Hi Joyce, regards timelines for the emissions piece, we'll need the analysis for a briefing in about two weeks time. The QC modelling should continue to take priority though.

I think Steen discussed this with Mike L on your side earlier this morning so hopefully all aligned.

Thanks,
Robin

Hi Joyce, good to catch up yesterday.

A quick question on a separate point – do you have an update on how the LTEP modelling for the low emission scenario is coming along?

Thanks,
Robin
