Mara - The reference to the Greater Toronto and Hamilton Area is our standard positioning and approved at the CEO-level. The sentence is factually correct, as written. This is not new positioning and we have been using it for at least the last two and more years. (Since the days of John Brodhead as our VP of Strategic Communications.) Is there a new concern?

Hi there:

I am awaiting additional comments/concerns. In the meantime, since GO transit is operating beyond the GTHA, please consider dropping the line: the Greater Toronto and Hamilton Area (GTHA).

Thanks so much,
