Sorry for delay in responding. I just received this.

It is very comprehensive and touches all aspects. You cover a lot of ground well.

It does open some doors and invite questions... like ...we're you consulted in the development of the legislation... doesn't bill 132 undermine the OEB authority as an independent regulator... does the oeb support the FHP ...

But I think you are going to get those anyway ... so touching on it upfront lets you segway back..

Thanks to all of you for doing this.

I'm assuming you'll be sitting through the OPG and IESO pieces also...

Let me know how it goes.
