

From: Neil Brodie
To: Rosemarie Leclair
Subject: Re: media story
Date: Wednesday, June 7, 2017 5:18:05 PM

I just finished talking to MAA. The usual FHP meeting at the Ministry is 830-930. They should be back by 10am. Is that OK for you?

From: Rosemarie Leclair
Sent: Wednesday, June 7, 2017 5:16 PM
To: Neil Brodie
Subject: Re: media story

Does 9:30 work for everyone?

Sent from my iPhone

On Jun 7, 2017, at 4:58 PM, Neil Brodie <Neil.Brodie@oeb.ca> wrote:

How early do you want the call?

From: Rosemarie Leclair
Sent: Wednesday, June 07, 2017 1:35 PM
To: Neil Brodie
Subject: Re: media story

I just exchanged a text with MAA. Sounds like this h1 application is a little out of control in the public. I asked MAA to organize a conference call for early tomorrow to fill me in on what's happening and what is being done to manage it.
Can you keep me in the loop on this.

Sent from my iPhone

On Jun 6, 2017, at 9:36 PM, Neil Brodie <Neil.Brodie@oeb.ca> wrote:

That's what we're doing. Nothin to see here folks, move along.

From: Rosemarie Leclair
Sent: Tuesday, June 6, 2017 8:47 PM
To: Neil Brodie
Subject: Re: media story

Ok. Strategy needs to be to keep our head down. For us it's business as usual. An application is filed. We undertake a robust review which includes consumer participation through consumer advocates and our community outreach

Sent from my iPhone

On Jun 6, 2017, at 6:30 PM, Neil Brodie <Neil.Brodie@oeb.ca> wrote:

There was a CBC radio (Ottawa) request about h1 application generally. They wanted an on air interview, sent them a written stmt.

Process. Delivery rates generally rate of inflation for last 8 years. Consumers should get involved. Date of Ottawa (Rockland) community meeting.

The only thing they used on air was the date of the Ottawa (Rockland) community meeting. They are posting an online article tomorrow.

Legal held out the shareholder line until a bit of research could be done on it.

From: Rosemarie Leclair
Sent: Tuesday, June 6, 2017 6:18 PM
To: Neil Brodie
Subject: Re: media story

No worries. I think the message is that we consider the application that is before us. If the shareholder(s) wants the company to withdraw or amend the application, they could make that request if the company

Sent from my iPhone

On Jun 6, 2017, at 2:59 PM, Neil Brodie
<Neil.Brodie@oeb.ca> wrote:

We are checking to see if, now that H1 is 60% publicly owned, what a 40% shareholder can direct a publicly traded company to do. Not sure anyone in the building can figure it out.

From: Rosemarie Leclair
Sent: Tuesday, June 6, 2017 2:10 PM
To: Neil Brodie
Subject: Re: media story

Thanks. I think that one point we should make is that the shareholder can direct the company

...

Sent from my iPhone

On Jun 6, 2017, at 1:31 PM, Neil Brodie
<Neil.Brodie@oeb.ca> wrote:

<https://saultonline.com/2017/06/open-letter-from-pc-leader-patrick-brown/>

We are sitting down in a moment to prep for any media calls on this. First thoughts betw John and I are a general process response and point to the public notice for more detail.