Breaking News For Tuesday October 17, 2017

Ontario's Auditor General is challenging the provincial government over its plan to lower electricity bills over the next decade with a complex borrowing scheme — throwing its balanced-budgets promise into doubt less than one year before an election. Bonnie Lysyk's report on the Fair Hydro Plan says the scheme will "unnecessarily cost Ontarians billions of dollars" and its complex structure serves to "obfuscate" its financial impact.
