Martin,

The document I sent yesterday was an earlier planning document. My apologies. This is the file that went to the Chair for approvals.

Very sorry for the mix up.

Neil

My apologies Martin, here you go. As the mood of the electorate shifts we may add or subtract from this. However, this addresses all the 'tombstone' info and current files.

Hi Neil,

Just following up on the status. Have the products made it through approvals?

Thanks
 Martin

Good afternoon Martin. The product is working its way through approvals. Should have something back to you tomorrow. (maybe today but it isn't looking good)

Hi Neil,

Last week at the monthly between Rose and the Deputy, Rose mentioned having something to share shortly for transition. Just checking in on that.

Thanks,
Martin

Hi Neil,

Just following up on a draft table of contents for transition. Do you have an update on when you would be able to share a draft?

Thanks,
Martin

We have begun preliminary work on that as well. Essentially dusting off what was prepared in June/July 2016 and seeing what needs updating and what can be added. We're happy to share a table of contents but that likely won't be landed on for another week.

Neil

Hi Neil,

We are starting to turn our minds to transition materials. Would the OEB be able to share with us a draft table of contents covering materials being prepared as part of transition?

Happy to discuss if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Martin
