Rayhan – as discussed, if you have other things to circulate for today’s meeting, it makes sense that they come out in one email.

Here is the outline for the business plan narrative to share. The request is for the Business Plan Working Group members to review the list of bullets for their individual business unit, consulting with their VP as appropriate, adding/deleting/revising where necessary (as this list came from materials developed much earlier in the year) and to identify up to four bullets that could be included in the narrative to capture the highest priority items that their business unit expects to focus on next year. We should aim for a level of detail that makes it clear what is being undertaken but not too much as to get into the weeds.

I’m hesitant to suggest a deadline because we aren’t sure when the strategic review results will be available, so perhaps we could leave it open for the moment and I could follow up with those who don’t respond.

Please let me know if you need any further information.

Thanks.
