Would you be able to send me a copy of the draft NR? Thanks.

Hi Janice,

Attached are the versions I have with my various teams for response. The information is coming from a few different sources, so I should have it back to you with everything filled in tomorrow.

Also, we have a draft press release that we'd like to issue related just to the service starting and the free train ride. We'd want to share that in advance of Sunday in the hopes that we can gather more people to the event. The information about the service is already live on our website and in the newspaper ads. Any new information on whether or not we can go public with the free train?

Thanks,
Trina
