Dear Madams, Sirs,

I would like to ask you to please remove Schedule 6 from Bill 229, and in general to please avoid diminishing the role of our province's Conservation Authorities.

Not only are we experiencing increasingly intense precipitation events, more frequent and intense flooding, and overall greater threats of natural phenomenon: even with no extreme weather, it is of paramount importance to guard against development in precarious, unstable, sensitive and dangerous sites.

It is a matter of common sense and public safety. It would be utterly reckless, criminally reckless, to diminish the technical and scientific role and authority of Conservation Authorities.

If a developer or other business cannot make a honest dollar without putting people and public resources in danger, then they don't deserve to be in business.

Thank you for your attention to this message.

Sincerely,

J. P. Unger
