Thank Adrian I will have a look at this.
 I am afraid I am tied up all of today. Is there a time tomorrow morning that would work for you?

Jane,

The attached shows the information in a more useful way and includes the variance accounts balances.

Also, would you be available for a brief call on the OEBs plan to link utility performance to the regulatory reviews today? I've seen the presentation that was provided at the webinar but it is somewhat light on the details.

Thanks,

Adrian

When I look at this a couple of questions immediately come to mind:

- why was the payment amount in July so low?
- why does the RRRP variance account after July 1, 2017 still include the payments to HONI and the MOE recovery? I would have thought they would have been separate. Is there a separate variance account for that portion?

Thanks
 Jane

Jane,

The RRRP balance continues to build, can we discuss this and whether, and when, the OEB would consider resetting the RRRP rate.

I would be happy to talk to you about the RRRP decision. Please give me a call when you have time or let me know a convenient time for me to call you.

I am in and out of meetings this afternoon, but am around after 3:30 pm today or tomorrow morning.

Thanks

Ted,

Concerns have been raised about the 2018 RRRP rate being set at an amount which under - collects, who at the OEB should I talk with about this?
