Responsibilities of the Agency, Board, or Commission:

The Financial Services Regulatory Authority of Ontario (Authority) is a without share capital corporation and Crown agent established under the Act whose objects are to regulate the regulated sectors. Regulated sectors consist of all credit unions, caisses populaires and leagues to which the Credit Unions and Caisses Populaires Act, 1994 applies; all persons engaged in the business of insurance and governed by the Insurance Act; all holders of a service provider's licence issued under Part VI (Automobile Insurance) of the Insurance Act; all corporations registered or incorporated under the Loan and Trust Corporations Act; all mortgage brokerages, brokers, agents and administrators licensed under the Mortgage Brokerages, Lenders and Administrators Act, 2006; or all persons who establish or administer a pension plan within the meaning of the Pension Benefits Act and all employers or other persons on their behalf who are required to contribute to any such pension plan, and such other legislation as may be prescribed. The Authority's objects also include carrying out powers or duties with respect to offering statements of co-operative corporations under the Co-operative Corporations Act, that are delegated or designated to the Authority by the Minister. The Authority-related legislation gives various approval and licensing duties and powers to the Chief Executive Officer, an employee of the Authority appointed by the Authority
