Hi Helen ,

Please find the scalable options deck for BPC tomorrow attached for your review. There are some minor revisions since Monday but nothing substantial. Also, please note that OTB is currently working on a table to illustrate the scalable options that were requested in PRRT vs what we are currently tracking per Mike's request this morning. The table is a work in progress and might not be ready until after BPC but should be completed in advance of the MMMP on Thursday.

Note - BPC materials have been saved in SharePoint.
