Good morning,

Attached, is the OEA speech outline from Aleck. MaryAnne and I have reviewed. We asked that he add in a little bit more detail on proportionate reviews than he had in his first draft but you may think it could still use further enhancement. He also added in reference to how we are addressing the OEA's call for a 'modernized regulatory framework' in their LTEP submission and how we agree, and what we are doing. We look forward to your comments.

He is working on the OEN outline now and will be sending that later today.
