No meeting has been scheduled yet for Tuesday although I think that is still the plan. Meeting Monday is a good idea.

All,

Please find attached a high level summary of the deferral mechanism that Torys has prepared with the input of OPG for the group's review and consideration. Please note that the summary remains subject to OPG's continuing review. We welcome any feedback or questions.

Just by way of update, we had a call with the dealers and their counsel this afternoon. We have provided them with the latest draft of the attached summary which they will review concurrently with the draft legislation. Torys and Oslers (counsel to the dealers) will be meeting on Friday to discuss the dealers' comments and questions on the structure & governance chart, the summary of the deferral mechanism and the draft legislation. We will circle back with this group after that meeting to highlight any high level issues requiring your input and additional discussion.

Best Regards,
Nina
