreement including, without limitation, to execute any documents, instruments or certificates in connection therewith, to ask, demand, collect, sue for, recover, compound, receive and give acquittances and receipts for monies due or becoming due to the Issuer or otherwise owed thereto, to receive, endorse and collect any drafts or other instruments, documents and chattel paper in connection therewith, and to file any claims or take any action or institute any proceedings which the Manager may deem necessary or desirable for the collection thereof, or to enforce compliance with the terms and conditions of any Program Agreement.

8.2 Amendments and Waivers

The Manager will forthwith after the execution of any such instrument by the Issuer and the Manager provide the Rating Agencies with a copy of such instrument.

(b) No provision of this Agreement may be amended, supplemented, modified, restated or replaced in any material respect without first obtaining the written consent of the Indenture Trustee in accordance with the Indenture and such amendment, supplement, modification or replacement will only be effective if the Rating Agency Condition has been satisfied.

(c) No waiver of any provision of this Agreement, nor consent to any departure by any party therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by such party and such waiver or consent, if material, will only be effective if the Rating Agency Condition has been satisfied, and then said waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given. No failure on the part of any party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof.

8.3 Withholding Rights

The parties hereto shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from amounts payable under this Agreement such amounts as each is required to deduct and withhold with respect to such

To the extent that amounts are so withheld, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the recipient of the payment in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made, provided that such withheld amounts are actually remitted in accordance with applicable law to the appropriate taxing authority.

8.4 No Petition

The Manager hereby agrees that it will not, prior to the date that is one year and one day after the termination of the Indenture and payment in full of the Issuer Funding Obligations and any other amounts owed under the Indenture, institute or encourage against the Issuer, or join or acquiesce in any institution against the Issuer of, any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, winding-up or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under any federal or provincial bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law in connection with any obligations relating to this Agreement or any of the other Program Agreements. Each Unit will entitle the Unitholder of record thereof to one vote at all meetings of the Unitholders or in respect of any written resolution of the Unitholders. Each Unit, when issued, shall vest indefeasibly in the holder thereof.

The number of Units which the Trust may issue is unlimited. The issued and outstanding Units may be subdivided or consolidated from time to time by the Issuer Trustee without notice to or approval of the Unitholders. Unless the Issuer Trustee determines otherwise, immediately after any pro rata issuance of additional Units to all Unitholders pursuant to subsection 11.3(3), the number of outstanding Units will automatically be consolidated such that each such holder will hold after the consolidation the same number of Units as such holder held before the issuance of additional Units.

3.2 Consideration of Units

A Unit will not be fully paid until the consideration therefor has been received in full by or on behalf of the Trust. The consideration for any Unit will be paid in money or in property (including, without limitation, a debt instrument issued to the Trust) or in past services received by the Trust that are not less in value than the fair equivalent of the money that the Trust would have received if the Unit had been issued for money. In determining whether property or past services are the fair equivalent of consideration paid in money, the Issuer Trustee may take into account reasonable charges and expenses of organization and reorganization and payments for property and past services reasonably expected to benefit the Trust. In no case will a Unit be issued to a Designated Beneficiary.

3.3 No Pre-Emptive Rights

No Person shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to subscribe for or purchase any Units of the Trust. There are no pre-emptive rights attaching to the Units.

3.4 Fractional Units

If as a result of any act of the Issuer Trustee hereunder, any Person becomes entitled to a fraction of a Unit, such Person will not be entitled to receive a certificate therefor. Fractional Units will not, except to the extent that they may represent in the aggregate one or more whole Units, entitle the holders thereof to notice of or to attend or to vote at meetings of the Unitholders. Subject to the foregoing, such fractional Units will have attached thereto the rights, restrictions, conditions and limitations attaching to whole Units in the proportion that they bear to a whole Unit.

3.5 Allotment and Issue

Subject to Section 3.6, the Issuer Trustee may allot and issue Units at such time or times and in such manner (including pursuant to any plan from time to time in effect relating to reinvestment by the Unitholders of distributions of the Trust in Units) and to such Person, Persons or class of Persons as the Issuer Trustee in its sole discretion will determine. The price or the value of the consideration for which Units may be issued and the terms and conditions of issuance of the Units will be determined by the Issuer Trustee in its sole discretion. Not restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Issuer Trustee may accept amounts received from a Unitholder as a prepayment in respect of the obligation of the Unitholder to pay all or any part of the subscription price of Units to be issued at a later date by the Issuer Trustee. In such circumstances, such prepayment will form part of the Trust Property. In the event that Units are issued in whole or in part for a consideration other than money, the resolution of the Issuer Trustee allotting and issuing such Units will express the fair equivalent in money of the other consideration received.

3.6 Prohibited Issuances and Transfers

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision in this Declaration of Trust, at no time, may Units be issued or transferred to a Person who would be a "designated beneficiary" within the meaning of Part XII.2 of the ITA ("Designated Beneficiary"), and the Issuer Trustee will not accept a subscription for Units from, or issue or register a transfer of Units to, a Person unless the Person provides a declaration to the Issuer Trustee that it would not be a Designated Beneficiary and covenants to maintain such representation true for as long as it continues to hold one or more Units. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer Trustee determines that a Person has purported to become or remain a Unitholder in breach of the above mentioned declaration or covenant, or if the Unitholder fails to provide, upon request, a declaration in form and content satisfactory to the Issuer Trustee that it is not a Designated Beneficiary, (i) the Issuer Trustee will require such Person to dispose of the Units within a specified period not to exceed 60 days to a Person who does not contravene the above mentioned limitation on ownership ("New Holder"), and (ii) effective immediately prior to the breach, such Person will be deemed to have ceased to be a holder of such Units, the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units will be suspended and such Units will be deemed not to be outstanding until acquired by a New Holder (provided that holders of other Units will not be entitled to any portion of the distributions that may have been paid in respect of Units that have been so deemed not to be outstanding) and such Person's rights in respect of such Units will be limited to receiving the net proceeds of the sale thereof. If such Person has not, within such period, sold such Units or provided the Issuer Trustee with a declaration in form and content satisfactory to the Issuer Trustee that it is not a Designated Beneficiary, the Issuer Trustee may sell such Units on behalf of such Person (and the Issuer Trustee will have the power of attorney of such Person to do so), and such Person's rights in respect of such Units will be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates representing such Units.

(2) Subject to this section 3.6, and until the Issuer Trustee will have been required to do so under the terms hereof, the Issuer Trustee will not be bound to do or take any proceeding or action with respect to this section 3.6 by virtue of the powers conferred on it hereby. The Issuer Trustee will have the sole right and authority to make any determination required for the administration of the provisions of, or contemplated under this section 3.6, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the Issuer Trustee considers that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a contravention of the above mentioned limitation on ownership has occurred or may occur, the Issuer Trustee will make a determination with respect to the matter. Any such determination will be conclusive, final and binding for the purposes of this section 3.6 except to the extent modified by any subsequent determination by the Issuer Trustee. The Issuer Trustee may require declarations as to whether a Unitholder is a Designated Beneficiary or as to factual information that will enable the Issuer Trustee to determine whether a Unitholder or a prospective transferee of a Unit may be a Designated Beneficiary. In any situation where it is unclear whether Units may be held by a Person who may be a Designated Beneficiary, the Issuer Trustee may exercise its discretion in determining whether such Person is or is not a Designated Beneficiary, and any such exercise by it of its discretion will be binding for the purposes of this section 3.6.

3.7 Liability of Unitholders

No Unitholder of the Trust, in its capacity as such, will incur or be subject to any liability, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, in contract or in tort or of any other kind, to any Person in connection with: (i) the Trust Property or the ownership, use, operation, acquisition or disposition thereof or exercise or enjoyment of the rights, privileges, conditions or benefits attached thereto, associated therewith or derived therefrom; (ii) the obligations, liabilities, activities or affairs of the Trust; (iii) any actual or alleged act or omission of the Issuer Trustee or any other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); (iv) any actual or alleged act or omission of the Issuer Trustee or any other Person in the performance or exercise, or purported or attempted performance or exercise, of any obligation, power, discretion or authority conferred upon the Issuer Trustee or such other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); (v) any transaction entered into by the Issuer Trustee or by any other Person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); or (vi) any taxes, levies, imposts or charges or fines, penalties or interest in respect thereof payable by the Trust or by the Issuer Trustee or by any other Person (except the Unitholders to the extent required by applicable tax laws) on behalf of or in connection with the activities or affairs of the Trust. No Unitholder will be liable to indemnify the Issuer Trustee or any other Person with respect to any such liability or liabilities incurred by the Issuer Trustee or by any such other Person or Persons or with respect to any taxes payable by the Trust or by the Issuer Trustee or any other Person on behalf of or in connection with the Trust. To the extent that any such liabilities of the Unitholders may arise, they will be enforceable only against, and will be satisfied only out of, the Trust Property to the full extent of such liability and the costs of any litigation or other proceedings in which such liability will have been determined, including without limitation, the fees and disbursements of counsel.

ARTICLE 4
REDEMPTION OF UNITS

4.1 Redemption of Units

Each Unitholder will be entitled to require the Trust to redeem at any time and from time to time at the demand of such Unitholder all or any part of the Units held by such Unitholder as follows:

(1) The Unitholder will give notice in writing to the Trust at its head office of its intention to redeem Units and the number of Units to be redeemed.

(2) Upon receipt by the Trust of such notice from the Unitholder to redeem Units, the Unitholder will be entitled to receive, subject to subsection 4.1(3), an amount equal to the aggregate fair market value of such Units immediately before the redemption (the "Redemption Price") established by the Issuer Trustee, acting reasonably, payable by certified cheque or via wire transfer of funds.

(3) In the event that the Trust has insufficient funds to make the payment required pursuant to subsection 4.1(2) or such payment is restricted under the terms of the Indenture, the Trust will, subject to compliance with any regulatory requirements, distribute to the redeeming Unitholder in specie a proportionate amount of the Trust Property, the fair market value of which, as determined by the Issuer Trustee, acting reasonably, is equal to the Redemption Price. The amount of Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust Allocated on Redemption as contemplated by subsection 4.1(5) payable in connection with the redemption of Units shall be payable to the Unitholder in kind, and to the extent of the amount thereof, the Redemption Price of the Units being redeemed shall be reduced accordingly (the "Adjusted Redemption Price").

(4) Upon satisfaction of the Redemption Price or the Adjusted Redemption Price, as the case may be, the redeeming Unitholder will not be entitled to any rights or benefits, including voting and the right to receive distributions, in connection with the Units redeemed.

(5) Where the Trust distributes Trust Property in specie as contemplated in subsection 4.1(3), the Issuer Trustee shall designate and pay to the redeeming Unitholder such part of the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust as is realized by the Trust in connection with such in specie distribution, provided that the amount of the Net Realize Capital Gains on the Trust so allocated shall not exceed the amount, if any, by which the Redemption Price of the particular Units being redeemed exceeds the aggregate adjusted cost base of such Units to the Unitholder for the purpose of the ITA immediately before the redemption (the "Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust Allocated on Redemption"). If the total Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust Allocated on Redemption determined by the Issuer Trustee pursuant to the preceding sentence for all redeeming Unitholders in any taxation year exceeds the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for that year, the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for that taxation year shall be allocated rateably to all redeeming Unitholders for the year based on the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust Allocated on Redemption as otherwise determined pursuant to the preceding sentence. The Net Realized

Capital Gains of the Trust Allocated on Redemption designated and paid on the redemption of Units as determined under this subsection shall be deemed to be a distribution of Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for the particular taxation year in which the redemption occurs. If the Issuer Trustee is required to deduct or withhold an amount from such distribution, the Unitholder shall make the cash payment described in Section 11.7 to the Issuer Trustee on or prior to the date the Units are to be redeemed.

ARTICLE 5
RIGHTS AND POWERS OF ISSUER TRUSTEE

5.1 General Rights and Powers

Subject to the specific restrictions and limitations set forth in this Declaration of Trust and notwithstanding the provisions of the Trustee Act (Ontario) or any other similar legislation in any jurisdiction, the Issuer Trustee will have, without the necessity of authorization by, and free from any power or control on the part of, the Unitholders, full, exclusive and absolute power, control and authority over the Trust Property and the Trust Activities to the same extent as if the Issuer Trustee were the sole and absolute owner thereof in its own right including, without limitation, such power, control and authority to do all such acts and things as in its sole judgment and discretion are necessary, incidental or desirable for carrying on the Trust Activities in accordance with the Program Agreements with such powers of delegation as may be permitted by this Declaration of Trust, including the right, power and authority to amend this Declaration of Trust subject to and in accordance with the terms hereof and to appoint, employ or contract with any Person as the Issuer Trustee may deem necessary, appropriate or desirable for the transaction of the Trust Activities, including for the administration of the Trust. For greater certainty, the powers of the Issuer Trustee that may be exercised as aforesaid include the powers set forth in Section 5.2 to and including Section 5.18. The enumeration of any specific power or authority in this Declaration of Trust will not be construed as limiting the aforesaid power or authority or any other specific power or authority. Subject only to the express limitations contained in this Declaration of Trust, every discretion or power hereby conferred on the Issuer Trustee is an absolute and uncontrolled discretion or power.

5.2 Acquisition of Assets and Deposit of Funds

Subject to Section 2.1, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to acquire Investment Interests in accordance with the Program Agreements. Subject to compliance with the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to deposit any money forming part of the Trust Property with any bank (which bank may be an Affiliate of the Issuer Trustee) licensed under the laws of Canada or any trust company (which includes the Issuer Trustee) licensed under the laws of any province of Canada and to withdraw such deposits in accordance with the Program Agreements. The Issuer Trustee will have no liability for any loss which may occur by reason of the failure of any depository with whom such money has been deposited or for the depreciation of any investment.

5.3 Legal Title and Custody

The Issuer Trustee will have the power to cause any and all Trust Property to be held by and/or registered in the name of any Person.

5.4 Disposition of Trust Property

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to sell, convey, transfer and assign all Trust Property free and clear of any and all trusts hereby established, at public or private sale, for cash or on terms, with or without advertisement and subject to such restrictions, stipulations, agreements and reservations as it may deem proper.

5.5 Management of Trust Property

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to own, manage, use, invest and hold the Trust Property (including, without limitation, the power to make investments in Eligible Investments) and to enter into agreements in respect of the Trust Property or its use including, without limitation, agreements to modify, amend, extend, renew or terminate any grant or agreement relating to the Trust Property and to waive compliance with any of the terms and conditions thereof, all, in each case, without the approval of or notice to the Unitholders.

5.6 Power to Borrow Money and Issue Funding Obligations

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to:

(a) borrow or in any other manner raise money and to evidence the same by the issuance of Funding Obligations, by private placement, public offering or otherwise;

(b) reacquire or redeem Funding Obligations;

(c) execute and deliver any trust indenture or supplement thereto, security agreement, mortgage, pledge, hypothec, assignment or other instrument to secure Funding Obligations, and amendments, modifications, restatements or replacements thereof, whether by fixed or floating charge or by assignment or by the granting of a security interest, free and clear of any and all trusts hereby established and, in lieu of or in addition to granting any security, to grant to any Person a negative pledge whereby the Issuer Trustee agrees not to encumber any Trust Property and such other covenants as may be consistent with those set out in the Program Agreements or as may otherwise be specified by any applicable Rating Agency in accordance with the foregoing; and

(d) execute and/or deliver any agreement, instrument, certificate, direction or other document necessary or desirable in order to permit or give effect to the provisions of this Section 5.6, including, without limitation, prospectuses, offering memoranda, regulatory filings, dealer agreements, Underwriting Agreements, subscription agreements, letters of representation, consent letters, and any instruments ancillary thereto.

5.7 Hedging Agreements

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to enter into Hedging Agreements in connection with or related to the borrowing or other raising of money by the Issuer Trustee or the purchase or ownership of Investment Interests, provided that such Hedging Agreements may be entered into only at or prior to the time that such securities are sold, or such borrowing, other raising of money or purchase takes place, as applicable, or as otherwise expressly permitted in the Management Agreement; provided, however, that amendments, modifications or novations of or to a Hedging Agreement may be entered into at any time after the original Hedging Agreement was executed.

5.8 Execution of Instruments

Every deed, transfer, assignment, hypothec, agreement, certificate, direction, instrument, prospectus, or any other document which is necessary or desirable to be executed by the Trust, including, without limitation, any document evidencing Funding Obligations or relating to the issuance of Funding Obligations, will be signed on behalf of the Trust by the Issuer Trustee or its duly appointed agent, including the Manager.

5.9 Facsimile Signatures

The Issuer Trustee may authorize the use of facsimile signatures on the documents evidencing Funding Obligations, provided, however, that where facsimile signatures are so used, documents evidencing Funding Obligations will be manually countersigned or certified by a transfer agent, trustee, registrar or similar Person. If a Funding Obligation contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a Person, the Issuer Trustee may issue the Funding Obligation notwithstanding that the Person has ceased to be a director, officer or signing officer of the Issuer Trustee, and the Funding Obligation will be as valid as if the Person were a director, an officer or a signing officer at the date of its issue.

5.10 Taxes

The Issuer Trustee will have the power to pay all taxes or assessments of whatever kind or nature imposed upon the Issuer Trustee and/or the Trust in connection with the Trust Property or the Trust Activities or upon or against the income from the Trust Activities or any part thereof, to settle and compromise disputed tax liabilities and, for the foregoing purposes, to make such returns and do all such other acts and things as may be deemed by the Issuer Trustee necessary or desirable. The Issuer Trustee will have the power to deduct and remit any taxes which are required by law to be deducted and remitted from any payment made by the Issuer Trustee under any Program Agreements or otherwise.

5.11 Collection

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to:

(a) collect, receive, give receipts for and sue for all sums of money or other property due to the Trust;

(b) consent to extensions of time for payment of, or the renewal of, any securities or obligations of the Trust;

(c) engage or intervene in, prosecute, defend, compound, compromise, abandon or adjust by arbitration or otherwise deal with or settle any actions, suits, proceedings, disputes, claims, demands or things relating to the Trust Property or the Trust Activities;

(d) exercise any and all remedies available to it under any Program Agreements or otherwise, including any power of foreclosure or sale available to the Issuer Trustee at law or pursuant to any agreement and, in connection with any such foreclosure or sale, to purchase or otherwise acquire title to any property and to convey good title thereto free of any and all trusts hereby established, or to take or retake possession of any property secured or unsecured thereunder or such other security;

(e) extend the time, with or without security, for the payment or delivery of any debts or property and to execute and enter into releases, agreements and other instruments; and

(f) pay or satisfy any debts or claims upon any evidence that the Issuer Trustee determines to be sufficient.

5.12 Expenses and Compensation of Issuer Trustee

(a) The Issuer Trustee will have the power to incur and make payment of any charges or expenses which in the opinion of the Issuer Trustee are necessary or incidental to or proper for carrying out any of the purposes of this Declaration of Trust and the Trust Activities, and to pay appropriate compensation or fees from the Trust Property to Persons with whom the Trust has contracted or transacted business including, without limitation, any charges, expenses, compensation or fees payable under or in connection with the Program Agreements.

(b) The Issuer Trustee will be entitled to be paid from the funds of the Trust, without any requirement of a passing of accounts in respect thereof or approval of the Unitholders, such fees as the Issuer Trustee and the Manager may agree to from time to time for its services hereunder and all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Issuer Trustee in the administration or execution of the trusts hereby created (including the reasonable compensation and the disbursements of its counsel and all other advisers and assistants not regularly in its employ) until all the duties of the Issuer Trustee under the trusts hereby created shall be finally and fully performed, except any such expense, disbursement or advance as may arise from or in connection with the dishonesty, bad faith, wilful misconduct, negligence or reckless disregard of any duty or the failure to comply with the standard of care referred to in Section 7.1 by the Issuer Trustee, its officers, employees or agents. All such amounts will be payable at such times as the Issuer Trustee and the Manager may agree from time to time. All such amounts shall be exclusive of any applicable taxes and any applicable taxes shall be paid to the Issuer Trustee in addition to such amounts. Any amount not paid when due shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the rate designated by the Issuer Trustee as the then current rate charged by the Issuer Trustee or its successors from time to time to its corporate customers, payable on demand. After default and unless otherwise provided in the Indenture and any documents contemplated thereunder, all amounts so payable and the interest thereon shall be payable out of any funds coming into the possession of the Issuer Trustee or its successors in the trusts hereunder in priority to any payments to other Specified Creditors.

5.13 Allocation

The Issuer Trustee will have the power to determine conclusively whether money or other assets received by the Trust or expenses or disbursements made by the Trust will be charged or credited to income or capital or allocated between income and capital, provided, however, that such determination will not be inconsistent with calculation of income in accordance with the ITA at the time the determination is made.

5.14 Fiscal Year and Form of Accounts

The fiscal year of the Trust will end on December 31. The Issuer Trustee will have the power to determine and from time to time change the method or form in which the accounts of the Trust will be kept, provided such method or form reasonably complies with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles as applicable from time to time.

5.15 Power to Contract

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to appoint, employ or contract with any Person as the Issuer Trustee may deem necessary or desirable for the transaction of the Trust Activities and may transfer assets to such Person and, save and except for such matters as are listed in Section 2.2, delegate to such Person any or all of the discretionary powers given to the Issuer Trustee with respect to the management of the Trust Property. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to:

(a) enter into, execute, deliver, perform the obligations of the Trust under, and grant security as provided for in, the Program Agreements;

(b) appoint, employ or contract with the Manager or any other Person who, under the supervision of the Manager, may, among other things: (i) furnish and supervise or cause to be furnished and supervised the performance of the clerical and administrative services necessary to the administration of the Trust and the Trust

Property including, without limitation, the provision of office space, office equipment and personnel for the performance of such services, property management, administration and servicing, the maintenance of documents, books and Records for the Trust (including those described in Section 8.1), the receipt and disbursement of Trust Property, the servicing and payment of debt and other obligations and generally all matters relating to the obtaining of and the administration and servicing of Trust Property, including, without limitation, as provided in the Management Agreement; (ii) serve as an advisor to the Issuer Trustee, furnish reports to the Issuer Trustee and provide research, economic and statistical data in connection with the Trust Activities; (iii) act as consultant, accountant, correspondent, lender, technical advisor, counsel, broker and dealer, underwriter, fiscal agent, corporate fiduciary, escrow agent, depository, custodian or agent for collection from obligors, loan administrator, appraiser, bank, insurer or insurance agent, transfer agent or registrar or issuing and paying agent for Funding Obligations or in any other capacity deemed by the Issuer Trustee necessary or desirable; (iv) act as attorney or agent in the purchase or sale or other disposition of the Trust Property or the property secured thereby and the handling, prosecution or settling of any claims of the Trust and assist in the performance of such functions necessary in the management of the Trust as may be agreed upon with the Issuer Trustee; and (v) execute and deliver the Program Agreements. For greater certainty, the appointment by the Issuer Trustee of the Manager under the Management Agreement will, where applicable, be deemed to constitute adequate supervision by the Issuer Trustee for purposes of the Trustee Act (Ontario) and this Declaration of Trust of any Person thereby engaged in connection with the foregoing activities; and

(c) investigate, select and conduct negotiations with Persons acting in the capacities referred to in Section 5.15(b) and pay appropriate fees to, and enter into appropriate contracts with, employ or retain the services of, any of them in connection with the Trust Property or property secured thereby, other assets and any security related thereto funded, acquired, sold or otherwise disposed of, or committed, negotiated or contemplated to be funded, acquired, sold, or otherwise disposed of in connection with Funding Obligations.

5.16 Indemnification

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to indemnify or enter into agreements with respect to indemnification with any Person with whom the Issuer Trustee or the Trust deals to such extent as the Issuer Trustee determines necessary or desirable.

5.17 Further Powers

Subject to Section 2.1, the Issuer Trustee will have the power to perform and do all such other acts and things and to execute itself (or have executed by any Person appointed by it pursuant to Section 5.15) all such deeds, transfers, assignments, hypothecs, agreements, certificates, directions, instruments or other documents whatsoever as it deems necessary, proper or desirable in order to carry on the Trust Activities in accordance with and subject to the Program Agreements notwithstanding that such acts, things, deeds, transfers, assignments, hypothecs, agreements, certificates, directions, instruments or other documents are not herein specifically mentioned. Any determination as to what is necessary, proper or desirable in order to carry on the Trust Activities in accordance with the Program Agreements or otherwise, provided it is made by the Issuer Trustee honestly and in good faith, will be conclusive. Any construction of this Declaration of Trust or the existence of any power or authority hereunder, made honestly and in good faith by the Issuer Trustee upon the advice of counsel, will be conclusive to the extent consistent with the law. In construing the provisions of this Declaration of Trust, there will be a presumption in favour of a grant of power to the Issuer Trustee.

5.18 Auditors

In accordance with and subject to the terms of the Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee will have the power from time to time to select and appoint and discharge and reappoint an auditor of the Trust in its discretion and to negotiate and fix the fees of any such auditor.

5.19 Defect in Appointment

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, no action taken by the Issuer Trustee will be invalid by reason only of any defect that is thereafter discovered in its appointment.

5.20 Status

The Issuer Trustee shall not have the status of bankrupt and shall be resident in Canada for purposes of the ITA.

ARTICLE 6
REPLACEMENT OF ISSUER TRUSTEE

6.1 Resignation of Issuer Trustee

(a) If the Issuer Trustee desires to resign and be discharged from the trusts and powers reposed in or conferred on it by this Declaration of Trust, it will provide 120 days written notice (or such shorter period of notice as the Unitholders , the Indenture Trustee and the Rating Agencies may agree to) thereof to the Unitholders, the Indenture Trustee and the Rating Agencies provided that no such voluntary resignation shall be effective until a replacement Issuer Trustee acceptable to the Unitholders and the Indenture Trustee has been appointed and has executed a written agreement whereby such replacement Issuer Trustee agrees to assume the obligations of the Issuer Trustee hereunder, under the Program Agreements and under any other contract pursuant to which the Issuer Trustee is obligated.

(b) The Issuer Trustee shall resign if a material conflict of interest arises in its role as a trustee under this Declaration of Trust that is not eliminated within 90 days after the Issuer Trustee becomes aware that it has such a material conflict of interest. Forthwith after the Issuer Trustee becomes aware that it has such a material conflict of interest, it shall provide the Unitholders, the Indenture Trustee and the Rating Agencies with written notice of the nature of such material conflict of interest. Upon such resignation, the Issuer Trustee shall (subject to Section 6.6) be discharged from its office under this Declaration of Trust. If, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.1(b), the Issuer Trustee has such a material conflict of interest, the validity and enforceability of this Declaration of Trust and any agreement entered into by the Issuer Trustee shall not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only of the existence of such material conflict of interest. If the Issuer Trustee contravenes the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.1(b), the Unitholders, may apply, on notice to the Rating Agencies, to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order that the Issuer Trustee be replaced as Issuer Trustee hereunder.

6.2 Removal of Issuer Trustee

The Issuer Trustee may be removed from its office under this Declaration of Trust by the Unitholders, at any time by notice in writing delivered to the Issuer Trustee not less than 90 days prior to the date that such removal is to take effect.

6.3 Vacancy

In the event of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the Issuer Trustee or the inability of the Issuer Trustee to exercise its duties under this Declaration of Trust, the Unitholders may forthwith terminate the term of office of the Issuer Trustee as trustee and, in such instance, a vacancy will occur. No vacancy (including upon a resignation of the Issuer Trustee pursuant to Section 6.1(b)) shall operate to annul this Declaration of Trust or affect the continuity of the Trust or terminate the appointment of the Manager under the Management Agreement.

6.4 Appointment of New Issuer Trustee

If, pursuant to this Article 6, the Issuer Trustee resigns or a vacancy occurs in the office of the Issuer Trustee for any reason, the Unitholders may by instrument in writing appoint a Trust Company, which either (i) has risk-based capital of at least $50,000,000 or, in the case of an entity that is not subject to risk-based capital adequacy requirements, has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000; or (ii) has been approved in writing by each Rating Agency prior to its appointment by the Unitholders, in order to replace the Issuer Trustee. If the Unitholders fails to make such appointment within 60 days of the occurrence of any such resignation, removal or vacancy, then the Issuer Trustee may make an application, on notice to the Rating Agencies, to a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint a successor Issuer Trustee hereunder. If the Issuer Trustee elects not to make such an application, the Unitholders may do so on notice to the Rating Agencies. The expense of any act, document, deed or other instrument or thing required under this Section 6.4 will be satisfied from the Trust Property.

6.5 Merger, Consolidation and Amalgamation

Any company into which the Issuer Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated or amalgamated, or any company resulting from any merger, consolidation or amalgamation to which the Issuer Trustee is a party or any company succeeding to the corporate trust business of the Issuer Trustee will be a successor Issuer Trustee under this Declaration of Trust without any further action on the part of the Issuer Trustee, provided that such company shall be a Trust Company.

6.6 Vesting in Successor Issuer Trustee

Any successor Issuer Trustee will become vested with all the estates, properties, rights, powers, duties, responsibilities and trusts of its predecessors in the trusts hereunder as if it had been originally named as Issuer Trustee pursuant to this Declaration of Trust. In furtherance of the foregoing, upon written request of the successor Issuer Trustee, the Issuer Trustee ceasing to act will do, make, execute, deliver or cause to be done, made, executed or delivered all such acts, documents, deeds or other instruments and things as may be necessary or desirable in order to more effectively assign, transfer and deliver to, and vest in, the successor Issuer Trustee, upon the trusts herein expressed, all the rights, powers and trusts of, and all property and money held by the Issuer Trustee so ceasing to act. The expense of any act, document, deed or other instrument or thing required under this Section 6.6 will be satisfied from the Trust Property.

6.7 Confidentiality

At all times (including, without limitation, at any time the Issuer Trustee should resign or be discharged from the trusts and powers reposed in or conferred on it by this Declaration of Trust), the Issuer Trustee (or the trustee so resigning and being discharged, as the case may be) will treat as confidential all information relating to the Trust, the Trust Activities and the transactions contemplated by the Program Agreements obtained by it in its capacity as Issuer Trustee.

6.8 Right to Disclose

The Issuer Trustee shall have the right to disclose any information disclosed or released to it if in the opinion of legal counsel to the Issuer Trustee it is required to disclose under any applicable laws, court order or directions of Governmental Authorities or if it is requested by a Rating Agency. The Issuer Trustee shall not be responsible or liable to any party for any loss or damage arising out of or in any way sustained or incurred or in any way relating to such disclosure.

ARTICLE 7
STANDARD OF CARE, LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF ISSUER TRUSTEE AND OTHER MATTERS

7.1 Standard of Care

The Issuer Trustee will exercise its powers and carry out its obligations hereunder as Issuer Trustee honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders and in connection therewith will exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent Person would exercise in comparable circumstances. To the extent that the Issuer Trustee has delegated or subcontracted the performance of all or a portion of its duties to the Manager as contemplated by Section 5.15, it will be deemed to have satisfied the aforesaid standard of care. Unless otherwise required by law, the Issuer Trustee will not be required to give bond, surety or security in any jurisdiction for the performance of any duties or obligations hereunder. The Issuer Trustee will not be required to devote its entire time to the Trust Activities. For greater certainty, the entering into of any Program Agreement by the Trust and the performance by the Trust of its obligations thereunder will be deemed to be in the best interests of the Unitholders and the Trust.

7.2 Limitation of Liability of Issuer Trustee

The Issuer Trustee has entered into this Declaration of Trust solely in its capacity as trustee of the Trust and not in its personal capacity, and any and all of the representations, warranties, undertakings, covenants, indemnities, agreements and other obligations made on the part of the Issuer Trustee herein are made and intended not as personal representations, warranties, undertakings, covenants, indemnities, agreements and other obligations by the Issuer Trustee or for the purpose or with the intention of binding the Issuer Trustee in its personal capacity, but are made and intended for the purpose of binding only the Trust Property or a specific portion thereof. No property or assets of the Issuer Trustee, whether owned beneficially by it in its personal capacity or otherwise (other than the Trust Property), will be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedures with regard to any of the representations, warranties, undertakings, covenants, indemnities, agreements and other obligations of the Trust or the Issuer Trustee hereunder, and no recourse may be had or taken, directly or indirectly, against the Issuer Trustee in its personal capacity, any Unitholder or any Affiliate, shareholder, director, officer, representative, employee or agent of the Issuer Trustee or any predecessor or successor of the Issuer Trustee with regard to the representations, warranties, undertakings, covenants, indemnities, agreements and other obligations of the Trust or the Issuer Trustee hereunder; provided that the foregoing limitation will not apply in respect of any action or failure to act arising from or in connection with the wilful misconduct, negligence or the failure to comply with the standard of care referred to in Section 7.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 7, but subject to the Indenture, each Specified Creditor is entitled to recourse to the Trust Property to satisfy in full the obligations of the Trust to it even if the Issuer Trustee has no right, or only an impaired right, to seek indemnification from the Trust Property or to apply the Trust Property in satisfaction of such obligations.

7.3 Indemnification of the Issuer Trustee

The Issuer Trustee, its directors, officers, agents, representatives and employees will at all times be indemnified and saved harmless out of the Trust Property from and against all claims (including any claim arising out of the assessment of any tax on income by a taxing authority), demands, levies, penalties, suits, losses, actions, causes of action, costs, charges, fees and expenses, damages and liabilities whatsoever, including, without limitation, those arising out of or related to actions taken or omitted to be taken by any agent of the Issuer Trustee, including, without limitation, the Manager, as contemplated hereby, legal fees and disbursements on a substantial indemnity basis and costs and expenses incurred in connection with the enforcement of this indemnity (each, a "Claim"), which the Issuer Trustee, its directors, officers, representatives and employees may suffer or incur, whether at law or in equity, in any way caused by or arising, directly or indirectly, in respect of any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever made, done, acquiesced in or omitted in or about or in relation to the execution of its duties as Issuer Trustee or which it sustains or incurs in or about or in relation to the Trust Property and the Trust Activities. Further, the Issuer Trustee will not be liable to the Trust, to any Unitholder or to any other Person for any loss or damage relating to any matter regarding the Trust, including any loss or diminution in the value of the Trust Property. The foregoing provisions of this Section 7.3 do not apply to the extent that in any circumstances there has been wilful misconduct, gross negligence or the failure to comply with standard of care referred to in Section 7.1 on the part of the Issuer Trustee, its directors, officers, agents, representatives or employees excluding the other parties to the Program Agreements. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, this indemnity will survive the removal or resignation of the Issuer Trustee, the termination of this Declaration of Trust and the termination of any trust created hereby.

7.4 Reliance upon Advice

The Issuer Trustee may rely and act upon any statement, notice, report or opinion prepared by or any advice received from the Manager or from the auditors, counsel or other professional advisors of the Issuer Trustee and will not be responsible or held liable for any loss or damage resulting from so relying or acting if the Issuer Trustee acted reasonably and in good faith relied upon the advice received and if the professional advisor was aware that the Issuer Trustee was receiving the advice in its capacity as Issuer Trustee. The Issuer Trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the Trust Property for all costs, charges and expenses it incurs in connection with obtaining any such statement, notice, report, opinion or advice. The Issuer Trustee is entitled to rely and act upon the genuineness and authenticity of any writing submitted to it that it in good faith believes to be genuine.

7.5 Retain Experts

The Issuer Trustee may appoint such agents and employ or retain such counsel, accountants, engineers, appraisers or other experts or advisers as it may reasonably require for the purpose of discharging its duties hereunder and shall not be responsible for any misconduct on the part of any of them. The Issuer Trustee may pay remuneration out of the Trust Property for all services performed for it in the discharge of the trusts hereof without taxation for costs or fees of any counsel, solicitor or attorney.

7.6 Reliance on Experts

The Issuer Trustee may act and rely and shall be protected in acting in good faith on the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any agent, counsel, accountant, engineer, appraiser or other expert or adviser in relation to any matter arising in the performance of its duties under the Program Agreements.

7.7 Provisions Regarding Liability

Any written instrument creating an obligation of the Issuer Trustee will be conclusively deemed to have been executed by the Issuer Trustee only in its capacity as Issuer Trustee. Any written instrument creating an obligation of the Issuer Trustee will contain a provision to the effect that the obligations thereunder are not binding upon the Issuer Trustee except in its capacity as Issuer Trustee, nor will recourse be had to the property of the Issuer Trustee except in its capacity as Issuer Trustee, but that the Trust Property or a specific portion thereof only will be bound, and may at the request of the Issuer Trustee make specific provision to the foregoing effect and contain any further provisions which the Issuer Trustee may deem appropriate, but the omission of any such provisions will not operate to invalidate any such instrument or to impose liability on the Issuer Trustee, except as aforesaid. The Issuer Trustee shall not be required to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of its duties hereunder.

ARTICLE 8
RECORDS

8.1 Records to be Kept

The Issuer Trustee will keep or cause to be kept at the head office of the Trust a copy of this Declaration of Trust, a register of Unitholders, minutes of meetings and resolutions of Unitholders, minutes of meetings and resolutions of the Issuer Trustee, and such Records as are by law or good business practice necessary. The Records may be kept at the office of any Person whom the Issuer Trustee has appointed to maintain the same, provided that the Issuer Trustee has access to the Records on one Business Day's notice to such Person.

8.2 Segregation of Assets

The Issuer Trustee shall maintain the Trust Property separate from all other property in its possession.

8.3 Method of Keeping Records

Where this Declaration of Trust requires the Issuer Trustee to cause a Record to be kept, it may be kept in bound or loose-leaf form or by means of a mechanical, electronic or other device.

8.4 Annual Financial Statements

A copy of the annual financial statements of the Trust, signed by the Issuer Trustee, shall be mailed or otherwise made available within 120 days following the end of a fiscal year to which they relate to each Unitholder. The financial statements shall include all information required to be included in annual financial statements of the Trust by applicable laws.

ARTICLE 9
MEETINGS OF UNITHOLDERS AND DECISION OF UNITHOLDERS

9.1 Annual Meeting

There will not be an annual meeting of the Unitholders.

9.2 Other Meetings

The Issuer Trustee will have power at any time to call meetings of the Unitholders at such time and place as the Issuer Trustee may determine. Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than a majority of the outstanding Units may requisition the Issuer Trustee in writing to call a meeting of the Unitholders for the purposes stated in the requisition. The requisition shall state in reasonable detail the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting and will be sent to the Issuer Trustee at the address of the Issuer Trustee. Upon receiving the requisition, the Issuer Trustee will call a meeting of the Unitholders to transact the business referred to in the requisition. If the Issuer

Trustee does not within 10 days after receiving the requisition call a meeting, any Unitholder who signed the requisition may call the meeting.

9.3 Quorum and Voting

A quorum for any meeting of the Unitholders will be persons present being Unitholders or representing by proxy Unitholders who hold in the aggregate a majority of the total number of outstanding Units. Unitholders may attend and vote at all meetings of the Unitholders either in person or by proxy. Each Unit will be entitled to one vote at all meetings of the Unitholders. Any action to be taken by the Unitholders will, except as otherwise required by this Declaration of Trust, or by law, be authorized when approved by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Unitholders. The chairman of any such meeting will not have a second or casting vote.

9.4 Written Resolution

Any business which may be conducted at a meeting of the Unitholders may be approved by a resolution in writing in lieu thereof. Notice of such resolution will be given to all Unitholders and approval of such resolution will be evidenced by the signature on any such resolution or counterpart thereof by the required percentage of Unitholders for the matter to be determined.

ARTICLE 10
AMENDMENT

10.1 Amendment

Subject to Section 2.1 and compliance with the terms of the applicable Program Agreements, the Issuer Trustee may, from time to time, amend, vary, supplement, replace or restate the provisions of this Declaration of Trust without the consent or approval of the Unitholders or any court as follows:

(a) to the extent deemed necessary by the Issuer Trustee in good faith to be necessary to ensure compliance with, or to remove any conflicts or other inconsistencies which may exist between any term of this Declaration of Trust and the provisions of, any applicable law in effect from time to time;

(b) to the extent deemed necessary by the Issuer Trustee in good faith to be necessary to make any change or correction in this Declaration of Trust which is a typographical change or correction or which the Issuer Trustee has been advised by legal counsel is required for the purpose of curing any ambiguity or defect or inconsistent provision or clerical omission or mistake or manifest error contained herein, or

(c) subject to the satisfaction of the Rating Agency Condition, to the extent deemed necessary or desirable in the sole discretion of the Issuer Trustee to permit or facilitate the carrying on of the Trust Activities, including the accommodation of requests made by the Rating Agencies or regulatory authorities in relation to the issuance of Funding Obligations.

However, any such amendment may be made only if it will not materially adversely affect the interest of any Unitholder, unless that Unitholder has also approved of the amendment in writing. The Issuer Trustee will immediately upon the entering into thereof, provide the Rating Agencies and the Indenture Trustee with a copy of any amendment, variation, supplement, replacement or restatement of this Declaration of Trust.

10.2 Automatic Amendment

Upon the Issuer Trustee ceasing to be a trustee of the Trust, this Declaration of Trust will be automatically amended to delete any reference to the name of the trustee so ceasing to be a trustee of the Trust and to substitute therefor the name of the successor trustee of the Trust. Notice of any change in the Issuer Trustee may be endorsed upon or attached to this Declaration of Trust and signed by the successor Issuer Trustee and every such notice will be sufficient evidence to any Person dealing with the Issuer Trustee under this Declaration of Trust as to the facts to which it relates.

10.3 Supplemental Declaration of Trust

The Issuer Trustee is authorized to execute any supplemental declaration of trust to give effect to amendments to this Declaration of Trust made pursuant to this Article 10. The Issuer Trustee shall not be obligated to enter into any such supplemental declaration if it adversely affects the Issuer Trustee's rights, duties or immunities under this Declaration of Trust or otherwise. No amendment to or amendment and restatement of this Declaration of Trust, whether pursuant to this Article 10 or otherwise, shall be construed as a termination of the Trust or the settlement or establishment of a new trust.

ARTICLE 11
DISTRIBUTION OF TRUST PROPERTY

11.1 Distributions

(1) The Issuer Trustee may declare to be payable and make distributions, from time to time, out of Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust, capital of the Trust or otherwise, in any year, in such amount or amounts, and on such dates as the Issuer Trustee may determine, to the Unitholders at the record date for such distribution. The Issuer Trustee may declare such amounts to be payable or authorize such distributions in advance by way of a standing resolution that is effective for a period not exceeding 12 months after the date of the resolution.

(2) Where the Trust proposes to distribute Trust Property in specie to a redeeming Unitholder as contemplated in subsection 4.1(3), and the Issuer Trustee reasonably expects that such in specie distribution will give rise to Income of the Trust and / or Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust in excess of the amount of the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust Allocated on Redemption to the particular Unitholder whose Units are being redeemed (collectively, the "Excess Income on Redemption"), the Issuer Trustee shall declare to be payable and make a distribution, on the record date that is one Business Day before the redemption, to Unitholders at such record date in an amount equal to the estimated Excess Income on Redemption. Such distribution will be satisfied by the issuance of additional Units, or fractions of Units, having a fair market value equal to the amount of such distribution. If the Issuer Trustee is required to deduct or withhold an amount from such distribution, the applicable Unitholder shall make the cash payment described in Section 11.7 to the Issuer Trustee on or prior to the date the distribution.

(3) If the Issuer Trustee declares to be payable or makes a distribution pursuant to subsections 11.1(1) or 11.1(2) without determining the portion of such distribution that is payable out of Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust, capital of the Trust or otherwise, such allocation shall be made pursuant to subsection 11.2(2).

(4) Having regard to the present intention of the Issuer Trustee to make payable to Unitholders all of the Income of the Trust and Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for each taxation year so that the Trust will not have any liability for tax under Part I of the ITA in any taxation year (other than alternative minimum tax or taxes payable under the "SIFT trust" rules in the ITA), unless the Issuer Trustee, in its sole discretion determines otherwise, the following amounts will, without any further actions on the part of the Issuer Trustee, be due and payable to the Unitholders of record on the last day in each such taxation year:

(a) an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the Income of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of (A) the aggregate of the portions of the distributions paid or payable by the Trust which have been determined by the Issuer Trustee to have been payable by the Trust out of the Income of the Trust for such year, if any, and (B) the aggregate of the portions of distributions deemed by subsection 11.2(2)(a) to be paid or payable by the Trust out of the Income of the Trust for such year; and

(b) an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of (A) any amount of the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust Allocated on Redemption for the year payable to redeeming Unitholders pursuant to subsection 4.1(5), (B) the aggregate of the portions of the distributions paid or payable by the Trust which have been determined by the Issuer Trustee to have been payable by the Trust out of Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for such year, if any, and (C) the aggregate of the portions of distributions deemed by subsection 11.2(2)(b) to be paid or payable by the Trust out of the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for such year, if any.

Any determinations by the Issuer Trustee not to make a distribution described in this subsection 11.1(4) must be exercised by the Issuer Trustee in writing prior to December 31 of the applicable taxation year.

(5) The proportionate share of each Unit of the amount of any distribution made pursuant to this section will be determined by dividing such amount by the number of issued and outstanding Units on the applicable record date in respect of a distribution pursuant to subsections 4.1(5), 11.1(1) or 11.1(2) and on the last day of the taxation year in respect of a distribution pursuant to subsection 11.1(4). Each Unitholder's share of the amount of any such distribution will be an amount equal to the proportionate share of each Unit of such amount multiplied by the number of Units owned of record by each such Unitholder on such applicable record date or the last day of the taxation year, as the case may be, and such Unitholder shall, on such date, be entitled to enforce payment of the Unitholder's share. Subject to subsections 4.1(5) and 11.1(2) and section 11.3, amounts which are payable to Unitholders will be paid in cash.

11.2 Allocation

(1) Subject to subsection 11.2(2), distributions payable to the Unitholders pursuant to Article 11 will be deemed to be distributions of Income of the Trust (including dividends), Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust, returns of capital of the Trust or other items in such amount as the Issuer Trustee in its absolute discretion determines and will be allocated to the Unitholders in the same proportions as distributions received by the Unitholders.

(2) If the Issuer Trustee has declared to be payable or made one or more distributions in a taxation year pursuant to subsection 11.1(1) without determining the portion of such distributions that is payable out of Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust, capital of the Trust or otherwise, such distributions shall be deemed to be paid or payable out of:

(a) first, the Income of the Trust for such year to the extent, if any, that the Income of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of the amounts in subsection 11.1(4)(a)(A);

(b) second, the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for such year to the extent, if any, that the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of the amounts in subsection 11.1(4)(b)(A) and 11.1(4)(b)(B); and

(c) as to any balance, the capital of the Trust; and such amounts will be allocated to the Unitholders in the same proportions as such distributions were received by the Unitholders.

(3) For greater certainty it is hereby declared that any distribution of Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust will include the non-taxable portion of the capital gains of the Trust which are included in such distribution.

11.3 Payment of Distributions

(1) Distributions to a Unitholder (other than distributions described in subsections 4.1(5) and 11.1(2)) will be made by cash, wire transfer or cheque payable to or to the order of the Unitholder or by such other manner provided for in subsection 11.3(3). The payment, if made by cheque, will be conclusively deemed to have been made upon hand delivery of a cheque to the Unitholder or to its agent duly authorized in writing or upon the mailing of a cheque by prepaid first-class mail addressed to the Unitholder at its address set out in the records of the Issuer Trustee unless the cheque is not paid on presentation, or in any other manner determined by the Issuer Trustee in its discretion. The Issuer Trustee may issue a replacement cheque if it is satisfied that the original cheque has not been received or has been lost or destroyed upon being furnished with such evidence of loss, indemnity or other document in connection therewith that the Issuer Trustee may in its discretion consider necessary.

(2) The Issuer Trustee may, in its sole discretion, transfer temporarily from capital to income within the Trust sufficient cash to facilitate payments of Income of the Trust to Unitholders. A permanent transfer from capital to income may be effected if payments made by and /or expenses of the Trust in any year exceed the aggregate of the net income and Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust in such year.

(3) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a distribution to a Unitholder may be paid (i) by the issuance of additional Units, or fractions of Units having a fair market value equal to the amount of such distribution, (ii) by the issuance of a promissory note for a principal amount equal to the amount of such distribution and/or (iii) in specie by the transfer of Trust Property having a fair market value equal to the amount of such distribution, all as may be determined by the Issuer Trustee, acting reasonably. The Issuer Trustee acknowledges and agrees that it will elect to make payment to a Unitholder of the amount of a distribution in the manner described in this subsection 11.3(3) only if it has received prior written notice from the Unitholder that such payment method is acceptable, and the Unitholder makes the cash payment described in Section 11.7 to the Issuer Trustee, which written notice may be revoked in writing by the Unitholder at any time. If the Issuer Trustee elects to make payment of the amount of a distribution by the issuance of a promissory note, such promissory note shall bear interest at a fixed or floating rate, shall be repayable on demand or on the expiry of a stated term, and shall contain such other terms all of which may be determined by the Issuer Trustee such that the fair market value of such promissory note is equal to the amount of the distribution. Any such promissory note or additional Units issued, or Trust Property transferred, by the Trust shall constitute absolute and unconditional payment in full of the distribution and, by becoming a Unitholder, each Unitholder hereby acknowledges that any such note, additional Units or transfer of Trust Property will be accepted by the Unitholder as such absolute and unconditional payment of the distribution payable to the Unitholder.

11.4 Legal Rights

For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that the Unitholders shall have the legal right to enforce payment of any amount to be distributed or payable hereunder at the time such amount is due and payable.

11.5 Income Tax Matters

In reporting income for income tax purposes, the Trust will claim the maximum amount available to it as deductions under the relevant law, unless the Issuer Trustee determines otherwise.

11.6 Designations

In accordance with and to the extent permitted by the ITA, the Issuer Trustee will, in each taxation year, make such designations for income tax purposes in respect of amounts paid or payable or deemed to be paid to the Unitholders for such amounts that the Issuer Trustee considers to be reasonable in all circumstances, including designations relating to taxable dividends received or deemed to be received by the Trust in the year on shares of taxable Canadian corporations, net taxable capital gains of the Trust in the year and foreign source income of the Trust and foreign taxes in respect of such foreign source income for the year, if any.

11.7 Withholding Taxes

The Issuer Trustee will deduct or withhold from distributions payable to a Unitholder amounts required by law to be deducted or withheld from such Unitholder's distributions, whether such distributions are in the form of cash, a promissory note, additional Units or otherwise. To the extent that any amounts are deducted or withheld from payments described in subsection 11.3(1), such deducted or withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes as having been paid to a Unitholder in respect of the distribution payable, provided that such deducted or withheld amounts are actually remitted in accordance with applicable law to the appropriate taxing authority. In the event that the Issuer Trustee makes a distribution described in subsections 4.1(5) or 11.1(2), or elects to pay a distribution in the manner contemplated in subsection 11.3(3), the Unitholder shall provide cash to the Issuer Trustee in amount equal to any required deduction or withholding, which the Issuer Trustee shall forthwith remit to the appropriate taxing authority on behalf of the Unitholder.

ARTICLE 12
TERMINATION OF THE TRUST

12.1 Termination

(a) The Trust will continue in full force and effect for a period of twelve months from the date hereof and thereafter for so long as any Funding Obligations remain outstanding and until the Trust has satisfied all of its obligations under the Program Agreements or otherwise for the purposes of carrying on the Trust Activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer Trustee may, with the unanimous approval of Unitholders, wind-up the affairs of the Trust and terminate the Trust and distribute the Trust Property then remaining to the Unitholders in proportion to the number of Units held by each Unitholder no later than the date that is one day prior to the 21st anniversary of the death of the last surviving lineal descendent of Queen Elizabeth, II of England living at the date this declaration is made.

(b) Subject to Section 12.1(a), the Issuer Trustee may, with the unanimous approval of the Unitholders, wind up the affairs of the Trust and terminate the Trust. To the fullest extent permitted by law, and notwithstanding any duty otherwise existing at law or in equity, the Issuer Trustee shall consider only the interests of the Trust, including its creditors, in acting on the matters referred to in this Section 12.1. On the date the Trust is terminated, the Issuer Trustee will, upon receipt of such releases, indemnities and refunding agreements as the Issuer Trustee may deem necessary for its protection, distribute the remaining Trust Property, after payment of all other obligations of the Trust, in cash or in kind , or partly in each, to the Unitholders in proportion to the number of Units held by each Unitholder

GENERAL

13.1 Irrevocability

The Trust shall be irrevocable.

13.2 Change of Office

The Issuer Trustee may at any time and from time to time during the existence of the trusts hereby created change the head office, chief executive office, chief place of business and situs of the administration of the Trust to another location within Ontario or have such other offices or places of administration within Canada as the Issuer Trustee may from time to time determine is necessary or desirable.

13.3 Execution of Instruments

The Issuer Trustee shall have power from time to time to appoint any Person or Persons on behalf of the Trust either to sign instruments in writing generally or to sign specific instruments in writing.

Any notice so given shall be deemed to have been given on the day of hand delivery or the day following that on which the notice was mailed.

13.5 Taxation Information

13.6 Severability

The provisions of this Declaration of Trust are severable and if any provisions are in conflict with any applicable law, the conflicting provisions shall be deemed never to have constituted a part of this Declaration of Trust and shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions thereof. If any provision of this Declaration of Trust shall be held invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision in such jurisdiction and shall not in any manner affect or render invalid or unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction or any other provision of this Declaration of Trust in any jurisdiction.

13.7 Governing Law

This Declaration of Trust shall be interpreted and governed by and take effect exclusively in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein. Any and all disputes arising under this Declaration of Trust, whether as to interpretation, performance or otherwise, shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario and the Issuer Trustee hereby irrevocably attorns, and each Unitholder shall be deemed to hereby irrevocably attorn, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of such province.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Issuer Trustee has caused this Declaration of Trust to be executed as of the day and year first above written by its duly authorized signatories.

Hi Nina,

We will be reviewing your comments and mark-up.

On a related point, do you have available yet drafts of any of the other agreements that will be required in connection with a proposed issuance by the financing entity and that we have previously discussed and requested copies of such as a draft supplemental indenture, draft disclosure documents, drafts of other agreements referenced in the master trust indenture to the extent they would be used in or related to an issuance by the Financing Entity etc. The Protection Agreement is proposed to work in the context of these other agreements and this would provide a better context for review by the Province. If they are not yet available, when are they expected to be available?

Thank you.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Assumption Agreement

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Best Regards,
Nina

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt

-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

Subject: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Assumption Agreement

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;

(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement to Approved Obligations

Words that are not defined below and that are defined in the OFHPA or otherwise in the General Regulation will have the meanings given in the OFHPA or the General Regulation, as applicable.

Subject to satisfaction of the conditions described under "Adherence Condition" and "Approval Process" below, the Change of Law Protection Agreement will apply (without duplication) to all finance amounts of the applicable financing entity excluding the following (collectively, the "Specified Claims"): (a) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the financing entity following a Protection Event (e.g., redemption or extension rights), (b) [amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the financing entity into any capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account][1], and (c) [tax liabilities][2] and (d) INTENTIONALLY DELETED.[3]

Adherence Condition

The Change of Law Protection Agreement will bind the Province in respect of a Specified Claim if OPG, as financial services manager, delivers a certificate, signed by at least two executive officers of OPG and addressed to one or more third parties (including, without limitation, the Indenture Trustee), confirming that such Specified Claim is covered by the Change of Law Protection Agreement.[4]

Approval Process

OPG, as financial services manager, agrees that it will not provide the certification under the heading "Adherence Condition" unless the following has been satisfied:

1. at the time the applicable funding obligations are incurred, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due under such funding obligations, together with all other outstanding or committed Specified Claims, do not exceed the Program Maximum in effect at that time; and

[1] Why wouldn't this be covered? If the Province is agreeing to make regularly scheduled payments if a Protection Event occurs, deposits into such accounts may be part of the overall payment schedule.

[2] How would the financing entity otherwise pay such tax liabilities? How else to address the point that such amounts would by statute take priority over scheduled payments?

[3] In Toby's October 13 email, we understand this was included so that the quantum of contingent obligations would be factored into the Program Maximum test. However, any contingent liabilities would already be factored into the determination of the Program Maximum so should not be excluded here. For example, if the financing entity has a LC facility, the potential liability under those undrawn LCs would already be included in the Program Maximum.

[4] We would like to avoid involving the investors in the approval process mechanics between the Province and OPG and would rather deal with this process in a separate side letter or memo. The financeability of the transaction turns on investors' ability to simply confirm that the Specified Claims are covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement without the additional hair of the behind-the-scenes approval process between the Province and OPG.

2. OPG, as financial services manager, delivers a certificate, signed by at least two executive officers of OPG and addressed to the Province, not less than [ten (10)] Toronto business days prior to the incurrence of such funding obligations:

   (a) setting out the material terms of the funding obligations pertaining to principal amount, pricing and third party fees; and

   (b) confirming that:

      (i) the funding obligations (1) will arise under terms and conditions that are "Substantially in the Form" of the Reviewed Documentation applicable thereto; (2) in the opinion of such officers, are reasonably incurred in compliance with the OFHPA, the General Regulation, any other enactments related thereto and the applicable Financing Plan; (3) are of a type and are on terms that a reasonably prudent financial services manager would incur in similar circumstances; and (4) reflect, in all material respects, arm's length terms and conditions; and

      (ii) any Disclosure Document used in connection with the offering and sale of notes, bonds or other securities is "Substantially in the Form" of the Reviewed Documentation.

In connection with an incurrence or amendment of funding obligations and other related Specified Claims, OPG may certify to interested third parties (including, without limitation, the Indenture Trustee) that such Specified Claims are covered by the Change of Law Protection Agreement provided that the Approval Process has been satisfied in accordance with this document. Such certification shall be determinative (regardless of any inaccuracies, incompleteness or other defect in the certificate delivered) and may be relied upon by all addressees as conclusive evidence of same.

Reviewed Documentation

OPG will ensure that not less than [fifteen (15)] Toronto business days prior to the initial issuance of any funding obligations by the financing entity, the Province will have received copies, in substantially final form, of the following documents:

(a) the constating and organizational documents of the financing entity;

(b) any management, administration or servicing agreement to which the financing entity is a party, including any replacement or standby services agreement;

(c) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the financing entity and the IESO;

(d) the master trust indenture governing the issuance and common terms of notes or bonds and the security and priority of all Specified Claims that may be incurred from time to time by the financing entity;

(e) the form of supplemental indenture (supplemental to the master trust indenture referred to in (d), above) governing the terms and conditions of related series of notes or bonds issued by the financing entity and the particular allocations, security and priority of Specified Claims being serviced by related series property;

(f) the form of any note, bond or securities purchase agreement and any underwriting/agency/selling/subscription agreement with respect to sale of any series of notes, bonds or securities to be issued under the supplemental indenture referred to in (e), above;

(g) the form of any credit agreement governing the issuance of short term loan obligations by the financing entity;

(h) the form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the financing entity from time to time;

(i) the form of any other agreement or instrument under which a funding obligation may arise or be affected;

(j) if applicable, any other agreement governing the respective interests of persons having rights or interests in the investment asset or other assets of the financing entity, including any agreement of the sort contemplated in subsection 29(5) of the OFHPA; and

(k) the form of disclosure document (including any offering circular, prospectus or other investor disclosure statement) (a "Disclosure Document") describing the material terms of the funding obligations together with any related material information.

If acceptable, the Province will confirm within [fifteen (15)] Toronto business days of receipt of such documents that such reviewed documents shall be the "Reviewed Documentation" for the purposes of the Approval Process; provided that the Province agrees that it will not be entitled to provide input on the Reviewed Documentation other than in its capacity as obligor under the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

Any proposed material changes, additions or supplements to the Reviewed Documentation will be provided to the Province not less than [fifteen (15)] Toronto business days prior to any proposed use or such documents becoming effective. Such material additional or supplemental documentation will only become "Reviewed Documentation" for the purposes of satisfying the Approval Process if the Province confirms the same within [fifteen (15)] Toronto business days of receipt of such proposed material changes, additions or supplements to the Reviewed Documentation.

The term "Substantially in the Form" herein means:

(a) with respect to the Reviewed Documentation referred to in (a) to (j), that the covenants of the financing entity are no more onerous in any material respect and there are events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the financing entity and events of default contained in the Reviewed Documentation; and

(b) with respect to the Disclosure Document referred to in (k), above, that there are no material differences between the form and substance of the proposed disclosure document and such Disclosure Document complies in all material respects with all securities disclosure requirements relating to the funding obligations subject to distribution thereunder.

Program Maximum

The initial Program Maximum will be determined prior to the initial issuance of the first funding obligation in accordance with this section. The Program Maximum will be based on OPG's forecast of the maximum payment obligations expected to arise under Specified Claims during the next 24 month period, based on and in accordance with the applicable Financing Plan (the "Forecast"). OPG will be required to deliver the Forecast to the Province not less than [thirty (30)] Toronto business days prior to the proposed incurrence of the first funding obligations. If the Province agrees that the Forecast is consistent with the Financing Plan and the finance amounts contemplated thereunder for the applicable reference periods are reasonably expected to align with the fair allocation amounts in respect of such reference periods, then the Province will confirm in writing to OPG and the financing entity within [thirty (30)] Toronto business days of receipt of the Forecast that it agrees with the Program Maximum.

The Forecast will be updated and delivered to the Province between nine (9) and twelve (12) months prior to the expiry of the then current Forecast, based on and in accordance with the applicable Financing Plan. Upon receiving an updated Forecast, the Province will confirm that the Forecast is consistent with the Financing Plan and the finance amounts contemplated thereunder for the applicable reference periods are reasonably expected to align with the fair allocation amounts in respect of such reference periods. If the Province does not agree with the determination of the Program Maximum, then the Province and OPG will discuss and address any inaccuracies in the Financing Plan to the satisfaction of both parties, and the Program Maximum will be revised within [thirty (30)] Toronto business days of receipt of the Forecast. Any determination to revise the Program Maximum will be confirmed by setting out a new Program Maximum in a written notice from the Province to OPG, the delivery of which will be conclusive evidence that such new Program Maximum will apply until further so revised.

On-Going Deliveries to the Province

Promptly after the issuance of funding obligations by a financing entity (or an amendment thereof), OPG will provide the Province with:

(a) a copy of the then most recent Financing Plan; and

(b) electronic copies of all related closing documents executed by or on behalf of the financing entity in connection with such incurrence or amendment that would affect the financing entity's assets or obligations (including, for greater certainty, any disclosure documents).

Upon request, OPG will provide the Province with such additional information and documentation as the Province requests in order to enable the Province to assess the nature and extent of its obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

For greater certainty, a failure by OPG to make the foregoing deliveries will not constitute a failure to satisfy the Adherence Condition and the Approval Process.

Covenants of OPG

To support the approval and related information processes described above, OPG will covenant to the Province (among other things) as follows:

(a) OPG will comply and ensure compliance by any financing entity (including as financial services manager) with the OFHPA, the General Regulation and any other enactment related thereto;

(b) after the occurrence of any Protection Event (or any event that with the passage of time or the giving of notice would be a Protection Event), OPG will not, without the Province's prior written consent, permit any financing entity to exercise any redemption, pre-payment, early termination or extension right in respect of any Specified Claim or exercise any other election or privilege in respect of any Specified Claim, in each case, if as a result the obligations applicable to the Specified Claim under the Change of Law Protection Agreement would be accelerated; and

(c) OPG will ensure that any disclosure (including in any offering document) that refers to or describes the terms, effect or adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement will be subject to the prior review and approval of the Province unless that disclosure is substantially in a form previously approved by the Province.

For greater certainty, a failure by OPG to perform such covenants will not constitute a failure to satisfy the Adherence Condition and Approval Process.

Adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement to Approved Obligations

Words that are not defined below and that are defined in the OFHPA or otherwise in the General Regulation will have the meanings given in the OFHPA or the General Regulation, as applicable.

~~Approval Process~~

Subject to satisfaction of the conditions described under "Adherence Condition"~~,~~ and "Approval Process" below, the Change of Law Protection Agreement will apply (without duplication) ~~in respect of the following "Specified Claims" (as defined in the Term Sheet)~~to all finance amounts of the applicable financing entity excluding the following (collectively, the "~~Approved Obligations~~Specified Claims"):

1. ~~repayments[1], other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from one or more committed refinancings or from amounts on deposit in a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Principal Obligations");~~

2. ~~obligations incurred by the financing entity to pay specified redemption amounts, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from one or more refinancings or from amounts on deposit in a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Redemption Obligations");~~

3. ~~interest payable under outstanding indebtedness of the financing entity, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account, from a funding rebate[2] or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Interest Obligations");~~

Adherence ~~Conditions~~Condition

Approval Process

OPG, as financial services manager, agrees that it will not provide the certification under the heading "Adherence Condition" unless the following has been satisfied:

~~[3] Confirm arrangements with OPG.~~

[1] Why wouldn't this be covered? If the Province is agreeing to make regularly scheduled payments if a Protection Event occurs, deposits into such accounts may be part of the overall payment schedule.

If the Province does not agree with the determination of the Program Maximum, then the Province and OPG will discuss and address any inaccuracies in the Financing Plan to the satisfaction of both parties, and the Program Maximum will be revised within [thirty (30)] Toronto business days of receipt of the Forecast. Any determination to revise the Program Maximum will be confirmed by setting out a new Program Maximum in a written notice from the Province to OPG, the delivery of which will be conclusive evidence that such new Program Maximum will apply until further so revised.

On-Going Deliveries to the Province

Upon request, OPG will provide the Province with such additional information and documentation as the Province requests in order to enable the Province to assess the nature and extent of its obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

~~(b) OPG will promptly notify the Province of the creation of any funding obligation that OPG determines is not or would not be an Approved Obligation;~~

(c) ~~(e)~~ OPG will ensure that any disclosure (including in any offering document) that refers to or describes the terms, effect or adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement will be subject to the prior review and approval of the Province unless that disclosure is substantially in a form previously approved by the Province.

For greater certainty, a failure by OPG to perform such covenants will not constitute a failure to satisfy the Adherence ~~Conditions~~Condition and Approval Process.

Please find attached our comments on your response of October 6. We have moved the text of your email to the attached document and responded inline in square brackets for ease of review.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.
- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

[NOTE TO DRAFT: CONFIRM THAT TORYS IS REFERRING TO THE OFA/MOE PROPOSAL FROM SEPTEMBER 27TH.]

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

[There is minimal oversight and input from the Province so long as the pre-agreed scope and parameters are adhered to.]

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence

[The proposal is that basic information regarding an incurrence will be provided to enable the province to (1) understand the nature and scope of the incurrence, to enable the Province to address internal governance considerations and (2) to be satisfied that the proposed incurrences are in-line with the pre-agreed parameters (the "Parameters"). The intention is not to curtail incurrences that follow the pre-agreed approach. The timing of the notice to the Province may be a point of discussion.]

-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
[As the entity running the program, OPG will be expected to provide the province with information sufficient to enable the province to make sure any incurrence falls inside the Parameters. The delivery of a certificate in an agreed form, just prior to the time of the incurrence, is meant to create a brightline test for the financing entity's counterparties to know that, so long as the certificate has been delivered (even if it's inaccurate), the Province will be bound. As you suggest below, any inaccuracy will give rise to considerations between the province and OPG. The delivery of the certificate at the time of an incurrence is considered an important due diligence confirmation for the province.
What is the basis for E&Y expressing a reservation regarding the province having access to underlying information about the "approved obligations", which in turn will define the scope of the province's own obligations if called upon under the change of law protection agreement (CLPA)?]

-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
[Any surety in a similar circumstance would want to know the nature and extent of the obligations incurred and to be incurred. That information is intended to allow the province to ensure compliance with the Parameters. Please provide an alternative proposal that meets OPGs requirements and still provides adequate information for the Province.]
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
[The idea is that if there is optionality in favour of the financing entity, and the exercise would affect the payment profile under the CLPA, such an exercise following a Protection Event should not affect the Province's payment obligations. In effect, the payment schedule will crystalize and cannot be accelerated or extended once the province becomes obligated to pay, following a Protection Event.]
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement
[The Province needs to understand the overall credit picture of the financing entity since it will become a creditor (through subrogation) if it is called on to perform. Exclusions are narrowly defined and should be minimal in practice.]

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have.
[These checks and balances are in-line with the province not writing a "blank cheque" in relation to future incurrences. Prudent sureties would be expected to exercise diligence - indeed to do less could be evidence of interdependence and non-arm's length terms, which presumably would be unhelpful to E&Y's analysis.] Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.
[The Province's accountants are involved in this process and are also reviewing the proposal]

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated.

[The OFHPA will involve very significant and complex financings. The process is intended to provide an appropriate level of third party enquiry given the size and scale of the financing program to the province and in order to ensure the issuances are within the Parameters.] From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval
[No approval is contemplated or expected by the Province, except if the incurrence is outside of the pre-agreed boundaries.] on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above)
[An explanation of the relevant accounting principles that E&Y has expressed concern about would assist the province to understand E&Y'S concerns. Also, a detailed list of any particular troublesome requirements would be helpful, with drafting suggestions as appropriate] [The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself.
[From the dealers' perspective, the three listed requirements (namely, (1) quantum under the program limit (2) delivery of the OPG certificate (3) absence of contrary notice from the Province) can be easily and objectively verified by the dealers. These process requirements should be reflected in the incurrence procedures as a check/balance at the relevant time, given that the province will not otherwise be directly involved in the incurrence process but will be obligated under the CLPA] Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement.

[As noted above, the three listed requirements can be easily and objectively confirmed by the dealers prior to a closing. inaccuracies or other failures within the certification process will not negate the Province's obligations] We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met.

[As noted, this due diligence check/balance is how the province will ensure the issuances satisfy the Parameters. It is anticipated that the Ministers will see this process as significant to the exercise of their authorities under OFHPA 5(3). Ultimately, the Province will depend on OPG, which is why the delivery of a certificate, without being impugned by an accuracy, is the contemplated adherence condition - rather than making the confirmation of certificate accuracy a condition, which we assume would be unwelcome by the underwriters.] The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.

[The Province wants an actual certificate to be delivered to it (not just the indenture trustee) as part of the closing process. Also, the program limit and failsafe disapproval notice are considered to be important safeguards for the province]

- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.
- [In the case of details not known at the time the OPG certificate is to be delivered (which will be expected to occur close to closing), it should be sufficient to indicate the process by which those details will be finalized. For example, it would be sufficient to say "interest rates to be set on or about [date] based on underwriting syndicate pricing indications".]

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- [The proposal uses the specific defined terms from the OFHPA and regulation, in order to tie back to the statute and appropriately narrow the scope to the obligations that are reasonably known to require protection from the province. Considerable thought has been given to the approach reflected in the province's proposal. The Province wishes to focus on each inclusion that requires the support arrangements, which should then be net of available/free cash flows, set-offs, etc. Please provide specific comments on any specific items of concerns.]
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. [This is still an open question under consideration.] We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? [Under consideration] Please advise why taxes are being excluded?

[CRA does not require/is not entitled by law to the benefit of the protection arrangement. Please explain the logic of the request to include taxes]

- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.

[For the Province's support arrangement to apply to an obligation, the quantum of the obligation must be factored into the program maximum test. if the obligation is a contingent obligation, the province's obligations must be capped so that the amount of the cap can be factored into the program limit test]

- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

[In the interest of time, please provide any other detailed comments you may have on the September 27th version of the proposal as soon as possible]

All,

After reviewing OPGs response to the proposed adherence process, we wonder if a discussion of some of the accounting principles that are at issue would be helpful in order for us to consider their response and our next steps.

Please let us know if this approach makes sense, and perhaps the OFA can put together a meeting in order to discuss these issues.

Please see attached for discussion our draft proposal for an approval process. This proposal significantly fleshes out the issues and the process in much greater detail from the OPG proposal below.

One issue to note in particular is the process relating to the Program Maximum amount, and the proposed timing for addressing approvals relating to that amount.

Once this group has had a chance to review we can schedule a call or compile any comments before getting back to OPG.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;

(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Toby – further to discussions between OPG and the Province, please find attached comments on the draft proposal under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (blacklined to the draft circulated below). The attached reflects our comments from accounting, operational and financeability perspectives. In particular, the financeability of the program will turn on whether there is a clear and concise way for investors to determine that an incurrence of funding obligations will be covered under the Change of Law Protection Agreement and that, once confirmed, the confirmation is irrevocable. Accordingly, we have proposed in the attached that a simple confirmation from OPG to a third party binds the Province in respect of the incurrence of the applicable funding obligations provided that OPG has satisfied the requirements of the approval process (which we propose be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo). Please note that the attached remains subject to the review of the working group including the dealers and the rating agencies.

We recognize that we are running out of time, and that we should discuss and move this forward at the beginning of next week.

We also generally recognize that, although there are still some gaps in our respective approaches, we would find it helpful to have some more specific suggestions and comments on our Sept. 27 draft in order to help move this forward. This might include also the timing issues, with some indication of where, if OPG finds the timing does not work, some alternatives can be suggested for consideration.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.

- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Subject: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Assumption Agreement

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Questions for MOE and OFA to consider regarding OPG's Proposed Adherence Terms

A. Scope of Province's Obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement (CLPA)

1. On a Protection Event, should the Province become responsible for the payment of taxes (if any) owing by the Financing Entity?

2. On a Protection Event, should the Province become liable to pay amounts owing by the Financing Entity to OPG (e.g., FSM fees and expenses)?

3. On a Protection Event, should all available funds (e.g., funds accumulated in sinking funds) be immediately applied to reduce the amount that the Province would be liable for under the CLPA?

4. Should the Province set a "Protection Agreement Maximum" (previously called the "Program Maximum") that measures and relates only to "principal amounts"? In other words, should the limitation be tied only to principal obligations, while the Province's actual obligations would automatically extend, without specific quantum limits, to the other payment obligations under "funding obligations" (e.g., interest, swaps, standby liquidity commitment fees, servicer fees and expenses)?

5. Is the Province comfortable guaranteeing contingent obligations (e.g., indemnity obligations) of the Financing Entity? If so, should the Province require that such contingent obligations be "capped" within the funding obligation itself or should the exposure of the Province be otherwise limited under the CLPA?

6. Should the Province be required to deposit funds to meet sinking fund or collateral deposits (i.e., deposit obligations incorporated in the financing structure on the basis that the "clean energy" cash flows will service the obligations, rather than the Province), notwithstanding that the Province would have become primarily liable for payment obligations under the CLPA?

B. Adhesion

7. Is the Province okay splitting the maximum exposure limitations and "process-related" matters (see below) into a separate agreement - away from the terms of the agreement under which the Province's payment obligations would bind the Province opposite the Indenture Trustee? OPG proposes this in order to keep the optics of the CLPA as simple and straightforward as possible. In other words, is the Province prepared to leave all of the important details regarding what OPG is supposed to do before incurring an obligation that binds the Province to a side agreement with OPG, that is opaque to the Indenture Trustee and Underwriters at the time a funding obligation is incurred and not requiring any third party to have notice or regard to the Province's requirements?

8. OPG proposes that delivery of an officers' certificate to a third party, in OPG's capacity as FSM, will in and of itself bind the Province under the CLPA. That certificate would simply indicate that the Province is bound under the CLPA with respect to the specified funding obligation. It would not be addressed to the Province (although a pre-closing certificate is contemplated to be delivered to the Province) and the "Protection Agreement Maximum" concept would not be incorporated as a specific condition (other than to the extent that OPG is bound to the Province under the side agreement with the Province). Is this acceptable to the Province? Does this raise any governance/authority issues for the Province (e.g., limit on incurrence needing to be specifically confirmed at closing? scope of permitted delegation to bind? FAA compliance?)

C. "Protection Agreement Maximum" (formerly "Program Maximum" (PAM)

9. OPG proposes that the PAM will be determined based on a mechanical calculation and without any real discretion on the part of the Province to set or object to the PAM. Is this acceptable to the Province?

10. OPG's proposed mechanical process to determine PAM would be based on OPG's 24 month forecast (estimate) of payments to be made by the Financing Entity. So long as that forecast (and any refresh) is consistent with the "Financing Plan" (also prepared by OPG) and is "reasonably expected to align with the fair allocation amount", the Province will be required to accept the PAM based on OPG's forecast – i.e., no discretion to reject or modify the aggregate amount of the Province's commitment initially or from time to time. Is the Province prepared to tie its CLPA obligation automatically to the operation of the OFHPA in this way, without review and with perpetual effect?

11. Is the proposed mechanical link to the OFHPA calculations consistent with the OIC or other governance requirements applicable to the Province's authority to approve the CLPA?

12. Is the initial 24 month forecast period appropriate (e.g., 2.5B x 2 – large)? Is OPG's proposed refresh of the PAM (mechanically tied to the new forecast), 9 to 12 months prior to the end of the 24 month forecast period, appropriate?

D. "Process-Related" Matters

13. Assuming the Province is okay with the arrangements described in question 7, above, we would envision a mechanism where the Province could give the Indenture Trustee notice of a breach (if known) by OPG of the PAM or process-related side agreement, and that such a notice would have the effect of cutting off the application of the CLPA for any future incurrences unless the Province further agrees otherwise. Does the Province agree that this sort of failsafe is essential? Note that OPG's suggestion has been that no pre-incurrence non-adherence/failsafe provision be provided, in order to allow the Province to provide notice that the CLPA will not apply to a pending/proposed incurrence.

14. Does the Province need to contemplate other scenarios where the CLPA would become ineffective in respect of future incurrences, such as:

    a. an OPG change of control

    b. a policy-based determination by a future government

    c. an unanticipated circumstance, such as the incurrence by the Financing Entity of assessed tax liabilities, indemnity payments, "increased costs", rating downgrades, offering disclosure-based claims, defaults under the program, insolvency of a major counterparty (e.g., swap counterparty or services provider), etc.

d. a discretionary circumstance where the Province decides it no longer wishes to be liable under the CLPA?

We expect that OPG would push back so that any suspension of new obligations by the Province would not hamper OPG's ability to complete an anticipated/needed refinancing.

15. Does the Province have any reservations about letting OPG at any time provide a binding certificate to third parties regarding adherence, which would be determinative of the Province's obligations. What conditions for this sort of certificate would make sense (e.g., preview and consent by the Province)? Does this proposal raise any governance/authority issues for the Province (e.g., scope of delegation; FAA compliance)?

16. If the Province is prepared to be liable for taxes owing by the Financing Entity (see question 1, above), what oversight, assurances, documentation and reporting regarding the potential for entity-level taxes should the Province require (if any)?

17. OPG is proposing that the Province will receive a certificate prior to the Financing Entity incurring a funding obligation, that sets out "the material terms of the funding obligations pertaining to the principal amount, pricing and third party fees". Is that a sufficient amount of detail, or would the Province like to specifically itemize its information expectations, to cover things such as:

    a. details respecting any principal obligation, such as:

        i. the amount, timing and conditions of repayments (including any redemption or extension rights)

        ii. the basis for OPG's expectations regarding the availability of any related refinancings

        iii. any required deposits to be made into a capital account or a finance reserve account in order to provide for payment of the principal obligation

        iv. the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the principal repayment of the funding obligation

        v. details respecting any redemption rights, including the nature and conditions applicable to any exercise and OPG's expected basis for determining whether or not to exercise a redemption right, option or privilege;

    b. details respecting interest obligations, such as:

        i. the anticipated interest or discount rate or rates (including default rates)

        ii. the timing/frequency/conditions of coupon payments

iii. any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account

iv. the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of interest

v. the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the interest obligation;

c. details respecting any hedging obligation (e.g., interest or FX swaps, options or other derivatives), such as:

i. the name of the counterparty and credit details

ii. the credit ratings (if any) of the payor(s)

iii. the risks sought to be mitigated by the derivative

iv. anticipated circumstances (if any) in which the derivative may not achieve such mitigation or be subject to early termination

v. whether collateral posting requirements will apply;

d. details respecting other funding obligations, such as:

i. the payee

ii. the timing and any conditions of payments

iii. any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account or the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of such obligations

iv. in the case of a contingent obligation (e.g., indemnities), the nature and extent of any contingency affecting the payment obligation, the circumstances in which a payment obligation may arise and any specified maximum claim amount

e. assuming that the Province would be liable for capital, reserve or supplementary account deposit obligations (see question 6, above), details respecting the schedule for such deposits and the conditions for the application of such amounts to pay such amounts and the related priorities for application.

18. OPG (and presumably OPG's accountants) is contemplating that the Province will be provided transaction documentation "in substantially final form" and that the Province will not be entitled to provide input "other than in its capacity as obligor under the [CLPA]". In other words, assuming that the CLPA is signed in advance, the Province will have no real opportunity to comment on the forms of transaction documents to be used, and will have a limited opportunity to "not accept" [1] the documentation. Can the Province live with these limitations?

19. The proposed OPG certificate (pre-incurrence) would include an attestation by OPG regarding the use of pre-reviewed documentation. The test for conformity of the to-be-used documentation, compared to the pre-reviewed documentation, would focus only on whether "the covenants of the Financing Entity are no more onerous in any material respect" and that the "events of default" are consistent "in all material respects". Is the limited scope of this conformity test acceptable, or should it be broadened and cover specific items such as:

    a. no differences in the timing of or circumstances under which payments are or may become due (for example, as a result of any termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization)

    b. no differences that could affect the Province's rights of subrogation or interests as a subrogee

    c. with respect to the anticipated form of series specific documents (as opposed to the upfront terms of program-wide "master" documents), confirming that the variable terms set forth in the proposed documents are as reasonably contemplated in the reviewed forms, having regard to such matters as:

        i. the type of instrument to be issued (i.e., debt (bullet vs. amortizing), equity-linked, pass-through instruments, etc.)

        ii. the scope of the related obligations (e.g., redemption or extension features or other optionality)

        iii. the extent of the related obligations (e.g., limited recourse features, limitations on indemnities, etc.)

        iv. the timing, conditions and circumstances in which payment obligations may arise,

    but making it clear that conformity would not include a comparison to the particular financial terms, rates, levels and parameters of the obligations other than if the reviewed forms specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters.

20. How much time is sufficient for the Province:

    a. to do an initial review of the main transaction documentation (including forms of series-specific documents), which would set the acceptable pattern for future

[1] Note that the proposed OPG language is not crystal clear that the Province can reject the reviewed documentation, which we expect is merely drafting, but that will need to be confirmed assuming the Province wishes to work within the OPG/Tory mark-up.

issuances? The proposal is 15 BDs, although that does not seem to make sense given that OPG proposes that the Province must confirm acceptance of the terms within 15 BDs of receipt of the documentation

b. to do a review of any changes to the main transaction documentation (including forms of series-specific documents), which would reset the acceptable pattern for future issuances? The proposal is to receive proposed amendments at least 15 BDs prior to first use, and the Province would confirm acceptance of the terms within 15 BDs of receipt of the documentation

c. to review applicable details of a proposed funding obligation in advance of an incurrence (proposal is 10BDs)?

21. What other items should be incorporated into the timeline from the Province's perspective?

E. Information, Reporting and Other Covenants

22. OPG proposes to provide the Province with an applicable "Financing Plan" only after an incurrence. Does the Province need to see this document as it is issued and changed, rather than only after the time of an incurrence?

23. OPG proposes to provide the Province with any actual offering/disclosure documents only after it is used. Does the Province need to have input into offering/disclosure document before use or dissemination (e.g., the description of the CLPA)?

24. OPG has limited its negative covenant on elections by the Financing Entity following a Protection Event to actions that would accelerate obligations. Should this be broader to cover extensions or other consensual changes that could affect the obligations (e.g., creditor concessions).

F. Parties

25. Will it be sufficient for the CLPA (and any procedural side-letter) to be signed by OPG, acting solely in its capacity as "financial services manager" (i.e., with OPG's liability being limited by the terms of the related management or administrative agreement)? How does this interplay with any other indemnities or exculpatory provisions that the Province is anticipating for OPG (corporate) and its officers?

26. Who from OPG should sign the officer's certificate? The OPG proposal is 2 "executive officers".

27. OPG proposes that a failure to comply with the PAM or "approval process" will not result in any breach. Assuming that OPG is in fact proposing that its failure would have no consequences, including as between the Province and OPG whatsoever, are the process aspects of the OPG proposal even meaningful to the Province?

All,

After reviewing OPGs response to the proposed adherence process, we wonder if a discussion of some of the accounting principles that are at issue would be helpful in order for us to consider their response and our next steps.

Please let us know if this approach makes sense, and perhaps the OFA can put together a meeting in order to discuss these issues.

Please see attached for discussion our draft proposal for an approval process. This proposal significantly fleshes out the issues and the process in much greater detail from the OPG proposal below.

One issue to note in particular is the process relating to the Program Maximum amount, and the proposed timing for addressing approvals relating to that amount.

Once this group has had a chance to review we can schedule a call or compile any comments before getting back to OPG.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

[NOTE TO DRAFT: CONFIRM THAT TORYS IS REFERRING TO THE OFA/MOE PROPOSAL FROM SEPTEMBER 27TH.]

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input [THERE IS MINIMAL OVERSIGHT AND INPUT FROM THE PROVINCE SO LONG AS THE PRE-AGREED SCOPE AND PARAMETERS ARE ADHERED TO] on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence [THE PROPOSAL IS THAT BASIC INFORMATION REGARDING AN INCURRENCE WILL BE PROVIDED TO ENABLE THE PROVINCE TO (1) UNDERSTAND THE NATURE AND SCOPE OF THE INCURRENCE, TO ENABLE THE PROVINCE TO ADDRESS ACCOUNTING, REPORTING AND INTERNAL GOVERNANCE CONSIDERATIONS AND (2) TO BE SATISFIED THAT THE PROPOSED INCURRENCES ARE IN-LINE WITH THE PRE-AGREED PARAMETERS (THE "OBJECTIVES"). THE INTENTION IS NOT TO CURTAIL INCURRENCES THAT FOLLOW THE PRE-AGREED APPROACH.]
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt [AS THE ENTITY RUNNING THE PROGRAM, OPG WILL BE EXPECTED TO PROVIDE THE PROVINCE WITH INFORMATION SUFFICIENT TO ENABLE THE PROVINCE TO ACHIEVE THE OBJECTIVES. THE DELIVERY OF A CERTIFICATE IN AN AGREED FORM, JUST PRIOR TO THE TIME OF THE INCURRENCE, IS MEANT TO CREATE A BRIGHTLINE TEST FOR THE FINANCING ENTITY'S COUNTERPARTIES TO KNOW THAT, SO LONG AS THE CERTIFICATE HAS BEEN DELIVERED (EVEN IF IT'S INACCURATE), THE PROVINCE WILL BE BOUND. AS YOU SUGGEST BELOW, ANY INACCURACY WILL GIVE RISE TO CONSIDERATIONS BETWEEN THE PROVINCE AND OPG. THE DELIVERY OF THE CERTIFICATE AT THE TIME OF AN INCURRENCE IS CONSIDERED AN IMPORTANT DUE DILIGENCE CONFIRMATION FOR THE PROVINCE.
WHAT IS THE BASIS FOR E&Y EXPRESSING A RESERVATION REGARDING THE PROVINCE HAVING ACCESS TO UNDERLYING INFORMATION ABOUT THE

"APPROVED OBLIGATIONS", WHICH IN TURN WILL DEFINE THE SCOPE OF THE PROVINCE'S OWN OBLIGATIONS IF CALLED UPON UNDER THE CHANGE OF LAW PROTECTION AGREEMENT (CLPA)?]

-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts) [ANY SURETY IN A SIMILAR CIRCUMSTANCE WOULD WANT TO KNOW THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE OBLIGATIONS INCURRED AND TO BE INCURRED. THAT INFORMATION IS INTENDED TO ALLOW THE PROVINCE TO MEET THE OBJECTIVES.]

-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt [THE IDEA IS THAT IF THERE IS OPTIONALITY IN FAVOUR OF THE FINANCING ENTITY, AND THE EXERCISE WOULD AFFECT THE PAYMENT PROFILE UNDER THE CLPA, SUCH AN EXERCISE FOLLOWING A PROTECTION EVENT SHOULD NOT AFFECT THE PROVINCE'S PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS. IN EFFECT, THE PAYMENT SCHEDULE WILL CRYSTALIZE AND CANNOT BE ACCELERATED OR EXTENDED ONCE THE PROVINCE BECOMES OBLIGATED TO PAY, FOLLOWING A PROTECTION EVENT.]

-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement [THE PROVINCE NEEDS TO UNDERSTAND THE OVERALL CREDIT PICTURE OF THE FINANCING ENTITY SINCE IT WILL BECOME A CREDITOR (THROUGH SUBROGATION) IF IT IS CALLED ON TO PERFORM. EXCLUSIONS ARE NARROWLY DEFINED AND SHOULD BE MINIMAL IN PRACTICE.]

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. [THESE CHECKS AND BALANCES ARE IN-LINE WITH THE PROVINCE NOT WRITING A "BLANK CHEQUE" IN RELATION TO FUTURE INCURRENCES. PRUDENT SURETIES WOULD BE EXPECTED TO PURSUE THE OBJECTIVES - INDEED TO DO LESS COULD BE EVIDENCE OF INTERDEPENDENCE AND NON-ARM'S LENGTH TERMS, WHICH PRESUMABLY WOULD BE UNHELPFUL TO E&Y'S ANALYSIS.] Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal. [THE PROVINCE'S ACCOUNTING PROFESSIONALS ARE INVOLVED IN THIS PROCESS, INCLUDING IN REVIEWING THESE RESPONSES]

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. [THE OFHPA WILL INVOLVE VERY SIGNIFICANT AND COMPLEX FINANCINGS. THE PROCESS IS INTENDED TO PROVIDE AN APPROPRIATE LEVEL OF THIRD PARTY ENQUIRY GIVEN THE SIZE AND SCALE OF THE FINANCING PROGRAM TO THE PROVINCE AND IN ORDER TO MEET THE OBJECTIVES] From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval [NO APPROVAL IS CONTEMPLATED OR EXPECTED BY THE PROVINCE, EXCEPT IF THE INCURRENCE IS OUTSIDE OF THE PRE-AGREED BOUNDARIES. THE ONUS WILL BE ON THE PROVINCE TO REVIEW THE SUMMARY MATERIALS PROVIDED BY OPG AND TO IDENTIFY ANY MATERIAL DEPARTURES FROM THE PRE-AGREED APPROACH TO INCURRENCES] on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above) [AN EXPLANATION OF THE RELEVANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES THAT E&Y HAS EXPRESSED CONCERN ABOUT

WOULD ASSIST THE PROVINCE TO UNDERSTAND E&Y'S CONCERNS. IS THERE AN ACCOUNTING STATEMENT OR PUBLICATION THAT ELABORATES ON THESE MATTERS? ALSO, A DETAILED LIST OF ANY PARTICULAR TROUBLESOME REQUIREMENTS WOULD BE HELPFUL, WITH DRAFTING SUGGESTIONS AS APPROPRIATE] [The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. [FROM THE DEALERS' PERSPECTIVE, THE THREE LISTED REQUIREMENTS (NAMELY, (1) QUANTUM UNDER THE PROGRAM LIMIT (2) DELIVERY OF THE OPG CERTIFICATE (3) ABSENCE OF CONTRARY NOTICE FROM THE PROVINCE) CAN BE EASILY AND OBJECTIVELY VERIFIED BY THE DEALERS. THESE PROCESS REQUIREMENTS SHOULD BE REFLECTED IN THE INCURRENCE PROCEDURES AS A CHECK/BALANCE AT THE RELEVANT TIME, GIVEN THAT THE PROVINCE WILL NOT OTHERWISE BE DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE INCURRENCE PROCESS BUT WILL BE OBLIGATED UNDER THE CLPA] Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. [AS NOTED ABOVE, THE THREE LISTED REQUIREMENTS CAN BE EASILY AND OBJECTIVELY CONFIRMED BY THE DEALERS PRIOR TO A CLOSING. INACCURACIES OR OTHER FAILURES WITHIN THE CERTIFICATION PROCESS WILL NOT NEGATE THE PROVINCE'S OBLIGATIONS] We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. [AS NOTED, THIS DUE DILIGENCE CHECK/BALANCE IS HOW THE PROVINCE WILL MEET THE OBJECTIVES. IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THE MINISTERS WILL SEE THIS PROCESS AS SIGNIFICANT TO THE EXERCISE OF THEIR AUTHORITIES UNDER OFHPA 5(3). ULTIMATELY, THE PROVINCE WILL DEPEND ON OPG, WHICH IS WHY THE DELIVERY OF A CERTIFICATE, WITHOUT BEING IMPUGNED BY AN ACCURACY, IS THE CONTEMPLATED ADHERENCE CONDITION - RATHER THAN MAKING THE CONFIRMATION OF CERTIFICATE ACCURACY A CONDITION, WHICH WE ASSUME WOULD BE UNWELCOME BY THE UNDERWRITERS.] The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification. [THE PROVINCE WANTS AN ACTUAL CERTIFICATE TO BE DELIVERED TO IT (NOT JUST THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE) AS PART OF THE CLOSING PROCESS. ALSO, THE PROGRAM LIMIT AND FAILSAFE DISAPPROVAL NOTICE ARE CONSIDERED TO BE IMPORTANT SAFEGUARDS FOR THE PROVINCE]

- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement. [IN THE CASE OF DETAILS NOT KNOWN AT THE TIME THE OPG

CERTIFICATE IS TO BE DELIVERED (WHICH WILL BE EXPECTED TO OCCUR CLOSE TO CLOSING), IT SHOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO INDICATE THE PROCESS BY WHICH THOSE DETAILS WILL BE FINALIZED. FOR EXAMPLE, IT WOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO SAY "INTEREST RATES TO BE SET ON OR ABOUT [DATE] BASED ON UNDERWRITING SYNDICATE PRICING INDICATIONS".]

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered. [THE PROPOSAL USES THE SPECIFIC DEFINED TERMS FROM THE OFHPA AND REGULATION, IN ORDER TO TIE BACK TO THE STATUTE AND APPROPRIATELY NARROW THE SCOPE TO THE OBLIGATIONS THAT ARE REASONABLY KNOWN TO REQUIRE PROTECTION FROM THE PROVINCE. CONSIDERABLE THOUGHT HAS BEEN GIVEN TO THE APPROACH REFLECTED IN THE PROVINCE'S PROPOSAL. THE PROVINCE WISHES TO FOCUS ON EACH INCLUSION THAT REQUIRES THE SUPPORT ARRANGEMENTS, WHICH SHOULD THEN BE NET OF AVAILABLE/FREE CASH FLOWS, SET-OFFS, ETC. PLEASE PROVIDE SPECIFIC COMMENTS ON ANY SPECIFIC ITEMS OF CONCERNS.]
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. [THIS IS STILL AN OPEN QUESTION UNDER CONSIDERATION.] We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? [UNDER CONSIDERATION] Please advise why taxes are being excluded? [CRA DOES NOT REQUIRE/IS NOT ENTITLED BY LAW TO THE BENEFIT OF THE PROTECTION ARRANGEMENT. PLEASE EXPLAIN THE LOGIC OF THE REQUEST TO INCLUDE TAXES]
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here. [FOR THE PROVINCE'S SUPPORT ARRANGEMENT TO APPLY TO AN OBLIGATION, THE QUANTUM OF THE OBLIGATION MUST BE FACTORED INTO THE PROGRAM MAXIMUM TEST. IF THE OBLIGATION IS A CONTINGENT OBLIGATION, THE PROVINCE'S OBLIGATIONS MUST BE CAPPED SO THAT THE AMOUNT OF THE CAP CAN BE FACTORED INTO THE PROGRAM LIMIT TEST]
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document. [IN THE INTEREST OF TIME, PLEASE PROVIDE ANY OTHER DETAILED COMMENTS YOU MAY HAVE ON THE SEPTEMBER 27TH VERSION OF THE PROPOSAL AS SOON AS POSSIBLE]

Hi Toby

If the main purpose of the meeting is to discuss the accounting principles then I suggest that OPCD schedule same since the OFA's primary focus is on the financing. I am cc'ing Sarah Hosick, Cindy's EA, on the assumption that Cindy agrees with me.

Thanks

All,

After reviewing OPGs response to the proposed adherence process, we wonder if a discussion of some of the accounting principles that are at issue would be helpful in order for us to consider their response and our next steps.

Please let us know if this approach makes sense, and perhaps the OFA can put together a meeting in order to discuss these issues.

Please see attached for discussion our draft proposal for an approval process. This proposal significantly fleshes out the issues and the process in much greater detail from the OPG proposal below.

One issue to note in particular is the process relating to the Program Maximum amount, and the proposed timing for addressing approvals relating to that amount.

Once this group has had a chance to review we can schedule a call or compile any comments before getting back to OPG.

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Please see attached for discussion our draft proposal for an approval process. This proposal significantly fleshes out the issues and the process in much greater detail from the OPG proposal below.

One issue to note in particular is the process relating to the Program Maximum amount, and the proposed timing for addressing approvals relating to that amount.

Once this group has had a chance to review we can schedule a call or compile any comments before getting back to OPG.

Please see below an email from OPG's counsel setting out a proposed approval process setting out how the Provincial protection agreement would apply to any set of obligations of the Financing Entity.

We at MOF Legal along with Energy Legal and Stephen Ashbourne are in the process of reviewing their proposal and preparing comments. We will have significant comments and questions about this proposal, but wanted to give everyone a chance to review the OPG proposal so that we can discuss those comments as soon as we are ready to do so.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Toby,

Thank you for your draft proposal; we have set out below our conceptual comments and concerns on it. Please note that the points below remain subject to the continuing review of OPG. Please also note that we have not yet sought the dealers' views on the proposal. We think it is premature to do so until we settle these points amongst ourselves and a revised draft of the proposal is circulated reflecting our agreement.

As further discussed below, your proposal deviates in some key ways from what we proposed in our email of September 19 (attached) and raises the accounting and operational issues we tried to avoid in the September 19th proposal. Given the need to settle the Protection Agreement as soon as possible, we'd appreciate if we could discuss these points early next week.

Best Regards,
Nina

Accounting Issues:
E&Y has concerns from an accounting perspective with the level of Provincial oversight and input on certain parts of the process, namely:

-that OPG will likely have to go back to the Province on each incurrence of debt and they will have to do so prior to that incurrence
-that OPG must certify and provide a lot of detailed reporting with respect to each incurrence of debt
-the level of frequency of reporting in general (not just the certifications/information noted above but also the contemplated annual forecasts and quarterly updates of those forecasts)
-the negative pledge with respect to the exercise of certain options on the debt
-the fact that OPG must give notice to the Province when incurring funding obligations that are expressly excluded from the Protection Agreement

Taken as a whole, we understand that E&Y sees all of this as the Province exerting a level of control on the debt that no typical guarantor would have. Please also advise if the Province's accountants have reviewed the proposal.

Practical Issues:

- The procedural steps to bind the Province are lengthy and complicated. From our perspective, as drafted, OPG will likely have to seek Provincial approval on each debt issuance (which weakens the accounting as discussed above). The dealers and their counsel will have a reaction to the proposed adherence conditions but query whether there is value in setting out the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement itself. Setting aside the mechanics of how we get there, the dealers want comfort that the incurrence of obligations by the financing entity will be covered by the Protection Agreement. We would propose that the mechanics of any approval process (once we settle the terms of that process) be the subject of a separate procedures agreement or memo from the Province to OPG, whereby the Province delegates to OPG the ability to bind the Province under the Protection Agreement with respect to an incurrence of obligations so long as the adherence conditions in the procedures agreement or memo have been met. The Protection Agreement would then simply state that, upon OPG certifying to the indenture trustee that the adherence conditions have been satisfied under the procedures agreement/memo, the Province will be deemed to be bound under the Protection Agreement with respect to the specific obligations incurred at the time of the certification.

- In addition to the accounting concerns, the level of detail and frequency of reporting required present timing and operational issues. For example, as part of the adherence conditions, you are asking for details on the interest rate. However, pricing will in part be driven off whether that specific incurrence will have the benefits of the Protection Agreement.

Drafting Issues:

- Please refer to the existing terminology of the Act to ensure there is certainty on the obligations covered under the Protection Agreement. We think the best way for you to approach this would be to refer to all finance amounts and then expressly carve out what you are proposing not be covered.
- We'd like to understand the reason OPG's management fees have been excluded. We assume you do not intend for OPG's reimbursement costs (costs incurred by OPG on behalf of the Financing Entity) to be excluded? Please advise why taxes are being excluded?
- There are a few references to "exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document". Please advise what is being contemplated here.
- We have a number of other drafting comments which we'll revisit once we've settled on the conceptual points above and have reviewed a revised draft of the document.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the

Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement to Approved Obligations

Words that are not defined below and that are defined in the OFHPA or otherwise in the General Regulation will have the meanings given in the OFHPA or the General Regulation, as applicable.

Approval Process

Subject to satisfaction of the conditions described under "Adherence Condition", below, the Change of Law Protection Agreement will apply (without duplication) in respect of the following "Specified Claims" (as defined in the Term Sheet) of the applicable financing entity (collectively, the "Approved Obligations"):

1. repayments[1], other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from one or more committed refinancings or from amounts on deposit in a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Principal Obligations");

2. obligations incurred by the financing entity to pay specified redemption amounts, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from one or more refinancings or from amounts on deposit in a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Redemption Obligations");

3. interest payable under outstanding indebtedness of the financing entity, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account, from a funding rebate[2] or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Interest Obligations");

4. derivative payments due and payable by the financing entity, determined on a net payment basis after the application of any collateral posted or available for posting by or on behalf of the financing entity to or for the benefit of the applicable counterparty, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from a funding rebate ("Hedging Obligations");

5. other funding costs due and payable by the financing entity and that are not included in 2, 3 or 4, above, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from a funding rebate ("Other Funding Obligations"); and

[1] This assumes that repayments will only include scheduled principal amounts, without regard to default and acceleration.

[2] Incorporate alternative GA stream, as applicable, in relation to all covered amounts – including interest, derivative payments, other funding costs and expenses contemplated in paras. 3 to 6.

6. finance entity expenses, due and payable by the financing entity and that are not included in 2 to 5, above and [other than amounts charged by the Financial Services Manager][3], other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from a funding rebate ("Third Party Expense Obligations"), but excluding in each case payments due and payable by the financing entity in respect of any contingent obligation of the financing entity to the extent that such payments would in the aggregate exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document.

For greater certainty, the Change of Law Protection Agreement will not apply to any other amount or obligation of the financing entity, including (a) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the financing entity following a Protection Event (e.g., redemption or extension rights), (b) amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the financing entity into any capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account, (c) tax liabilities and (d) contingent payment obligations that exceed the maximum amount therefor specified in the applicable governing document.

Adherence Conditions

The Change of Law Protection Agreement will bind the Province in respect of a funding obligation that is an Approved Obligation if:

1. at the time the funding obligation is incurred, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due under the funding obligation, together with all other outstanding or committed Approved Obligations, do not exceed the Program Maximum;

2. OPG delivers a certificate, signed by at least two executive officers of OPG and addressed to the Province, not less than • Toronto business days prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the funding obligation, setting out the following with respect to the funding obligation:

   (a) the following information respecting a funding obligation to be incurred:

      (i) in the case of an incurrence of any related Principal Obligation, material details respecting such Principal Obligation, including the amount, timing and conditions of repayments (including any redemption or extension rights), the basis for OPG's expectations regarding the availability of any related refinancings, any required deposits to be made into a capital account or a finance reserve account in order to provide for payment of the Principal Obligation, and the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the Principal Obligation;

[3] Confirm arrangements with OPG.

(ii) in the case of an incurrence of any related Redemption Obligation, material details respecting such Redemption Obligation, including the basis for determining to exercise any right, option or privilege that would result in an obligation to redeem, prepay or pay prior to a scheduled maturity any Approved Obligation, the basis for OPG's expectations regarding the availability of any related refinancings, and any required deposits to be made into a capital account or a finance reserve account in order to provide for payment of the Redemption Obligation;

(iii) in the case of an incurrence of any related Interest Obligation, material details respecting such Interest Obligation, including the applicable rate or rates (including default rates) and the timing and any conditions of payments, any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account or the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of the Interest Obligation, and the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the Interest Obligation;

(iv) in the case of an incurrence of any related Hedging Obligation, material details respecting such Hedging Obligation, including the counterparty payor(s), the credit ratings (if any) of the payor(s), the anticipated risk or risks to be mitigated by the related derivative agreement, the circumstances in which the Hedging Obligation may not achieve such mitigation or be subject to early termination and whether collateral posting requirements will apply;

(v) in the case of an incurrence of any related Other Funding Obligation and any related Third Party Expense Obligation, material details respecting such obligations, including the payees, the timing and any conditions of payments, and any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account or the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of such obligations;

(vi) in the case of any contingent obligation, material details respecting the contingent obligation of the financing entity under the funding obligation, including the nature and extent of any contingent payment, the circumstances in which the payment may arise and the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document;

(b) if an existing funding obligation is to be amended, material details respecting such amendment and the anticipated effect of the amendment on or in relation to the affected terms and conditions of the funding obligation, including regarding the applicable details set forth in (a), above, as the context requires;

(c) a statement that:

(i) the Principal Obligations, Redemption Obligations, Interest Obligations and Hedging Obligations becoming payable under the funding obligation (1) will arise under terms and conditions that are "Substantially in the Form" of the Reviewed Documentation applicable thereto; (2) in the opinion of such officers, are reasonably incurred in compliance with the OFHPA, the General Regulation, any other enactments related thereto and the applicable Financing Plan; (3) are of a type and are on terms that a reasonably prudent financial services manager would incur in similar circumstances; and (4) reflect, in all material respects, arm's length terms and conditions;

(ii) the Other Funding Obligations and Third Party Expense Obligations becoming payable under the funding obligation (1) will, in the opinion of such officers, be reasonably incurred in compliance with the OFHPA, the General Regulation, any other enactments related thereto and the applicable Financing Plan; (2) are of a type and are on terms that a reasonably prudent financial services manager would incur in similar circumstances; and (3) reflect, in all material respects, arm's length terms and conditions;

(iii) any Disclosure Document used in connection with the offering and sale of notes, bonds or other securities is "Substantially in the Form" of the Reviewed Documentation; and

(d) confirmation that if the funding obligation includes any contingent obligation, the applicable governing document for the funding obligation sets forth a maximum amount therefor; and

3. the Province has not provided written notice to OPG within • Toronto business days of receiving the certificate specified in 2, above, in respect of a proposed funding obligation stating that the Change of Law Protection Agreement shall not apply in respect of the funding obligation.

If the Adherence Conditions are satisfied, it will not be necessary for the Province to specifically approve the particular terms, conditions or documentation for the related funding obligations.

In connection with an incurrence or amendment of a funding obligation, OPG may certify to interested third parties that Adherence Condition 2[4] with respect thereto has been satisfied. Such certification shall be determinative (regardless of any inaccuracies, incompleteness or other defect in the certificate delivered) and may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

Reviewed Documentation

OPG will ensure that not less than • Toronto business days prior to the initial issuance of any funding obligation by the financing entity, the Province will have received copies, in substantially final form, of the following documents:

[4] Should this only relate to the certification or also the maximum program and the absence of a negating notice?

(a) the constating and organizational documents of the financing entity;

(b) any management, administration or servicing agreement to which the financing entity is a party, including any replacement or standby services agreement;

(c) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the financing entity and the IESO;

(d) the master trust indenture governing the issuance and common terms of notes or bonds and the security and priority of all Specified Claims that may be incurred from time to time by the financing entity;

(e) the form of supplemental indenture (supplemental to the master trust indenture referred to in (d), above) governing the terms and conditions of related series of notes or bonds issued by the financing entity and the particular allocations, security and priority of Specified Claims being serviced by related series property;

(f) the form of any note, bond or securities purchase agreement and any underwriting/agency/selling/subscription agreement with respect to sale of any series of notes, bonds or securities to be issued under the supplemental indenture referred to in (e), above;

(g) the form of any credit agreement governing the issuance of short term loan obligations by the financing entity;

(h) the form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the financing entity from time to time;

(i) the form of any other agreement or instrument under which a Principal Obligation, a Redemption Obligation, an Interest Obligation, a Hedging Obligation or an Other Funding Obligation may arise or be affected. For example, any other agreement under which the financing entity incurs a material financial obligation or that affects the Province's subrogation rights and subrogee interests must be provided to the Province and, if accepted, become part of the Reviewed Documentation in the future, such as standby liquidity arrangements or credit enhancement agreements;

(j) if applicable, any other agreement governing the respective interests of persons having rights or interests in the investment asset or other assets of the financing entity, including any agreement of the sort contemplated in subsection 29(5) of the OFHPA; and

(k) the form of disclosure document (including any offering circular, prospectus or other investor disclosure statement) (a "Disclosure Document") describing the material terms of the Funding Obligation together with any related material information.

If acceptable, the Province will confirm that such reviewed documents shall be the "Reviewed Documentation" for the purposes of Adherence Condition 2(c).

Any proposed changes, additions or supplements to the Reviewed Documentation will be provided to the Province not less than • Toronto business days prior to any proposed use or such documents becoming effective. Such modified, additional or supplemental documentation will only become "Reviewed Documentation" for the purposes of satisfying Adherence Condition 2(c) if the Province confirms same not less than • Toronto business days prior to the delivery and effective time of the certificate contemplated in Adherence Condition 2.

For the purposes of Adherence Condition 2(c), the term "Substantially in the Form" means:

(a) with respect to the Reviewed Documentation referred to in (a) to (j), above, that there are no differences between the proposed documents and such Reviewed Documentation that could result in a change in the material terms or conditions applicable to the Approved Obligations, including regarding the amount of the payment obligations or the timing of or circumstances under which related payments are or may become due or accrue (including as a result of any default, acceleration, termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization), or that would affect the Province's rights of subrogation or interests as a subrogee as a result of performing the Change of Law Protection Agreement with respect to any Approved Obligation;

(b) with respect to the Reviewed Documentation referred to in (e) to (h), above, and possibly (i) and (j) as the context requires, that the variable terms to be set forth in the proposed documents are as reasonably contemplated in the Reviewed Documentation, as to the type, scope and extent of the obligations arising thereunder and as to the timing, conditions and circumstances in which such obligations may arise, but without regard to the particular financial terms, rates, levels and parameters set forth in the proposed documents other than to the extent that the forms of Reviewed Documentation specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters with respect thereto; and

(c) with respect to the Disclosure Document referred to in (k), above, that there are no material differences between the form and substance of the proposed disclosure document and such Disclosure Document and that such proposed disclosure document complies in all material respects with all securities disclosure requirements relating to the Funding Obligation subject to distribution thereunder.

Program Maximum

The Program Maximum will be determined by the Province prior to the initial issuance of the first funding obligation. In determining the Program Maximum, the Province will have regard to (but not be bound by) OPG's forecast of the maximum payment obligations expected to arise under Approved Obligations during the next [12] month period, based on and in accordance with the applicable Financing Plan (the "Forecast"). OPG will be required to deliver the Forecast to the Province not less than • Toronto business days prior to the proposed incurrence of the first funding obligation. The Province will confirm the Program Maximum in writing to OPG and the financing entity.

The Forecast will be updated and delivered to the Province [quarterly] thereafter, or more frequently if OPG so elects, to reflect the maximum payment obligations expected to arise under Approved Obligations during the [12] month period immediately following the date of such updated Forecast, based on and in accordance with the applicable Financing Plan. Upon receiving an updated Forecast, the Province will determine whether or not the Program Maximum will be revised. Any determination to revise the Program Maximum will be confirmed by setting out a new Program Maximum in a written notice from the Province to OPG, the delivery of which will be conclusive evidence that such new Program Maximum will apply until further so revised.

On-Going Deliveries to the Province

Prior to the initial issuance of any funding obligation by the financing entity, OPG will provide the Province with a copy of the applicable Financing Plan and will promptly deliver to the Province a copy of any proposed change to or replacement of the Financing Plan.

Not later than • Toronto business days prior to the use or other dissemination by or on behalf of the financing entity of a disclosure document (including any offering circular, prospectus or other investor disclosure statement) respecting a funding obligation that will constitute an Approved Obligation, OPG will provide the Province with a copy of such disclosure document.

Not later than • Toronto business days prior to the incurrence by the financing entity of a funding obligation that will constitute an Approved Obligation, OPG will provide the Province with a written summary of the final terms and conditions of the proposed funding obligation.

Promptly following any incurrence of a funding obligation that constitutes an Approved Obligation or any amendment of such a funding obligation, OPG will be provide the Province with electronic copies of all related governing and all other closing documents executed by or on behalf of the financing entity in connection with such incurrence or amendment that would affect the financing entity's assets or obligations.

Upon request, OPG will provide the Province with such additional information and documentation as the Province requests in order to enable the Province to assess the nature and extent of its obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

For greater certainty, a failure by OPG to make the foregoing deliveries will not constitute a failure to satisfy the Adherence Conditions.

Covenants of OPG

To support the approval and related information processes described above, OPG will covenant to the Province (among other things) as follows:

(a) OPG will comply and ensure compliance by any financing entity (including as Financial Services Manager) with the OFHPA, the General Regulation and any other enactment related thereto;

(b) OPG will promptly notify the Province of the creation of any funding obligation that OPG determines is not or would not be an Approved Obligation;

(c) after the occurrence of any Protection Event (or any event that with the passage of time or the giving of notice would be a Protection Event), OPG will not, without the Province's prior written consent, permit any financing entity to exercise any redemption, pre-payment, early termination or extension right in respect of any Approved Obligation or exercise any other election or privilege in respect of any Approved Obligation, in each case if as a result the obligations applicable to the Approved Obligation under the Change of Law Protection Agreement would be accelerated, delayed or otherwise affected;

(d) if a funding obligation that is incurred includes a contingent obligation, OPG will ensure that the governing document for such funding obligation sets forth a maximum amount in order to limit the possible claim amount thereunder and OPG will ensure that such maximum amount is not increased without the Province's prior written consent; and

(e) OPG will ensure that any disclosure (including in any offering document) that refers to or describes the terms, effect or adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement will be subject to the prior review and approval of the Province.

For greater certainty, a failure by OPG to perform such covenants will not constitute a failure to satisfy the Adherence Conditions.

I believe these changes reflect our conversation earlier today.

I propose sending this over to OPG today, but will wait until after 4pm to do so, in case anyone has any further comments or issues that need to be addressed.

Please let me know by 4pm if you have anything to add.

Subject: RE: Fair Hydro -- Change of Law Assumption Agreement

Please see attached for discussion our draft proposal for an approval process. This proposal significantly fleshes out the issues and the process in much greater detail from the OPG proposal below.

One issue to note in particular is the process relating to the Program Maximum amount, and the proposed timing for addressing approvals relating to that amount.

Once this group has had a chance to review we can schedule a call or compile any comments before getting back to OPG.

Please see below an email from OPG's counsel setting out a proposed approval process setting out how the Provincial protection agreement would apply to any set of obligations of the Financing Entity.

We at MOF Legal along with Energy Legal and Stephen Ashbourne are in the process of reviewing their proposal and preparing comments. We will have significant comments and questions about this proposal, but wanted to give everyone a chance to review the OPG proposal so that we can discuss those comments as soon as we are ready to do so.

Steve, Malle and Toby, further to our meeting the other day, set out below for your review is a proposal on the Provincial approval process under the Change of Law Assumption Agreement. Once we have your feedback on this, we will need to share it with Osler and the accountants and as John mentioned, we are under some time pressure to bring this to a resolution prior to the upcoming June 29 OPG Board meeting. We look forward to your comments, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions. -- Rima

Obligor Approval

The Change of Law Assumption Agreement will apply to all Specified Claims relating to Funding Obligations that are incurred by an Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Obligor's approval process. The definition of Specified Claims to be mutually agreed by all parties.

In order for a Financing Entity to become designated as an Eligible Financing Entity by the Obligor, prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by such Financing Entity, the Obligor will be provided with copies of the following documents (collectively the "Program Documents") for review:

(i) the constating documents of such Financing Entity;
(ii) the management agreement between the Financing Entity and OPG;
(iii) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the Financing Entity and the IESO;
(iv) the master trust indenture governing the issuance of Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(v) a form of supplemental indenture governing the issuance of bonds, issuable in series, by the Financing Entity;
(vi) a form of note purchase agreement or credit agreement governing the issuance of short term Funding Obligations by the Financing Entity;
(vii) a form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the Financing Entity from time to time; and
(viii) such other documents as may be requested by the Obligor.

Once a Financing Entity is designated by the Obligor as an Eligible Financing Entity, it will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve the documentation related to specific issuances of Funding Obligations; however, OPG will be expected to notify the Obligor of any new material program documentation or any material amendments to existing program documentation before such new documentation or amendments become effective. The failure of OPG to provide any such notice will not invalidate the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to any Specified Claims.

It will not be necessary for the Obligor to approve each new issuance of Funding Obligations provided that such Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with following:

(1) The Funding Obligations are issued in accordance with agreements that contain: (a) covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity that are no more onerous in any material respect and (b) events of default that are consistent in all material respects, respectively, with the covenants of the Eligible Financing Entity and events of default contained in the draft Program Documents.

(2) At least [30 days] prior to the initial issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, OPG will provide the Obligor with a forecast of the principal amount and expected term of the Funding Obligations that OPG expects such Eligible Financing Entity to issue in accordance with the Financing Plan in the next two years (a "Two Year Forecast"). The execution of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement in respect of such Eligible Financing Entity shall constitute the Obligor's approval of the issuance of Funding Obligations by such Eligible Financing Entity in accordance with the Two Year Forecast.

(3) OPG shall provide the Obligor with an updated Two Year Forecast between 9 and 12 months prior to the expiry of each current Two Year Forecast.

(4) Unless the Obligor provides OPG with a written notice no later than 3 months prior to the date following receipt of the current Two Year Forecast that the Change of Law Assumption Agreement will be inapplicable with respect to new Funding Obligations incurred following the expiry of the current Two Year Forecast, the Obligor will be deemed to approve the application of the Change of Law Assumption Agreement to all Funding Obligations incurred up to the expiry of the new Two Year Forecast.

At the time of issuance of Funding Obligations by an Eligible Financing Entity, the Financing Entity will provide (i) any required certifications to the underwriters/agents that such Funding Obligations are covered by the Change of Law Assumption Agreement; and (ii) notice to the Obligor of the material terms of the Funding Obligations issued, together with electronic copies of the final executed Program Documents.

Adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement to Approved Obligations

Words that are not defined below and that are defined in the OFHPA or otherwise in the General Regulation will have the meanings given in the OFHPA or the General Regulation, as applicable.

Approval Process

Subject to satisfaction of the conditions described under "Adherence Condition", below, the Change of Law Protection Agreement will apply (without duplication) in respect of the following "Specified Claims" (as defined in the Term Sheet) of the applicable financing entity (collectively, the "Approved Obligations"):

1. repayments[1], other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from one or more committed refinancings or from amounts on deposit in a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Principal Obligations");

2. obligations incurred by the financing entity to pay specified redemption amounts, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from one or more refinancings or from amounts on deposit in a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Redemption Obligations");

3. interest payable under outstanding indebtedness of the financing entity, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account, from a funding rebate[2] or from payment proceeds under a related derivative agreement ("Interest Obligations");

4. derivative payments due and payable by the financing entity, determined on a net payment basis after the application of any collateral posted or available for posting by or on behalf of the financing entity to or for the benefit of the applicable counterparty, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from a funding rebate ("Hedging Obligations");

5. other funding costs due and payable by the financing entity and that are not included in 2, 3 or 4, above, other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from a funding rebate ("Other Funding Obligations"); and

[1] This assumes that repayments will only include scheduled principal amounts, without regard to default and acceleration.

[2] Incorporate alternative GA stream, as applicable, in relation to all covered amounts – including interest, derivative payments, other funding costs and expenses contemplated in paras. 3 to 6.

6. finance entity expenses, due and payable by the financing entity and that are not included in 2 to 5, above and [other than amounts charged by the Financial Services Manager][3], other than to the extent that funds are available for payment thereof from a finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account or from a funding rebate ("Third Party Expense Obligations"),

but excluding in each case payments due and payable by the financing entity in respect of any contingent obligation of the financing entity to the extent that such payments would in the aggregate exceed the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document.

For greater certainty, the Change of Law Protection Agreement will not apply to any other amount or obligation of the financing entity, including (a) any amounts that are or become payable as a result of the exercise of an option of the financing entity following a Protection Event (e.g., redemption or extension rights), (b) amounts required to be deposited by or on behalf of the financing entity into any capital account, finance reserve account or supplemental reserve account, (c) tax liabilities and (d) contingent payment obligations that exceed the maximum amount therefor specified in the applicable governing document.

Adherence Conditions

The Change of Law Protection Agreement will bind the Province in respect of a funding obligation that is an Approved Obligation if:

1. at the time the funding obligation is incurred, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due under the funding obligation, together with all other outstanding or committed Approved Obligations, do not exceed the Program Maximum;

2. OPG delivers a certificate, signed by at least two executive officers of OPG and addressed to the Province, not less than • Toronto business days prior to the incurrence or any amendment of the funding obligation, setting out the following with respect to the funding obligation:

   (a) the following information respecting a funding obligation to be incurred:

      (i) in the case of an incurrence of any related Principal Obligation, material details respecting such Principal Obligation, including the amount, timing and conditions of repayments (including any redemption or extension rights), the basis for OPG's expectations regarding the availability of any related refinancings, any required deposits to be made into a capital account or a finance reserve account in order to provide for payment of the Principal Obligation, and the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the Principal Obligation;

[3] Confirm arrangements with OPG.

(ii) in the case of an incurrence of any related Redemption Obligation, material details respecting such Redemption Obligation, including the basis for determining to exercise any right, option or privilege that would result in an obligation to redeem, prepay or pay prior to a scheduled maturity any Approved Obligation, the basis for OPG's expectations regarding the availability of any related refinancings, and any required deposits to be made into a capital account or a finance reserve account in order to provide for payment of the Redemption Obligation;

(iii) in the case of an incurrence of any related Interest Obligation, material details respecting such Interest Obligation, including the applicable rate or rates (including default rates) and the timing and any conditions of payments, any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account or the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of the Interest Obligation, and the rating (if any) contemplated to be attributed to the Interest Obligation;

(iv) in the case of an incurrence of any related Hedging Obligation, material details respecting such Hedging Obligation, including the counterparty payor(s), the credit ratings (if any) of the payor(s), the anticipated risk or risks to be mitigated by the related derivative agreement, the circumstances in which the Hedging Obligation may not achieve such mitigation or be subject to early termination and whether collateral posting requirements will apply;

(v) in the case of an incurrence of any related Other Funding Obligation and any related Third Party Expense Obligation, material details respecting such obligations, including the payees, the timing and any conditions of payments, and any required deposits to be made into a finance reserve account or supplemental account or the availability of any funding rebates in order to provide for payment of such obligations;

(vi) in the case of any contingent obligation, material details respecting the contingent obligation of the financing entity under the funding obligation, including the nature and extent of any contingent payment, the circumstances in which the payment may arise and the maximum amount specified therefor in the applicable governing document;

(b) if an existing funding obligation is to be amended, material details respecting such amendment and the anticipated effect of the amendment on or in relation to the affected terms and conditions of the funding obligation, including regarding the applicable details set forth in (a), above, as the context requires;

(c) a statement that:

(i) the Principal Obligations, Redemption Obligations, Interest Obligations and Hedging Obligations becoming payable under the funding obligation (1) will arise under terms and conditions that are "Substantially in the Form" of the Reviewed Documentation applicable thereto; (2) in the opinion of such officers, are reasonably incurred in compliance with the OFHPA, the General Regulation, any other enactments related thereto and the applicable Financing Plan; (3) are of a type and are on terms that a reasonably prudent financial services manager would incur in similar circumstances; and (4) reflect, in all material respects, arm's length terms and conditions;

(ii) the Other Funding Obligations and Third Party Expense Obligations becoming payable under the funding obligation (1) will, in the opinion of such officers, be reasonably incurred in compliance with the OFHPA, the General Regulation, any other enactments related thereto and the applicable Financing Plan; (2) are of a type and are on terms that a reasonably prudent financial services manager would incur in similar circumstances; and (3) reflect, in all material respects, arm's length terms and conditions;

(iii) any Disclosure Document used in connection with the offering and sale of notes, bonds or other securities is "Substantially in the Form" of the Reviewed Documentation; and

(d) confirmation that if the funding obligation includes any contingent obligation, the applicable governing document for the funding obligation sets forth a maximum amount therefor; and

3. the Province has not provided written notice to OPG within • Toronto business days of receiving the certificate specified in 2, above, in respect of a proposed funding obligation stating that the Change of Law Protection Agreement shall not apply in respect of the funding obligation.

If the Adherence Conditions are satisfied, it will not be necessary for the Province to specifically approve the particular terms, conditions or documentation for the related funding obligations.

In connection with an incurrence or amendment of a funding obligation, OPG may certify to interested third parties that Adherence Condition 2[4] with respect thereto has been satisfied. Such certification shall be determinative (regardless of any inaccuracies, incompleteness or other defect in the certificate delivered) and may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

Reviewed Documentation

OPG will ensure that not less than • Toronto business days prior to the initial issuance of any funding obligation by the financing entity, the Province will have received copies, in substantially final form, of the following documents:

[4] Should this only relate to the certification or also the maximum program and the absence of a negating notice?

(a) the constating and organizational documents of the financing entity;

(b) any management, administration or servicing agreement to which the financing entity is a party, including any replacement or standby services agreement;

(c) the master transfer and servicing agreement between the financing entity and the IESO;

(d) the master trust indenture governing the issuance and common terms of notes or bonds and the security and priority of all Specified Claims that may be incurred from time to time by the financing entity;

(e) the form of supplemental indenture (supplemental to the master trust indenture referred to in (d), above) governing the terms and conditions of related series of notes or bonds issued by the financing entity and the particular allocations, security and priority of Specified Claims being serviced by related series property;

(f) the form of any note, bond or securities purchase agreement and any underwriting/agency/selling/subscription agreement with respect to sale of any series of notes, bonds or securities to be issued under the supplemental indenture referred to in (e), above;

(g) the form of any credit agreement governing the issuance of short term loan obligations by the financing entity;

(h) the form of schedule to an ISDA Master Agreement governing derivative transactions that may be entered into the financing entity from time to time;

(i) the form of any other agreement or instrument under which a Principal Obligation, a Redemption Obligation, an Interest Obligation, a Hedging Obligation or an Other Funding Obligation may arise or be affected. For example, any other agreement under which the financing entity incurs a material financial obligation or that affects the Province's subrogation rights and subrogee interests must be provided to the Province and, if accepted, become part of the Reviewed Documentation in the future, such as standby liquidity arrangements or credit enhancement agreements;

(j) if applicable, any other agreement governing the respective interests of persons having rights or interests in the investment asset or other assets of the financing entity, including any agreement of the sort contemplated in subsection 29(5) of the OFHPA; and

(k) the form of disclosure document (including any offering circular, prospectus or other investor disclosure statement) (a "Disclosure Document") describing the material terms of the Funding Obligation together with any related material information.

If acceptable, the Province will confirm that such reviewed documents shall be the "Reviewed Documentation" for the purposes of Adherence Condition 2(c).

Any proposed changes, additions or supplements to the Reviewed Documentation will be provided to the Province not less than • Toronto business days prior to any proposed use or such documents becoming effective. Such modified, additional or supplemental documentation will only become "Reviewed Documentation" for the purposes of satisfying Adherence Condition 2(c) if the Province confirms same not less than • Toronto business days prior to the delivery and effective time of the certificate contemplated in Adherence Condition 2.

For the purposes of Adherence Condition 2(c), the term "Substantially in the Form" means:

(a) with respect to the Reviewed Documentation referred to in (a) to (j), above, that there are no differences between the proposed documents and such Reviewed Documentation that could result in a change in the material terms or conditions applicable to the Approved Obligations, including regarding the amount of the payment obligations or the timing of or circumstances under which related payments are or may become due or accrue (including as a result of any default, acceleration, termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization), or that would affect the Province's rights of subrogation or interests as a subrogee as a result of performing the Change of Law Protection Agreement with respect to any Approved Obligation;

(b) with respect to the Reviewed Documentation referred to in (e) to (h), above, and possibly (i) and (j) as the context requires, that the variable terms to be set forth in the proposed documents are as reasonably contemplated in the Reviewed Documentation, as to the type, scope and extent of the obligations arising thereunder and as to the timing, conditions and circumstances in which such obligations may arise, but without regard to the particular financial terms, rates, levels and parameters set forth in the proposed documents other than to the extent that the forms of Reviewed Documentation specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters with respect thereto; and

(c) with respect to the Disclosure Document referred to in (k), above, that there are no material differences between the form and substance of the proposed disclosure document and such Disclosure Document and that such proposed disclosure document complies in all material respects with all securities disclosure requirements relating to the Funding Obligation subject to distribution thereunder.

Program Maximum

The Program Maximum will be determined by the Province prior to the initial issuance of the first funding obligation. In determining the Program Maximum, the Province will have regard to (but not be bound by) OPG's forecast of the maximum payment obligations expected to arise under Approved Obligations during the next [12] month period, based on and in accordance with the applicable Financing Plan (the "Forecast"). OPG will be required to deliver the Forecast to the Province not less than • Toronto business days prior to the proposed incurrence of the first funding obligation. The Province will confirm the Program Maximum in writing to OPG and the financing entity.

The Forecast will be updated and delivered to the Province [quarterly] thereafter, or more frequently if OPG so elects, to reflect the maximum payment obligations expected to arise under Approved Obligations during the [12] month period immediately following the date of such updated Forecast, based on and in accordance with the applicable Financing Plan. Upon receiving an updated Forecast, the Province will determine whether or not the Program Maximum will be revised. Any determination to revise the Program Maximum will be confirmed by setting out a new Program Maximum in a written notice from the Province to OPG, the delivery of which will be conclusive evidence that such new Program Maximum will apply until further so revised.

On-Going Deliveries to the Province

Prior to the initial issuance of any funding obligation by the financing entity, OPG will provide the Province with a copy of the applicable Financing Plan and will promptly deliver to the Province a copy of any proposed change to or replacement of the Financing Plan.

Not later than • Toronto business days prior to the use or other dissemination by or on behalf of the financing entity of a disclosure document (including any offering circular, prospectus or other investor disclosure statement) respecting a funding obligation that will constitute an Approved Obligation, OPG will provide the Province with a copy of such disclosure document.

Not later than • Toronto business days prior to the incurrence by the financing entity of a funding obligation that will constitute an Approved Obligation, OPG will provide the Province with a written summary of the final terms and conditions of the proposed funding obligation.

Promptly following any incurrence of a funding obligation that constitutes an Approved Obligation or any amendment of such a funding obligation, OPG will be provide the Province with electronic copies of all related governing and all other closing documents executed by or on behalf of the financing entity in connection with such incurrence or amendment that would affect the financing entity's assets or obligations.

Upon request, OPG will provide the Province with such additional information and documentation as the Province requests in order to enable the Province to assess the nature and extent of its obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

For greater certainty, a failure by OPG to make the foregoing deliveries will not constitute a failure to satisfy the Adherence Conditions.

Covenants of OPG

To support the approval and related information processes described above, OPG will covenant to the Province (among other things) as follows:

(a) OPG will comply and ensure compliance by any financing entity (including as Financial Services Manager) with the OFHPA, the General Regulation and any other enactment related thereto;

(b) OPG will promptly notify the Province of the creation of any funding obligation that OPG determines is not or would not be an Approved Obligation;

(c) after the occurrence of any Protection Event (or any event that with the passage of time or the giving of notice would be a Protection Event), OPG will not, without the Province's prior written consent, permit any financing entity to exercise any redemption, pre-payment, early termination or extension right in respect of any Approved Obligation or exercise any other election or privilege in respect of any Approved Obligation, in each case if as a result the obligations applicable to the Approved Obligation under the Change of Law Protection Agreement would be accelerated, delayed or otherwise affected;

(d) if a funding obligation that is incurred includes a contingent obligation, OPG will ensure that the governing document for such funding obligation sets forth a maximum amount in order to limit the possible claim amount thereunder and OPG will ensure that such maximum amount is not increased without the Province's prior written consent; and

(e) OPG will ensure that any disclosure (including in any offering document) that refers to or describes the terms, effect or adherence of the Change of Law Protection Agreement will be subject to the prior review and approval of the Province.

For greater certainty, a failure by OPG to perform such covenants will not constitute a failure to satisfy the Adherence Conditions.
