Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO)

120 Adelaide Street West
Suite 1600
Toronto, ON

Dear Madam:

Engagement to provide Accounting Advisory Services

This letter confirms the terms of the engagement of KPMG LLP ("KPMG" or "we") by the Independent Electricity System Operator ("IESO" or the "Company") to provide you with accounting advisory services in relation to the application of Public Sector Accounting Standards ("PSAS") to the consolidation of a trust and to the recognition and derecognition of a variance account in relation to the proposed Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017 (Appendix B to this letter).

The purpose of this letter is to confirm our mutual understanding of the terms of our engagement and the nature of the services we will perform for IESO and, upon signing by both parties, will form our engagement contract.

Objectives and Scope

Our Accounting Advisory Services practice specializes in providing advice on complex technical accounting issues as well as providing guidance on the inter-related implications of various accounting changes to an organization's process, systems, people and other related business relationships and operations. We anticipate that the nature of IESO requests in this engagement to include, but are not limited to the following three issues:

- Issue #1: Can the IESO recognize a regulatory asset related to the variance account created by the proposed Act?
- Issue #2: Is the trust to be established by Ontario Power Generation (the "OPG Trust") controlled by the IESO according to the guidance issued under PSAS 1300 Government Reporting Entity and therefore subject to consolidation by IESO?
- Issue #3: What is the accounting treatment for the derecognition of the regulatory asset upon transfer of the variance account to the OPG Trust?

KPMG LLP is a Canadian limited liability partnership and a member firm of the KPMG network of independent member firms affiliated with KPMG International Cooperative ("KPMG International"), a Swiss entity. KPMG Canada provides services to KPMG LLP.

Our accounting advice will generally be communicated to you via oral discussions and, as required, our opinion will be in writing.

In providing our accounting advice, we will consider PSAS as published by the Public Sector Accounting Board. In the absence of a PSAS that specifically applies to an alternative, we may refer to, and consider the applicability of, other resources as discussed in PSAS 1150, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

We will assume no responsibility to update our accounting advice for any changes to PSAS, as a consequence of pronouncements by the PSAS, or any other authoritative bodies, including the U.S. FASB that occur subsequent to the issuance of our opinion, unless an update is agreed to by both parties in writing through a separate engagement letter.

Engagement Team

The engagement team will comprise of:

- Michel Picard, Partner, who will be responsible for assuring the overall quality and value of our service to the IESO on this engagement.
- Phil Dowad, Partner, who is the head of KPMG's Revenue Recognition Topic Team, including rate-regulated accounting.
- Janet Allan, Partner, who is the head of KPMG's PSAS group.
- Lois Ouellette and Andrew Newman, Partners in our PSAS group.
- Bailey Church, will act as the engagement quality control reviewing partner.

Matt Betik, as the audit engagement partner, will act as the relationship partner and will coordinate with the engagement team to ensure that the audit team is aware of and agree with the advice provided.

We will have access to a full range of KPMG specialists to assist as necessary, including members of KPMG's Canadian and International Department of Professional Practice.

Timing and Proposed Fee Arrangement

We are available to commence work as soon as the engagement letter is signed, subject to the availability of your key accounting personnel and required information and materials.

Our fee will be invoiced at a hourly rate of $600 for actual time spent in providing assistance to IESO as requested. Our fee is due upon receipt of our invoice. It is understood that neither our fees nor the payment thereof will be contingent upon the results of our engagement.

Terms and Conditions

In addition to our Advisory Terms and Conditions set out in Appendix A, the following responsibilities and conditions are understood:

- KPMG will provide our services in accordance with the terms and conditions of this letter. Such services are governed where applicable as defined in the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada ("CPA") literature applicable to such engagements conducted by independent auditors. Accordingly, these services will not result in the issuance of a written communication to third parties by KPMG directly reporting on financial data or internal control or expressing a conclusion or any other form of assurance.

- This engagement contemplates providing general advice on the application of accounting principles. We will base our accounting advice on the facts and assumptions that are provided to us by management and also based on the proposed Ontario Fair Hydro Plan Act, 2017. Part of our analysis will include direct discussion with IESO personnel to corroborate and validate the background information that forms the background of our opinion. Inaccuracy or incompleteness of the information provided to us could have a material effect on our accounting advice.
- KPMG will not provide accounting advice on hypothetical transactions. KPMG's role with respect to proposed or completed transactions will only be to render an objective report on the application of PSAS to specific facts and circumstances. Where requests for accounting advice or assistance are not based on specific facts or circumstances, we will notify management and accordingly restrict our advice to providing a general understanding of the accounting provisions.
- KPMG represents and warrants that this engagement will not preclude KPMG from acting as an external auditor in respect of IESO under applicable rules of professional conduct in Canada.
- KPMG will act as a contractor in providing these services as set out in this letter and does not undertake to perform obligations of IESO or its management, whether regulatory or contractual.
- Our assistance will be under the direction and supervision of you and your management team who as IESO's management, will have the ultimate responsibility for the accuracy of the information provided and for reviewing the work performed by KPMG personnel.
- Actions and decisions taken by IESO based on recommendations and analysis provided by KPMG during the course of this engagement remain the responsibility of IESO's management. PSAS pronouncements and applied interpretations are subject to revision by the PSAB. Accounting advice provided by KPMG will be based on our understanding of current pronouncements and interpretations at the time we provide the advice, and such advice may therefore change materially in response to subsequent changes or revisions to the pronouncements or interpretations. KPMG assumes no responsibility to update accounting advice previously provided unless specifically requested by IESO.
- Management of IESO are responsible for their financial statements and the appropriate application of PSAS, including all records, judgments, estimates and assumptions necessary to ensure such statements comply with PSAS and the relevant filing requirements. With regard to KPMG's services, management of IESO is responsible for:
  - Determining the objectives, scope and extent of KPMG services;
  - The accuracy and completeness of the facts, circumstances and supporting documentation provided to KPMG for purposes of formulating our analyses; and
  - Reviewing and approving the outputs of our work before they are used in your final preparation and filing of financial statements.

- The deliverables, including our opinion, presented as part of this engagement are intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors and management of the Company, and are not intended to be and should not be used, quoted, relied upon by, or otherwise referred to by anyone other than these specified parties or for any other purpose.
- No one other than the Board of Directors and management of the Company is authorized by KPMG to rely upon any information or views expressed herein. KPMG shall have no responsibility or liability for loss or damages or claims, if any, to or by any third party as this letter has not been prepared for, and is not intended for, and should not be used by, any third party or for any other purpose.
- While KPMG can provide valuable assistance and advice to IESO we cannot assume the responsibilities of management. In carrying out our work:
  - KPMG will not act in the capacity equivalent to a member of management or as an employee of IESO;
  - KPMG will provide observations and recommendations regarding IESO's application of the particular accounting principles. Management of IESO is responsible for their financial statements and must evaluate the adequacy of the financial reporting process, including the controls in place, the accounting policies selected, and the records, judgments, estimates and assumptions necessary to comply with PSAS; and
  - KPMG will not form part of the IESO's internal control structure relating to the preparation of financial reporting information.
- This engagement letter has been reviewed with IESO's management to ensure all parties understand that we will not be undertaking any management functions or decisions. Your response, by way of your approval of this engagement letter, is to confirm that our role is strictly advisory.
- KPMG will require the support of IESO personnel in order to achieve timely completion of the project. Support includes, but is not limited to, the collection of all relevant documents (paper or electronic) and the scheduling of interviews and coordination of meetings.
- IESO recognizes and accepts the risks associated with communicating by Internet (e-mail) including the lack of security, unreliability of delivery and possible loss of confidentiality and legal privilege. Unless you request in writing that KPMG not communicate with it by Internet (e-mail), KPMG accepts no responsibility or liability in respect of any loss or damage associated with the use of Internet communications.

We look forward to working with you and your team. If the terms of this engagement letter as set forth above are acceptable to you, please indicate your acceptance and authorization for KPMG to proceed with the related work by signing both copies of this letter in the appropriate space and returning one of the originals to us. In the meantime, if we can provide you with any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Yours very truly,

Michel Picard, CPA, CA

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ADVISORY AND TAX SERVICES

1. TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

a. These Terms and Conditions are an integral part of the accompanying Proposal or Engagement Letter from KPMG that identifies the engagement to which they relate.

b. In the event of conflict between the Proposal or Engagement Letter and these Terms and Conditions, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail unless specific reference to a provision of the Terms and Conditions being varied is made in the Proposal or Engagement Letter. Other capitalized words in these Terms and Conditions shall have the meanings given to them in the Proposal or Engagement Letter.

2. SERVICES.

KPMG will use reasonable efforts to complete the performance of the services within any agreed-upon time-frame. It is understood and agreed that KPMG's services may include advice and recommendations, but all decisions in connection with the implementation of such advice and recommendations shall be the responsibility of, and made by, Client. KPMG will not perform management functions or make management decisions for Client. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions or Engagement Letter (or Proposal) shall be construed as precluding or limiting in any way the right of KPMG to provide services of any kind or nature whatsoever to any person or entity as KPMG in its sole discretion deems appropriate.

3. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES.

a. Client agrees to cooperate with KPMG in the performance of the services under the Engagement Letter and shall provide or arrange to provide KPMG with timely access to and use of the personnel, facilities, equipment, data and information necessary for KPMG to perform the services under the Engagement Letter. To the extent that KPMG personnel are on Client premises, Client will take all reasonable precautions for the safety of KPMG partners and employees at Client premises. Client shall be responsible for the performance of its employees and agents and for the accuracy and completeness of all data and information provided to KPMG for purposes of the performance by KPMG of its services hereunder. The Proposal or Engagement Letter may set forth additional responsibilities of Client in connection with the engagement. Client acknowledges that Client's failure to perform these obligations could adversely impact KPMG's ability to perform its services.

b. Client agrees that Client, and not KPMG, shall perform the following functions: (i) make all management decisions and perform all management functions; (ii) designate an individual who possesses suitable skill, knowledge and experience, preferably within senior management, to oversee the performance of the services under the Engagement Letter, and to evaluate the adequacy and results of such services; (iii) accept responsibility for the results of such services; and (iv) establish and maintain internal controls over the processes with which such services are concerned, including, without limitation, monitoring ongoing activities.

c. Client acknowledges and agrees that KPMG will, in performing the services, base its conclusions on the facts and assumptions that Client furnishes and that KPMG may use data, material, and other information furnished by or at the request or direction of Client without any independent investigation or verification and that KPMG shall be entitled to rely upon the accuracy and completeness of such data, material and other information. Inaccuracy or incompleteness of such data, material and other information furnished to KPMG could have a material effect on KPMG's conclusions.

d. Client acknowledges that information made available by it, or by others on Client's behalf, or otherwise known to partners or staff of KPMG who are not engaged in the provision of the services hereunder shall not be deemed to have been made available to the individuals within KPMG who are engaged in the provision of the services hereunder. Client undertakes that, if anything occurs after information is provided by Client to KPMG to render such information untrue, unfair or misleading, Client shall promptly notify KPMG.

4. REPORTING.

a. All oral and written communications by KPMG to Client with respect to the engagement, including, without limitation, drafts and those communications occurring prior to the execution of the Engagement Letter will be subject to the terms and conditions of the Engagement Letter and these Terms and Conditions. During the performance of the services, KPMG may supply oral, draft or interim advice, reports or presentations but in such circumstances KPMG's written advice or final written report shall take precedence. No reliance should be placed by Client on any oral, draft or interim advice, reports or presentations. Where Client wishes to rely on oral advice or oral presentation, Client shall inform KPMG and KPMG will provide documentary confirmation of the advice concerned.

b. Subsequent to the completion of the engagement, KPMG will not update its advice, recommendations or work product for changes or modification to the law and regulations, or to the judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, or for subsequent events or transactions, unless Client separately engages KPMG to do so in writing after such changes or modifications, interpretations, events or transactions occur.

5. WORKING PAPERS AND USE OF REPORTS; USE OF NAME AND LOGO

a. KPMG retains all rights in all methodologies, know-how, knowledge, applications and software developed by KPMG either prior to or during the engagement. KPMG also retains all rights (including, without limitation, copyright) in all reports, written advice and other working papers and materials developed by KPMG during the engagement. Unless contemplated by the Engagement Letter, all reports and written advice are confidential and intended solely for Client's internal use (or the use of Client's management, as applicable) to assist with this specific matter or transaction, and, where applicable, government taxation authorities, and are not for general use, circulation or publication. Such reports and written advice shall not be edited, referred to, circulated, reproduced, distributed, published, made available, used for any other purpose or relied upon by any other person without KPMG's express written permission and on such terms and conditions as KPMG may require in its sole discretion. If such permission is given, Client shall not publish any extract or excerpt of KPMG's written advice or report or refer to KPMG without providing the entire advice or report at the same time. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client may disclose in whole any report or written advice given to Client by KPMG hereunder solely to Client's legal and professional advisors for the purposes of Client seeking advice in respect of the transaction or matter to which the engagement relates, provided that when doing so Client informs such advisors that: (i) disclosure by them (except as permitted herein) is not permitted without KPMG's prior written consent; and (ii) KPMG accepts no responsibility or liability to such advisors in connection with such reports or written advice. Subject to the restrictions of Section 6, KPMG is entitled to use or develop the knowledge, experience and skills of general application gained through performing the engagement.

b. Client shall not refer to KPMG or use KPMG's name or logo in any manner or medium without the prior written permission of KPMG in each instance, which permission may be unreasonably withheld by KPMG.

c. The contents of this Section 5 may be reproduced in any report or written advice of KPMG, in whole or in part, at KPMG's sole discretion. Any failure of KPMG to include any such language shall not derogate from the obligations set out in this Section 5.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY.

a. Except as described in Section 5 above, Client will treat in confidence any information provided by KPMG to Client, including but not limited to KPMG methodologies, know-how, knowledge, application or software, and will not use or disclose any such confidential information of KPMG to others.

b. Except as expressly set forth herein, KPMG will treat as confidential all proprietary information and personal information obtained from Client in the course of the engagement.

c. The restrictions in subsections 6 (a) and (b) above shall not apply to any information that: (i) is required by law or professional standards applicable to KPMG to be disclosed; (ii) that is in or hereafter enters the public domain; (iii) that is or hereafter becomes known to Client or KPMG, as the case may be, without breach of any confidentiality obligation; or (iv) that is independently developed by KPMG.

d. KPMG shall be entitled to include a description of the services rendered in the course of the engagement in marketing and research materials and disclose such information to third parties, provided that all such information will be rendered anonymous and not subject to association with Client.

e. KPMG shall be entitled to share all information with all other member firms of KPMG International Cooperative ("KPMG International"). KPMG may also use such information to offer services that may be of interest to Client. KPMG may retain and may disclose to other KPMG International member firms, subject to terms of this Section 6, such information required for compliance with applicable professional standards or internal policies or for quality reviews or to share best practices.

f. Professional standards require KPMG personnel performing any audit or assurance services for clients to discuss or have available to them all information and materials that may affect the audit or assurance engagement. Client authorizes, if Client is or becomes an assurance Client, KPMG personnel performing services under the engagement to make available to the KPMG assurance engagement team and other KPMG personnel, the findings, observations and recommendations from the engagement and agrees that KPMG may use all such findings, observations and recommendations in KPMG's assurance engagement.

g. Except as required by applicable law or regulation, Client shall keep confidential the existence and terms of the Proposal or the Engagement Letter (as applicable) and these Terms and Conditions. Such confidential information shall not be distributed, published or made available to any other person without KPMG's express written permission. Further, for purposes of the services described in the Engagement Letter only, the Client hereby grants to KPMG a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, paid up and royalty-free license, without right of sublicense, to use all logos, trademarks and service marks of Client solely for presentations or reports to the Client or for internal KPMG presentations and intranet sites.

7. PERSONAL INFORMATION CONSENTS AND NOTICES.

Any collection, use or disclosure of personal information is subject to KPMG's Privacy Policy available at www.kpmg.ca. KPMG may be required to collect, use and disclose personal information about individuals during the course of the engagement. Client represents and warrants that: (i) it will obtain from individuals all consents required by law to permit KPMG to collect, use and disclose all personal information reasonably required in the course of the engagement, and (ii) it has provided notice of KPMG's potential processing of information outside of Canada (as described in Section 8 below) to all individuals whose personal information is disclosed to KPMG.

8. USE OF MEMBER FIRMS AND THIRD PARTY SERVICE PROVIDERS.

Personal and/or confidential information collected by KPMG during the course of the engagement may be used, processed and stored outside of Canada by KPMG, KPMG International member firms providing services hereunder, KPMG subsidiaries, affiliates and related parties or third party service providers to provide professional services and administrative, analytical and clerical support and to comply with applicable law, regulations and professional standards. Client also understands and agrees that KPMG aggregates Client's information with information from other sources for the purpose of improving quality and service, and for use in presentations to clients and non-clients, in a form where such information is sufficiently de-identified so as not to be attributable to Client. KPMG represents to Client that each KPMG International member firm; KPMG subsidiary, affiliate and related party and third party service provider providing services hereunder has agreed or shall agree to conditions of confidentiality with respect to Client's information to the same or similar extent as KPMG has agreed pursuant to Section 6. Further, KPMG is responsible to Client for causing such KPMG subsidiaries, affiliates, related parties and third party service providers to comply with such conditions of confidentiality, and KPMG shall be responsible to Client for their failure to comply and failure of each KPMG International member firm providing services hereunder to comply with its obligations of confidentiality owed to KPMG. Any services performed by KPMG subsidiaries, affiliates, related parties and third party service providers shall be performed in accordance with the terms of the Engagement Letter, including Section 6, but KPMG shall remain responsible to Client for the performance of such services and services performed by each KPMG International member firm providing services hereunder. Such personal and/or confidential information may be subject to disclosure in accordance with the laws applicable in the jurisdiction in which the information is processed or stored, which laws may not provide the same level of protection for such information as will Canadian laws. KPMG's Privacy Officer noted in KPMG's Privacy Policy is able to answer any individual's questions about the collection of personal information required for KPMG to deliver services hereunder.

9. TAXES/BILLING/EXPENSES/FEES.

a. All fees and other charges do not include any applicable federal, provincial, or other goods and services or sales taxes, or any other taxes or duties whether presently in force or imposed in the future. Any such taxes or duties shall be assumed and paid by Client without deduction from the fees and charges hereunder.

b. Bills will be rendered on a regular basis as the engagement progresses. Our professional fees are also subject to a technology and support charge to cover information technology infrastructure costs and administrative support of our client service personnel which are not included in our client service personnel fee. The technology and support fee covers costs such as our client service personnel computer hardware and customized KPMG software, telecommunications equipment, client service professional administrative support, IT programming, professional services and other client support services. Other direct out-of-pocket costs, such as travel, will be charged separately based on our actual costs. For certainty, Client acknowledges that to the extent a subsidiary, affiliate or related party of KPMG is engaged by KPMG to assist KPMG in providing the services hereunder, Client may receive bills from such subsidiary, affiliate or related party of KPMG for such services. Accounts are due when rendered. Interest on overdue accounts is calculated at the rate noted on the invoice commencing 30 days following the date of the invoice.

c. Without limiting its rights or remedies, KPMG shall have the right to halt or terminate entirely its services until payment is received on past due invoices.

d. In the event that the engagement is terminated and Client proceeds to complete the transaction or financing within 18 months from the termination date, then the full amount of any Completion Fee shall be payable on closing of the transaction or the completion of financing, regardless of whether KPMG provided further service.

10. LIMITATION ON WARRANTIES.

THIS IS A SERVICES ENGAGEMENT. KPMG WARRANTS THAT IT WILL PERFORM SERVICES HEREUNDER IN GOOD FAITH WITH QUALIFIED PERSONNEL IN A COMPETENT AND WORKMANLIKE MANNER IN ACCORDANCE WITH APPLICABLE INDUSTRY STANDARDS. KPMG DISCLAIMS ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, REPRESENTATIONS OR CONDITIONS, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, WARRANTIES, REPRESENTATIONS OR CONDITIONS OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

11. LIMITATION ON LIABILITY.

a. Client agrees that KPMG shall not be liable to Client for any actions, damages, claims, fines, penalties, complaints, demands, suits, proceedings, liabilities, costs, expenses, or losses (collectively, "Claims") in any way arising out of or relating to the services performed hereunder for an aggregate amount in excess of the fees paid by Client to KPMG under the engagement. On a multi-phase engagement, KPMG's liability shall be based on the amount actually paid to KPMG for the particular phase that gives rise to the liability.

b. In the event of a Claim by any third party against KPMG that arises out of or relates to the services performed hereunder, Client will indemnify and hold harmless KPMG from all such Claims, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees, except to the extent finally determined to have resulted from the intentional, deliberate or fraudulent misconduct of KPMG.

c. In no event shall KPMG be liable for consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive or exemplary damages, liabilities, costs, expenses, or losses (including, without limitation, lost profits and opportunity costs). In any Claim arising out of the engagement, Client agrees that KPMG's liability will be several and not joint and several. Client may only claim payment from KPMG of KPMG's proportionate share of the total liability based on degree of fault.

d. For purposes of this Section 11, the term KPMG shall include its subsidiaries, its associated and affiliated entities and their respective current and former partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives. The provisions of this Section 11 shall apply regardless of the form of Claim, whether in contract, statute, tort (including, without limitation, negligence) or otherwise.

12. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

a. Client agrees to notify KPMG promptly of any request received by Client from any court or applicable regulatory authority with respect to the services hereunder, KPMG's confidential information, KPMG's advice or report or any related document.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ADVISORY AND TAX SERVICES

b. If KPMG is required by law, pursuant to government regulation, subpoena or other legal process to produce documents or personnel as witnesses arising out of the engagement and KPMG is not a party to such proceedings, Client shall reimburse KPMG at standard billing rates for professional time and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees, expenses and taxes incurred in responding to such compelled assistance.

c. If Client requests that KPMG produce documents or personnel as witnesses in any proceedings in any way related to the engagement or services provided by KPMG hereunder and KPMG is not a party to such proceedings, KPMG may agree to produce documents or personnel as witnesses on such terms and conditions as KPMG may, in its sole discretion, determine. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Client shall reimburse KPMG at standard billing rates for professional time and expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees, expenses and taxes, incurred in responding to such Client requests.

d. Client acknowledges that KPMG may from time to time receive requests or orders from professional, securities or other regulatory, judicial or governmental authorities (both in Canada and abroad) to provide them with information and copies of documents in KPMG's files including, without limitation, working papers and other work-product relating to Client, which information and documents may contain confidential information of Client. Except where prohibited by law, KPMG will advise Client of the request or order. Client hereby acknowledges that KPMG will provide these documents and information without further reference to, or authority from Client.

Client must mark any document over which it asserts privilege as "privileged". When such an authority requests access to KPMG's working papers and other work-product relating to Client's affairs, KPMG will, on a reasonable efforts basis, refuse access to any document over which Client has expressly informed KPMG at the time of delivery that the Client asserts privilege (by the Client marking such document as "privileged" as contemplated in the foregoing sentence). Notwithstanding the foregoing, where disclosure of documents is required by law, KPMG will disclose such privileged documents. If and only if the authority requires such access to such privileged documents pursuant to the laws of a jurisdiction in which express consent of the Client is required for such disclosure, then Client hereby provides its consent.

Where privileged Client documents are disclosed by KPMG as contemplated above, KPMG is directed to advise the authority that Client is permitting disclosure only to the extent required by law and for the limited purpose of the authority's exercise of statutory authority. KPMG is directed to advise the authority that Client does not intend to waive privilege for any other purpose and that Client expects its documents to be held by the authority as privileged and confidential material. For greater certainty, Client and KPMG hereby agree that this acknowledgement (and, if required, consent) does not negate or constitute a waiver of privilege for any purpose and Client expressly relies upon the privilege protections afforded under statute and otherwise under law.

13. LIMITATION PERIOD.

No proceeding arising under or relating to the engagement, may be brought by either party more than one year after the cause of action has accrued or in any event not more than five years after completion of the engagement in the case of an advisory services engagement and not more than eight years after completion of the engagement in the case of a tax services engagement, except that a proceeding for non-payment may be brought by KPMG at any time following the date of the last payment due to KPMG hereunder. For purposes of this Section 13, the term KPMG shall include its subsidiaries and associated and affiliated entities and their respective current and former partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives.

14. TERMINATION.

Unless terminated sooner in accordance with its terms, the engagement shall terminate on the completion of KPMG's services hereunder, which completion shall be evidenced by the delivery by KPMG to Client of the final invoice in respect of the services performed hereunder. Should Client not fulfill its obligations set out herein or in the Engagement Letter and in the absence of rectification by Client within 10 days, KPMG may, upon written notice, terminate its performance and will not be responsible for any loss, cost or expense resulting therefrom. If at any time during the engagement it is determined by KPMG, in its sole discretion, that there may be an actual or potential breach by KPMG of applicable professional standards, KPMG may terminate the engagement, without liability, immediately on notice to Client. The engagement may be terminated by either party at any time by giving written notice to the other party not less than 30 calendar days before the effective date of termination. Upon early termination of the engagement, Client shall be responsible for the payment to KPMG for KPMG's time and expenses incurred up to the termination date, as well as reasonable time and expenses to bring the engagement to a close in a prompt and orderly manner.

15. E-MAIL COMMUNICATION.

Client recognizes and accepts the risks associated with communicating by Internet e-mail, including (but without limitation) the lack of security, unreliability of delivery and possible loss of confidentiality and privilege. Unless Client requests in writing that KPMG does not communicate by Internet e-mail, Client assumes all responsibility or liability in respect of the risk associated with its use.

16. POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST.

a. For purposes of this Section 16, "KPMG" means KPMG LLP and KPMG subsidiaries, affiliates and related parties providing services hereunder, if applicable. KPMG is engaged by a wide variety of entities and individuals, some of whom may be creditors, investors, borrowers, shareholders, competitors, suppliers or customers of Client, or other parties with conflicting legal and business interests to Client, including, without limitation, in relation to the audit, tax or advisory services provided to Client by KPMG. KPMG's engagements with such companies and individuals may result in a conflict with Client's interests.

b. As a condition of KPMG's engagement by Client, Client agrees that: (i) without further notice or disclosure, KPMG may accept or continue engagements on unrelated matters to KPMG's engagement for Client in which KPMG may act contrary to Client's interests even if those unrelated matters are materially and directly adverse to Client; and (ii) without further notice or disclosure, KPMG may provide advice or services to any other person or entity making a competing bid or proposal to that of Client whether or not KPMG is providing advice or services to Client in respect of Client's competing bid or proposal.

c. In accordance with professional standards, and except as set out below, KPMG will not use any confidential information regarding Client in connection with its engagements with other clients, and will establish confidentiality and other safeguards to manage conflicts, which may include, in KPMG's sole discretion, the use of separate engagement teams and data access controls. In no event shall KPMG be liable to Client or shall Client be entitled to a return of fees and disbursements incurred on behalf of Client or any other compensation whatsoever as a result of KPMG accepting or continuing a conflicting engagement.

d. Client further agrees that KPMG may, in its sole discretion, disclose the fact or general nature of its engagement for Client to (i) KPMG International and other KPMG International member firms in order to check against potential conflicts of interest, and (ii) to the extent reasonably required in order to obtain the consent of another entity or individual in order to permit KPMG to act for such entity or individual, or for Client, in connection with the engagement or any future engagement.

e. Where another party has engaged KPMG to deliver services before Client has done so, and subsequently circumstances change such that there is a conflict, which in KPMG's sole opinion cannot be adequately managed through the use of confidentiality and other safeguards, KPMG shall be entitled to terminate the engagement for Client, without liability, immediately upon notice.

f. Other KPMG International member firms are engaged by many entities and individuals, including, without limitation, entities and individuals that may enter into transactions or may have disputes with Client or Client's related or affiliated entities. Client agrees that (i) it will not assert that other KPMG International member firms are precluded from being engaged by those other entities or individuals, and (ii) those engagements of other KPMG International member firms do not conflict with KPMG's engagement for Client.

g. Client will indemnify and hold harmless KPMG, its subsidiaries and associated and affiliated entities, and their respective current and former partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives from any Claim by any third party (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) that alleges that KPMG was in a conflict of interest by providing services hereunder. The provisions of this subsection 16(g) shall apply regardless of the form of Claim, whether in contract, statute, tort (including, without limitation, negligence) or otherwise.

h. KPMG encourages Client to obtain legal advice with respect to Client's rights in connection with potential future conflicts prior to entering into the engagement.

17. FORCE MAJEURE.

Neither Client nor KPMG shall be liable for any delays resulting from circumstances or causes beyond its reasonable control, including, without limitation, fire or other casualty, act of God, strike or labour dispute, war or other violence, or any law, order or requirement of any governmental agency or authority.

18. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR.

It is understood and agreed that each of the parties hereto is an independent contractor and that neither party is, nor shall be considered to be, an agent, distributor or representative of the other. Neither party shall act or represent itself, directly or by implication, as an agent of the other or in any manner assume or create any obligation on behalf of, or in the name of, the other.

19. SURVIVAL.

Sections 1, 4(b), 5-16, 18-30, 31(a) and (c)-(g), and 33-34 hereof shall survive the expiration or termination of the engagement.

20. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS.

These Terms and Conditions and the accompanying Proposal or Engagement Letter shall be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective subsidiaries and associated and affiliated entities and their respective partners, directors, officers and employees and successors and permitted assigns. Except as provided below, neither party may assign, transfer or delegate any of the rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other party. KPMG may assign its rights and obligations hereunder to any affiliate or successor in interest to all or substantially all of the assets or business of the relevant KPMG practice, without the consent of Client. In addition, KPMG may arrange for or engage (as applicable) KPMG affiliates, subsidiaries, related parties, independent contractors and KPMG International member firms to assist KPMG in performing the services hereunder.

21. SEVERABILITY.

The provisions of these Terms and Conditions and the accompanying Proposal or Engagement Letter shall only apply to the extent that they are not prohibited by a mandatory provision of applicable law, regulation or professional standards. If any of these provisions shall be held to be invalid, void or unenforceable, then the remainder of these Terms and Conditions and the attached Proposal or Engagement Letter, as the case may be, shall not be affected, impaired or invalidated, and each such provision shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

22. ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

These Terms and Conditions and the accompanying Proposal or Engagement Letter including, without limitation, Exhibits, constitute the entire agreement between KPMG and Client with respect to the engagement and supersede all other oral and written representation, understandings or agreements relating to the engagement.

23. GOVERNING LAW.

These Terms and Conditions and the accompanying Proposal or Engagement Letter shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the province in which KPMG's principal Canadian office performing the engagement is located (without regard to such province's rules on conflicts of law).

24. PUBLICITY.

Upon the closing of a transaction, KPMG will have the right (but shall not be obliged), at its expense, to publicize its association with the transaction by way of public announcement in "tombstone" or similar format, subject to prior review of the wording for any such announcement with Client.

25. KPMG INTERNATIONAL MEMBER FIRMS.

In the case of multi-firm engagements, all KPMG International member firms performing services hereunder shall be entitled to the benefits of these Terms and Conditions. Client agrees that any Claims that may arise out of the engagement will be brought solely against KPMG, the contracting party, and not against any other KPMG International member firms or such third party service providers referred to in Section 8 above.

26. SARBANES-OXLEY ACT.

Except as set forth in the Engagement Letter, Client acknowledges that completion of the engagement or acceptance of KPMG's reports, advice, recommendations and other deliverables resulting from the engagement will not constitute a basis for Client's assessment of internal control over financial reporting or Client's evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures, or its compliance with its principal officer certification requirements under Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act"). The engagement shall not be construed to support Client's responsibilities under Section 404 of the Act requiring each annual report filed under Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to contain an internal control report from management.

27. NATIONAL INSTRUMENT 52-109.

Except as set forth in the Engagement Letter, Client acknowledges that completion of the engagement or acceptance of KPMG's reports, advice, recommendations and other deliverables resulting from the engagement will not constitute a basis for Client's evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting, or its compliance with its CEO/CFO certification requirements under National Instrument 52-109, Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings, including those related to the design of disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting.

28. SPECIFIC ACCOUNTING AND OTHER ADVICE.

Except as set forth in the Engagement Letter, the engagement does not contemplate the provision of specific accounting advice or opinions or the issuance of a written report on the application of accounting standards to specific transactions and facts and circumstances of Client. Such services, if requested, would be provided pursuant to a separate engagement. Client should consult with and/or engage legal counsel for the purpose of advising on legal aspects of matters on which KPMG provides its advice and drafting any legal documents and/or agreements that may be required. To the extent legal counsel or other professional service providers are required, Client is exclusively responsible for engaging and paying such service providers.

29. TAX SERVICES.

a. If tax work is specifically requested by Client, KPMG will perform the procedures in accordance with this Section 29. KPMG will base its findings exclusively on the facts and assumptions provided to KPMG by Client and Client's personnel and advisors. KPMG will consider the applicable provisions of the relevant taxing statutes, the regulations thereunder, applicable tax treaties and judicial and administrative interpretations thereof. In the case of Canadian tax services only, KPMG will also take into account all specific proposals to amend such statutes, regulations and treaties publicly announced prior to the date of KPMG's reports, based on the assumption that these amendments will be enacted substantially as proposed. For certainty, in the case of US tax services, KPMG shall not take into account any specific proposals to amend such statutes, regulations and treaties. The authorities referred to in this subsection 29(a) are subject to change, retroactively and/or prospectively, and any such changes could affect the validity of KPMG's findings and may result in incremental taxes, interest or penalties. KPMG's findings will not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law or practice, by way of judicial, governmental or legislative action or interpretation. Unless Client specifically requests otherwise, KPMG will not update tax work to take any such changes into account.

b. KPMG will use professional judgment in providing advice, and will, unless Client instructs otherwise, take the position most favourable to Client whenever reasonable. All returns are subject to examination by tax authorities, and KPMG's advice may be audited and challenged by a tax authority. Client understands that KPMG's conclusions are not binding on tax authorities or the courts and should not be construed as a representation, warranty or guarantee that the tax authorities or courts will agree with KPMG's conclusion.

c. Client is also responsible for ensuring that KPMG's advice is implemented strictly in accordance with KPMG's recommendations. KPMG is not responsible for any penalties or interest assessed against Client as a result of a failure by Client to provide KPMG with accurate and complete information.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ADVISORY AND TAX SERVICES

d. Unless expressly provided for, KPMG's services do not include representing Client in the event of a challenge by the Canada Revenue Agency or other tax or revenue authorities.

30. TAX SERVICES FOR SEC REGISTERED AUDIT CLIENTS AND/OR US TAX SERVICES

a. In circumstances where the services provided by KPMG hereunder: (i) involve the delivery of any tax services, Client is or is an affiliate of (whether at the time of the engagement or at any point thereafter) an entity that is registered with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), and Client or such affiliate is audited by KPMG; or (ii) involve the delivery of US tax services, then the prohibition regarding the distribution of KPMG's reports and written advice set out in Section 5 of these Terms and Conditions shall not apply and no provision of the Engagement Letter is or is intended to be construed as a condition of confidentiality in relation to the tax services to which (i) and/or (ii) above are applicable. Further, in respect of the services to which (i) and/or (ii) above are applicable, no provision in the Engagement Letter or these Terms and Conditions is or is intended to be construed as a condition of confidentiality within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") sections 6011, 6111, 6112 or the regulations thereunder, or under any similar or analogous provisions of the laws of a state or other jurisdiction. In particular, Client (and each employee, representative, or other agent of Client) may disclose to any and all persons, without limitation of any kind, the tax treatment and tax structure of any transaction within the scope of the engagement and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to Client relating to such tax treatment and tax structure. Client also agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to inform KPMG of any conditions of confidentiality imposed by third party advisors with respect to any transaction on which KPMG's advice is requested. Such notification must occur prior to KPMG providing any advice with respect to the transaction.

b. For certainty, Section 5 of these Terms and Conditions shall continue to apply in its entirety, and this Section 30 shall not apply, to any tax services to which subsection 30(a)(i) and/or (ii) above are not applicable. In this Section 30, the term "affiliate" is interpreted as that term is used by the SEC with reference to auditor independence rules.

c. In respect of any tax services to which subsection 30(a)(i) or (ii) above are applicable, any reports or advice ("Tax Deliverable") released to Client in any form or medium shall be supplied by KPMG on the basis that it is for Client's benefit and use only. If Client refers to or discloses in whole or in part any Tax Deliverable to any third party, Client shall notify such third party in writing as follows: that (i) the tax services performed by KPMG for Client were designed to meet Client's agreed requirements only, as determined by Client's needs at the time; (ii) any product of the tax services should not be regarded as suitable to be used or relied upon by any party wishing to acquire any rights against KPMG other than Client; (iii) KPMG does not assume any responsibility in respect of the tax services performed for Client, any product of the tax services, or any judgments, conclusions, opinions, findings or recommendations that KPMG may have formed or made, to any party except Client; (iv) to the fullest extent permitted by law, KPMG accepts no liability in respect of any such matters to any other person; and (v) should any person or entity except Client choose to rely on the tax services or any product thereof, that person or entity will do so at their own risk. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (A) in the event of a disclosure made by Client that is required by law, that is made to a regulatory authority having jurisdiction over Client, or that is made pursuant to subsection 30(a) above, no such notification shall be required and (B) no such notification shall be required with respect to disclosures expressly authorized by the Engagement Letter.

d. If Client refers or discloses in whole or in part any Tax Deliverable to any third party but does not notify such third party in writing as required in subsection 30(c) above, Client shall compensate KPMG and reimburse KPMG for and protect, indemnify and hold harmless KPMG against any Claim incurred by KPMG (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) as a result of, arising from or in connection with any such reference or disclosure, unless KPMG has agreed in writing with such third party to accept responsibility and liability to that third party in respect of the tax services and the Tax Deliverable. If any payment is made by Client under this subsection 30(d), Client shall not seek recovery of that payment from KPMG at any time. In this subsection 30(d), "KPMG" shall include KPMG and its subsidiaries, its associated and affiliated entities and their respective current and former partners, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives, and "Client" shall include Client, Client's affiliates and any other beneficiaries of KPMG's tax services. The foregoing indemnification obligations shall apply regardless of the form of Claim, whether in contract, statute, tort (including, without limitation, negligence) or otherwise.

e. Treasury regulations under IRC section 6011 require taxpayers to disclose to the IRS their participation in reportable transactions and IRC section 6707A imposes strict penalties for noncompliance. Client agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to inform KPMG if Client is required to disclose any transaction covered by the Engagement Letter as a reportable transaction to the IRS or to any state or other jurisdiction adopting similar or analogous provisions. IRC section 6111 requires a material advisor with respect to a reportable transaction to disclose information on the transaction to the IRS by a prescribed date, and IRC section 6112 requires the material advisor to maintain, and make available to the IRS upon request, a list of persons and other information with respect to the transaction. KPMG will use commercially reasonable efforts to inform Client if KPMG provides Client's identifying information to the IRS under IRC section 6111 or 6112, or to any state or other jurisdiction adopting similar or analogous provisions.

f. For engagements where services will be provided by a KPMG International member firm with offices located in California, Client acknowledges that certain of KPMG's personnel who may be considered "owners" under the California Accountancy Act and implementing regulations (California Business and Professions Code section 5079(a); 16 Cal. Code Regs. sections 51 and 51.1) and who may provide services in connection with the engagement, may not be licensed as certified public accountants under the laws of any of the various states.

31. DUE DILIGENCE SERVICES (TAX AND TRANSACTION SERVICES)

a. The procedures KPMG will perform are limited to those referred to in the Engagement Letter and its appendices. The procedures KPMG will perform are limited in nature and extent to those determined by Client to meet its needs and, as such, will not necessarily disclose all significant matters about Target or reveal errors in the underlying information, instances of fraud, or illegal acts, if any. KPMG provides no assurance and makes no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures either for the purpose of the proposed transaction in the context of which KPMG has been engaged or for any other purpose. KPMG's findings will not constitute recommendations to Client as to whether or not Client should proceed with any proposed transactions. In performing the procedures and reporting its findings, KPMG will rely exclusively upon information provided to KPMG by Target, its personnel and advisors, Client's advisors, and Client, and any publicly available information KPMG obtains, and will not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of such information. KPMG's procedures with respect to Target's financial information will be substantially less in scope than any audit or other attestation standards, including without limitation those established by the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board and the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada. Consequently, KPMG expresses no opinion and will provide no other form of assurance on Target's prospective financial information, financial statements or Target's internal control over financial reporting.

b. Client agrees to review reports promptly and to advise KPMG on a timely basis of any additional procedures Client would like KPMG to perform or areas to address.

c. In the event KPMG performs procedures related to future-oriented financial information, KPMG will not compile, examine, or apply other assurance procedures to such information and, accordingly, will express no opinion or any other form of assurance or representations concerning its accuracy, completeness or presentation format. Future-oriented financial information is based on assumptions regarding future events, actual results will vary from the information presented and the variations may be material.

d. Unless specifically requested by Client, KPMG is not obligated to provide a copy of the report to Target for the purpose of confirming Target's representations concerning the accuracy of the factual information presented in the report. If Client would like Target to review the report, KPMG will require Client and Target to indemnify KPMG for any Claims arising out of or relating to such review on such terms and conditions specified by KPMG in its sole discretion. In certain instances, Client may request that KPMG's report be distributed to a third party for informational purposes. KPMG will consider consenting to distribution based on such factors as the identity of the third party and the third party's intended use of the report. If KPMG agrees to the distribution of the report to a third party, Client agrees to execute and agrees to require the third party to execute an agreement in the form provided by KPMG regarding the release of information.

e. Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that if Client and Target (as such terms are defined in the Engagement Letter) are the same entity, that all references herein to "Target" shall be deemed to be references to "Client".

f. The provisions of subsections 3(c)-(d) and Section 6 shall apply to information about Target provided to KPMG in the course of performing the services under the Engagement Letter. Client agrees to use all reasonable efforts to arrange for KPMG's access to Target's personnel and advisors, business offices and financial information as required for KPMG to perform the services contemplated by the Engagement Letter.

g. If KPMG serves as independent auditors of Target or another party disclosed to Client, or provides any other audit or attestation services to Target or such other party (such as the target of a contract compliance review or a party having a connection to an investigation or proceeding), Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that KPMG may be in possession of confidential information concerning Target or such other party that may be relevant to Client's due diligence procedures or other services KPMG is providing to Client under the Engagement Letter and that such information will not be disclosed to Client unless Target or such other party provides prior written consent to such disclosure or provides such information directly to Client or to the KPMG engagement team serving Client for purposes of the services under the Engagement Letter.

32. LOBBYING

Unless expressly stated in the Engagement Letter, KPMG will not undertake any lobbying activity, as that term is defined in all applicable federal, provincial and municipal lobbyist registration statutes and regulations, in connection with the engagement. In the event that KPMG and Client agree that KPMG will undertake lobbying activity in connection with the engagement, such agreement shall be set out in an amendment to the Engagement Letter.

33. LLP.

KPMG LLP is a registered limited liability partnership ("LLP") established under the laws of the Province of Ontario and, where applicable, has been registered extra-provincially under provincial LLP legislation. KPMG is a partnership, but its partners have a degree of limited liability. A partner is not personally liable for any debts, obligations or liabilities of the LLP that arise from a negligent act or omission by another partner or any person under that other partner's direct supervision or control. The legislation relating to limited liability partnerships does not, however, reduce or limit the liability of the firm. The firm's insurance exceeds the mandatory professional indemnity insurance requirements established by the relevant professional bodies. Subject to the other provisions hereof, all partners of the LLP remain personally liable for their own actions and/or actions of those they directly supervise or control.

34. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

The parties shall, and shall cause both their and their respective subsidiaries', affiliates' and associated entities' current and former officers, partners, directors, employees, agents and representatives, to first attempt to settle any dispute arising out of or relating to the Engagement Letter or the services provided hereunder (the "Dispute") through good faith negotiations in the spirit of mutual cooperation between representatives of each of the parties with authority to resolve the Dispute. In the event that the parties are unable to settle or resolve a Dispute through negotiation within 30 days of when one of the parties has notified the other party of the Dispute by delivering a notice of dispute, or such longer period as the parties may mutually agree upon, such Dispute shall, as promptly as is reasonably practicable, be subject to mediation pursuant to the National Mediation Rules of the ADR Institute of Canada, Inc. that are in force at the time the notice of dispute is delivered. Any Dispute remaining unresolved for more than 60 days following the parties first meeting with a mediator or such longer period as the parties may mutually agree upon shall, as promptly as is reasonably practicable, be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the Arbitration Rules of the ADR Institute of Canada, Inc. (the "Arbitration Rules") that are in force at the time the Dispute is subject to arbitration. For certainty, the parties hereby waive any right they may otherwise have to bring a court action in connection with a Dispute. The parties also waive any right they may otherwise have to bring or participate in a class, collective or representative proceeding in connection with a Dispute, whether in court or before an arbitrator. The arbitrator's decision shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the parties, and the parties shall have no right to appeal or seek judicial review of the arbitrator's decision. For certainty, the parties hereby waive any right of appeal which may otherwise be available under applicable legislation or under the Arbitration Rules. The place of mediation and arbitration shall be the city in Canada in which the principal KPMG office that performed the engagement is located. The language of the mediation and arbitration shall be English.
