Re: Bill 218

I oppose Bill 218. The Ontario Government should not be allowed to arbitrarily decide who can and cannot be held accountable in the courts. We lost our father, Orville Wallace Porteous, at Altamont Long Term Care, run by Sienna Living. The class action would provide a voice for these senior victims and hold those responsible accountable for placing profit before care. If Bill 218 is passed, it would set a precedent that will allow these reprehensible Care Facilities to continue business as usual, with no consequences.

Sincerely,
Sharon Imrie for, the Estate of Orville Wallace Porteous.
