Hi,

Nothing further on that item. It is Save on Energy.

Currently not all LDC's offer the Home Assistance Program. By summer everyone will be able to access it (as IESO will take over in places where there are gaps) so what they have is probably good enough but so you are aware.

Hi Terry, Alex—

The government has a website up for their Fair Hydro Plan and it includes mention of the “saveONenergy Home Assistance Program”.

www.ontario.ca/fairhydroplan

We're going to let them know they've got our brand name wrong. While we're at it, is there anything else you might want to add?

Andrew
