Social Media & Issues Monitoring Report | July 26, 2018

News Articles and Releases:

E&E News | IESO Mention | Canadian utilities got head start against Russian grid threat

Last summer, Canadian intelligence officials warned power companies about a menacing cyberthreat to the grid — more than two weeks ahead of their U.S. counterparts.

County Weekly | IESO Mention | Wind projects are dead

Dubbed the Urgent Priorities Act, the Tories called back the legislature for a summer sitting and passed the bill officially spelling the end of Canada's White Pines Wind Project as well as ending an almost six-month long labour strike at Toronto's York University. APPEC president Orville Walsh said the bill ends a battle that's lasted almost a decade.

Industry News / Commentary/ Electricity Pricing:

Robert Benzie @robertbenzie

Rookie Energy Minister @GregRickford says new government is "not going to subsidize" electricity. Unclear if that means changes to the Liberal Fair Hydro Plan subsidies that the Tories have adopted. #onpoli

Jessica Smith Cross @jessiecatherine

Looks like @robertbenzie heard correctly. @GregRickford is committing to ending the subsidizing of hydro bills through the borrowing set up with the last government's Fair Hydro Plan. No details yet on the when and how. twitter.com/robertbenzie/s...

Robert Benzie @robertbenzie

I am told the rookie minister misspoke and was referring to green energy subsidies. NDP MPP @CFifeKW tripped him up. The Tories have no plans to cancel the Liberal Fair Hydro Plan, which they have now adopted and are building upon with additional rebates. #onpoli

Catherine Fife @CFifeKW

Today I asked the gov't about the cancellation of 758 green energy contracts, including a @grandriverca project in #Cambridge. This move undermines investor confidence & signals that the Ontario gov't can't be trusted as a business partner. #onpoli youtu.be/VYql720xph0
