Hi,

I was speaking with Steven earlier and he passed along that it might be useful to take the document we have that highlights all the net new initiatives in the mandate letters and turn that into a table where we can include any further information that we know at this time.

Attached is the note that the DMO created with all the net new initiatives. I have turned that into a table and incorporated the EEJIP ministries and added in what I know (which you will see is very little!!!). Karen/John – can you ask your teams to fill this in based on what they know today? If we don't have any info beyond what is in the letter, that's fine, just leave the row as it is.

Shamira/Natalie – I'll let you and your team fill in your ministries based on the word document and I'm thinking maybe look to send this to Steven early next week (so Karen/John, could you send me your comments for mid-day Tuesday)? We can merge ours together and just send him the one document (could have two tabs in the one excel file or just one table all merged, whatever you prefer).

Thanks!
Martha
