Please find attached the following documents – which all use the external Document password:

- Revised MMMP Fiscal Architecture Deck to track into both BPC tomorrow, and ultimately to MMMP on Thursday (I believe PO was looking for copies of this as soon as possible in order to prep for Thursday's meeting). This version reflects feedback from BPC itself, along with additional changes coming from both TBS and MOF on the various slides. We've also tried to reduce the number of slides and focus the deck.
- Updated Scaleable Investments Deck which TBS will bring to BPC tomorrow and will also track as part of the MMMP materials.
- Fiscal Placemat – not tracking to BPC or MMMP, but a helpful backpocket piece that summarizes the fiscal architecture in one place.

Ali, Liz, you'll notice from reading this version of the Architecture piece that we've taken additional steps to highlight the risks associated with the fiscal architecture outlined in the balanced scenario. Slide 11 has probably the most to say in this regard, and we wanted you to be particularly aware of how that's being portrayed and the importance of that point being made as part of Thursday's discussion.

Please note we are also developing draft speaking notes for the Minister to use on Thursday – which we'll get to you tomorrow. If there's any specific messaging you'll want to make sure is in there, please let me know and I'll make sure it's in there.
