Terry – the Post article with Geoff won't be running today, but Geoff has offered to still take a call with you. My inclination would be to still take the call to help provide some context for him should he decide to run with something in the future.

Hey John,

I don't think the story will be running today anymore. If Terry still wishes to speak to me today I'd be happy to.

Hi Geoff,

Thanks for your inquiry.

The IESO's Terry Young will call you at around 3:30 today to address your questions.

Regards,

John Cannella

Subject: Auditor general's claims

Hello,

My name is Geoff Zochodne and I'm a reporter for the Financial Post.

I'm working on a story about the auditor general's recent special audit of the IESO, and particularly that creditors could have claims before generators for the Fair Hydro Trust. This was outlined during a recent meeting of the public accounts committee: http://ontla.on.ca/web/committee-proceedings/committee_transcripts_details.do?locale=en&Date=2018-03-21&ParlCommID=9001&DocumentID=34777

Has the province considered the risks of the fact that "the assets of IESO have been pledged as collateral and security against the fair hydro trust"? What is the response to the auditor general's audit of the IESO, and of the accounting of it and the Fair Hydro Plan? Why hasn't this been disclosed in financial statements, as the auditor asked?

My deadline is 4:30.
