I am writing this paragraph to reject Premier Doug Ford's decision of removing the regulations and licenses for the Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). TCM is a unique and specialized profession that deserves respect and recognition. Removing its regulations and licenses will severely affect the professional practice of TCM. Many Canadians have witnessed the effectiveness of TCM and keeping its regulations and licenses will certainly protect its legitimacy as a profession. I will be very concerned about the quality and safety of TCM if it is not regulated. I am sure that no one would like to receive any unprofessional and unregulated treatment from anyone who is not licensed. I am totally against Premier Doug Ford's move to deregulate TCM in Ontario.

Yours Sincerely,
Dr. Stephen Lin
