All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

[Notes re this draft:
- all numbering of provisions may need to be re-done
- will need to check all definitions to ensure (1) that they are needed; and (2) that they work properly wherever the term is used in the Bill.
- additional consequential amendments likely required still
- overall organization of provisions still TBC (for now just trying to get all of the elements drafted and will reconsider architecture later)

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1]

The Government of Ontario has established a regulatory framework related to the generation and sale of electricity, which has promoted and continues to promote significant investment to enable the phasing out of coal fired generation, ~~modernizing sites and facilities in the Province for the generation of electrical energy and the production therefrom~~the modernization of electricity generation facilities,[2] and conservation and demand management initiatives.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of these investments~~, and the raising of money to fund the investments,~~[3] are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers~~.~~ , and that the costs of financing such fair allocation is similarly allocated among present and future generations of consumers. Specified consumers

(2) For the purposes of clause (a) of the definition of "specified consumer" in subsection (1), the person must meet any one of the following criteria:

1. The person has a demand for electricity of 50 kilowatts or less, or such other amount as may be prescribed.

2. The person annually uses not more than 250,000 kilowatt hours of electricity, or such other amount as may be prescribed.

3. The person carries on a business that is a farming business for the purposes of the Farm Registration and Farm Organizations Funding Act, 1993 and either holds a valid registration number assigned under that Act or ~~the~~ has had the obligation to file a farming business registration form waived pursuant to an order made under subsection 22 (6) of that Act.

4. The person's account with the electricity vendor relates to,

    i. a dwelling,

    ii. a property within the meaning of the Condominium Act, 1998,

    iii. a residential complex within the meaning of subsection 2 (1) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006, without regard to section 5 of that Act, or

    iv. a property that includes one or more housing units and that is owned or leased by a co-operative within the meaning of the Co-operative Corporations Act.

5. The person satisfies such criteria as may be prescribed.

Invoice amount

(2.1) Subject to subsection (2.2) and the regulations, the invoice amount for a specified consumer includes the following amounts:

1. In circumstances where the electricity is provided by a licensed distributor or a licensed retailer, the following:

    i. The commodity price of the electricity used during the invoice period.

    ii. The rates and charges set out in the applicable rate order issued by the Board under subsection 78 (3) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998.

iii. Any adjustment on the invoice required under section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998.

iv. The amount of any harmonized sales tax payable ~~[by the consumer?]~~ under Part IX of the Excise Tax Act (Canada); [NTD: Confirm that the intention is for the total bill reduction to be based on the after-tax total amount of the bill]

v. Any other amounts as may be prescribed.

2. In circumstances where the electricity is provided by the IESO, such amounts as may be prescribed. ("French")

[NTD: Need to deal with circumstances where invoice is issued by a licensed unit sub-meter provider]

Same, exclusions

(2.2) Except as otherwise prescribed by the regulations, the invoice amount does not include any of the following amounts:

1. The balance of any amounts carried forward from previous invoices.

2. Penalties or interest.

3. Charges that do not relate to ~~the use of~~ electricity.

4. Any of the following charges that may be set out in an order issued by the Board under subsection 78 (3) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998:

i. A fixed monthly service charge payable by a generation facility within the meaning of section 56 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 and classified as "microFIT".

ii. A charge labelled as a "specific service charge" or "retail service charge".

iii. A rate rider. [NTD: Consider the rationale of excluding rate riders, many of which are for costs that are directly related to the commodity price of electricity or rates and charges established under s. 78(3) of the OEB Act, all of which are more closely aligned with the types of items included in (2.1) rather than the items excluded under (2.2)]

5. Any other prescribed amounts.

Representative consumer

(3) For the purposes of the definition of "representative consumer" in subsection (1), the consumer,

(a) purchases electricity directly from Toronto Hydro;

(b) has an account with Toronto Hydro that falls within a residential-rate classification as specified in a rate order made by the Board under section 78 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998;

(c) is invoiced by Toronto Hydro on a monthly basis;

(d) is not invoiced by Toronto Hydro for electricity on an equal monthly payment plan or an equal billing plan; and

(e) uses, on average, 750 kilowatt hours of electricity each month.

~~Transfer~~

~~(4) For greater certainty, a transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of the regulatory asset includes any act of the IESO by which the< IESO purports to dispose of >its interest in the regulatory asset with the result of a named person becoming the owner of an investment interest.~~

Effect of invalidity, etc.[54]

2xx. (1) For greater certainty, all of the provisions of this Act remain in full force and effect, even if ~~some~~one or more provisions are held to be invalid, the intention of the Legislature being to give separate and independent effect to the extent of its powers to every provision contained in this Act.

Same, funding obligation

(2) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect the validity or enforceability of a funding obligation ~~that was~~ incurred under this Act before the day that the provision ~~was~~is held to be invalid or ~~ceased~~ceases to be in effect.

Purpose

3xx. (1) The purposes of this Act are,[65]

[54] Note: this is from the Climate Change Mitigation and Low-carbon Economy Act, 2016

[65] Note: Please see the Electricity Act, 1998 for much of the wording proposed in this section.

(a) to ~~ensure that clean energy costs are fairly~~fairly allocate clean energy costs among specified consumers over time and to reflect that fair allocation in the process by which these clean energy costs are funded; [NTD: See comments above regarding references to raising money] and [NTD: Alternatively: ". . . over time and that the costs of financing such fair allocation are similarly allocated among specified consumers over time ~~and that the process by which the Province raises money to fund the costs reflects the fair allocation; and~~"]

(b) to recognize that clean energy benefits that have accrued and that will accrue over time will continue to benefit present and future electricity consumers in the Province.

Crown bound

4xx. This Act binds the Crown.

Protection and assurances

Prohibition

5xx. (1) The Crown shall not do or cause or permit any agent of the Crown to do anything that would,

(a) hinder, delay, impair or prejudice the charging, collection ~~or,~~ remittance or recovery of the clean energy adjustment;

(b) except as expressly permitted by this Act, reduce, alter or impair the amount of the clean energy adjustment or lower the priority of the clean energy adjustment over other debts; or

(c) adversely affect an investment asset, investment interest or a funding obligation.

Clarification with respect to legislation and regulations

(2) For greater certainty, the things prohibited under subsection (1) include the making or approving or amending of a regulation under this Act, introducing or passing any amendments to this Act or any other Act, introducing or passing any new Act, or making or approving or amending a regulation under any other Act.

Agreements for compensation

(3) The Minister may, [with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council,] enter into agreements on behalf of the ~~Province of Ontario~~Crown with any person in respect of this Act, or in relation to this Act, including agreements regarding financial commitments, financial arrangements, indemnities, guarantees or similar transactions. [NTD: What are the implications of requiring LGIC approval?]

IESO and Electricity vendors, obligations
(4) If the IESO or an electricity vendor fails to carry out its obligations under this Act or the regulations for any reason, including because the IESO or the electricity vendor is dissolved or restructured or because it becomes insolvent, the Crown shall carry out those obligations or ensure they are carried out by another appropriate entity.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2018
Definition
6xx. (1) In this section,

"average baseline invoice amount" means the average monthly invoice amount that would be payable by a representative consumer under the average baseline rate; ("French")

"average baseline rate" means the average rate that would be payable effective May 1, 2017 by the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act, as determined by the Board by applying the method prescribed by the regulations under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of that Act as of May 1, 2017; ("French")

"sub-meter customer" means a person who is supplied electricity by a specified consumer, if an invoice for the electricity is issued to the person by [the specified consumer, by an agent of the specified consumer or by] [NTD: Consider deleting as these persons would not likely be permitted to provide sub-metering or to issue invoices other than based on sub-meters. Moreover, the language here would not even require them to have sub-meters] a unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer; ("French")

"licensed unit sub-meter provider" means a person who is licensed under Part V of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 to engage in unit sub-metering;

Rate determination
(2) Subject to subsection (3), [to more fairly measure and allocate the clean energy costs and clean energy benefits among present and future generations of specified consumers,] the rate for electricity payable by a specified consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2017 and ending on April 30, 2018 is the average rate that would be payable by a representative consumer in order for the representative consumer to receive ~~a~~[an average] monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent less than the average baseline invoice amount. [NTD: We think this should indicate 17% rather than 25% on the assumption that the "average baseline rate" does not account for the 8% Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers. If it is intended to say 25% here, then the "average baseline rate" must already account for the 8% OREC but this is not indicated] [NTD: Consider whether this provision works with the May 1, 2017 'interim' or partial reduction announced by the OEB]

Sub-meter customers

(3) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any licensed unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the sub-meter customer on behalf of the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the rate determined under subsection (2).

Determining rate

(4) The rate ~~mentioned~~described in subsection (2) shall be,

(a) determined by the Board within seven business days after this section receives Royal Assent; and

(b) effective as of the first day of the calendar month immediately following the determination. [NTD: If the legislation receives Royal Assent in May then the new rate would be applicable starting June 1, 2017.]

Transition

(5) If, for technical or operational reasons, an electricity vendor, specified consumer or licensed unit sub-meter provider is unable to adapt its invoices to comply with this section by the time it issues its first invoice for electricity consumed on or after May 1, 2017,

(a) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or licensed unit sub-meter provider shall adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than [August 1, 2017]; and

(b) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or licensed unit sub-meter provider shall ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the ~~applicable~~ rate described in subsection (2) receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2018 to April 30, 2022

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, [to more fairly measure and allocate the clean energy costs and clean energy benefits among present and future generations of specified consumers,] make regulations prescribing the rate for electricity payable by specified consumers and sub-meter customers during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [NTD: We believe you need to clarify whether or not Cabinet's authority to set rates under section 7xx is subject to the determination of the fair allocation amount in section 15xx.]

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

~~Specified~~Electricity vendor to invoice specified consumers ~~to pay clean energy adjustment~~

8xx. ~~(1~~ (1) Each electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each of its specified consumers for the consumer's amount of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with the regulations. [NTD: Need parallel requirements for sub-meter consumers to pay to licensed unit sub-meter providers and for the latter to pay electricity vendors on behalf of the relevant specified consumer]

>Electricity vendor to collect<

> (2) Each electricity vendor shall, as an agent of the IESO and the investment <interest owners, collect amounts in respect of> the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers [in accordance with the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998]. <

Specified consumers to pay clean energy adjustment

(3) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes an amount in respect of a clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay ~~the clean energy adjustment~~such amount to the electricity vendor, as agent of IESO and the investment ~~asset~~interest owners, in accordance with such terms of payment as may be specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(~~2~~4) For greater certainty, ~~subsection (1) applies regardless of,~~

(a) ~~whether the~~each clean energy adjustment is ~~inconsistent~~considered to be consistent with the fair allocation calculation applicable at the time when the payment is due; and

(b) ~~whether the~~each clean energy adjustment ~~relates~~is considered to relate to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was inconsistent with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(~~4~~5) An unpaid amount in respect of a clean energy adjustment that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the specified consumer to each investment ~~asset~~interest owner in respect of each investment interest owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Same

(~~5~~6) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (~~4~~5) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer under the invoice or otherwise.

~~<Irrevocability of clean energy adjustment>~~

~~9xx. (1) The amount*<of the clean energy adjustment shown on>* an invoice issued to a specified consumer <under this Act is determinative of the amount of> the consumer's <indebtedness created by> the adjustment and*< is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.>*~~

~~<Exception>~~

~~< (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a calculation error by the electricity vendor>.~~

Determination of clean energy adjustment

10xx. (1) The clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of a reference period shall be determined [NTD: by whom?] as follows:

1. Calculate the estimated finance amount for the reference period in accordance with Schedule 1 and such additional rules as may be prescribed. [NTD: Consider defining "estimated finance amount"]

2. Add the true up amount for the reference period, as determined in accordance with the prescribed method, to the estimated finance amount calculated under paragraph 1. [NTD: Consider defining "true up amount"]

True up amount

(2) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the method for determining the true up amount, having regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the estimated finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

   i. differences between amounts billed and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, and

   ii. variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption. [NTD: Confirm that true up will cover forecasting errors in addition to the rate reduction.] [NTD: But excluding variations attributable to the current RPP methodology or due to OREC]

IESO to issue remittance notice to electricity vendors

11xx. (1) The IESO shall, in accordance with the regulations, issue a remittance notice to each electricity vendor for the electricity vendor's portion, as determined in accordance with the regulations, of the clean energy adjustment in respect of a reference period. [NTD: This process needs to be re-considered. Under the OEB Act, electricity vendors may only charge their consumers the amounts that the OEB permits them to charge. IESO cannot tell EVs what to charge and EVs cannot determine on their own what to charge based on amounts invoiced by IESO. Moreover, it would be too much of a burden on EVs, and too much risk of error, to require them to determine charges for their consumers based on the overall portion of the CEA allocated to that EV. It is suggested that the alternative is a process whereby the OEB determines a rate that is applicable to all specified consumers. The rate would be based on information from IESO (i.e. forecast demand for all specified consumers in a reference period) and information from the Financial Services Manager (i.e. the estimated financing cost/total amount it needs in the reference period), which information the OEB would be required to accept in determining the applicable rate, which EVs would then be required to charge and remit to IESO]

IESO to collect

(2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment ~~asset~~interest owners, collect the clean energy adjustment from electricity vendors [in accordance with the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998].

Collection account

(3) All of the following amounts received by the IESO shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment ~~asset owner~~interest owners in accordance with subsection (5), be deposited promptly into an account established for the purposes of collecting those ~~accounts~~amounts:

1. Amounts described in subsection ~~12~~11xx (~~4~~2).

2. Payments made by specified consumers directly to the IESO as electricity vendor under subsection 8 (1).

Same, held in trust

(4) All amounts received by the IESO in respect of the clean energy adjustment shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment ~~asset owner~~interest owners in accordance with subsection (~~6~~5), be held, and are deemed to be held, in trust for the investment ~~asset~~interest owners or a secured party to whom a security interest in an investment interest is granted under this Act.

IESO to remit

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment to or for the benefit of the investment ~~asset~~interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

Collection of outstanding amounts~~, regulatory asset~~

(6) If the total clean energy adjustment payable by specified consumers in respect of a reference period is less than the amount contemplated to be payable under the applicable fair allocation calculation made by the Financial Services Manager under Part IV, the IESO may collect ~~the difference~~any outstanding IESO funding shortfall from specified consumers. [NTD: Does the methodology for doing so need to be further described in regulations?]

>Irrevocability of clean energy adjustment<

12xx. (1) The ~~electricity vendor shall issue~~amount in respect> of the clean energy adjustment shown on< an invoice issued to ~~each~~a specified consumer ~~for~~>under this Act is determinative of the amount of< the consumer's ~~amount of~~>indebtedness created by< the clean energy adjustment> is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.<

(a) fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of each reference period; and

(b) aligning funding obligations that may be incurred during each reference period with the allocation of the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits across present and future generations of specified consumers.

Amount

(1.1) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which the estimated [clean energy costs] [clean energy benefits] to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period exceeds the estimated amount of [the global adjustment] that would be borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs [in the absence of this Act].

2. An allocable portion of the value of any fair adjustment, determined in accordance with subsection (3). [NTD: Item 1 is a $ amount. Item 2 is a rate reduction measured in $Mwh]]

    iii. The expected volumes of electricity consumption ~~rates~~ for each reference period.

Allocation of fair adjustment

(3) If, before the ~~Financial Services Manager~~Minister has calculated the fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period, a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the calculation shall include a portion of the value of the fair adjustment in the fair allocation calculation for each future reference period. [NTD: If the intention is that the fair adjustment under Part II includes the $1B deferral announced by the OEB commencing May 1, 2017, this may not satisfy s. 6xx(2). Also, see Note after 15xx(1.1)(2)]]

Amendments to the fair allocation calculation

Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align the expected finance amount determined under Schedule 1 that would become due and payable during a reference period with the fair allocation amount determined for the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence~~, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment for the reference period~~. [NTD: See note after 15xx(1.1)(2)].

2. Incurrences and transfers should be implemented in a manner that~~, as~~ the Financial Services Manager ~~considers to be reasonable, is cost effective and~~determines reasonably reflects prevailing market terms and conditions.

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

~~[Note for reference: List of items for consideration in regulation: (a) anticipated IESO funding shortfalls and related transfer amounts; (b) the maturities of funding obligations; (c) the availability of refinancings, redemption opportunities and liquidity terms and conditions in order to achieve the objective contemplated in section X(1)(a); (d) the availability of currency and interest rate hedging facilities for the purpose of mitigating any differences between the expected finance amounts becoming due and payable during a reference period and the fair allocation amount for the reference period; (d) the amount and potential variability of interest rates and related financing costs; (e) available capital markets in which funding obligations may be incurred.]~~

Amendments to approved plan

(3) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time, without the approval of the Minister, subject to the requirements set out in this section. [NTD: How would amendment be communicated? See section 16xx(5).]

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in a clean energy adjustment for the reference period unless,

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations ~~incurred~~that would ~~not~~ be payable during the reference period ~~in an amount that exceeds~~would not exceed the [difference between the fair allocation amount for the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment for the reference period]. [NTD: Has anyone modelled this out to ensure that it is not too restrictive?]

Confidentiality of plan

[(~~4~~5) The Financing Plan is deemed to be a record subject to section 17 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.] [NTD: We believe that the Financing Plan would be a material fact to investors (and rating agencies) and would have to be disclosed.]

Can IESO do this calculation?] [NTD: See also the NTD at 11xx]

2. Calculate the sum of all invoice amounts issued to specified consumers for the month.

3. Subtract the amount calculated under paragraph 2 from the amount calculated under paragraph 1, and make any other adjustments as may be prescribed.

- all numbering of provisions may need to be re-done

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1]

The Government of Ontario has established a regulatory framework related to the generation and sale of electricity, which has promoted and continues to promote significant investment to enable the phasing out of coal fired generation, the modernization of electricity generation facilities,[2] and conservation and demand management initiatives.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of these investments are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers, and that the costs of financing such fair allocation is similarly allocated among present and future generations of consumers. [NTD: Delete references to "raising of money". This may imply a tax scheme. The references to generation facilities above is sufficient nexus to 92A(4)(b) of the Constitution 1867, if needed.]

[2] Note: please see clause 92A (4) (b) of the Constitution, 1867: "des emplacements et des installations de la province destinés à la production d'énergie électrique, ainsi que de cette production meme".

Specified consumers

(2) For the purposes of clause (a) of the definition of "specified consumer" in subsection (1), the person must meet any one of the following criteria:

4. The person's account with the electricity vendor relates to,

    i. a dwelling,

    ii. a property within the meaning of the Condominium Act, 1998,

    iii. a residential complex within the meaning of subsection 2 (1) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006, without regard to section 5 of that Act, or

    iv. a property that includes one or more housing units and that is owned or leased by a co-operative within the meaning of the Co-operative Corporations Act.

(2.1) Subject to subsection (2.2) and the regulations, the invoice amount for a specified consumer includes the following amounts:

(e) uses, on average, 750 kilowatt hours of electricity each month.

Effect of invalidity, etc.[4]

2xx. (1) For greater certainty, all of the provisions of this Act remain in full force and effect, even if one or more provisions are held to be invalid, the intention of the Legislature being to give separate and independent effect to the extent of its powers to every provision contained in this Act.

Same, funding obligation

(2) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect the validity or enforceability of a funding obligation incurred under this Act before the day that the provision is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect.

Purpose

3xx. (1) The purposes of this Act are,[5]

(a) to fairly allocate clean energy costs among specified consumers over time and to reflect that fair allocation in the process by which these clean energy costs are funded; [NTD: See comments above regarding references to raising money] and [NTD: Alternatively: ". . . over time and that the costs of financing such fair allocation are similarly allocated among specified consumers over time"]

(b) to recognize that clean energy benefits that have accrued and that will accrue over time will continue to benefit present and future electricity consumers in the Province.

Crown bound

4xx. This Act binds the Crown.

[4] Note: this is from the Climate Change Mitigation and Low-carbon Economy Act, 2016
[5] Note: Please see the Electricity Act, 1998 for much of the wording proposed in this section.

Protection and assurances
Prohibition

5xx. (1) The Crown shall not do or cause or permit any agent of the Crown to do anything that would,

(a) hinder, delay, impair or prejudice the charging, collection, remittance or recovery of the clean energy adjustment;

(b) except as expressly permitted by this Act, reduce, alter or impair the amount of the clean energy adjustment or lower the priority of the clean energy adjustment over other debts; or

(c) adversely affect an investment asset, investment interest or a funding obligation.

Clarification with respect to legislation and regulations

(2) For greater certainty, the things prohibited under subsection (1) include the making or approving or amending of a regulation under this Act, introducing or passing any amendments to this Act or any other Act, introducing or passing any new Act, or making or approving or amending a regulation under any other Act.

Agreements for compensation

(3) The Minister may, [with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council,] enter into agreements on behalf of the Crown with any person in respect of this Act, or in relation to this Act, including agreements regarding financial commitments, financial arrangements, indemnities, guarantees or similar transactions. [NTD: What are the implications of requiring LGIC approval?]

IESO and Electricity vendors, obligations

(4) If the IESO or an electricity vendor fails to carry out its obligations under this Act or the regulations for any reason, including because the IESO or the electricity vendor is dissolved or restructured or because it becomes insolvent, the Crown shall carry out those obligations or ensure they are carried out by another appropriate entity.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2018
Definition

6xx. (1) In this section,

"average baseline invoice amount" means the average monthly invoice amount that would be payable by a representative consumer under the average baseline rate; ("French")

"average baseline rate" means the average rate that would be payable effective May 1, 2017 by the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act, as determined by the Board by applying the method prescribed by the regulations under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of that Act as of May 1, 2017; ("French")

"sub-meter customer" means a person who is supplied electricity by a specified consumer, if an invoice for the electricity is issued to the person by [the specified consumer, by an agent of the specified consumer or by] [NTD: Consider deleting as these persons would not likely be permitted to provide sub-metering or to issue invoices other than based on sub-meters. Moreover, the language here would not even require them to have sub-meters] a unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer; ("French")

"licensed unit sub-meter provider" means a person who is licensed under Part V of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 to engage in unit sub-metering;

Rate determination

(2) Subject to subsection (3), [to more fairly measure and allocate the clean energy costs and clean energy benefits among present and future generations of specified consumers,] the rate for electricity payable by a specified consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2017 and ending on April 30, 2018 is the average rate that would be payable by a representative consumer in order for the representative consumer to receive [an average] monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent less than the average baseline invoice amount. [NTD: We think this should indicate 17% rather than 25% on the assumption that the "average baseline rate" does not account for the 8% Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers. If it is intended to say 25% here, then the "average baseline rate" must already account for the 8% OREC but this is not indicated] [NTD: Consider whether this provision works with the May 1, 2017 'interim' or partial reduction announced by the OEB]

Sub-meter customers

(3) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any licensed unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the sub-meter customer on behalf of the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the rate determined under subsection (2).

Determining rate

(4) The rate described in subsection (2) shall be,

(a) determined by the Board within seven business days after this section receives Royal Assent; and

(b) effective as of the first day of the calendar month immediately following the determination. [NTD: If the legislation receives Royal Assent in May then the new rate would be applicable starting June 1, 2017.]

Transition

(5) If, for technical or operational reasons, an electricity vendor, specified consumer or licensed unit sub-meter provider is unable to adapt its invoices to comply with this section by the time it issues its first invoice for electricity consumed on or after May 1, 2017,

(a) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or licensed unit sub-meter provider shall adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than [August 1, 2017]; and

(b) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or licensed unit sub-meter provider shall ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the rate described in subsection (2) receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2018 to April 30, 2022

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, [to more fairly measure and allocate the clean energy costs and clean energy benefits among present and future generations of specified consumers,] make regulations prescribing the rate for electricity payable by specified consumers and sub-meter customers during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [NTD: We believe you need to clarify whether or not Cabinet's authority to set rates under section 7xx is subject to the determination of the fair allocation amount in section 15xx.]

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Electricity vendor to invoice specified consumers

8xx. (1) Each electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each of its specified consumers for the consumer's amount of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with the regulations. [NTD: Need parallel requirements for sub-meter consumers to pay to licensed unit sub-meter providers and for the latter to pay electricity vendors on behalf of the relevant specified consumer]

Electricity vendor to collect

(2) Each electricity vendor shall, as an agent of the IESO and the investment interest owners, collect amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers [in accordance with the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998].

Specified consumers to pay clean energy adjustment

(3) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes an amount in respect of a clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay such amount to the electricity vendor, as agent of IESO and the investment interest owners, in accordance with such terms of payment as may be specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(4) For greater certainty,

(a) each clean energy adjustment is considered to be consistent with the fair allocation calculation applicable at the time when the payment is due; and

(b) each clean energy adjustment is considered to relate to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was inconsistent with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(5) An unpaid amount in respect of a clean energy adjustment that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the specified consumer to each investment interest owner in respect of each investment interest owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Same

(6) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (5) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer under the invoice or otherwise.

Determination of clean energy adjustment

10xx. (1) The clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of a reference period shall be determined [NTD: by whom?] as follows:

1. Calculate the estimated finance amount for the reference period in accordance with Schedule 1 and such additional rules as may be prescribed. [NTD: Consider defining "estimated finance amount"]

2. Add the true up amount for the reference period, as determined in accordance with the prescribed method, to the estimated finance amount calculated under paragraph 1. [NTD: Consider defining "true up amount"]

True up amount

(2) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the method for determining the true up amount, having regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the estimated finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

    i. differences between amounts billed and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, and

    ii. variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption. [NTD: Confirm that true up will cover forecasting errors in addition to the rate reduction.] [NTD: But excluding variations attributable to the current RPP methodology or due to OREC]

IESO to issue remittance notice to electricity vendors

11xx. (1) The IESO shall, in accordance with the regulations, issue a remittance notice to each electricity vendor for the electricity vendor's portion, as determined in accordance with the regulations, of the clean energy adjustment in respect of a reference period. [NTD: This process needs to be re-considered. Under the OEB Act, electricity vendors may only charge their consumers the amounts that the OEB permits them to charge. IESO cannot tell EVs what to charge and EVs cannot determine on their own what to charge based on amounts invoiced by IESO. Moreover, it would be too much of a burden on EVs, and too much risk of error, to require them to determine charges for their consumers based on the overall portion of the CEA allocated to that EV. It is suggested that the alternative is a process whereby the OEB determines a rate that is applicable to all specified consumers. The rate would be based on information from IESO (i.e. forecast demand for all specified consumers in a reference period) and information from the Financial Services Manager (i.e. the estimated financing cost/total amount it needs in the reference period), which information the OEB would be required to accept in determining the applicable rate, which EVs would then be required to charge and remit to IESO]

IESO to collect

(2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment interest owners, collect the clean energy adjustment from electricity vendors [in accordance with the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998].

Collection account

(3) All of the following amounts received by the IESO shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with subsection (5), be deposited promptly into an account established for the purposes of collecting those amounts:

1. Amounts described in subsection 11xx (2).

2. Payments made by specified consumers directly to the IESO as electricity vendor under subsection 8 (1).

Same, held in trust

(4) All amounts received by the IESO in respect of the clean energy adjustment shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with subsection (5), be held, and are deemed to be held, in trust for the investment interest owners or a secured party to whom a security interest in an investment interest is granted under this Act.

IESO to remit

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment to or for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

Collection of outstanding amounts

(6) If the total clean energy adjustment payable by specified consumers in respect of a reference period is less than the amount contemplated to be payable under the applicable fair allocation calculation made by the Financial Services Manager under Part IV, the IESO may collect any outstanding IESO funding shortfall from specified consumers. [NTD: Does the methodology for doing so need to be further described in regulations?]

Irrevocability of clean energy adjustment

12xx. (1) The amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness created by the clean energy adjustment is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a calculation error by the electricity vendor, which error shall be corrected in accordance with section 10xx(2).

Pro rating of payments

(3) If an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices and the amount paid is less than the total amount payable, the electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices in respect of electricity charges for the same invoice period.

Held in trust

(4) All of the following amounts received by an electricity vendor shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner in accordance with subsection (5), be held, and shall be deemed to be held, in trust for the investment interest owners or a secured party to whom a security interest in an investment interest is granted under this Act:

1. Payments received from or on behalf of specified consumers under subsection 8 (1).

2. Portions of payments received from or on behalf of specified consumers under subsection 8 (1) that are allocated to the clean energy adjustment under subsection (3).

3. Any proceeds arising from the exercise and enforcement of any rights and interests under or in respect of the investment asset.

Remittance to IESO

(5) Each electricity vendor other than the IESO shall remit amounts described in subsection (4) to the IESO for the benefit of the investment interest owners or secured parties in accordance with the regulations.

Regulations

(6) If an electricity vendor fails, in the manner described in the regulations, to comply with the requirements of this section, the electricity vendor shall take such steps as the regulations may prescribe.

[NTD: Need parallel requirements for licensed unit sub-meter providers to invoice and collect from sub-meter customers and allocate on a pro-rata basis, hold amounts in trust and remit to EVs on behalf of the relevant specified consumers]

PART IV
IMPLEMENTATION

FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER

Appointment

13xx. (1) [Note: To be elaborated.] [NTD: Limit appointment to the FSM's role under section 16xx of the Act only]

Termination

(2) The Minister may by written order terminate the appointment of an appointee as the Financial Services Manager for purposes of section 16xx of the Act if,

(a) the Minister has advised the appointee that the Financing Plan is either inconsistent with or is being implemented in a manner that is inconsistent with the principles set out in section x;

(b) the appointee has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to consider and address the inconsistency; and

(c) the appointee is unwilling or unable to address the inconsistency to the satisfaction of the Minister.

Replacement

(3) Upon terminating an appointment, the Minister may, in accordance with the regulations, appoint a new person or entity as the Financial Services Manager for purposes of section 16xx of the Act.

Duties and powers

14xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall perform the duties assigned to it under this Act and may administer the investment asset on behalf of the investment interest owners.

Same

(2) The administration of the investment asset may include the following:

1. Providing information, in accordance with the regulations, to the Board in respect of funding obligations and the determination of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with section XX.

2. Providing information to the IESO for distribution to electricity vendors, in respect of obligations under Part III.

3. Such other matters as may be prescribed. [NTD: What is contemplated here?]

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations. [NTD: Please confirm that fees to be paid to OPG will be address in the regulations.] [NTD: Need to understand intended scope and nature of OEB review to determine if this language is appropriate].

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Minister to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Minister shall calculate the fair allocation amount for the purposes of,

(a) fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of each reference period; and

(b) aligning funding obligations that may be incurred during each reference period with the allocation of the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits across present and future generations of specified consumers.

Amount

(1.1) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which the estimated [clean energy costs] [clean energy benefits] to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period exceeds the estimated amount of [the global adjustment] that would be borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs [in the absence of this Act].

2. An allocable portion of the value of any fair adjustment, determined in accordance with subsection (3). [NTD: Item 1 is a $ amount. Item 2 is a rate reduction measured in $Mwh]]

Principles

(2) In calculating the fair allocation amount [or in developing the fair allocation calculation?], subject to subsection (3), the Minister shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined based on [Insert principles].

3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The funding costs associated with the funding obligations, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers for each reference period.

    iii. The expected volumes of electricity consumption for each reference period.

Allocation of fair adjustment

(3) If, before the Minister has calculated the fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period, a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the calculation shall include a portion of the value of the fair adjustment in the fair allocation calculation for each future reference period. [NTD: If the intention is that the fair adjustment under Part II includes the $1B deferral announced by the OEB commencing May 1, 2017, this may not satisfy s. 6xx(2). Also, see Note after 15xx(1.1)(2)]]

Amendments to the fair allocation calculation

(4) The Minister may amend the fair allocation calculation from time to time, as the Minister considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Effective date

(5) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Lieutenant Governor in Council, or such shorter period as the Lieutenant Governor in Council may approve. [NTD: There should be a tie in to section 7xx.]

Publication

(6) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare and provide to the Minister a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred for the purposes of this Act.

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align the expected finance amount determined under Schedule 1 that would become due and payable during a reference period with the fair allocation amount determined for the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence. [NTD: See note after 15xx(1.1)(2)].

2. Incurrences and transfers should be implemented in a manner that the Financial Services Manager determines reasonably reflects prevailing market terms and conditions.

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

Amendments to approved plan

(3) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time, without the approval of the Minister, subject to the requirements set out in this section. [NTD: How would amendment be communicated? See section 16xx(5).]

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in a clean energy adjustment for the reference period unless,

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations that would be payable during the reference period would not exceed the [difference between the fair allocation amount for the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment for the reference period]. [NTD: Has anyone modelled this out to ensure that it is not too restrictive?]

Confidentiality of plan

[(5) The Financing Plan is deemed to be a record subject to section 17 of the *Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.] [NTD: We believe that the Financing Plan would be a material fact to investors (and rating agencies) and would have to be disclosed.]

Financing entities

17xx. (1) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations and make transfers.

Implementation of Financing Plan

(2) The Financial Services Manager shall in good faith make reasonable efforts to cause financing entities to incur funding obligations and make transfers in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan.

Same

(3) Any funding obligation incurred by the Financial Services Manager on behalf of a financing entity is considered to be incurred in conformance with the applicable Financing Plan.

Prohibition

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, Ontario Power Generation Inc., any subsidiary of Ontario Power Generation Inc. (other than a financing entity), the Board, the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation.

Effect of amendment to Financing Plan

(5) Each funding obligation incurred and each transfer made by a financing entity shall be considered to be, on occurrence or on transfer, consistent with the Financing Plan and consistent with each fair allocation amount.

PART V
THE REGULATORY ASSET

Interpretation, portion of regulatory asset

18xx. If a transfer under this Part provides for the transfer of a portion of the regulatory asset, any references in this Part to the regulatory asset are deemed to be references to the portion of the regulatory asset transferred.

[Note: This is meant to assist with clarity in the subsequent provisions.]

Variance account

19xx. (1) The Board shall issue an accounting order authorizing the IESO to [NTD: Consider if any value in having the OEB do this. If OEB derives all of its powers from the legislature, then why can't legislature just directly authorize the IES to establish the account in the legislation?]:

1. establish a variance account for the purposes of this Act;

2. record the IESO funding shortfall in the variance account from time to time [NTD: monthly?]; and

3. recover the IESO funding shortfall in accordance with section X and the regulations.

No hearing

(2) The accounting order of the Board made under (1) shall be made in writing and without holding a hearing. [NTD: Timing?]

No appeals, etc.

(3) No appeal lies from the accounting order of the Board made under (1).

IESO funding shortfall

20xx. (1) The IESO shall determine the IESO funding shortfall for each month in the following manner:

1. Calculate the sum of all invoice amounts that would be issued to specified consumers for the month if Part II of this Act did not apply. [NTD: This requires IESO to determine what the RPP rate would have been but for this Act. Can IESO do this calculation?] [NTD: See also the NTD at 11xx]

2. Calculate the sum of all invoice amounts issued to specified consumers for the month.

3. Subtract the amount calculated under paragraph 2 from the amount calculated under paragraph 1, and make any other adjustments as may be prescribed.

Same

(2) To the extent that the IESO funding shortfall for any month is based on an estimate of the electricity used by specified consumers, the IESO shall record an adjustment in the variance account in the following month to reflect the difference between the estimate and the electricity actually used by specified consumers.

Recording of IESO funding shortfall

(3) IESO shall record the IESO funding shortfall from time to time [NTD: monthly?], including adjustments resulting from the exercise of the right of recovery under section 21 and any transfer under section 22, in the variance account.

Recording determinative

(4) A recording of the IESO funding shortfall in the variance account is determinative of the amount of IESO funding shortfall at the time of the recording.

Regulatory asset established

21xx. (1) The IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations, to recover the IESO funding shortfall.

Same, restrictions

(2) The IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall under subsection (1) is subject to the following:

1. The IESO shall not be entitled to collect the IESO funding shortfall from specified consumers before May 1, 2022. [NTD: Accountants to confirm that this will not preclude treatment as a regulatory asset for accounting purposes.]

2. The process by which the IESO may recover the IESO funding shortfall shall be established by the Board, having regard to the amount of the IESO funding shortfall from time to time and the [fair allocation calculation].

3. Such other conditions as may be prescribed.

Transfer of regulatory asset

22xx. (1) The IESO may transfer all or a portion of the regulatory asset to any financing entity under the Financing Plan.

Same

(2) Upon receipt of any payment in consideration for the transfer,

(a) the IESO shall record the payment as a reduction of the IESO funding shortfall in the variance account; and

(b) the IESO shall have no further right, title or interest in the regulatory asset or in the related investment asset. [NTD: Need for certainty on this point should prevail. The obligations of IESO in respect of the investment asset will be primarily created by contract.]

Same

(3) Upon transfer, the financing entity acquires an investment interest and becomes an investment interest owner.

Validity of transfer

23xx. (1) A transfer of a regulatory asset under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer to the investment interest owner of the regulatory asset, and the investment asset created by the transfer shall be immediately vested in the transferee.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), any transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall, and not merely as a security interest, and upon the absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the regulatory asset, including all rights to recover the IESO funding shortfall.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of a regulatory asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected (as such term is used in the Personal Property Security Act), vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the transferee shall have priority over any liens in favour of those persons.

PART VI
THE INVESTMENT ASSET

Interpretation, investment asset

24xx. If a transfer under this Part provides for the transfer of an investment asset, any references in this Part to the investment interest are deemed to be references to the specific investment interest transferred.

Investment asset established

25xx. (1) The investment asset constitutes a current and irrevocable property right and interest consisting, collectively, of the following rights and interests of investment interest owners:

1. The right to impose, bill, invoice, collect, receive and recover the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers, including the right to determine the amount of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with this Act.

2. The right to receive, collect and recover all amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment that are imposed, billed, invoiced and recoverable under this Act, including any and all amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment that are held by electricity vendors or other prescribed parties.

3. All rights and entitlements under such accounts as may be prescribed by regulation and all amounts on deposit in such accounts.

4. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to impose, attribute, charge, bill and invoice the clean energy adjustment.

5. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to collect, receive and remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment, including all collections and the proceeds of any enforcement action undertaken by an electricity vendor to recover payment of the clean energy adjustment.

6. All rights of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) that attach or are attendant or incidental to any of the other property rights or interests that comprise the investment interest owner's investment interest.

7. All revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds of or derived from the rights described in paragraphs 1 to 6, regardless of whether such revenue, collections, claims, payments and proceeds are imposed, invoiced, collected and maintained together with or commingled with other revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds.

Same

(2) An investment interest is not affected by any failure to impose, attribute, invoice, accrue or collect the clean energy adjustment.

No set off, etc.

(3) The investment asset shall not be set off or reduced by any person in any circumstance, including,

(a) by a consumer, an electricity vendor, an agent of the investment interest owner or an owner of distribution system assets in the Province;

(b) in connection with any default of a person mentioned in clause (a); or

(c) by any affiliate or successor of a person mentioned in clause (a).

Exercise of rights

(4) The rights of the investment interest owner to collect and enforce its rights and interests in, to and in respect of the investment asset against a specified consumer shall be exercised in accordance with Part III of this Act. [NTD: PPSA has nothing to do with it.]

Collective action required

(5) If the investment interest owner owns a right or interest in the investment asset that comprises less than the entire property right and interest constituted by the investment asset, the right or interest shall only be enforced by the investment interest owner collectively and in coordination with all other investment interest owners, and any agreement among that collective in furtherance of the collective action shall be valid and binding on the investment interest owner as a collective in accordance with its terms. [Note: Successors may need to be addressed here.] [NTD: Successors can be addressed in the agreement.]

Transfer of investment interest

26xx. An investment interest owner may transfer all or a portion of its rights and interests in an investment interest to any other investment interest owner, including by way of a transfer of a divided or an undivided interest, in accordance with the Financing Plan.

Validity of transfer

27xx. (1) A transfer of an investment interest under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer of the investment interest and confers upon the owner of the investment interest acquired a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment interest in accordance with the terms of the transfer.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of an investment interest owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment interest, and not merely as a security interest, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the investment interest, subject to the transfer, including all rights to the investment interest arising after the transfer.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of an investment interest is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected (as such term is used in the Personal Property Security Act), vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer, assignment, etc.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the investment interest owner shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons, other than those granted in accordance with section 28xx of the Act.

Investment interest owner may grant security interest

28xx. (1) An investment interest owner may grant a security interest over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under an investment interest to or in favour of any person to secure a funding obligation.

Validity

(2) A security interest granted under this Act shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Perfection and priority of security interests

(3) All provisions of the Personal Property Security Act shall apply to the investment asset and each investment interest on the basis that it is intangible personal property, except as otherwise provided for in this section, and any granting of a security interest by the owner of an investment interest to secure a funding obligation shall, subject to the terms of the funding obligation, give rise to a security interest in respect of which that Act applies and may be perfected by filing a financing statement under that Act on that basis.

Proceeds

(4) All proceeds of an investment interest that are subject to the security interest and that are received by the applicable investment interest owner shall immediately be subject to the security interest and shall be perfected without any physical delivery of the proceeds, registration of any financing statement or any further act.

Perfection

(5) The security interest shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may subsequently attach to the property rights and interests in the investment interest subject to the security interest, subject to the written consent of the person to whom the security interest has been granted.

Same

(6) The person to whom the security interest has been granted shall have a perfected security interest in revenues or other proceeds that are deposited in any account of any electricity vendor, an agent of an electricity vendor or other person who may have commingled such revenues or other proceeds with other funds.

PART VI
MISCELLANEOUS

Appointment of agent, invoicing or collection

29xx. If a prescribed circumstance applies, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by regulation appoint a person to carry out some or all of the obligations of an electricity vendor under this Act in the place of an electricity vendor with respect to invoicing or collection. [NTD: Consider whether this should be subject to OEB power to replace a licensee under s. 59 of the OEB Act]

Not Crown agent

30xx. For greater certainty, no agent appointed under this Act is an agent of the Crown for any purpose, despite the Crown Agency Act.

Sequestration

31xx. (1) A court in the Province may, upon application by an investment interest owner or a secured party, order the sequestration and payment of the clean energy adjustment, collections and remittances, as applicable, for the benefit of the investment interest owner or secured party by any person or entity authorized to collect the clean energy adjustment, including defaults on any required remittance of the clean energy adjustment, collections or remittances.

Same

(2) An order under subsection (1) does not limit any other remedies available to the applicant.

Same

(3) An order under subsection (1) shall remain in full force and effect despite any proceedings with respect to the person or entity who is subject to the order.

Choice of law

32xx. The law governing, as applicable, the validity, enforceability, attachment, perfection, priority and exercise of remedies with respect to the transfer of an interest or right or creation of a security interest in the regulatory asset, the investment asset, the clean energy adjustment or the undertaking of the Crown under section x shall be the laws of the Province.

Conflict

33xx. The provisions of this Act and the regulations apply despite any provision of any other Act regarding the attachment, assignment or perfection, or the effect of perfection or priority of any transfer or security interest.

No further approvals, etc.

34xx. Despite any requirement under any Act, no approvals, notices or authorizations other than those specified in this Act are required with respect to the actions to be taken in compliance with this Act, including actions to be taken under the Financing Plan or in relation to the calculation of the fair allocation amount or the fair adjustment.

Immunity

35xx. (1) No action or other proceeding for damages shall be instituted against any employee of the Province, IESO, OPG or OEB for any act done in good faith in the execution or intended execution of any duty or authority under this Act or for any alleged neglect or default in the execution in good faith of any duty or authority under this Act.

Same

(2) Despite subsections 5 (2) and (4) of the Proceedings Against the Crown Act, subsection (1) does not relieve the Crown of liability in respect of a tort committed by a person mentioned in subsection (1) to which it would otherwise be subject.

References in marketing materials and offering documents

36xx. No person shall include, in marketing materials or offering documents relating to the financing of funding obligations, references to any rights, obligations, guarantees or undertakings arising under this section unless the prescribed requirements, if any, are satisfied. [NTD: Does this belong in section 5xx? Please note that offering documents will have to refer to support from the Province.]

Non-application, Financial Administration Act, s. 28[6]

37xx. Section 28 of the Financial Administration Act does not apply with respect to any transaction or agreement or undertaking required, permitted, contemplated or authorized, directly or indirectly, under this Act.

Standing and Remedies

38xx. (a) Any investment interest owner, any creditor of an investment interest owner and any Financial Services Manager may apply to a court for an order under this section.

(b) Where upon an application under subsection (a), the court is satisfied that the IESO, any electricity vendor or any other Person has not complied with, or is not complying with, this Act or the regulations to this Act, the court may make an order to rectify the matters complained of.

(c) In connection with an application under this section, the court may make any interim or final order it thinks fit, including an order restraining the conduct complained of and an order to compensate an investment interest owner, any creditor of an investment interest owner and any Financial Services Manager.

(d) The rights of an investment interest owner, any creditor of an investment interest owner and any Financial Services Manager under this section are in addition to any other rights any of them may have.

(e) In this section, court means the Superior Court of Justice.

(f) An appeal lies to the ■ from any order made by the court under this section.

[NTD: This language is based on language in the OBCA]

Regulations

39xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations,

All - Thank you for the detailed comments that you provided on Saturday and Sunday. Please find attached the next turn of the legislation. We have tried to balance the comments that we received to address the points that you have raised. This draft does not reflect the drafting points that were raised over Monday and Tuesday and we will reflect those points in our next instructions to legislative counsel. Please review and identify any significant substantive issues by 6 p.m. today. We continue to work toward pens down on Friday, meaning the draft that we have at that point in time will be proposed for introduction in the House. Thank you again for your contributions to this process.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes' summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

A proposal to create Legislation.

EXPLANATORY NOTE TO BE ADDED BY LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL TO ANY FINAL BILL PRIOR TO INTRODUCTION.

Confidential Draft

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1] These commitments can only be achieved if costs are shared fairly among consumers, today and in the future.

Electricity rates have risen for two key reasons. First, decades of under-investment in the electricity system resulted in the need to invest more than $50 billion in generation, transmission and distribution assets to ensure the system ~~is~~will continue to be clean and reliable. Second, the decision to eliminate Ontario's use of coal and produce clean, renewable power has created additional costs.

The actions taken to achieve a clean, modern and reliable electricity system have resulted in significant costs to consumers today. The burden of financing these system improvements and funding key programs has unfairly fallen almost entirely on the shoulders of today's consumers.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of financing these investments and the associated charges to consumers are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Recognizing that the electricity infrastructure that has been built and the policy decisions that have been made will create benefits for years to come, costs should be allocated fairly over time, so that consumers in the future pay their fair share for the benefits that they receive from the investments already made.

Specified consumers (non-RPP), first fair adjustment

6.2xx The rate for electricity payable by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate that would be necessary in order for [the monthly global adjustment rate] in respect of a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer (RPP) and who meets the prescribed criteria to be reduced by the same amount as the difference between the comparison rate referred to in subsection 6.1xx (2) and the rate determined under subsection 6.1xx (1). [NTD: It is not clear what reduction is contemplated by this provision. It sounds like whereas RPP specified consumers are to receive a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to their total bill, non-RPP specified consumers will only be entitled to a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to the GA component of their bill. Or is the intent to reduce non-RPP specified consumers GA component by the $/kWh difference between the comparison rate and rate determined under subsection 6.1xx(1), i.e. a rate reduction factor?]

Determination by Board

6.3xx The Board shall determine the rates mentioned in sections 6.1xx and 6.2xx no later than seven business days after the day this section receives Royal Assent.

Implementation of rates

6.4xx Each electricity vendor, [specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for a specified consumer] shall, no later than seven business days after the day on which the Board determines the rates under section 6.3xx, adapt ~~is~~its billing practices and invoices to reflect the new rates.

1. The first day of the month immediately following the last day of the seven-day period referred to in section 6.4xx.

2. July 1, 2017.

Transition

6.6xx (1) This section applies if an electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider is unable to comply with section 6.4xx for one of the following reasons:

1. There are fewer than seven days between the day of the Board's determination of rates under section 6.3xx and the effective date.

2. Technical or operational reasons.

Same

(2) In the circumstances described in subsection (1), the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall,

(a) adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than August 1, 2017; and

(b) ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the applicable rate determined by the Board receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Subsequent fair adjustments

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the methodology to be applied by the Board to determine rates for electricity payable by specified consumers and sub-meter customers during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [NTD: we understand that the intent is to gradually smooth increases after 2022 by continuing the IESO's under-recovery/shortfall after 2022, albeit at a reduced level. If correct, this part of the Act would need to be further amended to provide authority to do this. Would also need to be reflected in the IESO funding shortfall provisions.]

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

    i. differences between the estimated and actual finance amount for the immediately preceding reference period,

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1] These commitments can only be achieved if costs are shared fairly among consumers, today and in the future.

Electricity rates have risen for two key reasons. First, decades of under-investment in the electricity system resulted in the need to invest more than $50 billion in generation, transmission and distribution assets to ensure the system will continue to be clean and reliable. Second, the decision to eliminate Ontario's use of coal and produce clean, renewable power has created additional costs.

The actions taken to achieve a clean, modern and reliable electricity system have resulted in significant costs to consumers today. The burden of financing these system improvements and funding key programs has unfairly fallen almost entirely on the shoulders of today's consumers.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of financing these investments and the associated charges to consumers are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Recognizing that the electricity infrastructure that has been built and the policy decisions that have been made will create benefits for years to come, costs should be allocated fairly over time, so that consumers in the future pay their fair share for the benefits that they receive from the investments already made.

(c) specify a maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT OF ELECTRICITY RATES

Definitions

6xx. In this Part,

"effective date" means the date determined under section 6.5xx; ("French")

"RPP rate" means the rate determined by the Board under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, which rate is commonly referred to as the Regulated Price Plan"; ("French")

"specified RPP consumer" means a specified consumer who meets the following criteria:

Confidential Draft

1. The consumer is a member of the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations made under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act.

2. The consumer is subject to the RPP rate. ("French")

Specified RPP consumer, first fair adjustment

6.1xx (1) The rate for electricity payable by a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate required for a specified RPP consumer who meets the prescribed criteria to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent lower than the monthly invoice amount for that consumer under the comparison rate described in subsection (2).

Comparison rate

(2) The comparison rate is the rate that would be effective May 1, 2017, determined by the Board solely using the method prescribed by the regulations made under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998. [NTD: Is it necessary to more explicitly tie this to what the rate would have been in the absence of the govt's fair hydro plan since the OEB will set reduced RPP rates on May 1 under the current statute/regs]

Same

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the applicable method is the method on the day this section comes into force.

Specified consumers (non-RPP), first fair adjustment

6.2xx The rate for electricity payable by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate that would be necessary in order for [the monthly global adjustment rate] in respect of a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer (RPP) and who meets the prescribed criteria to be reduced by the same amount as the difference between the comparison rate referred to in subsection 6.1xx (2) and the rate determined under subsection 6.1xx (1). [NTD: It is not clear what reduction is contemplated by this provision. It sounds like whereas RPP specified consumers are to receive a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to their total bill, non-RPP specified consumers will only be entitled to a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to the GA component of their bill. Or is the intent to reduce non-RPP specified consumers GA component by the $/kWh difference between the comparison rate and rate determined under subsection 6.1xx(1), i.e. a rate reduction factor?]

Determination by Board

6.3xx The Board shall determine the rates mentioned in sections 6.1xx and 6.2xx no later than seven business days after the day this section receives Royal Assent.

Confidential Draft

Implementation of rates

6.4xx Each electricity vendor, [specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for a specified consumer] shall, no later than seven business days after the day on which the Board determines the rates under section 6.3xx, adapt its billing practices and invoices to reflect the new rates.

Effective date

6.5xx The rates determined under section 6.3xx are effective on the earlier of the following days:

1. The first day of the month immediately following the last day of the seven-day period referred to in section 6.4xx.

2. July 1, 2017.

Transition

6.6xx (1) This section applies if an electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider is unable to comply with section 6.4xx for one of the following reasons:

1. There are fewer than seven days between the day of the Board's determination of rates under section 6.3xx and the effective date.

2. Technical or operational reasons.

Same

(2) In the circumstances described in subsection (1), the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall,

(a) adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than August 1, 2017; and

(b) ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the applicable rate determined by the Board receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Subsequent fair adjustments

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the methodology to be applied by the Board to determine rates for electricity payable by specified consumers and sub-meter customers during the period beginning on May 1,

Confidential Draft

2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [NTD: we understand that the intent is to gradually smooth increases after 2022 by continuing the IESO's under-recovery/shortfall after 2022, albeit at a reduced level. If correct, this part of the Act would need to be further amended to provide authority to do this. Would also need to be reflected in the IESO funding shortfall provisions.]

Sub-meter customers

7.1xx A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the applicable rate determined under this Part.

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes an amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the amount to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment interest owners, in accordance with such terms of payment as may be specified in the invoice, [which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges]. [NTD: query whether such late payment/interest fees would be applicable to the CEA amount and/or whether would be better to leave to regs]

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment was determined in a manner that was consistent with this Act; and

(b) whether the amount payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was not in material conformity with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(3) An unpaid amount that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the specified consumer to each investment interest owner to the extent of each owner's interest in the investment asset.

Same

(4) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer.

Confidential Draft

Recovery from sub-meter consumers

(5) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer may recover amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment payable under this section from each sub-meter customer on a pro rata basis.

Irrevocability of amount

9xx. (1) An amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness resulting from the clean energy adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a clerical, typographical or calculation-related error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment
Financial Services Manager to determine

10xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall determine the clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of each month in a reference period by adding the estimated finance amount in respect of the reference period to the true up amount in respect of the reference period.

Estimated finance amount, true up amount

(2) The estimated finance amount and the true up amount, which may be a positive or negative value, shall be determined in accordance with the regulations.

Regulations re true up amount

(3) The regulations under subsection (2) shall have regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

    i. differences between the estimated and actual finance amount for the immediately preceding reference period,

    ii. differences between amounts invoiced and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, and

    ii. variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption.

Confidential Draft

Financial Services Manager to notify Board

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall, in accordance with the regulations, notify the Board of the clean energy adjustment and such other information related to the determination of the clean energy adjustment as may be prescribed.

Board to determine rates

All - Thank you for the detailed comments that you provided on Saturday and Sunday. Please find attached the next turn of the legislation. We have tried to balance the comments that we received to address the points that you have raised. This draft does not reflect the drafting points that were raised over Monday and Tuesday and we will reflect those points in our next instructions to legislative counsel. Please review and identify any significant substantive issues by 6 p.m. today. We continue to work toward pens down on Friday, meaning the draft that we have at that point in time will be proposed for introduction in the House. Thank you again for your contributions to this process.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes' summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

A proposal to create Legislation.

An Act to provide for the fair allocation of costs of electricity over time, if enacted

EXPLANATORY NOTE TO BE ADDED BY LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL TO ANY FINAL BILL PRIOR TO INTRODUCTION.

Confidential Draft

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1] These commitments can only be achieved if costs are shared fairly among consumers, today and in the future.

Electricity rates have risen for two key reasons. First, decades of under-investment in the electricity system resulted in the need to invest more than $50 billion in generation, transmission and distribution assets to ensure the system ~~is~~will continue to be clean and reliable. Second, the decision to eliminate Ontario's use of coal and produce clean, renewable power has created additional costs.

The actions taken to achieve a clean, modern and reliable electricity system have resulted in significant costs to consumers today. The burden of financing these system improvements and funding key programs has unfairly fallen almost entirely on the shoulders of today's consumers.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of financing these investments and the associated charges to consumers are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Recognizing that the electricity infrastructure that has been built and the policy decisions that have been made will create benefits for years to come, costs should be allocated fairly over time, so that consumers in the future pay their fair share for the benefits that they receive from the investments already made.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT OF ELECTRICITY RATES

Definitions

6xx. In this Part,

"effective date" means the date determined under section 6.5xx; ("French")

"RPP rate" means the rate determined by the Board under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, which rate is commonly referred to as the Regulated Price Plan"; ("French")

"specified RPP consumer" means a specified consumer who meets the following criteria:

1. The consumer is a member of the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations made under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act.

2. The consumer is subject to the RPP rate. ("French")

6.1xx (1) The rate for electricity payable by a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate required for a specified RPP consumer who meets the prescribed criteria to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent lower than the monthly invoice amount for that consumer under the comparison rate described in subsection (2).

Comparison rate

(2) The comparison rate is the rate that would be effective May 1, 2017, determined by the Board solely using the method prescribed by the regulations made under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998. [NTD: Is it necessary to more explicitly tie this to what the rate would have been in the absence of the govt's fair hydro plan since the OEB will set reduced RPP rates on May 1 under the current statute/regs]

Same

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the applicable method is the method on the day this section comes into force.

Specified consumers (non-RPP), first fair adjustment

6.2xx The rate for electricity payable by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate that would be necessary in order for [the monthly global adjustment rate] in respect of a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer (RPP) and who meets the prescribed criteria to be reduced by the same amount as the difference between the comparison rate referred to in subsection 6.1xx (2) and the rate determined under subsection 6.1xx (1). [NTD: It is not clear what reduction is contemplated by this provision. It sounds like whereas RPP specified consumers are to receive a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to their total bill, non-RPP specified consumers will only be entitled to a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to the GA component of their bill. Or is the intent to reduce non-RPP specified consumers GA component by the $/kWh difference between the comparison rate and rate determined under subsection 6.1xx(1), i.e. a rate reduction factor?]

Determination by Board

6.3xx The Board shall determine the rates mentioned in sections 6.1xx and 6.2xx no later than seven business days after the day this section receives Royal Assent.

Implementation of rates

6.4xx Each electricity vendor, [specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for a specified consumer] shall, no later than seven business days after the day on which the Board determines the rates under section 6.3xx, adapt ~~is~~its billing practices and invoices to reflect the new rates.

Effective date

6.5xx The rates determined under section 6.3xx are effective on the earlier of the following days:

1. The first day of the month immediately following the last day of the seven-day period referred to in section 6.4xx.

2. July 1, 2017.

Transition

6.6xx (1) This section applies if an electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider is unable to comply with section 6.4xx for one of the following reasons:

1. There are fewer than seven days between the day of the Board's determination of rates under section 6.3xx and the effective date.

2. Technical or operational reasons.

Same

(2) In the circumstances described in subsection (1), the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall,

(a) adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than August 1, 2017; and

(b) ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the applicable rate determined by the Board receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Subsequent fair adjustments

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the methodology to be applied by the Board to determine rates for electricity payable by specified consumers and sub-meter customers during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [NTD: we understand that the intent is to gradually smooth increases after 2022 by continuing the IESO's under-recovery/shortfall after 2022, albeit at a reduced level. If correct, this part of the Act would need to be further amended to provide authority to do this. Would also need to be reflected in the IESO funding shortfall provisions.]

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment was determined in a manner that was ~~inconsistent~~consistent with this Act; and

(b) whether the amount payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was not in material conformity with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(~~4~~3) An unpaid amount that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the specified consumer to each investment interest owner to the extent of each owner's ~~respective~~ interest in the investment asset.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a clerical, typographical or calculation-related error by the electricity vendor.

Regulations re true up amount

(3) The regulations under subsection (2) shall have regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

    i. differences between the estimated and actual finance amount for the immediately preceding reference period,

    ii. differences between amounts invoiced and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, and

    ii. variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption.

Timing of calculation

(1.1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in respect of each reference period before any funding obligation is incurred [by a financing entity during the reference period].

Amount

(1.2) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which, if this Act had not been enacted, the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period would have exceeded the estimated amount of the adjustments provided for under section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 and the regulations made under that provision that would have been borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs for the reference period.

2. A portion of the value of any fair adjustment that has been made under Part II in respect of any previous reference period.

Principles

(2) In calculating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of a reference period, the Financial Services Manager shall [comply with the regulations and] have regard to the following principles:

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

2. Incurrences should be implemented in a manner that, in the opinion of the Financial Services Manager, is reasonable, cost effective and that reflects prevailing market terms and conditions.

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in amounts payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period unless,

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1] These commitments can only be achieved if costs are shared fairly among consumers, today and in the future.

Electricity rates have risen for two key reasons. First, decades of under-investment in the electricity system resulted in the need to invest more than $50 billion in generation, transmission and distribution assets to ensure the system will continue to be clean and reliable. Second, the decision to eliminate Ontario's use of coal and produce clean, renewable power has created additional costs.

The actions taken to achieve a clean, modern and reliable electricity system have resulted in significant costs to consumers today. The burden of financing these system improvements and funding key programs has unfairly fallen almost entirely on the shoulders of today's consumers.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of financing these investments and the associated charges to consumers are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Recognizing that the electricity infrastructure that has been built and the policy decisions that have been made will create benefits for years to come, costs should be allocated fairly over time, so that consumers in the future pay their fair share for the benefits that they receive from the investments already made.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT OF ELECTRICITY RATES

Definitions

6xx. In this Part,

"effective date" means the date determined under section 6.5xx; ("French")

"RPP rate" means the rate determined by the Board under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, which rate is commonly referred to as the Regulated Price Plan"; ("French")

"specified RPP consumer" means a specified consumer who meets the following criteria:

Confidential Draft

1. The consumer is a member of the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations made under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act.

2. The consumer is subject to the RPP rate. ("French")

Specified RPP consumer, first fair adjustment

6.1xx (1) The rate for electricity payable by a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate required for a specified RPP consumer who meets the prescribed criteria to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent lower than the monthly invoice amount for that consumer under the comparison rate described in subsection (2).

Comparison rate

(2) The comparison rate is the rate that would be effective May 1, 2017, determined by the Board solely using the method prescribed by the regulations made under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998. [NTD: Is it necessary to more explicitly tie this to what the rate would have been in the absence of the govt's fair hydro plan since the OEB will set reduced RPP rates on May 1 under the current statute/regs]

Same

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the applicable method is the method on the day this section comes into force.

Specified consumers (non-RPP), first fair adjustment

6.2xx The rate for electricity payable by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate that would be necessary in order for [the monthly global adjustment rate] in respect of a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer (RPP) and who meets the prescribed criteria to be reduced by the same amount as the difference between the comparison rate referred to in subsection 6.1xx (2) and the rate determined under subsection 6.1xx (1). [NTD: It is not clear what reduction is contemplated by this provision. It sounds like whereas RPP specified consumers are to receive a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to their total bill, non-RPP specified consumers will only be entitled to a rate that will effect a 25% reduction to the GA component of their bill. Or is the intent to reduce non-RPP specified consumers GA component by the $/kWh difference between the comparison rate and rate determined under subsection 6.1xx(1), i.e. a rate reduction factor?]

Determination by Board

6.3xx The Board shall determine the rates mentioned in sections 6.1xx and 6.2xx no later than seven business days after the day this section receives Royal Assent.

Confidential Draft

Implementation of rates

6.4xx Each electricity vendor, [specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for a specified consumer] shall, no later than seven business days after the day on which the Board determines the rates under section 6.3xx, adapt its billing practices and invoices to reflect the new rates.

Effective date

Subject: RE: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

Carolyn,

OPG, Torys, the Dealers, Oslers and Hunton & Williams had a call yesterday with a view to coming up with broader issues for discussion at this afternoon's meeting. Below is a list of what we believe are the broader issues. We expect that on the drafting issues you and Blakes continue to try to move legislative counsel closer to the last version of the Blakes memo that you circulated along with the draft Bill on Saturday night. We are inclined to leave you to pursue that process and will reserve any drafting comments until we see the next version of the Bill.

Our larger issues are:

1. It appears as though IESO will not be able to create a funding shortfall (regulatory asset) in a month when the Fair Adjustment would be less than "Past Over-Charges". How will Investors be able to get comfort that IESO is not selling an asset to a Financing Entity (FE) that might exceed "Past Over-Charges" ? Is there transparency around this calculation ? Is the information that would be required to due diligence this point publicly available ? Would it be reasonable to suggest that we could get a certification from MOE before each financing that the IESO shortfall together with all previous IESO shortfalls under this Act would not exceed Past Over-Charges ?

2. According to the note after s. 5 there will be a five year moratorium on clean energy adjustments (contrary to what we had been led to believe). This means that it will be necessary to capitalize all interest, financing charges and other expenses for five years. Hopefully this is just a case of the legislative drafting being behind the decision making. However, if this is the intention then it is a big problem. In additional to the financing challenges, we are advised that in order for the desired accounting treatment to be available it is necessary that there be sufficient cash flow to service the debt on a current basis. It will not be sufficient to purchase the regulatory asset at a deep discount or pay interest and expenses out of cash reserves.

3. In light of 2, the absence of a market disruption guarantee in s. 4 is most concerning. A market disruption guarantee could be contained in a contractual undertaking by the Crown, but since it is not included in s.4(3) lenders would have to be comfortable that the Province could do this outside of the provisions of the Act. We suggest that section 4(3) be revised to provide the Minister with the broadest possible authority to enter into agreements in support of the Fair Allocation Plan rather than the limited scope currently provided.

4. We need more specificity around the "funding obligation" definition. Permit this definition to refer to the Regs (ie, “payment obligations as may be prescribed”).

5. How will Investors get comfortable that particular funding obligations have been incurred in accordance with the Financing Plan. The proposal in s. 9x(2)(b) is one solution but there appears to be some reluctance in the note to draft. I am not sure there is anyone else other than the Province who is capable of covering the consequences if a funding obligation is declared invalid because it was not issued in accordance with the FP, but this does not appear to be covered by s. 4. Our understanding was that there should be no adverse consequences if funding obligations are issued in a way that does not fit the Financing Plan. This is far from clear in the draft Bill.

6. In s. 12x(3) IESO should not have a statutory duty to "make reasonably diligent efforts". The standard of care should be set out in the applicable agreements and we expect that it will be to use the same standard of care that IESO currently uses in its role of collecting the GA amounts for electricity generators. But the standard should not be hardwired into the statute. We are all in agreement that IESO is not guaranteeing collections.

7. Section 8.1, items 2 to 6 are far too vague to be able to verify compliance. In any event, Investors cannot be expected to take a risk that their debt is not incompliance with the FAP. There needs to be some way to get assurances from the Province that once the Financial Services Manager has authorized the issuance of funding obligations by a Financing Entity there is no risk of such debt being declared invalidly issued or being declared as unauthorized debt.

8. In section 8.0.1(a) we would like an explanation of what is intended to be included. It is not clear to our regulatory lawyers that this is all “green energy”.

9. Section 11(1) must not state that the Financing Plan is cost-effective. It will clearly not be as cost-effective as direct funding by the Province.

10. There is still no restriction on who can be an owner of an investment asset (although section 26(1) appears to be heading in that direction). Is it necessary to define Financing Entity and limit investment asset owners to FEs, or is it OK to have an operating enterprise as an investment asset owner so long as it is administered by OPG on behalf of Brookfield ? Dealers have a concern that perhaps the Province (through an agency or Crown corporation) could become an investment asset owner and through something like a “collective rights agreement” affect the rights of other investors.

11. Section 22(1) needs to define the IESO funding shortfall precisely and determinatively. It cannot be subject to 22(1.1)(1). It must be determined each month before it is sold. Also, the Act should provide the basis by which IESO (in the absence of a transfer) would be entitled to recover this shortfall. (We understand that is required in order for IESO to treat the shortfall as a regulatory asset.) Also, s. 22.1(1) is a problem because we cannot have the recorded amount subject to an approval order from OEB (otherwise, any financing would be conditional on getting that order and ensuring that any possible appeal process has expired). Section 22.1(3) seems to contradict 22.1(1). Section 22.2(2) can't be based on actual use; it can only be based on estimated use. In sum, this section needs lots of work and probably much of it can be moved to the Regs.

12. Sections 23(1) and 23(2). We can't have the transfer of a regulatory asset be subject to the Financing Plan. Also, can't impose restrictions on the price at which IESO sells the regulatory asset. Sales must be conclusive and not subject to post-closing analysis.

13. Section 23.1 is a key section and it currently does not work as it should (hopefully because legislative counsel were working of an old version of the Blakes memo). I would redraft that section to read as follows:

'Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion thereof to a transferee, the regulatory asset or portion thereof shall comprise a portion of the investment asset recoverable by the transferee in accordance with this Act and shall be immediately vested in such transferee."

I think it is also important to update the definition of "transfer" to catch the latest changes to the definition of "Disposition" in the Blakes memo (ie, that it includes a release by IESO of its right to recover its regulatory asset in order to enable the investment asset owner to recover such amount).

In a separate email we will also be sending to you and a smaller group than this some tax comments from OPG's perspective.

Michael K. Feldman

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017 (draft)

IESO Issues

1. We have received advice from KPMG that it is critical to the ability of IESO to book a regulatory asset (which in turn is critical to the overall transaction) that the statutory language ensures that IESO has an effective right of recovery in respect of any IESO Funding Shortfall not transferred to the SPV. In our view, recovery by the IESO should be determined by OEB in accordance with the regulations and/or the Fair Allocation Plan. To this end, the IESO proposes that s 25.33 of the EA/O Reg 430/04 be amended, as necessary, to provide for the IESO to record the IESO Funding Shortfall amount in a variance account and to provide for the OEB to eliminate and dispose of the variance account balance as part of the RPP adjustment process under the OEB Act, with such necessary OEB accounting order.

22. (1) The IESO has property rights and interests, which together constitute a regulatory asset, in the recovery of the IESO funding shortfall. (1.1) The right to recover the IESO funding shortfall under subsection (1) is subject to the following limits: 1. The amount recovered in respect of a reference period may not exceed the amount by which the [fair allocation] in respect of a reference period exceeds the amount of the clean energy adjustment for the reference period. 2. No part of the funding shortfall shall be recovered before May 1, 2022. (2) The establishment of the regulatory asset is not affected by any failure to impose, attribute, invoice, accrue or collect the clean energy adjustment. 22.1 (1) Subject to the approval by order of the Ontario Energy Board, the IESO shall record the IESO funding shortfall from time to time in its books. (2) The Ontario Energy Board may, in accordance with the regulations, by	22. (1) The IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations to recover the IESO funding shortfall. [This right constitutes a regulatory asset and a property right.] NTD: to the extent qualification as a regulatory asset is an accounting judgment there may be little value in attempting to dictate that result by statute. However, the use of a defined term "regulatory asset" for other purposes is fine. Is the intent that Sections (1.1)(1) and (1.1)(2) would limit the recovery rights of the Investment Asset Owner or just the IESO in respect of the regulatory asset. Any material express limitation or condition attached to the IESO right of recovery based on the fair allocation plan is likely to be problematic as impairing the effective right of recovery. If this is the result then IESO may be treated as an equity holder and may not be able to recognize the regulatory asset. In addition, Section (1.1) 1 appears to reintroduce the concept that IESO's

order specify how the IESO funding shortfall must be recorded.	funding shortfall amount ranks subsequent to the clean energy adjustment amount such that the recovery of the IESO's funding shortfall in a reference period is limited to whatever space is left under the fair allocation curve. . If the right to record the shortfall is subject to an OEB order, that order may need to be obtained in advance This language and structure may not be definitive enough to provide for a real right of recovery of any regulatory asset amount held by the IESO. The statute should provide that the IESO be required to record the funding shortfall in a variance account (without having to obtain OEB approval) and that the OEB be required, as prescribed by regulation, to provide for recovery of the variance amounts recorded - presumably the regulation could provide when, after 2022, and in what manner (i.e., over what period of time) the IESO can recover any regulatory asset amount. OEB, by accounting order, would establish an IESO [fair hydro] variance account and indicate what IESO shortfalls may be included in it. The OEB is not approving each funding shortfall. The OEB's role in recovery would be to include the funding shortfall variance in future prices so IESO may recover it. In Section 6, OEB also needs to continue to determine what RPP price would have been payable but for the price set by Section 6. This is needed so LDCs know what amount would have been invoiced, so IESO in turn, based on information provided by LDCs, can determine the funding shortfall.

8.2 The IESO and the Financial Services Manager shall not, at any time, exceed the limits set out in the applicable Fair Allocation Plan.	Note that Section 7 restricts prices increases to inflation forever. We suggest redrafting this to delete "for inflation" in paragraph 2. Section 8.2 is unclear with respect to what limits cannot be exceeded. It introduces uncertainty with respect to the IESO right to record a shortfall and the IESO right of recovery. It may therefore prejudice the accounting treatment.

2. In our view, the IESO should become and remain the owner of a distinct asset, defined as the Regulatory Asset. Upon a "transfer" of all or a portion of this Regulatory Asset, the Investment Asset owner acquires an Investment Asset. On this construct the IESO is not a co-owner with the Investment Asset owner of an asset, the IESO's portion of which is the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Asset's owners potion of which is the Investment Asset. The IESO, based on conversations with KPMG, believes that it obtains a better result from an accounting perspective if it owns a distinct asset, as opposed to a co-ownership interest which is likely to be treated as a residual or subordinated interest.

23. (1) The IESO may transfer the regulatory asset in accordance with the Financing Plan. 23.1 Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of the regulatory asset, the regulatory asset or portion is deemed to be an investment asset and is vested in the investment asset owner.	NTD: The IESO right to transfer should not be subject to compliance with the Financing Plan. Consider corresponding amendment to Section 8.1 (1.1) so that the Fair Allocation Plan and the Financing Plan do not limit the ability of the IESO to transfer, or collect in respect of, a Regulatory Asset which has already arisen.

"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that is not deemed to be an investment asset; "investment asset" means all or part of the regulatory asset that is deemed to be an investment asset under section x;	23. The IESO may, from time to time, transfer all or any portion of the regulatory asset. Upon a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the investment asset owner acquires an investment asset to which this Act applies. Any such transfer shall be without recourse to the IESO and upon any such transfer the IESO (or any person claiming through the IESO) shall have no further right, title or interest in (except as express provided herein) or any obligations in respect of, the portion of the regulatory asset transferred, or the corresponding investment asset. "regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that has not been transferred; "investment asset" the investment asset established under section x;

3. We think that further particulars will be required in relation to the definition of the Funding Shortfall. Therefore we would add reference to "as prescribed by regulations" to address the need to provide for any variance/true up. We also need regulations to address recovery of IESO funding costs (which at moment legislation does not address).

22.2 (1) The IESO shall determine the IESO funding shortfall for each month in a reference period by calculating the difference between the following amounts: 1. The sum of all invoice amounts issued to specified consumers for the month. 2. The sum of all invoice amounts that would have been issued to	22.2 (1) The IESO shall determine the IESO funding shortfall for each month in a reference period in accordance with the regulations. NTD: We think that the reference to a "reference period "is unnecessary. Alternatively make provision for the addition or subtraction of additional amounts as further prescribed by specified consumers for the month if paragraphs 1 and 2 of section 7.2 did not apply. (2) The determination under subsection (1) shall be made based on the amount of electricity actually used by specified consumers during the reference period.	regulations.

4. For a number of reasons it is difficult to treat the transaction between the IESO and the Financing Trust as a transaction which is in law a transfer, sale or assignment. That terminology implies the transfer of property from one person to another. First, there remains uncertainty at law (even with the revised "fishing licence language") with respect to the whether the Investment Asset acquired by the Investment Asset Owner is property. Second, there is a higher level of uncertainty with respect to whether the Regulatory Asset is property, given that the Regulatory Asset does not have the same level of certainty of recovery as does the Investment Asset, and lacks some of the ancillary rights attached to the Investment Asset. Third, even if both the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Interest constitute property, there is a continuity gap between them since the rights acquired by the Investment Owner are different from the rights disposed of by the IESO.

We think that the best way of proceeding is for the Act to state specifically that upon any "transfer", the IESO has no further rights in the Regulatory Asset, or portion thereof transferred and the Investment Asset Owner acquires the corresponding Investment Interest free of any adverse claim. Since, in both cases, these rights are a creature of statute, it is hard to see how such a stipulation could realistically be challenged. However, in order to avoid circularity, the term "transfer" needs to be defined more broadly so that it is not dependent upon there being a transfer at common law.

"transfer" means an assignment, conveyance, disposition or sale.	"transfer" means (i) in relation to the regulatory asset, or any portion thereof, any act of IESO which states that is a "transfer" of all or any portion of the regulatory asset for purposes of this Act or any other act of the IESO by which the IESO purports to dispose of its interest in all or any portion of the regulatory asset and, as a result, constitute a named person the owner of an investment asset under this Act and (ii) in relation to an investment asset or any portion thereof …., and, in each case, transferred shall have a corresponding meaning.

25. (1) A transfer of a regulatory asset or an investment asset under this Act that is expressed to be a sale or an absolute assignment is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute assignment of the regulatory asset or investment asset, as the case may be, and confers upon the owner of the investment asset acquired a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment asset in accordance with the terms of the transfer.	Probably unnecessary, at least in relation to the Regulatory Asset, because of the effect given to a transfer of the Regulatory Asset in Section 23. In any event, because of the differences in the definition of "transfer" and because discontinuity is an issue for the Regulatory Asset but not for the Investment Interest, we would suggest that there be separate provisions dealing with the transfer of the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Interest.
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), any transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall or an investment asset owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment asset, as applicable (or relevant portion thereof), and not merely as a pledge thereof, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in regulatory asset or the investment asset (or relevant portion thereof) subject to the transfer, including all rights to recover the IESO funding shortfall or the investment asset arising after such transfer.	NTD: not sure that there is any value in deeming a transfer to be absolute.
(3) At the time a transfer of a regulatory asset or an investment asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the owner of the investment asset shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons.	NTD: Perfection not likely relevant. Transfer should be free of any adverse claim.

5. While the electricity distributors can be sub-servicers of IESO as servicer, IESO can assume no responsibility for their performance obligations. Again, we are advised that this is critical from an accounting perspective.

13x. (1) Each electricity vendor shall [in accordance with the regulations?] determine the proportionate share of clean energy adjustments payable on a monthly basis by each of its specified consumers. (2) The electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each specified consumer for the applicable amount of clean energy adjustments in accordance with the regulations. (3) Each electricity vendor shall, as an agent of the IESO, make reasonably diligent efforts to collect clean energy adjustments from specified consumers.	(4) The IESO shall not be liable to the Investment Asset Owner, any pledgee, or any person claiming through the Investment Asset Owner or any pledgee, for any failure to collect or remit, or any other breach or failure to perform, by any electricity vendor. Do we need to address the very limited circumstance of the IESO as an electricity vendor? Section 13x(1) does not appear to contemplate a volumetric rate, but rather the LDC determining a fixed amount payable by each of its consumers.

6. For constitutional reasons related to the federal bankruptcy power, limit the unnecessary use of "deeming provisions".

Section 15x (2) The amounts required to be deposited or received into the account are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	(2) The amounts deposited into the account, until paid in accordance with this Act and the regulations, shall be held in trust by the applicable electricity vendor for the investment asset owner.
Section 12 (2) The amounts collected are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	(2) The amounts received by the IESO from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x until paid in accordance with this Act and the regulations shall be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owner.
23.1 Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of the regulatory asset, the regulatory asset or portion is deemed to be an investment asset and is vested in the investment asset owner.	…Upon a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the investment asset owner acquires an investment asset to which this Act applies and the IESO (or any person claiming through the IESO) has no further right, title or interest in the portion of the regulatory asset transferred, or in the corresponding investment asset.

asset or an investment asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.
"investment asset" means all or part of the regulatory asset that is deemed to be an investment asset under section x; ("French")	"investment asset" the investment asset established under section x;
"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that is not deemed to be an investment asset;	"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that has not been transferred;

7. Does the clean energy adjustment determine the amount payable in respect of both the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Asset? If so, any subordination or other arrangement that results in the IESO receiving a residual interest may impact de-recognition. In our view, this calculation should exclude the IESO, and the IESO should have a separate right of recovery assessed by the OEB.

"clean energy adjustment" means…	Should specify that this is the amount required by the Investment Asset Owner and does not relate to IESO's right of recovery. Consistent with this, Schedule 1 is defined in relation to the funding and other costs of the owner of the investment asset.
11x. (1) The Ontario Energy Board shall apply the method set out in Schedule 1 to determine the amount of the clean energy adjustment payable on a monthly basis by each electricity vendor on behalf of the electricity vendor's specified	Regarding section 11x(2), IESO recommends adding variance tracking so that the financing entity can communicate any variance (positive or negative) to the OEB. This should also be included in Schedule 1 as an input to determining the amount of clean energy consumers. (2) The Ontario Energy Board may adjust the amount determined under Schedule 1 from time to time to address the any difference between the amount of the clean energy adjustment payable in respect of the reference period and the amount of the clean energy adjustment collected as of the date of the determination. (3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations governing the calculation under subsection (2) and how the amount is to be applied to the clean energy adjustment. (4) The Ontario Energy Board shall communicate to each electricity vendor information relating to the clean energy adjustment to be allocated by the electricity vendor to each specified consumer in respect of a reference period.	adjustment for a reference period.

8. In order to ensure that the Disposition results in the de-recognition of the "regulatory asset" on IESO's books (and that the Disposition not be treated as a financing transaction) it is important the Disposition) by IESO to the financing trust be without recourse to IESO and that all collection obligations on the part of IESO be on a reasonable efforts, or consistent efforts, basis only. Therefore, clarify that the IESO's trust and remittance obligations are limited to amounts actually received by it. IESO's obligation to segregate and remit should be conditional upon receipt of the corresponding amounts from the electricity vendors.

Section 12 (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments into the account established under subsection (3.1). (2) The amounts collected are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	Section 12 (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received by it from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x into the account established under subsection (3.1). (2) The amounts received by the IESO from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x until paid in accordance with

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments to or for the benefit of the regulatory asset owner in accordance with the regulations.	this Act and the regulations shall be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owner. (5) The IESO shall remit amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments to or for the benefit of the regulatory asset owner in accordance with the regulations. Regarding section 11x(2), IESO recommends adding variance tracking so that the financing entity can communicate any variance (positive or negative) to the OEB. This should also be included in Schedule 1 as an input to determining the amount of clean energy adjustment for a reference period.

9. Daily remittances are not consistent with the operation of the system and may not be practical. At the very least, this should be left open to be addressed in the commercial documents.

Section 12x (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments into the account established under subsection (3.1).	Define "promptly", or provide that it is to be specified in the Regulations. The invoicing contemplated by section 12(2) regulations should be done based on IESO's monthly settlement process. It would appear that this is the case; section 13(1) references LDCs determining clean energy adjustment on a monthly basis. (4) contains a Note about considering daily segregation or remittances. IESO does not believe daily remittances are necessary. Daily remittances would add additional complexity and cost to the settlement process. It is not clear that LDCs would be able to move to daily remittances without substantial cost and effort.

	The risk of a particular LDC going bankrupt is small. If an LDC does go bankrupt, daily remittances merely minimizes risk of a month of remittances for that one LDC, which the Financing Entity can recover in a future period in any event through the True Up.

10. Consider the extent to which deeming provision are required in connection n with the operation of the PPSA. The number of deeming provisions raises the issue of whether the security interest provided for is one provided for by statute or one provided for by the PPSA. For the most part, once the application of the PPSA is provided for, the perception, priority and proceeds rules in the PPSA ought to be allowed to operate (and should not prejudice the transaction).

27. (1) The owner of an investment asset may grant a pledge to or in favour of a person in, to and over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under the investment asset in connection with any funding obligation.	Use PPSA term "security interest"
(2) A pledge may be a lien, mortgage, charge, right of set-off or security interest.	Redundant. In any event, the reference to set-off is not relevant or appropriate. Why not use PPSA terminology.
(3) The pledge may be made to secure a funding obligation and when granted shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms and shall be effective to confer upon the person to whom the pledge is granted a valid security interest in, to and in respect of the investment asset in accordance with the terms of the pledge.	Redundant and may prejudice the conclusion that a conventional PPSA security interest is intended,
(x) All proceeds of a related [Investment Interest?] that are subject to the pledge that are received by the owner of the investment asset shall immediately be subject to the pledge, and the security interest in the proceeds shall be perfected pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act.	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider

(x) A pledge perfected under the Personal Property Security Act shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien or security interest, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may attach to the property rights and interests in the [Investment Interest?] subject to the pledge unless the pledgee has otherwise agreed in writing.	whether that can or should be done. Redundant, the priority rules in the PPSA should be sufficient,
(x) A pledgee shall have a perfected security interest in a related investment interest, including the owner of the investment asset's rights and interests in and to [the clean energy adjustment?] or other related proceeds in respect of the investment interest and that are deposited in any [which account?] or other account of any [Electricity Distributor, IESO, Alternative Servicer or other person who may have commingled such Transition Charge Collections or such other proceeds with other funds].	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider whether that can or should be done.
(8) All proceeds of the investment asset that are subject to the pledge and that are received by the investment asset owner shall immediately be subject to the pledge and shall be perfected without any physical delivery of the proceeds, registration of any financing statement or any further act. (9) The pledge shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may subsequently attach to the property rights and interests in the investment asset subject to the Pledge, subject to the written consent of the person to whom the pledge has been granted. (10) The person to whom the pledge has been granted shall have a perfected	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider whether that can or should be done.

security interest in revenues or other proceeds that are deposited in any [investment asset account] or other account of any electricity vendor, the IESO, an agent of an electricity vendor or the IESO or other person who may have commingled such revenues or other proceeds with other funds.

11. Partial payments by retail customers to electricity distributors should be allocated to Transition Charges on a ratable basis, and once allocated shall be segregated.

14x. (1) This section applies if, (a) an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices; and (b) the amount paid is less than the total amount payable. (2) The electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices. (3) The electricity vendor shall deposit the portion of the payment allocated to clean energy adjustments into the account established under X.	Correct.

12. In order not to impair the ability of the IESO to dispose of its interest in the Regulatory Asset and in order not to impair the financibility of the Investment Interest by the Trust, subsequent actions and compliance with allocation plan and the financing plan should not be a condition of the effectiveness of any aspects of the transaction.

(6) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect a funding obligation that was incurred under this Act before the day that the provision was held to be invalid or ceased to be in effect.	(6) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect a transfer, funding obligation or grant of a security interest that was effected or incurred under this Act before the day that the provision was held to be invalid or ceased to be in effect.

13. Provide legislative basis for provision of commercial undertakings of the sort which may be required for purposes of h financial close.

200x. (1) Subsection 6 (1) of the Electricity Act, 1998 would be amended by adding the following clauses: (q.1) to enter into agreements or arrangements with [any special purpose financing entities established under (name of new Fair Hydro Act?)]; (q.2) to engage in activities related to making payments to and receiving payments from [any special purpose financing entities established under (name of new Fair Hydro Act?)], as required under that Act, and to engage in related settlement activities; (q.3) to engage in activities related to the transfer of the regulatory asset created under [(name of new Fair Hydro Act?)], which activities may include, (i) incurring liabilities in relation to the regulatory asset (ii) transferring the regulatory asset to [any special purpose financing	Retain specific objects but add a general object "to engage in activities to facilitate the implementation of the Fair Hydro Act, including:…" NTD: incorporate the expanded

Please see attached the IESO/Stikemans mark-up, together with a black line to the last version circulated by the Ministry.

This draft is still being reviewed by KPMG and is subject to their comments especially around the requirements to be met in order to recognize and de-recognize the regulatory asset.

While not reflected in our mark-up, we think that Part III with respect to the billing and collection of the Clean Energy Adjustment would benefit from a reorganization. First, it might be moved later in the statute, after both Part V with respect to the Regulatory Asset and Part VI with respect to the Investment Asset. Its current placement suggests that it is relevant to both the regulatory asset and the investment asset , which is not the case. Second it might be internally reorganized so that it deals sequentially with the following subjects:

1. Determination of the amount of the Clean Energy Adjustment, which in our view should be done by the Financial Services Manager (currently in Sections 10(1) and 10(3).

2. Determination by the OEB of the rate necessary to recover the Clean Energy Adjustment (currently in Section 10(2)). It is not clear to us that there is a role for the IESO in between the OEB and the electricity vendors, but happy to discuss.

3. Obligation of electricity vendors to invoice (Section 12)

4. Obligation of consumers to pay invoice amount (Section 8)

5. Obligation of electricity vendors to collect and remit (Section 12(2) to 12(6)). We need to provide for the collection standard and in particular make clear that they do not guarantee collection from customers.

6. Obligation of IESO to collect and remit (Sections 11(2) to 11(5). We need to provide for the collection standard and in particular make clear that we do not guarantee performance by the electricity vendors.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes' summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1]

The Government of Ontario has established a regulatory framework related to the generation and sale of electricity, which has promoted and continues to promote significant investment to enable phasing out of coal fired generation, modernizing sites and facilities for the generation of electrical energy and the production therefrom for Ontario,[2] and conservation and demand management. [NTD: small point, but there are two IESO procurement contracts for hydro facilities located in Quebec but that are connected to and supply energy to Ontario.]

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of these investments, and the raising of money to fund the investments,[3] are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Since, in both cases, these rights are a creature of statute, it is hard to see how such a stipulation could realistically be challenged. PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2018

Definition

6xx. (1) In this section,

Confidential Draft

"average baseline invoice amount" means the monthly invoice amount that would be payable by a representative consumer under the average baseline rate; ("French")

"average baseline rate" means the average rate [NTD: or rates, to reflect time of use?] that would be payable effective May 1, 2017 by the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act, as determined by the Board by applying the method prescribed by the regulations under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of that Act; ("French") [NTD: since the OEB has already lowered RPP rates under 79.16(1)(b) that are payable May 1, 2017, this definition may need to indicate the average baseline rate is the rate that would have been determined in the absence of the government's proposed Fair Hydro Plan.]

"sub-meter customer" means a person who is supplied electricity by a specified consumer, if an invoice for the electricity is issued to the person by the specified consumer, by an agent of the specified consumer or by a unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer; ("French")

Rate determination

(2) Subject to subsection (3), to more fairly recognize clean energy benefits and allocate the clean energy costs among present and future generations of specified consumers, the rate [NTD: rate or rates?] for electricity payable by a specified consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2017 and ending on April 30, 2018 is the average rate [NTD: or rates, to reflect time of use?] that would be payable by a representative consumer in order for the representative consumer to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent less than the average baseline invoice amount. [NTD: if the rate determined by regulation is different from the rate OEB just set for May 1, will consumers receive a rebate for the difference? Do there need to be provisions addressing this? How does the above align with subsection (4)(b) below?]

Sub-meter customers

(3) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the rate determined under subsection (2).

Determining rate

(4) The rate mentioned in subsection (2) shall be,

(a) determined by the Board within seven business days after this section receives Royal Assent; and

(b) effective as of the first day of the calendar month immediately following the determination.

Transition

(5) If, for technical or operational reasons, an electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider is unable to adapt its invoices to comply with this section by the time it issues its first invoice for electricity consumed on or after May 1, 2017,

(a) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than [August 1, 2017]; and

(b) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the applicable rate receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2018 to April 30, 2022

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, [to more fairly measure and allocate the clean energy costs and clean energy benefits among present and future generations of specified consumers,] make regulations prescribing the rate [NTD: will regulations prescribe the rate, or the criteria to be applied by the Board in setting the rate? It is important for the establishment of a regulatory asset that the Board establishes the rate that results in the variance. The Board will also need to determine what RPP/price would have been without these provisions. We suggest adding a corresponding section to s 6xx(4).] for electricity payable by specified consumers and sub-meter customers during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022.

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay clean energy adjustment

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes a clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the clean energy adjustment to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment asset owners, in accordance with the terms of payment specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

Confidential Draft

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment is inconsistent with the fair allocation calculation made by the Financial Services Manager under Part IV applicable at the time when the payment is due; and [NTD: the Fair Allocation Plan is not called for in the Bill now. Note there are still a few references to Fair Allocation Plan in the Bill, which we assume will be changed in the next iteration if the current approach of not using a FAP remains.]

(b) whether the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was inconsistent with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(4) An unpaid clean energy adjustment that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the consumer to each investment asset owner in respect of each owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Same

(5) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer under the invoice or otherwise.

Irrevocability of clean energy adjustment

9xx. (1) The amount of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness created by the adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a calculation error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment

10xx. (1) The clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of a reference period shall be determined as follows and as may otherwise be prescribed:

1. The Financial Services Manager shall estimate the finance amount for the reference period in accordance with Schedule 1 and such additional rules as may be prescribed.

2. The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the true up amount for the reference period, as determined in accordance with the prescribed method. [NTD: the true up amount may be either positive or negative.]

Confidential Draft

3. The Financial Services Manager shall, not less than xx days prior to the applicable reference reriod, inform the Board of the estimated finance amount and the true up amount.

Rate determination

(2) The Board will determine the rate at which specified consumers are invoiced to recover the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period in accordance with the regulations.

True up amount

(3) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the method for determining the true up amount, having regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the estimated finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account,

   i. aggregate differences between amounts billed and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs,

   ii. aggregate variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption, and

   iii. the variations between the estimated finance amount for a reference period and the actual finance amount for that period.

[NTD: the IESO does not need and should not be required to issue an invoice or statement to electricity vendors. The IESO will not know the amount to be invoiced and electricity vendors have an obligation under 12xx to remit amounts collected to the IESO which in turn will collect and remit to the investment asset owner. The investment asset owner will then record the variance between the clean energy adjustment determined in 10xx(1) and the amount remitted by the IESO which it will then factor into the true up.]

IESO to receive

(2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment asset owners, receive the clean energy adjustment paid to it by electricity vendors [in accordance with the regulations and the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998]. [NTD: the IESO's obligation will be to collect and remit from electricity vendors what is paid. We understand from prior discussions the obligation is not to collect everything that is invoiced by electricity vendors (other than IESO). Any underpayment will be recorded in a variance by the investment asset owner/financial services manager and recovered in a future reference period.] [NTD: The IESO does not object to describing the electricity vendors as sub-agents of the IESO. However, if the electricity vendors are so described exculpatory language of the sort we have provided earlier should be added so that the IESO is not responsible for the acts or defaults of the electricity vendors].

Collection account

(3) All of the following amounts received by the IESO shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment asset owner in accordance with subsection (5), be deposited promptly into an account established for the purposes of receiving those amounts:

1. Amounts described in subsection 12 (4).

2. Payments made by specified consumers directly to the IESO as electricity vendor under subsection 8 (1).

Same, held in trust

(4) All amounts received by the IESO in respect of the clean energy adjustment shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment asset owner in accordance with subsection (6), be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owners. [NTD: see sections with security interest language.]

IESO to remit

(5) The IESO shall remit the amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment to or for the benefit of the investment asset owners in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendor to invoice specified consumers

12xx. (1) Each electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each specified consumer with an account with such electricity vendor for the amount payable by such consumer in respect of the clean energy adjustment, determined by applying the rate set by the Board under section 10xx(2) and as further prescribed.

Electricity Vendor to Report

(2) Each electricity vendor shall promptly report to the IESO the aggregate amount invoiced to its customers in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment, the amount collected and such further information as may be prescribed.

Confidential Draft

Electricity vendor to collect

(3)Each electricity vendor shall, as an agent of the investment asset owners, collect the clean energy adjustment paid by specified consumers [in accordance with the regulations.] [NTD: deletion to be consistent with 8xx(1). LDCs do not collect from consumers in accordance with market rules. LDC collection is governed by Board codes.]

Pro rating of payments

(3) If an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices and the amount paid is less than the total amount payable, the electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices in respect of electricity charges for the same invoice period.

Held in trust

(4) All of the following amounts received by an electricity vendor shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment asset owner in accordance with subsection (5), be held in trust for the investment asset owners:

1. Payments received from or on behalf of specified consumers under subsection 8 (1).

2. Portions of payments received from or on behalf of specified consumers under subsection 8 (1) that are allocated to the clean energy adjustment under subsection (3).

3. Any proceeds arising from the exercise and enforcement of any rights and interests under or in respect of the investment asset.

Remittance to IESO

(5) Each electricity vendor shall remit amounts described in subsection (5) to the IESO for the benefit of the investment asset owners in accordance with the regulations. [NTD: deletion to be consistent to our proposed change to the definition of electricity vendor.]

Regulations

(6) If an electricity vendor fails, in the manner described in the regulations, to comply with the requirements of this section, the electricity vendor shall take such steps as the regulations may prescribe.

PART IV
IMPLEMENTATION

FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER

Appointment

13xx. (1) [Note: To be elaborated.]

Termination

(2) The Minister may by written order terminate the appointment of an appointee as the Financial Services Manager if,

(a) the Minister has advised the appointee that the Financing Plan is either inconsistent with or is being implemented in a manner that is inconsistent with the principles set out in section x;

(b) the appointee has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to consider and address the inconsistency; and

(c) the appointee is unwilling or unable to address the inconsistency to the satisfaction of the Minister.

Replacement

(3) Upon terminating an appointment, the Minister may, in accordance with the regulations, appoint a new person or entity as the Financial Services Manager.

Duties and powers

14xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall perform the duties assigned to it under this Act and may administer the investment asset on behalf of the investment asset owner.

Same

(2) The administration of the investment asset may include the following:

1. Providing information, in accordance with the regulations, to the Board in respect of funding obligations and the determination of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with section XX.

2. Providing information to electricity vendors, including the IESO, in respect of obligations under Part III.

3. Such other matters as may be prescribed.

Confidential Draft

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations.

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Financial Services Manager to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the fair allocation amount for the purposes of,

(a) fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of each reference period; and

(b) aligning funding obligations that may be incurred during each reference period with the allocation of the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits across present and future generations of specified consumers.

Amount

(1.1) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which the estimated [clean energy costs] [clean energy benefits] to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period exceeds the estimated amount of [the global adjustment] that would be borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs [in the absence of this Act].
2. An allocable portion of the value of any fair adjustment, determined in accordance with subsection (3).

Principles

(2) In calculating the fair allocation amount [or in developing the fair allocation calculation?], subject to subsection (3), the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined based on [Insert principles].

Confidential Draft

3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The time value of money or the rate of inflation, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers for each reference period.

    iii. The expected electricity consumption rates for each reference period.

Allocation of fair adjustment

(3) If, before the Financial Services Manager has calculated the fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period, a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the calculation shall include a portion of the value of the fair adjustment in the fair allocation calculation for each future reference period.

Amendments to the fair allocation calculation

(4) The Financial Services Manager may amend the fair allocation calculation from time to time, as the Financial Services Manager considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Submission of fair allocation to Minister

(5) The Financial Services Manager shall provide to the Minister the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to the fair allocation calculation.

Effective date

(6) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Minister in writing.

Publication

(7) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare and provide to the Minister a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred .

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align with the expected finance amount determined under Schedule 1 that would become due and payable during a reference period (after giving effect to any contemplated refinancings) with the fair allocation amount determined for the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment for the reference period.

2. Incurrences should be implemented in a manner that the Financial Services Manager considers to be reasonable, to be cost effective and to reflect prevailing market terms and conditions [NTD: cannot apply prevailing market terms and conditions to transfers].

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

[Note for reference: List of items for consideration in regulation: (a) anticipated IESO funding shortfalls and related transfer amounts; (b) the maturities of funding obligations; (c) the availability of refinancings, redemption opportunities and liquidity terms and conditions in order to achieve the objective contemplated in section X(1)(a); (d) the availability of currency and interest rate hedging facilities for the purpose of mitigating any differences between the expected finance amounts becoming due and payable during a reference period and the fair allocation amount for the reference period; (d) the amount and potential variability of interest rates and related financing costs; (e) available capital markets in which funding obligations may be incurred.]

Amendments to approved plan

(3) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time, without the approval of the Minister, subject to the requirements set out in this section.

Confidential Draft

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in a clean energy adjustment for the reference period unless,

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair allocation amount for the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment for the reference period].

Confidentiality of plan

(4) The Financing Plan is deemed to be a record subject to section 17 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Implementation of Financing Plan

17xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall incur funding obligations in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan [NTD: since transfers are not mandatory and are in any event subject to available financing, there is no need to generate uncertainty by making them expressly subject to the Financing Plan].

Same

(2) For greater certainty, section [paramountcy of funding obligations] applies despite the failure of the Financial Services Manager to comply with subsection (1).

Financing entities

(3) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations and accept and make transfers.

Prohibition

(3) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, the Board, the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation.

Effect of amendment to Fair Allocation Plan

THE REGULATORY ASSET

[Note: This is meant to assist with clarity in the subsequent provisions.]

IESO funding shortfall

20xx. (1) The IESO funding shortfall for each month shall be equal to A – B + C where:

A = the sum of all invoice amounts (not including HST) which would have been issued to specified consumers for the month if Part II of this Act did not apply.

B = the sum of all invoice amounts (not including HST) in fact issued to specified consumers for the month.

C = the sum of all financing costs related to all IESO funding shortfalls incurred by IESO for the month [NTD: in the event IESO pays financing entity's interest costs during first 5 years, such costs should be added to the IESO funding shortfall.]

Reliance on certain information

(2) For the purposes of calculating A and B of section 20xx(1), the electricity vendors shall provide to IESO such information as IESO may reasonably require and such further information as may be prescribed and the IESO shall be entitled to rely on such information. [NTD: the IESO cannot calculate this amount without obtaining necessary information from electricity vendors. Electricity vendors will need to apply consumption of each consumer in each TOU bucket, or tier at what price would have been, and also what price is now.]

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1]

The Government of Ontario has established a regulatory framework related to the generation and sale of electricity, which has promoted and continues to promote significant investment to enable phasing out of coal fired generation, modernizing sites and facilities ~~in the Province~~ for the generation of electrical energy and the production therefrom for Ontario,[2] and conservation and demand management. [NTD: small point, but there are two IESO procurement contracts for hydro facilities located in Quebec but that are connected to and supply energy to Ontario.]

Definitions

1xx. (1) In this Act,

"Board" means the Ontario Energy Board; ("French")

"clean energy adjustment" means the amount determined under section 10xx; ("French")
[Note - will need to check throughout the draft that references to CEA are clear as to whether it's the total CEA in respect of a reference period vs. the portion payable by a specified consumer.]

"clean energy benefits" means, in respect of a reference period, the value of the benefits determined to be derived by the specified consumers during the reference period as a result of the clean energy initiative, including as a result of past, present and expected future incurrences of clean energy costs; ("French")

"clean energy costs" means, in respect of a reference period, the value of the costs allocated to specified consumers during the reference period as a result of the clean energy initiative, including as a result of past, present and expected costs incurred in respect of,

(a) the estimated ~~costs~~amounts to be ~~incurred~~paid by the IESO ~~under~~referred to in section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 or any provision that is the successor to that provision, which relate to ~~contracts for,~~ [NTD: if the intent is to reference the costs associated with the following procurement contracts, and payments under section 78.5 of the OEB Act, we would suggest that the highlighted language above is unnecessary. The IESO does not incur costs under section 25.33. Note we have proposed defining "procurement contract" by reference to the Electricity Act definition.]

a. procurement contracts for:

a. ~~(i)~~ renewable energy generation or capacity,

b. ~~(ii)~~ conservation and demand management, including storage, [NTD: should storage be included as CDM, or as a separate item? Is intent to include only storage procured by OPA as procurement contract, or also storage procured by IESO under market rules?]

c. ~~(iii)~~ energy efficiency,

d. ~~(iv)~~ natural gas generation and capacity, excluding ~~contracts relating to amounts payable by the IESO under section 78.2 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 and excluding such other~~such contracts as may be prescribed, or [NTD: if these are the only "procurement contracts" do not need to exclude 78.2 since OEFC contracts would by definition not be included.]

b. ~~(v)~~ payments made or expected to be made under section 78.5 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, and

(b) such other estimated costs as may be prescribed; ("French")

"clean energy initiative" means the policies of the Government of Ontario related to,

"Financial Services Manager" means Ontario Power Generation Inc. [or such other person or entity as may be appointed as the Financial Services Manager by the Minister under section ]; ("French")

"Financing Plan" means the plan prepared under section X, as amended from time to time in accordance with this Act; ("French")

"IESO funding shortfall" means~~, in respect of a reference period,~~ the amount determined under section 20xx ~~for the reference period~~; ("French") [NTD: The funding shortfall is the amount IESO records in the variance account monthly. Monthly recording of shortfall is consistent with section 20xx. We suggest this definition does not need to reference a time period.]

"investment asset" means the investment asset created as described in section 22xx; ("French")

"investment asset owner" means a financing entity that acquires an investment interest in the investment asset; ("French")

We think that the best way of proceeding is for the Act to state specifically that upon any "transfer", the IESO has no further rights in the Regulatory Asset, or portion thereof transferred and the Investment Asset Owner acquires the corresponding Investment Interest free of any adverse claim. Since, in both cases, these rights are a creature of statute, it is hard to see how such a stipulation could realistically be challenged. However, in order to avoid circularity, the term "transfer" needs to be defined more broadly so that it is not dependent upon there being a transfer at common law.]

"variance account" means the variance account established under section 20.1xx.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2018

Definition

6xx. (1) In this section,

"average baseline invoice amount" means the ~~average~~ monthly invoice amount that would be payable by a representative consumer under the average baseline rate; ("French")

"average baseline rate" means the average rate [NTD: or rates, to reflect time of use?] that would be payable effective May 1, 2017 by the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act, as determined by the Board by applying the method prescribed by the regulations under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of that Act; ("French") [NTD: since the OEB has already lowered RPP rates under 79.16(1)(b) that are payable May 1, 2017, this definition may need to indicate the average baseline rate is the rate that would have been determined in the absence of the government's proposed Fair Hydro Plan.]

"sub-meter customer" means a person who is supplied electricity by a specified consumer, if an invoice for the electricity is issued to the person by the specified consumer, by an agent of the specified consumer or by a unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer; ("French")

Rate determination

(2) Subject to subsection (3), ~~[~~to more fairly ~~measure~~recognize clean energy benefits and allocate the clean energy costs ~~and clean energy benefits~~ among present and future generations of specified consumers,~~]~~ the rate [NTD: rate or rates?] for electricity payable by a specified consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2017 and ending on April 30, 2018 is the average rate [NTD: or rates, to reflect time of use?] that would be payable by a representative consumer in order for the representative consumer to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent less than the average baseline invoice amount. [NTD: if the rate determined by regulation is different from the rate OEB just set for May 1, will consumers receive a rebate for the difference? Do there need to be provisions addressing this? How does the above align with subsection (4)(b) below?]

Sub-meter customers

(3) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the rate determined under subsection (2).

Determining rate

(4) The rate mentioned in subsection (2) shall be,

(a) determined by the Board within seven business days after this section receives Royal Assent; and

(b) effective as of the first day of the calendar month immediately following the determination.

Transition

(5) If, for technical or operational reasons, an electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider is unable to adapt its invoices to comply with this section by the time it issues its first invoice for electricity consumed on or after May 1, 2017,

(a) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than [August 1, 2017]; and

(b) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the applicable rate receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay clean energy adjustment

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes a clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the clean energy adjustment to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment asset owners, in accordance with ~~such~~the terms of payment ~~as may be~~ specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment is inconsistent with the fair allocation calculation made by the Financial Services Manager under Part IV applicable at the time when the payment is due; and [NTD: the Fair Allocation Plan is not called for in the Bill now. Note there are still a few references to Fair Allocation Plan in the Bill, which we assume will be changed in the next iteration if the current approach of not using a FAP remains.]

(b) whether the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was inconsistent with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(4) An unpaid clean energy adjustment that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the consumer to each investment asset owner in respect of each owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Same

(5) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer under the invoice or otherwise.

Irrevocability of clean energy adjustment

9xx. (1) The amount of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness created by the adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a calculation error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment

10xx. (1) The clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of a reference period shall be determined as follows and as may otherwise be prescribed:

1. ~~Calculate~~The Financial Services Manager shall estimate the ~~estimated~~ finance amount for the reference period in accordance with Schedule 1 and such additional rules as may be prescribed.

2. ~~Add~~ The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the true up amount for the reference period, as determined in accordance with the prescribed method~~, to~~. [NTD: the true up amount may be either positive or negative.]

3. The Financial Services Manager shall, not less than xx days prior to the applicable reference reriod, inform the Board of the estimated finance amount ~~calculated under paragraph 1.~~and the true up amount.

Rate determination

(2) The Board will determine the rate at which specified consumers are invoiced to recover the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period in accordance with the regulations.

True up amount

(~~2~~3) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the method for determining the true up amount, having regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the estimated finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account ~~historical and reasonably foreseeable~~,

   i. aggregate differences between amounts billed and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, ~~and~~

   ii. aggregate variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption~~.~~, and

   iii. the variations between the estimated finance amount for a reference period and the actual finance amount for that period.

[NTD: the IESO does not need and should not be required to issue an invoice or statement to electricity vendors. The IESO will not know the amount to be invoiced and electricity vendors have an obligation under 12xx to remit amounts collected to the IESO which in turn will collect and remit to the investment asset owner. The investment asset owner will then record the variance between the clean energy adjustment determined in 10xx(1) and the amount remitted by the IESO which it will then factor into the true up.]

IESO to ~~issue remittance notice to electricity vendors~~receive

~~11xx.~~ ~~(1) The IESO shall, in accordance with the regulations, issue a remittance notice to each electricity vendor for the electricity vendor's portion, as determined in accordance with the regulations, of the clean energy adjustment in respect of a reference period.~~

~~IESO to collect~~

(2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment asset owners, ~~collect~~ receive the clean energy adjustment ~~from~~paid to it by electricity vendors [in accordance with the regulations and the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998]. [NTD: the IESO's obligation will be to collect and remit from electricity vendors what is paid. We understand from prior discussions the obligation is not to collect everything that is invoiced by electricity vendors (other than IESO). Any underpayment will be recorded in a variance by the investment asset owner/financial services manager and recovered in a future reference period.]

[NTD: The IESO does not object to describing the electricity vendors as sub-agents of the IESO. However, if the electricity vendors are so described exculpatory language of the sort we have provided earlier should be added so that the IESO is not responsible for the acts or defaults of the electricity vendors].

Pro rating of payments

(3) If an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices and the amount paid is less than the total amount payable, the electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices in respect of electricity charges for the same invoice period.

Held in trust

(4) All of the following amounts received by an electricity vendor shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment asset owner in accordance with subsection (5), be held in trust for the investment asset owners ~~or a secured party to whom a security interest in an investment interest is granted under this Act~~:

(5) Each electricity vendor ~~other than the IESO~~ shall remit amounts described in subsection (5) to the IESO for the benefit of the investment asset owners ~~or secured parties~~ in accordance with the regulations. [NTD: deletion to be consistent to our proposed change to the definition of electricity vendor.]

Termination

(2) The Minister may by written order terminate the appointment of an appointee as the Financial Services Manager if,

(a) the Minister has advised the appointee that the Financing Plan is either inconsistent with or is being implemented in a manner that is inconsistent with the principles set out in section x;

(b) the appointee has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to consider and address the inconsistency; and

(c) the appointee is unwilling or unable to address the inconsistency to the satisfaction of the Minister.

Replacement

(3) Upon terminating an appointment, the Minister may, in accordance with the regulations, appoint a new person or entity as the Financial Services Manager.

Same

(2) The administration of the investment asset may include the following:

1. Providing information, in accordance with the regulations, to the Board in respect of funding obligations and the determination of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with section XX.

2. Providing information to electricity vendors, including the IESO, in respect of obligations under Part III.

3. Such other matters as may be prescribed.

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations.

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Financial Services Manager to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the fair allocation amount for the purposes of,

(a) fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of each reference period; and

(b) aligning funding obligations that may be incurred during each reference period with the allocation of the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits across present and future generations of specified consumers.

Amount

(1.1) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which the estimated [clean energy costs] [clean energy benefits] to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period exceeds the estimated amount of [the global adjustment] that would be borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs [in the absence of this Act].
2. An allocable portion of the value of any fair adjustment, determined in accordance with subsection (3).

Principles

(2) In calculating the fair allocation amount [or in developing the fair allocation calculation?], subject to subsection (3), the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined based on [Insert principles].

Confidential Draft

3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The time value of money or the rate of inflation, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers for each reference period.

    iii. The expected electricity consumption rates for each reference period.

Allocation of fair adjustment

(3) If, before the Financial Services Manager has calculated the fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period, a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the calculation shall include a portion of the value of the fair adjustment in the fair allocation calculation for each future reference period.

Amendments to the fair allocation calculation

(4) The Financial Services Manager may amend the fair allocation calculation from time to time, as the Financial Services Manager considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Submission of fair allocation to Minister

(5) The Financial Services Manager shall provide to the Minister the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to the fair allocation calculation.

Effective date

(6) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Minister in writing.

Publication

(7) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare and provide to the Minister a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred ~~or potential transfers should be made for the purposes of this Act~~.

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align with the expected finance amount determined under Schedule 1 that would become due and payable during a reference period (after giving effect to any contemplated refinancings) with the fair allocation amount determined for the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment for the reference period.

2. Incurrences ~~and transfers~~ should be implemented in a manner that~~, as~~ the Financial Services Manager considers to be reasonable, ~~is~~to be cost effective and ~~reflects~~to reflect prevailing market terms and conditions [NTD: cannot apply prevailing market terms and conditions to transfers].

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

[Note for reference: List of items for consideration in regulation: (a) anticipated IESO funding shortfalls and related transfer amounts; (b) the maturities of funding obligations; (c) the availability of refinancings, redemption opportunities and liquidity terms and conditions in order to achieve the objective contemplated in section X(1)(a); (d) the availability of currency and interest rate hedging facilities for the purpose of mitigating any differences between the expected finance amounts becoming due and payable during a reference period and the fair allocation amount for the reference period; (d) the amount and potential variability of interest rates and related financing costs; (e) available capital markets in which funding obligations may be incurred.]

Amendments to approved plan

(3) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time, without the approval of the Minister, subject to the requirements set out in this section.

Confidential Draft

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in a clean energy adjustment for the reference period unless,

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair allocation amount for the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment for the reference period].

Confidentiality of plan

(4) The Financing Plan is deemed to be a record subject to section 17 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Implementation of Financing Plan

17xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall incur funding obligations ~~and make transfers~~ in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan [NTD: since transfers are not mandatory and are in any event subject to available financing, there is no need to generate uncertainty by making them expressly subject to the Financing Plan].

Same

(2) For greater certainty, section [paramountcy of funding obligations] applies despite the failure of the Financial Services Manager to comply with subsection (1).

Financing entities

(3) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations and accept and make transfers.

Prohibition

(3) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, the Board, the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation.

1. ~~Calculate~~ A = the sum of all invoice amounts (not including HST) which would have been issued to specified consumers for the month if Part II of this Act did not apply.

2. ~~Calculate~~ B = the sum of all invoice amounts (not including HST) in fact issued to specified consumers for the month.

Reliance on certain information

(2) For the purposes of calculating A and B of section 20xx(1), the electricity vendors shall provide to IESO such information as IESO may reasonably require and such further information as may be prescribed and the IESO shall be entitled to rely on such information. [NTD: the IESO cannot calculate this amount without obtaining necessary information from electricity vendors. Electricity vendors will need to apply consumption of each consumer in each TOU bucket, or tier at what price would have been, and also what price is now.]

[NTD: we have used the term "IESO funding shortfall" throughout to denote the monthly amount and the "variance account" to record the cumulative balance.]

Variance account

20.1xx (1) The IESO shall establish and maintain a variance account and shall record in such variance account the amount of the IESO funding shortfall for each month. [NTD: this is consistent with section 25.33(6) of Electricity Act. Consider reg making authority to govern the variance account.]

Same

(2) To the extent that the IESO funding shortfall for any month is determined based on an estimate of the electricity used by specified consumers~~,~~ or an error in the information provided by an electricity vendor, the IESO shall record ~~an adjustment~~ in the variance account ~~in the following month~~an adjustment to reflect the difference between the estimate or the erroneous information and the electricity actually used by specified consumers.

Same

(3) IESO shall record in the variance account such other adjustments as may be prescribed by regulations.

~~Recording of IESO funding shortfall~~

Same

(~~3~~4) IESO shall record in the variance account all payments received by the IESO ~~funding shortfall from time to time, including adjustments~~ resulting from ~~the exercise of~~ the right of recovery under section 21 ~~and~~or any transfer under section ~~22, in the variance account.~~22.

Recording determinative

(~~4~~5) ~~A~~Each recording ~~of~~by the IESO ~~funding shortfall~~ in the variance account is determinative ~~of the amount of IESO funding shortfall~~as at the time of the recording, and the balance recorded by the IESO in the variance account from time to time is determinative of such balance at such time, absent manifest error.

Rights of Investment Asset Owner

(6) A transferee may rely, without inquiry, upon the balance in the variance account certified by the IESO and no error in such certification and no subsequent adjustment to the balance in the variance account shall affect the rights of the investment asset owner acquired pursuant to a transfer under section 22xx.

Regulatory asset established

21xx. (1) ~~The~~ IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations, to recover ~~the IESO funding shortfall~~from specified consumers the balance from time to time recorded in the variance accounts.

Please see attached the IESO/Stikemans mark-up, together with a black line to the last version circulated by the Ministry.

This draft is still being reviewed by KPMG and is subject to their comments especially around the requirements to be met in order to recognize and de-recognize the regulatory asset.

While not reflected in our mark-up, we think that Part III with respect to the billing and collection of the Clean Energy Adjustment would benefit from a reorganization. First, it might be moved later in the statute, after both Part V with respect to the Regulatory Asset and Part VI with respect to the Investment Asset. Its current placement suggests that it is relevant to both the regulatory asset and the investment asset , which is not the case. Second it might be internally reorganized so that it deals sequentially with the following subjects:

1. Determination of the amount of the Clean Energy Adjustment, which in our view should be done by the Financial Services Manager (currently in Sections 10(1) and 10(3).

2. Determination by the OEB of the rate necessary to recover the Clean Energy Adjustment (currently in Section 10(2)). It is not clear to us that there is a role for the IESO in between the OEB and the electricity vendors, but happy to discuss.

3. Obligation of electricity vendors to invoice (Section 12)

4. Obligation of consumers to pay invoice amount (Section 8)

5. Obligation of electricity vendors to collect and remit (Section 12(2) to 12(6)). We need to provide for the collection standard and in particular make clear that they do not guarantee collection from customers.

6. Obligation of IESO to collect and remit (Sections 11(2) to 11(5). We need to provide for the collection standard and in particular make clear that we do not guarantee performance by the electricity vendors.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes' summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

[Insert explanatory note.]

[Notes re this draft:
- all numbering of provisions may need to be re-done
- will need to check all definitions to ensure (1) that they are needed; and (2) that they work properly wherever the term is used in the Bill.
- additional consequential amendments likely required still
- overall organization of provisions still TBC (for now just trying to get all of the elements drafted and will reconsider architecture later)

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1]

The Government of Ontario has established a regulatory framework related to the generation and sale of electricity, which has promoted and continues to promote significant investment to enable phasing out of coal fired generation, modernizing sites and facilities for the generation of electrical energy and the production therefrom for Ontario,[2] and conservation and demand management. [NTD: small point, but there are two IESO procurement contracts for hydro facilities located in Quebec but that are connected to and supply energy to Ontario.]

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of these investments, and the raising of money to fund the investments,[3] are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Interpretation
Definitions

1xx. (1) In this Act,

"Board" means the Ontario Energy Board; ("French")

"clean energy adjustment" means the amount determined under section 10xx; ("French")
[Note - will need to check throughout the draft that references to CEA are clear as to whether it's the total CEA in respect of a reference period vs. the portion payable by a specified consumer.]

"clean energy benefits" means, in respect of a reference period, the value of the benefits determined to be derived by the specified consumers during the reference period as a result of the clean energy initiative, including as a result of past, present and expected future incurrences of clean energy costs; ("French")

"clean energy costs" means, in respect of a reference period, the value of the costs allocated to specified consumers during the reference period as a result of the clean energy initiative, including as a result of past, present and expected costs incurred in respect of,

(a) the estimated amounts to be paid by the IESO referred to in section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 or any provision that is the successor to that provision, which relate to, [NTD: if the intent is to reference the costs associated with the following procurement contracts, and payments under section 78.5 of the OEB Act, we would suggest that the highlighted language above is unnecessary. The IESO does not incur costs under section 25.33. Note we have proposed defining "procurement contract" by reference to the Electricity Act definition.]

a. procurement contracts for:

a. renewable energy generation or capacity,

Confidential Draft

b. conservation and demand management, including storage, [NTD: should storage be included as CDM, or as a separate item? Is intent to include only storage procured by OPA as procurement contract, or also storage procured by IESO under market rules?]

c. energy efficiency,

d. natural gas generation and capacity, excluding such contracts as may be prescribed, or [NTD: if these are the only "procurement contracts" do not need to exclude 78.2 since OEFC contracts would by definition not be included.]

b. payments made or expected to be made under section 78.5 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, and

(b) such other estimated costs as may be prescribed; ("French")

"clean energy initiative" means the policies of the Government of Ontario related to,

(a) fostering the growth of and investment in clean and renewable energy sources and technologies,

(b) removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for clean and renewable energy sources and technologies, and

(c) promoting conservation and demand management; ("French")

"electricity vendor"[4] means a licensed distributor, a licensed retailer or such other person as may be prescribed, and shall include the IESO to the extent that the IESO directly invoices a specified consumer; ("French")

"fair adjustment" means the rate payable for electricity in accordance with Part II; ("French") [NTD: isn't the fair adjustment the rate, not the act of creating the rate?]

"Financial Services Manager" means Ontario Power Generation Inc. [or such other person or entity as may be appointed as the Financial Services Manager by the Minister under section ]; ("French")

[4] Note - this is similar to the definition of "electricity vendor" in the Ontario Rebate for Electricity Consumers Act, 2016

Confidential Draft

"Financing Plan" means the plan prepared under section X, as amended from time to time in accordance with this Act; ("French")

"funding obligation" means a payment obligation incurred by or on behalf of an investment asset owner under section x in connection with the transfer of a regulatory asset or the refinancing of an existing funding obligation; ("French")

"IESO" means the Independent Electricity System Operator continued under Part II of the Electricity Act, 1998; ("SIERE")

"IESO funding shortfall" means the amount determined under section 20xx; ("French") [NTD: The funding shortfall is the amount IESO records in the variance account monthly. Monthly recording of shortfall is consistent with section 20xx. We suggest this definition does not need to reference a time period.]

"investment asset" means the investment asset created as described in section 22xx; ("French")

"investment asset owner" means a financing entity that acquires an investment interest in the investment asset; ("French")

"investment interest" means an ownership interest in the investment asset, and, in the case of a transfer of an interest in an investment asset, the rights and benefits specified in the agreement under which the interest in the investment interest is transferred;

"invoice amount" means the amount, determined in accordance with subsections (2.1) and (2.2) and the regulations, that is payable by a specified consumer for the provision of electricity in Ontario during a period of time specified on an invoice issued by an electricity vendor; ("French")

"licensed distributor" means a person licensed under Part V of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 to own or operate a distribution system; ("French")

"Minister" means the Minister of Energy or such other member of the Executive Council as may be assigned the administration of this Act under the Executive Council Act; ("ministre")

"prescribed" means prescribed by the regulations; ("prescrit")

Confidential Draft

"procurement contract" has the meaning provided in the Electricity Act, 1998;

"reference period" means,

(a) the period beginning on May 1, 2017 and ending on October 31, 2017,

(b) every six-month period following the period mentioned in clause (a) or such shorter period as may be set out in the Fair Allocation Plan; ("French")

"representative consumer" means a consumer who meets the criteria set out in subsection (3); ("French")

"specified consumer" means,

(a) a person who has an account with an electricity vendor for the supply of electricity, receives an invoice in respect of the account and meets the criteria set out in subsection (2); or

(b) such other person as may be prescribed; ("French")

"Toronto Hydro" means Toronto Hydro-Electric System Limited; ("French")

"transfer" means (i) in relation to the regulatory asset, or any portion thereof, any act of IESO which states that it is a "transfer" of all or any portion of the regulatory asset for purposes of this Act or any other act of the IESO by which the IESO purports to dispose of its interest in all or any portion of the regulatory asset and (ii) in relation to an investment asset or any investment interest, any assignment, conveyance, disposition or sale thereof, and, in each case, transferred shall have a corresponding meaning; ("French") [NTD: For a number of reasons it is difficult to treat the transaction between the IESO and the Financing Trust as a transaction which is in law a transfer, sale or assignment. We think that the best way of proceeding is for the Act to state specifically that upon any "transfer", the IESO has no further rights in the Regulatory Asset, or portion thereof transferred and the Investment

Confidential Draft

Asset Owner acquires the corresponding Investment Interest free of any adverse claim. Since, in both cases, these rights are a creature of statute, it is hard to see how such a stipulation could realistically be challenged. However, in order to avoid circularity, the term "transfer" needs to be defined more broadly so that it is not dependent upon there being a transfer at common law.]

"variance account" means the variance account established under section 20.1xx.

Specified consumers

(2) For the purposes of clause (a) of the definition of "specified consumer" in subsection (1), the person must meet any one of the following criteria:

4. Any of the following charges that may be set out in an order issued by the Board under subsection 78 (3) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998:

    i. A fixed monthly service charge payable by a generation facility within the meaning of section 56 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 and classified as "microFIT".

    ii. A charge labelled as a "specific service charge" or "retail service charge".

Confidential Draft

iii. A rate rider.

5. Any other prescribed amounts.

Representative consumer

(3) For the purposes of the definition of "representative consumer" in subsection (1), the consumer,

(a) purchases electricity directly from Toronto Hydro;

(b) has an account with Toronto Hydro that falls within a residential-rate classification as specified in a rate order made by the Board under section 78 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998;

(c) is invoiced by Toronto Hydro on a monthly basis;

(d) is not invoiced by Toronto Hydro for electricity on an equal monthly payment plan or an equal billing plan; and

(e) uses, on average, 750 kilowatt hours of electricity each month [NTD: is it necessary to make assumptions relative to time of use, since that will determine the dollar amount paid by that customer].

Effect of invalidity, etc.[5]

2xx. (1) For greater certainty, all of the provisions of this Act remain in full force and effect, even if some provisions are held to be invalid, the intention of the Legislature being to give separate and independent effect to the extent of its powers to every provision contained in this Act.

Same, funding obligation

(2) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect a funding obligation that was incurred under this Act before the day that the provision was held to be invalid or ceased to be in effect.

Purpose

3xx. (1) The purposes of this Act are,[6]

(a) to ensure that clean energy costs are fairly allocated among specified consumers over time and that the process by which the Province raises money to fund the costs reflects the fair allocation; and

(b) to recognize that clean energy benefits that have accrued and that will accrue over time will continue to benefit present and future electricity consumers in the Province.

Crown bound

4xx. This Act binds the Crown.

Protection and assurances

Prohibition

5xx. (1) The Crown shall not do anything that would,

(a) hinder, delay, impair or prejudice the charging, collection or remittance of the clean energy adjustment;

(b) except as expressly permitted by this Act, reduce the amount of the clean energy adjustment; or [NTD: the clean energy adjustment is allocated and collected rateably]

(c) adversely affect an investment asset or a funding obligation.

Clarification with respect to regulations

(2) For greater certainty, the things prohibited under subsection (1) include the making or approving of a regulation under this Act.

Agreements for compensation

(3) The Minister may, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, enter into agreements on behalf of the Province of Ontario with any person in respect of this Act, including agreements regarding financial commitments, financial arrangements, indemnities or similar transactions.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2018

Definition

6xx. (1) In this section,

Confidential Draft

"average baseline invoice amount" means the monthly invoice amount that would be payable by a representative consumer under the average baseline rate; ("French")

"average baseline rate" means the average rate [NTD: or rates, to reflect time of use?] that would be payable effective May 1, 2017 by the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act, as determined by the Board by applying the method prescribed by the regulations under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of that Act; ("French") [NTD: since the OEB has already lowered RPP rates under 79.16(1)(b) that are payable May 1, 2017, this definition may need to indicate the average baseline rate is the rate that would have been determined in the absence of the government's proposed Fair Hydro Plan.]

"sub-meter customer" means a person who is supplied electricity by a specified consumer, if an invoice for the electricity is issued to the person by the specified consumer, by an agent of the specified consumer or by a unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer; ("French")

Rate determination

(2) Subject to subsection (3), to more fairly recognize clean energy benefits and allocate the clean energy costs among present and future generations of specified consumers, the rate [NTD: rate or rates?] for electricity payable by a specified consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2017 and ending on April 30, 2018 is the average rate [NTD: or rates, to reflect time of use?] that would be payable by a representative consumer in order for the representative consumer to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent less than the average baseline invoice amount. [NTD: if the rate determined by regulation is different from the rate OEB just set for May 1, will consumers receive a rebate for the difference? Do there need to be provisions addressing this? How does the above align with subsection (4)(b) below?]

Sub-meter customers

(3) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the rate determined under subsection (2).

Determining rate

(4) The rate mentioned in subsection (2) shall be,

(a) determined by the Board within seven business days after this section receives Royal Assent; and

(b) effective as of the first day of the calendar month immediately following the determination.

Transition

(5) If, for technical or operational reasons, an electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider is unable to adapt its invoices to comply with this section by the time it issues its first invoice for electricity consumed on or after May 1, 2017,

(a) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than [August 1, 2017]; and

(b) the electricity vendor, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider shall ensure that any specified consumer or sub-meter customer invoiced at a rate higher than the applicable rate receives the difference between the rate shown on their invoice and the applicable rate as a lump sum credit on the first invoice issued after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations.

Fair adjustment, May 1, 2018 to April 30, 2022

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, [to more fairly measure and allocate the clean energy costs and clean energy benefits among present and future generations of specified consumers,] make regulations prescribing the rate [NTD: will regulations prescribe the rate, or the criteria to be applied by the Board in setting the rate? It is important for the establishment of a regulatory asset that the Board establishes the rate that results in the variance. The Board will also need to determine what RPP/price would have been without these provisions. We suggest adding a corresponding section to s 6xx(4).] for electricity payable by specified consumers and sub-meter customers during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022.

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay clean energy adjustment

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes a clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the clean energy adjustment to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment asset owners, in accordance with the terms of payment specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

Confidential Draft

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment is inconsistent with the fair allocation calculation made by the Financial Services Manager under Part IV applicable at the time when the payment is due; and [NTD: the Fair Allocation Plan is not called for in the Bill now. Note there are still a few references to Fair Allocation Plan in the Bill, which we assume will be changed in the next iteration if the current approach of not using a FAP remains.]

(b) whether the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was inconsistent with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(4) An unpaid clean energy adjustment that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the consumer to each investment asset owner in respect of each owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Same

(5) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer under the invoice or otherwise.

Irrevocability of clean energy adjustment

9xx. (1) The amount of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness created by the adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a calculation error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment

10xx. (1) The clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of a reference period shall be determined as follows and as may otherwise be prescribed:

1. The Financial Services Manager shall estimate the finance amount for the reference period in accordance with Schedule 1 and such additional rules as may be prescribed.

2. The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the true up amount for the reference period, as determined in accordance with the prescribed method. [NTD: the true up amount may be either positive or negative.]

Confidential Draft

3. The Financial Services Manager shall, not less than xx days prior to the applicable reference reriod, inform the Board of the estimated finance amount and the true up amount.

Rate determination

(2) The Board will determine the rate at which specified consumers are invoiced to recover the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period in accordance with the regulations.

True up amount

(3) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the method for determining the true up amount, having regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the estimated finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account,

   i. aggregate differences between amounts billed and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs,

   ii. aggregate variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption, and

   iii. the variations between the estimated finance amount for a reference period and the actual finance amount for that period.

[NTD: the IESO does not need and should not be required to issue an invoice or statement to electricity vendors. The IESO will not know the amount to be invoiced and electricity vendors have an obligation under 12xx to remit amounts collected to the IESO which in turn will collect and remit to the investment asset owner. The investment asset owner will then record the variance between the clean energy adjustment determined in 10xx(1) and the amount remitted by the IESO which it will then factor into the true up.]

IESO to receive

(2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment asset owners, receive the clean energy adjustment paid to it by electricity vendors [in accordance with the regulations and the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998]. [NTD: the IESO's obligation will be to collect and remit from electricity vendors what is paid. We understand from prior discussions the obligation is not to collect everything that is invoiced by electricity vendors (other than IESO). Any underpayment will be recorded in a variance by the investment asset owner/financial services manager and recovered in a future reference period.] [NTD: The IESO does not object to describing the electricity vendors as sub-agents of the IESO. However, if the electricity vendors are so described exculpatory language of the sort we have provided earlier should be added so that the IESO is not responsible for the acts or defaults of the electricity vendors].

Collection account

(3) All of the following amounts received by the IESO shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment asset owner in accordance with subsection (5), be deposited promptly into an account established for the purposes of receiving those amounts:

1. Amounts described in subsection 12 (4).

2. Payments made by specified consumers directly to the IESO as electricity vendor under subsection 8 (1).

Same, held in trust

(4) All amounts received by the IESO in respect of the clean energy adjustment shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment asset owner in accordance with subsection (6), be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owners. [NTD: see sections with security interest language.]

IESO to remit

(5) The IESO shall remit the amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment to or for the benefit of the investment asset owners in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendor to invoice specified consumers

12xx. (1) Each electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each specified consumer with an account with such electricity vendor for the amount payable by such consumer in respect of the clean energy adjustment, determined by applying the rate set by the Board under section 10xx(2) and as further prescribed.

Electricity Vendor to Report

(2) Each electricity vendor shall promptly report to the IESO the aggregate amount invoiced to its customers in respect of the Clean Energy Adjustment, the amount collected and such further information as may be prescribed.

Confidential Draft

Electricity vendor to collect

(3)Each electricity vendor shall, as an agent of the investment asset owners, collect the clean energy adjustment paid by specified consumers [in accordance with the regulations.] [NTD: deletion to be consistent with 8xx(1). LDCs do not collect from consumers in accordance with market rules. LDC collection is governed by Board codes.]

Pro rating of payments

(3) If an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices and the amount paid is less than the total amount payable, the electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices in respect of electricity charges for the same invoice period.

Held in trust

(4) All of the following amounts received by an electricity vendor shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment asset owner in accordance with subsection (5), be held in trust for the investment asset owners:

1. Payments received from or on behalf of specified consumers under subsection 8 (1).

2. Portions of payments received from or on behalf of specified consumers under subsection 8 (1) that are allocated to the clean energy adjustment under subsection (3).

3. Any proceeds arising from the exercise and enforcement of any rights and interests under or in respect of the investment asset.

Remittance to IESO

(5) Each electricity vendor shall remit amounts described in subsection (5) to the IESO for the benefit of the investment asset owners in accordance with the regulations. [NTD: deletion to be consistent to our proposed change to the definition of electricity vendor.]

Regulations

(6) If an electricity vendor fails, in the manner described in the regulations, to comply with the requirements of this section, the electricity vendor shall take such steps as the regulations may prescribe.

PART IV
IMPLEMENTATION

FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER

Appointment

13xx. (1) [Note: To be elaborated.]

Termination

(2) The Minister may by written order terminate the appointment of an appointee as the Financial Services Manager if,

(a) the Minister has advised the appointee that the Financing Plan is either inconsistent with or is being implemented in a manner that is inconsistent with the principles set out in section x;

(b) the appointee has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to consider and address the inconsistency; and

(c) the appointee is unwilling or unable to address the inconsistency to the satisfaction of the Minister.

Replacement

(3) Upon terminating an appointment, the Minister may, in accordance with the regulations, appoint a new person or entity as the Financial Services Manager.

Duties and powers

14xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall perform the duties assigned to it under this Act and may administer the investment asset on behalf of the investment asset owner.

Same

(2) The administration of the investment asset may include the following:

1. Providing information, in accordance with the regulations, to the Board in respect of funding obligations and the determination of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with section XX.

2. Providing information to electricity vendors, including the IESO, in respect of obligations under Part III.

3. Such other matters as may be prescribed.

Confidential Draft

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations.

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Financial Services Manager to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the fair allocation amount for the purposes of,

(a) fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of each reference period; and

(b) aligning funding obligations that may be incurred during each reference period with the allocation of the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits across present and future generations of specified consumers.

Amount

(1.1) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which the estimated [clean energy costs] [clean energy benefits] to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period exceeds the estimated amount of [the global adjustment] that would be borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs [in the absence of this Act].
2. An allocable portion of the value of any fair adjustment, determined in accordance with subsection (3).

Principles

(2) In calculating the fair allocation amount [or in developing the fair allocation calculation?], subject to subsection (3), the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined based on [Insert principles].

Confidential Draft

3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The time value of money or the rate of inflation, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers for each reference period.

    iii. The expected electricity consumption rates for each reference period.

Allocation of fair adjustment

(3) If, before the Financial Services Manager has calculated the fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period, a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the calculation shall include a portion of the value of the fair adjustment in the fair allocation calculation for each future reference period.

Amendments to the fair allocation calculation

(4) The Financial Services Manager may amend the fair allocation calculation from time to time, as the Financial Services Manager considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Submission of fair allocation to Minister

(5) The Financial Services Manager shall provide to the Minister the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to the fair allocation calculation.

Effective date

(6) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Minister in writing.

Publication

(7) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare and provide to the Minister a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred .

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align with the expected finance amount determined under Schedule 1 that would become due and payable during a reference period (after giving effect to any contemplated refinancings) with the fair allocation amount determined for the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment for the reference period.

2. Incurrences should be implemented in a manner that the Financial Services Manager considers to be reasonable, to be cost effective and to reflect prevailing market terms and conditions [NTD: cannot apply prevailing market terms and conditions to transfers].

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

[Note for reference: List of items for consideration in regulation: (a) anticipated IESO funding shortfalls and related transfer amounts; (b) the maturities of funding obligations; (c) the availability of refinancings, redemption opportunities and liquidity terms and conditions in order to achieve the objective contemplated in section X(1)(a); (d) the availability of currency and interest rate hedging facilities for the purpose of mitigating any differences between the expected finance amounts becoming due and payable during a reference period and the fair allocation amount for the reference period; (d) the amount and potential variability of interest rates and related financing costs; (e) available capital markets in which funding obligations may be incurred.]

Amendments to approved plan

(3) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time, without the approval of the Minister, subject to the requirements set out in this section.

Confidential Draft

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in a clean energy adjustment for the reference period unless,

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair allocation amount for the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment for the reference period].

Confidentiality of plan

(4) The Financing Plan is deemed to be a record subject to section 17 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Implementation of Financing Plan

17xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall incur funding obligations in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan [NTD: since transfers are not mandatory and are in any event subject to available financing, there is no need to generate uncertainty by making them expressly subject to the Financing Plan].

Same

(2) For greater certainty, section [paramountcy of funding obligations] applies despite the failure of the Financial Services Manager to comply with subsection (1).

Financing entities

(3) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations and accept and make transfers.

Prohibition

(3) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, the Board, the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation.

Confidential Draft

Effect of amendment to Fair Allocation Plan

(4) No funding obligation incurred and no transfer accepted or made by the Financial Services Manager shall be affected by any inconsistency with the Financing Plan, including any inconsistency with the principles set out in section X.

PART V
THE REGULATORY ASSET

Interpretation, portion of regulatory asset

18xx. If any transfer provides for the transfer of a portion of the regulatory asset, any references in this Part to the regulatory asset are deemed to be references to the portion of the regulatory asset transferred. [NTD: probably unnecessary]

[Note: This is meant to assist with clarity in the subsequent provisions.]

IESO funding shortfall

20xx. (1) The IESO funding shortfall for each month shall be equal to A – B + C where:

A = the sum of all invoice amounts (not including HST) which would have been issued to specified consumers for the month if Part II of this Act did not apply.

B = the sum of all invoice amounts (not including HST) in fact issued to specified consumers for the month.

C = the sum of all financing costs related to all IESO funding shortfalls incurred by IESO for the month [NTD: in the event IESO pays financing entity's interest costs during first 5 years, such costs should be added to the IESO funding shortfall.]

Reliance on certain information

(2) For the purposes of calculating A and B of section 20xx(1), the electricity vendors shall provide to IESO such information as IESO may reasonably require and such further information as may be prescribed and the IESO shall be entitled to rely on such information. [NTD: the IESO cannot calculate this amount without obtaining necessary information from electricity vendors. Electricity vendors will need to apply consumption of each consumer in each TOU bucket, or tier at what price would have been, and also what price is now.]

Confidential Draft

[NTD: we have used the term "IESO funding shortfall" throughout to denote the monthly amount and the "variance account" to record the cumulative balance.]

Variance account
20.1xx (1) The IESO shall establish and maintain a variance account and shall record in such variance account the amount of the IESO funding shortfall for each month. [NTD: this is consistent with section 25.33(6) of Electricity Act. Consider reg making authority to govern the variance account.]

Same
(2) To the extent that the IESO funding shortfall for any month is determined based on an estimate of the electricity used by specified consumers or an error in the information provided by an electricity vendor, the IESO shall record in the variance account an adjustment to reflect the difference between the estimate or the erroneous information and the electricity actually used by specified consumers.

Same
(3) IESO shall record in the variance account such other adjustments as may be prescribed by regulations.

Same
(4) IESO shall record in the variance account all payments received by the IESO resulting from the right of recovery under section 21 or any transfer under section 22.

Recording determinative
(5) Each recording by the IESO in the variance account is determinative as at the time of the recording, and the balance recorded by the IESO in the variance account from time to time is determinative of such balance at such time, absent manifest error.

Rights of Investment Asset Owner
(6) A transferee may rely, without inquiry, upon the balance in the variance account certified by the IESO and no error in such certification and no subsequent adjustment to the balance in the variance account shall affect the rights of the investment asset owner acquired pursuant to a transfer under section 22xx.

Regulatory asset established
21xx. (1) IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations, to recover from specified consumers the balance from time to time recorded in the variance accounts.

Same

(2) The Board shall, from time to time, in accordance with this Act and as further prescribed by regulation, determine and set rates payable by specified consumers so that IESO is able to recover the balance recorded in the variance account. [NTD: if the IESO's right to recover is expressly subordinated to that of the investment asset owners, we are advised that the IESO will not be able to record the creation or divestiture of the regulatory asset.]

Same, restriction

(3) IESO shall not be entitled to collect all or any part of the balance recorded in the variance account from specified consumers before May 1, 2022.

Transfer of regulatory asset

22xx. (1) The IESO may, from time to time, transfer all or a portion of the regulatory asset to any financing entity. [NTD: not necessary and unhelpful to refer to the Financing Plan in relation to transfers].

Same

(2) Upon receipt by IESO of payment in consideration of a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the transfer shall be valid and enforceable as against the IESO. The IESO shall retain no right, title or interest in the portion of the regulatory asset transferred and shall have no right, title or interest in any investment asset arising under this Act.

Vesting, deemed Perfection

(3) Each transfer of a regulatory asset shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected and vested as against IESO and all other persons who have claims of any kind against IESO or the regulatory asset.

Priority of transfer

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims against IESO or the regulatory asset have received notice of the transfer or have registered or otherwise perfected their interest.

PART VI
THE INVESTMENT ASSET

Investment asset

24xx. (1) Upon any transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset to a financing entity, an investment asset is created, the investment asset created by the transfer is immediately vested in the financing entity, free and clear of any adverse claim, and the financing entity becomes an investment asset owner and acquires an investment interest.

Confidential Draft

(2) The IESO shall retain no right, title or interest in the portion of the regulatory asset transferred and shall have no right, title or interest in any investment asset arising under this Act.

(2) If a transfer under this Part provides for the transfer of an investment asset, any references in this Part to the investment interest are deemed to be references to the specific investment interest transferred.

Investment asset established

25xx. (1) The investment asset constitutes a current and irrevocable property right and interest consisting, collectively, of the following rights and interests without duplication:

1. The right to impose, bill, invoice, collect and receive the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers, including the right to determine the amount of the clean energy adjustment in accordance with this Act.

2. The right to receive and collect all amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment that are imposed, billed and invoiced under this Act, including any amounts that all amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment that are held by electricity vendors or other prescribed parties.

3. All rights and entitlements under such accounts as may be prescribed by regulation and all amounts on deposit in such accounts.

4. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to impose, attribute, charge, bill and invoice the clean energy adjustment.

5. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to collect, receive and remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment, including all collections and the proceeds of any enforcement action undertaken by an electricity vendor to recover payment of the clean energy adjustment.

6. All rights of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) that attach or are attendant or incidental to any of the other property rights or interests that comprise the regulatory asset owner's regulatory asset.

7. All revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds of or derived from the rights described in paragraphs 1 to 6, regardless of whether such revenue, collections, claims, payments and proceeds are imposed, invoiced, collected and maintained together with or commingled with other revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds.

Confidential Draft

No set off, etc.

(2) The investment asset shall not be set off by a consumer, an electricity vendor, an agent of the investment asset owner or an owner of distribution system assets in the Province or by any affiliate or successor of a person mentioned in clause (a).

Exercise of rights

(3) The rights of the investment asset owner to collect and enforce its rights and interests in, to and in respect of the investment asset against a specified consumer shall be exercised in accordance with section [xx] of the Personal Property Security Act.

Collective action required

(4) If the investment asset owner owns a right or interest in the investment asset that comprises less than the entire property right and interest constituted by the investment asset, the right or interest shall only be enforced by the investment asset owner collectively and in coordination with all other investment asset owners, and any agreement among that collective in furtherance of the collective action shall be valid and binding on the investment asset owner as a collective in accordance with its terms. [Note: Successors may need to be addressed here.]

Transfer of investment interest

26xx. An investment asset owner may transfer all or a portion of its rights and interests in an investment interest to any other investment asset owner, including by way of a transfer of a divided or an undivided interest, in accordance with the Financing Plan.

Validity of transfer

27xx. (1) A transfer of an investment interest under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer of the investment interest and confers upon the owner of the investment interest acquired a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment interest in accordance with the terms of the transfer.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of an investment asset owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment interest, and not merely as a security interest, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the investment interest, subject to the transfer, including all rights to the investment interest arising after the transfer.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of an investment interest is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer, assignment, etc.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the investment asset owner shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons.

Investment asset owner may grant security interest

28xx. (1) An investment asset owner may grant a security interest over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under the investment interest to or in favour of any person to secure a funding obligation.

Validity

(2) A security interest granted under this Act shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Perfection and priority of security interests

(3) All provisions of the Personal Property Security Act shall apply to the investment asset and each investment interest on the basis that it is intangible personal property, except as otherwise provided for in this section, and any granting of a security interest by the owner of an investment interest to secure a funding obligation shall, subject to the terms of the funding obligation, give rise to a security interest in respect of which that Act applies and may be perfected by filing a financing statement under that Act on that basis.

Proceeds

(4) All proceeds of an investment interest that are subject to the security interest and that are received by the applicable investment asset owner shall immediately be subject to the security interest and shall be perfected without any physical delivery of the proceeds, registration of any financing statement or any further act.

Perfection

(5) The security interest shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may subsequently attach to the property rights and interests in the investment interest subject to the security interest, subject to the written consent of the person to whom the security interest has been granted.

(6) The person to whom the security interest has been granted shall have a perfected security interest in revenues or other proceeds that are deposited in any [investment asset account] or other account of any electricity vendor, the IESO, an agent of an electricity vendor or the IESO or other person who may have commingled such revenues or other proceeds with other funds.

(7) The secured party shall be entitled to exercise the rights of an investment asset owner under the Act only after it has given notice of the enforcement of its security interest to the IESO.

PART VI
MISCELLANEOUS

Appointment of agent, invoicing or collection

29xx. If a prescribed circumstance applies, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by regulation appoint a person to carry out some or all of the obligations of an electricity vendor under this Act in the place of an electricity vendor with respect to invoicing or collection.

Sequestration

31xx. (1) A court in the Province may, upon application by an investment asset owner or a secured party, order the sequestration and payment of the clean energy adjustment, collections and remittances, as applicable, for the benefit of the investment asset owner or secured party by any person or entity authorized to collect the clean energy adjustment, defaults on any required remittance of the clean energy adjustment, collections or remittances.

Same

(2) An order under subsection (1) does not limit any other remedies available to the applicant.

Choice of law

32xx. The law governing, as applicable, the validity, enforceability, attachment, perfection, priority and exercise of remedies with respect to the transfer of an interest or right or creation of a security interest in the regulatory asset, the investment asset, the clean energy adjustment or the undertaking of the Crown under section x shall be the laws of the Province.

Despite any requirement under any Act, no approvals, notices or authorizations other than those specified in this Act are required with respect to the actions to be taken in compliance with this Act, including actions to be taken under the Financing Plan or in relation to the establishment of the Fair Allocation Plan.

Immunity

35xx. (1) No action or other proceeding shall be instituted against any employee of the Province, IESO, OPG or OEB for any act done in good faith in the execution or intended execution of any duty or authority under this Act or for any alleged neglect or default in the execution in good faith of any duty or authority under this Act.

Same

(2) Despite subsections 5 (2) and (4) of the Proceedings Against the Crown Act, subsection (1) does not relieve the Crown of liability in respect of a tort committed by a person mentioned in subsection (1) to which it would otherwise be subject.

References in marketing materials and offering documents

36xx. No person shall include, in marketing materials or offering documents relating to the financing of funding obligations, references to any rights, obligations, guarantees or undertakings arising under this section unless the prescribed requirements, if any, are satisfied.

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1]

The Government of Ontario has established a regulatory framework related to the generation and sale of electricity, which has promoted and continues to promote significant investment to enable phasing out of coal fired generation, modernizing sites and facilities ~~in the Province~~ for the generation of electrical energy and the production therefrom for Ontario,[2] and conservation and demand management. [NTD: small point, but there are two IESO procurement contracts for hydro facilities located in Quebec but that are connected to and supply energy to Ontario.]

GENERAL

Interpretation
Definitions

1xx. (1) In this Act,

"Board" means the Ontario Energy Board; ("French")

"clean energy adjustment" means the amount determined under section 10xx; ("French")
[Note - will need to check throughout the draft that references to CEA are clear as to whether it's the total CEA in respect of a reference period vs. the portion payable by a specified consumer.]

"clean energy benefits" means, in respect of a reference period, the value of the benefits determined to be derived by the specified consumers during the reference period as a result of the clean energy initiative, including as a result of past, present and expected future incurrences of clean energy costs; ("French")

"clean energy costs" means, in respect of a reference period, the value of the costs allocated to specified consumers during the reference period as a result of the clean energy initiative, including as a result of past, present and expected costs incurred in respect of,

(a) the estimated ~~costs~~amounts to be ~~incurred~~paid by the IESO ~~under~~referred to in section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 or any provision that is the successor to that provision, which relate to ~~contracts for,~~ [NTD: if the intent is to reference the costs associated with the following procurement contracts, and payments under section 78.5 of the OEB Act, we would suggest that the highlighted language above is unnecessary. The IESO does not incur costs under section 25.33. Note we have proposed defining "procurement contract" by reference to the Electricity Act definition.]

a. procurement contracts for:

a. ~~(i)~~ renewable energy generation or capacity,

b. ~~(ii)~~ conservation and demand management, including storage, [NTD: should storage be included as CDM, or as a separate item? Is intent to include only storage procured by OPA as procurement contract, or also storage procured by IESO under market rules?]

c. ~~(iii)~~ energy efficiency,

d. ~~(iv)~~ natural gas generation and capacity, excluding ~~contracts relating to amounts payable by the IESO under section 78.2 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 and excluding such other~~such contracts as may be prescribed, or [NTD: if these are the only "procurement contracts" do not need to exclude 78.2 since OEFC contracts would by definition not be included.]

b. ~~(v)~~ payments made or expected to be made under section 78.5 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, and

(b) such other estimated costs as may be prescribed; ("French")

"clean energy initiative" means the policies of the Government of Ontario related to,

(a) fostering the growth of and investment in clean and renewable energy sources and technologies,

(c) promoting conservation and demand management; ("French")

Confidential Draft

"electricity vendor"[4] means ~~the IESO,~~ a licensed distributor, a licensed retailer or such other person as may be prescribed, and shall include the IESO to the extent that the IESO directly invoices a specified consumer; ("French")

"fair adjustment" means the ~~determination of the~~ rate payable for electricity in accordance with Part II; ("French") [NTD: isn't the fair adjustment the rate, not the act of creating the rate?]

"Financial Services Manager" means Ontario Power Generation Inc. [or such other person or entity as may be appointed as the Financial Services Manager by the Minister under section ]; ("French")

"Financing Plan" means the plan prepared under section X, as amended from time to time in accordance with this Act; ("French")

"IESO" means the Independent Electricity System Operator continued under Part II of the Electricity Act, 1998; ("SIERE")

"IESO funding shortfall" means~~, in respect of a reference period,~~ the amount determined under section 20xx ~~for the reference period~~; ("French") [NTD: The funding shortfall is the amount IESO records in the variance account monthly. Monthly recording of shortfall is consistent with section 20xx. We suggest this definition does not need to reference a time period.]

"investment asset" means the investment asset created as described in section 22xx; ("French")

"investment asset owner" means a financing entity that acquires an investment interest in the investment asset; ("French")

"investment interest" means an ownership interest in the investment asset, ~~which entitles~~and, in the case of a transfer of an interest in an investment asset ~~owner to~~ , the rights and benefits specified in the agreement under which the ~~ownership~~interest in the investment interest is transferred;

"invoice amount" means the amount, determined in accordance with subsections (2.1) and (2.2) and the regulations, that is payable by a specified consumer for the provision of electricity in Ontario during a period of time specified on an invoice issued by an electricity vendor; ("French")

"licensed distributor" means a person licensed under Part V of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 to own or operate a distribution system; ("French")

"transfer" means ~~an~~(i) in relation to the regulatory asset, or any portion thereof, any act of IESO which states that it is a "transfer" of all or any portion of the regulatory asset for purposes of this Act or any other act of the IESO by which the IESO purports to dispose of its interest in all or any portion of the regulatory asset and (ii) in relation to an investment asset or any investment interest, any assignment, conveyance, disposition or sale~~; ("French")~~ thereof, and, in each case, transferred shall have a corresponding meaning; ("French") [NTD: For a number of reasons it is difficult to treat the transaction between the IESO and the Financing Trust as a transaction which is in law a transfer, sale or assignment. We think that the best way of proceeding is for the Act to state specifically that upon any "transfer", the IESO has no further rights in the Regulatory Asset, or portion thereof transferred and the Investment Asset Owner acquires the corresponding Investment Interest free of any adverse claim. Since, in both cases, these rights are a creature of statute, it is hard to see how such a stipulation could realistically be challenged. However, in order to avoid circularity, the term "transfer" needs to be defined more broadly so that it is not dependent upon there being a transfer at common law.]

"variance account" means the variance account established under section 20.1xx.

Specified consumers

(2) For the purposes of clause (a) of the definition of "specified consumer" in subsection (1), the person must meet any one of the following criteria:

"average baseline invoice amount" means the ~~average~~ monthly invoice amount that would be payable by a representative consumer under the average baseline rate; ("French")

"average baseline rate" means the average rate [NTD: or rates, to reflect time of use?] that would be payable effective May 1, 2017 by the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act, as determined by the Board by applying the method prescribed by the regulations under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of that Act; ("French") [NTD: since the OEB has already lowered RPP rates under 79.16(1)(b) that are payable May 1, 2017, this definition may need to indicate the average baseline rate is the rate that would have been determined in the absence of the government's proposed Fair Hydro Plan.]

"sub-meter customer" means a person who is supplied electricity by a specified consumer, if an invoice for the electricity is issued to the person by the specified consumer, by an agent of the specified consumer or by a unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer; ("French")

Sub-meter customers

(3) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the rate determined under subsection (2).

Determining rate

(4) The rate mentioned in subsection (2) shall be,

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay clean energy adjustment

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes a clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the clean energy adjustment to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment asset owners, in accordance with ~~such~~the terms of payment ~~as may be~~ specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment is inconsistent with the fair allocation calculation made by the Financial Services Manager under Part IV applicable at the time when the payment is due; and [NTD: the Fair Allocation Plan is not called for in the Bill now. Note there are still a few references to Fair Allocation Plan in the Bill, which we assume will be changed in the next iteration if the current approach of not using a FAP remains.]

(b) whether the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was inconsistent with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(4) An unpaid clean energy adjustment that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the consumer to each investment asset owner in respect of each owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Same

(5) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer under the invoice or otherwise.

Irrevocability of clean energy adjustment

9xx. (1) The amount of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness created by the adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a calculation error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment

10xx. (1) The clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of a reference period shall be determined as follows and as may otherwise be prescribed:

1. ~~Calculate~~The Financial Services Manager shall estimate the ~~estimated~~ finance amount for the reference period in accordance with Schedule 1 and such additional rules as may be prescribed.

2. ~~Add~~ The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the true up amount for the reference period, as determined in accordance with the prescribed method~~, to~~. [NTD: the true up amount may be either positive or negative.]

3. The Financial Services Manager shall, not less than xx days prior to the applicable reference reriod, inform the Board of the estimated finance amount ~~calculated under paragraph 1.~~and the true up amount.

Rate determination

(2) The Board will determine the rate at which specified consumers are invoiced to recover the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period in accordance with the regulations.

True up amount

(~~2~~3) For the purposes of paragraph 2 of subsection (1), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the method for determining the true up amount, having regard to the following principles:

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the estimated finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account ~~historical and reasonably foreseeable~~,

   i. aggregate differences between amounts billed and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, ~~and~~

   ii. aggregate variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption~~.~~, and

   iii. the variations between the estimated finance amount for a reference period and the actual finance amount for that period.

[NTD: the IESO does not need and should not be required to issue an invoice or statement to electricity vendors. The IESO will not know the amount to be invoiced and electricity vendors have an obligation under 12xx to remit amounts collected to the IESO which in turn will collect and remit to the investment asset owner. The investment asset owner will then record the variance between the clean energy adjustment determined in 10xx(1) and the amount remitted by the IESO which it will then factor into the true up.]

IESO to ~~issue remittance notice to electricity vendors~~receive

~~11xx.~~ ~~(1) The IESO shall, in accordance with the regulations, issue a remittance notice to each electricity vendor for the electricity vendor's portion, as determined in accordance with the regulations, of the clean energy adjustment in respect of a reference period.~~

~~IESO to collect~~

(2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment asset owners, ~~collect~~ receive the clean energy adjustment ~~from~~paid to it by electricity vendors [in accordance with the regulations and the monthly settlement process set out in the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998]. [NTD: the IESO's obligation will be to collect and remit from electricity vendors what is paid. We understand from prior discussions the obligation is not to collect everything that is invoiced by electricity vendors (other than IESO). Any underpayment will be recorded in a variance by the investment asset owner/financial services manager and recovered in a future reference period.]

[NTD: The IESO does not object to describing the electricity vendors as sub-agents of the IESO. However, if the electricity vendors are so described exculpatory language of the sort we have provided earlier should be added so that the IESO is not responsible for the acts or defaults of the electricity vendors].

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations.

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Financial Services Manager to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate the fair allocation amount for the purposes of,

(a) fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of each reference period; and

(b) aligning funding obligations that may be incurred during each reference period with the allocation of the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits across present and future generations of specified consumers.

Amount

(1.1) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which the estimated [clean energy costs] [clean energy benefits] to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period exceeds the estimated amount of [the global adjustment] that would be borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs [in the absence of this Act].
2. An allocable portion of the value of any fair adjustment, determined in accordance with subsection (3).

Principles

(2) In calculating the fair allocation amount [or in developing the fair allocation calculation?], subject to subsection (3), the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined based on [Insert principles].

Confidential Draft

3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The time value of money or the rate of inflation, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers for each reference period.

    iii. The expected electricity consumption rates for each reference period.

Allocation of fair adjustment

(3) If, before the Financial Services Manager has calculated the fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period, a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the calculation shall include a portion of the value of the fair adjustment in the fair allocation calculation for each future reference period.

Amendments to the fair allocation calculation

(4) The Financial Services Manager may amend the fair allocation calculation from time to time, as the Financial Services Manager considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Submission of fair allocation to Minister

(5) The Financial Services Manager shall provide to the Minister the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to the fair allocation calculation.

Effective date

(6) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Minister in writing.

Publication

(7) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare and provide to the Minister a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred ~~or potential transfers should be made for the purposes of this Act~~.

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align with the expected finance amount determined under Schedule 1 that would become due and payable during a reference period (after giving effect to any contemplated refinancings) with the fair allocation amount determined for the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment for the reference period.

2. Incurrences ~~and transfers~~ should be implemented in a manner that~~, as~~ the Financial Services Manager considers to be reasonable, ~~is~~to be cost effective and ~~reflects~~to reflect prevailing market terms and conditions [NTD: cannot apply prevailing market terms and conditions to transfers].

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

[Note for reference: List of items for consideration in regulation: (a) anticipated IESO funding shortfalls and related transfer amounts; (b) the maturities of funding obligations; (c) the availability of refinancings, redemption opportunities and liquidity terms and conditions in order to achieve the objective contemplated in section X(1)(a); (d) the availability of currency and interest rate hedging facilities for the purpose of mitigating any differences between the expected finance amounts becoming due and payable during a reference period and the fair allocation amount for the reference period; (d) the amount and potential variability of interest rates and related financing costs; (e) available capital markets in which funding obligations may be incurred.]

Amendments to approved plan

(3) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time, without the approval of the Minister, subject to the requirements set out in this section.

Confidential Draft

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in a clean energy adjustment for the reference period unless,

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair allocation amount for the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment for the reference period].

Confidentiality of plan

(4) The Financing Plan is deemed to be a record subject to section 17 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

Implementation of Financing Plan

17xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall incur funding obligations ~~and make transfers~~ in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan [NTD: since transfers are not mandatory and are in any event subject to available financing, there is no need to generate uncertainty by making them expressly subject to the Financing Plan].

Same

(2) For greater certainty, section [paramountcy of funding obligations] applies despite the failure of the Financial Services Manager to comply with subsection (1).

Financing entities

(3) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations and accept and make transfers.

Prohibition

(3) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, the Board, the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation.

Subject: RE: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

Carolyn,

OPG, Torys, the Dealers, Oslers and Hunton & Williams had a call yesterday with a view to coming up with broader issues for discussion at this afternoon's meeting. Below is a list of what we believe are the broader issues. We expect that on the drafting issues you and Blakes continue to try to move legislative counsel closer to the last version of the Blakes memo that you circulated along with the draft Bill on Saturday night. We are inclined to leave you to pursue that process and will reserve any drafting comments until we see the next version of the Bill.

Our larger issues are:

1. It appears as though IESO will not be able to create a funding shortfall (regulatory asset) in a month when the Fair Adjustment would be less than "Past Over-Charges". How will Investors be able to get comfort that IESO is not selling an asset to a Financing Entity (FE) that might exceed "Past Over-Charges" ? Is there transparency around this calculation ? Is the information that would be required to due diligence this point publicly available ? Would it be reasonable to suggest that we could get a certification from MOE before each financing that the IESO shortfall together with all previous IESO shortfalls under this Act would not exceed Past Over-Charges ?

2. According to the note after s. 5 there will be a five year moratorium on clean energy adjustments (contrary to what we had been led to believe). This means that it will be necessary to capitalize all interest, financing charges and other expenses for five years. Hopefully this is just a case of the legislative drafting being behind the decision making. However, if this is the intention then it is a big problem. In additional to the financing challenges, we are advised that in order for the desired accounting treatment to be available it is necessary that there be sufficient cash flow to service the debt on a current basis. It will not be sufficient to purchase the regulatory asset at a deep discount or pay interest and expenses out of cash reserves.

3. In light of 2, the absence of a market disruption guarantee in s. 4 is most concerning. A market disruption guarantee could be contained in a contractual undertaking by the Crown, but since it is not included in s.4(3) lenders would have to be comfortable that the Province could do this outside of the provisions of the Act. We suggest that section 4(3) be revised to provide the Minister with the broadest possible authority to enter into agreements in support of the Fair Allocation Plan rather than the limited scope currently provided.

4. We need more specificity around the "funding obligation" definition. Permit this definition to refer to the Regs (ie, “payment obligations as may be prescribed”).

5. How will Investors get comfortable that particular funding obligations have been incurred in accordance with the Financing Plan. The proposal in s. 9x(2)(b) is one solution but there appears to be some reluctance in the note to draft. I am not sure there is anyone else other than the Province who is capable of covering the consequences if a funding obligation is declared invalid because it was not issued in accordance with the FP, but this does not appear to be covered by s. 4. Our understanding was that there should be no adverse consequences if funding obligations are issued in a way that does not fit the Financing Plan. This is far from clear in the draft Bill.

6. In s. 12x(3) IESO should not have a statutory duty to "make reasonably diligent efforts". The standard of care should be set out in the applicable agreements and we expect that it will be to use the same standard of care that IESO currently uses in its role of collecting the GA amounts for electricity generators. But the standard should not be hardwired into the statute. We are all in agreement that IESO is not guaranteeing collections.

7. Section 8.1, items 2 to 6 are far too vague to be able to verify compliance. In any event, Investors cannot be expected to take a risk that their debt is not incompliance with the FAP. There needs to be some way to get assurances from the Province that once the Financial Services Manager has authorized the issuance of funding obligations by a Financing Entity there is no risk of such debt being declared invalidly issued or being declared as unauthorized debt.

8. In section 8.0.1(a) we would like an explanation of what is intended to be included. It is not clear to our regulatory lawyers that this is all “green energy”.

9. Section 11(1) must not state that the Financing Plan is cost-effective. It will clearly not be as cost-effective as direct funding by the Province.

10. There is still no restriction on who can be an owner of an investment asset (although section 26(1) appears to be heading in that direction). Is it necessary to define Financing Entity and limit investment asset owners to FEs, or is it OK to have an operating enterprise as an investment asset owner so long as it is administered by OPG on behalf of Brookfield ? Dealers have a concern that perhaps the Province (through an agency or Crown corporation) could become an investment asset owner and through something like a “collective rights agreement” affect the rights of other investors.

11. Section 22(1) needs to define the IESO funding shortfall precisely and determinatively. It cannot be subject to 22(1.1)(1). It must be determined each month before it is sold. Also, the Act should provide the basis by which IESO (in the absence of a transfer) would be entitled to recover this shortfall. (We understand that is required in order for IESO to treat the shortfall as a regulatory asset.) Also, s. 22.1(1) is a problem because we cannot have the recorded amount subject to an approval order from OEB (otherwise, any financing would be conditional on getting that order and ensuring that any possible appeal process has expired). Section 22.1(3) seems to contradict 22.1(1). Section 22.2(2) can't be based on actual use; it can only be based on estimated use. In sum, this section needs lots of work and probably much of it can be moved to the Regs.

12. Sections 23(1) and 23(2). We can't have the transfer of a regulatory asset be subject to the Financing Plan. Also, can't impose restrictions on the price at which IESO sells the regulatory asset. Sales must be conclusive and not subject to post-closing analysis.

13. Section 23.1 is a key section and it currently does not work as it should (hopefully because legislative counsel were working of an old version of the Blakes memo). I would redraft that section to read as follows:

'Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion thereof to a transferee, the regulatory asset or portion thereof shall comprise a portion of the investment asset recoverable by the transferee in accordance with this Act and shall be immediately vested in such transferee."

I think it is also important to update the definition of "transfer" to catch the latest changes to the definition of "Disposition" in the Blakes memo (ie, that it includes a release by IESO of its right to recover its regulatory asset in order to enable the investment asset owner to recover such amount).

In a separate email we will also be sending to you and a smaller group than this some tax comments from OPG's perspective.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

IESO Issues

1. We have received advice from KPMG that it is critical to the ability of IESO to book a regulatory asset (which in turn is critical to the overall transaction) that the statutory language ensures that IESO has an effective right of recovery in respect of any IESO Funding Shortfall not transferred to the SPV. In our view, recovery by the IESO should be determined by OEB in accordance with the regulations and/or the Fair Allocation Plan. To this end, the IESO proposes that s 25.33 of the EA/O Reg 430/04 be amended, as necessary, to provide for the IESO to record the IESO Funding Shortfall amount in a variance account and to provide for the OEB to eliminate and dispose of the variance account balance as part of the RPP adjustment process under the OEB Act, with such necessary OEB accounting order.

22. (1) The IESO has property rights and interests, which together constitute a regulatory asset, in the recovery of the IESO funding shortfall. (1.1) The right to recover the IESO funding shortfall under subsection (1) is subject to the following limits: 1. The amount recovered in respect of a reference period may not exceed the amount by which the [fair allocation] in respect of a reference period exceeds the amount of the clean energy adjustment for the reference period. 2. No part of the funding shortfall shall be recovered before May 1, 2022. (2) The establishment of the regulatory asset is not affected by any failure to impose, attribute, invoice, accrue or collect the clean energy adjustment. 22.1 (1) Subject to the approval by order of the Ontario Energy Board, the IESO shall record the IESO funding shortfall from time to time in its books. (2) The Ontario Energy Board may, in accordance with the regulations, by	22. (1) The IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations to recover the IESO funding shortfall. [This right constitutes a regulatory asset and a property right.] NTD: to the extent qualification as a regulatory asset is an accounting judgment there may be little value in attempting to dictate that result by statute. However, the use of a defined term "regulatory asset" for other purposes is fine. Is the intent that Sections (1.1)(1) and (1.1)(2) would limit the recovery rights of the Investment Asset Owner or just the IESO in respect of the regulatory asset. Any material express limitation or condition attached to the IESO right of recovery based on the fair allocation plan is likely to be problematic as impairing the effective right of recovery. If this is the result then IESO may be treated as an equity holder and may not be able to recognize the regulatory asset. In addition, Section (1.1) 1 appears to reintroduce the concept that IESO's

order specify how the IESO funding shortfall must be recorded.	funding shortfall amount ranks subsequent to the clean energy adjustment amount such that the recovery of the IESO's funding shortfall in a reference period is limited to whatever space is left under the fair allocation curve. . If the right to record the shortfall is subject to an OEB order, that order may need to be obtained in advance This language and structure may not be definitive enough to provide for a real right of recovery of any regulatory asset amount held by the IESO. The statute should provide that the IESO be required to record the funding shortfall in a variance account (without having to obtain OEB approval) and that the OEB be required, as prescribed by regulation, to provide for recovery of the variance amounts recorded - presumably the regulation could provide when, after 2022, and in what manner (i.e., over what period of time) the IESO can recover any regulatory asset amount. OEB, by accounting order, would establish an IESO [fair hydro] variance account and indicate what IESO shortfalls may be included in it. The OEB is not approving each funding shortfall. The OEB's role in recovery would be to include the funding shortfall variance in future prices so IESO may recover it. In Section 6, OEB also needs to continue to determine what RPP price would have been payable but for the price set by Section 6. This is needed so LDCs know what amount would have been invoiced, so IESO in turn, based on information provided by LDCs, can determine the funding shortfall.

8.2 The IESO and the Financial Services Manager shall not, at any time, exceed the limits set out in the applicable Fair Allocation Plan.	Note that Section 7 restricts prices increases to inflation forever. We suggest redrafting this to delete "for inflation" in paragraph 2. Section 8.2 is unclear with respect to what limits cannot be exceeded. It introduces uncertainty with respect to the IESO right to record a shortfall and the IESO right of recovery. It may therefore prejudice the accounting treatment.

2. In our view, the IESO should become and remain the owner of a distinct asset, defined as the Regulatory Asset. Upon a "transfer" of all or a portion of this Regulatory Asset, the Investment Asset owner acquires an Investment Asset. On this construct the IESO is not a co-owner with the Investment Asset owner of an asset, the IESO's portion of which is the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Asset's owners potion of which is the Investment Asset. The IESO, based on conversations with KPMG, believes that it obtains a better result from an accounting perspective if it owns a distinct asset, as opposed to a co-ownership interest which is likely to be treated as a residual or subordinated interest.

23. (1) The IESO may transfer the regulatory asset in accordance with the Financing Plan. 23.1 Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of the regulatory asset, the regulatory asset or portion is deemed to be an investment asset and is vested in the investment asset owner.	NTD: The IESO right to transfer should not be subject to compliance with the Financing Plan. Consider corresponding amendment to Section 8.1 (1.1) so that the Fair Allocation Plan and the Financing Plan do not limit the ability of the IESO to transfer, or collect in respect of, a Regulatory Asset which has already arisen.

"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that is not deemed to be an investment asset; "investment asset" means all or part of the regulatory asset that is deemed to be an investment asset under section x;	23. The IESO may, from time to time, transfer all or any portion of the regulatory asset. Upon a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the investment asset owner acquires an investment asset to which this Act applies. Any such transfer shall be without recourse to the IESO and upon any such transfer the IESO (or any person claiming through the IESO) shall have no further right, title or interest in (except as express provided herein) or any obligations in respect of, the portion of the regulatory asset transferred, or the corresponding investment asset. "regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that has not been transferred; "investment asset" the investment asset established under section x;

3. We think that further particulars will be required in relation to the definition of the Funding Shortfall. Therefore we would add reference to "as prescribed by regulations" to address the need to provide for any variance/true up. We also need regulations to address recovery of IESO funding costs (which at moment legislation does not address).

22.2 (1) The IESO shall determine the IESO funding shortfall for each month in a reference period by calculating the difference between the following amounts: 1. The sum of all invoice amounts issued to specified consumers for the month. 2. The sum of all invoice amounts that would have been issued to	22.2 (1) The IESO shall determine the IESO funding shortfall for each month in a reference period in accordance with the regulations. NTD: We think that the reference to a "reference period "is unnecessary. Alternatively make provision for the addition or subtraction of additional amounts as further prescribed by specified consumers for the month if paragraphs 1 and 2 of section 7.2 did not apply. (2) The determination under subsection (1) shall be made based on the amount of electricity actually used by specified consumers during the reference period.	regulations.

4. For a number of reasons it is difficult to treat the transaction between the IESO and the Financing Trust as a transaction which is in law a transfer, sale or assignment. That terminology implies the transfer of property from one person to another. First, there remains uncertainty at law (even with the revised "fishing licence language") with respect to the whether the Investment Asset acquired by the Investment Asset Owner is property. Second, there is a higher level of uncertainty with respect to whether the Regulatory Asset is property, given that the Regulatory Asset does not have the same level of certainty of recovery as does the Investment Asset, and lacks some of the ancillary rights attached to the Investment Asset. Third, even if both the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Interest constitute property, there is a continuity gap between them since the rights acquired by the Investment Owner are different from the rights disposed of by the IESO.

We think that the best way of proceeding is for the Act to state specifically that upon any "transfer", the IESO has no further rights in the Regulatory Asset, or portion thereof transferred and the Investment Asset Owner acquires the corresponding Investment Interest free of any adverse claim. Since, in both cases, these rights are a creature of statute, it is hard to see how such a stipulation could realistically be challenged. However, in order to avoid circularity, the term "transfer" needs to be defined more broadly so that it is not dependent upon there being a transfer at common law.

"transfer" means an assignment, conveyance, disposition or sale.	"transfer" means (i) in relation to the regulatory asset, or any portion thereof, any act of IESO which states that is a "transfer" of all or any portion of the regulatory asset for purposes of this Act or any other act of the IESO by which the IESO purports to dispose of its interest in all or any portion of the regulatory asset and, as a result, constitute a named person the owner of an investment asset under this Act and (ii) in relation to an investment asset or any portion thereof …., and, in each case, transferred shall have a corresponding meaning.

25. (1) A transfer of a regulatory asset or an investment asset under this Act that is expressed to be a sale or an absolute assignment is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute assignment of the regulatory asset or investment asset, as the case may be, and confers upon the owner of the investment asset acquired a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment asset in accordance with the terms of the transfer.	Probably unnecessary, at least in relation to the Regulatory Asset, because of the effect given to a transfer of the Regulatory Asset in Section 23. In any event, because of the differences in the definition of "transfer" and because discontinuity is an issue for the Regulatory Asset but not for the Investment Interest, we would suggest that there be separate provisions dealing with the transfer of the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Interest.
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), any transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall or an investment asset owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment asset, as applicable (or relevant portion thereof), and not merely as a pledge thereof, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in regulatory asset or the investment asset (or relevant portion thereof) subject to the transfer, including all rights to recover the IESO funding shortfall or the investment asset arising after such transfer.	NTD: not sure that there is any value in deeming a transfer to be absolute.
(3) At the time a transfer of a regulatory asset or an investment asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the owner of the investment asset shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons.	NTD: Perfection not likely relevant. Transfer should be free of any adverse claim.

5. While the electricity distributors can be sub-servicers of IESO as servicer, IESO can assume no responsibility for their performance obligations. Again, we are advised that this is critical from an accounting perspective.

13x. (1) Each electricity vendor shall [in accordance with the regulations?] determine the proportionate share of clean energy adjustments payable on a monthly basis by each of its specified consumers. (2) The electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each specified consumer for the applicable amount of clean energy adjustments in accordance with the regulations. (3) Each electricity vendor shall, as an agent of the IESO, make reasonably diligent efforts to collect clean energy adjustments from specified consumers.	(4) The IESO shall not be liable to the Investment Asset Owner, any pledgee, or any person claiming through the Investment Asset Owner or any pledgee, for any failure to collect or remit, or any other breach or failure to perform, by any electricity vendor. Do we need to address the very limited circumstance of the IESO as an electricity vendor? Section 13x(1) does not appear to contemplate a volumetric rate, but rather the LDC determining a fixed amount payable by each of its consumers.

6. For constitutional reasons related to the federal bankruptcy power, limit the unnecessary use of "deeming provisions".

Section 15x (2) The amounts required to be deposited or received into the account are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	(2) The amounts deposited into the account, until paid in accordance with this Act and the regulations, shall be held in trust by the applicable electricity vendor for the investment asset owner.
Section 12 (2) The amounts collected are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	(2) The amounts received by the IESO from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x until paid in accordance with this Act and the regulations shall be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owner.
23.1 Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of the regulatory asset, the regulatory asset or portion is deemed to be an investment asset and is vested in the investment asset owner.	…Upon a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the investment asset owner acquires an investment asset to which this Act applies and the IESO (or any person claiming through the IESO) has no further right, title or interest in the portion of the regulatory asset transferred, or in the corresponding investment asset.

asset or an investment asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.
"investment asset" means all or part of the regulatory asset that is deemed to be an investment asset under section x; ("French")	"investment asset" the investment asset established under section x;
"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that is not deemed to be an investment asset;	"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that has not been transferred;

7. Does the clean energy adjustment determine the amount payable in respect of both the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Asset? If so, any subordination or other arrangement that results in the IESO receiving a residual interest may impact de-recognition. In our view, this calculation should exclude the IESO, and the IESO should have a separate right of recovery assessed by the OEB.

"clean energy adjustment" means…	Should specify that this is the amount required by the Investment Asset Owner and does not relate to IESO's right of recovery. Consistent with this, Schedule 1 is defined in relation to the funding and other costs of the owner of the investment asset.
11x. (1) The Ontario Energy Board shall apply the method set out in Schedule 1 to determine the amount of the clean energy adjustment payable on a monthly basis by each electricity vendor on behalf of the electricity vendor's specified	Regarding section 11x(2), IESO recommends adding variance tracking so that the financing entity can communicate any variance (positive or negative) to the OEB. This should also be included in Schedule 1 as an input to determining the amount of clean energy consumers. (2) The Ontario Energy Board may adjust the amount determined under Schedule 1 from time to time to address the any difference between the amount of the clean energy adjustment payable in respect of the reference period and the amount of the clean energy adjustment collected as of the date of the determination. (3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations governing the calculation under subsection (2) and how the amount is to be applied to the clean energy adjustment. (4) The Ontario Energy Board shall communicate to each electricity vendor information relating to the clean energy adjustment to be allocated by the electricity vendor to each specified consumer in respect of a reference period.	adjustment for a reference period.

8. In order to ensure that the Disposition results in the de-recognition of the "regulatory asset" on IESO's books (and that the Disposition not be treated as a financing transaction) it is important the Disposition) by IESO to the financing trust be without recourse to IESO and that all collection obligations on the part of IESO be on a reasonable efforts, or consistent efforts, basis only. Therefore, clarify that the IESO's trust and remittance obligations are limited to amounts actually received by it. IESO's obligation to segregate and remit should be conditional upon receipt of the corresponding amounts from the electricity vendors.

Section 12 (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments into the account established under subsection (3.1). (2) The amounts collected are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	Section 12 (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received by it from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x into the account established under subsection (3.1). (2) The amounts received by the IESO from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x until paid in accordance with

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments to or for the benefit of the regulatory asset owner in accordance with the regulations.	this Act and the regulations shall be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owner. (5) The IESO shall remit amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments to or for the benefit of the regulatory asset owner in accordance with the regulations. Regarding section 11x(2), IESO recommends adding variance tracking so that the financing entity can communicate any variance (positive or negative) to the OEB. This should also be included in Schedule 1 as an input to determining the amount of clean energy adjustment for a reference period.

9. Daily remittances are not consistent with the operation of the system and may not be practical. At the very least, this should be left open to be addressed in the commercial documents.

Section 12x (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments into the account established under subsection (3.1).	Define "promptly", or provide that it is to be specified in the Regulations. The invoicing contemplated by section 12(2) regulations should be done based on IESO's monthly settlement process. It would appear that this is the case; section 13(1) references LDCs determining clean energy adjustment on a monthly basis. (4) contains a Note about considering daily segregation or remittances. IESO does not believe daily remittances are necessary. Daily remittances would add additional complexity and cost to the settlement process. It is not clear that LDCs would be able to move to daily remittances without substantial cost and effort.

	The risk of a particular LDC going bankrupt is small. If an LDC does go bankrupt, daily remittances merely minimizes risk of a month of remittances for that one LDC, which the Financing Entity can recover in a future period in any event through the True Up.

10. Consider the extent to which deeming provision are required in connection n with the operation of the PPSA. The number of deeming provisions raises the issue of whether the security interest provided for is one provided for by statute or one provided for by the PPSA. For the most part, once the application of the PPSA is provided for, the perception, priority and proceeds rules in the PPSA ought to be allowed to operate (and should not prejudice the transaction).

27. (1) The owner of an investment asset may grant a pledge to or in favour of a person in, to and over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under the investment asset in connection with any funding obligation.	Use PPSA term "security interest"
(2) A pledge may be a lien, mortgage, charge, right of set-off or security interest.	Redundant. In any event, the reference to set-off is not relevant or appropriate. Why not use PPSA terminology.
(3) The pledge may be made to secure a funding obligation and when granted shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms and shall be effective to confer upon the person to whom the pledge is granted a valid security interest in, to and in respect of the investment asset in accordance with the terms of the pledge.	Redundant and may prejudice the conclusion that a conventional PPSA security interest is intended,
(x) All proceeds of a related [Investment Interest?] that are subject to the pledge that are received by the owner of the investment asset shall immediately be subject to the pledge, and the security interest in the proceeds shall be perfected pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act.	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider

(x) A pledge perfected under the Personal Property Security Act shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien or security interest, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may attach to the property rights and interests in the [Investment Interest?] subject to the pledge unless the pledgee has otherwise agreed in writing.	whether that can or should be done. Redundant, the priority rules in the PPSA should be sufficient,
(x) A pledgee shall have a perfected security interest in a related investment interest, including the owner of the investment asset's rights and interests in and to [the clean energy adjustment?] or other related proceeds in respect of the investment interest and that are deposited in any [which account?] or other account of any [Electricity Distributor, IESO, Alternative Servicer or other person who may have commingled such Transition Charge Collections or such other proceeds with other funds].	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider whether that can or should be done.
(8) All proceeds of the investment asset that are subject to the pledge and that are received by the investment asset owner shall immediately be subject to the pledge and shall be perfected without any physical delivery of the proceeds, registration of any financing statement or any further act. (9) The pledge shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may subsequently attach to the property rights and interests in the investment asset subject to the Pledge, subject to the written consent of the person to whom the pledge has been granted. (10) The person to whom the pledge has been granted shall have a perfected	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider whether that can or should be done.

security interest in revenues or other proceeds that are deposited in any [investment asset account] or other account of any electricity vendor, the IESO, an agent of an electricity vendor or the IESO or other person who may have commingled such revenues or other proceeds with other funds.

11. Partial payments by retail customers to electricity distributors should be allocated to Transition Charges on a ratable basis, and once allocated shall be segregated.

14x. (1) This section applies if, (a) an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices; and (b) the amount paid is less than the total amount payable. (2) The electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices. (3) The electricity vendor shall deposit the portion of the payment allocated to clean energy adjustments into the account established under X.	Correct.

12. In order not to impair the ability of the IESO to dispose of its interest in the Regulatory Asset and in order not to impair the financibility of the Investment Interest by the Trust, subsequent actions and compliance with allocation plan and the financing plan should not be a condition of the effectiveness of any aspects of the transaction.

(6) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect a funding obligation that was incurred under this Act before the day that the provision was held to be invalid or ceased to be in effect.	(6) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect a transfer, funding obligation or grant of a security interest that was effected or incurred under this Act before the day that the provision was held to be invalid or ceased to be in effect.

13. Provide legislative basis for provision of commercial undertakings of the sort which may be required for purposes of h financial close.

200x. (1) Subsection 6 (1) of the Electricity Act, 1998 would be amended by adding the following clauses: (q.1) to enter into agreements or arrangements with [any special purpose financing entities established under (name of new Fair Hydro Act?)]; (q.2) to engage in activities related to making payments to and receiving payments from [any special purpose financing entities established under (name of new Fair Hydro Act?)], as required under that Act, and to engage in related settlement activities; (q.3) to engage in activities related to the transfer of the regulatory asset created under [(name of new Fair Hydro Act?)], which activities may include, (i) incurring liabilities in relation to the regulatory asset (ii) transferring the regulatory asset to [any special purpose financing	Retain specific objects but add a general object "to engage in activities to facilitate the implementation of the Fair Hydro Act, including:…" NTD: incorporate the expanded

Carolyn,

OPG, Torys, the Dealers, Oslers and Hunton & Williams had a call yesterday with a view to coming up with broader issues for discussion at this afternoon's meeting. Below is a list of what we believe are the broader issues. We expect that on the drafting issues you and Blakes continue to try to move legislative counsel closer to the last version of the Blakes memo that you circulated along with the draft Bill on Saturday night. We are inclined to leave you to pursue that process and will reserve any drafting comments until we see the next version of the Bill.

Our larger issues are:

1. It appears as though IESO will not be able to create a funding shortfall (regulatory asset) in a month when the Fair Adjustment would be less than "Past Over-Charges". How will Investors be able to get comfort that IESO is not selling an asset to a Financing Entity (FE) that might exceed "Past Over-Charges" ? Is there transparency around this calculation ? Is the information that would be required to due diligence this point publicly available ? Would it be reasonable to suggest that we could get a certification from MOE before each financing that the IESO shortfall together with all previous IESO shortfalls under this Act would not exceed Past Over-Charges ?

2. According to the note after s. 5 there will be a five year moratorium on clean energy adjustments (contrary to what we had been led to believe). This means that it will be necessary to capitalize all interest, financing charges and other expenses for five years. Hopefully this is just a case of the legislative drafting being behind the decision making. However, if this is the intention then it is a big problem. In additional to the financing challenges, we are advised that in order for the desired accounting treatment to be available it is necessary that there be sufficient cash flow to service the debt on a current basis. It will not be sufficient to purchase the regulatory asset at a deep discount or pay interest and expenses out of cash reserves.

3. In light of 2, the absence of a market disruption guarantee in s. 4 is most concerning. A market disruption guarantee could be contained in a contractual undertaking by the Crown, but since it is not included in s.4(3) lenders would have to be comfortable that the Province could do this outside of the provisions of the Act. We suggest that section 4(3) be revised to provide the Minister with the broadest possible authority to enter into agreements in support of the Fair Allocation Plan rather than the limited scope currently provided.

4. We need more specificity around the "funding obligation" definition. Permit this definition to refer to the Regs (ie, “payment obligations as may be prescribed”).

5. How will Investors get comfortable that particular funding obligations have been incurred in accordance with the Financing Plan. The proposal in s. 9x(2)(b) is one solution but there appears to be some reluctance in the note to draft. I am not sure there is anyone else other than the Province who is capable of covering the consequences if a funding obligation is declared invalid because it was not issued in accordance with the FP, but this does not appear to be covered by s. 4. Our understanding was that there should be no adverse consequences if funding obligations are issued in a way that does not fit the Financing Plan. This is far from clear in the draft Bill.

6. In s. 12x(3) IESO should not have a statutory duty to "make reasonably diligent efforts". The standard of care should be set out in the applicable agreements and we expect that it will be to use the same standard of care that IESO currently uses in its role of collecting the GA amounts for electricity generators. But the standard should not be hardwired into the statute. We are all in agreement that IESO is not guaranteeing collections.

7. Section 8.1, items 2 to 6 are far too vague to be able to verify compliance. In any event, Investors cannot be expected to take a risk that their debt is not incompliance with the FAP. There needs to be some way to get assurances from the Province that once the Financial Services Manager has authorized the issuance of funding obligations by a Financing Entity there is no risk of such debt being declared invalidly issued or being declared as unauthorized debt.

8. In section 8.0.1(a) we would like an explanation of what is intended to be included. It is not clear to our regulatory lawyers that this is all “green energy”.

9. Section 11(1) must not state that the Financing Plan is cost-effective. It will clearly not be as cost-effective as direct funding by the Province.

10. There is still no restriction on who can be an owner of an investment asset (although section 26(1) appears to be heading in that direction). Is it necessary to define Financing Entity and limit investment asset owners to FEs, or is it OK to have an operating enterprise as an investment asset owner so long as it is administered by OPG on behalf of Brookfield ? Dealers have a concern that perhaps the Province (through an agency or Crown corporation) could become an investment asset owner and through something like a “collective rights agreement” affect the rights of other investors.

11. Section 22(1) needs to define the IESO funding shortfall precisely and determinatively. It cannot be subject to 22(1.1)(1). It must be determined each month before it is sold. Also, the Act should provide the basis by which IESO (in the absence of a transfer) would be entitled to recover this shortfall. (We understand that is required in order for IESO to treat the shortfall as a regulatory asset.) Also, s. 22.1(1) is a problem because we cannot have the recorded amount subject to an approval order from OEB (otherwise, any financing would be conditional on getting that order and ensuring that any possible appeal process has expired). Section 22.1(3) seems to contradict 22.1(1). Section 22.2(2) can't be based on actual use; it can only be based on estimated use. In sum, this section needs lots of work and probably much of it can be moved to the Regs.

12. Sections 23(1) and 23(2). We can't have the transfer of a regulatory asset be subject to the Financing Plan. Also, can't impose restrictions on the price at which IESO sells the regulatory asset. Sales must be conclusive and not subject to post-closing analysis.

13. Section 23.1 is a key section and it currently does not work as it should (hopefully because legislative counsel were working of an old version of the Blakes memo). I would redraft that section to read as follows:

'Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion thereof to a transferee, the regulatory asset or portion thereof shall comprise a portion of the investment asset recoverable by the transferee in accordance with this Act and shall be immediately vested in such transferee."

I think it is also important to update the definition of "transfer" to catch the latest changes to the definition of "Disposition" in the Blakes memo (ie, that it includes a release by IESO of its right to recover its regulatory asset in order to enable the investment asset owner to recover such amount).

In a separate email we will also be sending to you and a smaller group than this some tax comments from OPG's perspective.

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

IESO Issues

1. We have received advice from KPMG that it is critical to the ability of IESO to book a regulatory asset (which in turn is critical to the overall transaction) that the statutory language ensures that IESO has an effective right of recovery in respect of any IESO Funding Shortfall not transferred to the SPV. In our view, recovery by the IESO should be determined by OEB in accordance with the regulations and/or the Fair Allocation Plan. To this end, the IESO proposes that s 25.33 of the EA/O Reg 430/04 be amended, as necessary, to provide for the IESO to record the IESO Funding Shortfall amount in a variance account and to provide for the OEB to eliminate and dispose of the variance account balance as part of the RPP adjustment process under the OEB Act, with such necessary OEB accounting order.

22. (1) The IESO has property rights and interests, which together constitute a regulatory asset, in the recovery of the IESO funding shortfall. (1.1) The right to recover the IESO funding shortfall under subsection (1) is subject to the following limits: 1. The amount recovered in respect of a reference period may not exceed the amount by which the [fair allocation] in respect of a reference period exceeds the amount of the clean energy adjustment for the reference period. 2. No part of the funding shortfall shall be recovered before May 1, 2022. (2) The establishment of the regulatory asset is not affected by any failure to impose, attribute, invoice, accrue or collect the clean energy adjustment. 22.1 (1) Subject to the approval by order of the Ontario Energy Board, the IESO shall record the IESO funding shortfall from time to time in its books. (2) The Ontario Energy Board may, in accordance with the regulations, by	22. (1) The IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations to recover the IESO funding shortfall. [This right constitutes a regulatory asset and a property right.] NTD: to the extent qualification as a regulatory asset is an accounting judgment there may be little value in attempting to dictate that result by statute. However, the use of a defined term "regulatory asset" for other purposes is fine. Is the intent that Sections (1.1)(1) and (1.1)(2) would limit the recovery rights of the Investment Asset Owner or just the IESO in respect of the regulatory asset. Any material express limitation or condition attached to the IESO right of recovery based on the fair allocation plan is likely to be problematic as impairing the effective right of recovery. If this is the result then IESO may be treated as an equity holder and may not be able to recognize the regulatory asset. In addition, Section (1.1) 1 appears to reintroduce the concept that IESO's

order specify how the IESO funding shortfall must be recorded.	funding shortfall amount ranks subsequent to the clean energy adjustment amount such that the recovery of the IESO's funding shortfall in a reference period is limited to whatever space is left under the fair allocation curve. . If the right to record the shortfall is subject to an OEB order, that order may need to be obtained in advance This language and structure may not be definitive enough to provide for a real right of recovery of any regulatory asset amount held by the IESO. The statute should provide that the IESO be required to record the funding shortfall in a variance account (without having to obtain OEB approval) and that the OEB be required, as prescribed by regulation, to provide for recovery of the variance amounts recorded - presumably the regulation could provide when, after 2022, and in what manner (i.e., over what period of time) the IESO can recover any regulatory asset amount. OEB, by accounting order, would establish an IESO [fair hydro] variance account and indicate what IESO shortfalls may be included in it. The OEB is not approving each funding shortfall. The OEB's role in recovery would be to include the funding shortfall variance in future prices so IESO may recover it. In Section 6, OEB also needs to continue to determine what RPP price would have been payable but for the price set by Section 6. This is needed so LDCs know what amount would have been invoiced, so IESO in turn, based on information provided by LDCs, can determine the funding shortfall.

8.2 The IESO and the Financial Services Manager shall not, at any time, exceed the limits set out in the applicable Fair Allocation Plan.	Note that Section 7 restricts prices increases to inflation forever. We suggest redrafting this to delete "for inflation" in paragraph 2. Section 8.2 is unclear with respect to what limits cannot be exceeded. It introduces uncertainty with respect to the IESO right to record a shortfall and the IESO right of recovery. It may therefore prejudice the accounting treatment.

2. In our view, the IESO should become and remain the owner of a distinct asset, defined as the Regulatory Asset. Upon a "transfer" of all or a portion of this Regulatory Asset, the Investment Asset owner acquires an Investment Asset. On this construct the IESO is not a co-owner with the Investment Asset owner of an asset, the IESO's portion of which is the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Asset's owners potion of which is the Investment Asset. The IESO, based on conversations with KPMG, believes that it obtains a better result from an accounting perspective if it owns a distinct asset, as opposed to a co-ownership interest which is likely to be treated as a residual or subordinated interest.

23. (1) The IESO may transfer the regulatory asset in accordance with the Financing Plan. 23.1 Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of the regulatory asset, the regulatory asset or portion is deemed to be an investment asset and is vested in the investment asset owner.	NTD: The IESO right to transfer should not be subject to compliance with the Financing Plan. Consider corresponding amendment to Section 8.1 (1.1) so that the Fair Allocation Plan and the Financing Plan do not limit the ability of the IESO to transfer, or collect in respect of, a Regulatory Asset which has already arisen.

"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that is not deemed to be an investment asset; "investment asset" means all or part of the regulatory asset that is deemed to be an investment asset under section x;	23. The IESO may, from time to time, transfer all or any portion of the regulatory asset. Upon a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the investment asset owner acquires an investment asset to which this Act applies. Any such transfer shall be without recourse to the IESO and upon any such transfer the IESO (or any person claiming through the IESO) shall have no further right, title or interest in (except as express provided herein) or any obligations in respect of, the portion of the regulatory asset transferred, or the corresponding investment asset. "regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that has not been transferred; "investment asset" the investment asset established under section x;

3. We think that further particulars will be required in relation to the definition of the Funding Shortfall. Therefore we would add reference to "as prescribed by regulations" to address the need to provide for any variance/true up. We also need regulations to address recovery of IESO funding costs (which at moment legislation does not address).

22.2 (1) The IESO shall determine the IESO funding shortfall for each month in a reference period by calculating the difference between the following amounts: 1. The sum of all invoice amounts issued to specified consumers for the month. 2. The sum of all invoice amounts that would have been issued to	22.2 (1) The IESO shall determine the IESO funding shortfall for each month in a reference period in accordance with the regulations. NTD: We think that the reference to a "reference period "is unnecessary. Alternatively make provision for the addition or subtraction of additional amounts as further prescribed by specified consumers for the month if paragraphs 1 and 2 of section 7.2 did not apply. (2) The determination under subsection (1) shall be made based on the amount of electricity actually used by specified consumers during the reference period.	regulations.

4. For a number of reasons it is difficult to treat the transaction between the IESO and the Financing Trust as a transaction which is in law a transfer, sale or assignment. That terminology implies the transfer of property from one person to another. First, there remains uncertainty at law (even with the revised "fishing licence language") with respect to the whether the Investment Asset acquired by the Investment Asset Owner is property. Second, there is a higher level of uncertainty with respect to whether the Regulatory Asset is property, given that the Regulatory Asset does not have the same level of certainty of recovery as does the Investment Asset, and lacks some of the ancillary rights attached to the Investment Asset. Third, even if both the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Interest constitute property, there is a continuity gap between them since the rights acquired by the Investment Owner are different from the rights disposed of by the IESO.

We think that the best way of proceeding is for the Act to state specifically that upon any "transfer", the IESO has no further rights in the Regulatory Asset, or portion thereof transferred and the Investment Asset Owner acquires the corresponding Investment Interest free of any adverse claim. Since, in both cases, these rights are a creature of statute, it is hard to see how such a stipulation could realistically be challenged. However, in order to avoid circularity, the term "transfer" needs to be defined more broadly so that it is not dependent upon there being a transfer at common law.

"transfer" means an assignment, conveyance, disposition or sale.	"transfer" means (i) in relation to the regulatory asset, or any portion thereof, any act of IESO which states that is a "transfer" of all or any portion of the regulatory asset for purposes of this Act or any other act of the IESO by which the IESO purports to dispose of its interest in all or any portion of the regulatory asset and, as a result, constitute a named person the owner of an investment asset under this Act and (ii) in relation to an investment asset or any portion thereof …., and, in each case, transferred shall have a corresponding meaning.

25. (1) A transfer of a regulatory asset or an investment asset under this Act that is expressed to be a sale or an absolute assignment is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute assignment of the regulatory asset or investment asset, as the case may be, and confers upon the owner of the investment asset acquired a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment asset in accordance with the terms of the transfer.	Probably unnecessary, at least in relation to the Regulatory Asset, because of the effect given to a transfer of the Regulatory Asset in Section 23. In any event, because of the differences in the definition of "transfer" and because discontinuity is an issue for the Regulatory Asset but not for the Investment Interest, we would suggest that there be separate provisions dealing with the transfer of the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Interest.
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), any transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall or an investment asset owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment asset, as applicable (or relevant portion thereof), and not merely as a pledge thereof, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in regulatory asset or the investment asset (or relevant portion thereof) subject to the transfer, including all rights to recover the IESO funding shortfall or the investment asset arising after such transfer.	NTD: not sure that there is any value in deeming a transfer to be absolute.
(3) At the time a transfer of a regulatory asset or an investment asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the owner of the investment asset shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons.	NTD: Perfection not likely relevant. Transfer should be free of any adverse claim.

5. While the electricity distributors can be sub-servicers of IESO as servicer, IESO can assume no responsibility for their performance obligations. Again, we are advised that this is critical from an accounting perspective.

13x. (1) Each electricity vendor shall [in accordance with the regulations?] determine the proportionate share of clean energy adjustments payable on a monthly basis by each of its specified consumers. (2) The electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each specified consumer for the applicable amount of clean energy adjustments in accordance with the regulations. (3) Each electricity vendor shall, as an agent of the IESO, make reasonably diligent efforts to collect clean energy adjustments from specified consumers.	(4) The IESO shall not be liable to the Investment Asset Owner, any pledgee, or any person claiming through the Investment Asset Owner or any pledgee, for any failure to collect or remit, or any other breach or failure to perform, by any electricity vendor. Do we need to address the very limited circumstance of the IESO as an electricity vendor? Section 13x(1) does not appear to contemplate a volumetric rate, but rather the LDC determining a fixed amount payable by each of its consumers.

6. For constitutional reasons related to the federal bankruptcy power, limit the unnecessary use of "deeming provisions".

Section 15x (2) The amounts required to be deposited or received into the account are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	(2) The amounts deposited into the account, until paid in accordance with this Act and the regulations, shall be held in trust by the applicable electricity vendor for the investment asset owner.
Section 12 (2) The amounts collected are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	(2) The amounts received by the IESO from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x until paid in accordance with this Act and the regulations shall be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owner.
23.1 Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of the regulatory asset, the regulatory asset or portion is deemed to be an investment asset and is vested in the investment asset owner.	…Upon a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the investment asset owner acquires an investment asset to which this Act applies and the IESO (or any person claiming through the IESO) has no further right, title or interest in the portion of the regulatory asset transferred, or in the corresponding investment asset.

asset or an investment asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.
"investment asset" means all or part of the regulatory asset that is deemed to be an investment asset under section x; ("French")	"investment asset" the investment asset established under section x;
"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that is not deemed to be an investment asset;	"regulatory asset" means the regulatory asset established under section X or, if any part of that regulatory asset has been transferred under this Act, the portion of the regulatory asset that has not been transferred;

7. Does the clean energy adjustment determine the amount payable in respect of both the Regulatory Asset and the Investment Asset? If so, any subordination or other arrangement that results in the IESO receiving a residual interest may impact de-recognition. In our view, this calculation should exclude the IESO, and the IESO should have a separate right of recovery assessed by the OEB.

"clean energy adjustment" means…	Should specify that this is the amount required by the Investment Asset Owner and does not relate to IESO's right of recovery. Consistent with this, Schedule 1 is defined in relation to the funding and other costs of the owner of the investment asset.
11x. (1) The Ontario Energy Board shall apply the method set out in Schedule 1 to determine the amount of the clean energy adjustment payable on a monthly basis by each electricity vendor on behalf of the electricity vendor's specified	Regarding section 11x(2), IESO recommends adding variance tracking so that the financing entity can communicate any variance (positive or negative) to the OEB. This should also be included in Schedule 1 as an input to determining the amount of clean energy consumers. (2) The Ontario Energy Board may adjust the amount determined under Schedule 1 from time to time to address the any difference between the amount of the clean energy adjustment payable in respect of the reference period and the amount of the clean energy adjustment collected as of the date of the determination. (3) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations governing the calculation under subsection (2) and how the amount is to be applied to the clean energy adjustment. (4) The Ontario Energy Board shall communicate to each electricity vendor information relating to the clean energy adjustment to be allocated by the electricity vendor to each specified consumer in respect of a reference period.	adjustment for a reference period.

8. In order to ensure that the Disposition results in the de-recognition of the "regulatory asset" on IESO's books (and that the Disposition not be treated as a financing transaction) it is important the Disposition) by IESO to the financing trust be without recourse to IESO and that all collection obligations on the part of IESO be on a reasonable efforts, or consistent efforts, basis only. Therefore, clarify that the IESO's trust and remittance obligations are limited to amounts actually received by it. IESO's obligation to segregate and remit should be conditional upon receipt of the corresponding amounts from the electricity vendors.

Section 12 (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments into the account established under subsection (3.1). (2) The amounts collected are deemed to be held in trust for the investment asset owner.	Section 12 (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received by it from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x into the account established under subsection (3.1). (2) The amounts received by the IESO from electricity vendors pursuant to Section x until paid in accordance with

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments to or for the benefit of the regulatory asset owner in accordance with the regulations.	this Act and the regulations shall be held in trust by the IESO for the investment asset owner. (5) The IESO shall remit amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments to or for the benefit of the regulatory asset owner in accordance with the regulations. Regarding section 11x(2), IESO recommends adding variance tracking so that the financing entity can communicate any variance (positive or negative) to the OEB. This should also be included in Schedule 1 as an input to determining the amount of clean energy adjustment for a reference period.

9. Daily remittances are not consistent with the operation of the system and may not be practical. At the very least, this should be left open to be addressed in the commercial documents.

Section 12x (4) The IESO shall promptly deposit all amounts received in respect of clean energy adjustments into the account established under subsection (3.1).	Define "promptly", or provide that it is to be specified in the Regulations. The invoicing contemplated by section 12(2) regulations should be done based on IESO's monthly settlement process. It would appear that this is the case; section 13(1) references LDCs determining clean energy adjustment on a monthly basis. (4) contains a Note about considering daily segregation or remittances. IESO does not believe daily remittances are necessary. Daily remittances would add additional complexity and cost to the settlement process. It is not clear that LDCs would be able to move to daily remittances without substantial cost and effort.

	The risk of a particular LDC going bankrupt is small. If an LDC does go bankrupt, daily remittances merely minimizes risk of a month of remittances for that one LDC, which the Financing Entity can recover in a future period in any event through the True Up.

10. Consider the extent to which deeming provision are required in connection n with the operation of the PPSA. The number of deeming provisions raises the issue of whether the security interest provided for is one provided for by statute or one provided for by the PPSA. For the most part, once the application of the PPSA is provided for, the perception, priority and proceeds rules in the PPSA ought to be allowed to operate (and should not prejudice the transaction).

27. (1) The owner of an investment asset may grant a pledge to or in favour of a person in, to and over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under the investment asset in connection with any funding obligation.	Use PPSA term "security interest"
(2) A pledge may be a lien, mortgage, charge, right of set-off or security interest.	Redundant. In any event, the reference to set-off is not relevant or appropriate. Why not use PPSA terminology.
(3) The pledge may be made to secure a funding obligation and when granted shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms and shall be effective to confer upon the person to whom the pledge is granted a valid security interest in, to and in respect of the investment asset in accordance with the terms of the pledge.	Redundant and may prejudice the conclusion that a conventional PPSA security interest is intended,
(x) All proceeds of a related [Investment Interest?] that are subject to the pledge that are received by the owner of the investment asset shall immediately be subject to the pledge, and the security interest in the proceeds shall be perfected pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act.	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider

(x) A pledge perfected under the Personal Property Security Act shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien or security interest, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may attach to the property rights and interests in the [Investment Interest?] subject to the pledge unless the pledgee has otherwise agreed in writing.	whether that can or should be done. Redundant, the priority rules in the PPSA should be sufficient,
(x) A pledgee shall have a perfected security interest in a related investment interest, including the owner of the investment asset's rights and interests in and to [the clean energy adjustment?] or other related proceeds in respect of the investment interest and that are deposited in any [which account?] or other account of any [Electricity Distributor, IESO, Alternative Servicer or other person who may have commingled such Transition Charge Collections or such other proceeds with other funds].	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider whether that can or should be done.
(8) All proceeds of the investment asset that are subject to the pledge and that are received by the investment asset owner shall immediately be subject to the pledge and shall be perfected without any physical delivery of the proceeds, registration of any financing statement or any further act. (9) The pledge shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may subsequently attach to the property rights and interests in the investment asset subject to the Pledge, subject to the written consent of the person to whom the pledge has been granted. (10) The person to whom the pledge has been granted shall have a perfected	Redundant, except to the extent it is contemplated to expand the PPSA concept of "proceeds". Consider whether that can or should be done.

security interest in revenues or other proceeds that are deposited in any [investment asset account] or other account of any electricity vendor, the IESO, an agent of an electricity vendor or the IESO or other person who may have commingled such revenues or other proceeds with other funds.

11. Partial payments by retail customers to electricity distributors should be allocated to Transition Charges on a ratable basis, and once allocated shall be segregated.

14x. (1) This section applies if, (a) an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices; and (b) the amount paid is less than the total amount payable. (2) The electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices. (3) The electricity vendor shall deposit the portion of the payment allocated to clean energy adjustments into the account established under X.	Correct.

12. In order not to impair the ability of the IESO to dispose of its interest in the Regulatory Asset and in order not to impair the financibility of the Investment Interest by the Trust, subsequent actions and compliance with allocation plan and the financing plan should not be a condition of the effectiveness of any aspects of the transaction.

(6) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect a funding obligation that was incurred under this Act before the day that the provision was held to be invalid or ceased to be in effect.	(6) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect a transfer, funding obligation or grant of a security interest that was effected or incurred under this Act before the day that the provision was held to be invalid or ceased to be in effect.

13. Provide legislative basis for provision of commercial undertakings of the sort which may be required for purposes of h financial close.

All,

In case it is helpful for this afternoon's meeting I have put the points from my last email into a Word document (attached) that might be easier to work with. I will bring extra copies to the meeting.

Subject: RE: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

Carolyn,

OPG, Torys, the Dealers, Oslers and Hunton & Williams had a call yesterday with a view to coming up with broader issues for discussion at this afternoon's meeting. Below is a list of what we believe are the broader issues. We expect that on the drafting issues you and Blakes continue to try to move legislative counsel closer to the last version of the Blakes memo that you circulated along with the draft Bill on Saturday night. We are inclined to leave you to pursue that process and will reserve any drafting comments until we see the next version of the Bill.

Our larger issues are:

1. It appears as though IESO will not be able to create a funding shortfall (regulatory asset) in a month when the Fair Adjustment would be less than "Past Over-Charges". How will Investors be able to get comfort that IESO is not selling an asset to a Financing Entity (FE) that might exceed "Past Over-Charges" ? Is there transparency around this calculation ? Is the information that would be required to due diligence this point publicly available ? Would it be reasonable to suggest that we could get a certification from MOE before each financing that the IESO shortfall together with all previous IESO shortfalls under this Act would not exceed Past Over-Charges ?

2. According to the note after s. 5 there will be a five year moratorium on clean energy adjustments (contrary to what we had been led to believe). This means that it will be necessary to capitalize all interest, financing charges and other expenses for five years. Hopefully this is just a case of the legislative drafting being behind the decision making. However, if this is the intention then it is a big problem. In additional to the financing challenges, we are advised that in order for the desired accounting treatment to be available it is necessary that there be sufficient cash flow to service the debt on a current basis. It will not be sufficient to purchase the regulatory asset at a deep discount or pay interest and expenses out of cash reserves.

3. In light of 2, the absence of a market disruption guarantee in s. 4 is most concerning. A market disruption guarantee could be contained in a contractual undertaking by the Crown, but since it is not included in s.4(3) lenders would have to be comfortable that the Province could do this outside of the provisions of the Act. We suggest that section 4(3) be revised to provide the Minister with the broadest possible authority to enter into agreements in support of the Fair Allocation Plan rather than the limited scope currently provided.

4. We need more specificity around the "funding obligation" definition. Permit this definition to refer to the Regs (ie, “payment obligations as may be prescribed”).

5. How will Investors get comfortable that particular funding obligations have been incurred in accordance with the Financing Plan. The proposal in s. 9x(2)(b) is one solution but there appears to be some reluctance in the note to draft. I am not sure there is anyone else other than the Province who is capable of covering the consequences if a funding obligation is declared invalid because it was not issued in accordance with the FP, but this does not appear to be covered by s. 4. Our understanding was that there should be no adverse consequences if funding obligations are issued in a way that does not fit the Financing Plan. This is far from clear in the draft Bill.

6. In s. 12x(3) IESO should not have a statutory duty to "make reasonably diligent efforts". The standard of care should be set out in the applicable agreements and we expect that it will be to use the same standard of care that IESO currently uses in its role of collecting the GA amounts for electricity generators. But the standard should not be hardwired into the statute. We are all in agreement that IESO is not guaranteeing collections.

7. Section 8.1, items 2 to 6 are far too vague to be able to verify compliance. In any event, Investors cannot be expected to take a risk that their debt is not incompliance with the FAP. There needs to be some way to get assurances from the Province that once the Financial Services Manager has authorized the issuance of funding obligations by a Financing Entity there is no risk of such debt being declared invalidly issued or being declared as unauthorized debt.

8. In section 8.0.1(a) we would like an explanation of what is intended to be included. It is not clear to our regulatory lawyers that this is all “green energy”.

9. Section 11(1) must not state that the Financing Plan is cost-effective. It will clearly not be as cost-effective as direct funding by the Province.

10. There is still no restriction on who can be an owner of an investment asset

(although section 26(1) appears to be heading in that direction). Is it necessary to define Financing Entity and limit investment asset owners to FEs, or is it OK to have an operating enterprise as an investment asset owner so long as it is administered by OPG on behalf of Brookfield ? Dealers have a concern that perhaps the Province (through an agency or Crown corporation) could become an investment asset owner and through something like a “collective rights agreement” affect the rights of other investors.

11. Section 22(1) needs to define the IESO funding shortfall precisely and determinatively. It cannot be subject to 22(1.1)(1). It must be determined each month before it is sold. Also, the Act should provide the basis by which IESO (in the absence of a transfer) would be entitled to recover this shortfall. (We understand that is required in order for IESO to treat the shortfall as a regulatory asset.) Also, s. 22.1(1) is a problem because we cannot have the recorded amount subject to an approval order from OEB (otherwise, any financing would be conditional on getting that order and ensuring that any possible appeal process has expired). Section 22.1(3) seems to contradict 22.1(1). Section 22.2(2) can't be based on actual use; it can only be based on estimated use. In sum, this section needs lots of work and probably much of it can be moved to the Regs.

12. Sections 23(1) and 23(2). We can't have the transfer of a regulatory asset be subject to the Financing Plan. Also, can't impose restrictions on the price at which IESO sells the regulatory asset. Sales must be conclusive and not subject to post-closing analysis.

13. Section 23.1 is a key section and it currently does not work as it should (hopefully because legislative counsel were working of an old version of the Blakes memo). I would redraft that section to read as follows:

'Upon transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion thereof to a transferee, the regulatory asset or portion thereof shall comprise a portion of the investment asset recoverable by the transferee in accordance with this Act and shall be immediately vested in such transferee."

I think it is also important to update the definition of "transfer" to catch the latest changes to the definition of "Disposition" in the Blakes memo (ie, that it includes a release by IESO of its right to recover its regulatory asset in order to enable the investment asset owner to recover such amount).

In a separate email we will also be sending to you and a smaller group than this some tax comments from OPG's perspective.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft "Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017". A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes' summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

Attached are the OEB's comments on, and proposed changes to, the draft legislation.

Our principal area of concern is Part II, and in the interests of time in addition to commenting on areas of concern we have also provided suggested revised drafting on the attached. Briefly, the pricing for RPP consumers for 2017/2018 as written appears to us to "over-smooth", and the pricing for non-RPP consumers - which by its terms appeared to us to be having the OEB set commodity prices for these consumers - is not what we understand the policy intention to be.

We have also proposed two new sections that we believe are necessary in order for the OEB to appropriately carry out its responsibilities under this legislation, as well as two new consequential amendments to the OEB Act. These are towards the back end of the document.

All - Thank you for the detailed comments that you provided on Saturday and Sunday. Please find attached the next turn of the legislation. We have tried to balance the comments that we received to address the points that you have raised. This draft does not reflect the drafting points that were raised over Monday and Tuesday and we will reflect those points in our next instructions to legislative counsel. Please review and identify any significant substantive issues by 6 p.m. today. We continue to work toward pens down on Friday, meaning the draft that we have at that point in time will be proposed for introduction in the House. Thank you again for your contributions to this process.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

OEB Comments_April 26_Fair Hydro Plan Act (April 26 2017) Consultation v4.pdf

Version 4: OEB COMMENTS

This confidential draft document is provided for discussion purposes only. It should not be construed as representing the position adopted by the Government of Ontario on any of the topics included or not included in this document. The notes included in this document are intended only to help facilitate a discussion of the topics to which they relate. Any potential legislation is subject to the approval of the Ontario Legislature.

A proposal to create Legislation.

An Act to provide for the fair allocation of costs of electricity over time, if enacted

[OEB Note to Draft:

(1) We offered a number of comments on the earlier draft regarding the ability of distributors to implement certain parts of this legislation given their billing systems, accounting practices etc. Those remain open questions.

(2) We note that certain elements are now proposed to be moved to the regulations. We understand the rationale for that, but in respect of setting new RPP prices and the GA modifier under Part II in particular it is critical that the regulations reflect our current understanding of the approach to be used by the OEB in performing those tasks.

(3) We understand that RPP prices and the GA modifier will only apply as of the effective date going forward, but as raised the other day does this require a change to ensure that the shortfall from May 1 to the effective date resulting from our May 1 price change (the forecast $1B GA reduction) will be captured as part of the funding shortfall/reg asset?

(4) The OEB will not be able to perform all of its responsibilities under this Act without information from others (for example, the IESO) and without proper third party accounts. We have included a proposed new provision at the end for this purpose.

Confidential Draft

(5) Absent anything else, the OEB's responsibilities would need to be done through a hearing. We propose a new provision at the end that would enable the OEB to perform these responsibilities with or without a hearing.]

A proposal to create Legislation.

An Act to provide for the fair allocation of costs of electricity over time, if enacted

EXPLANATORY NOTE TO BE ADDED BY LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL TO ANY FINAL BILL PRIOR TO INTRODUCTION.

Confidential Draft

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1] These commitments can only be achieved if costs are shared fairly among consumers, today and in the future.

Electricity rates have risen for two key reasons. First, decades of under-investment in the electricity system resulted in the need to invest more than $50 billion in generation, transmission and distribution assets to ensure the system is clean and reliable. Second, the decision to eliminate Ontario's use of coal and produce clean, renewable power has created additional costs.

The actions taken to achieve a clean, modern and reliable electricity system have resulted in significant costs to consumers today. The burden of financing these system improvements and funding key programs has unfairly fallen almost entirely on the shoulders of today's consumers.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of financing these investments and the associated charges to consumers are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Recognizing that the electricity infrastructure that has been built and the policy decisions that have been made will create benefits for years to come, costs should be allocated fairly over time, so that consumers in the future pay their fair share for the benefits that they receive from the investments already made.

(a) hinder, delay, impair or prejudice the charging, collection or remittance of amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment;

(b) except as expressly permitted by this Act, reduce the clean energy adjustment determined under this Act or lower the priority of the clean energy adjustment over other debts; or

(c) adversely affect an investment asset or a funding obligation.

Clarification with respect to regulations

(2) For greater certainty, the things prohibited under subsection (1) include the making or approving of a regulation under this Act.

Agreements for compensation

(3) The Minister may, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, enter into agreements on behalf of the Province of Ontario with any person in respect of this Act, including agreements regarding the performance of IESO or electricity vendors under this Act or similar transactions.

Guarantee, indemnification

(4) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order,

(a) authorize the Minister of Finance, on behalf of the Province,

(i) to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest, and

(ii) to determine terms and conditions and the amount on which the guarantee or indemnity will be given;

(b) impose terms and conditions, as it considers advisable, on which the Minister of Finance may, on behalf of the Province, agree to guarantee or indemnify as described in subclause (a) (ii); and

(c) specify a maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT OF ELECTRICITY RATES

Definitions

6xx. In this Part,

"effective date" means the date determined under section 6.5xx; ("French")

"RPP rate" means the rates determined by the Board under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, which rates are ~~is~~ commonly referred to as the Regulated Price Plan"; ("French")

"specified RPP consumer" means a specified consumer who meets the following criteria:

Confidential Draft

1. The consumer is a member of the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations made under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act.

2. The consumer is invoiced ~~subject to~~ the RPP rate. ("French")

Specified RPP consumer, first fair adjustment

6.1xx (1) Despite any order under section 78(3.1) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 and despite section 79.16 of that Act, ~~T~~the rates for electricity payable by a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate required for a specified RPP consumer who meets the prescribed criteria to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent lower than the monthly invoice amount for that consumer under the comparison rate described in subsection (2). [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We assume that the criteria will prescribe the THESL proxy consumer criteria, and will do so in the manner we expect based on our last comments on the draft legislation. (2) We remain concerned that the 25% will "oversmooth", potentially by the amount of the RRRP charge and by the amount of the 8% rebate. Oversmoothing by the amount of the OESP charge may potentially have been addressed by the reference to April 30th in the definition of "invoice amount", but not sure.]

Comparison rate

(2) The comparison rate is the rate that would be effective May 1, 2017, determined by the Board solely using the method prescribed by the regulations made under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, without regard to this Act. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) This concept has to be a pre-fair adjustment concept. The OEB has already included a portion of the fair adjustment in May prices. And it did so "solely using the method prescribed" in the reg. under 79.16. Unless you somehow recognize that expressly here, we believe you will be oversmoothing. "Without regard to this Act" may not be the right words, but we believe the concept needs to be reflected here. (2) "Without regard to this Act" may also avoid the application of the changes to 25.33 set out later – it isn't clear that they would be applicable at this time, but if there is a chance that they might then it should be clear that they don't apply.]

Same

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the applicable method is the method on the day this section comes into force. [OEB Note to Draft: We don't understand the purpose of this section. The method under 79.16 hasn't changed, and it seems to us that this has the potential to exacerbate the problem noted in relation to the above section]

Specified consumers (non-RPP), first fair adjustment

6.2xx The monthly global adjustment rate ~~rate for electricity~~ payable in accordance with regulations made pursuant to section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is adjusted by an adjustment factor set by the Board to reduce the monthly global adjustment rate ~~the rate that would be necessary in order for [the monthly global adjustment rate] in respect of a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer (RPP) and who meets the prescribed criteria to be reduced~~ by the same amount as the difference between the comparison rate referred to in subsection 6.1xx (2) and the rate determined under subsection 6.1xx (1). [OEB Note to Draft: (1) As worded, this section would have the OEB setting electricity prices for these consumers. We understood that this was not the intention. If that is now the intention, please advise – note that other issues will then have to be addressed. Assuming that you are staying with the "GA modifier" approach as we understand it, we have revised along those lines. Note that the IESO is going to have to calculate the fair adjustment-adjusted GA for these consumers based on the OEB's modifier – are you going to amend 429/04 accordingly? And will the IESO have the systems in place to settle with LDCs on that basis? (2) The reference to the GA reg has been added because some customers pay GA on the basis of an estimated rate and others on the basis of actuals. That may or may not completely address the issue, but we believe it helps.]

Determination by Board

6.3xx The Board shall determine the rates mentioned in section~~s~~ 6.1xx and the adjustment factor mentioned in section 6.2xx no later than seven business days after the day this section receives Royal Assent. [OEB Note to Draft: The OEB will not be able to meet this timeline unless the methodology to be used to set the prices and the GA modifier is what we understand them to be today.]

Implementation of rates

6.4xx Each electricity vendor, ~~[specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for a specified consumer]~~ shall, no later than seven business days after the day on which the Board determines the rates and adjustment factor under section 6.3xx, adapt ~~is billing practices and~~ its invoices to reflect the new rates and the application of the adjustment factor. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We suggest that this section should be deleted. First, it is not necessary – the responsibility of the LDC is to bill the rates then in effect, not to have its systems adapted by a given date. Second, what if the prices don't take effect on the 7th business day? Are LDCs going to be billing the new rates in advance of the date on which they take effect? (2) We do not know whether distributors will be able to do this – 7 business days is enough for a straight RPP price change, but unknown for the GA modifier. (3) We don't understand the purpose of referring to billing practices here – please advise as to what about their billing practices is going to change. (4) If you delete this section, other sections below will need to be modified accordingly.]

Effective date

[OEB Note to Draft: (1) This section doesn't work if Royal Assent happens on a date that is later than 7 business days before the end of June. If Royal Assent is later, there may be no new rates in place on July 1. We have therefore changed "earlier of" to "later of". (2) We assume that month means calendar month notwithstanding the deletion of the word "calendar" (but would appreciate confirmation) - RPP prices could come into effect on a day other than the first day of the month, but it is not clear whether the same can be said for the modified GA rates. This would need to be discussed with the IESO.]

6.5xx The rates and adjustment factor determined under section 6.3xx are effective on the later ~~earlier~~ of the following days:

1. The first day of the month immediately following the last day of the seven business- day period referred to in section 6.4xx.

2. July 1, 2017.

Transition

[OEB Note to Draft: Is item 1 circular? .Compliance with section 6.4 requires adapting bills within 7 BD of the date on which the Board sets the rate/adjustment factor. So why would there being less than 7 BD between that date and the effective date of the rates be relevant to compliance under 6.4?]

6.6xx (1) This section applies if an electricity vendor ~~, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider~~ is unable to comply with section 6.4xx for one of the following reasons:

1. There are fewer than seven business days between the day of the Board's determination of rates and the adjustment factor under section 6.3xx and the effective date.

2. Technical or operational reasons.

Same

(2) In the circumstances described in subsection (1), the electricity vendor ~~, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider~~ shall,

(a) adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than August 1, 2017; and [OEB Note to Draft: It is not known whether LDCs can implement this by August 1, particularly for the GA modifier. Note that you left 6 months for ORECA.]

(b) ensure that any specified consumer ~~or sub-meter customer~~ invoiced at ~~a~~ rate ~~rate~~ higher than the applicable rates determined by the Board under section 6.3 or invoiced a monthly global adjustment rate that does not reflect the application of the adjustment factor determined by the Board under section 6.3 receives the difference between the rates or global adjustment amount shown on their invoice for electricity consumed on and after the effective date ~~and the applicable rate~~ and the rates or monthly global adjustment as determined under section 6.3 as a lump sum credit on the first invoice received ~~issued~~ after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: LDCs may still struggle with this – worth verifying feasibility with the LDCs]

Subsequent fair adjustments

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the methodology to be applied by the Board to determine rates for electricity payable by specified RPP consumers under section 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 ~~specified consumers and sub-meter customers~~ during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [OEB Note to Draft: Either the OEB is setting RPP prices under this section, in which case it should be worded as such, or the OEB is setting RPP prices under section 79.16. This provision as drafted did not appear to us to achieve either purpose. We have proposed to clarify that the regulations affect the setting of prices under section 79.16 because the concept of a "specified RPP consumer" is defined by reference to section 79.16 and therefore seems to us to pre-suppose that we are setting RPP prices under 79.16 for this period.]

7.1xx The monthly global adjustment rate payable in accordance with regulations made pursuant to section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022 shall be adjusted by an adjustment factor determined by the Board in accordance with the regulations.

~~Sub-meter customers~~

~~7.1xx A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the applicable rate determined under this Part.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We do not understand why anyone other than a consumer that is sub-metered by a licensed USMP needs to be captured by this legislation. If a landlord/building owner passes through the cost of electricity to tenants in a building that is not sub-metered, it would be included in rent or billed on a basis like square footage or number of units. These kinds of consumers do not pay a regulated rate today, they pay the costs passed through by the landlord/building owner. (2) In terms of consumers served by a USMP, we believe that their obligation should be to pass through the fair adjustment. We propose something for that below.]

7.2xx (1) This section applies if,

(a) a specified consumer provides to a sub-metered consumer electricity in respect of which the specified consumer is entitled to a fair adjustment under this Part; and
(b) an invoice for the electricity is issued to the sub-metered consumer by a unit sub-meter provider providing sub-metering for specified consumer.

(2) Every unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall, in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed, ensure that each sub-metered consumer referred to in subsection (1)(a) receives its share of the benefit of any fair adjustment that is provided to the specified consumer under this Part.

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes an amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the amount to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment interest owners, in accordance with such terms of payment as may be specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment was determined in a manner that was inconsistent with this Act; and

(b) whether the amount payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was not in material conformity with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(4) An unpaid amount that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the specified consumer to each investment interest owner to the extent of each owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Confidential Draft

Same

(5) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer.

~~Recovery from sub-meter consumers~~

~~(6) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer may recover amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment payable under this section from each sub-meter customer on a pro rata basis.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: We do not understand the need for this section. If the overall framework needs for USMPs to recover these amounts, then that should presumably be included. Something that simply allows them to recover the CEA doesn't seem to us to work in the context of their acting as agent for the unlicensed distributor and where the total CEA payable for the building should presumably be on the bulk meter bill. If you are retaining some residual reference to consumers that are in buildings that are not sub-metered, then at a minimum we believe that USMPs should be backed out of this.]

Irrevocability of amount

9xx. (1) An amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness resulting from the clean energy adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a clerical, typographical or calculation-related error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment
Financial Services Manager to determine

10xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall determine the clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of each month in a reference period by adding the estimated finance amount in respect of the reference period to the true up amount in respect of the reference period.

Estimated finance amount, true up amount

(2) The estimated finance amount and the true up amount shall be determined in accordance with the regulations.

Regulations re true up amount

(3) The regulations under subsection (2) shall have regard to the following principles:

Confidential Draft

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

    i. differences between the estimated and actual finance amount for the immediately preceding reference period,

    ii. differences between amounts invoiced and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, and

    ii. variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption.

Financial Services Manager to notify Board

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall, in accordance with the regulations, notify the Board of the clean energy adjustment and such other information related to the determination of the clean energy adjustment as may be prescribed. [OEB Note to Draft: The regulations will need to provide a timeline within which this information has to be provided if there are timelines for the setting of rates applicable to the OEB under (5)]

Board to determine rates

(5) The Board shall, in accordance with the regulations, determine the rate at which specified consumers are invoiced to recover the clean energy adjustment as notified to it under subsection (4) in respect of the reference period. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) Do you need to contemplate the possibility that different CEA rates may be required for different specified consumers (i.e., consumers on RPP vs. others?) (2) The OEB will likely need consumption information from the IESO in order to do this. See our proposed new section at the end.]

IESO to receive amounts

11xx. (2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment interest owners, receive amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment paid to it from electricity vendors in accordance with the regulations and the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998.

Account

(3) All of the following amounts received by the IESO shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner in accordance with subsection (5), be deposited promptly into an account established for the purposes of receiving those amounts:

1. Amounts described in subsection 11xx (2).

Confidential Draft

2. Payments made by specified consumers directly to the IESO as electricity vendor under subsection 8xx (1).

Same, held in trust

(4) All amounts received by the IESO in respect of the clean energy adjustment shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner, be received and held in trust by the IESO for the investment interest owners or a secured party to whom a security interest in an investment interest is granted under this Act.

IESO to remit

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment to or for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendor to invoice specified consumers

12xx. (1) Each electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each of its specified consumers for the amount payable by the consumer in respect of the clean energy adjustment, as determined by applying the rate set by the Board under subsection 10xx (2) and in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: It remains unclear to us whether this is a separate invoice or the normal utility bill. Requiring LDCs to issue separate bills will increase their billing costs and create customer confusion.]

Electricity vendor to report

(1.1) Each electricity vendor shall, in accordance with the regulations, promptly report to the IESO the total amount invoiced to its specified consumers in respect of the clean energy adjustment, the amount collected and such further information as may be prescribed.

Electricity vendor to collect

(2) Each electricity vendor shall, as agent of the investment interest owners, collect amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: Having LDCs use a collection process for the CEA that is different from a collection process for the rest of the bill will be an issue for them (assuming that the CEA is invoiced on the normal utility bill). The OEB has requirements that LDCs have to follow in relation to invoicing and that apply to the rest of the bill. Depending on what collection means, there could be a conflict.]

Pro rating of payments

(3) If an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices and the amount paid is less than the total amount payable, the electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices in respect of electricity charges in respect of the same period. [OEB Note to Draft: See our concerns on our earlier draft about whether LDCs can track this way]

Held in trust

(4) Payments received by an electricity vendor from or on behalf of specified consumers shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner in accordance with subsection (5), be received by and held by each electricity vendor in trust for the benefit of the investment interest owners.

Remittance to IESO

(5) Each electricity vendor shall remit amounts described in subsection (5) to the IESO for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

PART IV
IMPLEMENTATION

FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER

Appointment

13xx. (1) Subject to subsection (2), Ontario Power Generation Inc. is appointed as the Financial Services Manager for the purposes of this Act.

Replacement

(2) The Minister may terminate an appointment of a Financial Services Manager and may, in accordance with the regulations, appoint a new person or entity as the Financial Services Manager.

Duties and powers

14xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall perform the duties assigned to it under this Act and may administer the investment asset on behalf of the investment interest owners.

Same

(2) The administration of the investment asset may include the following:

1. Providing information, in accordance with the regulations, to the Board in respect of ~~funding obligations and~~ the Board's determination of the clean energy adjustment rate under ~~in accordance with~~ subsection 10(5)~~xx~~. [OEB Note to Draft: Our proposed new provision at the end would eliminate the need for this item. In addition, why does the OEB need information regarding "funding obligations" and the determination of the CEA itself, which we understand to be a global dollar amount that we are expected to take from the FSM without question to derive the CEA rate?]

2. Providing information to the IESO in respect of obligations under Part III.

3. Such other matters as may be prescribed.

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: We still do not know what these costs are; what the purpose of the review is; what process we are expected to use for this review and whether an order of some kind will be required; and whether the review has any consequence for anything else that we need to think about in relation to this responsibility. We understand that some of this may be suitable for regulations, but we are not convinced that this can override the OEB Act provisions relating to hearings. This is addressed in our proposed new provision at the end]

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Financial Services Manager to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in respect of each reference period, having regard to the need to align that amount with the finance amount payable during the reference period, for the purpose of fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

Timing of calculation

(1.1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in respect of each reference period before any funding obligation is incurred [by a financing entity during the reference period].

Amount

(1.2) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which, if this Act had not been enacted, the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period would have exceeded the estimated amount of the adjustments provided for under section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 and the regulations made under that provision that would have been borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs for the reference period.

Confidential Draft

2. A portion of the value of any fair adjustment that has been made under Part II in respect of any previous reference period.

Principles

(2) In calculating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of a reference period, the Financial Services Manager shall [comply with the regulations and] have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined in accordance with the regulations.
3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The time value of money or the rate of inflation, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers in respect of each reference period.

    iii. The expected electricity consumption rates in respect of each reference period.

Method

(3) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in accordance with such methods as the Financial Services Manager considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Notification to Minister

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall notify the Minister of the methods used to calculate the fair allocation amount and any changes to those methods.

Effective date

(6) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Minister in writing.

Confidential Draft

Publication

(7) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred for the purposes of acquiring an investment interest in accordance with this Act.

Plan to be provided to Minister

(1.1) The Financial Services Manager shall provide the Financing Plan to the Minister.

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align with the estimated finance amount, as determined in accordance with the regulations, that would, subject to any refinancing, become due and payable during a reference period with the fair allocation amount determined in respect of the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment in respect of the reference period.

2. Incurrences should be implemented in a manner that, in the opinion of the Financial Services Manager, is reasonable, cost effective and that reflects prevailing market terms and conditions.

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in amounts payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period unless,

Confidential Draft

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair allocation amount in respect of the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment in respect of the reference period].

Other reports

(3.1) The Financial Services Manager shall submit to the Minister such reports and information as the Minister may require from time to time and shall, if required by the Minister to do so, examine, report and advise on any question relating to the Financing Plan.

Confidentiality

(5) The following are deemed to be records subject to clauses 18 (1) (c) and (d) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act:

1. The Financing Plan.

2. Reports referred to in subsection (3.1).

3. Any other document that would reveal information contained in the Financing Plan or the reports.

Amendments to plan

(6) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time.

Same

(7) In the event that the Financing Plan is amended, any reference in this section to the Financing Plan is deemed to be a reference to the plan as amended.

Implementation of Financing Plan

17xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall incur funding obligations in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection 17xx (5) applies despite the failure of the Financial Services Manager to comply with subsection (1). [OEB Note to Draft: There is no 17(5).]

Confidential Draft

Financing entities

(3) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations.

Prohibition

(3.1) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, the Board, Ontario Power Generation Inc., the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation or other agreement. [OEB Note to Draft: We remain of the view that the OEB's assets should be immune from recourse whether or not the OEB has responsibilities under this Act.]

Effect of amendment to fair allocation amount

(4) Each funding obligation incurred and each transfer made by a financing entity is deemed to be consistent with the Financing Plan and [the fair allocation amount].

PART V
THE REGULATORY ASSET

IESO funding shortfall

20xx. (1) The IESO funding shortfall for each month shall be determined in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendors to provide information

(2) Electricity vendors shall provide to IESO such information as IESO may reasonably request for the purposes of determining the IESO shortfall under subsection (1) and such further information as may be prescribed.

Same

(3) IESO may rely on information provided by electricity vendors for the purposes of the determination under subsection (1).

Variance account to be established, maintained

20.1xx (1) The IESO shall establish and maintain a variance account for the purposes of this section.

Recording in variance account

(2) The IESO shall record the following in the variance account:

1. The amount of the IESO funding shortfall for each month.

Confidential Draft

2. All payments received by the IESO resulting from the exercise of the right of recovery under section 21xx and any transfer under section 22xx.

3. Such other adjustments as may be prescribed.

Recording determinative

(3) Subject to any finding of [manifest error], a recording by the IESO in the variance account of the balance is, as of the time of the recording, determinative of the balance at the time.

Rights of investment interest owner

(4) No change made by IESO to the balance in the variance account shall, if the previous balance was relied upon by an investment interest owner in the context of a transfer under section 22x, affect the rights of the investment interest owner acquired under the transfer.

Regulatory asset established

21xx. (1) The IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations, to recover the balance recorded in the variance account from specified consumers.

Limitation

(2) Despite subsection (1), the IESO shall not be entitled to collect all or part of the balance recorded in the variance account from specified consumers before May 1, 2022.

Board to set rates

This is addressed in our proposed new provision at the end. If this is going to be implemented through RPP prices, O. Reg. 95/05 will presumably need to be amended accordingly at some point.]

Same, limitations

(4) The Board's powers under subsection (3) shall be exercised in accordance with the regulations.

Transfer of regulatory asset

22xx. (1) The IESO may from time to time transfer all or a portion of the regulatory asset to any financing entity.

Confidential Draft

Same

(2) Upon receipt by IESO of payment in consideration of a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the transfer shall be valid and enforceable against the IESO and the IESO shall retain no further right, title or interest in, or any obligations in respect of, the regulatory asset or in the investment asset created by the transfer.

Same

(3) Upon transfer, the financing entity acquires an investment interest and becomes an investment asset owner.

Validity of transfer

23xx. (1) A transfer of a regulatory asset under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer to the investment interest owner of the regulatory asset.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), any transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall, and not merely as a security interest, and upon the absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the regulatory asset, including all rights to recover the IESO funding shortfall.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of a regulatory asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the transferee shall have priority over any liens in favour of those persons.

PART VI

(b) in connection with any default of a person mentioned in clause (a); or

(c) by any affiliate or successor of a person mentioned in clause (a).

Exercise of rights

(3) The rights of the investment asset owner to collect and enforce its rights and interests in, to and in respect of the investment asset against a specified consumer shall be exercised in accordance with Part III of this Act. [OEB Note to Draft: Presumably, this means that the rights and interests will be through the electricity vendors acting as their agents? If so, what does that mean for LDCs?]

Collective action required

(4) If the investment interest owner owns a right or interest in the investment asset that comprises less than the entire property right and interest constituted by the investment asset, the right or interest shall only be enforced by the investment interest owner collectively and in coordination with all other investment interest owners, and any agreement among that collective in furtherance of the collective action shall be valid and binding on the investment interest owner as a collective in accordance with its terms.

Transfer of investment interest

26xx. An investment interest owner may transfer all or a portion of its rights and interests in an investment interest to any other investment interest owner, including by way of a transfer of a divided or an undivided interest, in accordance with the Financing Plan.

Validity of transfer

27xx. (1) A transfer of an investment interest under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer of the investment interest and confers upon the investment asset owner a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment interest in accordance with the terms of the transfer.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of an investment interest owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment interest, and not merely as a security interest, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the investment interest, subject to the transfer, including all rights to the investment interest arising after the transfer.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of an investment interest is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer, assignment, etc.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the investment interest owner shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons.

Investment interest owner may grant security interest

28xx. (1) An investment interest owner may grant a security interest over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under the investment interest to or in favour of any person to secure a funding obligation.

Validity

(2) A security interest granted under this Act shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Perfection and priority of security interests

(3) All provisions of the Personal Property Security Act shall apply to the investment asset and each investment interest on the basis that it is intangible personal property, except as otherwise provided for in this section, and any granting of a security interest by the investment interest owner to secure a funding obligation shall, subject to the terms of the funding obligation, give rise to a security interest in respect of which that Act applies and may be perfected by filing a financing statement under that Act on that basis.

Proceeds

(4) All proceeds of an investment interest that are subject to the security interest and that are received by the applicable investment interest owner shall immediately be subject to the security interest and shall be perfected without any physical delivery of the proceeds, registration of any financing statement or any further act.

Perfection

(5) The security interest shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may subsequently attach to the property rights and interests in the investment interest subject to the security interest, subject to the written consent of the person to whom the security interest has been granted.

Confidential Draft

Same

(6) The person to whom the security interest has been granted shall have a perfected security interest in revenues or other proceeds that are deposited in any account of any electricity vendor, an agent of an electricity vendor or other person who may have commingled such revenues or other proceeds with other funds.

Notice required

(7) The secured party shall be entitled to exercise the rights of an investment interest owner only after the secured party has given notice of the enforcement of its security interest to the IESO.

Definition

(8) For the purposes of this section, a security interest is perfected when it is perfected as described in the Personal Property Security Act.

PART VI
MISCELLANEOUS

No further approvals, etc.

34xx. Despite any requirement under any Act, no approvals, notices or authorizations other than those specified in this Act are required to be taken under the Financing Plan or in relation to the determination of the fair allocation amount.

Immunity

35xx. (1) No action or other proceeding for damages shall be instituted against any employee of the Province, IESO, OPG or the Board, or against a member of the Board, ~~OEB~~ for any act done in good faith in the execution or intended execution of any duty or authority under this Act or for any alleged neglect or default in the execution in good faith of any duty or authority under this Act. [OEB Draft Note: Under the OEB Act, Board members are specifically noted as not being employees of the OEB. It is imperative that they also be covered by this provision.]

Same

(2) Despite subsections 5 (2) and (4) of the Proceedings Against the Crown Act, subsection (1) does not relieve the Crown of liability in respect of a tort committed by a person mentioned in subsection (1) to which it would otherwise be subject.

References in marketing materials and offering documents

36xx. No person shall include, in marketing materials or offering documents relating to the financing of funding obligations, references to any rights, obligations, guarantees or undertakings arising under section 5xx unless the prescribed requirements, if any, are satisfied.

(vi) acting as a recovery agent under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017;

[OEB Note to Draft: In the interests of time, we have not reviewed the section below in detail. However, without a better understanding, it raises a question about the continued viability of section 79.16(3) of the OEB Act, which we address below.]

200.1xx (1) Subsection 25.33 (1) of the Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of clause (a) and by adding the following clauses:

[8] FLS: These amendments are drawn from previous drafting contained in gov2016.146.e05 (which was drafted as amendments to the EA, 1998).

(c) amounts paid to or received from a [prescribed] financial services entity or [a financing entity prescribed under] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and any related amounts; and

(d) amounts collected from consumers who are [specified consumers within the meaning of] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the clean energy adjustment and any related amounts.

(1.1) Subsection 25.33 (2) of the Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of clause (a) and by adding the following clauses:

(c) amounts paid to or received from a [prescribed] financial services entity or [a financing entity prescribed under] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and any related amounts; and

(d) amounts collected from consumers who are [specified consumers within the meaning of] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the clean energy adjustment and any related amounts.

(2) Subsection 25.33 (3) of the Act is amended by adding the following paragraph:

4. A consumer who is,

   i. a [specified consumer within the meaning of] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, or

(3) Clause 25.33 (4) (b) of the Act is amended by adding "or as may be required under a regulation made under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 or the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998" at the end.

201x. Section 53.1 of the Act is amended by adding the following subsections:

Same, Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017

53.1 (1.1) In addition to the objects mentioned in subsection (1), the objects of Ontario Power Generation Inc. include exercising the powers and rights and performing the duties and obligations assigned to it under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and engaging in activities to facilitate the implementation of that Act, including entering into contracts and undertakings on behalf of financing entities, subject to the right to be paid by the financing entities for those services.

Subsidiaries, etc.

(1.2) Ontario Power Generation Inc. may create or invest in one or more subsidiaries, trusts, partnerships or special purpose entities in order to more efficiently conduct its activities or achieve its objects.

Deemed assets, entity

(1.3) Despite any other provision of this Act, the Business Corporations Act or any other Act,

(a) the assets and liabilities of a special purpose financing entity shall not form part of the assets and liabilities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. or any of its subsidiaries; and

(b) the assets and liabilities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. or any of its subsidiaries shall not form part of the assets and liabilities of a financing entity.

Definition, financing entity

(1.4) For the purposes of this section, "financing entity" has the same meaning as in the Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

AMENDMENTS TO ONTARIO ENERGY BOARD ACT, 1998

204x. Subsection 1 (1) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by adding the following paragraph:

~~6. To facilitate the implementation of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: We remain of the view that this is ill-advised. On the earlier draft we noted that, among other things, this could affect the setting of payment amounts for OPG by requiring us to include the effect, if any, of the Fair Hydro Plan on OPG's financing costs in determining a reasonable cost of capital, which represents a major cost component of the price setting and could adversely affect all ratepayers. If this were to be an objective, it will by definition have to be considered whenever we exercise any part of our mandate, and we understand that this is not the intention. In the context of distribution and transmission rates, this could potentially affect utility financial viability or reliability of service if it comes into play in setting their rates.]

205x. Subsection 70 (2.1) of the Act is amended by adding the following paragraph:

4. The licensee is required to comply with the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

205.1x Section 70 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by adding the following subsection:

(2.3) Every licence issued to a unit sub-meter provider is deemed to contain the condition that the unit sub-meter provider is required to comply with the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and the regulations made under it.

206x. Section 78.1 of the Act is amended by adding the following subsection:

Same, limitation re Ontario Power Generation Inc.

(3) The determination of a payment to Ontario Power Generation Inc. under this section shall not include any consideration of amounts related to activities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. carried out in relation to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

Same

(3.1) The amounts referred to in subsection (3) include, without limitation, the following:

1. Amounts related to the appointment of Ontario Power Generation Inc. as the Financial Services Manager under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

2. Amounts related to the charging of fees for performing duties as the Financial Services Manager.

3. Amounts related to exercising the powers and performing the duties of the Financial Services Manager.

4. Amounts related to the consolidation of the assets and liabilities for accounting purposes of any special purpose financing entities established under and for the purposes of that Act.

207xx. Section 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by deleting subsection (3). [OEB Note to Draft: We are concerned that, with the different changes set out in this Act (including notably the changes to 25.33 above), the impact of which is not yet known, the obligation to clear variance accounts will not be feasible in the way that it is today, and could cause the OEB to act in violation of this subsection. If it is relevant in the future, it can be added to O. Reg. 95/05].

All - Thank you for the detailed comments that you provided on Saturday and Sunday. Please find attached the next turn of the legislation. We have tried to balance the comments that we received to address the points that you have raised. This draft does not reflect the drafting points that were raised over Monday and Tuesday and we will reflect those points in our next instructions to legislative counsel. Please review and identify any significant substantive issues by 6 p.m. today. We continue to work toward pens down on Friday, meaning the draft that we have at that point in time will be proposed for introduction in the House. Thank you again for your contributions to this process.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

Attachment 1: OEB Comments_April 26_Fair Hydro Plan Act (April 26 2017) Consultation v4.docx

Attached are the OEB's comments on, and proposed changes to, the draft legislation.

Our principal area of concern is Part II, and in the interests of time in addition to commenting on areas of concern we have also provided suggested revised drafting on the attached. Briefly, the pricing for RPP consumers for 2017/2018 as written appears to us to "over-smooth", and the pricing for non-RPP consumers - which by its terms appeared to us to be having the OEB set commodity prices for these consumers - is not what we understand the policy intention to be.

We have also proposed two new sections that we believe are necessary in order for the OEB to appropriately carry out its responsibilities under this legislation, as well as two new consequential amendments to the OEB Act. These are towards the back end of the document.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

Version 4: OEB COMMENTS

This confidential draft document is provided for discussion purposes only. It should not be construed as representing the position adopted by the Government of Ontario on any of the topics included or not included in this document. The notes included in this document are intended only to help facilitate a discussion of the topics to which they relate. Any potential legislation is subject to the approval of the Ontario Legislature.

A proposal to create Legislation.

An Act to provide for the fair allocation of costs of electricity over time, if enacted

[OEB Note to Draft:

(1) We offered a number of comments on the earlier draft regarding the ability of distributors to implement certain parts of this legislation given their billing systems, accounting practices etc. Those remain open questions.

(2) We note that certain elements are now proposed to be moved to the regulations. We understand the rationale for that, but in respect of setting new RPP prices and the GA modifier under Part II in particular it is critical that the regulations reflect our current understanding of the approach to be used by the OEB in performing those tasks.

(3) We understand that RPP prices and the GA modifier will only apply as of the effective date going forward, but as raised the other day does this require a change to ensure that the shortfall from May 1 to the effective date resulting from our May 1 price change (the forecast $1B GA reduction) will be captured as part of the funding shortfall/reg asset?

(4) The OEB will not be able to perform all of its responsibilities under this Act without information from others (for example, the IESO) and without proper third party accounts. We have included a proposed new provision at the end for this purpose.

Confidential Draft

(5) Absent anything else, the OEB's responsibilities would need to be done through a hearing. We propose a new provision at the end that would enable the OEB to perform these responsibilities with or without a hearing.]

A proposal to create Legislation.

An Act to provide for the fair allocation of costs of electricity over time, if enacted

EXPLANATORY NOTE TO BE ADDED BY LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL TO ANY FINAL BILL PRIOR TO INTRODUCTION.

Confidential Draft

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1] These commitments can only be achieved if costs are shared fairly among consumers, today and in the future.

Electricity rates have risen for two key reasons. First, decades of under-investment in the electricity system resulted in the need to invest more than $50 billion in generation, transmission and distribution assets to ensure the system is clean and reliable. Second, the decision to eliminate Ontario's use of coal and produce clean, renewable power has created additional costs.

The actions taken to achieve a clean, modern and reliable electricity system have resulted in significant costs to consumers today. The burden of financing these system improvements and funding key programs has unfairly fallen almost entirely on the shoulders of today's consumers.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of financing these investments and the associated charges to consumers are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Recognizing that the electricity infrastructure that has been built and the policy decisions that have been made will create benefits for years to come, costs should be allocated fairly over time, so that consumers in the future pay their fair share for the benefits that they receive from the investments already made.

that the OESP charge is coming off the bill on May 1. However, note also that (i) there will be another change to the THESL rates for the residential service class effective May 1 – a rate rider of 8 cents/month is coming off; and (ii) the April 30th bill will still have the full RRRP charge (as will the May 1st bill).]

iii. Any adjustment on the invoice required under section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998.

Effect of invalidity, etc.[3]

2xx. (1) For greater certainty, all of the provisions of this Act remain in full force and effect, even if one or more provisions are held to be invalid, the intention of the Legislature being to give separate and independent effect to the extent of its powers to every provision contained in this Act.

Same, funding obligation

(2) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect the validity or enforceability of a funding obligation incurred under this Act before the day that the provision is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect, or any rights or obligations associated with the funding obligation.

Purpose

3xx. (1) The purposes of this Act are,[4]

(a) to ensure that clean energy costs are fairly allocated among present and future specified consumers and reflect the fair allocation; and

(b) to recognize that clean energy benefits have accrued and will accrue over time and will continue to benefit present and future electricity consumers in the Province.

Crown bound

4xx. This Act binds the Crown.

Protection and assurances

Prohibition

5xx. (1) The Crown shall not do anything that would,

(a) hinder, delay, impair or prejudice the charging, collection or remittance of amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment;

(b) except as expressly permitted by this Act, reduce the clean energy adjustment determined under this Act or lower the priority of the clean energy adjustment over other debts; or

(c) adversely affect an investment asset or a funding obligation.

Confidential Draft

[3] FLS: this is from the Climate Change Mitigation and Low-carbon Economy Act, 2016

[4] FLS: Please see the Electricity Act, 1998 for much of the wording proposed in this section.

Clarification with respect to regulations

(2) For greater certainty, the things prohibited under subsection (1) include the making or approving of a regulation under this Act.

Agreements for compensation

(3) The Minister may, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, enter into agreements on behalf of the Province of Ontario with any person in respect of this Act, including agreements regarding the performance of IESO or electricity vendors under this Act or similar transactions.

Guarantee, indemnification

(4) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order,

(a) authorize the Minister of Finance, on behalf of the Province,

(i) to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest, and

(ii) to determine terms and conditions and the amount on which the guarantee or indemnity will be given;

(b) impose terms and conditions, as it considers advisable, on which the Minister of Finance may, on behalf of the Province, agree to guarantee or indemnify as described in subclause (a) (ii); and

(c) specify a maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT OF ELECTRICITY RATES

Definitions

6xx. In this Part,

"effective date" means the date determined under section 6.5xx; ("French")

"RPP rate" means the rates determined by the Board under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, which rates are ~~is~~ commonly referred to as the Regulated Price Plan"; ("French")

"specified RPP consumer" means a specified consumer who meets the following criteria:

Confidential Draft

1. The consumer is a member of the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations made under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act.

2. The consumer is invoiced ~~subject to~~ the RPP rate. ("French")

Specified RPP consumer, first fair adjustment

6.1xx (1) Despite any order under section 78(3.1) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 and despite section 79.16 of that Act, ~~T~~the rates for electricity payable by a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate required for a specified RPP consumer who meets the prescribed criteria to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent lower than the monthly invoice amount for that consumer under the comparison rate described in subsection (2). [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We assume that the criteria will prescribe the THESL proxy consumer criteria, and will do so in the manner we expect based on our last comments on the draft legislation. (2) We remain concerned that the 25% will "oversmooth", potentially by the amount of the RRRP charge and by the amount of the 8% rebate. Oversmoothing by the amount of the OESP charge may potentially have been addressed by the reference to April 30th in the definition of "invoice amount", but not sure.]

Comparison rate

(2) The comparison rate is the rate that would be effective May 1, 2017, determined by the Board solely using the method prescribed by the regulations made under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, without regard to this Act. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) This concept has to be a pre-fair adjustment concept. The OEB has already included a portion of the fair adjustment in May prices. And it did so "solely using the method prescribed" in the reg. under 79.16. Unless you somehow recognize that expressly here, we believe you will be oversmoothing. "Without regard to this Act" may not be the right words, but we believe the concept needs to be reflected here. (2) "Without regard to this Act" may also avoid the application of the changes to 25.33 set out later – it isn't clear that they would be applicable at this time, but if there is a chance that they might then it should be clear that they don't apply.]

Same

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the applicable method is the method on the day this section comes into force. [OEB Note to Draft: We don't understand the purpose of this section. The method under 79.16 hasn't changed, and it seems to us that this has the potential to exacerbate the problem noted in relation to the above section]

Confidential Draft

Specified consumers (non-RPP), first fair adjustment

6.2xx The monthly global adjustment rate ~~rate for electricity~~ payable in accordance with regulations made pursuant to section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is adjusted by an adjustment factor set by the Board to reduce the monthly global adjustment rate ~~the rate that would be necessary in order for [the monthly global adjustment rate] in respect of a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer (RPP) and who meets the prescribed criteria to be reduced~~ by the same amount as the difference between the comparison rate referred to in subsection 6.1xx (2) and the rate determined under subsection 6.1xx (1). [OEB Note to Draft: (1) As worded, this section would have the OEB setting electricity prices for these consumers. We understood that this was not the intention. If that is now the intention, please advise – note that other issues will then have to be addressed. Assuming that you are staying with the "GA modifier" approach as we understand it, we have revised along those lines. Note that the IESO is going to have to calculate the fair adjustment-adjusted GA for these consumers based on the OEB's modifier – are you going to amend 429/04 accordingly? And will the IESO have the systems in place to settle with LDCs on that basis? (2) The reference to the GA reg has been added because some customers pay GA on the basis of an estimated rate and others on the basis of actuals. That may or may not completely address the issue, but we believe it helps.]

Determination by Board

6.3xx The Board shall determine the rates mentioned in section~~s~~ 6.1xx and the adjustment factor mentioned in section 6.2xx no later than seven business days after the day this section receives Royal Assent. [OEB Note to Draft: The OEB will not be able to meet this timeline unless the methodology to be used to set the prices and the GA modifier is what we understand them to be today.]

Implementation of rates

6.4xx Each electricity vendor, ~~[specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for a specified consumer]~~ shall, no later than seven business days after the day on which the Board determines the rates and adjustment factor under section 6.3xx, adapt ~~is billing practices and~~ its invoices to reflect the new rates and the application of the adjustment factor. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We suggest that this section should be deleted. First, it is not necessary – the responsibility of the LDC is to bill the rates then in effect, not to have its systems adapted by a given date. Second, what if the prices don't take effect on the 7th business day? Are LDCs going to be billing the new rates in advance of the date on which they take effect? (2) We do not know whether distributors will be able to do this – 7 business days is enough for a straight RPP price change, but unknown for the GA modifier. (3) We don't understand the purpose of referring to billing practices

here – please advise as to what about their billing practices is going to change. (4) If you delete this section, other sections below will need to be modified accordingly.]

Effective date

[OEB Note to Draft: (1) This section doesn't work if Royal Assent happens on a date that is later than 7 business days before the end of June. If Royal Assent is later, there may be no new rates in place on July 1. We have therefore changed "earlier of" to "later of". (2) We assume that month means calendar month notwithstanding the deletion of the word "calendar" (but would appreciate confirmation) - RPP prices could come into effect on a day other than the first day of the month, but it is not clear whether the same can be said for the modified GA rates. This would need to be discussed with the IESO.]

6.5xx The rates and adjustment factor determined under section 6.3xx are effective on the later ~~earlier~~ of the following days:

1. The first day of the month immediately following the last day of the seven business- day period referred to in section 6.4xx.

2. July 1, 2017.

Transition

[OEB Note to Draft: Is item 1 circular? .Compliance with section 6.4 requires adapting bills within 7 BD of the date on which the Board sets the rate/adjustment factor. So why would there being less than 7 BD between that date and the effective date of the rates be relevant to compliance under 6.4?]

6.6xx (1) This section applies if an electricity vendor ~~, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider~~ is unable to comply with section 6.4xx for one of the following reasons:

1. There are fewer than seven business days between the day of the Board's determination of rates and the adjustment factor under section 6.3xx and the effective date.

2. Technical or operational reasons.

(2) In the circumstances described in subsection (1), the electricity vendor ~~, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider~~ shall,

(a) adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than August 1, 2017; and [OEB Note to Draft: It is not known whether LDCs can

implement this by August 1, particularly for the GA modifier. Note that you left 6 months for ORECA.]

(b) ensure that any specified consumer ~~or sub-meter customer~~ invoiced at ~~a~~ rate ~~rate~~ higher than the applicable rates determined by the Board under section 6.3 or invoiced a monthly global adjustment rate that does not reflect the application of the adjustment factor determined by the Board under section 6.3 receives the difference between the rates or global adjustment amount shown on their invoice for electricity consumed on and after the effective date ~~and the applicable rate~~ and the rates or monthly global adjustment as determined under section 6.3 as a lump sum credit on the first invoice received ~~issued~~ after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: LDCs may still struggle with this – worth verifying feasibility with the LDCs]

Subsequent fair adjustments

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the methodology to be applied by the Board to determine rates for electricity payable by specified RPP consumers under section 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 ~~specified consumers and sub-meter customers~~ during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [OEB Note to Draft: Either the OEB is setting RPP prices under this section, in which case it should be worded as such, or the OEB is setting RPP prices under section 79.16. This provision as drafted did not appear to us to achieve either purpose. We have proposed to clarify that the regulations affect the setting of prices under section 79.16 because the concept of a "specified RPP consumer" is defined by reference to section 79.16 and therefore seems to us to pre-suppose that we are setting RPP prices under 79.16 for this period.]

7.1xx The monthly global adjustment rate payable in accordance with regulations made pursuant to section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022 shall be adjusted by an adjustment factor determined by the Board in accordance with the regulations.

~~Sub-meter customers~~

~~7.1xx A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the applicable rate determined under this Part.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We do not understand why anyone other than a consumer that is sub-metered by a licensed USMP needs to be captured by this legislation. If a landlord/building owner passes through the cost of electricity to tenants in a building that is not sub-metered, it would be included in rent or billed on a basis like square footage or number of units. These kinds of consumers do not pay a regulated rate today, they pay the costs passed through by the landlord/building owner. (2) In terms of consumers served by a USMP, we believe that their obligation should be to pass through the fair adjustment. We propose something for that below.]

7.2xx (1) This section applies if,

(a) a specified consumer provides to a sub-metered consumer electricity in respect of which the specified consumer is entitled to a fair adjustment under this Part; and
(b) an invoice for the electricity is issued to the sub-metered consumer by a unit sub-meter provider providing sub-metering for specified consumer.

(2) Every unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall, in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed, ensure that each sub-metered consumer referred to in subsection (1)(a) receives its share of the benefit of any fair adjustment that is provided to the specified consumer under this Part.

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes an amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the amount to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment interest owners, in accordance with such terms of payment as may be specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment was determined in a manner that was inconsistent with this Act; and

(b) whether the amount payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was not in material conformity with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(4) An unpaid amount that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the specified consumer to each investment interest owner to the extent of each owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Confidential Draft

Same

(5) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer.

~~Recovery from sub-meter consumers~~

~~(6) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer may recover amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment payable under this section from each sub-meter customer on a pro rata basis.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: We do not understand the need for this section. If the overall framework needs for USMPs to recover these amounts, then that should presumably be included. Something that simply allows them to recover the CEA doesn't seem to us to work in the context of their acting as agent for the unlicensed distributor and where the total CEA payable for the building should presumably be on the bulk meter bill. If you are retaining some residual reference to consumers that are in buildings that are not sub-metered, then at a minimum we believe that USMPs should be backed out of this.]

Irrevocability of amount

9xx. (1) An amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness resulting from the clean energy adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a clerical, typographical or calculation-related error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment
Financial Services Manager to determine

10xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall determine the clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of each month in a reference period by adding the estimated finance amount in respect of the reference period to the true up amount in respect of the reference period.

Estimated finance amount, true up amount

(2) The estimated finance amount and the true up amount shall be determined in accordance with the regulations.

Regulations re true up amount

(3) The regulations under subsection (2) shall have regard to the following principles:

Confidential Draft

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

    i. differences between the estimated and actual finance amount for the immediately preceding reference period,

    ii. differences between amounts invoiced and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, and

    ii. variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption.

Financial Services Manager to notify Board

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall, in accordance with the regulations, notify the Board of the clean energy adjustment and such other information related to the determination of the clean energy adjustment as may be prescribed. [OEB Note to Draft: The regulations will need to provide a timeline within which this information has to be provided if there are timelines for the setting of rates applicable to the OEB under (5)]

Board to determine rates

(5) The Board shall, in accordance with the regulations, determine the rate at which specified consumers are invoiced to recover the clean energy adjustment as notified to it under subsection (4) in respect of the reference period. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) Do you need to contemplate the possibility that different CEA rates may be required for different specified consumers (i.e., consumers on RPP vs. others?) (2) The OEB will likely need consumption information from the IESO in order to do this. See our proposed new section at the end.]

IESO to receive amounts

11xx. (2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment interest owners, receive amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment paid to it from electricity vendors in accordance with the regulations and the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998.

Account

(3) All of the following amounts received by the IESO shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner in accordance with subsection (5), be deposited promptly into an account established for the purposes of receiving those amounts:

1. Amounts described in subsection 11xx (2).

Confidential Draft

2. Payments made by specified consumers directly to the IESO as electricity vendor under subsection 8xx (1).

Same, held in trust

(4) All amounts received by the IESO in respect of the clean energy adjustment shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner, be received and held in trust by the IESO for the investment interest owners or a secured party to whom a security interest in an investment interest is granted under this Act.

IESO to remit

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment to or for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendor to invoice specified consumers

12xx. (1) Each electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each of its specified consumers for the amount payable by the consumer in respect of the clean energy adjustment, as determined by applying the rate set by the Board under subsection 10xx (2) and in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: It remains unclear to us whether this is a separate invoice or the normal utility bill. Requiring LDCs to issue separate bills will increase their billing costs and create customer confusion.]

Electricity vendor to report

(1.1) Each electricity vendor shall, in accordance with the regulations, promptly report to the IESO the total amount invoiced to its specified consumers in respect of the clean energy adjustment, the amount collected and such further information as may be prescribed.

Electricity vendor to collect

(2) Each electricity vendor shall, as agent of the investment interest owners, collect amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: Having LDCs use a collection process for the CEA that is different from a collection process for the rest of the bill will be an issue for them (assuming that the CEA is invoiced on the normal utility bill). The OEB has requirements that LDCs have to follow in relation to invoicing and that apply to the rest of the bill. Depending on what collection means, there could be a conflict.]

Pro rating of payments

(3) If an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices and the amount paid is less than the total amount payable, the electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices in respect of electricity charges in respect of the same period. [OEB Note to Draft: See our concerns on our earlier draft about whether LDCs can track this way]

Held in trust

(4) Payments received by an electricity vendor from or on behalf of specified consumers shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner in accordance with subsection (5), be received by and held by each electricity vendor in trust for the benefit of the investment interest owners.

Remittance to IESO

(5) Each electricity vendor shall remit amounts described in subsection (5) to the IESO for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

PART IV
IMPLEMENTATION

FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER

Appointment

13xx. (1) Subject to subsection (2), Ontario Power Generation Inc. is appointed as the Financial Services Manager for the purposes of this Act.

Replacement

(2) The Minister may terminate an appointment of a Financial Services Manager and may, in accordance with the regulations, appoint a new person or entity as the Financial Services Manager.

Duties and powers

14xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall perform the duties assigned to it under this Act and may administer the investment asset on behalf of the investment interest owners.

Same

(2) The administration of the investment asset may include the following:

1. Providing information, in accordance with the regulations, to the Board in respect of ~~funding obligations and~~ the Board's determination of the clean energy adjustment rate under ~~in accordance with~~ subsection 10(5)~~xx~~. [OEB Note to Draft: Our proposed new provision at the end would eliminate the need for this item. which we understand to be a global dollar amount that we are expected to take from the FSM without question to derive the CEA rate?]

2. Providing information to the IESO in respect of obligations under Part III.

3. Such other matters as may be prescribed.

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: We still do not know what these costs are; what the purpose of the review is; what process we are expected to use for this review and whether an order of some kind will be required; and whether the review has any consequence for anything else that we need to think about in relation to this responsibility. We understand that some of this may be suitable for regulations, but we are not convinced that this can override the OEB Act provisions relating to hearings. This is addressed in our proposed new provision at the end]

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Financial Services Manager to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in respect of each reference period, having regard to the need to align that amount with the finance amount payable during the reference period, for the purpose of fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

Timing of calculation

(1.1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in respect of each reference period before any funding obligation is incurred [by a financing entity during the reference period].

Amount

(1.2) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which, if this Act had not been enacted, the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period would have exceeded the estimated amount of the adjustments provided for under section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 and the regulations made under that provision that would have been borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs for the reference period.

Confidential Draft

2. A portion of the value of any fair adjustment that has been made under Part II in respect of any previous reference period.

Principles

(2) In calculating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of a reference period, the Financial Services Manager shall [comply with the regulations and] have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined in accordance with the regulations.
3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The time value of money or the rate of inflation, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers in respect of each reference period.

    iii. The expected electricity consumption rates in respect of each reference period.

Method

(3) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in accordance with such methods as the Financial Services Manager considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Notification to Minister

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall notify the Minister of the methods used to calculate the fair allocation amount and any changes to those methods.

Effective date

(6) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Minister in writing.

Confidential Draft

Publication

(7) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred for the purposes of acquiring an investment interest in accordance with this Act.

Plan to be provided to Minister

(1.1) The Financial Services Manager shall provide the Financing Plan to the Minister.

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align with the estimated finance amount, as determined in accordance with the regulations, that would, subject to any refinancing, become due and payable during a reference period with the fair allocation amount determined in respect of the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment in respect of the reference period.

2. Incurrences should be implemented in a manner that, in the opinion of the Financial Services Manager, is reasonable, cost effective and that reflects prevailing market terms and conditions.

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in amounts payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period unless,

Confidential Draft

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair allocation amount in respect of the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment in respect of the reference period].

Other reports

(3.1) The Financial Services Manager shall submit to the Minister such reports and information as the Minister may require from time to time and shall, if required by the Minister to do so, examine, report and advise on any question relating to the Financing Plan.

Confidentiality

(5) The following are deemed to be records subject to clauses 18 (1) (c) and (d) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act:

1. The Financing Plan.

2. Reports referred to in subsection (3.1).

3. Any other document that would reveal information contained in the Financing Plan or the reports.

Amendments to plan

(6) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time.

Same

(7) In the event that the Financing Plan is amended, any reference in this section to the Financing Plan is deemed to be a reference to the plan as amended.

Implementation of Financing Plan

17xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall incur funding obligations in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection 17xx (5) applies despite the failure of the Financial Services Manager to comply with subsection (1). [OEB Note to Draft: There is no 17(5).]

Confidential Draft

Financing entities

(3) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations.

Prohibition

(3.1) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, the Board, Ontario Power Generation Inc., the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation or other agreement. [OEB Note to Draft: We remain of the view that the OEB's assets should be immune from recourse whether or not the OEB has responsibilities under this Act.]

Effect of amendment to fair allocation amount

(4) Each funding obligation incurred and each transfer made by a financing entity is deemed to be consistent with the Financing Plan and [the fair allocation amount].

PART V
THE REGULATORY ASSET

IESO funding shortfall

20xx. (1) The IESO funding shortfall for each month shall be determined in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendors to provide information

(2) Electricity vendors shall provide to IESO such information as IESO may reasonably request for the purposes of determining the IESO shortfall under subsection (1) and such further information as may be prescribed.

Same

(3) IESO may rely on information provided by electricity vendors for the purposes of the determination under subsection (1).

Variance account to be established, maintained

20.1xx (1) The IESO shall establish and maintain a variance account for the purposes of this section.

Recording in variance account

(2) The IESO shall record the following in the variance account:

1. The amount of the IESO funding shortfall for each month.

Confidential Draft

2. All payments received by the IESO resulting from the exercise of the right of recovery under section 21xx and any transfer under section 22xx.

3. Such other adjustments as may be prescribed.

Recording determinative

(3) Subject to any finding of [manifest error], a recording by the IESO in the variance account of the balance is, as of the time of the recording, determinative of the balance at the time.

Rights of investment interest owner

(4) No change made by IESO to the balance in the variance account shall, if the previous balance was relied upon by an investment interest owner in the context of a transfer under section 22x, affect the rights of the investment interest owner acquired under the transfer.

Regulatory asset established

21xx. (1) The IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations, to recover the balance recorded in the variance account from specified consumers.

Limitation

(2) Despite subsection (1), the IESO shall not be entitled to collect all or part of the balance recorded in the variance account from specified consumers before May 1, 2022.

Board to set rates

(3) The Board shall, from time to time, determine and set rates payable by specified consumers to allow for IESO to recover the balance recorded in the variance account. [OEB Note to Draft: We understand that some details may be suitable for regulations, but we are not convinced that this can override the OEB Act provisions relating to hearings. This is addressed in our proposed new provision at the end. If this is going to be implemented through RPP prices, O. Reg. 95/05 will presumably need to be amended accordingly at some point.]

Same, limitations

(4) The Board's powers under subsection (3) shall be exercised in accordance with the regulations.

Confidential Draft

Same

(2) Upon receipt by IESO of payment in consideration of a transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset, the transfer shall be valid and enforceable against the IESO and the IESO shall retain no further right, title or interest in, or any obligations in respect of, the regulatory asset or in the investment asset created by the transfer.

Same

(3) Upon transfer, the financing entity acquires an investment interest and becomes an investment asset owner.

Validity of transfer

23xx. (1) A transfer of a regulatory asset under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer to the investment interest owner of the regulatory asset.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), any transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall, and not merely as a security interest, and upon the absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the regulatory asset, including all rights to recover the IESO funding shortfall.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of a regulatory asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the transferee shall have priority over any liens in favour of those persons.

PART VI
THE INVESTMENT ASSET

Effect of transfer

24xx. (1) The first transfer of the regulatory asset or a portion of it creates the investment asset.

Same

(2) Upon any transfer of all or a portion of the regulatory asset to a financing entity, the investment asset resulting from the transfer is immediately vested in the financing entity, free and clear of any adverse claim, and the financing entity becomes an investment interest owner and acquires an investment interest.

Investment asset established

25xx. (1) The investment asset constitutes a current and irrevocable property right and interest consisting, collectively, of the following rights and interests of investment interest owners:

1. The right to impose, invoice, collect, receive and recover amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers, including the right to determine the clean energy adjustment in accordance with this Act.

2. The right to receive, collect and recover amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment that are imposed, invoiced and recoverable under this Act, including any amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment that are held by electricity vendors or other prescribed parties.

3. All rights and entitlements under such accounts as may be prescribed by regulation and all amounts on deposit in such accounts.

4. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to impose, attribute, charge and invoice for amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment.

5. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to collect, receive and remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment, including all collections and the proceeds of any enforcement action undertaken by an electricity vendor to recover payment of amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment.

6. All rights of any kind related to any of the other property rights or interests that comprise the investment interest.

7. All revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds of or derived from the rights described in paragraphs 1 to 6, regardless of whether it is invoiced, collected and maintained together with or commingled with other revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds.

Not affected by failure to impose etc. clean energy adjustment

No set off, etc.

(2) The investment asset shall not be set off,

(b) in connection with any default of a person mentioned in clause (a); or

Exercise of rights

(3) The rights of the investment asset owner to collect and enforce its rights and interests in, to and in respect of the investment asset against a specified consumer shall be exercised in accordance with Part III of this Act. [OEB Note to Draft: Presumably, this means that the rights and interests will be through the electricity vendors acting as their agents? If so, what does that mean for LDCs?]

Collective action required

(4) If the investment interest owner owns a right or interest in the investment asset that comprises less than the entire property right and interest constituted by the investment asset, the right or interest shall only be enforced by the investment interest owner collectively and in coordination with all other investment interest owners, and any agreement among that collective in furtherance of the collective action shall be valid and binding on the investment interest owner as a collective in accordance with its terms.

Transfer of investment interest

26xx. An investment interest owner may transfer all or a portion of its rights and interests in an investment interest to any other investment interest owner, including by way of a transfer of a divided or an undivided interest, in accordance with the Financing Plan.

Validity of transfer

27xx. (1) A transfer of an investment interest under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer of the investment interest and confers upon the investment asset owner a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment interest in accordance with the terms of the transfer.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of an investment interest owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment interest, and not merely as a security interest, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the investment interest, subject to the transfer, including all rights to the investment interest arising after the transfer.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of an investment interest is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer, assignment, etc.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the investment interest owner shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons.

Investment interest owner may grant security interest

28xx. (1) An investment interest owner may grant a security interest over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under the investment interest to or in favour of any person to secure a funding obligation.

Validity

(2) A security interest granted under this Act shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Perfection and priority of security interests

(3) All provisions of the Personal Property Security Act shall apply to the investment asset and each investment interest on the basis that it is intangible personal property, except as otherwise provided for in this section, and any granting of a security interest by the investment interest owner to secure a funding obligation shall, subject to the terms of the funding obligation, give rise to a security interest in respect of which that Act applies and may be perfected by filing a financing statement under that Act on that basis.

Definition

(8) For the purposes of this section, a security interest is perfected when it is perfected as described in the Personal Property Security Act.

(vi) acting as a recovery agent under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017;

[OEB Note to Draft: In the interests of time, we have not reviewed the section below in detail. However, without a better understanding, it raises a question about the continued viability of section 79.16(3) of the OEB Act, which we address below.]

200.1xx (1) Subsection 25.33 (1) of the Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of clause (a) and by adding the following clauses:

[8] FLS: These amendments are drawn from previous drafting contained in gov2016.146.e05 (which was drafted as amendments to the EA, 1998).

(d) amounts collected from consumers who are [specified consumers within the meaning of] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the clean energy adjustment and any related amounts.

(1.1) Subsection 25.33 (2) of the Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of clause (a) and by adding the following clauses:

(c) amounts paid to or received from a [prescribed] financial services entity or [a financing entity prescribed under] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and any related amounts; and

(d) amounts collected from consumers who are [specified consumers within the meaning of] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 in respect of the clean energy adjustment and any related amounts.

(2) Subsection 25.33 (3) of the Act is amended by adding the following paragraph:

4. A consumer who is,

   i. a [specified consumer within the meaning of] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017, or

(3) Clause 25.33 (4) (b) of the Act is amended by adding "or as may be required under a regulation made under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 or the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998" at the end.

201x. Section 53.1 of the Act is amended by adding the following subsections:

Same, Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017

53.1 (1.1) In addition to the objects mentioned in subsection (1), the objects of Ontario Power Generation Inc. include exercising the powers and rights and performing the duties and obligations assigned to it under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and

engaging in activities to facilitate the implementation of that Act, including entering into contracts and undertakings on behalf of financing entities, subject to the right to be paid by the financing entities for those services.

Subsidiaries, etc.

(1.2) Ontario Power Generation Inc. may create or invest in one or more subsidiaries, trusts, partnerships or special purpose entities in order to more efficiently conduct its activities or achieve its objects.

Deemed assets, entity

(1.3) Despite any other provision of this Act, the Business Corporations Act or any other Act,

(a) the assets and liabilities of a special purpose financing entity shall not form part of the assets and liabilities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. or any of its subsidiaries; and

(b) the assets and liabilities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. or any of its subsidiaries shall not form part of the assets and liabilities of a financing entity.

Definition, financing entity

(1.4) For the purposes of this section, "financing entity" has the same meaning as in the Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

AMENDMENTS TO ONTARIO ENERGY BOARD ACT, 1998

204x. Subsection 1 (1) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by adding the following paragraph:

~~6. To facilitate the implementation of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: We remain of the view that this is ill-advised. On the earlier draft we noted that, among other things, this could affect the setting of payment amounts for OPG by requiring us to include the effect, if any, of the Fair Hydro Plan on OPG's financing costs in determining a reasonable cost of capital, which represents a major cost component of the price setting and could adversely affect all ratepayers. If this were to be an objective, it will by definition have to be considered whenever we exercise any part of our mandate, and we understand that this is not the intention. In the context of distribution and transmission rates, this could potentially affect utility financial viability or reliability of service if it comes into play in setting their rates.]

205x. Subsection 70 (2.1) of the Act is amended by adding the following paragraph:

4. The licensee is required to comply with the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

205.1x Section 70 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by adding the following subsection:

(2.3) Every licence issued to a unit sub-meter provider is deemed to contain the condition that the unit sub-meter provider is required to comply with the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and the regulations made under it.

206x. Section 78.1 of the Act is amended by adding the following subsection:

Same, limitation re Ontario Power Generation Inc.

(3) The determination of a payment to Ontario Power Generation Inc. under this section shall not include any consideration of amounts related to activities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. carried out in relation to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

Same

(3.1) The amounts referred to in subsection (3) include, without limitation, the following:

1. Amounts related to the appointment of Ontario Power Generation Inc. as the Financial Services Manager under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

2. Amounts related to the charging of fees for performing duties as the Financial Services Manager.

3. Amounts related to exercising the powers and performing the duties of the Financial Services Manager.

4. Amounts related to the consolidation of the assets and liabilities for accounting purposes of any special purpose financing entities established under and for the purposes of that Act.

207xx. Section 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by deleting subsection (3). [OEB Note to Draft: We are concerned that, with the different changes set out in this Act (including notably the changes to 25.33 above), the impact of which is not yet known, the obligation to clear variance accounts will not be feasible in the way that it is today, and could cause the OEB to act in violation of this subsection. If it is relevant in the future, it can be added to O. Reg. 95/05].

Attached are the OEB's comments on, and proposed changes to, the draft legislation.

Our principal area of concern is Part II, and in the interests of time in addition to commenting on areas of concern we have also provided suggested revised drafting on the attached. Briefly, the pricing for RPP consumers for 2017/2018 as written appears to us to "over-smooth", and the pricing for non-RPP consumers - which by its terms appeared to us to be having the OEB set commodity prices for these consumers - is not what we understand the policy intention to be.

We have also proposed two new sections that we believe are necessary in order for the OEB to appropriately carry out its responsibilities under this legislation, as well as two new consequential amendments to the OEB Act. These are towards the back end of the document.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

Subject: Ontario Fair Hydro Plan

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

Version 4: OEB COMMENTS

This confidential draft document is provided for discussion purposes only. It should not be construed as representing the position adopted by the Government of Ontario on any of the topics included or not included in this document. The notes included in this document are intended only to help facilitate a discussion of the topics to which they relate. Any potential legislation is subject to the approval of the Ontario Legislature.

A proposal to create Legislation.

An Act to provide for the fair allocation of costs of electricity over time, if enacted

[OEB Note to Draft:

(1) We offered a number of comments on the earlier draft regarding the ability of distributors to implement certain parts of this legislation given their billing systems, accounting practices etc. Those remain open questions.

(2) We note that certain elements are now proposed to be moved to the regulations. We understand the rationale for that, but in respect of setting new RPP prices and the GA modifier under Part II in particular it is critical that the regulations reflect our current understanding of the approach to be used by the OEB in performing those tasks.

(3) We understand that RPP prices and the GA modifier will only apply as of the effective date going forward, but as raised the other day does this require a change to ensure that the shortfall from May 1 to the effective date resulting from our May 1 price change (the forecast $1B GA reduction) will be captured as part of the funding shortfall/reg asset?

(4) The OEB will not be able to perform all of its responsibilities under this Act without information from others (for example, the IESO) and without proper third party accounts. We have included a proposed new provision at the end for this purpose.

Confidential Draft

(5) Absent anything else, the OEB's responsibilities would need to be done through a hearing. We propose a new provision at the end that would enable the OEB to perform these responsibilities with or without a hearing.]

A proposal to create Legislation.

An Act to provide for the fair allocation of costs of electricity over time, if enacted

EXPLANATORY NOTE TO BE ADDED BY LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL TO ANY FINAL BILL PRIOR TO INTRODUCTION.

Preamble

The Government of Ontario is committed to fostering the development of a clean, modern and reliable electricity system with a diverse supply mix. The Government is also committed to removing barriers to and promoting opportunities for renewable and clean energy projects.[1] These commitments can only be achieved if costs are shared fairly among consumers, today and in the future.

Electricity rates have risen for two key reasons. First, decades of under-investment in the electricity system resulted in the need to invest more than $50 billion in generation, transmission and distribution assets to ensure the system is clean and reliable. Second, the decision to eliminate Ontario's use of coal and produce clean, renewable power has created additional costs.

The actions taken to achieve a clean, modern and reliable electricity system have resulted in significant costs to consumers today. The burden of financing these system improvements and funding key programs has unfairly fallen almost entirely on the shoulders of today's consumers.

The Government of Ontario is committed to ensuring that the costs of financing these investments and the associated charges to consumers are allocated fairly among present and future generations of consumers.

Recognizing that the electricity infrastructure that has been built and the policy decisions that have been made will create benefits for years to come, costs should be allocated fairly over time, so that consumers in the future pay their fair share for the benefits that they receive from the investments already made.

4. The person's account with the electricity vendor relates to,

    i. a dwelling,

    ii. a property within the meaning of the Condominium Act, 1998, that the OESP charge is coming off the bill on May 1. However, note also that (i) there will be another change to the THESL rates for the residential service class effective May 1 – a rate rider of 8 cents/month is coming off; and (ii) the April 30th bill will still have the full RRRP charge (as will the May 1st bill).]

iii. Any adjustment on the invoice required under section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998.

iii. A rate rider [of the prescribed type or class].

5. Any other prescribed amounts.

Effect of invalidity, etc.[3]

2xx. (1) For greater certainty, all of the provisions of this Act remain in full force and effect, even if one or more provisions are held to be invalid, the intention of the Legislature being to give separate and independent effect to the extent of its powers to every provision contained in this Act.

Same, funding obligation

(2) The fact that any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect for any reason does not affect the validity or enforceability of a funding obligation incurred under this Act before the day that the provision is held to be invalid or ceases to be in effect, or any rights or obligations associated with the funding obligation.

Purpose

3xx. (1) The purposes of this Act are,[4]

(a) to ensure that clean energy costs are fairly allocated among present and future specified consumers and reflect the fair allocation; and

(b) to recognize that clean energy benefits have accrued and will accrue over time and will continue to benefit present and future electricity consumers in the Province.

Crown bound

4xx. This Act binds the Crown.

Protection and assurances

Prohibition

5xx. (1) The Crown shall not do anything that would,

(a) hinder, delay, impair or prejudice the charging, collection or remittance of amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment;

(b) except as expressly permitted by this Act, reduce the clean energy adjustment determined under this Act or lower the priority of the clean energy adjustment over other debts; or

(c) adversely affect an investment asset or a funding obligation.

[4] FLS: Please see the Electricity Act, 1998 for much of the wording proposed in this section.

Clarification with respect to regulations

(2) For greater certainty, the things prohibited under subsection (1) include the making or approving of a regulation under this Act.

Agreements for compensation

(3) The Minister may, with the approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, enter into agreements on behalf of the Province of Ontario with any person in respect of this Act, including agreements regarding the performance of IESO or electricity vendors under this Act or similar transactions.

Guarantee, indemnification

(4) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order,

(a) authorize the Minister of Finance, on behalf of the Province,

(i) to agree to guarantee or indemnify any debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an investment interest, and

(ii) to determine terms and conditions and the amount on which the guarantee or indemnity will be given;

(b) impose terms and conditions, as it considers advisable, on which the Minister of Finance may, on behalf of the Province, agree to guarantee or indemnify as described in subclause (a) (ii); and

(c) specify a maximum liability for the guarantee or indemnity.

PART II
FAIR ADJUSTMENT OF ELECTRICITY RATES

Definitions

6xx. In this Part,

"effective date" means the date determined under section 6.5xx; ("French")

"RPP rate" means the rates determined by the Board under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, which rates are ~~is~~ commonly referred to as the Regulated Price Plan"; ("French")

"specified RPP consumer" means a specified consumer who meets the following criteria:

Confidential Draft

1. The consumer is a member of the class of consumers prescribed by the regulations made under the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 for the purposes of subsection 79.16 (1) of that Act.

2. The consumer is invoiced ~~subject to~~ the RPP rate. ("French")

Specified RPP consumer, first fair adjustment

6.1xx (1) Despite any order under section 78(3.1) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 and despite section 79.16 of that Act, ~~T~~the rates for electricity payable by a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is the rate required for a specified RPP consumer who meets the prescribed criteria to receive a monthly invoice amount that is 25 per cent lower than the monthly invoice amount for that consumer under the comparison rate described in subsection (2). [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We assume that the criteria will prescribe the THESL proxy consumer criteria, and will do so in the manner we expect based on our last comments on the draft legislation. (2) We remain concerned that the 25% will "oversmooth", potentially by the amount of the RRRP charge and by the amount of the 8% rebate. Oversmoothing by the amount of the OESP charge may potentially have been addressed by the reference to April 30th in the definition of "invoice amount", but not sure.]

Comparison rate

(2) The comparison rate is the rate that would be effective May 1, 2017, determined by the Board solely using the method prescribed by the regulations made under clause 79.16 (1) (b) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998, without regard to this Act. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) This concept has to be a pre-fair adjustment concept. The OEB has already included a portion of the fair adjustment in May prices. And it did so "solely using the method prescribed" in the reg. under 79.16. Unless you somehow recognize that expressly here, we believe you will be oversmoothing. "Without regard to this Act" may not be the right words, but we believe the concept needs to be reflected here. (2) "Without regard to this Act" may also avoid the application of the changes to 25.33 set out later – it isn't clear that they would be applicable at this time, but if there is a chance that they might then it should be clear that they don't apply.]

Same

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the applicable method is the method on the day this section comes into force. [OEB Note to Draft: We don't understand the purpose of this section. The method under 79.16 hasn't changed, and it seems to us that this has the potential to exacerbate the problem noted in relation to the above section]

Confidential Draft

Specified consumers (non-RPP), first fair adjustment

6.2xx The monthly global adjustment rate ~~rate for electricity~~ payable in accordance with regulations made pursuant to section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on the effective date and ending on April 30, 2018 is adjusted by an adjustment factor set by the Board to reduce the monthly global adjustment rate ~~the rate that would be necessary in order for [the monthly global adjustment rate] in respect of a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer (RPP) and who meets the prescribed criteria to be reduced~~ by the same amount as the difference between the comparison rate referred to in subsection 6.1xx (2) and the rate determined under subsection 6.1xx (1). [OEB Note to Draft: (1) As worded, this section would have the OEB setting electricity prices for these consumers. We understood that this was not the intention. If that is now the intention, please advise – note that other issues will then have to be addressed. Assuming that you are staying with the "GA modifier" approach as we understand it, we have revised along those lines. Note that the IESO is going to have to calculate the fair adjustment-adjusted GA for these consumers based on the OEB's modifier – are you going to amend 429/04 accordingly? And will the IESO have the systems in place to settle with LDCs on that basis? (2) The reference to the GA reg has been added because some customers pay GA on the basis of an estimated rate and others on the basis of actuals. That may or may not completely address the issue, but we believe it helps.]

Determination by Board

6.3xx The Board shall determine the rates mentioned in section~~s~~ 6.1xx and the adjustment factor mentioned in section 6.2xx no later than seven business days after the day this section receives Royal Assent. [OEB Note to Draft: The OEB will not be able to meet this timeline unless the methodology to be used to set the prices and the GA modifier is what we understand them to be today.]

Implementation of rates

6.4xx Each electricity vendor, ~~[specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for a specified consumer]~~ shall, no later than seven business days after the day on which the Board determines the rates and adjustment factor under section 6.3xx, adapt ~~is billing practices and~~ its invoices to reflect the new rates and the application of the adjustment factor. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We suggest that this section should be deleted. First, it is not necessary – the responsibility of the LDC is to bill the rates then in effect, not to have its systems adapted by a given date. Second, what if the prices don't take effect on the 7th business day? Are LDCs going to be billing the new rates in advance of the date on which they take effect? (2) We do not know whether distributors will be able to do this – 7 business days is enough for a straight RPP price change, but unknown for the GA modifier. (3) We don't understand the purpose of referring to billing practices

here – please advise as to what about their billing practices is going to change. (4) If you delete this section, other sections below will need to be modified accordingly.]

Effective date

[OEB Note to Draft: (1) This section doesn't work if Royal Assent happens on a date that is later than 7 business days before the end of June. If Royal Assent is later, there may be no new rates in place on July 1. We have therefore changed "earlier of" to "later of". (2) We assume that month means calendar month notwithstanding the deletion of the word "calendar" (but would appreciate confirmation) - RPP prices could come into effect on a day other than the first day of the month, but it is not clear whether the same can be said for the modified GA rates. This would need to be discussed with the IESO.]

6.5xx The rates and adjustment factor determined under section 6.3xx are effective on the later ~~earlier~~ of the following days:

1. The first day of the month immediately following the last day of the seven business- day period referred to in section 6.4xx.

2. July 1, 2017.

Transition

[OEB Note to Draft: Is item 1 circular? .Compliance with section 6.4 requires adapting bills within 7 BD of the date on which the Board sets the rate/adjustment factor. So why would there being less than 7 BD between that date and the effective date of the rates be relevant to compliance under 6.4?]

6.6xx (1) This section applies if an electricity vendor ~~, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider~~ is unable to comply with section 6.4xx for one of the following reasons:

1. There are fewer than seven business days between the day of the Board's determination of rates and the adjustment factor under section 6.3xx and the effective date.

2. Technical or operational reasons.

Same

(2) In the circumstances described in subsection (1), the electricity vendor ~~, specified consumer or unit sub-meter provider~~ shall,

(a) adapt its invoices as soon as possible and, in any event, no later than August 1, 2017; and [OEB Note to Draft: It is not known whether LDCs can

Confidential Draft

implement this by August 1, particularly for the GA modifier. Note that you left 6 months for ORECA.]

(b) ensure that any specified consumer ~~or sub-meter customer~~ invoiced at ~~a~~ rate ~~rate~~ higher than the applicable rates determined by the Board under section 6.3 or invoiced a monthly global adjustment rate that does not reflect the application of the adjustment factor determined by the Board under section 6.3 receives the difference between the rates or global adjustment amount shown on their invoice for electricity consumed on and after the effective date ~~and the applicable rate~~ and the rates or monthly global adjustment as determined under section 6.3 as a lump sum credit on the first invoice received ~~issued~~ after the invoices have been adapted or by such other means as may be prescribed by the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: LDCs may still struggle with this – worth verifying feasibility with the LDCs]

Subsequent fair adjustments

7xx. The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing the methodology to be applied by the Board to determine rates for electricity payable by specified RPP consumers under section 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 ~~specified consumers and sub-meter customers~~ during the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022. [OEB Note to Draft: Either the OEB is setting RPP prices under this section, in which case it should be worded as such, or the OEB is setting RPP prices under section 79.16. This provision as drafted did not appear to us to achieve either purpose. We have proposed to clarify that the regulations affect the setting of prices under section 79.16 because the concept of a "specified RPP consumer" is defined by reference to section 79.16 and therefore seems to us to pre-suppose that we are setting RPP prices under 79.16 for this period.]

7.1xx The monthly global adjustment rate payable in accordance with regulations made pursuant to section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 by a specified consumer who is not a specified RPP consumer for the period beginning on May 1, 2018 and ending on April 30, 2022 shall be adjusted by an adjustment factor determined by the Board in accordance with the regulations.

~~Sub-meter customers~~

~~7.1xx A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer and any unit sub-meter provider who provides unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall ensure that the rate payable by each sub-meter customer is the applicable rate determined under this Part.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: (1) We do not understand why anyone other than a consumer that is sub-metered by a licensed USMP needs to be captured by this legislation. If a landlord/building owner passes through the cost of electricity to tenants in a building that is not sub-metered, it would be included in rent or billed on a basis like square footage or number of units. These kinds of consumers do not pay a regulated rate today, they pay the costs passed through by the landlord/building owner. (2) In terms of consumers served by a USMP, we believe that their obligation should be to pass through the fair adjustment. We propose something for that below.]

7.2xx (1) This section applies if,

(a) a specified consumer provides to a sub-metered consumer electricity in respect of which the specified consumer is entitled to a fair adjustment under this Part; and
(b) an invoice for the electricity is issued to the sub-metered consumer by a unit sub-meter provider providing sub-metering for specified consumer.

(2) Every unit sub-meter provider providing unit sub-metering for the specified consumer shall, in accordance with such requirements as may be prescribed, ensure that each sub-metered consumer referred to in subsection (1)(a) receives its share of the benefit of any fair adjustment that is provided to the specified consumer under this Part.

PART III
CLEAN ENERGY ADJUSTMENT

Specified consumers to pay

8xx. (1) Upon receipt of an invoice that includes an amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment, a specified consumer shall pay the amount to the electricity vendor, as agent of the investment interest owners, in accordance with such terms of payment as may be specified in the invoice, which may include terms relating to late payment fees and interest charges.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection (1) applies regardless of,

(a) whether the clean energy adjustment was determined in a manner that was inconsistent with this Act; and

(b) whether the amount payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment relates to funding obligations that were incurred in a manner that was not in material conformity with the Financing Plan.

Indebtedness of specified consumer

(4) An unpaid amount that is required to be paid by a specified consumer under this section constitutes indebtedness of the specified consumer to each investment interest owner to the extent of each owner's respective interest in the investment asset.

Confidential Draft

Same

(5) The indebtedness mentioned in subsection (4) is a single and separate debt obligation owed by the specified consumer and may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the specified consumer.

~~Recovery from sub-meter consumers~~

~~(6) A specified consumer who provides electricity to a sub-meter customer may recover amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment payable under this section from each sub-meter customer on a pro rata basis.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: We do not understand the need for this section. If the overall framework needs for USMPs to recover these amounts, then that should presumably be included. Something that simply allows them to recover the CEA doesn't seem to us to work in the context of their acting as agent for the unlicensed distributor and where the total CEA payable for the building should presumably be on the bulk meter bill. If you are retaining some residual reference to consumers that are in buildings that are not sub-metered, then at a minimum we believe that USMPs should be backed out of this.]

Irrevocability of amount

9xx. (1) An amount in respect of the clean energy adjustment shown on an invoice issued to a specified consumer under this Act is determinative of the amount of the consumer's indebtedness resulting from the clean energy adjustment and is irrevocable upon invoicing the consumer and may not be set off or by passed.

Exception

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that there is a clerical, typographical or calculation-related error by the electricity vendor.

Determination of clean energy adjustment
Financial Services Manager to determine

10xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall determine the clean energy adjustment payable by all specified consumers in respect of each month in a reference period by adding the estimated finance amount in respect of the reference period to the true up amount in respect of the reference period.

Estimated finance amount, true up amount

(2) The estimated finance amount and the true up amount shall be determined in accordance with the regulations.

Regulations re true up amount

(3) The regulations under subsection (2) shall have regard to the following principles:

Confidential Draft

1. The true up amount should serve to ensure that the collection of the clean energy adjustment is sufficient to pay the finance amount when it is due.

2. The method for determining the true up amount should take into account historical and reasonably foreseeable,

    i. differences between the estimated and actual finance amount for the immediately preceding reference period,

    ii. differences between amounts invoiced and amounts collected due to various factors, including applicable taxes, consumer defaults and delays, billing lags and write-offs, and

    ii. variations in billings due to variations in electricity consumption.

Financial Services Manager to notify Board

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall, in accordance with the regulations, notify the Board of the clean energy adjustment and such other information related to the determination of the clean energy adjustment as may be prescribed. [OEB Note to Draft: The regulations will need to provide a timeline within which this information has to be provided if there are timelines for the setting of rates applicable to the OEB under (5)]

Board to determine rates

(5) The Board shall, in accordance with the regulations, determine the rate at which specified consumers are invoiced to recover the clean energy adjustment as notified to it under subsection (4) in respect of the reference period. [OEB Note to Draft: (1) Do you need to contemplate the possibility that different CEA rates may be required for different specified consumers (i.e., consumers on RPP vs. others?) (2) The OEB will likely need consumption information from the IESO in order to do this. See our proposed new section at the end.]

IESO to receive amounts

11xx. (2) The IESO shall, as an agent of the investment interest owners, receive amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment paid to it from electricity vendors in accordance with the regulations and the market rules made under section 32 of the Electricity Act, 1998.

Account

(3) All of the following amounts received by the IESO shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner in accordance with subsection (5), be deposited promptly into an account established for the purposes of receiving those amounts:

1. Amounts described in subsection 11xx (2).

Confidential Draft

2. Payments made by specified consumers directly to the IESO as electricity vendor under subsection 8xx (1).

Same, held in trust

(4) All amounts received by the IESO in respect of the clean energy adjustment shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner, be received and held in trust by the IESO for the investment interest owners or a secured party to whom a security interest in an investment interest is granted under this Act.

IESO to remit

(5) The IESO shall remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment to or for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendor to invoice specified consumers

12xx. (1) Each electricity vendor shall issue an invoice to each of its specified consumers for the amount payable by the consumer in respect of the clean energy adjustment, as determined by applying the rate set by the Board under subsection 10xx (2) and in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: It remains unclear to us whether this is a separate invoice or the normal utility bill. Requiring LDCs to issue separate bills will increase their billing costs and create customer confusion.]

Electricity vendor to report

(1.1) Each electricity vendor shall, in accordance with the regulations, promptly report to the IESO the total amount invoiced to its specified consumers in respect of the clean energy adjustment, the amount collected and such further information as may be prescribed.

Electricity vendor to collect

(2) Each electricity vendor shall, as agent of the investment interest owners, collect amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment from specified consumers in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: Having LDCs use a collection process for the CEA that is different from a collection process for the rest of the bill will be an issue for them (assuming that the CEA is invoiced on the normal utility bill). The OEB has requirements that LDCs have to follow in relation to invoicing and that apply to the rest of the bill. Depending on what collection means, there could be a conflict.]

Pro rating of payments

(3) If an electricity vendor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a specified consumer in respect of amounts payable under one or more invoices and the amount paid is less than the total amount payable, the electricity vendor shall allocate the payment on a pro rata basis to the clean energy adjustment and other amounts payable under the relevant invoices in respect of electricity charges in respect of the same period. [OEB Note to Draft: See our concerns on our earlier draft about whether LDCs can track this way]

Held in trust

(4) Payments received by an electricity vendor from or on behalf of specified consumers shall, until paid to or for the benefit of the investment interest owner in accordance with subsection (5), be received by and held by each electricity vendor in trust for the benefit of the investment interest owners.

Remittance to IESO

(5) Each electricity vendor shall remit amounts described in subsection (5) to the IESO for the benefit of the investment interest owners in accordance with the regulations.

PART IV
IMPLEMENTATION

FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER

Appointment

13xx. (1) Subject to subsection (2), Ontario Power Generation Inc. is appointed as the Financial Services Manager for the purposes of this Act.

Replacement

(2) The Minister may terminate an appointment of a Financial Services Manager and may, in accordance with the regulations, appoint a new person or entity as the Financial Services Manager.

Duties and powers

14xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall perform the duties assigned to it under this Act and may administer the investment asset on behalf of the investment interest owners.

Same

(2) The administration of the investment asset may include the following:

1. Providing information, in accordance with the regulations, to the Board in respect of ~~funding obligations and~~ the Board's determination of the clean energy adjustment rate under ~~in accordance with~~ subsection 10(5)~~xx~~. [OEB Note to Draft: Our proposed new provision at the end would eliminate the need for this item. In addition, why does the OEB need information regarding "funding obligations" and the determination of the CEA itself, which we understand to be a global dollar amount that we are expected to take from the FSM without question to derive the CEA rate?]

2. Providing information to the IESO in respect of obligations under Part III.

3. Such other matters as may be prescribed.

Review of costs

(3) The Board shall review the administrative costs of the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the regulations. [OEB Note to Draft: We still do not know what these costs are; what the purpose of the review is; what process we are expected to use for this review and whether an order of some kind will be required; and whether the review has any consequence for anything else that we need to think about in relation to this responsibility. We understand that some of this may be suitable for regulations, but we are not convinced that this can override the OEB Act provisions relating to hearings. This is addressed in our proposed new provision at the end]

FAIR ALLOCATION AMOUNT

Financial Services Manager to calculate fair allocation amount

15xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in respect of each reference period, having regard to the need to align that amount with the finance amount payable during the reference period, for the purpose of fairly measuring and allocating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits among the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

Timing of calculation

(1.1) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in respect of each reference period before any funding obligation is incurred [by a financing entity during the reference period].

Amount

(1.2) The fair allocation amount in respect of a reference period is the sum of the following amounts:

1. The amount, if any, by which, if this Act had not been enacted, the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits allocated to specified consumers in respect of the reference period would have exceeded the estimated amount of the adjustments provided for under section 25.33 of the Electricity Act, 1998 and the regulations made under that provision that would have been borne by the specified consumers in respect of clean energy costs for the reference period.

Confidential Draft

2. A portion of the value of any fair adjustment that has been made under Part II in respect of any previous reference period.

Principles

(2) In calculating the estimated clean energy costs and estimated clean energy benefits to be allocated to specified consumers in respect of a reference period, the Financial Services Manager shall [comply with the regulations and] have regard to the following principles:

1. Clean energy costs allocated to specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be allocated in proportion to the clean energy benefits attributed to the specified consumers in respect of the reference period.

2. The clean energy benefits allocated to the specified consumers in respect of a reference period should be determined in accordance with the regulations.
3. The fair allocation calculation should include reasonable assumptions regarding the following:

    i. The time value of money or the rate of inflation, for the purpose of equating nominal amounts over time.

    ii. The expected number of specified consumers in respect of each reference period.

    iii. The expected electricity consumption rates in respect of each reference period.

Method

(3) The Financial Services Manager shall calculate a fair allocation amount in accordance with such methods as the Financial Services Manager considers appropriate, having regard to the requirements of this Act.

Notification to Minister

(4) The Financial Services Manager shall notify the Minister of the methods used to calculate the fair allocation amount and any changes to those methods.

Effective date

(6) The fair allocation calculation or an amendment to the fair allocation calculation takes effect on the day that is 30 days after the fair allocation calculation or the amendment, as the case may be, is provided to the Minister in writing.

Confidential Draft

Publication

(7) The Minister shall ensure that the fair allocation calculation and any amendments to it are made available to the public in a manner that the Minister considers appropriate.

FINANCING PLAN

Financial Services Manager to prepare Financing Plan

16xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall prepare a written plan entitled the Financing Plan to be used by the Financial Services Manager to evaluate whether potential funding obligations should be incurred for the purposes of acquiring an investment interest in accordance with this Act.

Plan to be provided to Minister

(1.1) The Financial Services Manager shall provide the Financing Plan to the Minister.

Principles

(2) In preparing the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager shall have regard to the following principles:

1. Any incurrence of a funding obligation should reasonably align with the estimated finance amount, as determined in accordance with the regulations, that would, subject to any refinancing, become due and payable during a reference period with the fair allocation amount determined in respect of the reference period under this Part as of the time of the incurrence, in each case after reducing the fair allocation calculation by the amount of any fair adjustment in respect of the reference period.

2. Incurrences should be implemented in a manner that, in the opinion of the Financial Services Manager, is reasonable, cost effective and that reflects prevailing market terms and conditions.

3. Reasonable assumptions should be made regarding such matters as may be prescribed.

Limitation, first five year period

(4) In respect of each reference period from May 1, 2017 to April 30, 2022, no funding obligation shall be incurred that would become payable during the reference period and result in amounts payable in respect of the clean energy adjustment in respect of the reference period unless,

Confidential Draft

(a) no fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period; or

(b) if a fair adjustment has been made under Part II in respect of the reference period, the funding obligations incurred would not be payable during the reference period in an amount that exceeds the [difference between the fair allocation amount in respect of the reference period and the amount of the fair adjustment in respect of the reference period].

Other reports

(3.1) The Financial Services Manager shall submit to the Minister such reports and information as the Minister may require from time to time and shall, if required by the Minister to do so, examine, report and advise on any question relating to the Financing Plan.

Confidentiality

(5) The following are deemed to be records subject to clauses 18 (1) (c) and (d) of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act:

1. The Financing Plan.

2. Reports referred to in subsection (3.1).

3. Any other document that would reveal information contained in the Financing Plan or the reports.

Amendments to plan

(6) The Financial Services Manager may amend the Financing Plan at any time.

Same

(7) In the event that the Financing Plan is amended, any reference in this section to the Financing Plan is deemed to be a reference to the plan as amended.

Implementation of Financing Plan

17xx. (1) The Financial Services Manager shall incur funding obligations in material conformity with the applicable Financing Plan.

Same

(2) For greater certainty, subsection 17xx (5) applies despite the failure of the Financial Services Manager to comply with subsection (1). [OEB Note to Draft: There is no 17(5).]

Financing entities

(3) In accordance with the Financing Plan, the Financial Services Manager may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities that may incur funding obligations.

Prohibition

(3.1) The Financial Services Manager shall not provide for funding obligations to be incurred with any recourse to any assets of an electricity vendor, the Board, Ontario Power Generation Inc., the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, except to the extent that any of these persons or entities may be liable to perform obligations or duties arising under this Act or under the express terms of a funding obligation or other agreement. [OEB Note to Draft: We remain of the view that the OEB's assets should be immune from recourse whether or not the OEB has responsibilities under this Act.]

Effect of amendment to fair allocation amount

(4) Each funding obligation incurred and each transfer made by a financing entity is deemed to be consistent with the Financing Plan and [the fair allocation amount].

PART V
THE REGULATORY ASSET

IESO funding shortfall

20xx. (1) The IESO funding shortfall for each month shall be determined in accordance with the regulations.

Electricity vendors to provide information

(2) Electricity vendors shall provide to IESO such information as IESO may reasonably request for the purposes of determining the IESO shortfall under subsection (1) and such further information as may be prescribed.

Same

(3) IESO may rely on information provided by electricity vendors for the purposes of the determination under subsection (1).

Variance account to be established, maintained

20.1xx (1) The IESO shall establish and maintain a variance account for the purposes of this section.

Confidential Draft

2. All payments received by the IESO resulting from the exercise of the right of recovery under section 21xx and any transfer under section 22xx.

3. Such other adjustments as may be prescribed.

Recording determinative

(3) Subject to any finding of [manifest error], a recording by the IESO in the variance account of the balance is, as of the time of the recording, determinative of the balance at the time.

Rights of investment interest owner

(4) No change made by IESO to the balance in the variance account shall, if the previous balance was relied upon by an investment interest owner in the context of a transfer under section 22x, affect the rights of the investment interest owner acquired under the transfer.

Regulatory asset established

21xx. (1) The IESO has the right, exercisable in accordance with this Act and the regulations, to recover the balance recorded in the variance account from specified consumers.

Limitation

(2) Despite subsection (1), the IESO shall not be entitled to collect all or part of the balance recorded in the variance account from specified consumers before May 1, 2022.

Board to set rates

(3) The Board shall, from time to time, determine and set rates payable by specified consumers to allow for IESO to recover the balance recorded in the variance account. [OEB Note to Draft: We understand that some details may be suitable for regulations, but we are not convinced that this can override the OEB Act provisions relating to hearings. This is addressed in our proposed new provision at the end. If this is going to be implemented through RPP prices, O. Reg. 95/05 will presumably need to be amended accordingly at some point.]

Same, limitations

(4) The Board's powers under subsection (3) shall be exercised in accordance with the regulations.

Same

(3) Upon transfer, the financing entity acquires an investment interest and becomes an investment asset owner.

Validity of transfer

23xx. (1) A transfer of a regulatory asset under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer to the investment interest owner of the regulatory asset.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), any transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of IESO's right to recover the IESO funding shortfall, and not merely as a security interest, and upon the absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the regulatory asset, including all rights to recover the IESO funding shortfall.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of a regulatory asset is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the transferee shall have priority over any liens in favour of those persons.

PART VI

4. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to impose, attribute, charge and invoice for amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment.

5. The right to enforce the duties and obligations under this Act of each electricity vendor to collect, receive and remit amounts received by it in respect of the clean energy adjustment, including all collections and the proceeds of any enforcement action undertaken by an electricity vendor to recover payment of amounts in respect of the clean energy adjustment.

6. All rights of any kind related to any of the other property rights or interests that comprise the investment interest.

7. All revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds of or derived from the rights described in paragraphs 1 to 6, regardless of whether it is invoiced, collected and maintained together with or commingled with other revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds.

Exercise of rights

(3) The rights of the investment asset owner to collect and enforce its rights and interests in, to and in respect of the investment asset against a specified consumer shall be exercised in accordance with Part III of this Act. [OEB Note to Draft: Presumably, this means that the rights and interests will be through the electricity vendors acting as their agents? If so, what does that mean for LDCs?]

Collective action required

(4) If the investment interest owner owns a right or interest in the investment asset that comprises less than the entire property right and interest constituted by the investment asset, the right or interest shall only be enforced by the investment interest owner collectively and in coordination with all other investment interest owners, and any agreement among that collective in furtherance of the collective action shall be valid and binding on the investment interest owner as a collective in accordance with its terms.

Transfer of investment interest

26xx. An investment interest owner may transfer all or a portion of its rights and interests in an investment interest to any other investment interest owner, including by way of a transfer of a divided or an undivided interest, in accordance with the Financing Plan.

Validity of transfer

27xx. (1) A transfer of an investment interest under this Act is a valid and enforceable sale and absolute transfer of the investment interest and confers upon the investment asset owner a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable investment interest in accordance with the terms of the transfer.

Same

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a transfer that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as an absolute transfer of an investment interest owner's right, title and interest in, to and under an investment interest, and not merely as a security interest, and upon such absolute transfer the transferor shall retain no right, title or interest in the investment interest, subject to the transfer, including all rights to the investment interest arising after the transfer.

Deemed perfection, etc.

(3) At the time a transfer of an investment interest is made, the transfer shall be deemed to have been and shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferor and all other persons who have claims of any kind against the transferor.

Priority of transfer, assignment, etc.

(4) Subsection (3) applies regardless of whether the persons who have claims have received notice of the transfer and the property rights and interests acquired by the investment interest owner shall have priority over any liens in favour of such other persons.

Investment interest owner may grant security interest

28xx. (1) An investment interest owner may grant a security interest over all or a specified portion of its right, title and interest in, to and under the investment interest to or in favour of any person to secure a funding obligation.

Validity

(2) A security interest granted under this Act shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Perfection and priority of security interests

(3) All provisions of the Personal Property Security Act shall apply to the investment asset and each investment interest on the basis that it is intangible personal property, except as otherwise provided for in this section, and any granting of a security interest by the investment interest owner to secure a funding obligation shall, subject to the terms of the funding obligation, give rise to a security interest in respect of which that Act applies and may be perfected by filing a financing statement under that Act on that basis.

Proceeds

(4) All proceeds of an investment interest that are subject to the security interest and that are received by the applicable investment interest owner shall immediately be subject to the security interest and shall be perfected without any physical delivery of the proceeds, registration of any financing statement or any further act.

Perfection

(5) The security interest shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may subsequently attach to the property rights and interests in the investment interest subject to the security interest, subject to the written consent of the person to whom the security interest has been granted.

Definition

(8) For the purposes of this section, a security interest is perfected when it is perfected as described in the Personal Property Security Act.

PART VI

[OEB Note to Draft: In the interests of time, we have not reviewed the section below in detail. However, without a better understanding, it raises a question about the continued viability of section 79.16(3) of the OEB Act, which we address below.]

200.1xx (1) Subsection 25.33 (1) of the Act is amended by striking out "and" at the end of clause (a) and by adding the following clauses:

[8] FLS: These amendments are drawn from previous drafting contained in gov2016.146.e05 (which was drafted as amendments to the EA, 1998).

(c) amounts paid to or received from a [prescribed] financial services entity or [a financing entity prescribed under] the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and any related amounts; and engaging in activities to facilitate the implementation of that Act, including entering into contracts and undertakings on behalf of financing entities, subject to the right to be paid by the financing entities for those services.

(b) the assets and liabilities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. or any of its subsidiaries shall not form part of the assets and liabilities of a financing entity.

Definition, financing entity

(1.4) For the purposes of this section, "financing entity" has the same meaning as in the Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

AMENDMENTS TO ONTARIO ENERGY BOARD ACT, 1998

204x. Subsection 1 (1) of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by adding the following paragraph:

~~6. To facilitate the implementation of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.~~ [OEB Note to Draft: We remain of the view that this is ill-advised. On the earlier draft we noted that, among other things, this could affect the setting of payment amounts for OPG by requiring us to include the effect, if any, of the Fair Hydro Plan on OPG's financing costs in determining a reasonable cost of capital, which represents a major cost component of the price setting and could adversely affect all ratepayers. If this were to be an objective, it will by definition have to be considered whenever we exercise any part of our mandate, and we understand that this is not the intention. In the context of distribution and transmission rates, this could potentially affect utility financial viability or reliability of service if it comes into play in setting their rates.]

205x. Subsection 70 (2.1) of the Act is amended by adding the following paragraph:

4. The licensee is required to comply with the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

205.1x Section 70 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by adding the following subsection:

(2.3) Every licence issued to a unit sub-meter provider is deemed to contain the condition that the unit sub-meter provider is required to comply with the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 and the regulations made under it.

206x. Section 78.1 of the Act is amended by adding the following subsection:

Same, limitation re Ontario Power Generation Inc.

(3) The determination of a payment to Ontario Power Generation Inc. under this section shall not include any consideration of amounts related to activities of Ontario Power Generation Inc. carried out in relation to the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

Same

(3.1) The amounts referred to in subsection (3) include, without limitation, the following:

1. Amounts related to the appointment of Ontario Power Generation Inc. as the Financial Services Manager under the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017.

2. Amounts related to the charging of fees for performing duties as the Financial Services Manager.

3. Amounts related to exercising the powers and performing the duties of the Financial Services Manager.

4. Amounts related to the consolidation of the assets and liabilities for accounting purposes of any special purpose financing entities established under and for the purposes of that Act.

207xx. Section 79.16 of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 is amended by deleting subsection (3). [OEB Note to Draft: We are concerned that, with the different changes set out in this Act (including notably the changes to 25.33 above), the impact of which is not yet known, the obligation to clear variance accounts will not be feasible in the way that it is today, and could cause the OEB to act in violation of this subsection. If it is relevant in the future, it can be added to O. Reg. 95/05].

All - Thank you for the detailed comments that you provided on Saturday and Sunday. Please find attached the next turn of the legislation. We have tried to balance the comments that we received to address the points that you have raised. This draft does not reflect the drafting points that were raised over Monday and Tuesday and we will reflect those points in our next instructions to legislative counsel. Please review and identify any significant substantive issues by 6 p.m. today. We continue to work toward pens down on Friday, meaning the draft that we have at that point in time will be proposed for introduction in the House. Thank you again for your contributions to this process.

All - Please find attached the next turn in the consultation draft (v.3) of the proposed legislation. We have been working to address the feedback that you provided earlier in the week. A number of points remain in progress. As with the earlier versions, by sharing this document, we hope to continue to advance our discussions.

Our timeline has been extended and we are now working to a pens down date of April 28th. We will not get another extension. Accordingly, we ask for your detailed, written comments on the draft, which we require no later than Sunday at noon.

We will continue to work on the bill in the interim, so earlier instructions are helpful to us. With your input on this timeline, we expect to be able to provide one more circulation around Tuesday or Wednesday next week.

We have not had the opportunity to add notes or to update our crosswalk to the Blakes summary document.

We look forward to receiving your written comments.

All - Please find attached the draft “Intergenerational Fairness in Hydro Rates Act, 2017”. A tremendous amount of work has gone into getting to this draft and much more work is required to get this ready for the House. The goal of sharing this document now is to further the process we have engaged in over the last weeks. In the attached, we have included notes to try to address where the drafting is not yet consistent with our thinking. These notes are neither comprehensive nor complete. They are intended only as flags and as colour to the draft. We have not forgotten the comments that you have already provided and we are continuing to working through the translation of the commercial terms we have been discussing into legislative language.

For ease of reference, included with the draft bill are the partially updated Blakes’ summary, a chart that attempts links the articles in that document to the sections of the bill (which is imperfectly numbered at best) and excerpts from the Electricity Act and the Ontario Energy Board Act, related to the consequential amendments.

In your review, please focus on the broad stroke concepts, rather than the minutia, and keep in mind the cascade of instruments that will be required – legislation first, then regulations and finally commercial agreements. We look forward to discussing the broader concepts on Monday

Hi Suzie.

Thanks for your feedback on the draft doc. I'm back on line now and I know that Cindy is on her way to the meeting location. I have inserted comments for your consideration, in response to your observations. Please note that Cindy has not had a chance to review these. Nadine

Cindy – please see A11 and A15 in particular. Good to know that OFA will be participating in today's call as they need to be aware of contingency related discussions. I had requested in Monday's meeting that the contingencies be documented so that they can be considered by both OPCD and OPG in the 'control' analysis. I haven't heard if and when we might expect to receive those details. Nadine

Hi Cindy/Nadine:

Attached are our comments. We haven't been able to do a deep dive into any of the issues given the timelines and limited info but we have identified risk areas and some points for clarification to help us better understand the proposed structure.

At a high level, we don't see any new issues or obvious items in the legislation where the wording elevates a previously identified risk. We generally feel that the memos supporting control by OPG and the related consolidation as well as the existence and recognition of the regulated asset are the most significant issues at the moment.

I am able to join the call 2-5 and Lee Anne will join 2-3.

Please let us know if you'd like to discuss any of our comments before the call.

Thanks,

Suzie

Comment Draft: April 10, 2017

CONFIDENTIAL AND PRIVILEGED

Preliminary Draft for Discussion Purposes Only

"Fair Hydro Act"

Article 1 – Purpose

The Province has and continues to encourage the construction and development of facilities for the long-term operation and generation of electricity in the Province using sustainable, lower carbon-based technologies such as new gas-fired generation, renewable facilities, energy from waste and biomass, including under the Province's various procurement, standard offer, feed in tariff and other similar programs (the "Green Generation Initiative"). The long-term benefits of the Green Generation Initiative accrue over time and have benefited and will benefit present and future electricity consumers in the Province.

The imputed costs of the Green Generation Initiative are currently passed through to electricity consumers by way of a monthly adjustment amount (the "Green Costs Adjustment"), which in turn forms part of the overall adjustment calculated by the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO") pursuant to section 25.33 of, and O.Reg. 429/4 under, the Electricity Act (the "Global Adjustment"). The Global Adjustment is included as a charge billed to electricity consumers in their monthly electricity invoices.

The Green Costs Adjustment is currently determined each month by reference to the amounts paid by IESO to the generators of electricity in the Province under the Green Generation Initiative, which may be higher than prevailing market price for electricity. These differences arise because IESO has entered into long-term procurement contracts with such generators in order to provide them with long-term price certainty for electricity, and in turn to encourage the generators to develop technologies and to construct and develop facilities consistent with the Green Generation Initiative. In general, whenever amounts payable under these procurement contracts exceed the market price for electricity, the Green Costs Adjustment passes through the amount of such differences as part of the monthly charge to electricity consumers. Such amount then becomes available to IESO to meet its obligations under the procurement contracts. It has been determined that the useful lives of many of the assets encouraged by the Green Generation Initiative will be well in excess of the respective terms of the related procurement contracts, and in many cases may extend over more than one generation of electricity consumers.

Since the benefits to past, present and future electricity consumers from the Green Generation Initiative will not necessarily coincide with the costs currently attributed through the Green Costs Adjustment, based on the respective durations of the procurement contracts, it has been determined that the rate at which the costs associated with the Green Generation Initiative should be passed through to Retail Consumers (as defined in Article 2) should be more closely aligned with the benefits that such Retail Consumers have derived and are expected to derive from the Green Generation Initiative over time. This realignment will be based on principles and parameters that establish a reasonable basis for measuring and allocating the relative costs and benefits of the Green Generation Initiative equitably across present and future Retail Consumers (the "Fair Allocation Plan").

If the Fair Allocation Plan determines that the equitable allocation of the costs associated with the Green Generation Initiative to the Retail Consumers of a particular time period should be reduced below the amount that currently would be charged based on the Green Costs

Commented [A1]: My notes from the last call indicate that OPG and TBS were going to create a document with the issues they foresee – is that available to us?

OPCD – To clarify, OPG and IESO have been leading on identifying any potential issues from their respective viewpoints. The revised drafts have attempted to address the issues on an on-going basis. OPG and IESO (and their advisors are expected to participate on today's call and comment on any outstanding issues).

Commented [A2]: My notes also indicate that Cindy had asked to walk through the debits and the credits – can we get that to better understand the proposed structure and entries? OPCD- an update to the model and walkthrough has been initiated, based on the current assumptions.

Adjustment, then the amount payable by such Retail Consumers and in turn available to IESO will, in the aggregate, be less than the amount payable by the IESO to the generators in respect of such period. In this case IESO will need to obtain funding from another source to cover such a shortfall. If a funding obligation is incurred by IESO to cover such a shortfall during one period, the repayment of such funding obligation will be required in a future period, and any related repayments, finance costs, hedging costs and other transaction costs incurred will become payable in one or more future periods. In order for IESO to obtain a reliable and committed source of cash flows to enable IESO to repay such funding amounts when they become due and payable, this Act imposes irrevocable and non-bypassable financial obligations on Retail Consumers to pay amounts incurred in respect of such funding obligations when they become due and payable and establishes a right to invoice and collect such amounts. The right and interest in and to collect such financial obligations will take the form of the Regulatory Asset contemplated in this Act, which will constitute property rights and interests. Interests in the Regulatory Asset may be sold and absolutely assigned by IESO to one or more financing entities, which in turn will finance their acquired interests by incurring funding obligations. The incurrence and payment of such funding obligations will be administered on behalf such financing entities by a financial services agent under the Financing Plan contemplated in this Act. The Financing Plan will seek to reasonably match the payment obligations arising under such funding obligations, to be borne by the future Retail Consumers of the period in which such payment obligations become due, with the benefits of the Green Generation Initiative allocated to such future Retail Consumers under the Fair Allocation Plan.

The purpose of this Act is to establish the basis upon which intergenerational fairness can be achieved by charging the costs and benefits of the Green Generation Initiative to present and future Retail Consumers on an equitable and cost effective basis.

Article 2 - Definitions

In this Act:

> "Absolute Assignee" means a person to whom a Regulatory Asset Owner effects a Disposition.
> "Actual" means, in relation to costs, expenses or payments in respect of Funding Obligations during a Reference Period, the actual amount of such costs, expenses or payments paid or made (net of any Finance Reserve Withdrawals applied to pay such amounts), which amounts shall be recorded by the Financial Services Agent whose records shall be determinative for the purposes of this Act except to the extent of a manifest calculation error.
> "Additional Funding Charges" means, for a Reference Period in respect of an Absolute Assignee, the fees, charges, expenses, costs, indemnities, reimbursements and other amounts (including any applicable tax amounts) that are or become payable by or on behalf of the Absolute Assignee during the Reference Period and that were incurred or committed to directly or indirectly by the Absolute Assignee in connection with the incurrence of Funding Obligations under the Financing Plan (whether at the time of such incurrence or over the term of the Funding Obligation and whether directly or indirectly), including (without duplication and without limitation): (a) any payment required under an ancillary agreement entered into by, or by the Financial Services Agent on behalf of, the Absolute Assignee under the Financing Plan; (b) any federal, provincial or local taxes, payments in lieu of taxes, franchise fees or license fees imposed on the Absolute

Commented [A3]:
Risk #1 – based on earlier discussions, concern that this cannot be recognized under the IESO accounting framework. (OPCD – IESO accounting under PSAB, being addressed)

Risk #2 – risk that this does not meet definition of an RRA – need to see KPMG paper to analyse (KPMG paper is a WIP, to be based on model specifics.)

Risk #3 - Even if considered an RRA and recognized, risk is that AG feels it does not meet definition or is not recognizable which could result in elimination of the asset in consolidated entity (OPCD – expect that remaining balance on IESO books at year-end would be immaterial)

Risk #4 – if any asset left in IESO at any date, risk that AG does not agree that it is recognizable under PSAB. OPCD --- desirable to defend recognition on Province's books under PSAB (E&Y input requested)

Commented [A4]: To confirm understanding
Financing entity – the Trust
Financial Services Agent - OPG
Absolute Assignee – the Trust (OPCD – Expect Energy to clarify on call)

Assignee or incurred by on behalf of the Absolute Assignee under any obligation to pay tax gross-up amounts to counterparties under Funding Obligations; (c) any amounts payable to the Financial Services Agent, including amounts payable to its advisors and outside counsel; (d) any amounts incurred to prepare, confirm, amend and implement the Financing Plan; (e) any amounts payable to any Alternative Collection Agent or Alternative Servicer, including amounts payable to each's advisors and outside counsel; (f) any amounts incurred to make the calculations, determinations or confirmations to be made by or on behalf of the Absolute Assignee; (g) any servicing fees and expenses; (h) any trustee fees and expenses; (i) any legal fees, expenses and disbursements; (j) any accounting fees and expenses; (k) any administrative fees and expenses; (l) any manager or director fees of a Financing Entity; (m) any registration fees and expenses; (n) any placement fees, underwriting fees, fees and related issuing expenses; (o) any rating agency fees; and (p) any other related fees, charges, expenses, costs, indemnities, reimbursements and other amounts that are approved in good faith by the Financial Services Agent for recovery and payment under the Financing Plan.

"Allocation Factor" means, in respect of a Retail Consumer for a Reference Period, the number (expressed as a percentage) determined in respect of the Retail Consumer by the OEB based on the application of the Attribution Methodology in respect of the Reference Period.[1]

"Alternative Collection Agent" means a person appointed under Section 5(11) and in compliance with the requirements set out in Schedule 2 to assume the collection activities and activities of any Electricity Distributor or IESO under Article 5, as agent for and on behalf of the Regulatory Asset Owners.

"Alternative Servicer" means a person appointed under Section 4(8) to assume the obligations of the Servicer under Article 4, as agent for and on behalf of the Regulatory Asset Owners.

"Assessed Past Green Transition Costs" means, in respect of a Measurement Date, the aggregate of the imputed costs of the Green Generation Initiative (expressed as an equivalent to current dollars), as reflected in the calculation of the Green Costs Adjustment, which have been charged to Retail Customers through the Global Adjustment on or prior to the Measurement Date.

"Attribution Methodology"[2] means the methodology specified in the Fair Allocation Plan for allocating the Period Transition Charges for a Reference Period to individual Retail Consumers of the applicable Retail Consumer Group based on its Allocation Factor.

"Collected Amount Adjustment" means, in respect of a True-Up Period, the amount (which may be a negative amount) calculated by the Servicer or the Financial Services

[1] Confirm that this will be based on forecast volumes of demand (like RPP). To the extent amounts do not get recovered due to differences between forecast and actual, those may be identified and caught by the True-Up.

[2] This allocation may be volumetric or some combination of a flat amount and a volumetric charge. Further discussion is required. H&W has raised a concern regarding possible adverse changes after the fact and rating agency considerations. Consider whether hard-coding in the legislation makes sense.

Agent, as applicable, equal to (a) the Estimate of the Finance Amount for the True-Up Period, minus (b) the sum of all Transition Charge Collections for the True-Up Period.[3]

"Collective Rights Agreement" means an agreement among all of the Regulatory Asset Owners (including each Absolute Assignee) and each Pledgee that governs the enforcement of their respective rights and interests in, to and under the Regulatory Asset on a coordinated and collective basis.[4]

"Delegate" means the person or persons designated in writing from time to time by the Minister of Energy to undertake the actions and perform the responsibilities ascribed to the "Delegate" under this Act.

"Disposition" means an assignment, transfer, conveyance, sale, contribution, set-over, exchange or other disposition of an Investment Interest to an Absolute Assignee pursuant to a Disposition Document.

"Disposition Document" means the agreement, deed, conveyance, instrument or other document under which a Regulatory Asset Owner effects a Disposition to an Absolute Assignee.

"Electricity Distributor" means, in respect of a Service Area, the rate regulated distributor licensed under Part V of the Ontario Energy Board Act, 1998 in respect of such Service Area, together with and its successors.

"Electricity Distributor Remittances" means, for an Electricity Distributor on a Remittance Date, all Transition Charge Collections received or deemed to be received by the Electricity Distributor prior to the Remittance Date and that have not otherwise been remitted to IESO or if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent in accordance with Section 5(3), including the proceeds of any enforcement action undertaken by the Electricity Distributor or if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent to recover payment of Transition Charges in accordance with Article 5.

"Electricity Invoice" means an invoice issued by any of a Electricity Distributor (or in its stead, by an Alternative Servicer), by the Servicer or by a Retailer, in each case to a Retail Consumer that is served by the Electricity Distributor's distribution system in respect of electricity charges, including the cost of electricity, delivery and regulatory charges and related services and amounts incurred, assessed or charged in respect of connectivity to a distribution network in the Electricity Distributor's designated Service Area and in respect of applicable Transition Charges to be charged to the Retail Consumer under this Act.

"Estimate" means (a) in relation to costs, expenses or payments in respect of Funding Obligations or any Finance Amount for a Reference Period, the estimated amount of such costs, expenses or payments determined by the Financial Services Agent; and (b) in relation to an assessment of the benefits of the Green Generation Initiative to any

[3] This would pick up adjustments based on actual collection experience, changes in the retail consumer base, changes in the actual costs (versus earlier estimates) included in the Transition Charge calculation, etc.

[4] Consider adding the Financial Services Agent and the Servicer as parties.

Retail Consumer Group, the estimated value (in current dollars) of such benefits determined by the Delegate, in each case having regard to the applicable principles and parameters set out in Schedule 1, which estimated amounts shall be determinative as the applicable estimate for the purposes of this Act except to the extent of a manifest calculation error.

"Estimated Future Green Transition Benefits" means, in respect of a Measurement Date, the Estimate set forth in the Fair Allocation Plan prepared in accordance with Article 7 of the aggregate value (measured in current dollars) of the benefits that are expected to accrue to Retail Consumers from the establishment and implementation of the Green Generation Initiative during the period from the Measurement Date to the Program-End Date.

"Estimated Past Green Transition Benefits" means, in respect of a Measurement Date, the Estimate set forth in the Fair Allocation Plan prepared in accordance with Article 7 of the aggregate value (measured in current dollars) of the benefits that have accrued to Retail Consumers from the establishment and implementation of the Green Generation Initiative up to and including the Measurement Date.

"Fair Allocation Plan" has the meaning given in Article 1.

"Finance Amount" means, for a Reference Period in respect of an Absolute Assignee, the sum (without duplication) of the following amounts that are or become payable during the Reference Period in respect of the Absolute Assignee: (a) Repayments; (b) Funding Costs; (c) Redemption Amounts; (d) Finance Reserve Deposits; and (e) Additional Funding Charges.

"Finance Reserve Deposits" means, for a Reference Period, the amount by which (a) deposits made or to be made during the Reference Period in order to pre-fund, collateralize, over-collateralize or establish reserves for the ultimate payment of Funding Obligations or for related contingencies specified in the Financing Plan, exceed (b) any Finance Reserve Withdrawals.

"Finance Reserve Withdrawals" means, for a Reference Period, the amount withdrawn during the Reference Period from deposits previously made to pre-fund, collateralize, over-collateralize or establish reserves for the payment of Funding Obligations or to pay amounts in respect of related contingencies that had been specified in the Financing Plan.

"Financial Services Agent" means OPG or, following any Replacement Event, such other person or persons who may be appointed as the Financial Services Agent of the Absolute Assignees under the Financing Plan in compliance with the requirements set out in Schedule 2.[5]

Commented [A5]: Risk - what are the terms and conditions that allow for control/consolidation of the Trust in OPG? Need the financing plan and terms of the Trust to understand the relationship and risk to Province that it could be seen to control. To be confirmed in OPG paper. (OPG addressing risk of provincial control – paper to follow from OPG)

[5] Discuss whether to accommodate multiple Financial Services Agents. MOE to consider.

"Financing Entity" means an entity established in accordance with the Financing Plan to acquire all or an interest in the Regulatory Asset as an Absolute Assignee and to enter into Funding Obligations to finance such acquisition under the Financing Plan.[6]

"Financing Plan" means the written plan prepared by the Financial Services Agent on behalf of each Absolute Assignee in compliance with Article 9 to set forth the basis upon which, among other things: (a) any Disposition may be made to, financed by or effected by an Absolute Assignee; (b) any Funding Obligations may be incurred by an Absolute Assignee, including any Refinancing; (c) any Pledge may be given or effected; (d) any Funding Obligations may be redeemed, prepaid, repurchased, amended or otherwise effected; (e) any obligations for Additional Funding Charges may be incurred and paid; (f) any Repayments, Funding Costs and Redemption Amounts may be paid or provided for; (g) any Finance Reserve Deposits may be made; (h) any Finance Reserve Withdrawals may be made; (i) the establishment and operation of any Financing Entity may be effected; and (j) the cash flows arising from time to time or otherwise derived from an Investment Interest may otherwise be applied, as the same may be amended, amended and restated or terminated by the Financial Services Agent in compliance with Article 9 from time to time.

"Funding Costs" means, for a Reference Period in respect of an Absolute Assignee, the amount by which (a) the aggregate of all interest and other periodic finance charges accruing due and becoming payable or paid by or on behalf of the Absolute Assignee during the Reference Period in respect of its Funding Obligations, including any standby commitment fees or charges paid to any lender, credit enhancement fees or charges paid to any credit enhancer, liquidity fees or charges paid to any liquidity provider, amounts (including any termination payments) paid under derivatives and any deposit amount made or required to fund or replenish a debt service reserve account or other account established under any indenture, ancillary agreement or other financing document relating to its Funding Obligations, exceeds (b) the aggregate of all amounts received by or on behalf of the Absolute Assignee during the Reference Period in respect of a Funding Obligation, including from any reimbursement of standby commitment fees or charges paid by a lender, any reimbursement of credit enhancement fees or charges paid by any credit enhancer, any reimbursement of liquidity fees or charges paid by any liquidity provider, any amounts (including any termination payments) paid to the Absolute Assignee under derivatives and any Finance Reserve Withdrawal made or required to be made from a debt service reserve account or other account established under any indenture, ancillary agreement or other financing document relating to the payment of the Funding Costs payable in respect of a Funding Obligation for the Reference Period.

"Funding Obligation" means, in respect of an Absolute Assignee, each payment obligation (including each obligation to pay: principal, interest, premiums and other

Commented [A6]: Is this an asset on day 1 related to past amounts charged through that will now be rebated? How does this RRA get created? Is OEB involved in setting future rates for past costs that were already recovered in past rates? We'll these somehow go back to the ratepayer? This will need to be supported in the KPMG paper. A Regulatory Asset and the property rights and interests therein shall exist whether or not Transition Charges have been imposed, charged, invoiced, accrued or collected and notwithstanding that the imposition, attribution, invoicing and collection of Transition Charges will depend on further actions that may not have occurred.

(2) Validity of Dispositions – Despite any limitations or restrictions on a Disposition that may arise by contract or by operation of any applicable law of the Province or any consent requirement applicable to a Disposition that may arise by operation of any applicable law of the Province, a Disposition by IESO to an Absolute Assignee made under the Financing Plan, or by one Absolute Assignee to another Absolute Assignee made under the Financing Plan, shall be permitted and when made shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with the terms of the related Disposition Document and shall be effective to confer upon the Absolute Assignee thereof a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable Investment Interest (or relevant portion thereof) in accordance with the terms of such Disposition, provided that the parties to the applicable Disposition Document have expressly stated therein that such Disposition is a sale or other absolute transfer. Without limiting the foregoing, any Disposition that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as a true sale and absolute transfer of the Regulatory Asset Owner's applicable right, title, and interest in, to and under the Regulatory Asset (or relevant portion thereof), and not merely as a Pledge thereof, and upon such Disposition the assigner or seller under the applicable Disposition Document shall retain no right, title or interest in the Investment Interest subject to the Disposition, including all rights under the Investment Interest arising after such Disposition.

(3) Perfection and Priority of Dispositions – Any Disposition of an interest in a Regulatory Asset shall be vested, valid, binding and perfected from the time when such Disposition is made. Such Disposition shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferring Regulatory Asset Owner and all other persons who have claims of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) against the transferring Regulatory Asset Owner, irrespective of whether such persons have notice of the Disposition and the property rights and interests acquired by the Absolute Assignee under such Disposition shall be free and clear of any liens in favour of such other persons.

(4) Validity of Pledges – Despite any limitations or restriction on a Pledge that may arise by contract or by operation of any applicable law of the Province or any consent requirement applicable to a Pledge that may arise by operation of any applicable law of the Province, a Pledge by an Absolute Assignee may be made to secure any related Funding Obligation and when made shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms and shall be effective to confer upon the Pledgee a valid security interest in, to and in respect of the related Investment Interest in accordance with the terms of the Pledge. Other than as required by the Financing Plan, no consent of any person shall be required to give effect to a Pledge made to secure any Funding Obligation.

(5) Perfection and Priority of Pledges - For purposes of the Personal Property Security Act (the "PPSA"), the Regulatory Asset shall be intangible personal property and any Pledge made by an Absolute Assignee in respect of a Funding Obligation may be perfected by filing a financing statement under the PPSA on that basis. All proceeds of a related Investment Interest that are subject to such a Pledge that are received by the Absolute Assignee shall immediately be subject to the such Pledge, and the security interest in such proceeds shall be perfected pursuant to the PPSA.[17] A Pledge perfected under the PPSA shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien or security interest, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may attach to the property rights and interests in the Investment Interest subject to the Pledge unless the Pledgee has otherwise agreed in writing. Subject to the terms of the Collective Action Agreement, a Pledgee shall have a perfected security interest in a related Investment Interest, including the Absolute Assignee's rights and interests in and to Transition Charge Collections or other related proceeds in respect of the Investment Interest and that are deposited in any Regulatory Asset Account or other account of any Electricity Distributor, IESO, Alternative Collection Agent or other person who may have commingled such Transition Charge Collections or such other proceeds with other funds. All provisions of the PPSA shall apply to the Regulatory Asset on the basis that it is intangible personal property, except to the extent otherwise provided in this Section 6(5).

(6) Enforcement of Property Rights – The rights of any Regulatory Asset Owner to collect and enforce its rights and interests in, to or in respect of the Regulatory Asset shall be exercised in the manner set forth in Article 5.

(7) Owners of a Specified Portion of the Regulatory Asset – A Regulatory Asset Owner may effect a Disposition to an Absolute Assignee of a specified portion of its rights and interests in the Regulatory Asset, including by way of a Disposition of a divided or an undivided interest therein as specified in a related Disposition Document, in each case under the Financing Plan. In no circumstance may the specified portions of the rights and interests in the Regulatory Asset owned by all Regulatory Asset Owners be greater than all of the rights and interests that comprise the Regulatory Asset in the aggregate.

[17] Consider whether to simply leave this and have a financing statement be filed under the PPSA. This would normalize the security interest and reduce any adverse suggestion that security would not otherwise arise.

(8) Collective Action Required – If a Regulatory Asset Owner's rights and interests in the Regulatory Asset comprises less than the entire property right and interest constituted by the Regulatory Asset, such Regulatory Asset Owner shall only enforce such right and interest on a collective and coordinated basis with each other Regulatory Asset Owner in accordance with the Collective Rights Agreement.

Article 7 – Establishment of the Fair Allocation Plan[18]

(1) Adoption of the Fair Allocation Plan – The Delegate may, [by written declaration,] designate and adopt a Fair Allocation Plan in compliance with Article 7. The Fair Allocation Plan so designated and adopted shall be the Fair Allocation Plan for all purposes of this Act, except if amended, amended and restated or terminated by a further written declaration made by the Delegate in compliance with Section 7(4).

(2) Principles and Parameters – A Fair Allocation Plan shall seek to allocate Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits across present and future Retail Consumer Groups on a basis that the Delegate, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines to be equitable, having regard to the following principles and parameters:

1. Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits should be allocated over the period ending on the Program End Date.

2. The Fair Allocation Plan should specify the Reference Periods for the purpose of identifying applicable Retail Consumer Groups and allocating Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits among them on a relative basis over time.

3. The share of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits allocable to a particular Retail Consumer Group in respect of a Reference Period should be proportionate to a reasonable assessment of the benefits of the Green Generation Initiative to the Retail Consumer Group over such Reference Period.

4. The share of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to be allocated to a Retail Consumer Group and any future Retail Consumer Group at a particular time should not exceed the Estimated Future Green Transition Benefits, measured in respect of the Reference Periods following such particular time and to the Program End Date.

5. No future Retail Consumer Group should be allocated an unreasonably disproportionate share of Estimated Future Green Transition Benefits. Except in exceptional circumstances or in the case of any reallocation of an Over-Assessed Amount as contemplated in 7, below, the Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to be allocated under a Fair Allocation Plan to any future

Commented [A11]: Confirm that future fair share of green transition benefits relates to past costs not to future costs related to the program. If future costs, question existence of current period RRA. (OPCD – wording to be reviewed. Intent is to capture 'delta' between IESO cost and LDC cost recovery for purposes of future recovery, and that such capture will happen in regards to current and future costs.)

18 The idea is that the Fair Allocation Plan will be set once at the outset based on the principles and parameters described here, all as applied based on information available and the reasonable expectations and discretion of the delegate at such time. If the expectations are not fulfilled (e.g., generators may choose to retire their facilities at the end of their current procurement contracts and not invest in extending service lives to secure further procurement contracts), the Fair Allocation Plan will be unaffected, unless it is specifically amended (assuming amendments will be permitted by the legislation).

Retail Consumer Group should have regard to [Insert formula if a year-over-year maximum amount is determined to be appropriate].

6. The time value of money should be reflected in the Fair Allocation Plan, in order to equate the relative values of the nominal allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits, calculated in current dollars, to future Retail Consumer Groups over time.

7. To the extent there has been an Over-Assessed Amount, the Fair Allocation Plan may determine that an adjustment should fairly be made to rebate Retail Consumers for such an amount, by reducing the costs otherwise attributable under the Act to such Retail Consumers. The relative costs of the Green Generation Initiative are reflected under the Act by the attribution of Transition Charges to such Consumer Groups, based on the Financing Plan seeking to track the allocations of benefits under the Fair Allocation Plan. Accordingly, the Maximum Transition Charge Amount determined for one or more Retail Consumer Groups having regard to the Fair Allocation Plan otherwise applicable may be appropriately reduced to recognize the effect of the Over-Assessed Amount. In such a case, a determination to reduce the Maximum Transition Charge Amount applicable for certain related Reference Periods should have regard to the principle that the corresponding rebate should be extended to benefit the Consumer Group or Consumer Groups in closest proximity to the Legislative Implementation Date.

Commented [A12]: See comment above - does this create an RRA for IESO and is that supportable? How is OEB involved? KPMG paper will need to support. (OPCD – please see comment above – feedback on paper included with CAB submission would be appreciated.)

(3) Attribution Methodology – The Fair Allocation Plan shall specify the Attribution Methodology for the purposes of allocating the Period Transition Charges across the Retail Consumers of a particular Retail Consumer Group. The Attribution Methodology shall result in an attribution of such Transition Charges that is considered by the Delegate to be equitable, and may have regard to such principles and parameters as may be further set forth in a Regulation.

(4) Amendments of the Fair Allocation Plan – The Fair Allocation Plan may be amended, amended and restated or terminated by the Delegate, provided that such amendment, amendment and restatement or termination shall (a) not be inconsistent with the principles and parameters set forth in (2) or (3), above, or the Regulation and (b) comply with any restrictions or limitations specified with respect thereto in any Funding Obligation.

Article 8 – The IESO Retained Interest

(1) Maintain Books of Account – IESO may maintain books of account to record the IESO Retained Interest Amount and all adjustments thereto from time to time. Such books of account shall be determinative with respect to the amount of IESO's related regulatory asset.

(2) Limitation on Additions – IESO shall not record additions to the IESO Retained Interest Amount in respect of IESO Funding Shortfalls (a) if such additions are restricted by the terms of any Disposition Document or the Collective Action Agreement, or (b) on or after •, 2017.

(3) Dispositions – IESO may effect a Disposition to an Absolute Assignee if (a) the Absolute Assignee has or will concurrently become bound by the Collective Rights Agreement; (b) the Disposition is effected pursuant to a Disposition Agreement duly executed by IESO; (c) the Financial Services Agent confirms in writing that the Disposition is permitted under the Financing Plan; and (d) the net proceeds payable to IESO from the sale of the related Investment Interest would not exceed the IESO Retained Interest Amount immediately before the time of such Disposition.

(4) No Continuing Interest in any Investment Interest – IESO shall have no continuing right or interest in any Investment Interest subject to a Disposition effected by IESO under a Disposition Document to which IESO is a party and IESO shall not assert any such right or interest or take or omit to take any action to exercise or enforce its rights or interests under the IESO Retained Interest if such action or omission would impede or obstruct the rights of any Absolute Assignee or a Pledgee to enforce its rights and interests in any Investment Interest, except if IESO is expressly permitted to take or omit to take such action, respectively, under the related Disposition Document or the Collective Rights Agreement.

(5) IESO Financing Costs – IESO shall be entitled in good faith to incur reasonable financing costs (including interest and other reasonable financing charges) reflecting market terms and conditions and which are payable in arrears, in order to finance its ownership of the IESO Retained Interest from time to time.

(6) IESO Recoveries – IESO shall, in respect of a month, be entitled to receive from IESO Remittances on a related Settlement Date the amount (if any) available to IESO under Section 5(6)(b).

Article 9 – The Financing Plan

Commented [A13]: Comment - keep at OPG level to maintain the control at that level (OPCD – the plan is for OPG to develop)

(1) Power to Prepare, Implement and Amend the Financing Plan – The Financial Services Agent shall be authorized to prepare, implement and amend the Financing Plan. If the Financial Services Agent is unwilling or unable to prepare and propose the adoption of the Financing Plan, the Delegate may by written declaration designate one or more other persons who shall be authorized to prepare, implement and amend the Financing Plan.

(2) Terms and Conditions of the Financing Plan – The Financing Plan shall establish the basis for each Absolute Assignee's funding decisions. The Financing Plan shall have regard to the principles and parameters set forth in Schedule 3 and such other conditions and requirements as may be specified in a written declaration of the Delegate or in accordance with the Regulation.

(3) OEB Approval – Any Additional Funding Charge payable to or for the benefit of the Financial Services Agent shall be subject to review and approval by the OEB.

(4) OEB Review – The OEB [shall] undertake an annual review of the records maintained by the Financial Services Agent for the purpose of confirming that the Funding Obligations incurred and the Finance Amounts paid by or on behalf of the Absolute Assignees were incurred and paid, respectively, in material conformity with the Financing Plan.

(5) Replacement of the Administrative Agent – If the OEB identifies deficiencies or makes recommendations in its review under Section 9(4), the Administrative Agent shall take reasonable measures to remedy such deficiencies if remediable, and shall in any event have regard to the recommendations of the OEB in relation to further actions undertaken by the Financial Services Agent under the Financing Plan. If the Financial Services Agent is unwilling or unable to reflect such recommendations in relation to such further actions, the Delegate may by written declaration designate one or more other persons who shall thereafter become the Financial Services.

(6) Obligation to Apply IESO Remittances – The Financial Services Agent shall ensure that amounts transferred to it under Article 5, as agent for and on behalf of the Absolute Assignees, or otherwise in respect of or as proceeds from an applicable Investment Interest shall only be applied or used to pay related Finance Amounts when they are due and payable and for no other purpose.

(7) Non-Recourse – The Financing Plan shall be implemented so that Funding Obligations incurred shall be without recourse to or to any assets of the Electricity Distributors, IESO, any Alternative Servicer, any Alternative Collection Agent, the Financial Services Agent, the OEB, the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, other than if and to the extent that such persons or entities are liable for the performance of obligations or duties arising under this Act or expressly agree to become liable pursuant to any Funding Obligation or obligation in relation to a Finance Amount. [All Funding Obligations shall contain a statement to the following effect: "Neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the Province of Ontario is pledged to the payment of the principal of, or interest on, this [obligation].]

(8) Incurrences are Binding – Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, each Disposition made to or by an Absolute Assignee and all amounts payable or becoming due and payable by or on behalf of an Absolute Assignee under or in connection with any obligation purporting to be a Funding Obligation, shall be binding for the purposes of this Act, including in determining the amount of related Transition Charges, despite any impairment or defect resulting from such failure.

[Article 10 – Compliance Matters[19]

(1) Right of the [OEB] to Inspect Books and Records - For the purpose of investigating compliance with the provisions of this Act, the OEB shall have the right, jurisdiction, power and authority to examine the books and records of [Insert names if any].

(2) [OPG's Rate Settings – When setting other rates for or in respect of OPG, the OEB shall not take into account (a) the administrative or servicing fees charged by OPG as Financial Services Agent [in excess of the actual incremental costs incurred by such person of providing administrative or servicing services]; (b) the cost consequences to OPG of being the Financial Services Agent; or (c) the consequence of OPG

[19] As noted above, the outcome of any regulatory action undertaken by the OEB will not affect Funding Obligations that have been incurred under the Financing Plan. This Article and any potential role for the Auditor General is still under consideration.

consolidating the assets and liabilities of any Financing Entity for OPG's accounting purposes, in each case in setting any regulated payment amounts for OPG.][20]

Article 11 – Undertaking of the Lieutenant Governor in Council[21]

(1) No Action to limit, alter, or impair or terminate Transition Charges, the Regulatory Asset or Collections – The [Lieutenant Governor in Council] shall not in any way take or permit any action to reduce, impair, postpone or terminate the obligation of Retail Consumers to pay Transition Charges or to impair the Regulatory Asset or the collection or recovery of Transition Charge Collections, Electricity Distributor Remittances or IESO Remittances, either directly or indirectly, including through the introduction of any bill or the passing of any legislation or regulation having such effect. The amount of Transition Charges determined under this Act shall not be subject in any way to reduction, impairment, postponement or termination as a result of any action taken or failure by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, including through the introduction of any bill or the passing of any legislation or regulation having such effect.

(2) Undertaking and Agreement – The [Lieutenant Governor in Council] shall not:

(a) in any way take or permit any action that limits, alters or impairs the value of any Investment Interest;

(b) except as required by the estimates and adjustments made in determining the True-up Amount, reduce, alter or impair Transition Charges that are imposed, billed, invoiced, collected and remitted for the benefit of the Absolute Assignees or any Pledgee from time to time;

(c) permit the amendment, amendment and restatement or termination of the Fair Allocation Plan if such amendment , amendment and restatement or termination would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of any Funding Obligation or the rights of an Absolute Assignee or Pledgee thereunder, in each case including through the introduction of any bill or the passing of any legislation or regulation having such effect.

(3) Successor IESO – If IESO is restructured, dissolved or becomes insolvent or is otherwise incapable of performing its obligations under this Act, Successor IESO shall be established to perform such obligations.

[20] As an alternative to this provision, consider clarifying under s. 78.1(4) of the OEB Act (which currently gives the OEB discretion in setting payment amounts subject to O. Reg. 53/05) that the OEB in setting OPG payment amounts for prescribed generation shall not consider OPG's role as Administrative Agent of any Financing Entities associated with the Fair Hydro initiative, perhaps with the exception of any operating fees that may be received by OPG for performing that role.

[21] Under consideration, including the dealers' request for a "servicer guarantee" and a "contractual guarantee" to address a "Change of Law" or if all or a portion of the legislation is ultra vires, requiring (at the lenders option), the Province to pay principal and interest on the outstanding debt until maturity or payout the entire debt including any make-wholes.

(4) Compensation for Failure – Absolute Assignees shall be compensated for any losses suffered by them as a result of any failure by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to comply with its undertakings and agreements in this Article 11.[22]

(5) No Wind-up of Financing Entity. No Financing Entity may be voluntarily wound up, liquidated or dissolved until one year after all of its Funding Obligations are repaid.

(6) References to the Undertaking and Agreement – Any non-confidential reference to the Undertaking of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, including in marketing materials and other documentation authorized for use by the Administrative in connection with any Funding Obligation, may be made provided that [Add conditions to protect the Province].

Article 12 – Regulations

Regulations may be made under this Act for the purposes described in Sections •,•,• and • and may be promulgated for any of the following purposes:

(a) to set standards and measures regarding the commercially reasonable requirements of the Province associated with an Absolute Assignee incurring Funding Obligations or becoming obligated to pay any Finance Amount, including to establish guidelines regarding all-in funding costs; permitted Additional Funding Charges; required maturities and redemption and termination rights of Funding Obligations; liquidity requirements, in each case to a Financing Plan that is consistent in its effect with the Fair Allocation Plan;

(b) to establish and empower one or more regulated entities to undertake decision-making activities with respect to this Act;

(c) to set out reasonable requirements regarding the appointment or retention of advisors, agents, service providers, contract counterparties, including in relation to 'market terms and conditions' parameters;

(d) to provide for audit and compliance standards applicable to those persons who are or may become obligated or have duties that arise under this Act [or under any Funding Obligation];

(e) to provide for any pre-vetting and approval requirements in relation to any incurrence by an Absolute Assignee of any Funding Obligation or obligation to pay any Finance Amount; and

(f) to provide for appeal and due process considerations in connection with the establishment, adoption, implementation and review of the Fair Allocation Plan or the Financing Plan.

Article 13- Miscellaneous[23]

[22] Requested by Torys. For discussion.

[23] OPG would like the specific amendments related to OPG to be included in the Bill.]

(1) Choice of law – The law governing, as applicable, the validity, enforceability, attachment, perfection, priority and exercise of remedies with respect to the transfer of an interest or right or creation of a security interest in the Regulatory Asset, any Transition Charge or the Undertaking of the Province shall be the laws of the Province.

(2) Conflict of law – In the event of conflict between this Act and any other law of the Province regarding the attachment, assignment or perfection, or the effect of perfection, or priority of any Disposition or Pledge, this Act shall govern to the extent of the conflict.

(3) No further acts or approvals required - Notwithstanding any provisions of any law of the Province to the contrary, no approvals, notices or authorizations other than those specified in this Act shall be required with respect to the actions to be taken in compliance with this Act, including under the Financing Plan or in relation to the establishment of the Fair Allocation Plan, and the transactions and contracts authorized in or contemplated by this Act or the Financing Plan, including the incurrence of any Funding Obligation, any Disposition, any Pledge or in the payment and performance of any attendant or incidental contract and any related expenses incurred to facilitate the preparation and implementation of the Financing Plan.

(4) Effect of invalidity after the Incurrence of any Funding Obligation - Effective on the date that a Funding Obligation is incurred under this Act, if any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or is invalidated, superseded, replaced, repealed or expires for any reason, that occurrence shall not affect any action allowed under this Act that is taken by any person who is or may become obligated or have duties that arise under this Act and any such action shall remain in full force and effect.

(5) Severability - If any Article, Section, paragraph or subparagraph of this Act or the application thereof to any person, circumstance or transaction is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or invalid, the unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of any other Article, Section, paragraph or subparagraph of this act or its application or validity to any person, circumstance or transaction, including the irrevocability of Transition Charges, the validity of the Regulatory Asset, the incurrence of any Funding Obligation, any Disposition, any Pledge, or the collection and recovery of Transition Charge Collections. To these ends, the Legislature hereby declares that the provisions of this Act are intended to be severable and that the Legislature would have enacted this Act even if any Article, Section, paragraph or subparagraph of this Act held to be unconstitutional or invalid had not been included in this Act.

Schedule 3[24]

Principles and Parameters for Establishing the Financing Plan

Commented [A14]: Risk – need to consider what could happen that could result in Province being seen to control

-Need to see the control argument to see if any possible issues – OPG memo
-Could Province setting parameters/principles have impact - this seems generic enough that would not cause an issue
(OPCD – intent is that these are just 'principles' that should be considered in developing the FP (not mandatory, but language likely still needs some work)

The following principles and parameters provide a guideline as to what a Financing Plan should address:

(1) in respect of each Reference Period, make reference to the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to each Reference Group contemplated by the Fair Allocation Plan;

(2) estimate IESO Funding Shortfalls for each Reference Period;

(3) consider alternative funding arrangements suitable to fund the estimated IESO Funding Shortfalls, including short term and/or long term Funding Obligations;

(9) consider quantities, maturities, payment obligations, prepayment or redemption rights and such other features of Funding Obligations so that payments made for a Reference Period reasonably correspond to the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to the applicable Reference Group under the Fair Allocation Plan;

(4) if the anticipated amount of any Repayment (together with payments of other Finance Amounts) to be made in respect of a Reference Period would materially exceed the allocation of the costs and benefits of the Green Generation Initiative to the applicable Retail Consumer Group under the then current Fair Allocation Plan, diligent efforts should be made to determine whether a Refinancing or deferral of such Repayment may be reasonably and cost-effectively effected based on then prevailing market terms, conditions an circumstances;

(5) reflect the assumptions and requirements specified in any contemplated Funding Obligation (e.g., any limit on the maximum amount of Transition Charges charged to a hypothetical Retail Consumer relative to his or her monthly electricity bill, as prescribed by any rating agency that ascribes its credit rating to or in respect of the Funding Obligation having regard to the application of the Allocation Methodology);

(6) incur Funding Obligations from time to time on the best terms available at such time for a financing transaction of the size and type contemplated, and having regarding to the following parameters:

a. whether the Absolute Assignees will require committed access to short term liquidity to cover estimated IESO Funding Shortfalls prior to incurring fixed term Funding Obligations, and the amount and repayment terms of any such required liquidity; provided that any Repayment required to be made under the terms of such short-term liquidity would not obligate an Absolute Assignee to repay an amount in relation to a Reference Period that would have the effect of the Financing Plan permitting incurrences of Funding Obligations payable in such Reference Period that would exceed the allocations of Future Fair Share of [24] Awaiting input from Torys based on OPG mark-up of Financing Plan sections.

Green Transition Benefits to the applicable Reference Group under the Fair Allocation Plan;

b. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will select the term to maturity of any other Funding Obligations; provided that any Repayments required to be made under the terms of such Funding Obligations should not obligate an Absolute Assignee to repay an amount in relation to a Reference Period that would have the effect of the Financing Plan permitting incurrences of Funding Obligations payable in such Reference Period that would exceed the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to the applicable Reference Group under the Fair Allocation Plan;

c. the basis upon which the interest rates applicable to such Funding Obligations would be determined;

d. the reference capital or finance market in which such Funding Obligation would be incurred, including markets outside of Canada if considered by the Financial Services Agent to be appropriate in the circumstances;

e. the currency of payments under such Funding Obligations and, if the Funding Obligations are denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars, the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent shall cause the applicable Absolute Assignee to enter into hedging transactions to mitigate currency risk, including acceptable minimum and maximum coverage levels, having regard to the availability of related derivatives having notional amounts corresponding to the repayment and maturity profile of such Funding Obligations;

f. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will select counterparties under any transaction to be entered into by an Absolute Assignee, including any paying agent, servicer, cash manager, liquidity provider, hedge counterparty, account bank, lender, note trustee, security trustee, paying agent, registrar/transfer agent, financial services agent, arranger or manager;

g. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will manage counterparty risk, including by providing for maximum counterparty exposure limits having regard to concentration, credit and other identified risks with respect to individual counterparties or countries;

h. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will negotiate and settle Finance Amounts, including the amount of any Redemption Amounts, Finance Reserve Deposits and Additional Funding Charges;

(7) the basis upon which Funding Obligations may be redeemed, prepaid, repurchased or otherwise affected, having regard for the need to minimize debt service charges and other Funding Costs, and the need to maintain a stable funding platform to finance the IESO Funding Shortfalls from time to time on a basis that is consistent with the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to applicable Reference Groups under the Fair Allocation Plan;

Commented [A15]: Risk – can't get sufficient funding through external markets – where do RRAs sit? How does IESO get its funding? Impact on control and consolidation. (OPCD – discussions have included contingencies involving OFA. OPCD requested contingencies be documented for consideration from a control perspective)

(8) the basis upon which any Repayments, Funding Costs and Redemption Amounts will be paid, including any defeasance, sinking fund or through other reserves or liquidity facilities;

(9) the basis upon which fees, charges, expenses, costs, indemnities, reimbursements and other amounts payable to or for the benefit of the Financial Services Agent and other agents and service providers to the Absolute Assignees may be determined, allocated and paid;

(10) the timing and basis upon which Finance Reserve Deposits and Finance Reserve Withdrawals may be made;

(11) the basis upon which any obligations for any other Additional Funding Charges may be incurred and paid;

(12) the basis upon which the cash flows arising from time to time or otherwise derived from the Regulatory Asset may otherwise be applied, including in relation to any counterparty enforcement and realization scenario;

(13) the transmittal to [the IESO] of information related to the amounts to be included in the determination of the Period Transition Charge for a Reference Period;

(14) the basis upon which any Disposition may be made or effected by an Absolute Assignee, including parameters for determining the purchase price for the interest in the Regulatory Asset that is the subject matter of such Disposition, and any consents and releases that may be usefully obtained in connection with such Disposition;

(15) describe the requirements applicable to any special purchase entity that will purchase an Investment Interest, including proposed capitalization, governance, and restrictions on their powers and activities; and

(16) the basis on which any Pledge may be given or effected.

Hi Suzie.

Thanks for your feedback on the draft doc. I'm back on line now and I know that Cindy is on her way to the meeting location. I have inserted comments for your consideration, in response to your observations. Please note that Cindy has not had a chance to review these. Nadine

Cindy – please see A11 and A15 in particular. Good to know that OFA will be participating in today's call as they need to be aware of contingency related discussions. I had requested in Monday's meeting that the contingencies be documented so that they can be considered by both OPCD and OPG in the 'control' analysis. I haven't heard if and when we might expect to receive those details. Nadine

Hi Cindy/Nadine:

Attached are our comments. We haven't been able to do a deep dive into any of the issues given the timelines and limited info but we have identified risk areas and some points for clarification to help us better understand the proposed structure.

At a high level, we don't see any new issues or obvious items in the legislation where the wording elevates a previously identified risk. We generally feel that the memos supporting control by OPG and the related consolidation as well as the existence and recognition of the regulated asset are the most significant issues at the moment.

I am able to join the call 2-5 and Lee Anne will join 2-3.

Please let us know if you'd like to discuss any of our comments before the call.

Thanks,

Suzie

CONFIDENTIAL AND PRIVILEGED

Preliminary Draft for Discussion Purposes Only

"Fair Hydro Act"

Article 1 – Purpose

The Province has and continues to encourage the construction and development of facilities for the long-term operation and generation of electricity in the Province using sustainable, lower carbon-based technologies such as new gas-fired generation, renewable facilities, energy from waste and biomass, including under the Province's various procurement, standard offer, feed in tariff and other similar programs (the "Green Generation Initiative"). The long-term benefits of the Green Generation Initiative accrue over time and have benefited and will benefit present and future electricity consumers in the Province.

The imputed costs of the Green Generation Initiative are currently passed through to electricity consumers by way of a monthly adjustment amount (the "Green Costs Adjustment"), which in turn forms part of the overall adjustment calculated by the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO") pursuant to section 25.33 of, and O.Reg. 429/4 under, the Electricity Act (the "Global Adjustment"). The Global Adjustment is included as a charge billed to electricity consumers in their monthly electricity invoices.

The Green Costs Adjustment is currently determined each month by reference to the amounts paid by IESO to the generators of electricity in the Province under the Green Generation Initiative, which may be higher than prevailing market price for electricity. These differences arise because IESO has entered into long-term procurement contracts with such generators in order to provide them with long-term price certainty for electricity, and in turn to encourage the generators to develop technologies and to construct and develop facilities consistent with the Green Generation Initiative. In general, whenever amounts payable under these procurement contracts exceed the market price for electricity, the Green Costs Adjustment passes through the amount of such differences as part of the monthly charge to electricity consumers. Such amount then becomes available to IESO to meet its obligations under the procurement contracts. It has been determined that the useful lives of many of the assets encouraged by the Green Generation Initiative will be well in excess of the respective terms of the related procurement contracts, and in many cases may extend over more than one generation of electricity consumers.

Since the benefits to past, present and future electricity consumers from the Green Generation Initiative will not necessarily coincide with the costs currently attributed through the Green Costs Adjustment, based on the respective durations of the procurement contracts, it has been determined that the rate at which the costs associated with the Green Generation Initiative should be passed through to Retail Consumers (as defined in Article 2) should be more closely aligned with the benefits that such Retail Consumers have derived and are expected to derive from the Green Generation Initiative over time. This realignment will be based on principles and parameters that establish a reasonable basis for measuring and allocating the relative costs and benefits of the Green Generation Initiative equitably across present and future Retail Consumers (the "Fair Allocation Plan").

If the Fair Allocation Plan determines that the equitable allocation of the costs associated with the Green Generation Initiative to the Retail Consumers of a particular time period should be reduced below the amount that currently would be charged based on the Green Costs

Commented [A1]: My notes from the last call indicate that OPG and TBS were going to create a document with the issues they foresee – is that available to us?

OPCD – To clarify, OPG and IESO have been leading on identifying any potential issues from their respective viewpoints. The revised drafts have attempted to address the issues on an on-going basis. OPG and IESO (and their advisors are expected to participate on today's call and comment on any outstanding issues).

Commented [A2]: My notes also indicate that Cindy had asked to walk through the debits and the credits – can we get that to better understand the proposed structure and entries? OPCD- an update to the model and walkthrough has been initiated, based on the current assumptions.

Adjustment, then the amount payable by such Retail Consumers and in turn available to IESO will, in the aggregate, be less than the amount payable by the IESO to the generators in respect of such period. In this case IESO will need to obtain funding from another source to cover such a shortfall. If a funding obligation is incurred by IESO to cover such a shortfall during one period, the repayment of such funding obligation will be required in a future period, and any related repayments, finance costs, hedging costs and other transaction costs incurred will become payable in one or more future periods. In order for IESO to obtain a reliable and committed source of cash flows to enable IESO to repay such funding amounts when they become due and payable, this Act imposes irrevocable and non-bypassable financial obligations on Retail Consumers to pay amounts incurred in respect of such funding obligations when they become due and payable and establishes a right to invoice and collect such amounts. The right and interest in and to collect such financial obligations will take the form of the Regulatory Asset contemplated in this Act, which will constitute property rights and interests. Interests in the Regulatory Asset may be sold and absolutely assigned by IESO to one or more financing entities, which in turn will finance their acquired interests by incurring funding obligations. The incurrence and payment of such funding obligations will be administered on behalf such financing entities by a financial services agent under the Financing Plan contemplated in this Act. The Financing Plan will seek to reasonably match the payment obligations arising under such funding obligations, to be borne by the future Retail Consumers of the period in which such payment obligations become due, with the benefits of the Green Generation Initiative allocated to such future Retail Consumers under the Fair Allocation Plan.

The purpose of this Act is to establish the basis upon which intergenerational fairness can be achieved by charging the costs and benefits of the Green Generation Initiative to present and future Retail Consumers on an equitable and cost effective basis.

Article 2 - Definitions

In this Act:

> "Absolute Assignee" means a person to whom a Regulatory Asset Owner effects a Disposition.
> "Actual" means, in relation to costs, expenses or payments in respect of Funding Obligations during a Reference Period, the actual amount of such costs, expenses or payments paid or made (net of any Finance Reserve Withdrawals applied to pay such amounts), which amounts shall be recorded by the Financial Services Agent whose records shall be determinative for the purposes of this Act except to the extent of a manifest calculation error.
> "Additional Funding Charges" means, for a Reference Period in respect of an Absolute Assignee, the fees, charges, expenses, costs, indemnities, reimbursements and other amounts (including any applicable tax amounts) that are or become payable by or on behalf of the Absolute Assignee during the Reference Period and that were incurred or committed to directly or indirectly by the Absolute Assignee in connection with the incurrence of Funding Obligations under the Financing Plan (whether at the time of such incurrence or over the term of the Funding Obligation and whether directly or indirectly), including (without duplication and without limitation): (a) any payment required under an ancillary agreement entered into by, or by the Financial Services Agent on behalf of, the Absolute Assignee under the Financing Plan; (b) any federal, provincial or local taxes, payments in lieu of taxes, franchise fees or license fees imposed on the Absolute

Commented [A3]:
Risk #1 – based on earlier discussions, concern that this cannot be recognized under the IESO accounting framework. (OPCD – IESO accounting under PSAB, being addressed)

Risk #2 – risk that this does not meet definition of an RRA – need to see KPMG paper to analyse (KPMG paper is a WIP, to be based on model specifics.)

Risk #3 - Even if considered an RRA and recognized, risk is that AG feels it does not meet definition or is not recognizable which could result in elimination of the asset in consolidated entity (OPCD – expect that remaining balance on IESO books at year-end would be immaterial)

Risk #4 – if any asset left in IESO at any date, risk that AG does not agree that it is recognizable under PSAB. OPCD --- desirable to defend recognition on Province's books under PSAB (E&Y input requested)

H&W has raised a concern regarding possible adverse changes after the fact and rating agency considerations. Consider whether hard-coding in the legislation makes sense.

Commented [A6]: Is this an asset on day 1 related to past amounts charged through that will now be rebated? How does this RRA get created? Is OEB involved in setting future rates for past costs that were already recovered in past rates? We'll these somehow go back to the ratepayer? This will need to be supported in the KPMG paper. (OPCD – no rebates envisioned. See remaining sections for further details on RRA)

Commented [A7]:
Risk #1 – based on earlier discussions, concern that this cannot be recognized under the IESO accounting framework. (OPCD – IESO and KPMG addressing)

Risk #2 – risk that this does not meet definition of an RRA – need to see KPMG paper to analyse (OPCD – as above)
Risk #3 - Even if considered an RRA and recognized, risk is that AG feels it does not meet definition or is not recognizable which could result in elimination of the asset in consolidated entity(OPCD – see earlier comments)

Commented [A9]: Consider:
-Is this plus other info below on RRA sufficient to create the RRA based on accounting definition of such an asset (under those frameworks that have specific guidance on RRAs such as US GAAP) – KPMG paper will need to support (OPCD – awaiting KPMG paper)

(2) Indebtedness of Retail Consumers – Until paid, a Transition Charge charged to a Retail Consumer in an Electricity Invoice shall, together with any applicable late payment fees and finance charges arising under the terms of the Electricity Invoice with respect to such Transition Charge, constitute non-bypassable indebtedness of the Retail Consumer to the Regulatory Asset Owners, each with respect to its respective interest in the Regulatory Asset. Such indebtedness shall constitute a single and separate[8] debt obligation owing by the Retail Consumer, which subject to Article 5 may be enforced independently from any other payment obligation or indebtedness owing by the Retail Consumer under the Electricity Invoice or otherwise.[9]

(3) No Set-Off or Reduction – A Retail Consumer may not set-off or reduce (by counterclaim, defense or otherwise) the amount payable by it in respect of any Transition Charge, including any set-off against or in respect of any amount owing or becoming payable to such Retail Consumer by its Electricity Distributor, any Regulatory Asset Owner or any other person.

(4) Allocation of Retail Consumer Payments – If an Electricity Distributor receives a payment made by or on behalf of a Retail Consumer in respect of amounts due and payable under one or more Electricity Invoices that is less than the total amount payable thereunder, such payment shall be allocated on a pro rata basis to the payment of related Transition Charges and other invoiced amounts and the amount so allocated as a payment of related Transition Charges shall be deemed to constitute a Transition Charge Collection.

(5) Transition Charges are Irrevocable – The Transition Charges arising under or in respect of Funding Obligations incurred under the Financing Plan (including any adjustments based on modifications to such Funding Obligations made in compliance with the Financing Plan or as a result of amendments to the Financing Plan made in accordance with Section 9(3)) are deemed to be irrevocable, final and effective without any further action, except to the extent of manifest calculation error. For greater certainty, a Transition Charge may include Finance Amounts for a Reference Period whether or not the payment of such Finance Amounts are inconsistent with the Fair Allocation Plan applicable at the time such payments are due and payable, whether or not the related Funding Obligation was properly incurred under the Financing Plan. In no case shall a Funding Obligation incurred under the Financing Plan be affected by a subsequent amendment to the Fair Allocation Plan.

Article 4 – Invoicing of Transition Charges

(1) Inclusion of Transition Charges in Electricity Invoices – Each Electricity Distributor and if applicable any Alternative Servicer shall, as an agent of the Regulatory Asset Owners, specify the Transition Charge to be charged to a Retail Consumer pursuant to Section 4(4) in respect of a related Reference Period in each Electricity Invoice issued by the Electricity Distributor or if applicable by the Alternative Servicer to the Retail Consumer in respect of such Reference Period. Upon the inclusion of a Transition Charge in an Electricity Invoice, the obligation to pay such amount shall be binding on the applicable Retail Consumer.

(2) Calculation of the Period Transition Charge – Not later than [35] days prior to the first day of a Reference Period, each Absolute Assignee (or the Financial Services Agent on its behalf) shall provide the OEB with written notice of each Estimate of a Finance Amount payable by it or on its behalf in respect of the Reference Period. [35] days prior to the first day of a Reference Period, IESO or Successor IESO if applicable shall specify the IESO Retained Interest Amount and any IESO Financing Costs that are due and payable and remain unpaid on such day. Not later than one month prior to the first day of a Reference Period, the OEB shall calculate the Period Transition Charge applicable to the Reference Period based on the calculations and information set forth in such written notices received from the Absolute Assignees and based on such amounts specified by IESO or Successor IESO, which calculations, information and amounts shall be determinative, except to the extent of manifest calculation error or misstatement.

(3) Calculation and Attribution of Transition Charges – Not later than 25 days prior to the first day of a Reference Period, the OEB shall apply the Attribution Methodology to determine the Allocation Factor for each Retail Consumer of the applicable Retail Consumer Group.

(4) Notice of Transition Charges – Not later than 20 days prior to the first day of a Reference Period, the OEB shall inform each Electricity Distributor and if applicable any Alternative Servicer of the Transition Charges to be specified in the Electricity Invoices to be issued to each Retail Consumer of the applicable Retail Consumer Group who has a billing address in the Electricity Distributor's Service Area.

(5) Adjustments – The amount of any Transition Charge charged to a Retail Consumer and specified as such in an Electricity Invoice shall be determinative of the amount of indebtedness created thereby and owing in respect of such Transition Charge, except to the extent of any manifest calculation error.

(6) Successors of Electricity Distributors – Any successor of an Electricity Distributor shall be bound by the requirements of Article 4 and shall perform and satisfy all duties and obligations of such Electricity Distributor under Article 4 in the same manner and to the same extent as such Electricity Distributor, including the obligation under Article 4 to impose, attribute, charge, bill and invoice the Transition Charges.

(7) IESO Successor – Any IESO Successor shall be bound by the requirements of Article 4 and shall perform and satisfy all duties and obligations of IESO under Article 4 in the same manner and to the same extent as IESO, including the obligation to calculate and provide notice of Transition Charges.

(8) Appointment of an Alternative Servicer – If a Replacement Event occurs in respect of any Electricity Distributor, the Absolute Assignees shall, in accordance with the Collective Rights Agreement, be permitted, by an instrument in writing, to appoint an Alternative Servicer to perform some or all of the obligations and duties required to be undertaken by such Electricity Distributor under this Article 4, as and to the extent specified in such appointment. Upon acceptance of such appointment, the Alternative Servicer shall become obligated to perform such assumed obligations in replacement of such Electricity Distributor. Any Electricity Distributor that is replaced under this Section 4(8) shall promptly transfer all rights, powers, privileges and property interests in its possession or within its control in the performance of such obligations and duties to the Alternative Servicer and shall take such further actions, including the execution of instruments, necessary to give full and final effect to such transfer and to permit the Alternative Servicer to perform such obligations and duties on behalf of the Regulatory Asset Owners.

(9) Absolute Assignees have Standing – The Absolute Assignees, acting together in accordance with the Collective Action Agreement, may bring actions against any Electricity Distributor, IESO, the Servicer, Alternative Servicer or any other person who may be authorized to issue Electricity Invoices to Retail Consumers for a failure to impose, attribute, charge, bill or invoice Transition Charges. Any court of the Province shall have jurisdiction over any actions brought before it by the Absolute Assignees in relation to any such failure.

(10) No Set-Off or Reduction – No Servicer or Electricity Distributor may set off or reduce (by counterclaim, defence or otherwise) the amount payable by it pursuant to this Article 4.

(11) Regulations – Regulations may be enacted for the purpose of specifying further rights, powers, privileges, duties and obligations that shall apply to IESO, any Electricity Distributor or any Alternative Servicer to ensure that Transition Charges are properly charged to Retail Consumers and specified as such in Electricity Invoices.

Article 5 – Collections and Remittances

(1) Duty to Collect as Agent – Electricity Distributors or if applicable any Alternative Collection Agent shall, as an agent of the Regulatory Asset Owners, undertake [diligent][reasonable][10] efforts to collect amounts owing by Retail Consumers in respect of Transition Charges charged to such Retail Consumers in Electricity Invoices issued by the Electricity Distributor or if applicable such Alternative Collection Agent.

(2) Segregation of Transition Charge Collections – An Electricity Distributor or if applicable any Alternative Collection Agent shall promptly segregate Transition Charge Collections from other payments received by it from Retail Consumers and deposit such Transition Charge Collections into its Regulatory Asset Account.[11] Prior to and following a deposit of Transition Charge Collections having been made into its Regulatory Asset Account, the Electricity Distributor or if applicable any Alternative Collection Agent shall hold such amounts in trust for the Regulatory Asset Owners.

(3) Electricity Distributor Remittances – On each applicable Remittance Date, an Electricity Distributor shall remit all Transition Charge Collections received by it from Retail Consumers in respect of the related Reference Period to or to the account of IESO or if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent.

(4) Duty to Collect Electricity Distributor Remittances – IESO or if applicable any Alternative Collection Agent shall, as an agent of the Regulatory Asset Owners, undertake [diligent][reasonable] efforts to accept and collect Electricity Distributor Remittances from Electricity Distributors and Transition Charge Collections from Retail Consumers that pay their Electricity Invoices directly to IESO.[12]

(5) Segregation of Electricity Distributor Remittances – IESO and if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent shall promptly segregate Electricity Distributor Remittances from other payments received or held by it and deposit such Electricity Distributor Remittances into its Regulatory Asset Account. Prior to and following a deposit of Electricity Distributor Remittances having been made into its Regulatory Asset Account, IESO or if applicable any Alternative Collection Agent shall hold such amounts in trust for the Regulatory Asset Owners.

(6) IESO Remittances – On each Settlement Date[13], IESO and if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent shall remit all amounts on deposit in its Regulatory Asset Account (a) first, to or to the account of the Absolute Assignees an amount equal to the Investment Remittance for the related month and (b) second, to IESO (including by IESO retaining such amount) an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the Maximum IESO Recovery for the related month and (ii) the IESO Retained Interest Amount as of the Settlement Date.

(7) Successors of Electricity Distributors – Any successor of an Electricity Distributor shall be bound by the requirements of Article 5 and shall perform and satisfy all duties and obligations of such Electricity Distributor under Article 5 in the same manner and to the same extent as such Electricity Distributor, including the obligation under Article 5 to collect Transition Charges and make remittances of Electricity Distributor Remittances.

(8) IESO Successor – IESO Successor shall be bound by the requirements of Article 5 and shall perform and satisfy all duties and obligations of IESO under Article 5 in the same manner and to the same extent as IESO, including the obligation to collect Transition Charge Collections, Electricity Distributor Remittances and to remit IESO Remittances.

(9) Owners of Distribution Assets - If any person other than an Electricity Distributor acquires distribution system assets in the Province or invoices or collects electricity distribution rates in the Province[14], then such person shall, if requested by the Absolute Assignees, be obligated to act diligently to (a) facilitate the invoicing and collection of any Transition Charges applicable to Retail Consumers in its applicable service area, including all consumers connected to the electricity distribution system assets and taking electric delivery service located within such service area; (b) allocate partial payments by Retail Consumers as provided in this Act; (c) exercise all enforcement rights of the Absolute Assignees for the benefit of an Absolute Assignee; and (d) remit any Transition Charge Collections to the Absolute Assignees or Pledgees, as applicable, each in accordance with its Investment Interest.

[12] Consider building this obligation into a deemed condition of licence for the IESO.

[13] Consider frequency of remittances in light of rating requirements. US rating agencies favour daily remittances.

[14] This is in anticipation of a possible future restructuring of the distribution system.

(10) Absolute Assignees have Standing – The Absolute Assignees, acting together in accordance with the Collective Action Agreement, may bring actions against any Electricity Distributor, IESO, the Alternative Collection Agent, any owner of electricity distribution system assets in the Province or any other person who may be authorized to collect electricity distribution and use charges from Retail Consumers for a failure to collect Transition Charges, remit or collect Electricity Distributor Remittances or remit IESO Remittances, as and to the extent applicable under Article 5. Any court of the Province shall have jurisdiction over any actions brought before it by the Absolute Assignees in relation to any such failure.

(11) Appointment of an Alternative Collection Agent – If a Replacement Event occurs in respect of any Electricity Distributor or IESO, the Absolute Assignees shall, in accordance with the Collective Rights Agreement, be permitted, by an instrument in writing, to appoint an Alternative Collection Agent to perform some or all of the collection, segregation and remittance obligations otherwise required to be undertaken by such Electricity Distributor or IESO, as applicable, under Article 5, as and to the extent specified in such appointment. Upon acceptance of such appointment, the Alternative Collection Agent shall become obligated to perform such assumed obligations in replacement of such Electricity Distributor or IESO, as applicable. Any Electricity Distributor or IESO, as applicable, that is replaced under this Section 5(11) shall promptly transfer all rights, powers, privileges and property interests in its possession or within its control in, to and over the Regulatory Asset, including its Regulatory Asset Account, to the Alternative Collection Agent and shall take such further actions, including the execution of instruments, necessary to give full and final effect to such transfer and to permit the Alternative Collection Agent to enforce the Regulatory Asset on behalf of the Absolute Assignees.

(12) No Set-off, etc. - The Regulatory Asset, including rights in Transition Charges, Transition Charge Collections, and the interests of a Regulatory Asset Owner, an Absolute Assignee and a Pledgee therein, may not be setoff or reduced (including by counterclaim, surcharge or defense) by any Retail Consumer, any Electricity Distributor, IESO, Alternative Collection Agent or any owner of distribution system assets in the Province or any other person or in connection with any default, bankruptcy, reorganization or other insolvency proceeding of any Electricity Distributor, IESO, Alternative Collection Agent or any owner of distribution system assets in the Province, any affiliate or successor thereof or any other entity or otherwise.[15]

(13) Sequestration – If any Electricity Distributor, IESO, the Alternative Collection Agent or any owner of distribution system assets in the Province or any other person or entity authorized to collect Transition Charges, defaults on any required remittance of Transition Charge Collections, Electricity Distribution Remittances or IESO Remittances under Article 5, any court in the Province, upon application by and of the Absolute Assignees acting collectively under the Collective Action Agreement and without limiting any other remedies otherwise available to the Absolute Assignees or Pledgees, shall order the sequestration and payment of the Transition Charge Collections, Electricity

Distribution Remittances and IESO Remittances, as applicable, for the benefit of the Absolute Assignees, each with respect to its Investment Interest, and the Pledgees as applicable.[16]

(14) Regulations – Regulations may be enacted for the purpose of specifying further rights, powers, privileges, duties and obligations that shall apply to IESO, any Electricity Distributor or any Alternative Collection Agent to ensure that rights, interests, entitlements, benefits and proceeds in, to, under and from the Regulatory Asset are of fully realized by some or all of the Absolute Assignees and Pledgees.

Article 6 – The Regulatory Asset

(1) Composition – The Regulatory Asset shall constitute a current and irrevocable property right and interest consisting, collectively, of the following rights and interests (without duplication):

a. the right of IESO (i) to record its IESO Retained Interest in its accounts in accordance with Section 8(1), having a stated amount from time to time equal to the IESO Retained Interest Amount; and (ii) to receive IESO Recoveries from time to time in accordance with Section 5(6)(b);

b. the right to impose, bill, invoice, collect and receive Transition Charges from Retail Consumers, including the right to determine the amount of Transition Charges in accordance with this Act;

c. the right to enforce the obligations and indebtedness of each Retail Consumer to pay the Transition Charges charged to the Retail Consumer from time to time in accordance with Article 3, together with all related late payment fees or interest charges arising in respect thereof under the related Electricity Invoices;

d. the right to enforce the duties and obligations of each Electricity Distributor and if applicable the Alternative Servicer to impose, attribute, charge, bill and invoice the Transition Charges in accordance with Article 4;

e. the right to enforce the duties and obligations of each Electricity Distributor and if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent to collect, receive and remit amounts received by it in respect of Transition Charges as Electricity Distributor Remittances to or to the account of IESO or if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent in accordance with Article 5, including all collections and the proceeds of any enforcement action undertaken by the Electricity Distributor or if applicable the Alternative Collection Agent to recover payment of Transition Charges in accordance with Article 5;

j. all revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds of or derived from the rights described in (a) through (i), regardless of whether such revenue, collections, claims, payments and proceeds are imposed, invoiced, collected and maintained together with or commingled with other revenue, collections, claims, payments, money and proceeds.

A Regulatory Asset and the property rights and interests therein shall exist whether or not Transition Charges have been imposed, charged, invoiced, accrued or collected and notwithstanding that the imposition, attribution, invoicing and collection of Transition Charges will depend on further actions that may not have occurred.

(2) Validity of Dispositions – Despite any limitations or restrictions on a Disposition that may arise by contract or by operation of any applicable law of the Province or any consent requirement applicable to a Disposition that may arise by operation of any applicable law of the Province, a Disposition by IESO to an Absolute Assignee made under the Financing Plan, or by one Absolute Assignee to another Absolute Assignee made under the Financing Plan, shall be permitted and when made shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with the terms of the related Disposition Document and shall be effective to confer upon the Absolute Assignee thereof a valid property right and interest in, to and under the applicable Investment Interest (or relevant portion thereof) in accordance with the terms of such Disposition, provided that the parties to the applicable Disposition Document have expressly stated therein that such Disposition is a sale or other absolute transfer. Without limiting the foregoing, any Disposition that by its terms is intended to constitute a sale or absolute transfer shall be treated for all purposes as a true sale and absolute transfer of the Regulatory Asset Owner's applicable right, title, and interest in, to and under the Regulatory Asset (or relevant portion thereof), and not merely as a Pledge thereof, and upon such Disposition the assigner or seller under the applicable Disposition Document shall retain no right, title or interest in the Investment Interest subject to the Disposition, including all rights under the Investment Interest arising after such Disposition.

(3) Perfection and Priority of Dispositions – Any Disposition of an interest in a Regulatory Asset shall be vested, valid, binding and perfected from the time when such Disposition is made. Such Disposition shall be perfected, vested, valid and binding as against the transferring Regulatory Asset Owner and all other persons who have claims of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) against the transferring Regulatory Asset Owner, irrespective of whether such persons have notice of the Disposition and the property rights and interests acquired by the Absolute Assignee under such Disposition shall be free and clear of any liens in favour of such other persons.

(4) Validity of Pledges – Despite any limitations or restriction on a Pledge that may arise by contract or by operation of any applicable law of the Province or any consent requirement applicable to a Pledge that may arise by operation of any applicable law of the Province, a Pledge by an Absolute Assignee may be made to secure any related Funding Obligation and when made shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with its terms and shall be effective to confer upon the Pledgee a valid security interest in, to and in respect of the related Investment Interest in accordance with the terms of the Pledge. Other than as required by the Financing Plan, no consent of any person shall be required to give effect to a Pledge made to secure any Funding Obligation.

(5) Perfection and Priority of Pledges - For purposes of the Personal Property Security Act (the "PPSA"), the Regulatory Asset shall be intangible personal property and any Pledge made by an Absolute Assignee in respect of a Funding Obligation may be perfected by filing a financing statement under the PPSA on that basis. All proceeds of a related Investment Interest that are subject to such a Pledge that are received by the Absolute Assignee shall immediately be subject to the such Pledge, and the security interest in such proceeds shall be perfected pursuant to the PPSA.[17] A Pledge perfected under the PPSA shall be a continuously perfected security interest and shall have priority over any other lien or security interest, created by operation of law or otherwise, that may attach to the property rights and interests in the Investment Interest subject to the Pledge unless the Pledgee has otherwise agreed in writing. Subject to the terms of the Collective Action Agreement, a Pledgee shall have a perfected security interest in a related Investment Interest, including the Absolute Assignee's rights and interests in and to Transition Charge Collections or other related proceeds in respect of the Investment Interest and that are deposited in any Regulatory Asset Account or other account of any Electricity Distributor, IESO, Alternative Collection Agent or other person who may have commingled such Transition Charge Collections or such other proceeds with other funds. All provisions of the PPSA shall apply to the Regulatory Asset on the basis that it is intangible personal property, except to the extent otherwise provided in this Section 6(5).

(6) Enforcement of Property Rights – The rights of any Regulatory Asset Owner to collect and enforce its rights and interests in, to or in respect of the Regulatory Asset shall be exercised in the manner set forth in Article 5.

(7) Owners of a Specified Portion of the Regulatory Asset – A Regulatory Asset Owner may effect a Disposition to an Absolute Assignee of a specified portion of its rights and interests in the Regulatory Asset, including by way of a Disposition of a divided or an undivided interest therein as specified in a related Disposition Document, in each case under the Financing Plan. In no circumstance may the specified portions of the rights and interests in the Regulatory Asset owned by all Regulatory Asset Owners be greater than all of the rights and interests that comprise the Regulatory Asset in the aggregate.

[17] Consider whether to simply leave this and have a financing statement be filed under the PPSA. This would normalize the security interest and reduce any adverse suggestion that security would not otherwise arise.

(8) Collective Action Required – If a Regulatory Asset Owner's rights and interests in the Regulatory Asset comprises less than the entire property right and interest constituted by the Regulatory Asset, such Regulatory Asset Owner shall only enforce such right and interest on a collective and coordinated basis with each other Regulatory Asset Owner in accordance with the Collective Rights Agreement.

Article 7 – Establishment of the Fair Allocation Plan[18]

(1) Adoption of the Fair Allocation Plan – The Delegate may, [by written declaration,] designate and adopt a Fair Allocation Plan in compliance with Article 7. The Fair Allocation Plan so designated and adopted shall be the Fair Allocation Plan for all purposes of this Act, except if amended, amended and restated or terminated by a further written declaration made by the Delegate in compliance with Section 7(4).

(2) Principles and Parameters – A Fair Allocation Plan shall seek to allocate Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits across present and future Retail Consumer Groups on a basis that the Delegate, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines to be equitable, having regard to the following principles and parameters:

1. Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits should be allocated over the period ending on the Program End Date.

2. The Fair Allocation Plan should specify the Reference Periods for the purpose of identifying applicable Retail Consumer Groups and allocating Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits among them on a relative basis over time.

3. The share of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits allocable to a particular Retail Consumer Group in respect of a Reference Period should be proportionate to a reasonable assessment of the benefits of the Green Generation Initiative to the Retail Consumer Group over such Reference Period.

4. The share of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to be allocated to a Retail Consumer Group and any future Retail Consumer Group at a particular time should not exceed the Estimated Future Green Transition Benefits, measured in respect of the Reference Periods following such particular time and to the Program End Date.

5. No future Retail Consumer Group should be allocated an unreasonably disproportionate share of Estimated Future Green Transition Benefits. Except in exceptional circumstances or in the case of any reallocation of an Over-Assessed Amount as contemplated in 7, below, the Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to be allocated under a Fair Allocation Plan to any future

Commented [A11]: Confirm that future fair share of green transition benefits relates to past costs not to future costs related to the program. If future costs, question existence of current period RRA. (OPCD – wording to be reviewed. Intent is to capture 'delta' between IESO cost and LDC cost recovery for purposes of future recovery, and that such capture will happen in regards to current and future costs.)

18 The idea is that the Fair Allocation Plan will be set once at the outset based on the principles and parameters described here, all as applied based on information available and the reasonable expectations and discretion of the delegate at such time. If the expectations are not fulfilled (e.g., generators may choose to retire their facilities at the end of their current procurement contracts and not invest in extending service lives to secure further procurement contracts), the Fair Allocation Plan will be unaffected, unless it is specifically amended (assuming amendments will be permitted by the legislation).

Retail Consumer Group should have regard to [Insert formula if a year-over-year maximum amount is determined to be appropriate].

6. The time value of money should be reflected in the Fair Allocation Plan, in order to equate the relative values of the nominal allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits, calculated in current dollars, to future Retail Consumer Groups over time.

7. To the extent there has been an Over-Assessed Amount, the Fair Allocation Plan may determine that an adjustment should fairly be made to rebate Retail Consumers for such an amount, by reducing the costs otherwise attributable under the Act to such Retail Consumers. The relative costs of the Green Generation Initiative are reflected under the Act by the attribution of Transition Charges to such Consumer Groups, based on the Financing Plan seeking to track the allocations of benefits under the Fair Allocation Plan. Accordingly, the Maximum Transition Charge Amount determined for one or more Retail Consumer Groups having regard to the Fair Allocation Plan otherwise applicable may be appropriately reduced to recognize the effect of the Over-Assessed Amount. In such a case, a determination to reduce the Maximum Transition Charge Amount applicable for certain related Reference Periods should have regard to the principle that the corresponding rebate should be extended to benefit the Consumer Group or Consumer Groups in closest proximity to the Legislative Implementation Date.

Commented [A12]: See comment above - does this create an RRA for IESO and is that supportable? How is OEB involved? KPMG paper will need to support. (OPCD – please see comment above – feedback on paper included with CAB submission would be appreciated.)

(3) Attribution Methodology – The Fair Allocation Plan shall specify the Attribution Methodology for the purposes of allocating the Period Transition Charges across the Retail Consumers of a particular Retail Consumer Group. The Attribution Methodology shall result in an attribution of such Transition Charges that is considered by the Delegate to be equitable, and may have regard to such principles and parameters as may be further set forth in a Regulation.

(4) Amendments of the Fair Allocation Plan – The Fair Allocation Plan may be amended, amended and restated or terminated by the Delegate, provided that such amendment, amendment and restatement or termination shall (a) not be inconsistent with the principles and parameters set forth in (2) or (3), above, or the Regulation and (b) comply with any restrictions or limitations specified with respect thereto in any Funding Obligation.

Article 8 – The IESO Retained Interest

(1) Maintain Books of Account – IESO may maintain books of account to record the IESO Retained Interest Amount and all adjustments thereto from time to time. Such books of account shall be determinative with respect to the amount of IESO's related regulatory asset.

(2) Limitation on Additions – IESO shall not record additions to the IESO Retained Interest Amount in respect of IESO Funding Shortfalls (a) if such additions are restricted by the terms of any Disposition Document or the Collective Action Agreement, or (b) on or after •, 2017.

(3) Dispositions – IESO may effect a Disposition to an Absolute Assignee if (a) the Absolute Assignee has or will concurrently become bound by the Collective Rights Agreement; (b) the Disposition is effected pursuant to a Disposition Agreement duly executed by IESO; (c) the Financial Services Agent confirms in writing that the Disposition is permitted under the Financing Plan; and (d) the net proceeds payable to IESO from the sale of the related Investment Interest would not exceed the IESO Retained Interest Amount immediately before the time of such Disposition.

(4) No Continuing Interest in any Investment Interest – IESO shall have no continuing right or interest in any Investment Interest subject to a Disposition effected by IESO under a Disposition Document to which IESO is a party and IESO shall not assert any such right or interest or take or omit to take any action to exercise or enforce its rights or interests under the IESO Retained Interest if such action or omission would impede or obstruct the rights of any Absolute Assignee or a Pledgee to enforce its rights and interests in any Investment Interest, except if IESO is expressly permitted to take or omit to take such action, respectively, under the related Disposition Document or the Collective Rights Agreement.

(5) IESO Financing Costs – IESO shall be entitled in good faith to incur reasonable financing costs (including interest and other reasonable financing charges) reflecting market terms and conditions and which are payable in arrears, in order to finance its ownership of the IESO Retained Interest from time to time.

(6) IESO Recoveries – IESO shall, in respect of a month, be entitled to receive from IESO Remittances on a related Settlement Date the amount (if any) available to IESO under Section 5(6)(b).

Article 9 – The Financing Plan

Commented [A13]: Comment - keep at OPG level to maintain the control at that level (OPCD – the plan is for OPG to develop)

(1) Power to Prepare, Implement and Amend the Financing Plan – The Financial Services Agent shall be authorized to prepare, implement and amend the Financing Plan. If the Financial Services Agent is unwilling or unable to prepare and propose the adoption of the Financing Plan, the Delegate may by written declaration designate one or more other persons who shall be authorized to prepare, implement and amend the Financing Plan.

(2) Terms and Conditions of the Financing Plan – The Financing Plan shall establish the basis for each Absolute Assignee's funding decisions. The Financing Plan shall have regard to the principles and parameters set forth in Schedule 3 and such other conditions and requirements as may be specified in a written declaration of the Delegate or in accordance with the Regulation.

(3) OEB Approval – Any Additional Funding Charge payable to or for the benefit of the Financial Services Agent shall be subject to review and approval by the OEB.

(4) OEB Review – The OEB [shall] undertake an annual review of the records maintained by the Financial Services Agent for the purpose of confirming that the Funding Obligations incurred and the Finance Amounts paid by or on behalf of the Absolute Assignees were incurred and paid, respectively, in material conformity with the Financing Plan.

(5) Replacement of the Administrative Agent – If the OEB identifies deficiencies or makes recommendations in its review under Section 9(4), the Administrative Agent shall take reasonable measures to remedy such deficiencies if remediable, and shall in any event have regard to the recommendations of the OEB in relation to further actions undertaken by the Financial Services Agent under the Financing Plan. If the Financial Services Agent is unwilling or unable to reflect such recommendations in relation to such further actions, the Delegate may by written declaration designate one or more other persons who shall thereafter become the Financial Services.

(6) Obligation to Apply IESO Remittances – The Financial Services Agent shall ensure that amounts transferred to it under Article 5, as agent for and on behalf of the Absolute Assignees, or otherwise in respect of or as proceeds from an applicable Investment Interest shall only be applied or used to pay related Finance Amounts when they are due and payable and for no other purpose.

(7) Non-Recourse – The Financing Plan shall be implemented so that Funding Obligations incurred shall be without recourse to or to any assets of the Electricity Distributors, IESO, any Alternative Servicer, any Alternative Collection Agent, the Financial Services Agent, the OEB, the Province or the Lieutenant Governor in Council, other than if and to the extent that such persons or entities are liable for the performance of obligations or duties arising under this Act or expressly agree to become liable pursuant to any Funding Obligation or obligation in relation to a Finance Amount. [All Funding Obligations shall contain a statement to the following effect: "Neither the full faith and credit nor the taxing power of the Province of Ontario is pledged to the payment of the principal of, or interest on, this [obligation].]

(8) Incurrences are Binding – Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, each Disposition made to or by an Absolute Assignee and all amounts payable or becoming due and payable by or on behalf of an Absolute Assignee under or in connection with any obligation purporting to be a Funding Obligation, shall be binding for the purposes of this Act, including in determining the amount of related Transition Charges, despite any impairment or defect resulting from such failure.

[Article 10 – Compliance Matters[19]

(1) Right of the [OEB] to Inspect Books and Records - For the purpose of investigating compliance with the provisions of this Act, the OEB shall have the right, jurisdiction, power and authority to examine the books and records of [Insert names if any].

(2) [OPG's Rate Settings – When setting other rates for or in respect of OPG, the OEB shall not take into account (a) the administrative or servicing fees charged by OPG as Financial Services Agent [in excess of the actual incremental costs incurred by such person of providing administrative or servicing services]; (b) the cost consequences to OPG of being the Financial Services Agent; or (c) the consequence of OPG

consolidating the assets and liabilities of any Financing Entity for OPG's accounting purposes, in each case in setting any regulated payment amounts for OPG.][20]

Article 11 – Undertaking of the Lieutenant Governor in Council[21]

(1) No Action to limit, alter, or impair or terminate Transition Charges, the Regulatory Asset or Collections – The [Lieutenant Governor in Council] shall not in any way take or permit any action to reduce, impair, postpone or terminate the obligation of Retail Consumers to pay Transition Charges or to impair the Regulatory Asset or the collection or recovery of Transition Charge Collections, Electricity Distributor Remittances or IESO Remittances, either directly or indirectly, including through the introduction of any bill or the passing of any legislation or regulation having such effect. The amount of Transition Charges determined under this Act shall not be subject in any way to reduction, impairment, postponement or termination as a result of any action taken or failure by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, including through the introduction of any bill or the passing of any legislation or regulation having such effect.

(2) Undertaking and Agreement – The [Lieutenant Governor in Council] shall not:

(a) in any way take or permit any action that limits, alters or impairs the value of any Investment Interest;

(b) except as required by the estimates and adjustments made in determining the True-up Amount, reduce, alter or impair Transition Charges that are imposed, billed, invoiced, collected and remitted for the benefit of the Absolute Assignees or any Pledgee from time to time;

(c) permit the amendment, amendment and restatement or termination of the Fair Allocation Plan if such amendment , amendment and restatement or termination would adversely affect the validity or enforceability of any Funding Obligation or the rights of an Absolute Assignee or Pledgee thereunder, in each case including through the introduction of any bill or the passing of any legislation or regulation having such effect.

(3) Successor IESO – If IESO is restructured, dissolved or becomes insolvent or is otherwise incapable of performing its obligations under this Act, Successor IESO shall be established to perform such obligations.

[20] As an alternative to this provision, consider clarifying under s. 78.1(4) of the OEB Act (which currently gives the OEB discretion in setting payment amounts subject to O. Reg. 53/05) that the OEB in setting OPG payment amounts for prescribed generation shall not consider OPG's role as Administrative Agent of any Financing Entities associated with the Fair Hydro initiative, perhaps with the exception of any operating fees that may be received by OPG for performing that role.

[21] Under consideration, including the dealers' request for a "servicer guarantee" and a "contractual guarantee" to address a "Change of Law" or if all or a portion of the legislation is ultra vires, requiring (at the lenders option), the Province to pay principal and interest on the outstanding debt until maturity or payout the entire debt including any make-wholes.

(4) Compensation for Failure – Absolute Assignees shall be compensated for any losses suffered by them as a result of any failure by the Lieutenant Governor in Council to comply with its undertakings and agreements in this Article 11.[22]

(5) No Wind-up of Financing Entity. No Financing Entity may be voluntarily wound up, liquidated or dissolved until one year after all of its Funding Obligations are repaid.

(6) References to the Undertaking and Agreement – Any non-confidential reference to the Undertaking of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, including in marketing materials and other documentation authorized for use by the Administrative in connection with any Funding Obligation, may be made provided that [Add conditions to protect the Province].

Article 12 – Regulations

Regulations may be made under this Act for the purposes described in Sections •,•,• and • and may be promulgated for any of the following purposes:

(a) to set standards and measures regarding the commercially reasonable requirements of the Province associated with an Absolute Assignee incurring Funding Obligations or becoming obligated to pay any Finance Amount, including to establish guidelines regarding all-in funding costs; permitted Additional Funding Charges; required maturities and redemption and termination rights of Funding Obligations; liquidity requirements, in each case to a Financing Plan that is consistent in its effect with the Fair Allocation Plan;

(b) to establish and empower one or more regulated entities to undertake decision-making activities with respect to this Act;

(c) to set out reasonable requirements regarding the appointment or retention of advisors, agents, service providers, contract counterparties, including in relation to 'market terms and conditions' parameters;

(d) to provide for audit and compliance standards applicable to those persons who are or may become obligated or have duties that arise under this Act [or under any Funding Obligation];

(e) to provide for any pre-vetting and approval requirements in relation to any incurrence by an Absolute Assignee of any Funding Obligation or obligation to pay any Finance Amount; and

(f) to provide for appeal and due process considerations in connection with the establishment, adoption, implementation and review of the Fair Allocation Plan or the Financing Plan.

Article 13- Miscellaneous[23]

[22] Requested by Torys. For discussion.

[23] OPG would like the specific amendments related to OPG to be included in the Bill.]

(1) Choice of law – The law governing, as applicable, the validity, enforceability, attachment, perfection, priority and exercise of remedies with respect to the transfer of an interest or right or creation of a security interest in the Regulatory Asset, any Transition Charge or the Undertaking of the Province shall be the laws of the Province.

(2) Conflict of law – In the event of conflict between this Act and any other law of the Province regarding the attachment, assignment or perfection, or the effect of perfection, or priority of any Disposition or Pledge, this Act shall govern to the extent of the conflict.

(3) No further acts or approvals required - Notwithstanding any provisions of any law of the Province to the contrary, no approvals, notices or authorizations other than those specified in this Act shall be required with respect to the actions to be taken in compliance with this Act, including under the Financing Plan or in relation to the establishment of the Fair Allocation Plan, and the transactions and contracts authorized in or contemplated by this Act or the Financing Plan, including the incurrence of any Funding Obligation, any Disposition, any Pledge or in the payment and performance of any attendant or incidental contract and any related expenses incurred to facilitate the preparation and implementation of the Financing Plan.

(4) Effect of invalidity after the Incurrence of any Funding Obligation - Effective on the date that a Funding Obligation is incurred under this Act, if any provision of this Act is held to be invalid or is invalidated, superseded, replaced, repealed or expires for any reason, that occurrence shall not affect any action allowed under this Act that is taken by any person who is or may become obligated or have duties that arise under this Act and any such action shall remain in full force and effect.

(5) Severability - If any Article, Section, paragraph or subparagraph of this Act or the application thereof to any person, circumstance or transaction is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or invalid, the unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of any other Article, Section, paragraph or subparagraph of this act or its application or validity to any person, circumstance or transaction, including the irrevocability of Transition Charges, the validity of the Regulatory Asset, the incurrence of any Funding Obligation, any Disposition, any Pledge, or the collection and recovery of Transition Charge Collections. To these ends, the Legislature hereby declares that the provisions of this Act are intended to be severable and that the Legislature would have enacted this Act even if any Article, Section, paragraph or subparagraph of this Act held to be unconstitutional or invalid had not been included in this Act.

Schedule 3[24]

Principles and Parameters for Establishing the Financing Plan

Commented [A14]: Risk – need to consider what could happen that could result in Province being seen to control

-Need to see the control argument to see if any possible issues – OPG memo
-Could Province setting parameters/principles have impact - this seems generic enough that would not cause an issue
(OPCD – intent is that these are just 'principles' that should be considered in developing the FP (not mandatory, but language likely still needs some work)

The following principles and parameters provide a guideline as to what a Financing Plan should address:

(1) in respect of each Reference Period, make reference to the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to each Reference Group contemplated by the Fair Allocation Plan;

(2) estimate IESO Funding Shortfalls for each Reference Period;

(3) consider alternative funding arrangements suitable to fund the estimated IESO Funding Shortfalls, including short term and/or long term Funding Obligations;

(9) consider quantities, maturities, payment obligations, prepayment or redemption rights and such other features of Funding Obligations so that payments made for a Reference Period reasonably correspond to the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to the applicable Reference Group under the Fair Allocation Plan;

(4) if the anticipated amount of any Repayment (together with payments of other Finance Amounts) to be made in respect of a Reference Period would materially exceed the allocation of the costs and benefits of the Green Generation Initiative to the applicable Retail Consumer Group under the then current Fair Allocation Plan, diligent efforts should be made to determine whether a Refinancing or deferral of such Repayment may be reasonably and cost-effectively effected based on then prevailing market terms, conditions an circumstances;

(5) reflect the assumptions and requirements specified in any contemplated Funding Obligation (e.g., any limit on the maximum amount of Transition Charges charged to a hypothetical Retail Consumer relative to his or her monthly electricity bill, as prescribed by any rating agency that ascribes its credit rating to or in respect of the Funding Obligation having regard to the application of the Allocation Methodology);

(6) incur Funding Obligations from time to time on the best terms available at such time for a financing transaction of the size and type contemplated, and having regarding to the following parameters:

a. whether the Absolute Assignees will require committed access to short term liquidity to cover estimated IESO Funding Shortfalls prior to incurring fixed term Funding Obligations, and the amount and repayment terms of any such required liquidity; provided that any Repayment required to be made under the terms of such short-term liquidity would not obligate an Absolute Assignee to repay an amount in relation to a Reference Period that would have the effect of the Financing Plan permitting incurrences of Funding Obligations payable in such Reference Period that would exceed the allocations of Future Fair Share of [24] Awaiting input from Torys based on OPG mark-up of Financing Plan sections.

Green Transition Benefits to the applicable Reference Group under the Fair Allocation Plan;

b. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will select the term to maturity of any other Funding Obligations; provided that any Repayments required to be made under the terms of such Funding Obligations should not obligate an Absolute Assignee to repay an amount in relation to a Reference Period that would have the effect of the Financing Plan permitting incurrences of Funding Obligations payable in such Reference Period that would exceed the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to the applicable Reference Group under the Fair Allocation Plan;

c. the basis upon which the interest rates applicable to such Funding Obligations would be determined;

d. the reference capital or finance market in which such Funding Obligation would be incurred, including markets outside of Canada if considered by the Financial Services Agent to be appropriate in the circumstances;

e. the currency of payments under such Funding Obligations and, if the Funding Obligations are denominated in a currency other than Canadian dollars, the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent shall cause the applicable Absolute Assignee to enter into hedging transactions to mitigate currency risk, including acceptable minimum and maximum coverage levels, having regard to the availability of related derivatives having notional amounts corresponding to the repayment and maturity profile of such Funding Obligations;

f. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will select counterparties under any transaction to be entered into by an Absolute Assignee, including any paying agent, servicer, cash manager, liquidity provider, hedge counterparty, account bank, lender, note trustee, security trustee, paying agent, registrar/transfer agent, financial services agent, arranger or manager;

g. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will manage counterparty risk, including by providing for maximum counterparty exposure limits having regard to concentration, credit and other identified risks with respect to individual counterparties or countries;

h. the basis upon which the Financial Services Agent will negotiate and settle Finance Amounts, including the amount of any Redemption Amounts, Finance Reserve Deposits and Additional Funding Charges;

(7) the basis upon which Funding Obligations may be redeemed, prepaid, repurchased or otherwise affected, having regard for the need to minimize debt service charges and other Funding Costs, and the need to maintain a stable funding platform to finance the IESO Funding Shortfalls from time to time on a basis that is consistent with the allocations of Future Fair Share of Green Transition Benefits to applicable Reference Groups under the Fair Allocation Plan;

Commented [A15]: Risk – can't get sufficient funding through external markets – where do RRAs sit? How does IESO get its funding? Impact on control and consolidation. (OPCD – discussions have included contingencies involving OFA. OPCD requested contingencies be documented for consideration from a control perspective)

(8) the basis upon which any Repayments, Funding Costs and Redemption Amounts will be paid, including any defeasance, sinking fund or through other reserves or liquidity facilities;

(9) the basis upon which fees, charges, expenses, costs, indemnities, reimbursements and other amounts payable to or for the benefit of the Financial Services Agent and other agents and service providers to the Absolute Assignees may be determined, allocated and paid;

(10) the timing and basis upon which Finance Reserve Deposits and Finance Reserve Withdrawals may be made;

(11) the basis upon which any obligations for any other Additional Funding Charges may be incurred and paid;

(12) the basis upon which the cash flows arising from time to time or otherwise derived from the Regulatory Asset may otherwise be applied, including in relation to any counterparty enforcement and realization scenario;

(13) the transmittal to [the IESO] of information related to the amounts to be included in the determination of the Period Transition Charge for a Reference Period;

(14) the basis upon which any Disposition may be made or effected by an Absolute Assignee, including parameters for determining the purchase price for the interest in the Regulatory Asset that is the subject matter of such Disposition, and any consents and releases that may be usefully obtained in connection with such Disposition;

(15) describe the requirements applicable to any special purchase entity that will purchase an Investment Interest, including proposed capitalization, governance, and restrictions on their powers and activities; and

(16) the basis on which any Pledge may be given or effected.

Hi Nadine,

I went back to the Basis for Conclusion for IFRS 14 and found the following:

BC15 The IASB acknowledges the difficult practice problems related to this issue. The IASB has, therefore, decided to issue this Standard, which allows entities that currently recognise regulatory deferral account balances in accordance with their previous GAAP to continue to do so when making the transition to IFRS. In accordance with paragraph 5, an entity is only eligible to apply this Standard if it:

(a) is subject to oversight and/or approval from an authorised body (the rate regulator);

(b) recognised regulatory deferral account balances in its financial statements in accordance with its previous GAAP; and

(c) elected to apply the requirements of this Standard in its first IFRS financial statements.

BC16 Consequently, an entity that does not recognise regulatory deferral account balances in accordance with its previous GAAP in the period immediately preceding its first IFRS financial statements is not eligible to apply this Standard in order to start recognising such balances. An entity would not, therefore, be eligible if, for example:

(a) the entity did not have any relevant rate-regulated activities in the period before it made the transition to IFRS but then acquires or commences rate-regulated activities after the date that it adopts IFRS; or

(b) the entity is a newly formed business and adopts IFRS in its first IFRS financial statements.

So even if the government's newly formed entity is registered with the SEC and prepares its standalone statements in accordance with US GAAP, I don't think it will be eligible to use IFRS 14 because it will be adopting IFRS for government reporting purposes at the same time it begins reporting under US GAAP (inception).

Please let me know your thoughts.

Lee Anne

Nadine - timing of the events surrounding the approval of the audited IESO financial statements was as follows:

· February 28 – in accordance with the audit committee calendar, KPMG and management presented financial statements prior to accounting policy changes to the Audit Committee for information purposes. Management and KPMG discussed the proposed accounting policy changes with the objective of bringing policies and revised financial statements back to the Audit Committee in March.

· March 1 – the Board delegated authority to the Audit Committee to review the accounting policy changes, adjust financial statements for the changes and approve on behalf of the Board

· March 15 – KPMG and management presented the accounting policy changes for rate regulated assets and market accounts to the Audit Committee at a special meeting. The presentation of materials included a memo from KPMG on the accounting policies as well as pro forma financial statements and proposed changes to the notes of the financial statements · March 22 – KPMG and management presented the audited financial statements to the Audits Committee for approval based on the delegated authority of Board from March 1st. The financial statements were approved on March 22nd.

Hi Kim.

Cindy has asked that I follow up regarding a comment made by the AG in a meeting last week. With regards to the IESO's recent decision to adopt rate regulated accounting, the AG said that a set of IESO f/s had presented to the IESO Board on March 21st which did not reflect rate regulated accounting even though IESO management and the external auditors would have known about the impending accounting and the anticipated adoption of rate regulated accounting to follow shortly thereafter.

Can you please confirm the accuracy of the AG's statement.

Thanks in advance.

Nadine

Hi Nadine,

I have availability to attend a meeting after 2pm tomorrow. It should not be a call. However, I am required to obtain authorization from our risk management department. Assuming they accept, we will need, as a minimum, to obtain from IESO a consent, release and indemnity letter.

Subject: RE: A market question

As per our discussions/understanding with external auditors from the beginning of the market, the third paragraph below is part of our significant account policies.

The policy was developed due to the separate entity relationship of the market and the corporation. In the market the IESO acts as the principle for all the market participants.

I know that Julia McNally has raised some "semantic" questions regarding GAM funded transactions not being paid to market participants but as at least one side of the transaction falls within this policy (the funding is done through the market invoices) this practice has been continued under the merged entity. The other side of that transaction is reflected in the corporate balance sheet as an intercompany receivable.

Let me know if you need anything else. (and yes, this type of question does make me panic).

b) Revenue recognition
System fees earned by the IESO are based on approved rates for each megawatt of electricity withdrawn from the IESO-controlled grid (including scheduled exports) and embedded generation. System fees are recognized as revenue at the time the electricity is withdrawn. Rebates are recognized in the year in which the regulatory deferral account, before such rebates, exceeds regulated limits.

For 2015, the system fee for the newly amalgamated IESO comprised of the combined rate calculations of the respective pre-amalgamation entities. Specifically, the former IESO rate base was calculated on electricity withdrawn from the IESO-controlled grid (including scheduled exports and embedded generation), whereas the former OPA rate base only considered Ontario electricity consumers. The IESO has submitted a rate case to the OEB for 2016 that proposes the use of one, consistent rate, based on electricity withdrawn from the IESO-controlled grid that includes scheduled exports and embedded generation.

These financial statements do not include the financial transactions of market participants within the IESO-administered markets.

Other revenue represents amounts that accrue to the IESO relating to investment income on funds passing through market settlement accounts, as well as application fees. Such revenue is recognized as is earned.

Interest and investment income represents realized interest income and investment gains or losses on cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments and long-term investments.

Market sanctions represent funds received to offset payments disbursed related to penalties, damages, fines and payment adjustments arising from resolved settlement disputes.

Thanks Kim

As discussed, we (OPCD) is going to need documentation of the accounting basis for excluding the activities in the "market" books from the IESO financial statements, and therefore, the consolidated f/s of the Province. I would suggest that this be prepared in connection with KPMG in their role as auditors (although I've kept this email internal to government so as not to unduly involve advisors until you determine appropriate). I expect the architecture of any new solution is going to intersect with this accounting issue, so timing is important.

Thanks,

Cindy

As discussed in this morning call, attached is the Ernst and Young report on the market settlement. Also attached is a market participants agreement for participation. It is more detail than anyone probably needs but shows the compliance to market rules.

Also attached is the ,market financial statements as of nov 30th. It shows the various balances including approx. 80 million from the OFA, mainly offsetting a 71mil RPP balance. Happy to discuss further

Suzie/Blake/LeeAnne,

Further to our discussion on Friday, we have received the updated draft Legislation for the Fair Hydro Act. It will continue to evolve, but is on a tight timeline, so we would appreciate your feedback on the currently envisioned model and any potential accounting risks from your perspective.

An important regroup of key stakeholders is planned for tomorrow afternoon, so if we can get your comments (concerns mainly) by tomorrow am it would be greatly appreciated.

Please direct your comments to both Cindy and myself.

Thanks.

Please find attached a completed template reflecting a time-sensitive advisory request (related to the government's electricity price mitigation initiatives), including documents which provide additional context and direction.

I would like to arrange for a short call to review the request, today if possible. I anticipate that you may want to include others on this particular assignment based on your assessment of the experience/skills required.

I'll look forward to our chat.

Assuming that e GBE sells additional shares in the market (above book value), but that the government does not sell any of its own shareholdings. As a result, the government's ownership is diluted. What would the impact be on the government's gooks under PSAB?

I am attaching our comments on the last version of the draft legislation sent to us by Blakes. Both a clean and blacklined version are attached.

This is being distributed to OPG at the same time as everyone else and so remains subject to their comments as this is very much a work in process.

We also just received comments from Hunton & Williams but in the interests of time we have not been able to include those in our mark up, but expect to be in a position to raise any of their big issues at our meeting tomorrow. Also, I will send their comments separately to Blakes.

Subject: Torys Comments on Blakes Draft Legislation

All,

I am attaching our comments on the last version of the draft legislation sent to us by Blakes. Both a clean and blacklined version are attached.

This is being distributed to OPG at the same time as everyone else and so remains subject to their comments as this is very much a work in process.

We also just received comments from Hunton & Williams but in the interests of time we have not been able to include those in our mark up, but expect to be in a position to raise any of their big issues at our meeting tomorrow. Also, I will send their comments separately to Blakes.

Regards,

Michael K. Feldman

Hi Rima. Here are my mark-ups of the agreements Torys circulated yesterday afternoon. These versions have not been reviewed by the Province, but are being circulated to this group to facilitate a discussion shortly at your office. They are/remain subject to Province input, etc. We propose to gather at your office at 5:45, if that makes sense to you. Regards, Steve

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, AS TRUSTEE OF FAIR HYDRO TRUST[1]

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC., AS FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER AND AS MANAGER OF FAIR HYDRO TRUST

AND

BNY TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, AS INDENTURE TRUSTEE

CHANGE OF LAW PROTECTION AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

[1] Torys and Blakes to discuss signatory on behalf of the Trust. The Manager is currently signing all Program Agreements on behalf of the Trust and has authority to do so. We would propose to do the same on the change of law agreement.

This AGREEMENT, among Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Financing Entity Trustee") of Fair Hydro Trust, a trust under the laws of the Province of Ontario (the "Financing Entity")[2], Ontario Power Generation Inc., in its capacity as Manager of the Financing Entity and in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the Act (the "FSM") and BNY Trust Company of Canada, a trust company existing under the laws of Canada, as Indenture Trustee, is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council dated as of ■ (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust[32] dated as of ■, 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The Financing Entity Trustee, in its capacity as trustee of the Financing Entity, and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

[2] ~~Province needs the Trust as a party to be assured of its rights of subrogation, step-in, etc.~~

[32] Torys to confirm that Trust is a "financing entity" under OFHPA. Under definition, FSM to establish or cause to be established. DofT indicates Computershare declares trust. Need to have this confirmed for purposes of authority under OFHPA 5(3), among other things.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS AND OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

1.01 Interpretation

For all purposes of this Agreement, except as otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) the terms used in this Agreement that are defined in Schedule A have the meanings assigned to them in Schedule A;

(b) words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa, words importing general shall include all genders or the neuter, and words importing the neuter shall include all genders;

(c) all references to any Person shall include such Person's permitted successors and assigns, and any reference to a Person in a particular capacity excludes such Person in other capacities;

(d) references to any law, rule, regulation or order of a Governmental Authority (including, for greater certainty, references to the Act and the General Regulation) shall include such law, rule, regulation or order as from time to time in effect, including any amendment, modification, codification, replacement or reenactment thereof or any substitution therefor;

(e) the word "will" shall be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word "shall". The word "or" is not exclusive;

(f) any reference to this Agreement or any other agreement, document or instrument shall be construed as a reference to this Agreement or, as the case may be, such other agreement, document or instrument as the same may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, varied, replaced, amended and restated, supplemented or otherwise modified;

(g) all references in this Agreement to designated "Articles", "Sections", "Subsections", "Schedules", "Exhibits" and other subdivisions are to the designated Articles, Sections, Subsections, Schedules, Exhibits and other subdivisions of this Agreement as originally executed. The words "herein",

"hereof" and "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Article, Section, Subsection, Schedule, Exhibit or other subdivision;

(h) "including" and words of similar import will be deemed to be followed by "without limitation"; and

(i) with respect to the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, unless otherwise expressly stated, the word "from" means "from and including" and the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding".

Any action taken, required to be taken or permitted to be taken by the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall only be taken in the manner, at the times, for the purposes, subject to the prerequisites, conditions, requirements and limitations, and with the benefits, exculpations, indemnities and protections that are provided to the Indenture Trustee, in each case in respect of such action taken, required to be taken or permitted to be taken by it under the Trust Indenture.

1.03 Proof of Approved Obligations

The efficacy of any agreement, instrument or writing evidencing a Primary Obligation may, in the absence of manifest error, be conclusively proved in any manner that the Indenture Trustee deems to be sufficient.

Any statement of account prepared by the Indenture Trustee as regards the Primary Obligations shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount which, as at the date of the statement so prepared, is due and payable by the Financing Entity to the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee and the Province hereby acknowledges and agrees that, absent manifest error, it shall be bound by each such statement. The Indenture Trustee agrees to provide the Province with the computations and calculations used by the Indenture Trustee to prepare each such statement of account promptly following a request therefor.

1.04 Limitation on Rights of and Actions by Specified Creditors

Specified Creditors, as Beneficiaries, shall not have or be permitted to exercise any rights, interests, or elections under this Agreement, other than in the manner and to the extent effected and exercised under, in accordance with and subject to the limitations set forth in the Trust Indenture[4] as of the date of this Agreement.

[4] ~~With respect to the possibility of unsanctioned amendments, the OPG proposal would allow amendments to be made in favour of bondholders to permit individual bondholders to sue the Province under this agreement. This is one circumstance that demonstrates why the Province needs the right to know about and consider all underlying amendments.~~

1.05 Province Retains Rights of Beneficiaries

Without limiting any rights of subrogation or succession that arise pursuant to applicable law or pursuant to the Province's rights as an assignee, subrogee or pursuant to Section 2.01 or Section 5.01, all of the rights, interests, elections and privileges that would arise in favour of a Beneficiary under the Trust Indenture or other Funding Obligation Agreement under which a related Primary Obligation arises shall automatically arise, vest in and be available to the Province to the extent of the performance by the Province of the Primary Obligation.

All covenants and agreements of ~~the Province,~~ the Indenture Trustee, the Financing Entity, the Financing Entity Trustee, the Manager or the FSM in this Agreement shall bind their respective successors, co-trustees and agents.

1.08 Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect. ~~[The parties will engage in good faith negotiations to replace any provision which is declared invalid or unenforceable with a valid and enforceable provision, the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid or unenforceable provision which it replaces.] [NTD: this is unusual. Why is it necessary in this Agreement?]~~

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

1.15 Waiver, Amendment

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision nor will any waiver of any provision of this Agreement constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Province shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) if an Acceleration has occurred in respect of any Obligations Secured on or before the Guarantee Payment Date, the amount that would be available to be paid to the Beneficiary on such Guarantee Payment Date in respect of the Approved Obligation under the applicable payment provisions of the Trust Indenture, determined on the assumption that the amount available for allocation to Specified Creditors in accordance with ~~the terms~~such applicable payment provisions of the Trust Indenture in respect of each relevant month [during each Reference Period from and after May, 2021][9] is equal to the ~~Finance Amount~~[estimated finance amount determined in respect of such Reference Period pursuant to

[19] ~~If Province is satisfied that it will receive notice of any amendments, waivers, etc. under the various agreements, and corresponding rights under the trust indenture, Province will not require veto rights over changes to the defined terms in the MTI. Draft: November 21, 2017

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

COMPUTERSHARE TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, AS TRUSTEE OF FAIR HYDRO TRUST[1]

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC., AS FINANCIAL SERVICES MANAGER AND AS MANAGER OF FAIR HYDRO TRUST

AND

BNY TRUST COMPANY OF CANADA, AS INDENTURE TRUSTEE

CHANGE OF LAW PROTECTION AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

[1] Torys and Blakes to discuss signatory on behalf of the Trust. The Manager is currently signing all Program Agreements on behalf of the Trust and has authority to do so. We would propose to do the same on the change of law agreement.

This AGREEMENT, among Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), Computershare Trust Company of Canada, in its capacity as trustee (the "Financing Entity Trustee") of Fair Hydro Trust, a trust under the laws of the Province of Ontario (the "Financing Entity"), Ontario Power Generation Inc., in its capacity as Manager of the Financing Entity and in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager in accordance with the Act (the "FSM") and BNY Trust Company of Canada, a trust company existing under the laws of Canada, as Indenture Trustee, is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

Pursuant to Subsection 5(3) of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council may by order, authorize the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to agree to guarantee or indemnify certain debts, obligations, securities or undertakings associated with an Investment Interest.

Pursuant to an Order in Council dated as of ■ (the "OIC"), the Lieutenant Governor in Council has, among other things, authorized the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, to enter into one or more agreements to guarantee or indemnify the debts, obligations, securities or undertakings of one or more financing entities established or caused to be established pursuant to Subsection 22(2) of the Act by the FSM and that may incur Funding Obligations in connection with one or more Investment Interests.

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust[2] dated as of ■, 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.

The Financing Entity Trustee, in its capacity as trustee of the Financing Entity, and the Indenture Trustee are parties to the Trust Indenture and propose to create and issue series of notes, bonds and other securities as contemplated therein, and to provide security over the assets and undertaking of the Financing Entity in respect of such notes, bonds and securities, as well as other Obligations Secured.

The Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance, acting together on behalf of the Province of Ontario, have determined to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions at the time the Approved Obligation is incurred or amended. This Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of such protections and assurances.

[2] Torys to confirm that Trust is a "financing entity" under OFHPA. Under definition, FSM to establish or cause to be established. DofT indicates Computershare declares trust. Need to have this confirmed for purposes of authority under OFHPA 5(3), among other things.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of the Province, the Financing Entity, the FSM and the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with the Act, the OIC and the Trust Indenture, have been done.

AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES

In consideration of the respective agreements herein contained, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

Any statement of account prepared by the Indenture Trustee as regards the Primary Obligations shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount which, as at the date of the statement so prepared, is due and payable by the Financing Entity to the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee and the Province hereby acknowledges and agrees that, absent manifest error, it shall be bound by each such statement. The Indenture Trustee agrees to provide the Province with the computations and calculations used by the Indenture Trustee to prepare each such statement of account promptly following a request therefor.

1.04 Limitation on Rights of and Actions by Specified Creditors

Specified Creditors, as Beneficiaries, shall not have or be permitted to exercise any rights, interests, or elections under this Agreement, other than in the manner and to the extent effected and exercised under, in accordance with and subject to the limitations set forth in the Trust Indenture as of the date of this Agreement.

1.05 Province Retains Rights of Beneficiaries

Without limiting any rights of subrogation or succession that arise pursuant to applicable law or pursuant to the Province's rights as an assignee, subrogee or pursuant to Section 2.01 or Section 5.01, all of the rights, interests, elections and privileges that would arise in favour of a Beneficiary under the Trust Indenture or other Funding Obligation Agreement under which a related Primary Obligation arises shall automatically arise, vest in and be available to the Province to the extent of the performance by the Province of the Primary Obligation.

1.08 Severability

Each of the provisions contained in this Agreement is distinct and severable and a declaration of invalidity or unenforceability of any such provision or part thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision hereof. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties waive any provision of law which renders any provision of this Agreement invalid or unenforceable in any respect.

1.09 Governing Law

THIS AGREEMENT WILL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH AND GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO AND THE FEDERAL LAWS OF CANADA APPLICABLE THEREIN, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY WAIVE ANY RIGHT THEY MAY HAVE TO REQUIRE A TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY PROCEEDING COMMENCED IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

1.12 Counterparts; Electronic Delivery

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed will be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts will together constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by a party by

1.13 Change of Law Protection Agreement Referred to in the Trust Indenture

This Agreement is the "Change of Law Protection Agreement" referred to in the Trust Indenture.

1.14 Non-Business Days

1.15 Waiver, Amendment

Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, no amendment or waiver of this Agreement will be binding unless executed in writing by the party to be bound thereby. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any other provision nor will any waiver of any provision of this Agreement constitute a continuing waiver unless otherwise expressly provided. A party's failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that right. A single or partial exercise of any right will not preclude a party from any other or further exercise of that right or the exercise of any other right.

1.16 Interest Act

For the purpose of disclosure pursuant to the Interest Act (Canada), the yearly rate of interest to which any rate of interest payable under this Agreement that is calculated on any basis other than a full calendar year is equivalent may be determined by multiplying such rate by a fraction, the numerator of which is the actual number of days in the calendar year in which such yearly rate of interest is to be ascertained and the denominator of which is the number of days comprising such other basis. The parties further agree that for the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada), (i) the principle of deemed reinvestment of interest shall not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement, and (ii) the rates of interest stipulated in this Agreement are intended to be nominal rates and not effective rates or yields.

1.17 Currency

Unless stated otherwise, all amounts herein are stated in Canadian Dollars.

1.18 References to Acts of the Financing Entity

For greater certainty, where any reference is made in this Agreement, or in any other instrument executed pursuant hereto or contemplated hereby to which the Financing Entity or the Financing Entity Trustee, as trustee of the Financing Entity, is party, to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against, or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to (i) the Financing Entity or (ii) the Financing Entity Trustee, such reference shall be construed and applied for all purposes as if it referred to an act to be performed by, an appointment to be made by, an obligation or liability of, an asset or right of, a discharge or release to be provided by, a suit or proceeding to be taken by or against or a covenant, representation or warranty (other than relating to the constitution or existence of the Financing Entity) by or with respect to, the Financing Entity Trustee as trustee of the Financing Entity.

1.19 Judgment Currency

(a) If for the purpose of obtaining judgment in any court or for any other purposes (other than conversions specifically provided for in the agreement under which an Approved Obligation arises), it is necessary to convert any amount due under this Agreement from the currency in which it is due (the "Original Currency") into another currency (the "Second Currency"), the rate of exchange applied shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, the purchaser could purchase, in the New York foreign exchange market, the Original Currency with the Second Currency on the date on which judgment is given. The obligation of the Province in respect of any Original Currency due from it to the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any judgment or payment in such other currency, be discharged only to the extent that, on the Business Day following receipt of any sum so paid or adjudged to be due under this Agreement in the Second Currency, the Indenture Trustee may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase in the New York foreign exchange market the Original Currency with the amount of the Second Currency so paid or so adjudged to be due; and if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the amount originally due in the Original Currency, the Province shall indemnify the Indenture Trustee against such loss.

(b) The term "rate of exchange" in this Section 1.19 means the spot rate at which the Indenture Trustee, in accordance with normal practice, is able on the relevant date to purchase the Original Currency with the Second Currency and includes any premium and costs of exchange payable in connection with such purchase.

ARTICLE II
AGREEMENT TO PERFORM APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

2.01 Limited Guarantee

(a) Upon the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Indenture Trustee may deliver a written demand, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A (a "Payment Demand"), to the Province requiring the Province to make payments in respect of the Approved Obligations at the times, in the amounts and subject to the requirements specified in this Agreement. From and after such delivery of a

Payment Demand, the Province shall make the following payments in respect of the Approved Obligations (the "Limited Guarantee"), and the Financing Entity shall pay, and the Province shall be entitled to be paid, the Subrogation Amounts specified below, on the specified Payment Date:

i. Not less than [3] Business Days prior to each day when any payment or payments are to be made in respect of one or more Approved Obligations occurring after such delivery of a Payment Demand and prior to the Assumption Effective Date, if any, (a "Guarantee Payment Date"), the Manager shall deliver a written statement, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A.1 (a "Guarantor Settlement Statement") setting forth the Aggregate Approved Obligations Amount, if any, in respect of the Approved Obligations that are due and payable on such Guarantee Payment Date, together with a detailed description identifying such Approved Obligations and the nature and amount of payments due and payable thereunder on the Guarantee Payment Date, the aggregate outstanding amount payable by the Financing Entity under such Approved Obligations as of the date of the Guarantor Settlement Statement, and details regarding any default in performance by any party obligated thereunder.

ii. On each such Guarantee Payment Date, the Province shall deposit the Aggregate Approved Obligations Amount into the Protection Account.

iii. On each such Guarantee Payment Date, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee shall ensure that the amounts on deposit in the Protection Account are applied to pay each Beneficiary to whom an amount is due and payable under an Approved Obligation on the Guarantee Payment Date the Approved Obligation Amount for such Beneficiary in respect of such Approved Obligation on such Guarantee Payment Date; provided that if the amount deposited pursuant to clause 2.01(a)ii is insufficient to pay all such Approved Obligation Amounts in full, the amount on deposit in the Protection Account on the Guarantee Payment Date shall be applied to pay Beneficiaries in the order of priority in which such Approved Obligations are payable under the payment provisions of the Trust Indenture applicable to the making of such payments on the Guarantee Payment Date (each, a "Beneficiary Payee").

iv. On any Guarantee Payment Date on which an amount is paid by the Province pursuant to clause 2.01(a)ii, the applicable payment provisions of the Trust Indenture shall, notwithstanding the express terms of such provisions set forth in the Trust Indenture, be applied and operate on the following basis:

(i) the amount payable to a Beneficiary Payee in respect of an Approved Obligation from amounts available under such payment provisions on such Guarantee Payment Date shall be reduced by the amount paid to the Beneficiary Payee pursuant to clause 2.01(a)iii in respect of such Approved Obligation on such Guarantee Payment Date;

(ii) the Province shall be paid the amount by which (x) the amount payable to a Beneficiary Payee in respect of an Approved Obligation from amounts available to pay the Beneficiary Payee under such payment provisions on the Guarantee Payment Date, determined without regard to subclause 2.01(a)iv(i), exceeds the amount paid to the Beneficiary Payee pursuant to clause 2.01(a)iii in respect of such Approved Obligation on the Guarantee Payment Date (such payments to the Province being "Subrogation Amounts"); and

(iii) no Beneficiary having a right to be paid an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation that ranks equal with or subordinate to an Approved Obligation in respect of which an amount is payable to the Province under subclause 2.01(a)iv(ii) shall be entitled to make any claim or assert any right in or to the amounts paid or payable to the Province under such subclause (including any right or reimbursement, contribution or indemnity) and no such Beneficiary shall have any right or interest in, to or under the Collateral or any proceeds therefrom in respect of such amounts.

v. On any Guarantee Payment Date, the Indenture Trustee shall release and pay to the Province free and clear of any Liens any amount remaining on deposit in the Protection Account that has not been applied to pay Beneficiary Payees on the Guarantee Payment Date in accordance with clause 2.01(a)iii.

vi. In preparing any payment instructions under the Trust Indenture, the Manager shall reflect the amounts payable for the Guarantee Payment Date under Section 2.01(a).

(b) The Province shall, as a payee of Subrogation Amounts and any amounts payable under clause 2.01(a)v, be a "Specified Creditor" under the Trust Indenture and have the benefit of the Collateral thereunder.

(c) For greater certainty, the Limited Guarantee will not apply to any amount or obligation of the Financing Entity that is not or does not arise under an Approved Obligation and will be limited to the right to receive the Approved Obligation Amounts, if any, for payment to Beneficiary Payees and will be subject to the priorities and to the Province's rights to Subrogation Amounts, set forth in Section 2.01(a).

(d) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Province's obligation to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee shall be irrevocable, absolute and unconditional.

(e) Any amount payable by the Province under the Limited Guarantee in respect of an Approved Obligation that is not paid by the Province when required herein shall bear interest from the applicable due date until paid in full at the rate or rates expressed to be payable on the Approved Obligation.

(f) The right to deliver a Payment Demand and thereupon enforce the Limited Guarantee shall constitute the only remedy available to the Indenture Trustee (and to the Beneficiaries, to the extent they are permitted to exercise any rights, interests, or elections under in accordance with the Trust Indenture) under this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall the Province be obligated to pay or indemnify the Indenture Trustee or any Beneficiary for consequential, special or punitive damages, or for economic loss or loss of profits; provided that, for greater certainty, economic loss shall not include any amount in respect of any amount due and payable to a Beneficiary Payee under the Limited Guarantee.

2.02 Intentionally Deleted.

2.03 Absence of Set-off

Subject to applicable law, the Province acknowledges and agrees that each payment to be made by the Province hereunder in respect of an Approved Obligation shall be made as required in whole, without application of any right of set-off and without regard to any equities as between or among any of the Province, the Beneficiaries and/or the Indenture Trustee.

2.04 Payment into Protection Account[3] in Satisfaction

(a) On or before the date of delivery of a Payment Demand to the Province, the Indenture Trustee shall cause to be established and maintained an Eligible Deposit Account (the "Protection Account") in the name of the Indenture Trustee, bearing a designation clearly indicating that the funds and other property credited thereto are held for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Beneficiaries. The Protection Account shall be under the control of the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. If, at any time, the institution holding the Protection Account ceases to be an Eligible Institution, the FSM shall notify the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee upon being notified in writing of such ineligibility (or the FSM on its behalf) shall within 30 days (or such longer period, not to exceed 45 days, so long as the Rating Agency Condition is satisfied) establish a new Protection Account that is an Eligible Deposit Account and shall transfer any funds or other property from such Protection Account to such new Protection Account. From the date each such new Protection Account is established, it shall be the "Protection Account" for purposes of this Agreement. Funds credited to the Protection Account will be invested and held in accordance with Section 7.03 of the Trust Indenture on the basis that it is an Issuer Account.

[3] Mechanics of Protection Account to be considered by Province after required modifications to Trust Indenture have been provided.

(b) Notwithstanding the priority of payment requirements set forth in the Trust Indenture and any legal rule concerning the imputation of payments, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee shall ensure that all amounts paid by the Province into the Protection Account on a Guarantee Payment Date in respect of an Approved Obligation are applied to pay the amounts due and payable to the Beneficiaries as and to the extent provided for in Section 2.01(a). Upon a payment having been made by or on behalf of the Province into the Protection Account, the amounts so paid shall for all purposes be considered to have been applied to pay the applicable Beneficiaries as provided for in Section 2.01(a) and thereby reduce the amount due and payable to such Beneficiaries in respect of the applicable Approved Obligations, whereupon an affected Beneficiary shall have no continuing rights, interests or entitlements (including rights as a secured party) in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent so paid[4]. For greater certainty, the obligations arising in respect of an applicable Approved Obligation shall not be reduced by such payment as the Province shall become entitled to be paid related Subrogation Amounts and the rights contemplated under Section 2.01(a) and Section 5.01 in relation to such continuing obligations.

2.05 Certain Waivers

The Province hereby waives:

(a) any requirement, and any right to require, that any power be exercised or any action be taken against the Financing Entity or any Collateral for any of the Approved Obligations;

(b) all notices which may be required by applicable law to preserve any rights against the Province hereunder, including any notice of default, demand, dishonour, presentment and protest;

(c) diligence; and

(d) any defence based upon, arising out of or in any way related to any claim that any election of remedies by the Beneficiaries impaired, reduced, released or extinguished any rights that the Province might otherwise have had against the Financing Entity or any other surety.

The Province agrees that each such waiver is made with full knowledge of its significance and consequences and if any such waiver is determined to be contrary to any applicable law or public policy, such waiver shall be effective only to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.

[4] A corresponding provision needs to be added to the Trust Indenture and each other Funding Obligation Agreement under which the Obligation Secured arises, so that the Beneficiaries are bound by these applications and the agreement of the Indenture Trustee under this Agreement.

2.06 Additional Security

This Agreement shall be in addition to and without prejudice to any other security by whomsoever given, held at any time by the Indenture Trustee or for the benefit of any of the Beneficiaries.

2.07 Continuing Liability of the Province

The Approved Obligations shall be deemed not to have been paid, observed or performed, and the liability of the Province hereunder in respect thereof shall continue and not be discharged, to the extent that any payment, observance or performance thereof by the Financing Entity, or out of the proceeds of any Collateral, is recovered from or reimbursed by or for the account of any of the Beneficiaries for any reason, including a preference or fraudulent transfer or by virtue of any subordination (whether present or future or contractual or otherwise) of the Approved Obligations, whether such recovery or payment over is effected by any judgment, decree or order of any court or Governmental Authority, by any plan of reorganization or by settlement or compromise by any of the Beneficiaries (whether or not consented to by the Financing Entity or the Province) of any claim for any such recovery or payment over.

2.08 Continuance of the Limited Guarantee

Subject to Section 2.07, the Limited Guarantee shall continue in full force and effect until the indefeasible payment, observance and performance in full of the Approved Obligations, or until the Province is no longer required to provide and perform the Limited Guarantee in accordance with Section 6.03 or Section 8.02.

2.09 Modifications of Approved Obligations

The Province expressly authorizes the Indenture Trustee, at any time and from time to time, without notice and without affecting the liability of the Province hereunder, but subject to compliance with the requirements of the Program Agreements and this Agreement, to:

(a) accept new, additional or replacement instruments, documents, agreements or security in connection with all or any part of the Approved Obligations;

(b) accept partial payments on the Approved Obligations; and

(c) waive, release, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, compromise, liquidate and enforce all or any part of the Approved Obligations and any security or guarantee therefor, and apply any such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as the Indenture Trustee (for the benefit of the Beneficiaries) in its discretion may determine.

ARTICLE III
THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

3.01 The Indenture Trustee

This Agreement is made in favour of the Indenture Trustee in its capacity as trustee under the Trust Indenture. Accordingly, in the event of a new trustee being appointed under the Trust Indenture, such new trustee shall thereupon become and be the Indenture Trustee hereunder, but nevertheless, the Indenture Trustee shall forthwith assign, transfer and make over to the new trustee hereunder this Agreement. All provisions of the Trust Indenture for the protection of the Indenture Trustee or for facilitating the administration of the trusts or otherwise relating to the Indenture Trustee solely as to its holding of the rights thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Agreement and the Indenture Trustee's duties hereunder.

3.02 Acceptance of Trusts

The Indenture Trustee hereby accepts the trusts hereof and agrees to carry out and discharge the same unless and until a new trustee shall be appointed as contemplated in Section 3.01.

ARTICLE IV
APPROVED OBLIGATIONS

4.01 Approval Process

A Primary Obligation shall constitute an Approved Obligation if the Adherence Conditions applicable thereto have been satisfied at the time the Primary Obligation was incurred.

4.02 Adherence Conditions[5]

The following shall be the Adherence Conditions applicable in relation to each Primary Obligation other than any Funding Obligation under which not more than $■ in the aggregate may become payable by the Financing Entity:

(a) the Primary Obligation when incurred is an Obligation Secured under the Trust Indenture; and

(b) OPG, as FSM, delivers a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG and, for clarity, such certificate is to be provided by such officers in their capacity as officers of OPG acting in its capacity as FSM) and addressed to the Indenture Trustee, one Business Day prior to the Financing

Entity entering into or becoming bound by the related Funding Obligation Agreement, confirming that OPG has delivered to the Province a certificate signed by the Chief Financial Officer and the Treasurer of OPG (or their respective designees, provided that such designees are executive officers of OPG and, for clarity, such certificate is to be provided by such officers in their capacity as officers of OPG acting in its capacity as FSM) confirming that OPG has complied with all of its obligations to the Province and internal requirements and processes in connection with the adherence of the Limited Guarantee to the Primary Obligation; and

(c) in respect of a Primary Obligation other than a Refinancing of a Primary Obligation in respect of which the Adherence Conditions had been satisfied, the Province has not provided Suspension Notice to the Indenture Trustee, OPG and the Financing Entity.

For greater certainty, satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions for a Funding Obligation shall be deemed satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions in respect of all principal, interest and other amounts owing under the Funding Obligation, as such Funding Obligation may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time.

4.03 Evidence of Satisfaction

A closing certificate delivered in accordance with Section 4.02(b)(x) in connection with an incurrence of a Primary Obligation shall be determinative as to whether the applicable Adherence Conditions with respect thereto have been satisfied, notwithstanding that such certificate may include inaccuracies, be incomplete or otherwise be defective or deficient, and such closing certificate may be relied upon by any addressee as conclusive evidence of same.

ARTICLE V
PROVINCE MATTERS

5.01 Assignment and Subrogation

(a) Upon paying an amount in respect of an Approved Obligation to or at the direction of the Indenture Trustee in satisfaction of the Limited Guarantee, the Province (in addition to and without prejudice to any rights it otherwise has in law or equity) shall be subrogated and entitled to all of the applicable Beneficiary's rights and interests under and in respect of the Approved Obligation to the extent of such payment, including (i) the right and entitlement to be paid and receive the related Subrogation Amounts, (ii) the benefits of the related Collateral and (iii) all proceeds therefrom. The Province shall have and be entitled to enforce all rights and interests (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)), under and in respect of such Approved Obligation to the extent of the payment by the Province in respect of the Approved Obligation as an absolute assignee of the applicable Beneficiary, with effect from and after the time of such payment, without any further requirement for notice to or acceptance by the Financing Entity of such absolute assignment and without any reduction, set-off or counterclaim on account of any amounts that may, at or after the time of payment, be or become owing by the Beneficiary to the Financing Entity and unaffected by any other rights or equities that arise thereafter as between the Beneficiary and the Financing Entity. The Indenture Trustee shall recognize the Province as being entitled to all of the rights, interests and entitlements of the Beneficiary (including as a Specified Creditor under the Trust Indenture on the basis contemplated in Section 5.01(b)) in respect and to the extent of the Approved Obligation so paid, determined as of the time of payment, for all purposes under the Trust Indenture, and the Province shall be treated as a Specified Creditor in respect thereof for all purposes under the Trust Indenture and any other agreement under which the Approved Obligation arises.

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC.

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG") is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.[1]

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of [■], 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.[2]

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, OPG provided the Province with ~~copies~~the proposed forms of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has ~~confirmed by a notice delivered to OPG that the reviewed forms (as further described in such notice) shall be Reviewed Documentation for the purposes of this Agreement.~~[2]not objected to such forms.

This Agreement sets out the obligations OPG has agreed to perform and assurances OPG has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of OPG and the Province, have been done.

[1] Blakes suggests that it be made clear in the Declaration of Trust that OPG is establishing the Trust. Blakes would appreciate the benefit of Torys analysis as to how the Trust is an "entity" under the OFHPA, as opposed to the trustee. Clearly OPG has not established Computershare. Blakes and Torys to discuss.

[2] Lawyers to discuss.

~~[2] Once agreements are settled, Province to provide draft notice.~~

(d) Promptly following any incurrence of a Funding Obligation or any amendment of a Funding Obligation, OPG shall provide the Province with electronic copies of all related Governing Documents and all other closing documents executed by or on behalf of the Financing Entity in connection with such incurrence or amendment that would affect the Financing Entity's assets or obligations (including, for greater certainty, any related Disclosure Document) and which have not been previously provided to the Province.

(e) Promptly upon request, OPG shall provide the Province with such additional information and documentation as the Province reasonably requests in order to enable the Province to assess the nature and extent of its obligations under the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

(B) [4]extend, renew, compromise, novate, replace, suspend, reconvey, terminate, abandon, subordinate, exchange, substitute, transfer, compound, liquidate or enforce the terms of all or any part of the Approved Obligations or any Collateral, if any such action could reasonably be considered to be materially prejudicial to the rights or interests of the Province under the Change of Law Protection Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing does not apply to the extent that only particular financial terms, rates and levels are affected[3];

(C) permit the validity or effectiveness of the Change of Law Protection Agreement to be impaired.

(b) OPG shall:

(i) comply, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause compliance by the Financing Entity, with the Act, the General Regulation and any other enactment related thereto;

(c) ~~(d)~~ Nothing in this Agreement [nor in the Change of Law Protection Agreement][4] shall limit the obligations of the Province under the Indemnity Agreement by the Province in favour of OPG dated June 1, 2017 (as amended, the "Indemnity Agreement") and to the extent of any conflict between this Agreement, the Change of Law Protection Agreement and such Indemnity Agreement, in respect of any matter relating to the Province's obligations to indemnify OPG, the Indemnity Agreement shall prevail.

(e) a statement that no Breach Event has occurred on or prior to the date of the Process Certificate, unless such Breach Event has been waived by the Province in writing; and[9]

[8] ~~Note to Province: We have revised this section so as to allow the Process Agreement to be cleansed from the Change of Law Protection Agreement. In addition to all the deliverables under section 2.01 of this Agreement, the Province will receive the certifications in section 3.01 in the case of an incurrence of funding obligations and an amendment to funding obligations.~~

[9] ~~We have cleansed the Protection Agreement of the concept of the Process Agreement and the related concept of the Breach Event. (i) where a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures, Repayments under such obligations shall be valued on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars; and

(ii) where a Derivative Agreement has not been entered into to hedge related currency exposures, Repayments under such obligations shall be valued on the basis of the noon spot rate for conversions of any currencies into Canadian dollars.

3.02 ~~Acknowledgement~~ Delivery of a Suspension Notice

The Province acknowledges and agrees that, concurrent with the delivery of the Process Certificate pursuant to Section ~~3.01~~8.01 of ~~this Agreement, any two senior officers of OPG are authorized to deliver the certificate referred to in Subsection 4.02(b) of the Change of Law Protection Agreement to the Indenture Trustee confirming that OPG has complied with its obligations to the Province in connection with the incurrence of the Funding Obligations in respect of which such certificate is delivered; provided that, upon receipt of a Breach Event~~the Change of Law Protection Agreement, the Province is entitled to deliver a Suspension Notice~~, OPG covenants~~. The Province agrees not to deliver ~~the certificate referred to in Subsection 4.02(b) of the~~a Suspension Notice pursuant to Section 8.01 Change of Law Protection Agreement ~~to the Indenture Trustee.~~ [10]unless any of the following circumstances has occurred:

(a) a Program Breach; and

(b) a Breach Event.

3.03 Meaning of "~~Reviewed~~Reference Documentation"

For the purposes of Subsection 3.01(c), the term "~~Reviewed~~Reference Documentation" shall mean each Transaction Document (including any change, addition or supplement thereto) that, at the relevant time:

(a) is a Transaction Document provided to, and not objected to by, the Province prior to the making of this Agreement~~ and in respect of which the notice~~, as contemplated in the fifth recital to this Agreement~~ has been delivered by the Province to OPG~~; or

(b) is a Transaction Document provided to the Province in accordance with Subsection 2.01(b) that has not been ~~accepted~~objected to by the Province, ~~as confirmed~~ by ~~way~~delivery of ~~a written~~an objection notice ~~of acceptance from the Province~~in writing delivered to OPG, within 10 Business Days after it is provided to the Province.

3.04 Meaning of "Substantially in the Form"

For the purposes of Subsection 3.01(c), the term "Substantially in the Form" shall mean:

(a) with respect to the ~~Reviewed~~Reference Documentation referred to in clauses (i) to (xi) of the definition of "Transaction Documents", that there are no differences between the proposed documents and such ~~Reviewed~~Reference Documentation that could result in a change in the material terms or conditions applicable to the applicable Primary Obligation, including regarding the timing of or circumstances under which related payments are or may become due or accrue (including as a result of any default, acceleration, termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization), or that would affect the Province's rights of subrogation or assignment (including pursuant to [Section 5.01 or Article VI] of the Change of Law Protection Agreement) or its interests as a subrogee or an assignee, that would arise as a result of performing the Limited Guarantee in respect of the applicable Primary Obligation or upon the assumption of obligations in accordance with [Article VI] of the Change of Law Protection Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing does not apply to any variable terms to be set forth in the proposed documents as are reasonably contemplated in the ~~Reviewed~~Reference Documentation, including the particular financial terms, rates and levels set forth in the proposed documents other than to the extent that the forms of ~~Reviewed~~Reference Documentation themselves specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters with respect to such financial terms, rates, levels and parameters; and

(b) with respect to the ~~Reviewed~~Reference Documentation referred to in clause (xii) of the definition of "Transaction Documents", that there are no material differences between the form and substance of the proposed Disclosure Document and such form of Disclosure Document and that the proposed Disclosure Document complies in all material respects with all applicable securities disclosure requirements relating to the Primary Obligation subject to distribution thereunder.

ARTICLE IV

(a) Not less than 15 Business Days, or such lesser period as the Province may agree to in writing, prior to the proposed incurrence of the first Funding Obligation, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province: (i) a forecast setting out OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the next following 24 month period (the "Initial Forecast Period"), which expectations shall be consistent with the Financing Plan (the "Initial Forecast"); and (ii) notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum, which may not exceed the Initial Forecast.

(b) Not more than 10 Business Days, or such lesser period as the Province may agree to in writing, following receipt of the Initial Forecast and notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(a), the Province may disagree with the Initial Forecast and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or the Initial Forecast, (ii) the Initial Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the initial Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the Initial Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of the Province and OPG,[11] and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.

(c) Between nine (9) and twelve (12) months prior to the end of the Initial Forecast Period, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province an updated forecast setting out the sum of (1) the aggregate amount of Repayments that will arise in the future under Approved Obligations that are then outstanding and (2) OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the period ending 24 months following the Initial Forecast Period, which expectation shall be consistent with the then applicable Financing Plan. Such updated forecast shall be further updated on a similar basis with respect to each successive 24 month period or more frequently if at any time OPG has knowledge that the most recent forecast is materially inaccurate (the Initial Forecast and each such updated forecast, each a "Forecast"). Together with each Forecast, OPG shall also provide a revised Protection Agreement Maximum, which may not exceed such Forecast.

(d) Not more than 10 Business Days, or such lesser period as the Province may agree to in writing, following receipt of any further Forecast and notice of the revised Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(c), the Province may disagree with such further Forecast or revised Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or such further Forecast, (ii) the further Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the revised Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the further Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of the Province and OPG,[12] and the revised Protection

(e) For clarity, Repayments under Obligations Secured owing in currencies other than Canadian dollars will be valued at the time to be determined for the purposes of this Section 4.01 in accordance with the following:

(i) where a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures, Repayments under such obligations shall be valued on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars; and

(ii) where a Derivative Agreement has not been entered into to hedge related currency exposures, Repayments under such obligations shall be valued on the basis of the noon spot rate for conversions of any currencies into Canadian dollars.

5.01 Representations and Warranties of OPG

OPG represents and warrants that on the date hereof and on each day that a Primary Obligation is incurred or amended:

(a) The Financing Entity is a trust duly constituted and validly existing under the laws of the Province of Ontario, is duly qualified to carry on its business in each jurisdiction in which it carries on business, and has the power and authority to perform the acts that OPG, as the FSM, may cause it to perform pursuant to this Agreement and to own its property and carry on its business in accordance with the Program Agreements.

(e) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of OPG, threatened against or affecting the Financing Entity at law or in equity or before or by any Governmental Authority, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which would result in any material adverse change in the business, operations, prospects, properties, assets or condition, financial or otherwise, of the Financing Entity or in the ability of the Financing Entity to perform its obligations under the Program Agreements.

(f) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of OPG, threatened against or affecting OPG at law or in equity or before or by any Governmental Authority, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which would result in any material adverse change in the business, operations, prospects, properties, assets or condition, financial or otherwise, of OPG or in the ability of the OPG to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any Program Agreements.

(g) The performance by the Financing Entity of the Program Agreements does not conflict with, will not conflict with, does not result in, and will not result in, any breach of, and does not constitute, a default under, the Declaration of Trust or any agreements or instruments to which the Financing Entity is a party or by which it or any of its property and assets are bound.

(h) Neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement, the Program Agreements nor any agreements or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, the consummation of the transactions herein or therein, nor compliance with the terms, conditions and provisions hereof or thereof conflicts with or will conflict with, or results or will result in any breach of, or constitutes a default under, any of the provisions of the constating documents of OPG or any agreements or instruments to which OPG is a party or by which it or any of its property and assets are bound.

(i) No consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, registration, filing or qualification with, or giving of notice to, or taking of any other action in respect of, any Governmental Authority on the part of OPG is required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Program Agreements or any agreements or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement, the Program Agreements or any agreements or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, except those which have been obtained.

5.02 Representations and Warranties of the Province

The Province hereby represents and warrants that:

(a) the execution and delivery of, and the performance of its obligations under, this Agreement by the Province have been authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Province;

ARTICLE VI
PROCESS FOR ELECTION TO ASSUME APPROVED OBLIGATIONS[136]

6.01 Election by the Province

Pursuant to Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, at any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may (but shall not be obligated) elect to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor by giving notice to the Indenture Trustee. Prior to determining whether or not to exercise its election, the Province may deliver to OPG a notice in the form of Exhibit A (an "Election Information Notice"). The Election Information Notice shall, among other things, specify the date on which the Province proposes to assume the Obligations Secured, which date shall be no earlier than 20 Business Days following delivery of the Election Information Notice to OPG (the "Proposed Assumption Date").

6.02 Details regarding Obligations Secured

Promptly following the delivery of the Election Information Notice to OPG, OPG shall provide the following information and documentation to the Province:

(a) a summary of the amounts that will be owing under all Obligations Secured as of the Proposed Assumption Date, together with a detailed schedule setting out the dates on which such amounts will become due and payable under the Obligations Secured;

(b) a summary of the rights arising under the Obligations Secured that permit the Financing Entity to assign the Obligations Secured to the Province, including details regarding any conditions precedent to such assignment and the related assumption becoming effective and any notices, filings, consents or other actions that will be required in order to implement and effect such assignment and assumption;

(c) current versions of all documentation under which the Obligations Secured arise;

(d) copies of all correspondence exchanged between OPG, as the FSM, or the Financing Entity, on the one hand, and any Specified Creditor, Rating Agency or the Indenture Trustee, on the other hand, in each case that may reasonably be considered to be material to the assumption and performance of the Obligations Secured by the Province; and

[136] Note: Lawyers to discuss assumption mechanics.

(e) all income tax returns and assessments, financial statements and notices of proceedings of or pertaining to the Financing Entity or its business and any documentation related thereto, including any pleadings, appeals, objections, qualifications or other similar materials in respect of the Financing Entity or any Program Agreement.

6.03 Settlement of Terms

Following receipt and ~~review~~consideration by the Province of the information and documentation to be provided under Section 6.02, the Province shall confirm in writing whether or not it expects to proceed with the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured and, if it will be proceeding with the assignment and assumption, the date on which the Province expects that assignment and assumption will be effected. If it will be proceeding with such assignment and assumption, the Province will deliver an Assumption Notice as contemplated under Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. A decision not to proceed with an election at any time will not limit the Province from proceeding with an election at a later date, including by issuing a further Election Information Notice, and Article VI of this Agreement shall ~~continues~~continue to apply unaffected.

6.04 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

OPG shall cooperate with the Province and, as FSM, ~~will~~shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Financing Entity to cooperate, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the applicable Assumption Closing Date.

6.05 Terms of Obligations Secured

In order to permit the Province to assume the Obligations Secured in the circumstances contemplated herein, OPG, as FSM, shall cause the Financing Entity to use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that all Obligations Secured permit such an assignment to and assumption by the Province substantially in accordance with the terms and on the basis contemplated in the Assumption Agreement, without any penalty or make-whole payment, or any requirement for further consent, approval or agreement, or alternatively, in the case of any Obligations Secured entered into by or on behalf of the Financing Entity for the provision of on-going services to the Financing Entity permitting the satisfaction and termination of such Obligations Secured on or prior to the effective time of such assumption without any acceleration of future fees, profits or other like amounts, other than to the extent of payment obligations that arise under market standard mark-to-market payment terms and conditions included on a commercially reasonable basis under a Derivative Agreement.[~~14~~7]

[~~14~~7] The Trust Indenture will need to be revised to ensure that the Province's assignment and assumption right is fully contemplated and may be implemented without any requirement for further Specified Creditor or other third party consents. Among other changes, it is contemplated that Torys will add the following to the MTI to address this requirement: (i) Specified Creditors (including in the applicable Funding Obligation Agreement) will be required to acknowledge the rights of the Province to assume the Obligations Secured on the basis contemplated in the form of assumption agreement, and (ii) the Indenture Trustee will be permitted to enter into and give effect to the global Assumption Agreement without the consent of Specified Creditors or any other third parties.

ARTICLE VII

"Breach Event" shall mean the occurrence or existence of any one or more of the following:

(b) any representation or warranty made by OPG in this Agreement, any certification made in a Process Certificate, or any certification made in a certificate contemplated by Section [4.02] of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, proves to be incorrect on the date made and, if curable, is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice by the Province to OPG of such misrepresentation; or

(c) OPG is no longer the Manager or actions have been taken by or on behalf of the Indenture Trustee to remove OPG as the Manager.

~~7.02 Notice on Breach Event~~

~~If any Breach Event shall have occurred and not been waived in writing by the Province, the Province shall have the right at its option, and in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies available hereunder at law or equity, to provide a written notice in the form of Exhibit ■ (a "Breach Event Suspension Notice") to OPG.~~

Draft: November 21, 2017

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN IN RIGHT OF ONTARIO, AS REPRESENTED BY THE MINISTER OF ENERGY AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE

AND

ONTARIO POWER GENERATION INC.

CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT

Dated as of [■], 2017

This CHANGE OF LAW PROCESS AGREEMENT, between Her Majesty the Queen in Right of Ontario, as represented by the Minister of Energy and the Minister of Finance (the "Province"), and Ontario Power Generation Inc. ("OPG") is made and entered into as of [■], 2017.

RECITALS

OPG is appointed as the Financial Services Manager under Section 18 of the Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (the "Act").

Pursuant to Section 22(2) of the Act, OPG, in its capacity as the Financial Services Manager (the "FSM"), may establish or cause to be established one or more financing entities (as defined in the Act), which may incur Funding Obligations in accordance with the Act.[1]

Pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated as of [■], 2017, the Financing Entity was established as a "financing entity" (as defined in the Act) for the purposes contemplated in the Act.[2]

Concurrent with this Agreement, the Province, the FSM, the Financing Entity and the Indenture Trustee will enter into the Change of Law Protection Agreement under which the Province will agree to provide protections and assurances to the Indenture Trustee, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, in respect of Obligations Secured that constitute Approved Obligations, in order to address concerns that would arise from a change or adverse determination of law, subject in each case to the satisfaction of the Adherence Conditions.

Prior to entering into this Agreement, OPG provided the Province with the proposed forms of certain of the Transaction Documents, and the Province has not objected to such forms.

This Agreement sets out the obligations OPG has agreed to perform and assurances OPG has agreed to provide and on which the Province will rely in entering into and implementing the Change of Law Protection Agreement, including for the purposes of determining whether the Adherence Conditions have been satisfied, maintaining information related to the Program Agreements and the Approved Obligations, and ensuring that the Province's assumption rights pursuant to Article VI of the Change of Law Protection Agreement may be exercised without impediment on the terms and conditions contemplated in this Agreement and the Change of Law Protection Agreement.

All things necessary to make this Agreement a valid and legally binding agreement of OPG and the Province, have been done.

[1] Blakes suggests that it be made clear in the Declaration of Trust that OPG is establishing the Trust. Blakes would appreciate the benefit of Torys analysis as to how the Trust is an "entity" under the OFHPA, as opposed to the trustee. Clearly OPG has not established Computershare. Blakes and Torys to discuss.

[2] Lawyers to discuss.

[4] This language has extra-contractual implications and so its meaning as between only 2 of the parties to the Protection Agreement is uncertain. Torys to explain intention.

[5] OPG/Dealers have indicated that "The current structure requiring satisfaction of the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement impacts the marketability of the transaction and creates uncertainty for investors. Province has asked Dealers to explain how the current structure requiring satisfaction of the adherence conditions in the Protection Agreement is more onerous than ordinary adherence conditions applicable to government guaranteed bonds and to estimate the quantum impact on the marketability of the transaction and explain what uncertainty an ordinary closing condition of this type poses for investors.

(c) a statement to the effect that: (i) the Funding Obligation to be incurred or amended (1) will arise under terms and conditions that are Substantially in the Form of the Reference Documentation applicable thereto; (2) in the opinion of the signatories to the Process Certificate, are reasonably incurred or effected in compliance with the Act, the General Regulation, any other enactments related thereto and the applicable Financing Plan; (3) are of a type and are on terms that a reasonably prudent financial services manager would incur in similar circumstances; and (4) reflect, in all material respects, arm's length terms and conditions; and (ii) any Disclosure Document used in connection with the offering and sale of notes, bonds or other securities is Substantially in the Form of the Reference Documentation;

(d) a statement confirming that any disclosure made in respect of the Funding Obligation (including any Disclosure Document, press release or other written communication prepared for dissemination to third parties in relation to the Funding Obligation) that refers to or describes the terms, effect or adherence of or to this Agreement or the Change of Law Protection Agreement has been made available to the Province prior to use or dissemination, other than where such disclosure was substantially the same as a disclosure previously made;

(e) a statement that no Breach Event has occurred on or prior to the date of the Process Certificate, unless such Breach Event has been waived by the Province in writing; and

(f) confirmation that, at the time the Funding Obligation is incurred or amended, the maximum aggregate payment amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under the Funding Obligation, together with all other outstanding amounts due or becoming due in the future in respect of Repayments under all Approved Obligations, do not and will not exceed the Protection Agreement Maximum; for clarity, Repayments under Obligations Secured owing in currencies other than Canadian dollars will be determined on the date the Process Certificate is delivered hereunder in accordance with the following:

(i) where a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures, Repayments under such obligations shall be valued on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars; and

(ii) where a Derivative Agreement has not been entered into to hedge related currency exposures, Repayments under such obligations shall be valued on the basis of the noon spot rate for conversions of any currencies into Canadian dollars.

3.02 Delivery of a Suspension Notice

The Province acknowledges and agrees that, concurrent with the delivery of the Process Certificate pursuant to Section 8.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, the Province is entitled to deliver a Suspension Notice. The Province agrees not to deliver a Suspension Notice

3.03 Meaning of "Reference Documentation"

For the purposes of Subsection 3.01(c), the term "Reference Documentation" shall mean each Transaction Document (including any change, addition or supplement thereto) that, at the relevant time:

(b) is a Transaction Document provided to the Province in accordance with Subsection 2.01(b) that has not been objected to by the Province, by delivery of an objection notice in writing delivered to OPG, within 10 Business Days after it is provided to the Province.

3.04 Meaning of "Substantially in the Form"

For the purposes of Subsection 3.01(c), the term "Substantially in the Form" shall mean:

(a) with respect to the Reference Documentation referred to in clauses (i) to (xi) of the definition of "Transaction Documents", that there are no differences between the proposed documents and such Reference Documentation that could result in a change in the material terms or conditions applicable to the applicable Primary Obligation, including regarding the timing of or circumstances under which related payments are or may become due or accrue (including as a result of any default, acceleration, termination, wind-up, liquidation or realization), or that would affect the Province's rights of subrogation or assignment (including pursuant to [Section 5.01 or Article VI] of the Change of Law Protection Agreement) or its interests as a subrogee or an assignee, that would arise as a result of performing the Limited Guarantee in respect of the applicable Primary Obligation or upon the assumption of obligations in accordance with [Article VI] of the Change of Law Protection Agreement; provided, however, that the foregoing does not apply to any variable terms to be set forth in the proposed documents as are reasonably contemplated in the Reference Documentation, including the particular financial terms, rates and levels set forth in the proposed documents other than to the extent that the forms of Reference Documentation themselves specify specific requirements, limitations or parameters with respect to such financial terms, rates, levels and parameters; and

(b) with respect to the Reference Documentation referred to in clause (xii) of the definition of "Transaction Documents", that there are no material differences between the form and substance of the proposed Disclosure Document and such form of Disclosure Document and that the proposed Disclosure Document complies in all material respects with all applicable securities disclosure requirements relating to the Primary Obligation subject to distribution thereunder.

ARTICLE IV
PROTECTION AGREEMENT MAXIMUM

(a) Not less than 15 Business Days, or such lesser period as the Province may agree to in writing, prior to the proposed incurrence of the first Funding Obligation, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province: (i) a forecast setting out OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the next following 24 month period (the "Initial Forecast Period"), which expectations shall be consistent with the Financing Plan (the "Initial Forecast"); and (ii) notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum, which may not exceed the Initial Forecast.

(b) Not more than 10 Business Days, or such lesser period as the Province may agree to in writing, following receipt of the Initial Forecast and notice of the initial Protection Agreement Maximum from OPG pursuant to Section 4.01(a), the Province may disagree with the Initial Forecast and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum on the basis that (i) there appears to be inaccuracies in the Financing Plan or the Initial Forecast, (ii) the Initial Forecast is inconsistent with the Financing Plan, or (iii) the initial Protection Agreement Maximum is not less than the Initial Forecast. If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of the Province and OPG, and the initial Protection Agreement Maximum will be revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.

(c) Between nine (9) and twelve (12) months prior to the end of the Initial Forecast Period, OPG shall, as the FSM, deliver to the Province an updated forecast setting out the sum of (1) the aggregate amount of Repayments that will arise in the future under Approved Obligations that are then outstanding and (2) OPG's expectations regarding the aggregate maximum amount of Repayments that would arise in the future under Approved Obligations to be incurred during the period ending 24 months following the Initial Forecast Period, which expectation shall be consistent with the then applicable Financing Plan. Together with each Forecast, OPG shall also provide a revised Protection Agreement Maximum, which may not exceed such Forecast.

If the Province disagrees, OPG shall discuss any discrepancies with the Province, address any inaccuracies and inconsistencies to the reasonable satisfaction of the Province and OPG, and the revised Protection Agreement Maximum will be further revised accordingly and confirmed by an amended notice to the Province.

(e) For clarity, Repayments under Obligations Secured owing in currencies other than Canadian dollars will be valued at the time to be determined for the purposes of this Section 4.01 in accordance with the following:

(i) where a Derivative Agreement has been entered into to hedge related currency exposures, Repayments under such obligations shall be valued on the basis of the hedged value expressed in Canadian dollars; and

OPG represents and warrants that on the date hereof and on each day that a Primary Obligation is incurred or amended:

(a) The Financing Entity is a trust duly constituted and validly existing under the laws of the Province of Ontario, is duly qualified to carry on its business in each jurisdiction in which it carries on business, and has the power and authority to perform the acts that OPG, as the FSM, may cause it to perform pursuant to this Agreement and to own its property and carry on its business in accordance with the Program Agreements.

(e) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of OPG, threatened against or affecting the Financing Entity at law or in equity or before or by any Governmental Authority, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which would result in any material adverse change in the business, operations, prospects, properties, assets or condition, financial or otherwise, of the Financing Entity or in the ability of the Financing Entity to perform its obligations under the Program Agreements.

(f) There are no actions, suits or proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of OPG, threatened against or affecting OPG at law or in equity or before or by any Governmental Authority, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which would result in any material adverse change in the business, operations, prospects, properties, assets or condition, financial or otherwise, of OPG or in the ability of the OPG to perform its obligations under this Agreement or any Program Agreements.

(g) The performance by the Financing Entity of the Program Agreements does not conflict with, will not conflict with, does not result in, and will not result in, any breach of, and does not constitute, a default under, the Declaration of Trust or any agreements or instruments to which the Financing Entity is a party or by which it or any of its property and assets are bound.

(h) Neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement, the Program Agreements nor any agreements or instruments delivered pursuant hereto or thereto, the consummation of the transactions herein or therein, nor compliance with the terms, conditions and provisions hereof or thereof conflicts with or will conflict with, or results or will result in any breach of, or constitutes a default under, any of the provisions of the constating documents of OPG or any agreements or instruments to which OPG is a party or by which it or any of its property and assets are bound.

(i) No consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, registration, filing or qualification with, or giving of notice to, or taking of any other action in respect of, any Governmental Authority on the part of OPG is required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Program Agreements or any

(c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Province.

ARTICLE VI
PROCESS FOR ELECTION TO ASSUME APPROVED OBLIGATIONS[6]

6.01 Election by the Province

Pursuant to Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement, at any time following the occurrence of a Protection Event, the Province may (but shall not be obligated) elect to assume the Financing Entity's obligations in respect of all Obligations Secured, as obligor and debtor by giving notice to the Indenture Trustee. Prior to determining whether or not to exercise its election, the Province may deliver to OPG a notice in the form of Exhibit A (an "Election Information Notice"). The Election Information Notice shall, among other things, specify the date on which the Province proposes to assume the Obligations Secured, which date shall be no earlier than 20 Business Days following delivery of the Election Information Notice to OPG (the "Proposed Assumption Date").

6.02 Details regarding Obligations Secured

Promptly following the delivery of the Election Information Notice to OPG, OPG shall provide the following information and documentation to the Province:

(a) a summary of the amounts that will be owing under all Obligations Secured as of the Proposed Assumption Date, together with a detailed schedule setting out the dates on which such amounts will become due and payable under the Obligations Secured;

[6] Note: Lawyers to discuss assumption mechanics.

(b) a summary of the rights arising under the Obligations Secured that permit the Financing Entity to assign the Obligations Secured to the Province, including details regarding any conditions precedent to such assignment and the related assumption becoming effective and any notices, filings, consents or other actions that will be required in order to implement and effect such assignment and assumption;

(c) current versions of all documentation under which the Obligations Secured arise;

(d) copies of all correspondence exchanged between OPG, as the FSM, or the Financing Entity, on the one hand, and any Specified Creditor, Rating Agency or the Indenture Trustee, on the other hand, in each case that may reasonably be considered to be material to the assumption and performance of the Obligations Secured by the Province; and

(e) all income tax returns and assessments, financial statements and notices of proceedings of or pertaining to the Financing Entity or its business and any documentation related thereto, including any pleadings, appeals, objections, qualifications or other similar materials in respect of the Financing Entity or any Program Agreement.

6.03 Settlement of Terms

Following receipt and consideration by the Province of the information and documentation to be provided under Section 6.02, the Province shall confirm in writing whether or not it expects to proceed with the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured and, if it will be proceeding with the assignment and assumption, the date on which the Province expects that assignment and assumption will be effected. If it will be proceeding with such assignment and assumption, the Province will deliver an Assumption Notice as contemplated under Section 6.01 of the Change of Law Protection Agreement. A decision not to proceed with an election at any time will not limit the Province from proceeding with an election at a later date, including by issuing a further Election Information Notice, and Article VI of this Agreement shall continue to apply unaffected.

6.04 Cooperation to Implement the Assignment and Assumption

OPG shall cooperate with the Province and, as FSM, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Financing Entity to cooperate, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts, to complete the assignment and assumption of the Obligations Secured by and from the Financing Entity to and by the Province, by the applicable Assumption Closing Date.

6.05 Terms of Obligations Secured

In order to permit the Province to assume the Obligations Secured in the circumstances contemplated herein, OPG, as FSM, shall cause the Financing Entity to use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that all Obligations Secured permit such an assignment to and assumption by the Province substantially in accordance with the terms and on the basis contemplated in the Assumption Agreement, without any penalty or make-whole payment, or any requirement for further consent, approval or agreement, or alternatively, in the case of any Obligations Secured entered into by or on behalf of the Financing Entity for the provision of on-going services to the Financing Entity permitting the satisfaction and termination of such Obligations Secured on or prior to the effective time of such assumption without any acceleration of future fees, profits or other like amounts, other than to the extent of payment obligations that arise under market standard mark-to-market payment terms and conditions included on a commercially reasonable basis under a Derivative Agreement.[7]

Hi Kim -- I think it would be helpful for them to understand more about the RPP – the OEB's role in that process and how that continues, but is expanded to take into consideration the amount of the deferred payments from the ratepayers.

Here is what I am running by opg – any thoughts on approach before I do that? Need more detail on opg accounting or leave for another discussion ? Thx

Would it be the IESO or would it be OPG that would ultimately go to the Ontario Energy Board to recover these costs?

As per the legislation, OPG provides the clean energy adjustment recoverable for a specific period to the OEB who establishes the rate for specified consumers.

If it is the IESO, my understanding is the OFHPA creates the deferral and variance account that enables the IESO to recover costs from future rates. If it is OPG, would they already have a deferral and variance account to house these costs until it is recovered? Or does the legislation apply to OPG as well?

Parts of the legislation do apply to OPG. The IESO has the original right to recover from future rates. This creates the regulatory asset, like the fair hydro predecessor – RPP or . The IESO right to recover and any obligations will be transferred to the financing entity. While the financing entity is better able to speak to their accounting than I am, my understanding is they will have a variance account which will be consolidated into OPG and then the provincial books.

Finally, when it comes time to recover those costs, would it go through the OEB prudence review or is that not necessary as a result of the OFHPA legislation?

The OFHPA legislation covers the OEB oversight. Note – can we be more specific here?

Hi Nadine,

The intention of the footnote is as you indicate.

I was basing the footnote on the following excerpt. My interpretation is that OGOs can't use 4200 (4200 is for government NPOs). Perhaps I'm looking in the wrong spot or misinterpreting. Your thoughts?

Lee Anne

.16 For purposes of determining the appropriate standards, a government organization may be classified as:

(a) a government business enterprise;

(b) a government not-for-profit organization; or

(c) an other government organization.

.17 For purposes of preparing general purpose financial statements, government business enterprises apply the standards for publicly accountable enterprises in Part I of the CPA Canada Handbook – Accounting.

.18 For purposes of preparing general purpose financial statements, government not-for-profit organizations apply the standards for not-for-profit organizations in the PSA Handbook or the standards in the PSA Handbook without Sections PS 4200 to PS 4270 (the PS 4200 series). [2]

.19 For purposes of preparing general purpose financial statements, other government organizations would normally apply the standards for governments in the PSA Handbook. When these standards do not meet their financial statement users' needs, the standards applicable to publicly accountable enterprises in Part I of the CPA

Canada Handbook – Accounting should be considered. The standards determined to be most appropriate should be disclosed and consistently applied.

Lee Anne,

I'm just reviewing the paper and had a question on the footnotes to the attached table. I think that the purposes FN1 is to reference the fact that OGOs have a choice to use IFRS as well, where it may better meet user needs. In fact, OGOs an use PSAS, PSAS +4200 or IFRS. I just wanted to clarify the intention, and suggest that we might want to consider rewording for clarity.

Thanks.

Hi Nadine,

The intention of the footnote is as you indicate.

I was basing the footnote on the following excerpt. My interpretation is that OGOs can't use 4200 (4200 is for government NPOs). Perhaps I'm looking in the wrong spot or misinterpreting. Your thoughts?

.16 For purposes of determining the appropriate standards, a government organization may be classified as:

(a) a government business enterprise;

(b) a government not-for-profit organization; or

(c) an other government organization.

.17 For purposes of preparing general purpose financial statements, government business enterprises apply the standards for publicly accountable enterprises in Part I of the CPA Canada Handbook – Accounting.

.18 For purposes of preparing general purpose financial statements, government not-for-profit organizations apply the standards for not-for-profit organizations in the PSA Handbook or the standards in the PSA Handbook without Sections PS 4200 to PS 4270 (the PS 4200 series). [2]

.19 For purposes of preparing general purpose financial statements, other government organizations would normally apply the standards for governments in the PSA Handbook. When these standards do not meet their financial statement users' needs, the standards applicable to publicly accountable enterprises in Part I of the CPA

Canada Handbook – Accounting should be considered. The standards determined to be most appropriate should be disclosed and consistently applied.

Lee Anne,

I'm just reviewing the paper and had a question on the footnotes to the attached table. I think that the purposes FN1 is to reference the fact that OGOs have a choice to use IFRS as well, where it may better meet user needs. In fact, OGOs an use PSAS, PSAS +4200 or IFRS. I just wanted to clarify the intention, and suggest that we might want to consider rewording for clarity.

Thanks.

Sorry about that Nadine.

Tomorrow I'm available until 10am and Suzie is available from 9am to 12:30. If my timing is an issue, definitely not a problem if you and Suzie can speak without me.

We've got a few types of templates and easy enough to pull one together for you, but maybe part of the call can be discussing the types of requests you are envisioning and then based on what those are we'll send along something that fits (or send along a couple of templates if the nature of the potential requests might be varied).

Thanks.

Hi Emma.
With regards to the second item, please see the last Q&A on the Trust guidance which indicates that the item should not be contentious from a control perspective. That said, if you want to minimize risks, you could refer to the direction as an 'expectation' which would be similar to what we did when funds per provided to municipalities under the Investing in Ontario Act.

Hi Stephen,

We've had two questions come up following the call this afternoon, and would appreciate if you could consider tomorrow as you finalize the next version of the documents:

First, we would like to change tack with the charities annex/list and instead simply establish that the Trust would consult with the Ontario Energy Board to identify charities. This will allow an up to date consideration of which charities to flow money to, based on their need/function at that point in time, and could also assist with Trustee decision-making (vs. a long list).

Second, this is a hypothetical question for now, but the government may wish to promote the program, through its own marketing or further through direct branding, e.g. putting the Trillium logo on materials sent to beneficiaries. Would this need to be established in either/both documents (TPA and Deed)? Can it be established without having control implications? Nadine, it would be helpful if you could weigh in on this.

Thank you again,
Emma

Hi Steve - thanks for your timely response.

I've discussed with the team and we have no desire to change the language in the Deed with regard to rules for the Advisory Committee (AC). However, we will be increasing the number of AC members to 7 in total. Thanks...

It's a bit of a conflict to be part of a process that appoints one or more of its members, so the optics are poor. We have not set rules for the AC, so I suppose we could specifically provide for it if it's important to you. Steve

Hi Stephen, a question has come up with regards to the Advisory Committee members that I am hoping you can help address:

Would an advisory committee member would be precluded from being a trustee? Is there any provision in the draft declaration that would prevent this (I am not aware of any such provision), I think the answer is no.

I think the answer is that an advisory committee member could be considered by the committee as a potential trustee, but it would be up to the committee to decide/recommend.

Hoping you can clarify, thanks...

Hi Stephen,

Please find comments from Osler and KPMG attached (PDFs). We have incorporated these with comments from our Provincial Controller's Office ("OPC", Nadine cc'd) in the Word versions, also attached.

Many outstanding comments relate to control issues that will need to be resolved by OPC and KPMG. There will be a call scheduled tomorrow to resolve. We have requested that Blakes be invited.

One of the remaining policy/legal aspects is Osler's recommendation that the principles be allowed to be amended by the Trust, including to account for refinements in the purpose over time. We think this is reasonable and are comfortable with allowing the Trust to amend over time, with input from the Province and with the Province kept informed of amendments.

Finally, there was a placeholder for a list of charities to serve as Residual Beneficiaries. Find attached a list of agencies who help deliver energy support programs in the province. A list is maintained by the Ontario Energy Board (the province's energy regulatory) and we have included only those attached who are CRA-listed charities. We will be reviewing this further on Monday and may come back with slight refinements, but would suggest incorporating as is for now.

As noted on the call today, to meet timelines, our aim would be to send the TPA and Declaration to Computershare by end of day Monday. Could you advise us by early Monday if you see this as feasible? Again, we appreciate your continued efforts on these challenging timelines.

If you have any questions over the weekend, please email.

Thank you again,
Emma

Hi Emma:
Possible to move up the call to earlier today?

Secondly, we drafted a timeline for phase 2 when the funds have flowed to CS and we need to consult with the LDC community and revise the Declaration of Trust. See attached and let me know if you have any concerns.

Thirdly, you've identified a Board of Trustees to select the trustees following CS. Who are you suggesting is on the Board?

Thanks Alex and understood re: sharing finals with Computershare.

Also, our counsel has drafted the following to assist in Hydro One and KPMG's review of the documents:

Our mark-up addresses the tensions that exist among (1) the requirements to recognize the Trust as non-controlled for government year-end accounting purposes, (2) the practical need for the LDCs to lead the identification and allocations to eligible participants processes (3) the desire for the ultimate customers in need to be the reference group of beneficiaries (4) the legal requirements to create a valid trust under Ontario law and (5) the practical limitations associated with addressing and contracting relevant LDC participation prior to March 31, while achieving sufficient contractual certainty for the Province and legal purposes.

To balance these tensions, we have suggested the following (subject to accounting input and practical input from Hydro One):

(1) the Declaration contemplates the following 3 time periods:

a. Initially, Computershare will be the trustee and will simply sit on the funds. Hydro One will provide very basic administrative services during this initial period. Computershare, acting on the recommendations of an "Advisory Committee" will appoint its replacement – a "Board of Trustees" (this is contemplated in a Trustee Replacement Annex to the Declaration).

b. Once the Board of Trustees is in place, administrative services agreements will be entered into with LDCs. To give the LDCs a wide scope to identify funding recipients within their service areas, a broad and specific delegation is described in the "Permitted Delegations Annex", which frames out what the basic and key terms of the ultimate Administrative Services Agreements with the LDCs will entail. That level of detail is required to enable the broad Trustee delegation, without upending the validity of the Trust for legal purposes. The Board of Trustees will maintain supervisory responsibility over the LDCs actions, but will be permitted to rely on the recommendations of the LDCs. Under these arrangements, the find will be divided by region and then LDCs will have wide discretion to recommend distributions, in each case subject to the principles set out in a "Principles Annex".

c. Once the program is to be wound up (either because of a default by the Trust, the Trustee's determine that all funding has been appropriately provided for or a final end-date occurs), any remaining funds will be paid to charitable beneficiaries identified from among a pre-determined slate. The amount available to the charities in the circumstance where a default of the Trust has occurred will be net of the amount the Province will be entitled to be paid (i.e., the remaining Assets) from the Trust under the Transfer Payment Agreement.

(2) From March 31, all of the discretion to deal with the Trust Assets will reside with Computershare or the Board, or by delegation to the LDCs where a suitable contract is signed by the Trust with the LDCs. The Province will not maintain control of the Assets, and all steps contemplated in (1) will not be affected by the Province other than (in substance):

a. To the extent the Province is represented on the Advisory Committee or the Board;

b. The Province has rights to require payment of remaining Assets under the Transfer Agreement on an "event of default"; or

c. The Province has certain reporting, audit and compliance rights, essentially to affect the intended purpose of the Trust in its implementation (and with remedies under the Transfer Payment Agreement, including a right to be paid the undistributed Assets or to pursue contract remedies (including specific performance).

Otherwise, the terms of the Trust will be determined at the outset and determined and affected by non-governmental entities. We understand that these continuing ties to the Trust would not be contrary to the accounting principles applicable for government year-end treatment as a non-controlled trust entity.

Based on this drafting approach, Blakes believes on a preliminary basis that the validity issues associated with the Trust can be adequately addressed.

Please find attached tracked and clean versions of the TPA and Declaration of Trust. Tracked versions are tracked from the versions you had shared on March 13. You will note that there are comments in the TPA and Declaration indicating areas that we are working with Blakes to finalize.

We would recommend, as discussed, that Hydro One share these current versions with KPMG, as well as Computershare, so that we can work to resolve identified issues.

Can Hydro One advise if it will not be possible to share comments back with us for 3 PM tomorrow?

We would like to set up a call tomorrow afternoon to discuss comments. Can you advise of a preferred time for a call?

A few other follow-ups:

· We have confirmed internally that Computershare can establish an interim Trust account using their existing banking relationship with BNF. Can you confirm once this (and the TPA/Decl if you agree to share) is communicated with Computershare?

· Can you please share the Computershare Trustee(s) contact details? We understand that the Trustees will have to be recognized in the Declaration of Trust.

· Can you share the administrative service agreement for the Ministry's review today? Our interest in seeing this is to have comfort that it will be ready for signing by Computershare on Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Thanks again to you and your team for working with us on these tight timelines.

Trusts Guidance.pdf

ACCOUNTING CONSIDERATIONS FOR GOVERNMENT-FUNDED TRUSTS

Purpose:

The purpose of this guidance is to explore accounting-related considerations related to government-funded trusts which are established by the government to fund a specific purpose or activity. This guidance deals specifically with the difference between controlled and non-controlled trusts, the introduction of accountability provisions which can now be reflected in trust agreements, and key timing considerations for trusts contemplated towards year-end. It is important that these factors be taken into account when establishing a trust, in order to achieve the intended fiscal impact and appropriate accountability over the use of public funds.

Introduction:

Trusts are usually established by way of trust declaration or trust agreement, and are one of several means by which the government can direct funding to support key policy initiatives. Simply stated, trustees hold title to property for the benefit of, and stand in a fiduciary relationship to the beneficiaries. Trustees are accountable to third parties (beneficiaries) for the use and disposition of trust assets and for the funds derived from those trust activities. The trust itself is not a separate legal entity. The trustees carry out the activities of the trust in the name of the trustees.

Generally, direct year-end transfers are the preferred alternative over trusts where the province wants to retain ultimate decision-making authority regarding amounts to be transferred to recipients. Direct transfers are more appropriate where the identity of eligible transfer payment recipients is known and the amounts to be transferred to each recipient can be or has been determined.

Year-end transfers to a trust might be considered where the province desires to delegate to third parties ultimate decision-making authority regarding allocation of amounts amongst eligible beneficiaries.

A trust must be valid for legal purposes in order to be recognized for accounting purposes. Key requirements for a trust to be valid include: an intention to create a trust (‘certainty of intention’), certainty of subject-matter of the trust (“certainty of subject matter”) and the objects of the trust must be certain (‘certainty of objects”). There are generally two different types of trust, a trust in which the objects are the “beneficiaries” and trust in which the objects are a “purpose” (e.g. for charitable purposes). Where a trust is under serious consideration, it is imperative that ministries seek legal advice to ensure that the contemplated trust will be valid.

Trustees are obligated to follow the terms of the trust declaration or trust agreement which will usually detail the powers and duties of the trustees including the number of trustees and how decisions will be made by the trustees.

Controlled versus Non-Controlled Government-Funded Trusts

From an accounting perspective, it is important to distinguish whether the design and governance of a particular trust results in the trust being controlled by the Province for accounting purposes. Control stems from the nature of the relationship between the government and the trust. Financial and operating policies are principles that determine how an organization conducts its activities. The ability to govern these policies is an important element of government control.

The means by which a trust is established, the government's representation among the trustees, the government's involvement in the trust's governance processes and ability to impact trustee discretion in decision-making are but some of the factors to be considered in assessing whether a trust is 'controlled' or 'not controlled' by the government.

In establishing a trust, it is important to achieve the intended relationship between the province and the trust in order to achieve the intended fiscal impact.

Non-Controlled Trusts:

Where trusts are not controlled by the Province, they are excluded from the government reporting entity. For non-controlled trusts, the following accounting would apply to trust funding:

- Where funds provided to the "trust" are unconditional, the Province would record a transfer payment expense for any transfers approved in the current period (and flowed by finalization of public accounts).

- Where funds provided to the "trust" are conditional (i.e. upon the trust completing some specific task or result), the Province would initially record funding to the trust as a prepaid expense until the conditions are met at which time the Province would record a transfer payment expense, with the corresponding credit to prepaid expense. This may occur over a number of fiscal years.

In determining whether a trust is controlled, there are a variety of ways that a government might be perceived to be governing the financial and operating policies of a trust. These include:

- Eliminating or significantly limiting the ability of the trustees to make future decisions
- Directing the financial and operating policies of the trust
- Overruling, modifying or vetoing the financial and operating policies established by the trust.

Specific factors that should be considered in establishing a non-controlled trust include:

- Government representation in the trustees (should be in a minority position), and non-government trustees should be nominated by non-government sources
- Government influence over day-to-day trust governance and trustee discretion to make decisions (e.g. selection of eligibility criteria, selection of recipients).
- degree of influence over how funds are disbursed (i.e. the Declaration of Trust can provide general guidelines but not be overly prescriptive)
- the government's power to unilaterally appoint or remove the majority of trustees

- the government's on-going access to the trust's assets, or right to direct decisions regarding the flow of those assets to specific beneficiaries
- the government's unilateral power to dissolve the trust, except under specified circumstances as stipulated by the trust agreement (i.e. corrective action)
- the government's ability to establish or amend the policies used by the trust to manage accounting, personnel, deployment of resources, etc.

In some cases, it may be advantageous for ministries to provide administrative support to trusts. In these cases it is important that the extent of such support is not so pervasive as to influence or direct the day-to-day financial or operating policies of the trust, otherwise the trust will be deemed controlled and will be subject to consolidation in the government reporting entity.

Controlled Trusts:

If the Province controls the trust (for example, through its power to appoint a majority of the trustees on the board of trustees), the Province would be deemed to have control of the trust, resulting in the trust being accounted for in the same manner as other organizations controlled by the province (i.e. on a consolidated basis). As a result, the Province's contribution to the trust would not be expensed when it is transferred, but rather over time as the funds are disbursed to trust beneficiaries.

Accountability Related Considerations:

The Auditor General has confirmed that the new accountability provisions developed for one-time transfers can also be applied to trusts without impacting the expense treatment of any transfers to non-controlled trusts.

These new accountability provisions will enable the government and the Legislature to:

- obtain assurance that a trust is spending public funds prudently and for the purposes intended and to take corrective action if it is not;
- ensure ministerial accountability to the Legislative Assembly for the trust's activities; and
- ensure that the province is able to take corrective action where warranted and as stipulated under terms of the trust agreement.

It should also be noted that the Auditor General's Act now allows the Province's Legislative Auditor to conduct special audits of any person or organization receiving transfers from the government, including trusts.

To enhance accountability controls over government transfers to non-controlled trusts, Ministries can consider incorporating some or all of the following accountability provisions as part of their trust agreement/declaration without impacting the accounting treatment of the trust.

The inclusion of any of these provisions should not result in a trust being assessed as 'controlled'. Note that the key determinant in identifying appropriate provisions for any individual trust is a ministry's assessment of the risk associated with a particular trust, as per the Transfer Payment Directive.

1. Description of intended use of trust funds;
    - specific purpose(s) for which the funds are to be used;
    - description of intended recipients and related eligibility criteria*; and,
    - the nature of eligible expenditures relevant to the transfers.

    *Note: avoid overly prescriptive eligibility criteria which would effectively eliminate or significantly limit the trustees' discretion to make funding decisions.

2. Requirement for information
    - Information to be provided by the trust at a future date (e.g. requirement for trustees to advise the government of trustee-developed performance criteria, and provide annual assessments against those criteria)

3. Report-back requirement for Public Accountability
    - information to be provided by the trust at a future date with respect to the stewardship and payment of transfer funds (e.g. audited financial statements, audited list of recipients and amounts funded).

4. Right to independent verification/audit
    - The Province reserves the right to audit any transfer payment recipients. The trust agreement should make reference to this fact.

5. Right to take corrective action
    - Where stipulated under the trust agreement, the Province reserves the right to re-direct unused funds where results of a trust assessment (where required by the trust agreement) indicate original purpose of the trust is not being achieved, or if there remain unused funds at the end of the trust term.
    - Province may also reserve the right to extend the term of the trust agreement, where funds remain at the end of the trust period.

To qualify for in-year expense treatment, the non-controlled trusts must satisfy the following:

- the decision to establish the trust must have been approved by Treasury Board/Management Board of Cabinet and ratified by Cabinet by March 31st;
- the ministry providing the transfer must have approved appropriations and spending authority by March 31st;
- Trustees must have been identified and signed the trust declaration or agreement to establish a valid trust by March 31st ;
- the trust must be set up and ready to receive funds, and a nominal amount transferred to the trust by March 31s;t ; and,
- the government should have communicated publicly (e.g. in the Budget document) the pending or final establishment of the trust.

In addition, all remaining funds beyond those initially transferred at March 31st should be transferred to the trust by June 30th.

Trusts
Questions and Answers

Question: Where a trust is announced in the Budget document, must the trust be established by March 31st, or could such a trust be established shortly thereafter without impacting the expensing of transfers to the trust in 2007-08?

Answer: A trust would have to be established prior to the end of a fiscal period in order to satisfy the recognition criteria for government transfers. If the intended recipient for a government transfer does not exist at March 31st, the province cannot record a payable owing to it under existing accounting standards.

Question*: Does the transfer of funds to a non-controlled trust need to occur by March 31st or before the date of Public Accounts finalization?*

Answer: Consistent with the new requirements for one-time transfers, as long as the trust is established by March 31st, the transfer is authorized and a reasonable estimate of the amount can be made, cash payments can be made after year-end.

Question: Can beneficiaries of a non-controlled trust include consolidated entities provided that the ultimate selection of recipients is at the discretion of the Trustees?

Answer: Any amounts provided to a trust which are in turn be provided to an organization inside the government reporting entity should not be expensed at the time of the transfer to the trust. Any amount that is flowed to a trust with the intention of subsequently flowing the funds to a consolidated entity should not be recorded as an expense to the government.

Question: Can a Ministry provide administrative support to a trust without compromising the non-controlled status of the trust?

Answer: The government can provide administrative support as long as the extent of government administrative support is not so pervasive so that the government is in substance establishing and managing the trust's policies in the areas of accounting, personnel, compensation, collective bargaining or deployment of resources. Where such administrative support is assessed as pervasive, it could impair the trust's non-controlled trust and the trust will be consolidated onto the province's financial statements.

Can the following clauses appear in a trust agreement for a non-controlled trust to ensure adequate accountability over public funds without impacting the expense treatment of such trusts?

Question: Specific description of purpose of the trust (possibly including nominal allocation among various objectives)*
Answer: Yes.

Question: Can the trust agreement include a specific description of the intended groups of beneficiaries and detailed eligibility criteria.*

Answer: Specificity should be applied cautiously, so as not to limit the discretion of the trustees in their subsequent grant making processes. For the trust to be considered 'not controlled' it should not be seen as 'establishing the trust's fundamental purpose and eliminating or significantly limiting the ability of the trust to make future decisions by predetermining the financial and operating policies of the trust.*

Question: Can trustees stipulate that funding is to be provided to beneficiaries on a cost-sharing basis?*
Answer: Yes.*

Question: Can the trust agreement include a requirement for a trust to report back to the province on trustee-established performance criteria and results, audit of financial statements, audited recipients and amounts, confirmation that trustees communicated to beneficiaries the intended purpose of the funding, etc.*
Answer: Yes.*

Question: Requirement for Trust to publicly post communications on existence, availability of funds, eligibility criteria, recipients and amounts granted to each recipient.*
Answer: Yes*

Question: Inclusion of a 'suggested' drawdown schedule over a period of years, with discretion left to Trustees as to actual results.*
Answer: The inclusion of a drawdown schedule is not suggested for one-time, up-front transfers.*

Question: Trust agreement can suggest accountability provisions which might be attached by Trustees to beneficiary payments (e.g. specific purpose of funding, requirement for report-back, right to audit, corrective actions).*
Answer: Yes*

Question: Trust agreement to reserve the province's right to re-direct any unspent funds to specified parties (e.g. non-consolidated entities or another non-controlled trust) at the end of the trust term, or alternatively to extend the term of the trust where unspent funds remain.*

Answer: Yes

Question*: Can the trust agreement include the requirement for evaluations of the trust at certain times (e.g. years 3, 7, 10 of the trust agreement), with the right for the government to decide either to terminate the trust (corrective action) based on the results of the assessment, or extend the trust beyond the initial term as per the agreement.*
Answer: Yes.

Question: Trust agreement can require Trustees to request as part of the funding process that beneficiaries acknowledge receipt of government funding in their public communications on specific projects.
Answer: Yes.

Hi Emma and Stephen.

I've reviewed Osler's suggested edits to the documents and don't see any accounting-related issues. My comments are attached for your info. Not sure if it's just me (I assume so), but I'm finding it a bit difficult to follow the co-existence of the two terms Administrative Services Agent and Implementation Agent.

Talk to you tomorrow morning.

Nadine, to call again on your expertise, if you have comments on Hydro One's revisions, can you share them with Blakes and Ministry at same time?

Many thanks,

Stephen,

See below and attached.

As per emails between Usman and Nadine this evening, the Ministry is comfortable with including Hydro One as an admin agent to the Trust. However, Hydro One must be clearly identified as the interim admin services provider, to be confirmed by the Trustee (preferably prior to March 31).

Can you also advise, after the TPA/Deed revisions, whether you would recommend revisions are needed to the Administrative Services Agreement (also attached).

I will be available by email this evening if any questions.

Thanks,

Emma

PRINCIPLES ANNEX

The Trustee shall have regard to~~[~~, but shall not be specifically bound by,~~]~~ the following principles in applying its discretion in relation to the administration of the Trust:

1. Identification of Primary Beneficiary Payees

1.1 [Except in exceptional circumstances,] a Primary Beneficiary would not be expected to receive a benefit from the Trust unless at the time of consideration it satisfies, in addition to the requirements contemplated in the definition of "Primary Beneficiary", each of the following criteria (the "Selection Factors"):

(i) it has a participant agreement [with an applicable Electricity Distributor] to undertake measures (its "Energy Plan") to improve the electricity efficiency and/or promote the conservation of electricity at its Ontario residence;

(ii) its Energy Plan involves one or more Eligible Measures, as may be designated by the Trustee from time to time from;

(iii) it confirms that:

1. the primary purpose of its Energy Plan is the conservation and efficient use by the Primary Beneficiary of electricity, and is not for the purposes of the Primary Beneficiary making a profit;

2. it would otherwise not have the financial resources to undertake the Eligible Measures included in its Energy Plan; and

3. it would otherwise not be [a HAP Eligible Person][eligible to receive amounts in respect of the Eligible Measures under HAP];

(iv) it has demonstrated a need for financial assistance on the basis that its periodic electricity bills represent a financial burden, relative to its available financial resources; and

(v) such other criteria as the Trustee may determine, including based on the recommendations of Electricity Distributors or other knowledgeable Persons made on the basis and having regard to the delegations contemplated by the Permitted Delegations Annex or any applicable ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agreement.

1.2 It is recognized that, in furthering the Purpose, an efficient basis upon which to allocate funds to the Primary Beneficiaries across different areas and regions within Ontario may be based on the areas and regions serviced by the Electricity Distributors operating within Ontario.

1.3 It would not be contrary to the Purposes if funds are made available by the Trustee to the Primary Beneficiaries unequally across different areas and regions within Ontario, and it is expected that in making such an unequal division it would be appropriate to have regard to:

(i) broad economic parameters of economic activity and the specific financial resources of the residents of the areas and regions, in each case as an indication of the relative need of such residents across the areas and regions;

(ii) electricity use and efficiency levels of residential electricity customers across the areas and regions;

(iii) specific regional indicators of economic weakness and need; and

(iv) such other factors as the Trustee may determine are relevant, including based on the submissions, advice and recommendations of Electricity Distributors or other knowledgeable Persons made on the basis and having regard to the delegations contemplated by the Permitted Delegations Annex or any applicable ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agreement.

1.4 It is recognized that, in furthering the Purpose, the designated Electricity Distributor for an area or region in which a Primary Beneficiary resides would be expected to:

(i) be a reliable source for the purpose of assessing and confirming whether the Primary Beneficiary satisfies the Selection Factors;

(ii) be an efficient intermediary for the purpose of communicating with the Primary Beneficiary, including with respect to matters such as regarding the availability, terms, conditions and intended purposes of Program;

(iii) be able to facilitate an efficient payment of distribution determined to be made to or on behalf of the Primary Beneficiary, having regard to the Electricity Distributor's established practices, procedures and systems for dealing with its customers; and

(iv) have established contractual arrangements with the Primary Beneficiary that may apply to the protection and confidentiality of information provided by or respecting the Primary Beneficiary, which information may be useful in the consideration by the Electricity Distributor in its assessment of whether the Primary Beneficiary satisfies the Selection Factors, which information may not otherwise be available or readily accessible or verifiable by the Trustee.

1.5 It is recognized that, in furthering the Purpose, the Electricity Distributor for an area or region in which a Primary Beneficiary resides will have market and utilization information that may be useful in assessing the relative needs of Primary Beneficiaries within its area or region. Such information is expected to be relevant in assessing the extent to which one such Primary Beneficiary's financial needs and the merits of its Energy Plan are greater or more compelling than those of another such Primary Beneficiary, which comparison may be relevant to the extent that the funds allocable to the Primary Beneficiaries resident in the area or region are otherwise insufficient to meet the requests for funding by all such Primary Beneficiaries.

1.6 Accordingly, it is recognized that, in furthering the Purpose, it is consistent with the Purpose that the recommendations of Electricity Distributors be utilized and relied upon by the Trustee to guide the process of identifying particular Primary Beneficiaries in making distributions to the Primary Beneficiaries.

1.7 If an Electricity Distributor for a particular area or region is unable or unwilling to assess or confirm the application of the Selection Factors to Primary Beneficiaries residing in the area or region or to make recommendations in relation to such matters, one or more of the following may provide a suitable alternative source of information and for information gathering, assessment and confirmation purposes in relation to such area or region:

(i) other Electricity Distributors operating in adjacent or other areas or regions in Ontario;

(ii) the Ontario Energy Board;

(iii) the Independent Electricity System Operator; and

(iv) anyone else having relevant expertise and access to information regarding the electricity market of the Province, in each case as may be considered relevant by the Trustee.

1.8 To the extent that privacy law or other legal requirements limit an Electricity Distributor from providing or making available specific information respecting the application of the Selection Factors to a particular Primary Beneficiary or group of Primary Beneficiaries, it is recognized that, in furthering the Purpose, it may be appropriate to redact or make generic affected information regarding such Primary Beneficiary in connection with the identification and confirmation of a Primary Beneficiary's eligibility and participation in the Program. If such limitations or restrictions would limit an Electricity Distributor from providing or confirming the name of a particular Primary Beneficiary to the Trustee, then it should be sufficient that such information may be obtained or disseminated on a confidential basis if and when required by the Trustee for the proper administration of the Trust and on that basis such impediments should not disqualify a Primary Beneficiary from participating in the benefits of the Program, provided that that the confidential record-keeping of the Electricity Distributor would be available in connection with the application of any applicable legal process predicated on the identification of such Primary Beneficiary for the purposes of substantiating its rights as a Primary Beneficiary of the Trust or as to the validity or subsistence of the Trust.

2. Eligible Measures

2.1 It is expected that the Trust will identify eligible measures that, taking into consideration the principles set forth in the Principles Annex, have regard to the following (the "Measures Factors"):

(i) is the measure generally expected to result in reduced electricity consumption by a Primary Beneficiary if properly installed and used;

(ii) is the measure recognized under another Provincial program as being appropriate for achieving electricity conservation among a population analogous to the Primary Beneficiaries;

(iii) does the measure present any unacceptable health or safety considerations, either with respect to the Primary Beneficiary, a party providing or installing the measure, or the physical environment;

(iv) is the measure broadly available to residents across different areas and regions of the Province; or

(v) is the measure a requirement or precursor to another measure, the other measure being one which meets any of the other Measures Factors.

2.2 In identifying and applying the Measures Factors, Electricity Distributors would be expected to have expertise in assessing the suitability of efficiency and conservation measures in their respective areas and regions, which may differ across areas and regions across the Province based on factors (among other things) such as the climate, geography, density, electricity infrastructure, residential structures, and electricity use rates applicable within such areas or regions.

2.3 The measures specified in Schedule A to this Principles Annex may initially be considered to be consistent with the Measures Factors (subject to change as contemplated under the Permitted Delegations Annex).

3. Promotion of the Program

3.1 It is expected that the Trustee will undertake or engage others to undertake diligent efforts to promote the availability, terms and benefits of the Program to Primary Beneficiaries, including by establishing consistent communications through the Electiricy Distributors.

3.2 It is expected that the Trustee will acknowledge the financial support of the Province in connection with the establishment and the funding for the Program, including in any external communications to or marketing directed at the Electricity Distributors and the Primary Beneficiaries.

4. Conduct of the Trust and the Program

4.1 It is expected that administrative expenses of the Board of Trustees and its members, including any expenses relating to the Trust, to the establishment of the Trust and any expenses related to the implementation and operation of the Program, including by or through Electricity Distributors and other relevant entities, will be recognized and subject to reimbursement on a basis that is substantially consistent with the accountability provisions contemplated in the Transfer Payment Agreement and the principles in the Province's Travel, Meal and Hospitality Expenses Directive, the current form of which attached as Schedule B to this Principles Annex.

4.2 The Trustee is expected to conduct its activities in a manner that complies in all material respects with the Transfer Payment Agreement, including to:

(i) act prudently and in furtherance of the Purpose;

(ii) report not less frequently than annually the results of its activities for information purposes to the Province in connection with the Program;

(iii) comply with the Province's request for any independent verification or audit if determined to be necessary or appropriate by the Province;

(iv) return ~~of~~ Assets that have not been distributed if it is determined that the Trustee has breached its Standard of Care in discharging its material duties under the Declaration, and has not cured such material breach despite having been given a reasonable opportunity by the Province to do so in light of the circumstances of such material breach, with the result that all or a significant part of the Assets have not been or are not being applied and distributed in furtherance of the Purpose or are being applied and distributed in a manner that is directly contrary or without regard to the Purpose.]

4.3 Electricity Distributors are not intended to directly profit from distributions of funds made from the Trust, although it is recognized that the objectives of electricity efficiency and conservation of Primary Beneficiaries located in the service area or region of an Electricity Distributor, and the cost savings and improved credit worthiness of such Primary Beneficiaries, may be financially beneficial to the Electricity Distributor.

4.4 Distributions from the Trust are intended to allow receiving Primary Beneficiaries to undertake Eligible Measures at no or minimal personal cost.

4.5 Without in any way limiting the discretion of the Board of Trustees to extend the period during which the benefits of the Program may be available to the Primary Beneficiaries, up to and including the Final Distribution Date, it is expected that the Trust Assets would be distributed to Primary Beneficiaries during the period from the Original Trustee Replacement Date to April 30, 2019.

In accordance with section 4.2(g) of the Declaration, consistent with the principles set forth in the Principles Annex, the Trustee or its agent will seek to enter into one or more ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agreements with individual Electricity Distributors under which the Electricity Distributors will act as ~~Administrative Service~~Implementation Agents to the Trustee. In this manner, the Trustee will delegate certain of its powers and duties to the Electricity Distributors.

3. Under section 5.1 of the Declaration, to the extent the Trustee has delegated any of its duties or powers, it shall be deemed to have satisfied the Standard of Care in respect of the subject matter of such delegation, subject to the Trustee's overall duty to exercise prudent oversight thereof. The Trustee is entitled to rely on an Electricity Distributor to discharge the duties delegated to it, as ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agent, pursuant to an ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agreement as described in this Annex.

4. Accordingly, and without limiting the Trustee's right to delegate under the Declaration and its other rights, powers and discretion as Trustee, the Trustee will be permitted to, and is expected to seek to, enter into ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agreements with Electricity Distributors in order to further the Purpose. Without limiting the Trustee's discretion to negotiate and settle the terms and conditions of such ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agreements, it is expected that such ~~Administrative Services~~Implementation Agreements will include customary terms and conditions for an ~~administrative services~~Implementation arrangement of this type and, in addition, would (subject to the acceptance and agreement of the applicable Electricity Distributor counterparty) address the following points in particular:

    a. Identification of Applicable Primary Beneficiary Payees and Determination of Individual Distribution Amounts

        i. Each Electricity Distributor would make an initial assessment of the financial needs of Primary Beneficiaries within its designated service area or region, having regard to the Selection Factors set forth in section 1.3 of the Principles Annex, together with applicable economic data, in order to prepare and provide to the Trustee an estimate of the number of Primary Beneficiaries who the Electricity Distributor reasonably expects would satisfy the Selection Factors.

        ii. Each Electricity Distributor would make an initial assessment of the measures it would recommend be included as Eligible Measures, having regard to the Measures Factors set forth in section 2.1 of the Principles Annex, in order to prepare and provide to the Trustee an estimate of the average cost per Primary Beneficiary Payee (as defined below) of such Eligible Measures that the
