

Confidentiality

- Fundamental to our roles as system and market operator and manager of contract procurement.
- Protects both personal privacy and the integrity and reliability of the power system and markets.
- Outside the IESO:
 - we will not disclose confidential information except as allowed in market rules or non-disclosure agreements
 - will not use information to trade or tip off others for financial gain, such as buying securities
 - will only share confidential information as required to perform our duties