I have come across Bill 218, and I am absolutely appalled by what it proposes. The audacity of even suggesting such a law is disgraceful! It sounds like one more absurd idea from the Trudeau government in an attempt to cover up endless scandals. I hold our "Responsible Government" to exactly that standard, RESPONSIBLE, which, in no way can include a blanket exemption from liability, which would be the complete opposite of Justice for All, putting corruption and inequity into law. No reasonable Canadian could possibly support such injustice, which makes me wonder who you work for? The courts must always be free to deliver justice with equity: Bill 218 must be thrown out and the politicians responsible should also be reprimanded. This Bill suggest that the elected government should no longer be accountable to its citizens even though the citizens would continue to be accountable to the law.

I hope to that this is merely a great clerical error which slipped by without review, in any case, on behalf of Ontario voters, the truth must be exposed. I do NOT CONSENT to Bill 218
