RE: Changes in the Premier's Office

The purpose of this memo is to let you know about upcoming changes in the Premier's Office.

Effective May 23rd, Mary Rowe will assume the new role of Executive Advisor to the Premier. In her first six months in the Premier's Office, Mary has benefited from a thorough exposure to the range of Issues the government is addressing. In her new role, Mary will provide strategic advice to the Premier on a broad range of issues, including Ontario-U.S. relations. Having spent a number of years as a community leader south of the border, Mary is well positioned to provide insight and guidance as our government navigates this complex and constantly evolving relationship.

Also effective May 23rd, Mike Jancik will join the Premier's Office as Deputy Principal Secretary. Mike is a familiar face to most at Queen's Park and has a wealth of government experience. In his most recent role as Chief of Staff to the President of the Treasury Board, Mike was an instrumental figure in helping our government achieve a balanced budget. He has also served as Executive Director of Policy in the Premier's Office, Special Advisor on Syrian refugee resettlement and Director of Policy to the Minister of Education. Mike is a consensus builder, a problem solver and a creative thinker; all skills that will serve him well in his new role.

As a government, we are entering an exciting phase of our mandate. We have achieved a balanced budget and are moving forward with important initiatives like our Fair Hydro Plan, our Fair Housing Plan and OHIP+. There is so much more that we are set to accomplish in the coming months, and we are building the right team to get us there. Thank you for being a part of it.
