Hi George,
I share some of that sentiment.

I am stuck in a two day meeting, so I can't do lunch tomorrow. Can't look at my calendar right now to suggest another time.

In the interests of good records management, I suggest that you don't keep this email chain as a record.

Glen

Glen - Thx.

Yes, I have to admit that I have been on the peripheries of the PLAN (Queue the music - Dah Da Dah Dah!).

But the seeds were sown by the OPG volunteering with this novel new tactic aka "The Asset" ... and it was adopted despite protestations to not re-enter the dark ages that brought on the tribulations that now they feel compelled to "fix". History repeats itself.

Punting can be a useful tactic but can have grave consequences down the road. Trust that our kids and grandkids have the extra resources to pay for the ills of their forbearers or maybe get out of this town. This is the opposite of what good financial planning tells you - Pay for your credit card bills every month - don't let debts accumulate. Don't take out a long payback loan to pay for your lease. ...

Let's do lunch - are you free tomorrow?

George
