Hi team,

I chatted further with Cindy, she wants to speak to approach on status table if needed, but not bring a draft of the response table yet since we won't have other area's contributions that are necessary yet.

Thanks
Sarah

Hi, Dane,

Our team is continuing to work on the final comms-led products and we will definitely have them ready to share later today. We will also walk in hard copies in binder format, both for tomorrow's meeting and the cross-ministry briefing on Friday.

Sarah and I chatted this morning, and agreed a good approach would be to have the draft response chart for back-pocket only tomorrow—Cindy would have this on hand for reference if the discussion goes in that direction. We wouldn't include it in our binder at this point.

Let me know if you have any questions/concerns and I'm happy to discuss at any point today.

Amanda
