Hi Aleck,

Please find attached, the cleaned up copy of Rose's speech for your review. Please let me know if you note any changes that need to be made before we can post.

Thanks.

Rose;

I don't have any concerns - but I would be happy to read through the speech as delivered - I did hear one item - a sentence or two - that seemed to be repeated that you may want to look at before posting.

Also - the individual who raised the concern in item 1 in my earlier email was Paul Murphy - would it be alright with you if I took him for a coffee and perhaps better explain what I think the position is - that is that the "like for like" phenomenon is as much driven by the structure of the incentives baked into the RRF and that those will need to be addressed under the "blueprint" work.

I would be happy to do that.

In that regard, we should remember that minister approved the work to complete what has become the blueprint in the last Business Plan.
