

Conflict of Interest

- Outside business activities
 - general right to decide what to do outside of work subject to primary business loyalty to the company, e.g. not working for a market participant without prior approval
- Non profit and professional activities
 - may only use assets and time with prior approval
 - when speaking publicly we must make clear we are acting in our personal capacity and not on behalf of the company