There are a few moving parts to manage and we need to make sure that the equity injection and the loan re-payment are on the same day.
The sooner we will know the better.
Thanks for the heads up.

Carlos, Jim,

Please note, last night IESO received notice that the closing date for the first fair hydro purchase may likely be Dec 21 not tomorrow.

I expect to know for sure later this morning and will connect around 11am.

Please let me know if this creates a concern will I manage this morning.

Regards,

Importance: High

Carlos,

As discussed today.

OPG has changed the closing date from Dec 19th back to original Dec 20th.

Therefore, to be most efficient, please confirm via email OFA will change (back to original) the repayment date to Dec 20th 2017.

Thanks again for being flexible.

Regards.

Subject: RE: IESO Notice for Nov 21/17

Carlos, James,

As discussed on Friday last week, the IESO and OPG have been discussing the first sale to occur this month.

We have received word that Dec 19 2017 is the preferred date.

Therefore, please accept this email as the IESO's formal request to move the current repayment date (see attached) from Dec 20 to Dec 19 – with a corresponding change in the calculated interest expense amount too.

As proposed, on Dec 19 2017 the IESO will be receiving about $1.2 billion from OPG Trust and on Dec 18th 2017 the IESO will be receiving about $1.3 billion in electricity market settlements.

The most efficient manner is for the IESO to repay the whole OFA loan on Dec 19 2017 to avoid any IESO Treasury Policy investment concerns/approvals (as it limits funds max to $500 million per bank) and to avoid investment liquidity (TBills etc, Term deposits) concerns on finding investments for the one day.

Please confirm back if Dec 19 2017 is permitted as the new repayment date, and thank you for your flexibility on this matter.

Regards.

Just a question – will appreciate your reply.

I am discussing the first fair hydro purchase and resulting cash-flow timing with OPG.

Currently, the IESO's Repayment Date (see attached) is set for Dec 20th.

What are OFA comments if I were to ask OFA for this repayment date of Dec 20th 2017 to be changed to Dec 18th 2017?

Regards.
