

Confidentiality – separation of functions

- Exchanges of confidential information are to be conducted on a “need to know basis”
 - within the IESO, information can only be shared if permitted by any relevant confidentiality restrictions or obligations, if the requestor requires the information to perform their duties, and only at the level of granularity necessary
- If you need Confidential Information, or believe that a request you have received involves Confidential Information, contact your supervisor or a Request Fulfillment Manager.

