Michel, do you think OPG being appointed to take on these responsibilities will create any accounting issues from its perspective?

Thanks Kim.

We are fine with the additional clauses.

Regards,

Michel

Subject: FW: Revised MTSA per our discussion

Here is the latest draft. What has been added is 2 clauses which give IESO enforcement and audit responsibilities. This is to bring the agreement in line with traditional roles of a servicer to make it easier for the rating agencies to assess. As indicated in les's email, OPG (who actually has the legislative right for this enforcement and audit) will agree to undertake under an agency appointment, at no cost to IESO. This should be a form over substance discussion.

Pls let us know if you believe these additions do not impact the current IESO accounting approach. Thanks

3.3

Subject: Revised MTSA per our discussion today

Dear Michael,

Attached per our meeting today is a revised draft of the MTSA. Attached is a clean version and a blackline against the version that went to the rating agencies. Could you please arrange for KPMG to consider the inclusion of the obligations in 3.3(k) and (l) with the expectation that OPG will agree to undertake those obligations under an agency appointment?

Let us know if there are any questions or comments on the attached.

Regards,

Les

Leslie Wong
Senior Counsel

^[1] Note: IESO would appoint OPG as its agent to perform these obligations.
