As a Canadian citizen, I strongly disagree with passing of this law, Bill 218. Every leader should be responsible for any decision that he has made as well as any organization that's appointed in name of people to serve and protect them should have consequences for their decisions and actions. Passing this law in my opinion would mean end of democracy if we are not free to exercise our human rights, free speech and free will or to hold our elected representatives /bodies accountable for their actions. One thing that makes Canada beautiful is all of our differences , our religions, beliefs , ideas and government should be there to allow us to practice them all as a democratic society , serve us and also be accountable if and when they make decisions that are not in best interest of our society. Same way we as citizens need to respect and adhere to all of mask mandates, social distancing and business closures otherwise we'll be ticketed and fined , goes for the other side . People who made those laws should be sued and fined also in case if it's deemed that measures they've imposed on society turn out to be not in the best interest and they did not adhere accordingly to situation. Democracy rests upon the principles of majority rule and individual rights . It has to work both ways. We elect our representatives and therefore this makes them accountable.

I'm saying NO to bill 218!
