Terry:

We can always adjust our schedule. When do you anticipate being able to join the Board?

Subject: Board meeting

John: As you may know, the IESO is the host sponsor of an AESP (conservation related) international conference that begins at the Sheraton Centre tomorrow morning. I am on tap to give opening remarks and to participate in a climate change/energy efficiency panel tomorrow morning which means I will miss the morning Board session when the ELT arrive at 10:35 a.m. Susan Harrison will be on hand to set up the SAC call with Brian Benz but there may be a need for an adjustment in the schedule around the Fair Hydro communications item. I did mention this to Tim last week who asked that I send an email reminder today. Sorry about this. Terry
