Flag: Follow up

The end date should be April 2021, and I think Daniel or Robin would have sent you a file with the projections to that date.

I forward you the original email that you sent me with the model. Hopeful that will work to return file you originally sent us to indicate which version we have.

It has the end date of the fixed escalation set for November 2021. Let us know if that is correct.
Thanks,
Joyce
