Hi Chairman Shyr, we need your help to keep TCM and Acupuncture regulated!

Our premier, Doug Ford's Bill #88 is going to repeal the TCM Act and cancel all the regulations and licenses for the TCM practitioners and acupuncturists, so everyone can do it if they wish to. He said the language barrier is not fair for them. But I think for the language barrier, we can find a way for them to register with the College instead of repealing the TCM Act. To regulate a profession is to make sure the practitioners are qualified and have enough knowledge and skills to help the public to improve their health and lessen their pain. If we cancel the TCM Act, everyone one can do it without license and regulations, who can guarantee the safety and health of the public?
