Hi Kim – we have two items to discuss:

1. <!--[if !supportLists]--><!--[endif]-->Our understanding is that because of the 4-year moratorium on ratepayers, the IESO will be required to pay interest and third party fees to the Trust during the period of the moratorium. We have heard from the lawyers that the IESO will not be paying the Trust third party fees (legal, accounting, dealer, etc). This results in the Trust not being able to recognize revenue to offset the expense – we want to understand why the IESO can pay the interest fees, but not the other third party fees which are significantly smaller in size than interest
2. <!--[if !supportLists]--><!--[endif]--> The reason why KPMG/IESO is proposing to record a liability for the full amount of the interest they will pay the Trust. It calls into question whether the Trust should record a financial asset - which we don't believe is correct because the amounts paid by the IESO related to interest just rolls into the intangible asset owing from ratepayers (i.e. whatever interest is paid to the Trust will be paid back to the IESO through the next intangible asset purchase)

Let me know if you have any questions!

John,

Unfortunately, the IESO will need to defer this meeting to Wednesday afternoon – if your calendar permits.

Please accept our apologies.

Regards.
