ONTARIO HOUSE,

YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, NIAGARA, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and noting shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionable place of resort.

The proprietor of the above invites the attention of the visitors at Niagara Falls to this place: it is the Capital of the Province, Head-Quarters for the Military, who have a superior Band of Music attached; the distance is short, and every facility that is necessary for comfort can be had on the way. The Steam-boat Canada plies regularly every day from York to Niagara, leaving the latter at 1 o'clock, P.M. so that parties of pleasure may breakfast at the Falls, dine on board the Canada, and find themselves comfortably situated at 5 o'clock, P. M. at the Ontario House.

English, Writing } MR. G. A. BARBER,

Drawing Master—MR. DRURY.

The Principal will have the general superintendence of the School, with the authority of a Master over every department. He will also have the power of introducing such alterations in the system of education as he may judge necessary, from his own observation, or from the representation of the Masters.

The course of instruction to be pursued will comprise, the Classics, Mathematics, English Composition and History; Writing and Arithmetic; Geography and French; and Pupils will not be allowed to confine their attention to a part of the system laid down to the exclusion of any of the subjects which it embraces.

It may be observed, however, that whilst a Pupil who remains at the College till he has reached the highest form, will be prepared to enter the University; another, whose views may be otherwise directed, will be perfectly qualified for Mercantile pursuits at an earlier period in the College course, with the additional advantage of having acquired a considerable stock of knowledge which will also greatly assist him in attaining his own more immediate object.

Drawing will be taught at the option of the Parents.

A preparatory School will be attached to the College, and conducted on a corresponding plan, under the inspection of the Principal.

The dues of each Pupil for instruction will be at the College Two Pounds per Quarter; and at the preparatory School One Pound Five Shillings per Quarter; to be paid at the expiration of each quarter. There will also be some charge for Pens, Fuel, &c.

In each Establishment Books will be provided at the expense of the Pupils.

The management of the affairs of the College will be vested in the Directors and Trustees, who will also regulate its financial concerns, and receive all dues for Tuition.

The Vacations will be ten days at Christmas, and six weeks in the Summer, from the middle of August to the end of September, with a few occasional Holidays. All the Masters will be allowed to take Boarders.

The whole of the arrangements intended for the improvement of the District Schools cannot at present be carried into effect; but if it be found practicable, some of their most promising Scholars will be appointed to exhibitions at the College. The number elected annually will depend on the proficiency of the Candidates. Modifications of the system of the Institution may be indispensable, but it is hoped the advantages to be derived from permanently fixing in Upper Canada a Public Seminary, accessible to all, and where a liberal and extensive education may be obtained on moderate terms, will be felt and duly appreciated throughout the Province.

GEO. H. MARKLAND,
Secretary to the Board of Education.

 The Principal will be ready to receive Boarders (to a limited extent only, until his residence in the College is completed,) at the opening of the College on the 4th of January.

TERMS.

£11 5s per quarter, including all necessary expenses of Board and Tuition, except Books—There will be an additional charge for those Pupils who learn Drawing.

Drawing Master—MR. DRURY.

The Principal will have the general superintendence of the School, with the authority of a Master over every department. He will also have the power of introducing such alterations in the system of education as he may judge necessary, from his own observation, or from the representation of the Masters.

The course of instruction to be pursued will comprise, the Classics, Mathematics, English Composition and History; Writing and Arithmetic; Geography and French; and Pupils will not be allowed to confine their attention to a part of the system laid down to the exclusion of any of the subjects which it embraces.

It may be observed, however, that whilst a Pupil who remains at the College till he has reached the highest form, will be prepared to enter the University; another, whose views may be otherwise directed, will be perfectly qualified for Mercantile pursuits at an earlier period in the College course, with the additional advantage of having acquired a considerable stock of knowledge which will also greatly assist him in attaining his own more immediate object.

Drawing will be taught at the option of the Parents.

A preparatory School will be attached to the College, and conducted on a corresponding plan, under the inspection of the Principal.

The dues of each Pupil for instruction will be at the College Two Pounds per Quarter; and at the preparatory School One Pound Five Shillings per Quarter; to be paid at the expiration of each quarter. There will also be some charge for Pens, Fuel, &c.

In each Establishment Books will be provided at the expense of the Pupils.

The management of the affairs of the College will be vested in the Directors and Trustees, who will also regulate its financial concerns, and receive all dues for Tuition.

The Vacations will be ten days at Christmas, and six weeks in the Summer, from the middle of August to the end of September, with a few occasional Holidays. All the Masters will be allowed to take Boarders.

The whole of the arrangements intended for the improvement of the District Schools cannot at present be carried into effect; but if it be found practicable, some of their most promising Scholars will be appointed to exhibitions at the College. The number elected annually will depend on the proficiency of the Candidates. Modifications of the system of the Institution may be indispensable, but it is hoped the advantages to be derived from permanently fixing in Upper Canada a Public Seminary, accessible to all, and where a liberal and extensive education may be obtained on moderate terms, will be felt and duly appreciated throughout the Province.

GEO. H. MARKLAND,
Secretary to the Board of Education.

 The Principal will be ready to receive Boarders (to a limited extent only, until his residence in the College is completed,) at the opening of the College on the 4th of January.

TERMS.

ONTARIO HOUSE,

YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, NIAGARA, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and noting shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionable place of resort.

The proprietor of the above invites the attention of the visitors at Niagara Falls to this place: it is the Capital of the Province, Head-Quarters for the Military, who have a superior Band of Music attached; the distance is short, and every facility that is necessary for comfort can be had on the way. AT a Meeting of the Stockholders of the DESJARDIN CANAL COMPANY, held at Bradley's Hotel, York, on Thursday, the 10th June, 1830, in consequence of a Circular sent to the different Stockholders in the Home District, by order of the President and Directors, by Andrew Steven, Esquire, Secretary—there were present—

A. N. McNAB, Esq. President,

Hon. Joseph Wells,	Messrs.
Hon. P. Robinson,	George Dennison,
Doctor Baldwin,	David Stegman,
Captain Baldwin,	Thomas Morgan,
Robert Baldwin,	James Wilkie,
John Baldwin,	Peter Reser,
Charles Small,	Charles Leslie,
Jesse Ketchum,	Wm. Stevenson,
D. Boulton, jr. Esqs.	John Robinson, &
Doctor Stoyles,	Patrick McGan,

Doctor Baldwin was called to the Chair, when the President gave the Stockholders an account of the affairs of the Company, as respected the progress of the work, the present state of the Funds, and the probable success of the undertaking, when it appeared that an advantageous contract had been lately entered into for the completion of the whole by the month of May, 1831, and that the Contractor was prosecuting his undertaking with vigor.

The President also read Letters from several Merchants and Forwarders, which led the Stockholders to believe, that as soon as the Canal should be completed, the Stock must necessarily become very valuable, from the large quantities of produce and merchandize likely to be shipped down and up, as soon as opened for use.

After which the following Resolutions were put and carried :—

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that it is expedient for the Board of Directors to call in, according to Law, three additional Instalments, and to forfeit the Stock of defaulters. But that the Stock of the late Peter Desjardin should be excepted from such forfeiture—that a person ought to be employed to procure the assignment to himself of all such Stock as the holders are now willing to part with gratis, to be held by him in trust for the benefit of the Company.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that it is expedient for the Directors to proceed with the work with all despatch, and borrow such money as is immediately necessary to carry on the same to the best advantage.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published, with the names of the Stockholders present, when the meeting broke up.

The Principal will have the general superintendence of the School, with the authority of a Master over every department. He will also have the power of introducing such alterations in the system of education as he may judge necessary, from his own observation, or from the representation of the Masters.

The course of instruction to be pursued will comprise, the Classics, Mathematics, English Composition and History; Writing and Arithmetic; Geography and French; and Pupils will not be allowed to confine their attention to a part of the system laid down to the exclusion of any of the subjects which it embraces.

It may be observed, however, that whilst a Pupil who remains at the College till he has reached the highest form, will be prepared to enter the University; another, whose views may be otherwise directed, will be perfectly qualified for Mercantile pursuits at an earlier period in the College course, with the additional advantage of having acquired a considerable stock of knowledge which will also greatly assist him in attaining his own more immediate object.

Drawing will be taught at the option of the Parents.

A preparatory School will be attached to the College, and conducted on a corresponding plan, under the inspection of the Principal.

The dues of each Pupil for instruction will be at the College Two Pounds per Quarter; and at the preparatory School One Pound Five Shillings per Quarter; to be paid at the expiration of each quarter. There will also be some charge for Pens, Fuel, &c.

In each Establishment Books will be provided at the expense of the Pupils.

The management of the affairs of the College will be vested in the Directors and Trustees, who will also regulate its financial concerns, and receive all dues for Tuition.

The Vacations will be ten days at Christmas, and six weeks in the Summer, from the middle of August to the end of September, with a few occasional Holidays. All the Masters will be allowed to take Boarders.

The whole of the arrangements intended for the improvement of the District Schools cannot at present be carried into effect; but if it be found practicable, some of their most promising Scholars will be appointed to exhibitions at the College. The number elected annually will depend on the proficiency of the Candidates. Modifications of the system of the Institution may be indispensable, but it is hoped the advantages to be derived from permanently fixing in Upper Canada a Public Seminary, accessible to all, and where a liberal and extensive education may be obtained on moderate terms, will be felt and duly appreciated throughout the Province.

GEO. H. MARKLAND,
Secretary to the Board of Education.

 The Principal will be ready to receive Boarders (to a limited extent only, until his residence in the College is completed,) at the opening of the College on the 4th of January.

NOT OFFICIAL.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completion, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultive-tion.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial,as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

ONTARIO HOUSE,

YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, Niagara, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and noting shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionable place of resort.

The proprietor of the above invites the attention of the visitors at Niagara Falls to this place: it is the Capital of the Province, Head-Quarters for the Military, who have a superior Band of Music attached; the distance is short, and every facility that is necessary for comfort can be had on the way. The Steam-boat Canada plies regularly every day from York to Niagara, leaving the latter at 1 o'clock, P.M. so that parties of pleasure may breakfast at the Falls, dine on board the Canada, and find themselves comfortably situated at 5 o'clock, P. The Principal will have the general superintendence of the School, with the authority of a Master over every department. He will also have the power of introducing such alterations in the system of education as he may judge necessary, from his own observation, or from the representation of the Masters.

The course of instruction to be pursued will comprise, the Classics, Mathematics, English Composition and History; Writing and Arithmetic; Geography and French; and Pupils will not be allowed to confine their attention to a part of the system laid down to the exclusion of any of the subjects which it embraces.

It may be observed, however, that whilst a Pupil who remains at the College till he has reached the highest form, will be prepared to enter the University; another, whose views may be otherwise directed, will be perfectly qualified for Mercantile pursuits at an earlier period in the College course, with the additional advantage of having acquired a considerable stock of knowledge which will also greatly assist him in attaining his own more immediate object.

Drawing will be taught at the option of the Parents.

A preparatory School will be attached to the College, and conducted on a corresponding plan, under the inspection of the Principal.

The dues of each Pupil for instruction will be at the College Two Pounds per Quarter; and at the preparatory School One Pound Five Shillings per Quarter; to be paid at the expiration of each quarter. There will also be some charge for Pens, Fuel, &c.

The management of the affairs of the College will be vested in the Directors and Trustees, who will also regulate its financial concerns, and receive all dues for Tuition.

The Vacations will be ten days at Christmas, and six weeks in the Summer, from the middle of August to the end of September, with a few occasional Holidays. All the Masters will be allowed to take Boarders.

The whole of the arrangements intended for the improvement of the District Schools cannot at present be carried into effect; but if it be found practicable, some of their most promising Scholars will be appointed to exhibitions at the College. The number elected annually will depend on the proficiency of the Candidates. Modifications of the system of the Institution may be indispensable, but it is hoped the advantages to be derived from permanently fixing in Upper Canada a Public Seminary, accessible to all, and where a liberal and extensive education may be obtained on moderate terms, will be felt and duly appreciated throughout the Province.

GEO. H. MARKLAND,
Secretary to the Board of Education.

 The Principal will be ready to receive Boarders (to a limited extent only, until his residence in the College is completed,) at the opening of the College on the 4th of January.

HALF-PAY AFFIDAVITS, of the latest form for Sale at the Gazette Office.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completion, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

HALF-PAY AFFIDAVITS, of the latest form for Sale at the Gazette Office.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, NIAGARA, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and noting shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionable place of resort.

The proprietor of the above invites the attention of the visitors at Niagara Falls to this place: it is the Capital of the Province, Head-Quarters for the Military, who have a superior Band of Music attached; the distance is short, and every facility that is necessary for comfort can be had on the way. The Steam-boat Canada plies regularly every day from York to Niagara, leaving the latter at 1 o'clock, P.M. so that parties of pleasure may breakfast at the Falls, dine on board the Canada, and find themselves comfortably situated at 5 o'clock, P. M. at the Ontario House.

NOT OFFICIAL.

BANK STOCK.

FORTY-SIX SHARES to be sold at the Bank, by Auction, at two o'clock, P. M. on Thursday, the 19th instant

York, August 11, 1830. 12

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery :—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses —Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial,as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

York, August 7, 1830. n 13

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses —Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, coustructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Mesdow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial,as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completion, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

NOT OFFICIAL.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next:—a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling House.—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, NIAGARA, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION,

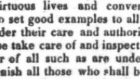
For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice; Profaneness, and Immorality.



WILLIAM, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery; and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom; We also humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the blessing and Goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on Which We entirely rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourself and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws; to the intent therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality in all persons of whatsoever degree or quality within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Person; and that for the encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of Piety and Virtue by marks of Our Royal favour; and We do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they, being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent: and We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God, on every Lord's Day, on pain of Our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law: and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dissolute lives and conversations are a scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also effectually to suppress all public gaming houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the better "observation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday;" and also so much of an Act of Parliament made in the ninth year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intituled "An Act "for the more effectual suppressing of "blasphemy and profaneness," as is now in force, and all other laws now in force for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of Our highest displeasure: And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace, to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons, that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given: and We do hereby further charge and command every Minister in his respective parish church or chapel to read or cause to be read this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective auditories to the practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness: And to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land; We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take care to avoid all Profaneness, Debauchery, and other Immoralities, and that by their own good and virtuous lives and conversations, they do set good examples to all such as are under their care and authority, and likewise take care of and inspect the behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any the offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill consequences of their neglect herein.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, this twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice; Profaneness, and Immorality.

WILLIAM, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery; and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom; We also humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the blessing and Goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on Which We entirely rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourself and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws; to the intent therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality in all persons of whatsoever degree or quality within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Person; and that for the encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of Piety and Virtue by marks of Our Royal favour; and We do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they, being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent: and We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God, on every Lord's Day, on pain of Our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law: and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dissolute lives and conversations are a scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also effectually to suppress all public gaming houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the better "observation of the Lord's Day, com-"monly called Sunday;" and also so much of an Act of Parliament made in the ninth year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intituled "An Act "for the more effectual suppressing of "blasphemy and profaneness," as is now in force, and all other laws now in force for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of Our highest displeasure: And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace, to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons, that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given: and We do hereby further charge and command every Minister in his respective parish church or chapel to read or cause to be read this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective auditories to the practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness: And to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land; We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take care to avoid all Profaneness, Debauchery, and other Immoralities, and that by their own good and virtuous lives and conversations, they do set good examples to all such as are under their care and authority, and likewise take care of and inspect the behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any the offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill consequences of their neglect herein.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's,

this twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice; Profaneness, and Immorality.

WILLIAM, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery; and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom; We also humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the blessing and Goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on Which We entirely rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourself and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws; to the intent therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality in all persons of whatsoever degree or quality within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Person; and that for the encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of Piety and Virtue by marks of Our Royal favour; and We do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they, being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent: and We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God, on every Lord's Day, on pain of Our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law: and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dissolute lives and conversations are a scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also effectually to suppress all public gaming houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the better "observation of the Lord's Day, com-"monly called Sunday;" and also so much of an Act of Parliament made in the ninth year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intituled "An Act "for the more effectual suppressing of "blasphemy and profaneness," as is now in force, and all other laws now in force for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of Our highest displeasure: And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace, to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons, that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given: and We do hereby further charge and command every Minister in his respective parish church or chapel to read or cause to be read this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective auditories to the practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness: And to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land; We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take care to avoid all Profaneness, Debauchery, and other Immoralities, and that by their own good and virtuous lives and conversations, they do set good examples to all such as are under their care and authority, and likewise take care of and inspect the behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any the offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill consequences of their neglect herein.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's,

this twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of Our reign.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION,

For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice; Profaneness, and Immorality.

WILLIAM, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery; and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom; We also humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the blessing and Goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on Which We entirely rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourself and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws; to the intent therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality in all persons of whatsoever degree or quality within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Person; and that for the encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of Piety and Virtue by marks of Our Royal favour; and We do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they, being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent: and We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God, on every Lord's Day, on pain of Our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law: and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dissolute lives and conversations are a scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also effectually to suppress all public gaming houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the better "observation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday;" and also so much of an Act of Parliament made in the ninth year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intituled "An Act "for the more effectual suppressing of "blasphemy and profaneness," as is now in force, and all other laws now in force for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of Our highest displeasure: And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace, to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons, that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given: and We do hereby further charge and command every Minister in his respective parish church or chapel to read or cause to be read this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective authorities to the practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness: And to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land; A PROCLAMATION,
For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice; Profaneness, and Immorality.

WILLIAM, R.

WE, most seriously and religiously considering that it is an indispensable duty on Us to be careful, above all other things, to preserve and advance the honour and service of Almighty God, and to discourage and suppress all Vice, Profaneness, Debauchery; and Immorality, which are so highly displeasing to God, so great a reproach to Our Religion and Government, and (by means of the frequent ill examples of the practices thereof) have so fatal a tendency to the corruption of many of Our loving subjects, otherwise religiously and virtuously disposed, and which (if not timely remedied) may justly draw down the Divine vengeance on Us and Our Kingdom; We also humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the blessing and Goodness of Almighty God (by whom Kings reign and on Which We entirely rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourself and Our people, without a religious observance of God's holy laws; to the intent therefore, that Religion, Piety, and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, We have thought fit, by the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal purpose and resolution to discountenance and punish all manner of Vice, Profaneness, and Immorality in all persons of whatsoever degree or quality within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Person; and that for the encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will, upon all occasions, distinguish persons of Piety and Virtue by marks of Our Royal favour; and We do expect and require, that all persons of honour or in place of authority will give good example, by their own Virtue and Piety, and to their utmost contribute to the discountenancing persons of dissolute and debauched lives, that they, being reduced by that means to shame and contempt for their loose and evil actions and behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill habits and practices, and that the visible displeasure of good men towards them may (as far as it is possible) supply what the laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent: and We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving subjects, of what degree or quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at dice, cards, or any other game whatsoever, either in public or private houses, or other place or places whatsoever; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the worship of God, on every Lord's Day, on pain of Our highest displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost rigour that may be by law: and for the more effectual reforming all such persons who, by reason of their dissolute lives and conversations are a scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all other Our subjects whom it may concern, to be very vigilant and strict in the discovery and the effectual prosecution and punishment of all persons who shall be guilty of excessive drinking, blasphemy, profane swearing and cursing, lewdness, profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly practices; and that they take care also effectually to suppress all public gaming houses and places, and other lewd and disorderly houses, and to put in execution the Statute made in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled "An Act for the better "observation of the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday;" and also so much of an Act of Parliament made in the ninth year of the reign of the late King William the Third, intituled "An Act "for the more effectual suppressing of "blasphemy and profaneness," as is now in force, and all other laws now in force for the punishing and suppressing any of the vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all gaming whatsoever in public or private houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual care to prevent all persons keeping taverns, chocolate-houses, coffee-houses, or other public houses whatsoever, from selling wine, chocolate, coffee, ale, beer, or other liquors, or receiving or permitting guests to be or remain in such their houses, in the time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon pain of Our highest displeasure: And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize and Justices of the Peace, to give strict charges at their respective assizes and sessions for the due prosecution and punishment of all persons, that shall presume to offend in any of the kinds aforesaid, and also of all persons that, contrary to their duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said laws in execution, and that they do, at their respective assizes and quarter sessions of the peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publicly read in open Court, immediately before the charge is given: and We do hereby further charge and command every Minister in his respective parish church or chapel to read or cause to be read this Our Proclamation, at least four times in every year, immediately after Divine Service, and to incite and stir up their respective auditories to the practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness: And to the end that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all officers, private soldiers, mariners, and others who are employed in Our service by sea and land; We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take care to avoid all Profaneness, Debauchery, and other Immoralities, and that by their own good and virtuous lives and conversations, they do set good examples to all such as are under their care and authority, and likewise take care of and inspect the behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any the offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill consequences of their neglect herein.

JUST PUBLISHED,
AND FOR SALE,
At the Gazette Office, York,
A SYSTEM OF DRILL,
FOR THE
MILITIA OF UPPER CANADA,
BY COMMAND OF HIS EXCELLENCY
THE LIEUT. GOVERNOR.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

At the Gazette Office, York,

A SYSTEM OF DRILL,

FOR THE

MILITIA OF UPPER CANADA,

BY COMMAND OF HIS EXCELLENCY
THE LIEUT GOVERNOR

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulhard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Baughart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial,as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

GOVERNMENT OFFICE,

York, 18th November, 1830.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,

York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above described, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above described, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

York, 18th November, 1830.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE, York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to these Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

JOHN SMALL,

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE, York, 23rd July, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL, that unless John Phillips, or his Heirs, do make good any claim they may have to the South half of Lot number One, in the third Concession, from the Bay, in the Township of York, in the Home District, within six months from this date, the said half Lot will be otherwise disposed of.

11 JOHN SMALL,

C.E.C.

UPPER CANADA.

By His Excellency SIR JOHN COLBORNE, K.C. B., Lieutenant Governor of our said Province, &c. &c. &c.

To all whom these Presents shall come,

GREETING:

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, that one Francis Morgan, late of the Township of Goulborne, in the District of Bathurst, Yeoman, did on the twenty-fifth day of August last, in the said Township of Goulborne, discharge a gun at, with in-

sent to murder, John A. H. Powell, Deputy Sheriff of the said District of Bathurst, when in execution of his duty, whereby the said John A. H. Powell was severely wounded; and that the said Francis Morgan has since fled from our said Province to evade justice.

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the said Francis Morgan, is hereby pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any person or persons who shall cause him, the said Francis Morgan, to be brought before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said District, to answer for his said crime.—The said Reward to be paid upon his commitment to the common Gaol of the District.

GIVEN under my Hand and Seal of Office, at York, in the Province of Upper Canada, this eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty.

J. COLBORNE.

By Command of His Excellency.

Z. MUDGE,
SECRETARY,

The said Francis Morgan is a native of Ireland—between forty and forty-five years of age—about five feet nine inches in height—of a pale complexion—a little freckled, and pitted with the small pox—he has a small nose, blue eyes, and light brown hair—he stoops a little in walking, and speaks quickly—the gun used was rather short, stocked nearly to the muzzle, and brass mounted—his trowsers were of linen, and his shirt of cotton—he wore shoes.

A Schedule of Lots of Land in the EASTERN DISTRICT, on which Taxes are Unpaid for the whole or in part of Eight Years, ending 1st July 1829.

sent to murder, John A. H. Powell, Deputy Sheriff of the said District of Bathurst, when in execution of his duty, whereby the said John A. H. Powell was severely wounded; and that the said Francis Morgan has since fled from our said Province to evade justice.

His Excellency, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the said Francis Morgan, is hereby pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any person or persons who shall cause him, the said Francis Morgan, to be brought before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said District, to answer for his said crime.—The said Reward to be paid upon his commitment to the common Gaol of the District.

GIVEN under my Hand and Seal of Office, at York, in the Province of Upper Canada, this eighth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty.

J. COLBORNE.

By Command of His Excellency.

Z. MUDGE,
SECRETARY,

The said Francis Morgan is a native of Ireland—between forty and forty-five years of age—about five feet nine inches in height—of a pale complexion—a little freckled, and pitted with the small pox—he has a small nose, blue eyes, and light brown hair—he stoops a little in walking, and speaks quickly—the gun used was rather short, stocked nearly to the muzzle, and brass mounted—his trowsers were of linen, and his shirt of cotton—he wore shoes.

GOVERNMENT OFFICE,
York, 18th November, 1830.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of His EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

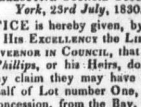
The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.



Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

ONTARIO HOUSE,

YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, NIAGARA, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and noting shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionable place of resort.

The proprietor of the above invites the attention of the visitors at Niagara Falls to this place: it is the Capital of the Province, Head-Quarters for the Military, who have a superior Band of Music attached; the distance is short, and every facility that is necessary for comfort can be had on the way. The Steam-boat Canada plies regularly every day from York to Niagara, leaving the latter at 1 o'clock, P.M. so that parties of pleasure may breakfast at the Falls, dine on board the Canada, and find themselves comfortably situated at 5 o'clock, P. M. at the Ontario House.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next:—a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses.—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steem-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

GOVERNMENT OFFICE,

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

ONTARIO HOUSE,

YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, NIAGARA, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and noting shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionable place of resort.

The proprietor of the above invites the attention of the visitors at Niagara Falls to this place: it is the Capital of the Province, Head-Quarters for the Military, who have a superior Band of Music attached; the distance is short, and every facility that is necessary for comfort can be had on the way. The Steam-boat Canada plies regularly every day from York to Niagara, leaving the latter at 1 o'clock, P.M. so that parties of pleasure may breakfast at the Falls, dine on board the Canada, and find themselves comfortably situated at 5 o'clock, P. M. at the Ontario House.

To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

His Majesty's Government having authorised a certain proportion of the Annual consumption of Hemp, throughout the King's Dock Yards in England, to be purchased in Canada, it is hereby notified, that, Hemp, bona fide, the growth of Canada, properly dressed, and of equal quality to St. Petersburgh, or to Riga Hemp, will be purchased by the Respective Officers of His Majesty's Dock Yard, at Kingston, if approved of by them, and delivered at the Dock Yard.

The value of Canadian Hemp "per Ton, will be always regulated by the price paid for St. Petersburgh or Riga Hemp," in the King's Dock Yards at home.

On an average, the quantity of Canadian Hemp, which can be purchased at Kingston, by the Respective Officers, will be from Six hundred to Seven hundred Tons Annually. The price which can this year be paid for clean Canadian Hemp, as above described, will be according to its quality, Forty or Forty-three pounds Halifax Currency per Ton.

Colonel Covert has erected Mills near Cobourg, for the purpose of preparing Hemp for Exportation, and will give any information to Farmers respecting the best method of dressing it, and the profit likely to be obtained from cultivating Hemp in Upper Canada.

Government Office,
York, 18th November, 1830.

Executive Council Office,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

ONTARIO HOUSE,
YORK, UPPER CANADA.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, Niagara, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. He has taken care that every department is filled with active and faithful servants, and noting shall be wanting on his part to render it a fashionable place of resort.

The proprietor of the above invites the attention of the visitors at Niagara Falls to this place: it is the Capital of the Province, Head-Quarters for the Military, who have a superior Band of Music attached; the distance is short, and every facility that is necessary for comfort can be had on the way. The Steam-boat Canada plies regularly every day from York to Niagara, leaving the latter at 1 o'clock, P.M. so that parties of pleasure may breakfast at the Falls, dine on board the Canada, and find themselves comfortably situated at 5 o'clock, P. To Lease,

FOR a Term of Years, the following Valuable Property, in the District of Gore, belonging to the estate of the late Richard Hatt, Esquire, and possession given on the 1st of August next a Grist Mill, commonly called Dundas New Grist Mill, a Saw Mill and Distillery:—also, Coopers' Shop and Blacksmiths' Shop, with convenient Dwelling Houses—Also, a Store newly fitted up on a commanding situation of the Village for business.

The above property is situated in the Village of Dundas, at the head of the navigable waters of Lake Ontario.—The Grist Mill is 60 by 80, constructed for four run of Stones, two of which are in complete operation. There is a large and commanding stream of water, and is distant only a few hundred yards from the water communication at Burlington Bay. Desjardins Canal, calculated for the navigation of Schooners and Steam-Boats, which terminates at the Village of Dundas, is now in an active state towards its completition, and under contract to be finished by the first of May next, when Shipments may be made from the Mill on board of the Vessels without being subject to storage.

The other works are in a state to go into immediate operation.—There is also an old Grist Mill, which with a little repair and a few alterations can be adapted for a Fulling and Carding Mill, and would be leased on favourable terms for that purpose.

Also a Farm commonly called the Coulthard Farm, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres, upwards of 100 acres of which are under cultivation—there is also on this Farm, an extensive Natural Meadow, and is well supplied with water. From this Farm the late Tenant has raised in one year from two to three thousand bushels of grain, and kept an extensive stock of cattle.

Also, the Farm commonly known as Dundas Flats, bounded by the Village of Dundas, containing 400 acres—this may be conveniently leased as two Farms, or together, as may be agreed upon. These Flats will produce an average crop of 100 tons of Hay yearly, while a large quantity of land will remain for cultivation.—Also, the Saw Mill commonly called the Mountain Saw Mill, distant from Dundas little more than a mile.—The surrounding country is well supplied with Pine and all kinds of timber. The Mill is situated on Flamboro' Creek, where there is a fall of upwards of 70 feet.—Possession will be given to this on the first of November next.—Also, a Farm joining the above Saw Mill, containing 200 acres, 100 of which are under cultivation, and in a high state of improvement.

Also, the Farm commonly called the Banghart Farm, containing about 170 acres, 60 of which are cleared, and nearly free from stumps or fallen timber, and may be cultivated to great advantage.

The whole of the above property will be leased separately or in such portions as may suit the parties—it is situated in the heart of a most flourishing country, and in a Commercial, as well as Agricultural point of view—is excelled by no other situation in the Province.

EXTRAORDINARY.

YORK, UPPER CANADA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1831.

BY AUTHORITY.

Friday, 7th January, 1831.

This day at three o'clock, His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, proceeded in State to the Legislative Council Chamber, and being seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent to direct the attendance of the Commons House of Assembly, at the Bar of that Honorable House, who being come thereto:—

The Speaker of the Legislative Council said, it was His Excellency's Command, that they should repair to the usual place of sitting and there choose a fit person to be their Speaker, and that the person so chosen be presented for His Excellency's approbation on the following day. The House then withdrew.

Saturday 8th January, 1831.

The House of Assembly being again assembled at the Bar of the Honorable the Legislative Council, Archibald Maclean, Esquire, informed His Excellency that, the House of Assembly had chosen him for their Speaker, and claimed the usual privileges.

His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor was pleased to approve of the choice of the House of Assembly, and then addressed both Houses of the Provincial Parliament in the following,

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen,—

and Gentlemen:

Since the Prorogation of the Provincial Parliament, we have had to lament the demise of our late Most Gracious Sovereign; an affliction which has spread through the British Empire the deepest sorrow and regret.

In opening this Session, I cannot but draw your attention to the declaration of the King, on his succeeding to the Throne of His Ancestors. It will be long borne in mind by His Faithful and Loyal Subjects, and will best convey to you His Majesty's resolution to rely upon the advice and the zealous co-operation of Parliament, in His anxious endeavours, under the blessing of Divine Providence, to protect the Liberties of the People, and to promote their happiness.

The immediate prospects of the Colony, I am persuaded, you will consider favorable to exertion on the part of the Legislature, in reference to the progress of your Commercial Intercourse with the Parent State, the increasing Revenue, and the tide of Emigration which has recently turned with so much profit and advantage to Upper Canada.

It may be unnecessary to advert to the successful results expected from perfecting the communication between the great Lakes; the value of an uninterrupted inland navigation being now fully appreciated. But, I must remark, that the efforts which are directed to accomplish this important object, and to complete the Rideau Canal before the close of the next Autumn, suggest the expediency of introducing without delay, such alterations in your system of constructing Highways, as will enable the Agriculturists of the more remote Townships to participate in the commerce carried on by the population established near the shores of the Lakes; and repair, in some degree, the public and individual loss sustained by their exclusion from a market, where the demand for the produce of this Country far exceeds the supply.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

The usual statement of the Revenue and Expenditure, and Estimates for the present year, shall be laid before you.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

You will give your consideration to the Acts which are about to expire.

The Returns and Reports prepared for your examination, clearly point out the effect of the measures which have been adopted to ensure an active prosecution of Public Works, and to foster the Institutions organized with the sanction of the Legislature: and I trust, that the course pursued with that view, the encouragement and protection afforded to Emigrants of every description, and a judicious application of means to improve gradually your internal Navigation, cannot fail to accord with the wishes and interests of the People; and greatly to augment a class of Settlers who have been accustomed to love and venerate our Constitution, and whose labor, enterprize, and capital, are essentially contributing to advance the prosperity and welfare of the Province.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

JOHN SMALL,
27 C.E.C.

RESOLVED—That to prevent surprise, and to afford time for proper investigation in matters that may affect the private rights of individuals, it is expedient to make it a standing order of the Legislative Council, that no Petition for a private Bill, which can affect the vested right, interest or convenience of any person or persons other than the Petitioner or Petitioners, shall be received after the twentieth day of the Session, and that no Private Bill of the nature above described which may come up from the Assembly, after the thirtieth day of the Session, shall be proceeded upon in the Legislative Council.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
20*th January*, 1831.

HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, has been pleased to grant a Licence to Stewart Chisholm, Esquire, of Charlottenburgh, in the Eastern District, a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, of London, to practice Physic, Surgery, and Midwifery in this Province.

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of November, 1830.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entituled "An "Act to Regulate the Trade of the "British Possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation "foreign ships are permitted to import "into any of the British possessions "abroad, from the countries to which "they belong, goods, the produce of "those countries, and to export goods "from such possessions to be carried to "any foreign country whatever, and "that it is expedient that such permis"sion should be subject to certain con"ditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that "the privileges thereby grant" to foreign ships shall be limited to th ships "of those countries which, having colo"nial possessions, shall grant the like "privileges of trading with those pos"sessions to British Ships, or which, not "having colonial possessions, shall place "the commerce and navigation of this "country, and of its possessions abroad, "upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Or"der in Council, shall in any case deem "it expedient to grant the whole or any "of such privileges to the ships of any "foreign country, although the con"ditions aforesaid shall not in all re"spects be fulfilled by such foreign "country."

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the Ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British Vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked:

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of those States, and may export Goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respective y appertain.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
31*st January*, 1831.

HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, has been pleased to grant Licences to the undermentioned Gentlemen, as Land Surveyors in this Province, viz:—

Thomas Kelly, Licence dated 21st January, 1831.—Frederick Preston Rubridge, Licence dated 31st January 1831.

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of November, 1830.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entituled "An "Act to Regulate the Trade of the "British Possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation "foreign ships are permitted to import "into any of the British possessions "abroad, from the countries to which "they belong, goods, the produce of "those countries, and to export goods "from such possessions to be carried to "any foreign country whatever, and "that it is expedient that such permis-"sion should be subject to certain con-"ditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that "the privileges thereby granted to fo-"reign ships shall be limited to the ships "of those countries which, having colo-"nial possessions, shall grant the like "privileges of trading with those pos-"sessions to British Ships, or which, not "having colonial possessions, shall place "the commerce and navigation of this "country, and of its possessions abroad, "upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Or-"der in Council, shall in any case deem "it expedient to grant the whole or any "of such privileges to the ships of any "foreign country, although the con-"ditions aforesaid shall not in all re-"spects be fulfilled by such foreign "country."

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the Ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British Vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked:

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of those States, and may export Goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of His EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL, that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, has been pleased to grant Licences to the undermentioned Gentlemen, as Land Surveyors in this Province, viz:—

Thomas Kelly, Licence dated 21st January, 1831.—Frederick Preston Rubridge, Licence dated 31st January 1831.

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of November, 1830.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entituled "An "Act to Regulate the Trade of the "British Possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation "foreign ships are permitted to import "into any of the British possessions "abroad, from the countries to which "they belong, goods, the produce of "those countries, and to export goods "from such possessions to be carried to "any foreign country whatever, and "that it is expedient that such permis-"sion should be subject to certain con-"ditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that "the privileges thereby granted to fo-"reign ships shall be limited to the ships "of those countries which, having colo-"nial possessions, shall grant the like "privileges of trading with those pos-"sessions to British Ships, or which, not "having colonial possessions, shall place "the commerce and navigation of this "country, and of its possessions abroad, "upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Or-"der in Council, shall in any case deem "it expedient to grant the whole or any "of such privileges to the ships of any "foreign country, although the con-"ditions aforesaid shall not in all re-"spects be fulfilled by such foreign "country."

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the Ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British Vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked:

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of those States, and may export Goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

GOVERNMENT OFFICE,
York, 18th November, 1830.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entituled "An "Act to Regulate the Trade of the "British Possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation "foreign ships are permitted to import "into any of the British possessions "abroad, from the countries to which "they belong, goods, the produce of "those countries, and to export goods "from such possessions to be carried to "any foreign country whatever, and "that it is expedient that such permis-"sion should be subject to certain con-"ditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that "the privileges thereby granted to fo-"reign ships shall be limited to the ships "of those countries which, having colo-"nial possessions, shall grant the like "privileges of trading with those pos-"sessions to British Ships, or which, not "having colonial possessions, shall place "the commerce and navigation of this "country, and of its possessions abroad, "upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Or-"der in Council, shall in any case deem "it expedient to grant the whole or any "of such privileges to the ships of any "foreign country, although the con-"ditions aforesaid shall not in all re-"spects be fulfilled by such foreign "country."

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the Ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British Vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked:

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of those States, and may export Goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

JAS. BULLER.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

YORK, UPPER CANADA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1831.

BY AUTHORITY.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
22nd February, 1831.

HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, has been pleased to grant a Licence to Samuel John Stratford, Esquire, of Bytown, late Assistant Surgeon of the 72nd Regiment, and a Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, of London, to practice Physic, Surgery, and Midwifery in this Province.

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of November, 1830.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entituled "An "Act to Regulate the Trade of the "British Possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation "foreign ships are permitted to import "into any of the British possessions "abroad, from the countries to which "they belong, goods, the produce of "those countries, and to export goods "from such possessions to be carried to "any foreign country whatever, and "that it is expedient that such permis"sion should be subject to certain con"ditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that "the privileges thereby granted to fo"reign ships shall be limited to the ships "of those countries which, having colo"nial possessions, shall grant the like "privileges of trading with those pos"sessions to British Ships, or which, not "having colonial possessions, shall place "the commerce and navigation of this "country, and of its possessions abroad, "upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Or"der in Council, shall in any case deem "it expedient to grant the whole or any "of such privileges to the ships of any "foreign country, although the con"ditions aforesaid shall not in all re"spects be fulfilled by such foreign "country."

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the Ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British Vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked:

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of those States, and may export Goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respective y appertain.

JAS. BULLER.

DAVID BOTSFORD, late of the Promenade Tavern, NIAGARA, has taken this Establishment, which he has fitted up in a superior style for the reception of Genteel Company. The proximity of this house to the Steam-Boat Wharf and public buildings, and the extensive view from the Galleries which overlook the Town and Bay, renders it particularly delightful. YORK, UPPER CANADA, THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1831.

BY AUTHORITY.

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of November, 1830.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entituled "An "Act to Regulate the Trade of the "British Possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation "foreign ships are permitted to import "into any of the British possessions "abroad, from the countries to which "they belong, goods, the produce of "those countries, and to export goods "from such possessions to be carried to "any foreign country whatever, and "that it is expedient that such permis-"sion should be subject to certain con-"ditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that "the privileges thereby granted to fo-"reign ships shall be limited to the ships "of those countries which, having colo-"nial possessions, shall grant the like "privileges of trading with those pos-"sessions to British Ships, or which, not "having colonial possessions, shall place "the commerce and navigation of this "country, and of its possessions abroad, "upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Or-"der in Council, shall in any case deem "it expedient to grant the whole or any "of such privileges to the ships of any "foreign country, although the con-"ditions aforesaid shall not in all re-"spects be fulfilled by such foreign "country."

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the Ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British Vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked:

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of those States, and may export Goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

JAS. BULLER.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, has been pleased to appoint the Rev. T. C. Wilson, a Trustee of the Bathurst District School.

HIS EXCELLENCY has also been pleased to appoint the Rev. T. C. Wilson, and the Rev. William Bell, Members of the Board of Education of the said District.

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of November, 1830.
PRESENT,
The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entituled "An "Act to Regulate the Trade of the "British Possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation "foreign ships are permitted to import "into any of the British possessions "abroad, from the countries to which "they belong, goods, the produce of "those countries, and to export goods "from such possessions to be carried to "any foreign country whatever, and "that it is expedient that such permis"sion should be subject to certain con"ditions," it is, therefore, enacted, "that "the privileges thereby granted to fo"reign ships shall be limited to the ships "of those countries which, having colo"nial possessions, shall grant the like "privileges of trading with those pos"sessions to British Ships, or which, not "having colonial possessions, shall place "the commerce and navigation of this "country, and of its possessions abroad, "upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Or"der in Council, shall in any case deem "it expedient to grant the whole or any "of such privileges to the ships of any "foreign country, although the con"ditions aforesaid shall not in all re"spects be fulfilled by such foreign "country."

And whereas by a certain Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the law of navigation to foreign ships, could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid: His said late Majesty did, in pursuance of the powers in him vested by the said Act, grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the said United States; but did thereby provide and declare, that such privileges should absolutely cease and determine in His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and South America, and in certain other of His Majesty's possessions abroad, upon and from certain days in the said Order for that purpose appointed, and which are long since passed:

And whereas by a certain other Order of His said late Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, the said last mentioned Order was confirmed: And whereas in pursuance of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf made and provided, His said late Majesty, by a certain Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and by the said Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, was pleased to Order that there should be charged on all vessels of the said United States, which should enter any of the Ports of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies or America, with articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the said States, certain duties of tonnage and of customs therein particularly specified:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to His Majesty in Council, that the restrictions heretofore imposed by the laws of the United States aforesaid upon British vessels, navigated between the said States and His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies and America, have been repealed, and that the discriminating duties of tonnage and of customs, heretofore imposed by the laws of the said United States, upon British vessels and their cargoes entering the ports of the said States from His Majesty's said possessions, have also been repealed, and that the ports of the United States are now open to British Vessels and their cargoes coming from His Majesty's possessions aforesaid, His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested in him as aforesaid by the said Act so passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, declare, that the said recited Orders in Council of the twenty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, and of the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, (so far as such last mentioned Order relates to the said United States), shall be, and the same are, hereby respectively revoked:

And His Majesty doth further, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, declare that the ships of and belonging to the said United States of America, may import from the United States aforesaid into the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of those States, and may export Goods from the British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever.

JAS. BULLER.

HIS Majesty's Government having authorised a certain proportion of the Annual consumption of Hemp, throughout the King's Dock Yards in England, to be purchased in Canada, it is hereby notified, that, Hemp, bona fide, the growth of Canada, properly dressed, and of equal quality to St. Petersburgh, or to Riga Hemp, will be purchased by the Respective Officers of His Majesty's Dock Yard, at Kingston, if approved of by them, and delivered at the Dock Yard.

The value of Canadian Hemp "per Ton, will be always regulated by the price paid for St. Petersburgh or Riga Hemp," in the King's Dock Yards at home.

On an average, the quantity of Canadian Hemp, which can be purchased at Kingston, by the Respective Officers, will be from Six hundred to Seven hundred Tons Annually. EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear, thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

YORK, UPPER CANADA, WEDNESDAY MARCH 16, 1831.

BY AUTHORITY.

York, U. C. March 16, 1831.

At Four o'clock this day, His EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, being seated on the Throne in the Legislative Council Chamber, and the House of Assembly being present, His EXCELLENCY, was pleased to Prorogue the present Session with the following

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen,—
and Gentlemen:

The Instructions I received from His Majesty's Government to make the important Communication which I transmitted to you on the 28th of last month, prevented my relieving you from your attendance in Parliament at the time I first intended to close this Session.

The beneficial effects that will result from the Bills you have passed for the improvement of Roads and Bridges, and of Internal Navigation, will extend to most Townships.

I have no doubt that the conditional Grant sanctioned to complete the direct line of the Welland Canal from its junction with the Chippawa to Lake Erie, will be sufficient for that purpose, if the means you have provided are skilfully applied; and that notwithstanding the local prejudices which have frequently impeded the progress of improvements embracing the general interests of the Country, this measure will be commended, ultimately, by every District. In facilitating the conveyance of the Produce of that portion of Upper Canada which it is probable will become the most populous of the Province, the prosperity of the whole Colony is promoted.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

I thank you in His Majesty's name for the supplies you have voted for the Public Service. You will have perceived from the Accounts of the Revenue arising from the Duties levied under the Act of the 14th Geo. 3rd. forwarded to the House of Assembly every Session, and from the Statement laid before you of the Salaries of Officers of each Department, and of the Funds on which they are borne—and from the Accounts of the Casual and Territorial Revenue, that the public expenditure of the Offices of the Government has been reduced, except in those charges which depend on the increased population.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

The expenses of the Civil Government, which were supported till the year 1827, by the liberal Grants of the Parent State, can now be defrayed entirely from Duties raised under the Statute of the 14th Geo. 3rd. The assignment therefore of this Revenue to the disposal of the Legislature, has not only enabled you to make a permanent provision for the Salaries of the principal Officers of the Government, and Judges, that ensures their constitutional independence, but it has also considerably increased the Funds from which the Annual Supplies may be drawn.

ANNO PRIMO

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

CAP. IV.

An Act to render valid Acts done by the Governor of any of His Majesty's Plantations after the Expiration of his Commission by the Demise of His late Majesty, and to extend the period within which the Patents of Governors of Colonies shall on any future Demise of the Crown become vacant, and to provide for the longer duration of the Patents of Governors after the Demise of the Crown.

[23d December, 1830.]

WHEREAS on the Demise of His late Majesty King George the Fourth divers Persons were in the Exercise of Offices and Employments, Civil and Military, within His Majesty's Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions Abroad, holden under and by virtue of divers Patents, Commissions, Warrants, or other Authorities determinable at His said late Majesty's pleasure: And whereas at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months next after the Demise of His said Majesty such Offices and Employments as aforesaid will by Law cease and determine, and such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and other Authorities as aforesaid will by Law be vacated and become void: And whereas, by reason of the remoteness of divers of such Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions, it hath been found and is impracticable to renew such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and Authorities, so as that the Renewal thereof should within the period aforesaid be signified and take effect within the said Plantations, Colonies and Possessions, and the Governors and Officers administering the Government thereof, and other His Majesty's Officers therein, must, notwithstanding the Expiration of such their Commissions, continue in the Exercise of the Powers and Authorities thereby in them vested, in the same Manner as if such Commissions had not determined: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That

All Powers vested in Governors of Colonies, &c. by Patent or Commission of His late Majesty to continue in force until new Patents shall be issued and made known in such Colonies.

Powers and Authorities, whether vested in any Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Officer administering the Government of any of His Majesty's Plantations, Colonies, or Possessions Abroad, or in any Officer or Officers within any such Plantation, Colony, or Possession, by any Patent, Commission or Warrant which hath determined or will determine by the Demise of His said late Majesty, shall continue in full force and virtue until a new Patent, Commission, or Warrant for the Administration of any such Government, or for the Exercise of any such Office, shall be issued by His Majesty, or on His Behalf, or under His Authority, and until the issuing of any such new Patent, Commission, or Warrant shall be signified and made known within the Plantation, Colony, or Plantation Abroad to which the same may relate; and that all Acts and Deeds which shall in the meantime be done shall be as good, binding, valid, and effectual as if such Patent, Commission, or Warrant had not been vacated or made void, and as if such Office or Employment had not ceased and determined.

Extending the Period at which Patents shall become determinable at any future Demise of the Crown.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Patent, Commission, Warrant, or other Authority for the Exercise of any Office or Employment, Civil or Military, within any of His Majesty's Plantations or Possessions Abroad, determinable at the Pleasure of His Majesty, or of any of His Majesty's Heirs and Successors, shall by reason of any future Demise of the Crown be vacated or become void until the Expiration of Eighteen Calendar Months next after any such Demise of the Crown as aforesaid.

(The Royal Assent to this Bill was signified, by Message of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, to the Legislative Council and Assembly of this Province on the second [illegible] of March, 1831.)

WHEREAS doubts have arisen respecting the legality of certain Marriages heretofore Contracted and Solemnized in this Province: And whereas the Parties thereto, and their Issue, may be subject to disabilities unless such Marriages be confirmed by Law, in order therefore to afford relief to such persons, and establish the Legitimacy of their Issue—Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the Marriage, or Marriages of all persons, not being under any canonical disqualification to contract matrimony, that have been publicly contracted in this Province before any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, or Commanding Officer of a Post, or before any Minister, or Clergyman, before the passing of this Act, shall be, and are hereby confirmed, and shall be considered good and valid in Law; and the parties to such Marriages, and the Issue thereof, shall be entitled to all the rights, and subject to all the obligations, resulting from Marriage and consanguinity, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

II. B. born on the———day of———and that such Marriage was Solemnized by M. D. of the District of ———" which form of attestation shall be subscribed by the party making the same, and certified under the Hand and Seal of the Justice administering the said Oath or Affirmation, who shall be entitled to receive therefor One Shilling; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Peace, upon payment of the Sum of Two Shillings and six pence, to enter and record such attestation, duly certified as aforesaid, in a Register, or Book, to be by him kept for that purpose, and such Register, or an attested copy thereof, shall be considered sufficient evidence of such Marriage and of the Birth of the said Children; and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to give such copy duly certified to any person demanding the same upon payment of Two Shillings: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make valid any Marriage illegally Solemnized, when the parties to such illegal Marriage, or either of them, shall have subsequently contracted Matrimony according to Law.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Clergyman or Minister of any Church, Society, Congregation, or Religious Community of persons, professing to be Members of the Church of Scotland, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Baptists, Independants, Methodists, Menonists, Tunkers, or Moravians, who shall be authorised, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to Solemnize the ceremony of Marriage within this Province between any two persons, neither of whom is under any legal disqualification to contract Matrimony.

D. was duly ordained, constituted or appointed, as the case may be, a Minister or Clergyman of the said Church, Society, Congregation or Religious Community.

E. F. Chairman."

G. H. Clerk of the Peace.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no such Minister or Clergyman shall at any time celebrate the ceremony of Marriage between any two persons as aforesaid, unless such their intention of Marriage shall have been declared openly and in an audible voice in the Church, Chapel, Meeting-house, or place of Public Worship of such Congregation or Religious Community, on three several Sundays, either in some intermediate part of the Service, or immediately before it began, or immediately after it ended, together with the number of times the said declaration shall have respectively been made, or unless such Minister or Clergyman shall have been duly authorised by Licence under the Hand and Seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of the Province, to celebrate the said ceremony between the two persons therein named.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace who has been or shall be authorised to celebrate Marriage by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of this Province, shall, if required at the time by either of the Parties married, by such Minister, Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, give a Certificate under his hand of such Marriage, specifying in such Certificate the names of the Parties, the time, and the names of two or more persons who witnessed such Marriage, and whether such Marriage has been Solemnized by Licence or by Publication of Banns, and also once in every twelve month's return, a Certified list under his hand of all Marriages by him Solemnized within the said term of twelve months, or since his last preceding return to the Clerk of the Peace, in and for the District in which such Marriages shall have been respectively Solemnized, specifying in such list the names of the Parties so by him Married, the respective dates of such Marriages, and the names of two or more persons who witnessed each of said Marriages, and whether such Marriages respectively shall have been Solemnized by Licence or Publication of Banns, and such Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, shall at the time of returning a Certified list as aforesaid, pay to the said Clerk of the Peace the sum of Two Shillings and Six Pence; and it shall thereupon be the duty of the said Clerk, to record the said certified list in the Register or Book required by Law to be kept by him, of the Registry of Certified Marriages of members of the Church of Scotland, Lutherans, Congregationalists, Baptists, Independents, Methodists, Menonists, Tunkers, Presbyterians, or Moravians; and such Register, or a certified copy thereof, shall be considered in case of the death or absence of the witnesses to any Marriage, a sufficient evidence of the said Marriages; and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to give such copy of the Registry of any of the said Marriages, duly certified, to any person demanding the same, upon the payment of Two Shillings; and if any such Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, shall refuse or neglect to return such certified list as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered by action of Debt in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, one moiety thereof to the use of the Informer, who shall sue for the same, and the other to be paid to the Receiver General of this Province, to and for the use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the public uses of this Province, and the support of the Civil Government thereof, to be accounted for to His Majesty through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty shall direct.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE, York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

YORK, UPPER CANADA, THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1831.

BY AUTHORITY.

An Act to extend the time for taking the Oaths prescribed by a certain Act passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to secure to, and confer upon, certain Inhabitants of this Province, the Civil and Political rights of Natural Born British Subjects."

[Passed 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS the time allowed by the second clause of an Act passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to secure to, and confer upon, certain Inhabitants of this Province, the Civil and Political rights of Natural Born British Subjects," will shortly expire: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That so much of the said second clause of the said Act as limits the time for taking the Oath therein prescribed to three years from the passing thereof, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said period of three years be extended, and the same is hereby extended, to four years, from and after the passing of this Act, and thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be publicly read by the Clerk of the Peace, immediately after empannelling the Grand Jury, at the several Quarter Sessions of this Province, for four successive sittings of such Court, after the first day of July next.

An Act to prevent a failure of Justice by reason of immaterial variances in certain Law Proceedings, and to require all Courts to take Judicial Notice of Privats Acts of Parliament.

[Passed, 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS great expense is often incurred and delay or failure of justice takes place at trials by reason of variances between writings produced in evidence and the recital or setting forth thereof upon the record on which the trial is had in matters not material to the merits of the case, and such record cannot now in any case be amended at the trial, and in some cases cannot be amended at any time; and whereas great additional expense is often incurred by reason of the necessity of pleading specially, private Acts of Parliament which the several Courts of Justice cannot judicially notice unless they be so pleaded or given in evidence:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for every Court of Record holding plea in Civil Actions; any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, and any Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery in this Province, if such Court or Judge shall see fit so to do, to cause the record on which any trial may be pending before any such Court or Judge in any civil action, or in any indictment or information for any misdemeanor when any variance shall appear between any matter in writing or in print produced in evidence, and the recital or setting forth thereof upon the record whereon the trial is pending, to be forthwith amended in such particular by some Officer of the Court, on payment of such costs (if any,) to the other party as such Court or Judge shall think reasonable, and thereupon the trial shall proceed as if no such variance had appeared; and in case such trial shall be had at Nisi Prius the order for the amendment shall be endorsed on the Postea and returned together with the record, and thereupon the papers, rolls and other records of the Court from which such Record issued, shall be amended accordingly.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all Acts of the Provincial Parliament of this Province, whether the same shall be deemed public or private Acts, shall equally be taken notice of judicially, by all Courts, Judges, Justices and other persons whomsoever, without being specially pleaded; And that a Copy of any such Act, printed by proper authority in this Province, shall be taken as sufficient evidence thereof, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act to enable Married Women more conveniently to alien and convey their Real Estate, and to repeal an Act passed in the forty-third year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to enable Married Women having Real Estate, more conveniently to alienate and convey the same."

[Passed 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS the Laws now in force enabling married Women more conveniently to alien their real Estate, do not afford the facility required, and at the same time unnecessarily expose purchasers to risque, from the chance of the married Woman dying, or retracting her consent after her execution of the conveyance, by means whereof such conveyances may be defeated to the great prejudice of innocent purchasers: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the first day of August next, after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any married woman being above the age of twenty-one years, residing within this Province, and seized of real Estate therein, to alien and convey such real Estate by Deed, to be executed by her jointly with her husband, to such use and uses as to her and her husband shall seem meet; Provided always nevertheless, that such Deed shall not be valid or have any effect unless such married woman shall execute the same in presence of one of the Judges of the Court of King's Bench in this Province, or in the presence of a Judge in the District Court, or of a Judge of the Surrogate Court of the District in which such married woman shall reside, or of two Justices of the Peace for such District, and unless such Judge or two Justices of the Peace (as the case may be) shall examine such married woman, apart from her husband, respecting her free and voluntary consent to alien and depart with her Estate as mentioned in the Deed, and shall on the day of the execution of such Deed, certify on the back of the Deed in some form of words to the effect following: "That on the day mentioned in the Certificate, such married Woman did appear before him, or them, (as the case may be) at the place to be named in the said Certificate, and being examined by him, or them, (as the case may be) apart from her husband, did appear to give her consent to depart with her Estate in the Deed mentioned, freely and voluntarily, and without any coercion, or fear of coercion, on the part of her husband or of any other person or persons whatsoever."

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the married Woman resides out of this Province, the Deed may be executed by her in the presence of a Judge of the Court of King's Bench, or of a Judge of the District Court, or of the Surrogate Court, or of two Justices of the Peace, in and for any District of this Province, whose Certificate shall be effectual for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall not in any case be necessary for any such Judge or Justices as aforesaid, to attest the execution of any Deed as a subscribing witness: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken or construed to give to such Deeds so executed as aforesaid, so far as relates to the married Woman or the interests of herself, or of those claiming under her, any greater or other force or effect than the same would have had in case such married Woman had been sole at the time of executing the same.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases in which a married Woman shall, before the passing of this Act, have made any conveyance which would be valid in Law if such Certificate had been obtained within the period of twelve months, as was required by the Laws then in force in this Province, such Certificate may at any time after the passing of this Act be obtained, notwithstanding the period of twelve months may have expired, and the same shall have the like effect, and no other, as if given within twelve months: Provided always, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall affect, or be construed to affect, the right to Lands of any person or persons who may have obtained a Deed according to Law for any Lands which may have been previously conveyed by a married Woman, but not acknowledged before a Judge, pursuant to the Laws of this Province.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sum of Five Shillings shall be paid for every such Certificate, and no more.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-third year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to enable married Women having real Estate more conveniently to alien and convey the same," shall, from and after the said first day of August next, be repealed, except as to any conveyances which have been, or shall be, executed while the same was in force.

AN ACT to make valid certain Marriages heretofore contracted, and to provide for the future Solemnization of Matrimony in this Province.

(The Royal Assent to this Bill was signified, by Message of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, to the Legislative Council and Assembly of this Province on the second day of March, 1831.)

WHEREAS doubts have arisen respecting the legality of certain Marriages heretofore Contracted and Solemnized in this Province: And whereas the Parties thereto, and their Issue, may be subject to disabilities unless such Marriages be confirmed by Law: In order therefore to afford relief to such persons, and establish the Legitimacy of their Issue—Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the Marriage, or Marriages of all persons, not being under any canonical disqualification to contract matrimony, that have been publicly contracted in this Province before any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, or Commanding Officer of a Post, or before any Minister, or Clergyman, before the passing of this Act, shall be, and are hereby confirmed, and shall be considered good and valid in Law; and the parties to such Marriages, and the Issue thereof, shall be entitled to all the rights, and subject to all the obligations, resulting from Marriage and consanguinity, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

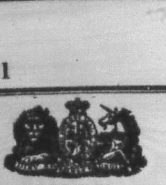
II. And to enable any person who may be desirous to preserve the evidence of their Marriage, and of the Birth of their Children, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, at any time within six years after the passing of this Act, for any Justice of the Peace, at the request of either of the parties, to administer the following Oath, or Affirmation, as the case may be, to the Husband and Wife, or either of them. "I A. B. do solemnly Swear, or Affirm, as the case may be, that I did publicly intermarry with C. D. at——on the——day of——in the year of our Lord ——and that there is now——living Issue of the said Marriage, as the case may be, T. B. born on the——day of——M. B. born on the——day of——and that such Marriage was Solemnized by M. D. of the District of ——" which form of attestation shall be subscribed by the party making the same, and certified under the Hand and Seal of the Justice administering the said Oath or Affirmation, who shall be entitled to receive therefor One Shilling; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Peace, upon payment of the Sum of Two Shillings and six pence, to enter and record such attestation, duly certified as aforesaid, in a Register, or Book, to be by him kept for that purpose, and such Register, or an attested copy thereof, shall be considered sufficient evidence of such Marriage and of the Birth of the said Children; and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to give such copy duly certified to any person demanding the same upon payment of Two Shillings: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make valid any Marriage illegally Solemnized, when the parties to such illegal Marriage, or either of them, shall have subsequently contracted Matrimony according to Law.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Clergyman or Minister of any Church, Society, Congregation, or Religious Community of persons, professing to be Members of the Church of Scotland, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Baptists, Independants, Methodists, Menonists, Tunkers, or Moravians, who shall be authorised, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to Solemnize the ceremony of Marriage within this Province between any two persons, neither of whom is under any legal disqualification to contract Matrimony.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person shall be taken or deemed to be a Clergyman or Minister of such Church, Society, Congregation, or Religious Community, within the intent and meaning of this Act, who shall not have been regularly ordained, constituted or appointed, according to the rites and form of such Church, Society, Congregation, or Religious Community, of which he professes to be a Clergyman or Minister, and unless he shall be a subject of His Majesty, and shall appear before the Justices of the District in which he shall reside, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, and unless he shall produce proof of his ordination, constitution, or appointment as such Minister, and shall then and there take the Oath of Allegiance to His Majesty, which Oath the said Court shall then and there administer, and thereupon, if it shall appear to the majority of the Justices then present that he has been regularly ordained, constituted, or appointed as aforesaid, they are hereby authorised and required to grant him a Certificate under the Seal of the Court, and signed by the Chairman and the Clerk of the Peace, for which the said Clerk shall be entitled to receive the sum of Five Shillings, certifying him to be a Minister or Clergyman of such Church, Society, Congregation or Religious Community, which Certificate may be in the following form:—

D. was duly ordained, constituted or appointed, as the case may be, a Minister or Clergyman of the said Church, Society, Congregation or Religious Community.

E. F. Chairman."



G. H. Clerk of the Peace.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no such Minister or Clergyman shall at any time celebrate the ceremony of Marriage between any two persons as aforesaid, unless such their intention of Marriage shall have been declared openly and in an audible voice in the Church, Chapel, Meeting-house, or place of Public Worship of such Congregation or Religious Community, on three several Sundays, either in some intermediate part of the Service, or immediately before it began, or immediately after it ended, together with the number of times the said declaration shall have respectively been made, or unless such Minister or Clergyman shall have been duly authorised by Licence under the Hand and Seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of the Province, to celebrate the said ceremony between the two persons therein named.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace who has been or shall be authorised to celebrate Marriage by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of this Province, shall, if required at the time by either of the Parties married, by such Minister, Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, give a Certificate under his hand of such Marriage, specifying in such Certificate the names of the Parties, the time, and the names of two or more persons who witnessed such Marriage, and whether such Marriage has been Solemnized by Licence or by Publication of Banns, and also once in every twelve month's return, a Certified list under his hand of all Marriages by him Solemnized within the said term of twelve months, or since his last preceding return to the Clerk of the Peace, in and for the District in which such Marriages shall have been respectively Solemnized, specifying in such list the names of the Parties so by him Married, the respective dates of such Marriages, and the names of two or more persons who witnessed each of said Marriages, and whether such Marriages respectively shall have been Solemnized by Licence or Publication of Banns, and such Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, shall at the time of returning a Certified list as aforesaid, pay to the said Clerk of the Peace the sum of Two Shillings and Six Pence; and it shall thereupon be the duty of the said Clerk, to record the said certified list in the Register or Book required by Law to be kept by him, of the Registry of Certified Marriages of members of the Church of Scotland, Lutherans, Congregationalists, Baptists, Independants, Methodists, Menonists, Tunkers, Presbyterians, or Moravians; and such Register, or a certified copy thereof, shall be considered in case of the death or absence of the witnesses to any Marriage, a sufficient evidence of the said Marriages; and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to give such copy of the Registry of any of the said Marriages, duly certified, to any person demanding the same, upon the payment of Two Shillings; and if any such Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, shall refuse or neglect to return such certified list as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered by action of Debt in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, one moiety thereof to the use of the Informer, who shall sue for the same, and the other to be paid to the Receiver General of this Province, to and for the use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the public uses of this Province, and the support of the Civil Government thereof, to be accounted for to His Majesty through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty shall direct.

An Act to render valid Acts done by the Governor of any of His Majesty's Plantations after the Expiration of his Commission by the Demise of His late Majesty, and to extend the period within which the Patents of Governors of Colonies shall on any future Demise of the Crown become vacant, and to provide for the longer duration of the Patents of Governors after the Demise of the Crown.

[23d December, 1830.]

WHEREAS on the Demise of His late Majesty King George the Fourth divers Persons were in the Exercise of Offices and Employments, Civil and Military, within His Majesty's Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions Abroad, holden under and by virtue of divers Patents, Commissions, Warrants, or other Authorities determinable at His said late Majesty's pleasure: And whereas at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months next after the Demise of His said Majesty such Offices and Employments as aforesaid will by Law cease and determine, and such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and other Authorities as aforesaid will by Law be vacated and become void: And whereas, by reason of the remoteness of divers of such Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions, it hath been found and is impracticable to renew such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and Authorities, so as that the Renewal thereof should within the period aforesaid be signified and take effect within the said Plantations, Colonies and Possessions, and the Governors and Officers administering the Government thereof, and other His Majesty's Officers therein, must, notwithstanding the Expiration of such their Commissions, continue in the Exercise of the Powers and Authorities thereby in them vested, in the same Manner as if such Commissions had not determined: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of, the same, That Powers and Authorities, whether vested in any Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Officer administering the Government of any of His Majesty's Plantations, Colonies, or Possessions Abroad, or in any Officer or Officers within any such Plantation, Colony, or Possession, by any Patent, Commission or Warrant which hath determined or will determine by the Demise of His said late Majesty, shall continue in full force and virtue until a new Patent, Commission, or Warrant for the Administration of any such Government, or for the Exercise of any such Office, shall be issued by His Majesty, or on His Behalf, or under His Authority, and until the issuing of any such new Patent, Commission, or Warrant shall be signified and made known within the Plantation, Colony, or Plantation Abroad to which the same may relate; and that all Acts and Deeds which shall in the meantime be done shall be as good, binding, valid, and effectual as if such Patent, Commission, or Warrant had not been vacated or made void, and as if such Office or Employment had not ceased and determined.

All Powers vested in Governors of Colonies, &c. by Patent or Commission of His late Majesty to continue in force until new Patents shall be issued and made known in such Colonies.

Extending the Period at which Patents shall become determinable at any future Demise of the Crown.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Patent, Commission, Warrant, or other Authority for the Exercise of any Office or Employment, Civil or Military, within any of His Majesty's Plantations or Possessions Abroad, determinable at the Pleasure of His Majesty, or of any of His Majesty's Heirs and Successors, shall by reason of any future Demise of the Crown be vacated or become void until the Expiration of Eighteen Calendar Months next after any such Demise of the Crown as aforesaid.

York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of His EXCELLENCY IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

VOL. 5. NO. 46.

Upper Canada Gazette.

YORK, UPPER CANADA, THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1831.

BY AUTHORITY.

An Act to extend the time for taking the Oaths prescribed by a certain Act passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to secure to, and confer upon, certain Inhabitants of this Province, the Civil and Political rights of Natural Born British Subjects."

[Passed 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS the time allowed by the second clause of an Act passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to secure to, and confer upon, certain Inhabitants of this Province, the Civil and Political rights of Natural Born British Subjects," will shortly expire: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That so much of the said second clause of the said Act as limits the time for taking the Oath therein prescribed to three years from the passing thereof, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said period of three years be extended, and the same is hereby extended, to four years, from and after the passing of this Act, and thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be publicly read by the Clerk of the Peace, immediately after empannelling the Grand Jury, at the several Quarter Sessions of this Province, for four successive sittings of such Court, after the first day of July next.

An Act to prevent a failure of Justice by reason of immaterial variances in certain Law Proceedings, and to require all Courts to take Judicial Notice of Private Acts of Parliament.

[Passed, 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS great expense is often incurred and delay or failure of justice takes place at trials by reason of variances between writings produced in evidence and the recital or setting forth thereof upon the record on which the trial is had in matters not material to the merits of the case, and such record cannot now in any case be amended at the trial, and in some cases cannot be amended at any time; and whereas great additional expense is often incurred by reason of the necessity of pleading specially, private Acts of Parliament which the several Courts of Justice cannot judicially notice unless they be so pleaded or given in evidence:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery in this Province, if such Court or Judge shall see fit so to do, to cause the record on which any trial may be pending before any such Court or Judge in any civil action, or in any indictment or information for any misdemeanor when any variance shall appear between any matter in writing or in print produced in evidence, and the recital or setting forth thereof upon the record whereon the trial is pending, to be forthwith amended in such particular by some Officer of the Court, on payment of such costs (if any,) to the other party as such Court or Judge shall think reasonable, and thereupon the trial shall proceed as if no such variance had appeared; and in case such trial shall be had at Nisi Prius the order for the amendment shall be endorsed on the Postea and returned together with the record, and thereupon the papers, rolls and other records of the Court from which such Record issued, shall be amended accordingly.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all Acts of the Provincial Parliament of this Province, whether the same shall be deemed public or private Acts, shall equally be taken notice of judicially, by all Courts, Judges, Justices and other persons whomsoever, without being specially pleaded; And that a Copy of any such Act, printed by proper authority in this Province, shall be taken as sufficient evidence thereof, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act to enable Married Women more conveniently to alien and convey their Real Estate, and to repeal an Act passed in the forty-third year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to enable Married Women having Real Estate, more conveniently to alienate and convey the same."

[Passed 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS the Laws now in force enabling married Women more conveniently to alien their real Estate, do not afford the facility required, and at the same time unnecessarily expose purchasers to risque, from the chance of the married Woman dying, or retracting her consent after her execution of the conveyance, by means whereof such conveyances may be defeated to the great prejudice of innocent purchasers: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the first day of August next, after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any married woman being above the age of twenty-one years, residing within this Province, and seized of real Estate therein, to alien and convey such real Estate by Deed, to be executed by her jointly with her husband, to such use and uses as to her and her husband shall seem meet; Provided always nevertheless, that such Deed shall not be valid or have any effect unless such married woman shall execute the same in presence of one of the Judges of the Court of King's Bench in this Province, or in the presence of a Judge in the District Court, or of a Judge of the Surrogate Court of the District in which such married woman shall reside, or of two Justices of the Peace for such District, and unless such Judge or two Justices of the Peace (as the case may be) shall examine such married woman, apart from her husband, respecting her free and voluntary consent to alien and depart with her Estate as mentioned in the Deed, and shall on the day of the execution of such Deed, certify on the back of the Deed in some form of words to the effect following: "That on the day mentioned in the Certificate, such married Woman did appear before him, or them, (as the case may be) at the place to be named in the said Certificate, and being examined by him, or them, (as the case may be) apart from her husband, did appear to give her consent to depart with her Estate in the Deed mentioned, freely and voluntarily, and without any coercion, or fear of coercion, on the part of her husband or of any other person or persons whatsoever."

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the married Woman resides out of this Province, the Deed may be executed by her in the presence of a Judge of the Court of King's Bench, or of a Judge of the District Court, or of the Surrogate Court, or of two Justices of the Peace, in and for any District of this Province, whose Certificate shall be effectual for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall not in any case be necessary for any such Judge or Justices as aforesaid, to attest the execution of any Deed as a subscribing witness: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken or construed to give to such Deeds so executed as aforesaid, so far as relates to the married Woman or the interests of herself, or of those claiming under her, any greater or other force or effect than the same would have had in case such married Woman had been sole at the time of executing the same.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases in which a married Woman shall, before the passing of this Act, have made any conveyance which would be valid in Law if such Certificate had been obtained within the period of twelve months, as was required by the Laws then in force in this Province, such Certificate may at any time after the passing of this Act be obtained, notwithstanding the period of twelve months may have expired, and the same shall have the like effect, and no other, as if given within twelve months: Provided always, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall affect, or be construed to affect, the right to Lands of any person or persons who may have obtained a Deed according to Law for any Lands which may have been previously conveyed by a married Woman, but not acknowledged before a Judge, pursuant to the Laws of this Province.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sum of Five Shillings shall be paid for every such Certificate, and no more.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-third year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to enable married Women having real Estate more conveniently to alien and convey the same," shall, from and after the said first day of August next, be repealed, except as to any conveyances which have been, or shall be, executed while the same was in force.

AN ACT to make valid certain Marriages heretofore contracted, and to provide for the future Solemnization of Matrimony in this Province.

(The Royal Assent to this Bill was signified, by Message of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, to the Legislative Council and Assembly of this Province on the second day of March, 1831.)

WHEREAS doubts have arisen respecting the legality of certain Marriages heretofore Contracted and Solemnized in this Province: And whereas the Parties thereto, and their Issue, may be subject to disabilities unless such Marriages be confirmed by Law, in order therefore to afford relief to such persons, and establish the Legitimacy of their Issue—Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the Marriage, or Marriages of all persons, not being under any canonical disqualification to contract matrimony, that have been publicly contracted in this Province before any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, or Commanding Officer of a Post, or before any Minister, or Clergyman, before the passing of this Act, shall be, and are hereby confirmed, and shall be considered good and valid in Law; and the parties to such Marriages, and the Issue thereof, shall be entitled to all the rights, and subject to all the obligations, resulting from Marriage and consanguinity, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And to enable any person who may be desirous to preserve the evidence of their Marriage, and of the Birth of their Children, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful, at any time within six years after the passing of this Act, for any Justice of the Peace, at the request of either of the parties, to administer the following Oath, or Affirmation, as the case may be, to the Husband and Wife, or either of them. "I A. B. do solemnly Swear, or Affirm, as the case may be, that I did publicly intermarry with C. D. at———on the——day of———in the year of our Lord———and that there is now———living Issue of the said Marriage, as the case may be, T. B. born on the———day of———M. B. born on the———day of———and that such Marriage was Solemnized by M. D. of the District of———" which form of attestation shall be subscribed by the party making the same, and certified under the Hand and Seal of the Justice administering the said Oath or Affirmation, who shall be entitled to receive therefor One Shilling; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Peace, upon payment of the Sum of Two Shillings and six pence, to enter and record such attestation, duly certified as aforesaid, in a Register, or Book, to be by him kept for that purpose, and such Register, or an attested copy thereof, shall be considered sufficient evidence of such Marriage and of the Birth of the said Children; and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to give such copy duly certified to any person demanding the same upon payment of Two Shillings: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to make valid any Marriage illegally Solemnized, when the parties to such illegal Marriage, or either of them, shall have subsequently contracted Matrimony according to Law.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Clergyman or Minister of any Church, Society, Congregation, or Religious Community of persons, professing to be Members of the Church of Scotland, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Congregationalists, Baptists, Independants, Methodists, Menonists, Tunkers, or Moravians, who shall be authorised, in manner hereinafter mentioned, to Solemnize the ceremony of Marriage within this Province between any two persons, neither of whom is under any legal disqualification to contract Matrimony.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person shall be taken or deemed to be a Clergyman or Minister of such Church, Society, Congregation, or Religious Community, within the intent and meaning of this Act, who shall not have been regularly ordained, constituted or appointed, according to the rites and form of such Church, Society, Congregation, or Religious Community, of which he professes to be a Clergyman or Minister, and unless he shall be a subject of His Majesty, and shall appear before the Justices of the District in which he shall reside, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, and unless he shall produce proof of his ordination, constitution, or appointment as such Minister, and shall then and there take the Oath of Allegiance to His Majesty, which Oath the said Court shall then and there administer, and thereupon, if it shall appear to the majority of the Justices then present that he has been regularly ordained, constituted, or appointed as aforesaid, they are hereby authorised and required to grant him a Certificate under the Seal of the Court, and signed by the Chairman and the Clerk of the Peace, for which the said Clerk shall be entitled to receive the sum of Five Shillings, certifying him to be a Minister or Clergyman of such Church, Society, Congregation or Religious Community, which Certificate may be in the following form:—

D. was duly ordained, constituted or appointed, as the case may be, a Minister or Clergyman of the said Church, Society, Congregation or Religious Community.

E. F. Chairman."

G. H. Clerk of the Peace.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no such Minister or Clergyman shall at any time celebrate the ceremony of Marriage between any two persons as aforesaid, unless such their intention of Marriage shall have been declared openly and in an audible voice in the Church, Chapel, Meeting-house, or place of Public Worship of such Congregation or Religious Community, on three several Sundays, either in some intermediate part of the Service, or immediately before it began, or immediately after it ended, together with the number of times the said declaration shall have respectively been made, or unless such Minister or Clergyman shall have been duly authorised by Licence under the Hand and Seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of the Province, to celebrate the said ceremony between the two persons therein named.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace who has been or shall be authorised to celebrate Marriage by virtue of this Act, or any other Act of this Province, shall, if required at the time by either of the Parties married, by such Minister, Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, give a Certificate under his hand of such Marriage, specifying in such Certificate the names of the Parties, the time, and the names of two or more persons who witnessed such Marriage, and whether such Marriage has been Solemnized by Licence or by Publication of Banns, and also once in every twelve month's return, a Certified list under his hand of all Marriages by him Solemnized within the said term of twelve months, or since his last preceding return to the Clerk of the Peace, in and for the District in which such Marriages shall have been respectively Solemnized, specifying in such list the names of the Parties so by him Married, the respective dates of such Marriages, and the names of two or more persons who witnessed each of said Marriages, and whether such Marriages respectively shall have been Solemnized by Licence or Publication of Banns, and such Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, shall at the time of returning a Certified list as aforesaid, pay to the said Clerk of the Peace the sum of Two Shillings and Six Pence; and it shall thereupon be the duty of the said Clerk to record the said certified list in the Register or Book required by Law to be kept by him, of the Registry of Certified Marriages of members of the Church of Scotland, Lutherans, Congregationalists, Baptists, Independants, Methodists, Menonists, Tunkers, Presbyterians, or Moravians; and such Register, or a certified copy thereof, shall be considered in case of the death or absence of the witnesses to any Marriage, a sufficient evidence of the said Marriages; and the said Clerk of the Peace is hereby required to give such copy of the Registry of any of the said Marriages, duly certified, to any person demanding the same, upon the payment of Two Shillings; and if any such Minister, or Clergyman, or Justice of the Peace, shall refuse or neglect to return such certified list as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of Forty Pounds, to be recovered by action of Debt in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, one moiety thereof to the use of the Informer, who shall sue for the same, and the other to be paid to the Receiver General of this Province, to and for the use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the public uses of this Province, and the support of the Civil Government thereof, to be accounted for to His Majesty through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty shall direct.

CAP. IV.

An Act to render valid Acts done by the Governor of any of His Majesty's Plantations after the Expiration of his Commission by the Demise of His late Majesty, and to extend the period within which the Patents of Governors of Colonies shall on any future Demise of the Crown become vacant, and to provide for the longer duration of the Patents of Governors after the Demise of the Crown.

[23d December, 1830.]

WHEREAS on the Demise of His late Majesty King George the Fourth divers Persons were in the Exercise of Offices and Employments, Civil and Military, within His Majesty's Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions Abroad, holden under and by virtue of divers Patents, Commissions, Warrants, or other Authorities determinable at His said late Majesty's pleasure: And whereas at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months next after the Demise of His said Majesty such Offices and Employments as aforesaid will by Law cease and determine, and such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and other Authorities as aforesaid will by Law be vacated and become void: And whereas, by reason of the remoteness of divers of such Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions, it hath been found and is impracticable to renew such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and Authorities, so as that the Renewal thereof should within the period aforesaid be signified and take effect within the said Plantations, Colonies and Possessions, and the Governors and Officers administering the Government thereof, and other His Majesty's Officers therein, must, notwithstanding the Expiration of such their Commissions, continue in the Exercise of the Powers and Authorities thereby in them vested, in the same Manner as if such Commissions had not determined: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That

All Powers vested in Governors of Colonies, &c. by Patent or Commission of His late Majesty to continue in force until new Patents shall be issued and made known in such Colonies.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of His EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.

VOL. 6. NO. 46.

Upper Canada Gazette.

YORK, UPPER CANADA, THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1831.

BY AUTHORITY.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
29th March, 1831.

HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, has been pleased to grant a Licence to Charles K. Fell, Gentleman, as a Land Surveyor.—And to William King Cornish, of the Township of London, Gentleman, as a Public Notary.

HIS EXCELLENCY has also been pleased to appoint the Rev. Mark Burnham, of St. Thomas, and the Rev. Alexander Ross, of Aldborough, Trustees of the District School, and Members of the Board of Educatiou in the London District.

An Act to extend the time for taking the Oaths prescribed by certain Act passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to secure to, and confer upon, certain Inhabitants of this Province, the Civil and Political rights of Natural Born British Subjects."

[Passed 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS the time allowed by the second clause of an Act passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to secure to, and confer upon, certain Inhabitants of this Province, the Civil and Political rights of Natural Born British Subjects," will shortly expire: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That so much of the said second clause of the said Act as limits the time for taking the Oath therein prescribed to three years from the passing thereof, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said period of three years be extended, and the same is hereby extended, to four years, from and after the passing of this Act, and thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be publicly read by the Clerk of the Peace, immediately after empannelling the Grand Jury, at the several Quarter Sessions of this Province, for four successive sittings of such Court, after the first day of July next.

An Act to prevent a failure of Justice by reason of immaterial variances in certain Law Proceedings, and to require all Courts to take Judicial Notice of Private Acts of Parliament.

[Passed, 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS great expense is often incurred and delay or failure of justice takes place at trials by reason of variances between writings produced in evidence and the recital or setting forth thereof upon the record on which the trial is had in matters not material to the merits of the case, and such record cannot now in any case be amended at the trial, and in some cases cannot be amended at any time; and whereas great additional expense is often incurred by reason of the necessity of pleading specially, private Acts of Parliament which the several Courts of Justice cannot judicially notice unless they be so pleaded or given in evidence:—Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for every Court of Record holding plea in Civil Actions; any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, and any Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery in this Province, if such Court or Judge shall see fit so to do, to cause the record on which any trial may be pending before any such Court or Judge in any civil action, or in any indictment or information for any misdemeanor when any variance shall appear between any matter in writing or in print produced in evidence, and the recital or setting forth thereof upon the record whereon the trial is pending, to be forthwith amended in such particular by some Officer of the Court, on payment of such costs (if any,) to the other party as such Court or Judge shall think reasonable, and thereupon the trial shall proceed as if no such variance had appeared; and in case such trial shall be had at Nisi Prius the order for the amendment shall be endorsed on the Postea, and returned together with the record, and thereupon the papers, rolls and other records of the Court from which such Record issued, shall be amended accordingly.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all Acts of the Provincial Parliament of this Province, whether the same shall be deemed public or private Acts, shall equally be taken notice of judicially, by all Courts, Judges, Justices and other persons whomsoever, without being specially pleaded; And that a Copy of any such Act, printed by proper authority in this Province, shall be taken as sufficient evidence thereof, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act to enable Married Women more conveniently to alien and convey their Real Estate, and to repeal an Act passed in the forty-third year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to enable Married Women having Real Estate, more conveniently to alienate and convey the same."

[Passed 16th March, 1831.]

WHEREAS the Laws now in force enabling married Women more conveniently to alien their real Estate, do not afford the facility required, and at the same time unnecessarily expose purchasers to risque, from the chance of the married Woman dying, or retracting her consent after her execution of the conveyance, by means whereof such conveyances may be defeated to the great prejudice of innocent purchasers: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the first day of August next, after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any married woman being above the age of twenty-one years, residing within this Province, and seized of real Estate therein, to alien and convey such real Estate by Deed, to be executed by her jointly with her husband, to such use and uses as to her and her husband shall seem meet; Provided always nevertheless, that such Deed shall not be valid or have any effect unless such married woman shall execute the same in presence of one of the Judges of the Court of King's Bench in this Province, or in the presence of a Judge in the District Court, or of a Judge of the Surrogate Court of the District in which such married woman shall reside, or of two Justices of the Peace for such District, and unless such Judge or two Justices of the Peace (as the case may be) shall examine such married woman, apart from her husband, respecting her free and voluntary consent to alien and depart with her Estate as mentioned in the Deed, and shall on the day of the execution of such Deed, certify on the back of the Deed in some form of words to the effect following: "That on the day mentioned in the Certificate, such married Woman did appear before him, or them, (as the case may be) at the place to be named in the said Certificate, and being examined by him, or them, (as the case may be) apart from her husband, did appear to give her consent to depart with her Estate in the Deed mentioned, freely and voluntarily, and without any coercion, or fear of coercion, on the part of her husband or of any other person or persons whatsoever."

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the married Woman resides out of this Province, the Deed may be executed by her in the presence of a Judge of the Court of King's Bench, or of a Judge of the District Court, or of the Surrogate Court, or of two Justices of the Peace, in and for any District of this Province, whose Certificate shall be effectual for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall not in any case be necessary for any such Judge or Justices as aforesaid, to attest the execution of any Deed as a subscribing witness: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken or construed to give to such Deeds so executed as aforesaid, so far as relates to the married Woman or the interests of herself, or of those claiming under her, any greater or other force or effect than the same would have had in case such married Woman had been sole at the time of executing the same.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases in which a married Woman shall, before the passing of this Act, have made any conveyance which would be valid in Law if such Certificate had been obtained within the period of twelve months, as was required by the Laws then in force in this Province, such Certificate may at any time after the passing of this Act be obtained, notwithstanding the period of twelve months may have expired, and the same shall have the like effect, and no other, as if given within twelve months: Provided always, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall affect, or be construed to affect, the right to Lands of any person or persons who may have obtained a Deed according to Law for any Lands which may have been previously conveyed by a married Woman, but not acknowledged before a Judge, pursuant to the Laws of this Province.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sum of Five Shillings shall be paid for every such Certificate, and no more.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-third year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to enable married Women having real Estate more conveniently to alien and convey the same," shall, from and after the said first day of August next, be repealed, except as to any conveyances which have been, or shall be, executed while the same was in force.

[23d December, 1830.]

WHEREAS on the Demise of His late Majesty King George the Fourth divers Persons were in the Exercise of Offices and Employments, Civil and Military, within His Majesty's Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions Abroad, holden under and by virtue of divers Patents, Commissions, Warrants, or other Authorities determinable at His said late Majesty's pleasure: And whereas at the Expiration of Six Calendar Months next after the Demise of His said Majesty such Offices and Employments as aforesaid will by Law cease and determine, and such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and other Authorities as aforesaid will by Law be vacated and become void: And whereas, by reason of the remoteness of divers of such Plantations, Colonies, and Possessions, it hath been found and is impracticable to renew such Patents, Commissions, Warrants, and Authorities, so as that the Renewal thereof should within the period aforesaid be signified and take effect within the said Plantations, Colonies and Possessions, and the Governors and Officers administering the Government thereof, and other His Majesty's Officers therein, must, notwithstanding the Expiration of such their Commissions, continue in the Exercise of the Powers and Authorities thereby in them vested, in the same Manner as if such Commissions had not determined: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Powers and Authorities, whether vested in any Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Officer administering the Government of any of His Majesty's Plantations, Colonies, or Possessions Abroad, or in any Officer or Officers within any such Plantation, Colony, or Possession, by any Patent, Commision or Warrant which hath determined or will determine by the Demise of His said late Majesty, shall continue in full force and virtue until a new Patent, Commission, or Warrant for the Administration of any such Government, or for the Exercise of any such Office, shall be issued by His Majesty, or on His Behalf, or under His Authority, and until the issuing of any such new Patent, Commission, or Warrant shall be signified and made known within the Plantation, Colony, or Plantation Abroad to which the same may relate; and that all Acts and Deeds which shall in the meantime be done shall be as good, binding, valid, and effectual as if such Patent, Commission, or Warrant had not been vacated or made void, and as if such Office or Employment had not ceased and determined.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE,
York, 20th November, 1830.

NOTICE is hereby given, by order of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council; that in lieu of the Settlement Duties heretofore exacted, the following Settlement Duties shall be required in respect of all Locations made after this date, viz:—

The Locatee shall clear thoroughly the half of the Road in width, opposite to the front of his Lot, by burning or totally removing all the Timber, Wood and underwood of every kind therefrom. He shall cut down the stumps for the space of ten feet from the centre of the Road, so low, that a Waggon Wheel may easily pass over any thing that stands within that space, and he shall sow with Grass-seed the Road so cleared.

Upon proof that this has been done, and that some person has been constantly resident upon the Lot for the space of two years, a Patent may issue without other condition of Settlement Duty.—But in cases where the Lot has not been so occupied, a Patent shall not issue until the Locatee, in addition to the Road Duties, above prescribed, shall have wholly cleared the Timber from the front of his Lot for the space of one chain.

If proof of Settlement Duties, as above required, with, or without residence, be not produced to the Surveyor General within two years and a half, the Lot shall be again open to Location.

It is further ordered, that the above Regulation shall not interfere with the Order in Council of 14th May, 1830, which applies exclusively to discharged Soldiers, and in respect to whom, the period of residence is hereby appointed to be three years, instead of five, as prescribed by that Order.

And further, that in respect to all Locations made before this date, the Grantee shall have the option of performing the Settlement Duties either according to this Regulation, or to the Regulations which were in force before the making of this Order.

Lastly, it is ordered, that where a Grantee has a Grant of more than one Lot in a Township, and resides upon one of them, the Settlement Duties in respect to those Lots, on which he does not reside, shall consist of the Road Duty, and the clearing the chain in front of the Lot, as above mentioned.
