TORONTO, THURSDAY, 14th JANUARY, 1836.

This day at three o'clock, His EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR proceeded in the usual State, from the Government House to the Chamber of the HONORABLE the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, where being arrived, and seated on the THRONE, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a message from HIS EXCELLENCY to the HOUSE of ASSEMBLY commanding their attendance.—The Members present being come up accordingly, HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to open the Session of the Legislature with the following

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and,

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

Since you were last assembled no material change has taken place in the prospects of this Colony.

The continuance of uninterrupted tranquillity has happily enabled and disposed the Inhabitants of the Province to turn their undivided attention to the improvement of the Country, and the development of its resources.

In the Home and Midland Districts, and the District of Newcastle, works have been projected for the improvement of internal navigation, by opening practicable channels to the great Lakes; and Rail-roads have been suggested, which we cannot but hope may confer incalculable benefit upon a great portion of this vast Continent, in which Upper Canada occupies so fortunate a position.

In the lower Districts the people are not less intent on the means by which the natural advantages of their situation may be improved, and in the western parts of the Province, the past year has given rise to several plans of a very interesting character, which, I am persuaded, claim your attentive examination.

The results of a free scope being thus afforded to the spirit of enterprize, will soon be displayed in the rapid completion of solid improvements, if the activity which is now so prevalent be sustained by the judicious and cordial co-operation of the Legislature.

Some of the projects to which I refer would have appeared a few years since, visionary; but those which we have already accomplished, and the undertakings of the neighbouring Countries, may encourage you to look forward to designs on a more extensive scale, and to support, to the utmost of your power, the efforts of individuals and private associations.

It will be satisfactory to you to learn, that the works in progress on the Saint Lawrence are far advanced, and, I trust, that by the aid of the Lower Province, all obstructions to the Navigation of that great River will be speedily and effectually surmounted.

The direct Emigration from the Mother Country to this Colony last season, has scarcely exceeded the proportion of one-third, as compared with some former years.

So far as this diminution may have been caused by a more general employment at home, of manufacturers and agricultural labourers, it will not be viewed with regret.

The other causes that have tended to reduce the number of Emigrants we may be confident will not long operate. In the mean time, I am convinced that you will not relax in your efforts to give to Emigration every possible encouragement, and to render this Country a secure and convenient asylum for such of our Countrymen as desire to resort to it.

By improving your system of constructing Highways, and giving facilities to commerce,—connected, as it must necessarily be, with your Agricultural prospects; by making the means of Education general and easily available; and by attending to the condition of a people, peaceably and prudently exercising the privileges of a free Government, and firmly attached to the principles of the British Constitution, you will hold forth the strongest inducements to your fellow Subjects of the British Empire, to unite their fortunes with yours, and to contribute by their wealth, intelligence and industry, to raise this Province, at no distant period, to the first rank in the Colonial Possessions of the Crown.

In order that the means of Instruction may augment with the population, you will, doubtless, apply your attention to the foundation and support of Township Schools; and no longer defer the adoption of measures for rendering the School Lands available, which have been, for some time, subjected to the control of the Legislature.

The Courts of Requests, as constituted under the recent statute, have, it is understood, proved more beneficial than formerly.—From the representations, however, which have at various times been addressed to me, I suggest it to you, as a subject deserving your consideration, whether an appeal to the District Courts might not be provided for, under some restrictions.

The modification which I have submitted to His Majesty's Government, for the Charter of King's College, I shall communicate to you by Message; and I sincerely hope that the arrangements proposed for the opening of the University, will ensure your concurrence.

I strongly recommend, that efficient provision may be made for the maintenance of the Provincial Penitentiary, in which a large number of convicts are at present confined.

It has become necessary to regulate an Institution with care, which may have so direct an influence on the security of society, and the effective administration of the Laws.

The state of the Gaols, and the treatment of the Prisoners confined in them, I shall have occasion to bring under your notice: for it appears to me, that to relieve the Magistrates from an undue responsibility, as well as to ensure the humane care and safe custody of the prisoners, it is desirable to frame more particular provisions than have been hitherto made; and render this department in every respect complete.

The sufferers by the war with the United States of America, have not yet been paid the full amount of their acknowledged claims. The last proposition of His Majesty, appeared to me so liberal, that I was persuaded the claimants would have met with no further disappointments. By advancing the sum of £20,000 from the Provincial Revenue, the remaining £36,000 will be procured from His Majesty's Government, and these long pending claims will be finally arranged.

The repeated representations to induce His Majesty's Government to assume the whole, or a portion of the sums due to the sufferers, having received a full consideration, you will decide whether the comparatively small proportion remaining unliquidated, shall be provided for in the manner proposed. The people of this Province, I am satisfied, will not desire to be relieved from this debt at the expense of the claimants.

The amount of Duties received at the Port of Quebec, during the year 1835, has equalled that of 1834, and the Duties collected within the Province, have considerably increased.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have directed the Annual Accounts and the Estimates to be laid before you, and I trust you will make such Grants as may be necessary for the Public Service.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

Your several addresses to the King, which you requested might be transmitted to the Secretary of State for the Colonies, have been laid before His Majesty. The subjects to which they chiefly relate are of the highest importance to the interests, not of this Colony only, but of all the other British Colonies in North America: they continue, therefore, to engage the most attentive and anxious consideration of His Majesty's Government.

The inquiries which the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty have been authorized to make respecting the Crown Revenue; the constitution of the Legislature; the Clergy Reserves, and other affairs, admitting of adjustment with less difficulty, will, I trust, accelerate the final and satisfactory decision of any questions that have been raised on those points.

The peculiar position of Lower Canada, and the similar Constitution under which the institutions of both Colonies are secured, do not allow the dissensions in that Province to be regarded by you with indifference, nor indeed without deep regret, anxiety and apprehension; the injurious effects of their influence have already been experienced:—they have tended, apparently, to discourage Emigration, and the transfer of Capital to this Country; and have acted disadvantageously in respect to the terms on which the large Loan, authorized by the Legislature, was recently negotiated in England.

But whatever measures may be adopted, in consequence of the inquiry of the Commissioners, or whatever alteration may be proposed to remedy the evils to which I have adverted, you may rest assured, that the Constitution of these Provinces will be firmly upheld.

At this important, and I hope favorable crisis, whether the interest of the Parent State, or the earnest wishes of the Colony be consulted, the Imperial Government cannot fail to deem it an essential duty to watch over and zealously protect your Institutions, and cherish the attachment of all classes to the Crown.

It will afford me much satisfaction to hear of your diligent application, during the Session, to the measures which I have suggested for your consideration, and to all others which can conduce to the welfare of this prosperous and highly valuable Colony.

The peculiar position of Lower Canada, and the similar Constitution under which the institutions of both Colonies are secured, do not allow the dissensions in that Province to be regarded by you with indifference, nor indeed without deep regret, anxiety and apprehension; the injurious effects of their influence have already been experienced:—they have tended, apparently, to discourage Emigration, and the transfer of Capital to this Country; and have acted disadvantageously in respect to the terms on which the large Loan, authorized by the Legislature, was recently negotiated in England.

But whatever measures may be adopted, in consequence of the inquiry of the Commissioners, or whatever alteration may be proposed to remedy the evils to which I have adverted, you may rest assured, that the Constitution of these Provinces will be firmly upheld.

At this important, and I hope favorable crisis, whether the interest of the Parent State, or the earnest wishes of the Colony be consulted, the Imperial Government cannot fail to deem it an essential duty to watch over and zealously protect your Institutions, and cherish the attachment of all classes to the Crown.

It will afford me much satisfaction to hear of your diligent application, during the Session, to the measures which I have suggested for your consideration, and to all others which can conduce to the welfare of this prosperous and highly valuable Colony.

PROCLAMATION,
UPPER CANADA.

J. COLBORNE.

WILLIAM the FOURTH, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no rate or assessment shall be levied on any inhabitant householder in any Incorporated Town or City, now or hereafter to be represented, as aforesaid, for contribution to the payment of the wages of any Representative for any County or Riding in which such Incorporated Town or City shall be situated.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of Wages to Members representing Cities and Incorporate Towns within the Province.

[Passed 7th March, 1836.]

WHEREAS an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled "An Act to provide for the payment of wages to the Members of the House of Assembly who represent the different Towns in this Province," does not make provision for an assessment in any Incorporated Town or City which now does, or hereafter may send a Representative or Representatives to the Commons House of Assembly, for the compensation of such Representative or Representatives; And, whereas, it is just and right that such provision should be made: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That after any Prorogation and Dissolution of the Assembly of this Province, it shall and may be lawful for every Member thereof now representing or hereafter to represent any Incorporated Town or City having attended, to receive from the Speaker of the House of Assembly a warrant, under his hand and seal, signifying the time such Member hath attended his duty in said Assembly, and every Member possessed of such warrant shall and may ask and demand of the Common Council or other Magistrates of the Incorporated Town or City represented by him, a sum not exceeding ten shillings per day for every day that the said Member shall have been engaged in the attendance of his duty in the House of Assembly, and have been necessarily absent from the place of his abode in going to and returning from the said Assembly, which sum it shall be lawful for the said Common Council or other Magistrates and they are hereby required to levy the same by assessement, to be made on each and every inhabitant householder of such Incorporated Town or City, now or hereafter to be represented by such Member, in the same manner and form as by law any assessment may now or hereafter be levied for any public purpose in any such Incorporated Town or City in this Province; and for the said Council or other Magistrates to order and direct the Treasurer or Chamberlain of such Incorporated Town or City to pay the amount to which any such Representative may be entitled out of the monies which may come into his hands, and subject to the order of the Council or Magistrates. 45

[Passed 7th March, 1836.]

WHEREAS it hath been represented by the Petition of sundry persons, inhabiting upon or near the banks of the River Thames, in the Township of Mosa, in the County of Middlesex, and District of London, that the erection of Mills upon the said River, on Lot number twenty-eight of the broken front of the said Township, and which is situated upon the right bank or north-westerly side of said River Thames, and between said River and the Long Woods Road, would tend greatly to increase the general prosperity and wealth of the surrounding country; And, whereas, the natural fall of the said River at this place is not of that magnitude as to render the water privilege efficient at all seasons of the year for mill purposes, and it will be, therefore, necessary to erect a dam across the said River at the above-mentioned site; And, whereas, the erection of a Dam of a sufficient height to fully effect the purpose desired will not flood or otherwise injure any lands lying above the the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons owning the lands on both sides of the said River Thames, at the place mentioned, or in case of not owning said land having first obtained permission by an instrument under his or their hands and seals, from the proprietor or proprietors of the said lands, his or their heirs and assigns, to erect a Dam upon the abovementioned site, of such height only as will not flood or otherwise injure any lands lying above the same: Provided always, that such Dam or Dams shall be constructed with suitable locks for the safe and convenient passage of such boats or other craft as are now or may hereafter be in use upon the said River, and also with inclined planes of not less than forty feet in length and thirty feet in width, with good and sufficient aprons for the safe passage of rafts, and the ascent of fish, to be maintained and kept in good repair by the person in possession of said water privilage, free from toll

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the passage aforesaid shall at any time be obstructed for the period of twenty days successively, the grant hereby intended to be made shall be absolutely void.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Legislature of this Province at any time hereafter, when, in their opinion, the public interest shall require it, either to amend or repeal this Act. 45

WHEREAS an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled "An Act to provide for the payment of wages to the Members of the House of Assembly who represent the different Towns in this Province," does not make provision for an assessment in any Incorporated Town or City which now does, or hereafter may send a Representative or Representatives to the Commons House of Assembly, for the compensation of such Representative or Representatives; And, whereas, it is just and right that such provision should be made: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That after any Prorogation and Dissolution of the Assembly of this Province, it shall and may be lawful for every Member thereof now representing or hereafter to represent any Incorporated Town or City having attended, to receive from the Speaker of the House of Assembly a warrant, under his hand and seal, signifying the time such Member hath attended his duty in said Assembly, and every Member possessed of such warrant shall and may ask and demand of the Common Council or other Magistrates of the Incorporated Town or City represented by him, a sum not exceeding ten shillings per day for every day that the said Member shall have been engaged in the attendance of his duty in the House of Assembly, and have been necessarily absent from the place of his abode in going to and returning from the said Assembly, which sum it shall be lawful for the said Common Council or other Magistrates and they are hereby required to levy the same by assessement, to be made on each and every inhabitant householder of such Incorporated Town or City, now or hereafter to be represented by such Member, in the same manner and form as by law any assessment may now or hereafter be levied for any public purpose in any such Incorporated Town or City in this Province; and for the said Council or other Magistrates to order and direct the Treasurer or Chamberlain of such Incorporated Town or City to pay the amount to which any such Representative may be entitled out of the monies which may come into his hands, and subject to the order of the Council or Magistrates.

AN ACT to authorise the erection of a Mill Dam upon the River Thames, in the London District.

[Passed 7th March, 1836.]

WHEREAS it hath been represented by the Petition of sundry persons, inhabiting upon or near the banks of the River Thames, in the Township of Mosa, in the County of Middlesex, and District of London, that the erection of Mills upon the said River, on Lot number twenty-eight of the broken front of the said Township, and which is situated upon the right bank or north-westerly side of said River Thames, and between said River and the Long Woods Road, would tend greatly to increase the general prosperity and wealth of the surrounding country; And, whereas, the natural fall of the said River at this place is not of that magnitude as to render the water privilege efficient at all seasons of the year for mill purposes, and it will be, therefore, necessary to erect a dam across the said River at the above-mentioned site; And, whereas, the erection of a Dam of a sufficient height to fully effect the purpose desired will not flood or otherwise injure any lands lying above the the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons owning the lands on both sides of the said River Thames, at the place mentioned, or in case of not owning said land having first obtained permission by an instrument under his or their hands and seals, from the proprietor or proprietors of the said lands, his or their heirs and assigns, to erect a Dam upon the abovementioned site, of such height only as will not flood or otherwise injure any lands lying above the same: Provided always, that such Dam or Dams shall be constructed with suitable locks for the safe and convenient passage of such boats or other craft as are now or may hereafter be in use upon the said River, and also with inclined planes of not less than forty feet in length and thirty feet in width, with good and sufficient aprons for the safe passage of rafts, and the ascent of fish, to be maintained and kept in good repair by the person in possession of said water privilege, free from toll or other charge as long as the said Dam or Dams shall exist.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the passage aforesaid shall at any time be obstructed for the period of twenty days successively, the grant hereby intended to be made shall be absolutely void.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Legislature of this Province at any time hereafter, when, in their opinion, the public interest shall require it, either to amend or repeal this Act. 45

WHEREAS, by virtue of an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled "An Act to extend the limits of the Town of York, to erect the said Town into a City, and to incorporate it under the name of the City of Toronto," the four acres and a half in the said City, commonly called the Market Square, are conveyed to and vested in the said City for the public uses thereof, but rendered liable for the payment of a certain loan contracted under the authority of the Magistrates of the Home District for the erection of the new Market Buildings in the said Town of York, and until the full payment and discharge of which the rents, issues, and profits arising from the said Market Square and the said Market Buildings, are to be paid to the Treasurer of the Home District in liquidation thereof; And, whereas, by the same Act the said City is authorized to borrow a sum of money sufficient to pay off the said loan and interest, and also to borrow any sums of money whatever, on the credit of the said City, in anticipation of the Revenues to accrue within five years next after such loans shall be made.

Be it therefore enacted, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Toronto, in Common Council assembled, as follows:—

I. It shall and may be lawful for the Mayor to raise by way of loan, and at an interest not exceeding six pounds per cent. per annum, from any person or persons, bodies corporate or politic, who may be willing to advance the same on the credit of the Debentures and security hereinafter mentioned, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of twelve thousand two hundred and forty pounds, and to cause the same to be paid into the hands of the Chamberlain of the said City, to be applied in the first place, in the liquidation and discharge of the loan contracted under the authority of the Magistrates of the Home District, for the erection of the new Market Buildings in the said Town of York, and interest thereon, and after the said loan and interest shall have been fully paid and satisfied, one thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds to be applied in "liquidating the outstanding debts of the city," and the remainder of the said loan to be applied in paying "the expenditure on the Public Sewers, over and above the sum already appropriated for that purpose," and for other purposes connected with the welfare of the said City.

II. It shall and may be lawful for the Mayor to cause or direct any number of Debentures to be made out for such sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of twelve thousand two hundred and forty pounds, as any person or persons, bodies corporate or politic shall agree to advance on the credit of such Debentures, and the security hereinafter mentioned—such Debentures to be under the Common Seal of the said City, signed by the Mayor and Chamberlain, and made out in such manner and form as the Mayor shall think fit.

III. The interest on such debentures respectively shall be payable half-yearly, at such Bank or place in the said City as shall be agreed upon between the said Mayor and the party who shall advance the said sum of money, and so much of the said sum as shall be necessary to pay off and discharge the said loan contracted by the Magistrates of the Home District, and interest thereon as aforesaid, shall be made payable on or before the fifteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, and the residue thereof on or before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty one, at such Bank or place as aforesaid.

IV. It shall and may be lawful for the said Mayor to pledge the said Market Square, Market House, Buildings and conveniences connected therewith, together with the rents, issues and profits thereof, by indenture of mortgage or otherwise, to such person or persons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, who shall agree to advance the said sum of twelve thousand two hundred and forty pounds, as a further security for the repayment of the same, according to the terms of the said Debentures and the provisions of the said Act, first above mentioned.

V. All such Debentures, and the sum or sums of money secured thereby, shall be and the same are hereby charged and chargeable, and shall be repaid and borne out of the monies which shall come into the hands of the Chamberlain for the use of the City, arising from the rents, issues, or profits of the said four and a half acres, commonly called the Market Square and the Market-House Buildings, and conveniences connected therewith; and all such rents, issues and profits, shall be paid, and shall in any future lease or disposal of the said Market Square and Buildings be made payable into the hands of the Chamberlain of the said City, to be applied in liquidation of the said Debentures, and of the interest thereof.

VI. That from and after the payment of the sum of five hundred pounds, and the interest thereon, being the amount of two Debentures taken by the Treasurer of the Home District, for and on account of a certain sum due and payable from the said City to the Magistrates of the said District, shall be paid and discharged, an Act passed by the Common Council of the said City, dated the sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, entitled, "An Act to authorise the Mayor to raise a sum of money, by Debentures, for the purpose of liquidating the outstanding debts of the City," the said Act, as also another Act of the same date, entitled, "An Act to authorise the Mayor to raise a sum of money, by Debenture, for the purpose of paying the expenditure on the public sewers over and above the sum already appropriated for that purpose," shall be and the same are hereby declared to be repealed: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to appropriate towards the liquidation of the Debentures hereinbefore mentioned, the Market Fees received from Waggons and other Carriages bringing produce to Market, or the Fees received for liberty to sell at the Tables under the Porticos of the said Market Buildings, already appropriated.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the purchase money arising from the sale of the aforesaid old site shall be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the said District, payable and subject to such order as the Magistrates shall from time to time make: Provided always, that such money shall be applicable only to the purchase of such additional ground adjoining the present site, and making such inclosures and erections thereupon and about the said prison, as the Magistrates shall deem expedient and necessary for the security, comfort, and convenience thereof. 45

AN ACT to provide for the payment of Wages to Members representing Cities and Incorporate Towns within the Province.

[Passed 7th March, 1836.]

WHEREAS an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the 6th year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled "An Act to provide for the payment of wages to the Members of the House of Assembly who represent the different Towns in this Province," does not make provision for an assessment in any Incorporated Town or City which now does, or hereafter may send a Representative or Representatives to the Commons House of Assembly, for the compensation of such Representative or Representatives; And, whereas, it is just and right that such provision should be made: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That after any Prorogation and Dissolution of the Assembly of this Province, it shall and may be lawful for every Member thereof now representing or hereafter to represent any Incorporated Town or City having attended, to receive from the Speaker of the House of Assembly a warrant, under his hand and seal, signifying the time such Member hath attended his duty in said Assembly, and every Member possessed of such warrant shall and may ask and demand of the Common Council or other Magistrates of the Incorporated Town or City represented by him, a sum not exceeding ten shillings per day for every day that the said Member shall have been engaged in the attendance of his duty in the House of Assembly, and have been necessarily absent from the place of his abode in going to and returning from the said Assembly, which sum it shall be lawful for the said Common Council or other Magistrates and they are hereby required to levy the same by assessment, to be made on each and every inhabitant householder of such Incorporated Town or City, now or hereafter to be represented by such Member, in the same manner and form as by law any assessment may now or hereafter be levied for any public purpose in any such Incorporated Town or City in this Province; and for the said Council or other Magistrates to order and direct the Treasurer or Chamberlain of such Incorporated Town or City to pay the amount to which any such Representative may be entitled out of the monies which may come into his hands, and subject to the order of the Council or Magistrates.

AN ACT to authorise the erection of a Mill Dam upon the River Thames, in the London District.

[Passed 7th March, 1836.]

WHEREAS it hath been represented by the Petition of sundry persons, inhabiting upon or near the banks of the River Thames, in the Township of Mosa, in the County of Middlesex, and District of London, that the erection of Mills upon the said River, on Lot number twenty-eight of the broken front of the said Township, and which is situated upon the right bank or north-westerly side of said River Thames, and between said River and the Long Woods Road, would tend greatly to increase the general prosperity and wealth of the surrounding country; And, whereas, the natural fall of the said River at this place is not of that magnitude as to render the water privilege efficient at all seasons of the year for mill purposes, and it will be, therefore, necessary to erect a dam across the said River at the above-mentioned site; And, whereas, the erection of a Dam of a sufficient height to fully effect the purpose desired will not flood or otherwise injure any lands lying above the the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, that it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons owning the lands on both sides of the said River Thames, at the place mentioned, or in case of not owning said land having first obtained permission by an instrument under his or their hands and seals, from the proprietor or proprietors of the said lands, his or their heirs and assigns, to erect a Dam upon the above-mentioned site, of such height only as will not flood or otherwise injure any lands lying above the same: Provided always, that such Dam or Dams shall be constructed with suitable locks for the safe and convenient passage of such boats or other craft as are now or may hereafter be in use upon the said River, and also with inclined planes of not less than forty feet in length and thirty feet in width, with good and sufficient aprons for the safe passage of rafts, and the ascent of fish, to be maintained and kept in good repair by the person in possession of said water privilege, free from toll or other charge as long as the said Dam or Dams shall exist.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the passage aforesaid shall at any time be obstructed for the period of twenty days successively, the grant hereby intended to be made shall be absolutely void.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Legislature of this Province at any time hereafter, when, in their opinion, the public interest shall require it, either to amend or repeal this Act. 45

TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, 20th APRIL, 1836.

By Authority.

TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, 20th April, 1836.

This day at four o'clock His EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR proceeded in State, from the Government House to the Chamber of the HONORABLE the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, where being arrived, and seated on the THRONE, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a message from HIS EXCELLENCY to the HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, commanding their attendance.—The Members present being come up accordingly, HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to prorogue the Session of the Legislature with the following

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council: and,
Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

Before I release you from the Legislative duties in which you have been respectively engaged, I consider it necessary to recapitulate the principal events of this Session.

You are perfectly aware that for many years the House of Assembly of Upper Canada have loudly complained of what they term their "Grievances," and that at the end of your last Session these complaints having been referred to a "Committee of Grievances" were, by the Assembly, "ordered to be printed in pamphlet form." In pursuance of this order, a volume containing 570 pages, was forwarded to, and received by, His Majesty's Government, as containing the sum total of the complaints of the People of this Province.

Whether the mere order for printing this Report of the Committee, could be legally considered as sanctioning it with their opinions, I have no desire to discuss; because no sooner did the said Report reach His Majesty's Government, than it was determined that the Grievances it detailed should immediately be effectually corrected; and accordingly Instructions were drawn out by His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, in which each subject of complaint was separately considered, and a remedy ordered for its correction: and I have only to refer to those Instructions, to prove the generosity with which His Majesty overlooked certain language contained in the Report, and the liberality with which He was graciously pleased to direct that impartial justice should be administered to His Subjects in this Province.

His Majesty's Government having determined that I should be selected to carry these remedial measures into effect, I waited upon the Colonial Secretary of State, (to whom, as well as to almost every other Member of the Government, I was a total stranger,) and respectfully begged leave to decline the duty, truly urging as my reason, that having dedicated my whole mind to a humble but important service, in which I was intently engaged, it was more congenial to my disposition to remain among the yeomanry and labouring classes of my own Country, than to be appointed to the station of Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada. His Majesty's Government having been pleased to repeat their request, I felt it impossible not to accede to it, and I accordingly received the Instructions which had been framed; and having had the honor of an interview with His Majesty, during which, in a manner never which I can never forget, He imposed upon me His Royal Commands to do strict justice to His Subjects in this Province, I left England with a firm determination to carry the remedial measures with which I was entrusted, into full effect.

I arrived at this Capital on the 23d of January last, and on the 27th I delivered a Speech in which I informed you, I would submit in a Message the answer which His Majesty had been pleased to give to the several Addresses and Representations which proceeded from the two Branches of the Legislature during the last Session. I added, that as regarded myself, I had nothing either to promise or profess, but that I trusted I should not call in vain upon you for that assistance which your King expected, and which the rising interests of your Country required.

In thus officially coming before the Legislature of this Country from our gracious Sovereign, with a full measure of Reform, I had expected that my appearance would have been hailed and welcomed by both Houses of the Legislature, more especially by that, from which had proceeded the Grievance Report; and I must own, I never anticipated it could seriously be argued for a moment that I was intruding upon the Privileges of either House.

Having made myself acquainted with the outline of Public Feeling in this Province, by conversing freely with the men of most ability of all Parties, I communicated the result to Lord Glenelg in Despatches dated the 5th of February, of which the following are extracts:

"Under these circumstances I consider that the great "danger I have to avoid is the slightest attempt to con- "ciliate any party—that the only course for me to adopt "is, to act fearlessly, undisguisedly, and straight for- "wardly, for the interests of the Country—to throw my- "self on the good sense and good feeling of the people, "and abide a result which I firmly believe will eventually "be triumphant."

"Whatever may be the result, I shall steadily and "straightly proceed in the course of policy I have adopted:

"I shall neither avoid, nor rest upon, any party; but after "attentively listening to all opinions, I will, to the best of "my judgment, do what I think honest and right; firmly "believing that the stability of the Throne, the interests "of this Province, and the confidence of the People, can "now only be secured by such a course."

To the Speakers of both Houses, as well as to many intelligent individuals with whom I conversed, I declared my sincere determination to do justice to the people of this Province. It was however with deep regret I observed, that from the House of Assembly I did not immediately obtain the assistance I expected in carrying the Instructions of His Majesty's Government into effect; for I received various Addresses requesting papers and information which I feared might excite troublesome and by-gone discussion.

On the 5th of February I received an Address of this nature, to which, in as conciliatory a tone as possible, I replied at considerable length; and being now determined to urge, and, if possible, to lead the House of Assembly on towards Reform, I concluded my Reply in the following words:

"The Lieutenant Governor takes this opportunity of "appealing to the liberality and good sense of the House "of Assembly for consideration, that as a stranger to this "Province, totally unconnected with the political differences which have existed in the Mother Country, he "has lately arrived here entrusted by our most gracious "Sovereign with Instructions, the undisguised object of "which is, firmly to maintain the happy Constitution of "this Country inviolate, but to correct cautiously, yet effectually, all real grievances."

"The House of Assembly is deeply interested in the "importance and magnitude of the task he has to perform; "and he is confident it will, on reflection, be of opinion, "that the Lieutenant Governor of this Province had better "look steadily forward to its future prosperity and improvement;—that he had better attract into Upper Canada the superabundant Capital and Population of the "Mother Country by encouraging internal peace and "tranquillity, than be observed occupying himself solely "in reconsidering the occurrences of the past."

"The Lieutenant Governor does not assert that the "latter occupation is totally useless, but he maintains that "the former is by far the more useful, and that to attend "to both is impossible."

This appeal did not produce the effect I had anticipated: but I received another Address from the House of Assembly in behalf of eight Indians of the Wyandot Tribe; and I had scarcely entered this new and questionable ground, when a counter-petition was forwarded by eleven members of the same Tribe, in which they spontaneously declared, "we have the fullest confidence in "the justice and fatherly protection of our beloved Sovereign and his Representative the Lieutenant Governor."

Another new set of Grievances was now brought forward by the House of Assembly, in the form of an Address to the King on Trade and Commerce, which I immediately forwarded to His Majesty's Government, although the principal complaints in the Grievance Report still remained unnoticed and unredressed.

During these discussions I purposely refrained from having much communication with the old supporters of the Government; because I was desirous to shew those who termed themselves Reformers, that I continued, as I had arrived, unbiassed and unprejudiced; and desiring to give them a still further proof that I would go any reasonable length to give fair power to their party, I added three Gentlemen to the Executive Council, all of whom were avowed Reformers.

With the assistance of these Gentlemen—with His Majesty's Instructions before us—and with my own determination to do justice to the Inhabitants of this Country, I certainly considered that the triumph of the Reform which had been solicited, was now about to be established, and that the grievances under which the people of this Province were said to labour, would consecutively be considered and redressed. But to my utter astonishment these Gentlemen, instead of assisting me in Reform, before they were a fortnight in my service, officially combined together in an unprecedented endeavour to assume the Responsibility I owed to the People of Upper Canada as well as to our Sovereign, and they concluded a formal document which they addressed to me on this subject, by a request that if I deemed such a course not wise or admissible, they, who had been sworn before me to secrecy, might be allowed to address the people! and I must own, that the instant this demand reached me, I was startled, and felt it quite impossible to assent to the introduction of new principles, which to my judgment appeared calculated to shake the fabric of the Constitution, and to lead to Revolution instead of Reform.

Without discussing the arguments of the Council, I will simply observe, that had I felt ever so much disposed to surrender to them my station of Lieutenant Governor and to act subserviently to their advice;—had I felt ever so willing obediently to dismiss from office whomsoever they should condemn, and to heap patronage and preferment upon whomsoever they might recommend;—had I felt it adviseable to place the Crown Lands at their disposal, and to refer the petitions and personal applications of the Inhabitants of the remote Counties to their decision; I possessed neither power nor authority to do so.—In fact, I was no more able to divest myself of responsibility, than a criminal has power to divert from himself upon another, the sentence of the Law: and though, under the pretence of adhering to what is called "the image and transcript" of the British Constitution in this Province, it was declared that the Executive Council must be regarded as a Cabinet, I had no more power to invest that Body with the attributes of a Cabinet than I had power to create myself King of the Province—than I had power to convert the Legislative Council into an Hereditary Nobility—or than I had power to decree that this Colony of the British Empire should henceforward be a KINGDOM.

From total inability therefore, as well as from other reasons, I explained to my Council, in courteous language, that I could not accede to their views; and it being evidently necessary for the Public Service that we should separate, I felt it was for them rather than for me to retire. I received their resignations with regret; and, that I entertained no vindictive feelings, will be proved by the fact, that I immediately wrote to Lord Glenelg, begging His Lordship most earnestly not to dismiss from their offices any of these individuals on account of the embarrassment they had caused to me.

On the day the Council left me, I appointed in their stead four Gentlemen of high character, entitled by their integrity and abilities to my implicit confidence; and with their assistance I once again determined to carry promptly into effect those remedial measures of His Majesty's Government which had been solicited by the Grievance Report.

However, a new and unexpected embarrassment was now offered to me by the House of Assembly, who, to my astonishment, not only requested to be informed of the reasons, why my Executive Council had resigned, but who I have learned, actually suspended all business until my reply was received!

As the Lieutenant Governor of this Province is authorised by His Majesty, in case of death or resignation, to name, pro tempore, the individuals, he may think most proper to appoint to his Council, I might constitutionally and perhaps ought to have declined to submit to either branch of the Legislature, my reasons for exercising this prerogative;—but actuated by the earnest desire, which I had uniformly evinced, to comply with the wishes of the House of Assembly, I transmitted to them the correspondence they desired, with a conciliatory message which ended as follows:

"With these sentiments, I transmit to the House of "Assembly the documents they have requested, feeling "confident, that I can give them no surer proof of my desire to preserve their privileges inviolate than by proving to them, that I am equally determined to maintain "the rights and prerogatives of the Crown, one of the "most prominent of which is, that which I have just "assumed, of naming those Councillors in whom I conscientiously believe I can confide.

"For their acts I deliberately declare myself to be "responsible, but they are not responsible for mine, and "cannot be, because being sworn to silence, they are deprived by this fact, as well as by the Constitution, of all "power to defend themselves."

The House of Assembly referred the whole subject to a Committee, which, contrary to customary form, made its existence known to me, by applying directly to me, instead of through the House, for other documents and information, which I immediately forwarded, without objecting to the irregularity of the application; and the House, to my great surprise, prematurely passed its sentence upon the subject, in an address, in which it declared to me, its "deep regret that I had consented to accept the tender "of resignation of the late Council."

The following extract from my reply to this unexpected decision, will sufficiently explain the amicable desire I still entertained, to afford all reasonable satisfaction.

"The whole correspondence I forward to the House of "Assembly, with an earnest desire, that, regardless of my "opinion, the question may be fairly discussed."

"In the station I hold, I form one branch, out of three, "of the Legislature; and I claim for myself freedom of "thought as firmly as I wish that the other two branches "should retain the same privilege."

"If I should see myself in the wrong, I will at once "acknowledge my error; but, if I should feel it my duty "to maintain my opinion, the House must know that there "exists a constitutional tribunal, competent to award its "decision; and to that tribunal I am ever ready most "respectfully to bow."

"To appeal to the people is unconstitutional as well as "unwise—to appeal to their passions is wrong; but on "the good sense of the House of Assembly I have ever "shown a disposition to rely, and to their good sense I "I still confidently appeal."

Having thus thrown myself upon the integrity of the House of Assembly, I might reasonably have expected that a favourable construction would have been placed upon my words and acts, and that the disposition which I had evinced to afford the most ample information, and to meet as far as my duty would admit, the expectations and desires of the Assembly, would have been duly appreciated; the events, however, which soon after transpired, and the addresses which were presented to me in this City, and from other places in the vicinity, conveyed to me the unwelcome information that efforts were being made, under the pretence of "the Constitution being in danger," to mislead the public mind, and to induce a belief that I, as Lieutenant Governor, had declared an opinion in favour of an arbitrary and irresponsible Government—that I had shewn an entire disregard of the sentiments and feelings of the people whom I had been sent to govern—and that, therefore, the inhabitants of this country could never be contented or prosperous under my Administration. Several petitions, purporting to be addressed to the House of Assembly, and apparently forwarded by Members of that House to individuals in the country, with a view to obtain signatures, having been returned to the Government Office, I had ample opportunities of becoming acquainted with the fact that there existed an intention to embarrass the Government, by withholding the Supplies, and that even the terms had been prescribed to the people of the Province in which they were expected to address their Representatives for that object.

Now, it will scarcely be credited that while I was thus assailed—while placards declared that the Constitution was in danger, merely because I had maintained, that the Lieutenant Governor, and not his Executive Council, was responsible for his conduct,—there existed in the Grievance Report the following explanation of the relative duties of the Lieutenant Governor and of his Executive Council.

"It appears," say the Grievance Committee, "that it is "the duty of the Lieutenant Governor to take the opinion "of the Executive Council only in such cases, as he shall "be required to do so by his instructions from the Imperial Government, and in such other cases as he may "think fit. It appears by the following transactions that "the Lieutenant Governors only communicate to the "Council so much of the private despatches they receive "from the Colonial Office as they may think fit, unless in "cases where they are otherwise specially instructed."

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

Having at your request transmitted to you the correspondence which passed between my late Executive Council and myself, and having reminded you that there existed "a Constitutional Tribunal competent to award its decision, and that to that tribunal I was ever ready most "respectfully to bow," it is with surprise I learn that you have deemed it necessary to stop the Supplies.

In the History of Upper Canada this measure has, I believe, never before been resorted to; and as I was the bearer of His Majesty's especial Instructions to examine, and, whatever necessary, to correct the "Grievances" detailed in your report of last Session, I own I did not expect to receive this embarrassment from your House.

The effect of your deliberate decision will be severely felt by all people in the Public Offices—by the cessation of improvement in your Roads—by the delay of compensation to Sufferers in the late War—and by the check of Emigration.

In the complaints you have made to His Majesty against me, (in which you declare that my "ear is credulous"—my "mind poisoned"—my "feelings bitter"—that I am "despotic," "tyrannical," "unjust," "deceitful"—that my conduct has been "derogatory to the honor of the King," and "demoralizing to the Community," and that I have treated the people of this Province as being "little "better than a Country of Rogues and Fools") you have availed yourselves of a high Legislative Privilege, entrusted to you by your Constituents, to the exercise of which I have consequently no constitutional objection to urge, but for the Honor of this Province in which I, though unconnected with the Country, am as deeply interested as its inhabitants, I cannot but regret that, while I was receiving from all directions the most loyal addresses, you, in your Legislative capacity, should have characterised His Majesty's Government which has lately acted towards Upper Canada so nobly and disinterestedly, by the expression of "Downing-street Law."

Honorable Gentlemen: and, Gentlemen:

Having now concluded an outline of the principal events which have occurred during the present Session, I confess that I feel disappointed in having totally failed in the beneficent object of my mission.

I had made up my mind to stand against the enemies of Reform, but I have unexpectedly been disconcerted by its professed friends. No liberal mind can deny that I have been unnecessarily embarrassed,—no one can deny that I have been unjustly accused,—no one can deny that I have evinced an anxiety to remedy all real grievances—that I have protected the Constitution of the Province—and that by refusing to surrender at discretion the patronage of the Crown to irresponsible individuals I have conferred a service on the back-woodsman, and on every noble-minded Englishman, Irishman, Scotchman, and U. E. Loyalist, who, I well know, prefer British freedom and the British Sovereign to the family domination of an irresponsible Cabinet.

It now only remains for me frankly and explicitly to declare the course of policy I shall continue to adopt, as long as I may remain the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, which is as follows:—

I will continue to hold in my own hands, for the benefit of the people, the power and patronage of the Crown, as imparted to the Lieutenant Governor of this Province by the King's Instructions; I will continue to consult my Executive Council upon all subjects, on which, either by the Constitutional Act, or by the King's Instructions, I am ordered so to do, as well as upon all other matters in which I require their assistance. I will continue to hold myself responsible to all authorities in this country, as well as to all private individuals, for whatever acts I commit, either by advice of my Council or otherwise, and will continue calmly and readily to afford to all people every reasonable satisfaction in my power. I will use my utmost endeavours to explain to the people of this Province, that they want only wealth and population to become one of the finest and noblest people on the globe—that union is strength, and that party spirit produces weakness—that they should, consequently, forgive and forget political as well as religious animosity, and consider as their enemies only those who insidiously promote either;—that widely scattered as they are over the surface of this extensive country, they should recollect with pride, the brilliant history of "the old country," from which they sprung, and like their ancestors, they should firmly support the British Standard, which will ever afford them freedom and disinterested protection; that by thus tranquillising the Province the redundant wealth of the Mother Country will irrigate their land, and that her population will convert the wilderness which surrounds them into green fields,—that an infusion of wealth would establish markets in all directions, as well as good roads—the arteries of agriculture and commerce; that plain, practical education should be provided for the rising generation, as also the blessings of the Christian Religion, which inculcates "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth Peace, Good-will towards men."

Taking every opportunity of offering these recommendations to the inhabitants of this Province, I shall in no way attempt to enforce them; on the contrary I shall plainly promulgate, that if the Yeomanry and Farmers of Upper Canada are not yet sufficiently tired of agitation—if they do not yet clearly see what a curse it has been to them, it will be out of my power to assist them;—that if they insist on turning away the redundant wealth as well as the labourers of the Mother Country to the United States, I shall be unable to prevent them;—in short, that if they actually would rather remain as they are, than become wealthy, as they might be, my anxiety to enrich them must prove fruitless.

On the other side, whenever they shall be disposed to join heart and hand with me, in loyally promoting the peace and prosperity of the Province, they shall find me faithfully devoted to their service. In the mean while I will carefully guard the Constitution of the country, and they may firmly rely that I will put down promptly, as I have already done, the slightest attempt to invade it.

With inward pleasure, I have received evidence of the invincible re-action that is hourly taking place in the public mind, and for the sake of the Province rather than for my own, I hail the manly British feeling, which in every direction I see, as it were, rising out of the ground, determined to shield me from insult, and to cheer and accompany me in my progress towards Reform.

I have detained you longer than is customary, but the unprecedented events of this Session, have made it necessary to do so.

R. Stanton, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

AN ACT to amend and extend the provisions of an Act passed during the last session of the Provincial Legislature, entitled, "An Act to reduce to one Act of Parliament the several Laws relative to the appointment and duties of Township Officers in this Province, except an Act passed in the fourth year of the Reign of William the Fourth, Chapter Twelve, entitled 'An Act to regulate Line Fences and Water Courses, and to repeal so much of an Act passed in the thirty-third year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, entitled 'An Act to provide for the nomination and appointment of Parish and Town Officers within this Province,' as relates to the office of Fence Viewers being discharged by Overseers of Highways and Roads."

[Passed 20th April, 1836.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal and amend certain clauses of an Act passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to reduce to one Act of Paaliament the reveral Laws relative to the appointment and duties of Township Officers in this Province, except an Act passed in the fourth year of the Reign of William the Fourth, Chapter Twelve, entitled 'An Act to regulate Line Fences and Water Courses,' and to repeal so much of an Act passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled 'An Act to provide for the nomination and appointment of Parish and Town Officers within this Province, as relates to the office of Fence Viewers being discharged by Overseers of Highways and Roads."—Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That the Twelfth and Fifty-sixth clauses of the aforesaid Act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Township Clerk, of any Township, within three days after the holding of a Township meeting for the Election of Township Officers, to put up a notice in writing at three public places in such Township, one of which to be the place where such meeting was held, containing the names of all such persons as have been chosen to any office in such Township, which shall be sufficient notice to all such as have not been sworn into office at the time of their appointment, to attend and take the oath of office within the time required by law.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several Commissioners for the several Townships shall be entitled to demand and receive from the Treasurer of the District, as a compensation fo performing their respective services and duties imposed upon them by the provisions of the Act hereinbefore recited, the sum of five Shillings per day for every day they are necessarily engaged in the said duties and services, the said days to be certified by the Township Clerk, which sum the Treasurer of the District is hereby authorised and required to pay, on demand and production of such certificate, out of the public monies in his hands unappropriated and applicable to the general uses of the District: Provided always, that no Township Commissioner shall be entitled to receive payment for any number of days over three, nor the Town Clerk for any number of days over ten, for the duties and services which he shall or may have performed in any one year under the provisions of the aforesaid Act; and the Commissioners aforesaid shall render an account to the Township Clerks respectively of the amount of monies so received by them for their respective services; which account, together with an account of all monies received by the said Clerk for his services, shall be by him laid before the next Township meeting for inspection, and immediately thereafter the said accounts shall be transmitted by the said Town Clerk to the Treasurer of the District to be laid before the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every male inhabitant between twenty-one and fifty years of age, not rated on the assessment list, residing in any town, township, or place within this Province, shall be liable to work on the Highways two days in every year in the town, township or place, in which he shall have been a resident for twelve days, under the same penalty as is imposed by any Act on persons refusing or neglecting to perform Statute Labour who stand rated on the assessment list; and in case any person shall, after having performed his Statute Labour, wish to remove to another place, the Overseer of Highways where he has done his Statute Labour for the year, shall if required, give him a certificate of his having done such labour, which shall exonerate him from the performance of any further Statute Labour for the year therein mentioned.

5. And whereas, by the twenty-third clause of the said Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's Reign, it is provided, that the Collectors shall in each year collect the assessments imposed for the previous year, which provision is inapplicable and inconvenient; be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the said clause as requires the Collector for each year to collect the assessments made for the previous year be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that the Collectors chosen for each year shall be authorised and required to collect the assessments for that year in which they are chosen to serve, any former law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that the Bond given by the Collectors appointed under the authority of the said recited Act shall be in conformity to, and in accordance with the provisions contained in this clause, any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding. 1-n.

AN ACT to prevent Bodies Corporate, within this Province, from entering upon, and taking possession of the Lands of the Crown, without permission from His Majesty.

[Passed 20th April, 1836.]

WHEREAS it is necessary for the preservation of the rights of His Majesty, to prevent by law the entering upon any of His Majesty's Lands in this Province, without his assent, by any Body Corporate, created for the purpose of erecting or making Rail-roads, Canals, or other works of a like description, within the said Province: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That it shall not be lawful for any Body Corporate now created, or hereafter to be created, within this Province, their Servants or Agents, or any of them, at any time or times from and after the passing of this Act, to enter into and upon, have, hold, use or enjoy, for the purposes of such Body Corporate, or for any other purpose, any part or parts of the lands or grounds of or belonging to the King's Majesty, without the license and consent of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for such purposes first had and obtained, signified and had under the hand and seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province for the time being, any thing in any Act of Incorporation of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding. n--1.

AN ACT to repeal and amend certain parts of an Act passed in the Thirty sixth year of the Reign of King George the third, entitled, "An Act to amend an Act for regulating the manner of Licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy conviction of Persons selling Spirituous Liquors without License, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

WHEREAS the Laws now in force inflicting penalties upon persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license, are found by experience to prove ineffectual, by reason of the fine in many cases being unreasonably heavy, and the Justices of the Peace having no discretion in the premises: And whereas it is expedient to amend the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That so much of an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the Thirty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to amend an Act, entitled, 'An Act for regulating the manner of licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy convicting of persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license," as fixes the penalty upon any person or persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any person or persons shall keep an Inn or Public House, for the purpose of vending Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors, or shall vend any Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquor, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a license for such purpose, as by Law required, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay a sum of money, in the discretion of the Justices before whom any such conviction shall be had, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Five Pounds, to be levied as by the before recited Act is directed, upon being convicted on the oath of any one credible witness in addition to the Informer, of his, her or their, having offended against the Laws in such case made and provided: Provided always, that no part of the fines which may be levied under the authority of this or any former Act, shall be paid to any Informer, any provision in any former Statute of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that all sums collected as fines, under the authority of this Act, be paid over to the Commissioners of Roads, to be by them laid out in making and repairing the highways.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in default of goods and chattels of the offender or offenders, to satisfy such fine, with the costs of conviction, such offender or offenders shall be forthwith committed to the Common Gaol of the District in which the conviction shall have been had, and the offender is resident, for a period not exceeding three months, nor less than one month, or until the fine and costs be paid.

4. And whereas the great increase in the number of licensed Inns and Public Houses in the City of Toronto, and Liberties thereof, and other District Towns, or any other Town or Village containing twenty dwelling-houses, within a distance of one mile, within this Province, tends greatly to the increase of vice and immorality, and does not effect the object desired, namely, the accommodation of the public: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, no certificate shall be granted for a license to keep an Inn or Public House, in the City of Toronto, or Liberties thereof, or any District Town, or any other Town or Village, containing twenty dwelling houses, within a distance of one mile, within any District of this Province, to any person or persons applying for the same, until the person or persons applying therefor have proved to the satisfaction of the authorities authorized by Law to grant the same, that such person or persons is or are possessed of a dwelling-house held from year to year, or for a term of years, containing at least three rooms beyond those required for the use of the family, and that he or they have, at the time of application, at least three good beds in such house, over and above those required for the use of the family, and are also possessed of a good stable capable of stabling at least two pair of horses.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, no license shall be issued to any person or persons within the City of Toronto, and other District Towns and Villages containing twenty dwelling-houses, within a distance of one mile, within this Province, for the sale of Wine, Brandy, Rum, or other Spirituous Liquors, by retail, or for keeping an Inn or Public House, upon the payment of a less sum for such license than the sum of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings, Provincial Currency, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

AN ACT to amend and extend the provisions of an Act passed during the last session of the Provincial Legislature, entitled, "An Act to reduce to one Act of Parliament the several Laws relative to the appointment and duties of Township Officers in this Province, except an Act passed in the fourth year of the Reign of William the Fourth, Chapter Twelve, entitled 'An Act to regulate Line Fences and Water Courses, and to repeal so much of an Act passed in the thirty-third year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, entitled 'An Act to provide for the nomination and appointment of Parish and Town Officers within this Province,' as relates to the office of Fence Viewers being discharged by Overseers of Highways and Roads."

[Passed 20th April, 1836.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal and amend certain clauses of an Act passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled "AN ACT to reduce to one Act of Parliament the several Laws relative to the appointment and duties of Township Officers in this Province, except an Act passed in the fourth year of the Reign of William the Fourth, Chapter Twelve, entitled 'An Act to regulate Line Fences and Water Courses,' and to repeal so much of an Act passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled 'AN ACT to provide for the nomination and appointment of Parish and Town Officers within this Province, as relates to the office of Fence Viewers being discharged by Overseers of Highways and Roads."—Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That the Twelfth and Fifty-sixth clauses of the aforesaid Act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Township Clerk, of any Township, within three days after the holding of a Township meeting for the Election of Township Officers, to put up a notice in writing at three public places in such Township, one of which to be the place where such meeting was held, containing the names of all such persons as have been chosen to any office in such Township, which shall be sufficient notice to all such as have not been sworn into office at the time of their appointment, to attend and take the oath of office within the time required by law.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several Commissioners for the several Townships shall be entitled to demand and receive from the Treasurer of the District, as a compensation for performing their respective services and duties imposed upon them by the provisions of the Act hereinbefore recited, the sum of five Shillings per day for every day they are necessarily engaged in the said duties and services, the s'd days to be certified by the Township Clerk, which sum the Treasurer of the District is hereby authorised and required to pay, on demand and production of such certificate, out of the public monies in his hands unappropriated and applicable to the general uses of the District: Provided always, that no Township Commissioner shall be entitled to receive payment for any number of days over three, nor the Town Clerk for any number of days over ten, for the duties and services which he shall or may have performed in any one year under the provisions of the aforesaid Act; and the Commissioners aforesaid shall render an account to the Township Clerks respectively of the amount of monies so received by them for their respective services; which account, together with an account of all monies received by the said Clerk for his services, shall be by him laid before the next Township meeting for inspection, and immediately thereafter the said accounts shall be transmitted by the said Town Clerk to the Treasurer of the District to be laid before the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every male inhabitant between twenty-one and fifty years of age, not rated on the assessment list, residing in any town, township, or place within this Province, shall be liable to work on the Highways two days in every year in the town, township or place, in which he shall have been a resident for twelve days, under the same penalty as is imposed by any Act on persons refusing or neglecting to perform Statute Labour who stand rated on the assessment list; and in case any person shall, after having performed his Statute Labour, wish to remove to another place, the Overseer of Highways where he has done his Statute Labour for the year, shall if required, give him a certificate of his having done such labour, which shall exonerate him from the performance of any further Statute Labour for the year therein mentioned.

5. And whereas, by the twenty-third clause of the said Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's Reign, it is provided, that the Collectors shall in each year collect the assessments imposed for the previous year, which provision is inapplicable and inconvenient; be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the said clause as requires the Collector for each year to collect the assessments made for the previous year be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that the Collectors chosen for each year shall be authorised and required to collect the assessments for that year in which they are chosen to serve, any former law to the contrary notwitstanding: Provided always, that the Bond given by the Collectors appointed under the authority of the said recited Act shall be in conformity to, and in accordance with the provisions contained in this clause, any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding. 1-n.

AN ACT to prevent Bodine Corporate, within this Province, from entering upon, and taking possession of the Lands of the Crown, without permission from His Majesty.

[Passed 20th April, 1836]

WHEREAS it is necessary for the preservation of the rights of His Majesty, to prevent by law the entering upon any of His Majesty's Lands in this Province, without his assent, by any Body Corporate, created for the purpose of erecting or making Rail-roads, Canals, or other works of a like description, within the said Province: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That it shall not be lawful for any Body Corporate now created, or hereafter to be created, within this Province, their Servants or Agents, or any of them, at any time or times from and after the passing of this Act, to enter into and upon, have, hold, use or enjoy, for the purposes of such Body Corporate, or for any other purpose, any part or parts of the lands or grounds of or belonging to the King's Majesty, without the license and consent of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for such purposes first had and obtained, signified and had under the hand and seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province for the time being, any thing in any Act of Incorporation of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding. n--1.

AN ACT to repeal and amend certain parts of an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the third, entitled, "An Act to amend an Act for regulating the manner of Licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy conviction of Persons selling Spirituous Liquors without License, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

[Passed 20th April, 1836.]

WHEREAS the Laws now in force inflicting penalties upon persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license, are found by experience to prove ineffectual, by reason of the fine in many cases being unreasonably heavy, and the Justices of the Peace having no discretion in the premises: And whereas it is expedient to amend the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That so much of an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the Thirty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to amend an Act, entitled, 'An Act for regulating the manner of licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy convicting of persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license," as fixes the penalty upon any person or persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any person or persons shall keep an Inn or Public House, for the purpose of vending Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors, or shall vend any Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquor, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a license for such purpose, as by Law required, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay a sum of money, in the discretion of the Justices before whom any such conviction shall be had, Five Pounds, to be levied as by the before recited Act is directed, upon being convicted on the oath of any one credible witness in addition to the Informer, of his, her or their, having offended against the Laws in such case made and provided: Provided always, that no part of the fines which may be levied under the authority of this or any former Act, shall be paid to any Informer, any provision in any former Statute of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that all sums collected as fines, under the authority of this Act, be paid over to the Commissioners of Roads, to be by them laid out in making and repairing the highways.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in default of goods and chattels of the offender or offenders, to satisfy such fine, with the costs of conviction, such offender or offenders shall be forthwith committed to the Common Gaol of the District in which the conviction shall have been had, and the offender is resident, for a period not exceeding three months, nor less than one month, or until the fine and costs be paid.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Township Clerk, of any Township, within three days after the holding of a Township meeting for the Election of Township Officers, to put up a notice in writing at three public places in such Township, one of which to be the place where such meeting was held, containing the names of all such persons as have been chosen to any office in such Township, which shall be sufficient notice to all such as have not been sworn into office at the time of their appointment, to attend and take the oath of office within the time required by law.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several Commissioners for the several Townships shall be entitled to demand and receive from the Treasurer of the District, as a compensation for performing their respective services and duties imposed upon them by the provisions of the Act hereinbefore recited, the sum of five Shillings per day for every day they are necessarily engaged in the said duties and services, the said days to be certified by the Township Clerk, which sum the Treasurer of the District is hereby authorised and required to pay, on demand and production of such certificate, out of the public monies in his hands unappropriated and applicable to the general uses of the District: Provided always, that no Township Commissioner shall be entitled to receive payment for any number of days over three, nor the Town Clerk for any number of days over ten, for the duties and services which he shall or may have performed in any one year under the provisions of the aforesaid Act; and the Commissioners aforesaid shall render an account to the Township Clerks respectively of the amount of monies so received by them for their respective services; which account, together with an account of all monies received by the said Clerk for his services, shall be by him laid before the next Township meeting for inspection, and immediately thereafter the said accounts shall be transmitted by the said Town Clerk to the Treasurer of the District to be laid before the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions.

[Passed 20th April, 1836.]

WHEREAS it is necessary for the preservation of the rights of His Majesty, to prevent by law the entering upon any of His Majesty's Lands in this Province, without his assent, by any Body Corporate, created for the purpose of erecting or making Rail-roads, Canals, or other works of a like description, within the said Province: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That it shall not be lawful for any Body Corporate now created, or hereafter to be created, within this Province, their Servants or Agents, or any of them, at any time or times from and after the passing of this Act, to enter into and upon, have, hold, use or enjoy, for the purposes of such Body Corporate, or for any other purpose, any part or parts of the lands or grounds of or belonging to the King's Majesty, without the license and consent of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for such purposes first had and obtained, signified and had under the hand and seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province for the time being, any thing in any Act of Incorporation of this Province to the contrary notwithstandi. g. n--1.

AN ACT to repeal and amend certain parts of an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the third, entitled. "An Act to amend an Act for regulating the manner of Licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy conviction of Persons selling Spirituous Liquors without License, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

[Passed 20th April, 1836.]

WHEREAS the Laws now in force inflicting penalties upon persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license, are found by experience to prove ineffectual, by reason of the fine in many cases being unreasonably heavy, and the Justices of the Peace having no discretion in the premises: And whereas it is expedient to amend the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty King George the Third, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That so much of an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the Thirty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to amend an Act, entitled, 'An Act for regulating the manner of licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy convicting of persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license," as fixes the penalty upon any person or persons selling Spirituous Liquors without license, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any person or persons shall keep an Inn or Public House, for the purpose of vending Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors, or shall vend any Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquor, unless he, she, or they, shall have previously obtained a license for such purpose, as by Law required, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay a sum of money, in the discretion of the Justices before whom any such conviction shall be had, not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Five Pounds, to be levied as by the before recited Act is directed, upon being convicted on the oath of any one credible witness in addition to the Informer, of his, her or their, having offended against the Laws in such case made and provided: Provided always, that no part of the fines which may be levied under the authority of this or any former Act, shall be paid to any Informer, any provision in any former Statute of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that all sums collected as fines, under the authority of this Act, be paid over to the Commissioners of Roads, to be by them laid out in making and repairing the highways.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in default of goods and chattels of the offender or offenders, to satisfy such fine, with the costs of conviction, such offender or offenders shall be forthwith committed to the Common Gaol of the District in which the conviction shall have been had, and the offender is resident, (or a period not exceeding three months, nor less than one month, or until the fine and costs be paid.

4. And whereas the great increase in the number of licensed Inns and Public Houses in the City of Toronto, and Liberties thereof, and other District Towns, or any other Town or Village containing twenty dwelling-houses, within a distance of one mile, within this Province, tends greatly to the increase of vice and immorality, and does not effect the object desired, namely, the accommodation of the public: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, no certificate shall be granted for a license to keep an Inn or Public House, in the City of Toronto, or Liberties thereof, or any District Town, or any other Town or Village, containing twenty dwelling houses, within a distance of one mile, within any District of this Province, to any person or persons applying for the same, until the person or persons applying therefor have proved to the satisfaction of the authorities authorized by Law to grant the same, that such person or persons is or are possessed of a dwelling-house held from year to year, or for a term of years, containing at least three rooms beyond those required for the use of the family, and that he or they have, at the time of application, at least three good beds in such house, over and above those required for the use of the family, and are also possessed of a good stable capable of stabling at least two pair of horses.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, no license shall be issued to any person or persons within the City of Toronto, and other District Towns and Villages containing twenty dwelling-houses, within a distance of one mile, within this Province, for the sale of Wine, Brandy, Rum, or other Spirituous Liquors, by retail, or for keeping an Inn or Public House, upon the payment of a less sum for such license than the sum of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings, Provincial Currency, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no Brewer resident in the City of Toronto, or Liberties, or within one mile thereof, or any District Town within any District of this Province, shall, after the passing of this Act, sell Beer by retail in a less quantity than three gallons, without first having obtained a license for such purpose, from the Justices by law authorized to issue licenses for the keeping of Ale and Beer Houses, and that every Brewer applying for such license as aforesaid, shall pay such sum of money therefor, not exceeding Two Pounds Ten Shillings, as the Justices granting the same shall think reasonable and just, to be applied, collected, and accounted for in the same manner as the duties payable on Ale and Beer House licenses; and any Brewer hereafter selling any Beer by retail, contrary to this Act, without having obtained such license as aforesaid, shall be subject to the like pains and penalties by Law inflicted upon persons keeping Ale and Beer Houses without license, to be prosecuted and applied according to the provision of an Act passed in the Fourth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, "An Act to restrain the selling of Beer, Ale, Cider, and other Liquors, not Spirituous, in certain Towns and Villages in this Province, and to regulate the manner of licensing Ale-houses within the same."

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all prosecutions and convictions to be had under this or any former Law of this Province, for vending Wine, Rum, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors, or Beer, Ale, Cider, or other Liquors, not Spirituous, without license, shall and may be heard, adjudged and determined, by any two or more Justices of the Peace for the District in which the party or parties complained of shall be resident, or where the offence was committed, any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Inspectors of Licenses in each District of this Province, shall furnish to the respective Clerks of the Peace of his District, and to the Chamberlain of the City of Toronto, on or before the First day of February in each and every year, a list, in writing, of all persons who have taken out licenses in their respective Districts, and in the City of Toronto, either as Inn or Tavern Keepers, or as wholesale Store Keepers, which said Lists shall be published by the said Chamberlain of the City of Toronto, and by the Clerks of the Peace respectively of the several Districts, in at least two Newspapers published in each of the said Districts.

9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be and continue in force for four years from the passing thereof, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament, and no longer. n--1.

2. And whereas the use of Seines and Nets in the said Burlington Bay is found to be destructive to the Fishery, by destroying the spawn deposited on the shallow parts thereof: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall not be lawful, from and after the passing of this Act, at any time to draw any Seine or other Net in the said Bay, except within the distance of half a mile from the Canal, at the outlet thereof.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no person shall at any time set Nets, commonly called Gill Nets, in the waters of Burlington Bay; nor shall any person set any net or other device whatsoever, so as to prevent the free passage of the Fish to and from the said Bay.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall offend against the provisions of this Act, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Ten Shillings, with costs, on conviction before any one or more of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the District of Gore, on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, or in default of payment shall be committed to the Common Gaol of the District for a term not exceeding thirty days nor less than two days, unless the penalty and costs be sooner paid; one half of the said penalty to be paid to the informer or informers, and the other half into the hands of His Majesty's Receiver General, to and for the public uses of this Province; to be accounted for to His Majesty through the Lords Commissioners of His Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct. 1-n
