Rose:

A revised OEA speech is attached.

I think it addresses your comments and feedback.

Please note the following:

1. It is currently a bit too long - 13-14 minutes by my estimate
2. We could shorten by deleting either or both of a) the discussion of the other regulators at the front end, and b) the discussion of the potential review of the RRF at the back end - I have highlighted the two sections I mean.
3. We could also shorten the "laundry list" of achievements.
4. In any event, if we leave the RRF piece in - I will need to add something about the OEB's assessment of whether or not the RRF has achieved its objectives. My understanding is that there may be such an assessment.

The OEN draft will follow by tomorrow morning.

Regards

Aleck
