Hi everyone,

As noted below, an LTEP update is included on this week's ELT agenda. Attached for your review is the first draft of the deck that will be used, and associated materials (referenced in the deck).

An internal WG meeting is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, and can be used to discuss everyone's feedback. If you're able to provide your feedback via email prior to the meeting, that would be appreciated, although I understand that this is short notice. As a reminder, a final product is due to Lorraine by end of day tomorrow (or early Wednesday at the latest).

Thanks again. I appreciate everyone's timely review.

Anthy

Everyone,

An LTEP update is now included on next week's ELT agenda. I am developing the first draft of a deck now, based on our discussion yesterday, and hope to have it circulated for your review shortly.

The WG meeting scheduled for next Tuesday has now been confirmed, and will be used for prep/to discuss next steps for the update with ELT on Thursday.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Anthy
