Schedule 5, Bill-88 the Traditional Chinese Medicine Repeal Act, 2022, will affect the future of the TCM & Acupuncture education in Ontario. It saddens me that future generations may not have the accessibility to education within the field if Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture is deregulated. Students who rely on provincially funded institutions and accessible programs North of Toronto and Markham. I do not think I ever truly envisioned, or realize even right now, how large of an impact the community has made on younger generation for their future professional development.

Would you like to add any other information?

Keep TCM & Acupuncture education for the future generation!
