7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all cases in which, after such plea in abatement, the Plaintiff shall, without having proceeded to trial upon an issue thereon, commence another action against the Defendant or Defendants, in the action in which such plea in abatement shall have been pleaded, and the person or persons named in such plea in abatement as joint contractors, if it shall appear by the pleadings in such subsequent action, or on the evidence at the trial thereof, that all the original Defendants are liable, but that one or more of the persons named in such plea in abatement, or any subsequent plea in abatement, are not liable as a contracting party or parties, the Plaintiff shall, nevertheless, be entitled to Judgment, or to a verdict and Judgment, as the case may be, against the other Defendant or Defendants who shall appear to be liable; and every Defendant who is not so liable, shall have Judgment, and shall be entitled to his costs as against the Plaintiff, who shall be allowed the same as costs in the cause against the Defendant or Defendants, who shall have so pleaded in abatement the non-joinder of such person: Provided, that any such Defendant, who shall have so pleaded in abatement, shall be at liberty on the trial to adduce evidence of the liability of the Defendants named by him in such plea in abatement.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no plea in abatement for misnomer shall be allowed in any personal action, but that in all cases in which a misnomer would, but for this Act, have been by law pleadable in abatement in such actions, the Defendant shall be at liberty to cause the Declaration to be amended, at the costs of the Plaintiff, by inserting the right name, upon a Judge's Summons, founded on an Affidavit of the right name; and in case such Summons shall be discharged, the costs of such application shall be paid by the party applying, if the Judge shall think fit.

9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all actions upon Bills of Exchange, or Promissory Notes, or other written Instruments, any of the parties to which are designated by the initial letter or letters, or some contraction of the Christian, or first name or names, it shall be sufficient in every affidavit to hold to bail, and in the Process or Declaration, to designate such person by the same initial letter or letters, or contraction of the Christian, or first name or names, instead of stating the Christian, or first name or names in full.

10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no wager of Law, shall be hereafter allowed.

11. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That an action of debt on simple contract shall be maintainable in any Court of Common Law, against any Executor or Administrator.

12. And whereas, it is expedient to lessen the expense of the proof of written or printed documents or copies thereof, on the trial of causes: Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province, or the major part of them, as aforesaid, at any time within five years after this Act shall take effect, to make regulations by general rules or orders, from time to time, in Term or in Vacation, touching the voluntary admission, upon an application for that purpose, at a reasonable time before the trial, of one party to the other, of all such written or printed documents, or copies of documents, as are intended to be offered in evidence on the said trial by the party requiring such admission, and touching the inspection thereof before such admission is made, and touching the costs which may be incurred by the proof of such documents or copies on the trial of the cause, in case of the omitting to apply for such admission, or the not producing of such document or copies for the purpose of obtaining admission thereof, or of the refusal to make such admission, as the case may be, and as to the said Judges, or a majority of them, shall seem meet, and all such Rules and Orders shall be binding and obligatory in the said Court, and of the like force as if the provisions therein contained had been expressly enacted by Parliament.

13. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Defendant, in all personal actions, (except actions for Assault and Battery; False Imprisonment; Libel; Slander; Malicious Arrest, or Prosecution; Criminal Conversation, or Debauching of the Plaintiff's Daughter or Servant,) by leave of any Court of Record where such action is pending, or of a Judge thereof, to pay into Court a sum of money by way of compensation or amends, in such manner and under such regulations as to the payment of costs and the form of pleading, as the said Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or a majority of them, as aforesaid, by any Rules or Orders by them to be from time to time made, shall order and direct.

14. And whereas, unnecessary delay and expense is sometimes occasioned, by the trial of local actions in the District where the cause of action has arisen: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in any action depending in the Court of King's Bench, the venue in which is by Law local, the Court or any Judge thereof may, on application of either party, order the issue to be tried, or damages to be assessed, in any other District than that in which the venue is laid, and for that purpose the said Court or a Judge thereof, may order a suggestion to be entered on the Record, that the trial may be more conveniently had, or damages assessed, in the District where the same is ordered to take place.

15. And whereas, great expense is often incurred, and delay or failure of Justice takes place at trials, by reason of variances as to some particular or particulars between the proof and the Record, or setting forth on the Record, on which the trial is had, of contracts, names, and other matters or circumstances, not material to the merits of the case, and by the mis-statement of which the opposite party cannot have been prejudiced, and the same cannot in any case be amended at the trial, except where the variance is between any matter in writing or in print produced in evidence, and the Record: And whereas, it is expedient to allow such amendments as hereinafter mentioned to be made on the trial of the cause: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Court of Record holding plea in Civil Actions, and for any Judge sitting at Nisi Prius, if such Court or Judge shall see fit so to do, to cause the Record, Writ or Document, on which any trial may be pending before any such Court or Judge in any Civil Action, or in any Information in the nature of a Quo Warranto, or proceedings on a Mandamus, when any variance shall appear between the proof and the recital or setting forth on the Record, Writ or Document, in which the trial is proceeding, of any contract, name or other matter, in any particular or particulars, in the Judgment of such Court or Judge not material to the merits of the case, and by which the opposite party cannot have been prejudiced in the conduct of his action, prosecution or defence, to be forthwith amended by some Officer of the Court, or otherwise, both in the part of the pleadings where such variance occurs, and in every other part of the pleadings which it may become necessary to amend, on such terms as to payment of costs to the other party, or postponing the trial to be had before the same or another Jury, or both payment of costs and postponement, as such Court or Judge shall think reasonable; and in case such variance shall be in some particular or particulars in the judgment of such Court or Judge not material to the merits of the case, but such as that the opposite party may have been prejudiced thereby in the conduct of his action, prosecution or defence, then such Court or Judge shall have power to cause the same to be amended, upon payment of costs to the other party, and withdrawing the Record or postponing the trial as aforesaid, as such Court or Judge shall think reasonable; and after any such amendment the trial shall proceed (in case the same shall be proceeded with) in the same manner, in all respects both with regard to the liability of Witnesses to be indicted for perjury and otherwise, as if no such variance had appeared; and in case such trial shall be had at Nisi Prius, the order for the amendment shall be endorsed on the Postea, and returned together with the Record, and thereupon such Papers, Rolls and other Records of the Court from which such Record issued, as it may be necessary to amend, shall be amended accordingly, and the order for amendment shall be entered on the Roll or other Document upon which the trial shall be had: Provided that it shall be lawful for any party who is dissatisfied with the decision of such Judge at Nisi Prius, respecting his allowance of any such amendment, to apply to the Court from which such Record issued, for a new trial upon that ground, and in case any such Court shall think such amendment improper, a new trial shall be granted accordingly, on such terms as the Court shall think fit, or the Court shall make such other order as to them may seem meet.

16. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Court or Judge shall and may, if they or he think fit, in all such cases of variance, instead of causing the Record to be amended as aforesaid, direct the Jury to find the fact or facts according to the evidence, and thereupon such finding shall be stated on such Record, and notwithstanding the finding on the issue joined, the Court from which the Record issued, shall, if they shall think the said variance immaterial to the merits of the case, and the misstatement such as could not have prejudiced the opposite party in the conduct of the action or defence, give judgment according to the very right and justice of the case.

17. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the parties in any action or information after issue joined, by consent and by order of any of the Judges of the Court in which the action is depending, to state the facts of the case, in the form of a special case, for the opinion of the Court, and to agree that a judgment shall be entered for the Plaintiff or Defendant, by Confession or of Nolle Prosequi, immediately after the decision of the case, or otherwise, as the Court may think fit, and judgment shall be entered accordingly.

18. And in order to render the rejection of Witnesses on the ground of interest less frequent, Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Witness shall be objected to as incompetent, on the ground that the verdict or judgment in the action on which it shall be proposed to examine him, would be admissible in evidence for or against him, such Witness shall, nevertheless, be examined, but in that case a verdict or judgment in that action, in favor of the party on whose behalf he shall have been examined, shall not be admissible in evidence for him, or for any one claiming under him, nor shall a verdict or judgment against the party on whose behalf he shall have been examined, be admissible in evidence against him, or any one claiming under him.

19. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the name of every Witness objected to as incompetent, on the ground that such verdict or judgment would be admissible in evidence for or against him shall, at the trial, be endorsed on the Record on which the trial shall be had, together with the name of the party on whose behalf he was examined, by some Officer of the Court, at the request of either party, and shall be afterwards entered on the Record of the Judgment, and such endorsement or entry shall be sufficient evidence that such Witness was examined, in any subsequent proceeding, on which the verdict or judgment shall be offered in evidence.

20. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon all debts or sums certain, payable at a certain time, or otherwise, the Jury on the trial of any issue, or on any assessment of damages, may, if they shall think fit, allow interest to the Creditor, from the time when such debts or sums certain were payable, if such debts or sums be payable by virtue of some written Instrument at a certain time, or if payable otherwise, then from the time when demand of payment shall have been made in writing, so as such demand shall give notice to the Debtor, that interest will be claimed from the date of such demand until the time of payment: Provided that interest shall be payable in all cases in which it is now payable by Law, or in which it has been usual for a Jury to allow interest.

21. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Jury on the trial of any issue, or on any inquisition of damages, may, if they shall think fit, give interest in the nature of damages over and above the value of the goods at the time of the conversion or seizure, in all actions of Trover, or Trespass de bonis asportatis, and over and above the money recoverable in all actions on Policies of Assurance, made after the passing of this Act.

22. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall sue out any Writ of Error or Appeal, upon any judgment whatsoever, given in any Court in any action personal, and the Court of Error or Appeal shall give judgment for the Defendant in error, then interest shall be allowed by the Court of Error or Appeal, for such time as execution has been delayed by such Writ of Error or Appeal, for the delaying thereof.

23. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in every action brought by any Executor or Administrator, in right of the Testator or Intestate, after the time this Act shall go into effect, such Executor or Administrator shall, unless the Court in which such action is brought, or a Judge thereof, shall otherwise order, be liable to pay costs to the defendant, in case of being non-suited, or a verdict passing against the plaintiff, and in all other cases in which he would be liable if the plaintiff were suing in his own right upon a cause of action accruing to himself, and the defendant shall have judgment for such costs, and they shall be recovered in like manner.

24. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where several persons shall be made defendants in any personal action, and any one or more of them shall have a nolle prosequi entered as to him or them, or upon the trial of such action shall have a verdict pass for him or them, every such person shall have judgment for and recover his reasonable costs, unless in the case of a trial the Judge before whom such cause shall be tried shall certify upon the record, under his hand, that there was a reasonable cause for making such person a defendant in such action.

25. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where any nolle prosequi shall have been entered upon any count, or as to part of any declaration, the defendant shall be entitled to and have judgment for his reasonable costs in that behalf.

26. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all Writs of Scire Facias, the Plaintiff obtaining judgment on an award of execution, shall recover his costs of suit upon a judgment by default, as well as upon a judgment after plea pleaded, or demurrer joined; and that where judgment shall be given either for or against a Plaintiff or Defendant, or for or against a Defendant or tenant, upon any demurrer joined in any action whatever, the party in whose favor such judgment shall be given, shall also have judgment to recover his costs in that behalf.

27. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Executors or Administrators of any Lessor or Landlord, to destrain upon the lands demised for any term, for at will, for the arrearages of rent due to such Lessor or Landlord in his lifetime, in like manner as such Lessor or Landlord might have done in his lifetime.

28. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That such arrearages may be distrained for after the end or determination of such term, or lease at will, in the same manner as if such term or lease had not been ended or determined: Provided, that such distress be made within the space of six calendar months after the determination of such term or lease, and during the continuance of the possession of the tenant from whom such arrears became due: Provided also, that all and every the powers and provisions in the several Statutes made relating to distresses for rent, shall be applicable to the distresses so made, as aforesaid.

29. And whereas, it is expedient to render references to Arbitration more effectual: Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the power and authority of any Arbitrator or Umpire appointed by, or in pursuance of any rule of Court, or Judges order, or order of Nisi Prius, in any action now brought, or which shall be hereafter brought, or by or in pursuance of any submission to reference, containing an agreement that such submission shall be made a rule of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, shall not be revocable by any party to such reference, without the leave of the Court by which such rule or order shall be made, or which shall be mentioned in such submission, or by leave of a Judge; and the Arbitrator or Umpire shall and may, and is hereby required to proceed with the reference notwithstanding any such revocation, and to make an award, although the person making such revocation shall not afterwards attend the reference, and that the Court or any Judge thereof may, from time to time, enlarge the term for any such Arbitrator making his award.

30. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any reference shall have been made by any such rule or order as aforesaid, or by any submission containing such agreement as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court by which such rule or order shall be made, or which shall be mentioned in such agreement, or for any Judge, by rule or order to be made for that purpose, to command the attendance and examination of any person to be named, or the production of any documents to be mentioned in such rule or order, and the disobedience of any such rule or order shall be deemed a contempt of Court, if, in addition to the service of such rule or order, an appointment of the time and place of attendance in obedience thereto, signed by one at least of the Arbitrators, or by the Umpire, before whom the attendance is required, shall also be served, either together with or after the service of such rule or order: Provided always, that every person whose attendance shall be so required, shall be entitled to the like conduct money and payment of expenses, and for loss of time, as for and upon attendance at any trial: Provided also, that the application made to such Court or Judge for such rule or order, shall set forth the place where such Witness is residing at the time: Provided also, that no person shall be compelled to produce, under any such rule or order, any writing or other document that he would not be compelled to produce at a trial, or to attend at more than two consecutive days, to be named in such order.

31. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when in any rule or order of reference, or in any submission to arbitration, containing an agreement that the submission shall be made a rule of Court, it shall be ordered or agreed that the Witnesses upon such reference shall be examined upon oath, it shall be lawful for the Arbitrator or Umpire, or for any one Arbitrator, and he or they are hereby authorised and required to administer an Oath to such Witnesses, or take their Affirmation in cases where Affirmation is allowed by Law, instead of an Oath; and if upon such Oath or Affirmation any person making the same shall wilfully and corruptly give any false evidence, every person so offending shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of perjury, and may be prosecuted and punished accordingly.

32. And whereas, in cases where Writs of Execution have been issued into several Districts, upon which Writs property real or personal, may have been seized or advertised, which property has afterwards not been sold, on account of satisfaction having been otherwise obtained, or from some other cause, it has been doubted whether a claim to poundage may not be advanced by the Sheriff of each of such Districts, respectively, although no money has been actually levied by them under such Writ: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That where upon any Writ of Execution sued out against the Estate, real or personal, of the Defendant or Defendants, no money shall be actually levied, no poundage shall be allowed to the Sheriff; but he shall be allowed his Fees for the services which may be actually rendered by him, and it shall be in the power of the Court from whence such Execution shall have issued, or for any Judge thereof, in Vacation, to allow a reasonable charge to the Sheriff for any service rendered, in respect to such Execution, for which no specific fee or allowance may be assigned in the Table of Costs.

33. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall not be necessary after the time this Act shall take effect, to sue out Process of Execution into that District in which the venue in any action shall be laid, for the sole purpose of warranting the suing out Process of Execution into any other District, nor need any Writ of Execution be a Testatum Writ, merely because of its being directed to the Sheriff of any other District than that in which the venue may be laid, but it shall be lawful to sue out Execution into any District of this Province, without regard to the venue having been laid in any other District: Provided always, that where it is now necessary to sue out Process of Execution against the person, into any particular District, in order to charge Bail, the same shall still continue to be necessary, notwithstanding any thing contained in this Act.

34. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Statute shall commence and take effect on the first day of June next, after the passing thereof.

PROCLAMATION.

James FitzGibbon, Reg'r. Court of Probate.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

Whereas Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834: that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such properties may exist, liable to damage or injury.

Now, therefore, these are to cite and require you the said next of kin, to be and appear in the said Court of Probate, to be held in the City of Toronto, in the said Province, on the last Monday in September, next ensuing the date hereof, then and there to shew cause, if any you have, why Letters of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Samuel Sawyers, at the time of his death, should not be granted to the said Antony Manahan.

As a Private Boarding House.

THE newly built and commodious Three Story Brick House, situated in the most central part of the City of Toronto, at the Corner of King and Bay Streets.

Every attention has been paid in the construction of the Building, to make it in all respects convenient for a PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE, an establishment which is much required in the City.

The Dining, Drawing, and Sitting Rooms, on the first floor, are spacious—finished in the best style, and fitted up with Dumb Waiter from the Kitchen, Butler's Pantry, Sideboard Recesses, Centres for Lamps, with neat Cornices, and Folding Doors.

The Sitting and Bed Rooms, on the second and third Stories, are so arranged that Families can be accommodated, or separate apartments provided.

The basement Story contains a large Kitchen, with Servants' Room, besides five roomy apartments for dwelling, with private stairs leading to the upper Stories; the Attic is well fitted up for extra Bed Rooms, when required—the Out-buildings connected by Covered Galleries from the first and second Stories.

A good Well, Stable, and Coach-house, with sufficient Yard room.

The Building being on the principal business Street in the City, and at about equal distances from the Market, Steamboat Landings, Post Office, Banks, and Churches, &c. to the East; and from the Government House, Public Offices, and Parliament Buildings, &c. to the West, (all within a few minutes walk,) renders it a very convenient situation for a Private Boarding House.

Court of Probate, Upper Canada, City of Toronto, to wit: By His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, K. C. H. Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, and Judge of the Court of Probate therein, &c. &c. &c.

James FitzGibbon, Reg't. Court of Probate.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

WHEREAS Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834: that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed, that to answer the

...eeds of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyer, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such property as may exist, liable to damage or injury.

Now, therefore, these are to cite and require you the said next of kin, to be and appear in the said Court of Probate, to be held in the City of Toronto, in the said Province, on the last Monday in the October next ensuing (the date hereof), then and there to shew cause, if any you have, why Letters of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Samuel Sawyer, at the time of his death, should not be granted to the said Anthony Manahan.

Dated at the City of Toronto aforesaid, in the Province aforesaid, this Twenty-ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

GREETING:

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, entitled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to and for the uses of this Province, the like Duties on Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province from the United States of America, as are now paid on Goods and Merchandize imported from Great Britain and other places," it is amongst other things enacted, "That for the better collecting the said Duties, the Ports of Cornwall, Johnstown, Newcastle, York, Kingston, Niagara, Queenston, Fort Erie Passage, Turkey Point, Amherstburgh, and Sandwich, shall be, and are thereby declared to be Ports of Entry and Clearance for all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province, (not being Goods entirely prohibited) and for the payment of all Duties liable to be paid on all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province as aforesaid." And whereas, by a certain Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the sixth year of the reign of our late Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, entitled, "An Act to regulate the trade of the British Possessions abroad," it is amongst other things enacted, "That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of any of the said Possessions respectively, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof for the time being, if any Executive Council be there established, from time to time to diminish or increase, by Proclamation, the number of Ports or Places of Entry which are, or hereafter may be appointed in such Province, for the Entry of Goods brought or imported as aforesaid." And whereas it appears expedient, for the avoiding expense in the collection of our Revenue, that the said Port of Johnstown should no longer be a Port of Entry and Clearance. NOW KNOW YE, that by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of our Province of Upper Canada, We have thought fit to declare, and DO HEREBY DECLARE, that from and after the date of this our Proclamation, the said Port of Johnstown shall cease to be a Port of Entry and Clearance for the purposes aforesaid, and shall be and remain as if the same had never been made and created a Port of Entry and Clearance by the aforesaid Act passed in the forty-first year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed.—Witness, our trusty and well-beloved SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, K. C. H., &c., &c. &c. Lieutenant-Governor of our said Province, at Toronto, this eleventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the seventh year of our Reign.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

WHEREAS Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834; that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed, that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such propertyas may exist, liable to damage or injury.

Now, therefore, these are to cite and require you the said next of kin, to be and appear in the said Court of Probate, to be held in the City of Toronto, in the said Province, on the last Monday in September, next ensuing the date hereof, then and there to shew cause, if any you have, why Letters of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Samuel Sawyers, at the time of his death, should not be granted to the said Anthony Manahan.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

To all to whom these Presents shall come—

GREETING:

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, entitled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to and for the uses of this Province, the like Duties on Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province from the United States of America, as are now paid on Goods and Merchandize imported from Great Britain and other places," it is amongst other things enacted, "That for the better collecting the said Duties, the Ports of Cornwall, Johnstown, Newcastle, York, Kingston, Niagara, Queenston, Fort Erie Passage, Turkey Point, Amherstburgh, and Sandwich, shall be, and are thereby declared to be Ports of Entry and Clearance for all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province, (not being Goods entirely prohibited) and for the payment of all Duties liable to be paid on all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province as aforesaid." And whereas, by a certain Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the sixth year of the reign of our late Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, entitled, "An Act to regulate the trade of the British Possessions abroad," it is amongst other things enacted, "That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of any of the said Possessions respectively, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof for the time being, if any Executive Council be there established, from time to time to diminish or increase, by Proclamation, the number of Ports or Places of Entry which are, or hereafter may be appointed in such Province, for the Entry of Goods brought or imported as aforesaid." Court of Probate, Upper Canada, City of Toronto, to wit: } By His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, K. C. H. Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, and Judge of the Court of Probate therein, &c. &c. &c.

James FitzGibbon, Reg'r. Court of Probate. To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

Whereas Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834: that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such properties may exist, liable to damage or injury.

Now, therefore, these are to cite and require you the said next of kin, to be and appear in the said Court of Probate, to be held in the City of Toronto, in the said Province, on the last Monday in September, next ensuing the date hereof, then and there to shew cause, if any you have, why Letters of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Samuel Sawyers, at the time of his death, should not be granted to the said Anthony Manahan.

Dated at the City of Toronto aforesaid, in the Province aforesaid, this Twenty-ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

UPPER CANADA.

F. B. HEAD.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

To all to whom these Presents shall come—

GREETING:

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, entitled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to and for the uses of this Province, the like Duties on Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province from the United States of America, as are now paid on Goods and Merchandize imported from Great Britain and other places," it is amongst other things enacted, "That for the better collecting the said Duties, the Ports of Cornwall, Johnstown, Newcastle, York, Kingston, Niagara, Queenston, Fort Erie Passage, Turkey Point, Amherstburgh, and Sandwich, shall be, and are thereby declared to be Ports of Entry and Clearance for all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province, (not being Goods entirely prohibited) and for the payment of all Duties liable to be paid on all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province as aforesaid." And whereas, by a certain Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the sixth year of the reign of our late Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, entitled, "An Act to regulate the trade of the British Possessions abroad," it is amongst other things enacted, "That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of any of the said Possessions respectively, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof for the time being, if any Executive Council be there established, from time to time to diminish or increase, by Proclamation, the number of Ports or Places of Entry which are, or hereafter may be appointed in such Province, for the Entry of Goods brought or imported as aforesaid." And whereas it appears expedient, for the avoiding expense in the collection of our Revenue, that the said Port of Johnstown should no longer be a Port of Entry and Clearance. NOW KNOW YE, that by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of our Province of Upper Canada, We have thought fit to declare, and DO HEREBY DECLARE, that from and after the date of this our Proclamation, the said Port of Johnstown shall cease to be a Port of Entry and Clearance for the purposes aforesaid, and shall be and remain as if the same had never been made and created a Port of Entry and Clearance by the aforesaid Act passed in the forty-first year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed.—Witness, our trusty and well-beloved SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, K. UPPER CANADA.

F. B. HEAD.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

To all to whom these Presents shall come—

GREETING:

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, entitled, "An Act for granting to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to and for the uses of this Province, the like Duties on Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province from the United States of America, as are now paid on Goods and Merchandize imported from Great Britain and other places," it is amongst other things enacted, "That for the better collecting the said Duties, the Ports of Cornwall, Johnstown, Newcastle, York, Kingston, Niagara, Queenston, Fort Erie Passage, Turkey Point, Amherstburgh, and Sandwich, shall be, and are thereby declared to be Ports of Entry and Clearance for all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province, (not being Goods entirely prohibited) and for the payment of all Duties liable to be paid on all Goods and Merchandize brought into this Province as aforesaid." And whereas, by a certain Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the sixth year of the reign of our late Sovereign Lord George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British Possessions abroad," it is amongst other things enacted, "That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of any of the said Possessions respectively, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof for the time being, if any Executive Council be there established, from time to time to diminish or increase, by Proclamation, the number of Ports or Places of Entry which are, or hereafter may be appointed in such Province, for the Entry of Goods brought or imported as aforesaid." And whereas it appears expedient, for the avoiding expense in the collection of our Revenue, that the said Port of Johnstown should no longer be a Port of Entry and Clearance. NOW KNOW YE, that by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of our Province of Upper Canada, We have thought fit to declare, and DO HEREBY DECLARE, that from and after the date of this our Proclamation, the said Port of Johnstown shall cease to be a Port of Entry and Clearance for the purposes aforesaid, and shall be and remain as if the same had never been made and created a Port of Entry and Clearance by the aforesaid Act passed in the forty-first year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed.—Witness, our trusty and well-beloved SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, K. MONDAY, 19th JUNE, 1837.

This day, at four o'clock, HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR proceeded in State to the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER, and being seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent to direct the attendance of the COMMONS HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY at the Bar of that Honorable House, who being come thereto—

The Honorable the SPEAKER of the Legislative Council, by His Excellency's commands, acquainted the Gentlemen of the House of Assembly, that since the last Session of the Legislature, the Honorable Archibald MacLean, being one of the Members for the County of Stormont, and also Speaker of the House of Assembly, had been appointed a Judge of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province; and had accepted the Office of Register of the County of Dundas, and that his seat in the Assembly being in consequence vacated by a Provincial Statute, the appointment of another Speaker was rendered necessary. That it was, therefore, His Excellency's pleasure, that the Assembly do forthwith return to their Chamber, and there choose a fit and proper person to be their Speaker, and that they should present the person so chosen to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, at Two of the clock to-morrow, for his approbation. The Members of the Assembly then withdrew.

TUESDAY, 20th JUNE, 1837.

The House of Assembly being again assembled at the Bar of the Honorable the Legislative Council, ALLAN NAPIER MACNAB, Esquire, informed HIS EXCELLENCY that the House of Assembly had chosen him for their SPEAKER, and claimed the privileges of that Office.

HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR was pleased to approve of the choice of the House of Assembly, and then addressed both Houses of the Provincial Parliament in the following:—

SPEECH:

Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council: and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

In the name of our most GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN I have summoned this extraordinary Session of the Legislature, because I have deemed it constitutional that you should respectively be called upon to share with me in the consideration of the commercial difficulties which have assailed this Province, and having been embarrassed by circumstances which it has been impossible for me to avert, it is with satisfaction that I see again assembled before me those upon whose Legislative wisdom and experience I am proud to be entitled to rely.

The unprecedented event which has caused the convention of the Legislature of this Province, is, the Banks of the neighbouring Republican States having determined, simultaneously, to refuse to redeem the Notes they had promised to pay on demand; the reason given to the public creditor being, that it had become contrary to the interest of the community for the Banks to part with the Specie which was in their vaults.

The Notes in the hands of the public having been thus suddenly deprived of their value, the Specie in circulation, as well as that immured in the Bank's vaults, immediately rose in value, and when the intelligence of this event arrived here, it instantly became necessary for the Banks of Upper Canada to deliberate whether they would continue or suspend their Cash payments.

They determined to persist in the former course, and although it was anticipated that their coffers would be immediately exhausted, yet such has been the confidence which the Province has reposed in their probity and solvency, that the Notes of these Banks have, contrary to expectation retained their value, and in the exchanges which are hourly effected throughout the Province, they and Specie are still at par.

From the period at which the Upper Canada Banks determined to stand to their engagements up to the present day, I have not received from any one of them the slightest expression of regret at the course which they have pursued, or of apprehension respecting its results; on the contrary, from reports which have been forwarded to me by the Chartered Banks, it appears that the aggregate amount of Specie at present in their vaults, is about two-thirds of the sum they possessed at the beginning of May.

From various quarters however, it has been submitted to me by persons of considerable information—1st. That if the present circumstances should continue, the Banks of this Province must inevitably be drained of their Specie; and 2nd. That the wisdom of the Legislature, if it were convened, might possibly enact some law by which this calamity could be averted.

It is in compliance with this opinion and suggestion, that (at an unusual season, and so shortly after the close of an arduous and most useful Session) the Provincial Parliament has been again assembled.

As I have reason to feel confidence in your judgment—as I have no theory to advocate—no desire to influence your deliberations—and no object in view except to co-operate with you in measures conducive to the real interests of the Province, I have but few observations to offer to you.

In case you should on deliberation be of opinion that no reaction is likely to take place in the neighbouring Republic,—that the Banks of Upper Canada must inevitably be drained of their Specie—and that for the foregoing reasons the Chartered Banks, ought, under certain stipulations, to be empowered by the Legislature to continue their business without the necessity of redeeming their Notes by cash, (notwithstanding that clause in their Charters which now forbids them to do so) you will I feel confident weigh fairly the advantages as well as the disadvantages which the public would experience by the Banks suspending payment with their coffers full instead of empty.

It has been clearly explained to me that by suspending payment with their coffers full, the Banks would be saved the expense of replenishing their vaults whenever the moment should arrive for the resumption of their cash payments.

At the present rate of Exchange this expense would amount to a certain per centage, and as the quantum of Specie which would be required is also very nearly a known quantity, you will be enabled from these data to estimate with considerable accuracy the amount or saving which the Banks would gain by at once stopping payment with their coffers full.

On the other hand you will I feel confident weigh with equal fairness what the Province would lose by its Banks breaking faith with the Public Creditor, on the ground of a supposed necessity, or from a fear of expense and inconvenience—I mean by the Legislature making in the existing Laws any alteration which would have the effect of declaring to the holders of Bank Notes and of Government Debentures, that Upper Canada faithfully pays its Debts on demand, so long only as it is the interest of the Inhabitants of the Province to do so.

You will I am sure not exclude from your consideration what effect, if any, a declaration of this nature would have on the minds of the British People, whose wealth we confess to them we are in want of, and whose confidence it is our interest to maintain.

When the advantages and disadvantages—the profit as well as the loss attendant on a suspension of payment by the Banks, with their coffers full instead of empty, shall have been calmly investigated by you, I feel confident that you will arrive at a just conclusion, and I trust I need not add that it is my earnest desire to meet you at this point.

I am not disposed to pursue an intricate policy—the opinions I entertain scarcely require an explanation.

I consider that to this young rising Province, character is of more intrinsic value than the cost of obtaining Specie for its Banks; for however attractive may be the soil and healthy the climate, which we here enjoy, yet, in order to obtain capital, credit and population, from the Mother Country, it is necessary we should clearly demonstrate that in Upper Canada life and property are secure—that Justice is inflexibly administered—that engagements are scrupulously fulfilled, and that a storm of Commercial adversity, or of popular clamour, is but a signal to the Legislature to rally round this Throne, which dignified by the protection of our Gracious Sovereign, stands here, the safeguard and defender of the Public Creditor.

By plain integrity of conduct the British Empire has amassed its wealth, and I feel confident that the people of Upper Canada, with this example before their minds, will perceive that it is not only their duty but their interest to adhere to that simple principle in the Religion as well as in the Commercial policy of our Ancestors, which nobly commands us "to be true and just in all our dealings."
