Attached are my comments layered onto Peter's. I used word track changes and there are some comment bubbles with questions to you both.

Bruce is asking to meet tomorrow morning so I may be delayed for our 9:30. I'll keep you posted. DM is asking for us to come up tomorrow afternoon to discuss any issues we have with the legislation.

Copying Jeannette and Anthony so they are in the loop.

Michael

Same with me - incredibly dense!

If you have not started inputting any edits, layer on top of Peter's (see attached). I can then wait and plug in mine later this evening or first thing in morning - plan to come in early Perfect, 9:30 works. Just working through the document now. Took a long time to get through those definitions...

Michael -

I agree. Why don't you come over in the morning - would 9:30 be ok? And then we can go over and edit our comments.

If you send me your comments this evening, I will get them integrated/consolidated with mine and Peter's.

And perhaps we can arrange to call Jeannette at some point if we need to get her input on anything.

Glenn

Glenn,

Jeannette is not available to meet tomorrow morning but we can send her questions.

Anthony likewise is in meetings until 11am. Not sure we should wait to send our comments until we meet with him.

I will get my comments to you and Peter tonight. I'm available to meet tomorrow morning anytime. I'm not going to the Ministry meeting so could meet at 9 if that works for you.

Sent from my BlackBerry 10 smartphone on the Rogers network.

Should we meet for 30 mins or so before going to Blakes? The Blakes document is quite dense and it would be a good idea to identify particular issues before the meeting.

Update: a meeting invite should be coming shortly for a 10am to 4pm meeting tomorrow at Blakes. Blakes detailed document will also be circulated prior to the meeting and Ministry suggested that would form basis of discussion. Ministry has the OPG and IESO issues lists.

Friday meeting will also be 10 to 4.

Based on an email from Martine Band, it sounds like OEB may be invited to the meeting tomorrow as well.
