Every attention has been paid in the construction of the Building, to make it in all respects convenient for a PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE, an establishment which is much required in the City.

The Dining, Drawing, and Sitting Rooms, on the first floor, are spacious—finished in the best style, and fitted up with Dumb Waiter from the Kitchen, Butler's Pantry, Sideboard Recesses, Centres for Lamps, with neat Cornices, and Folding Doors.

The Sitting and Bed Rooms, on the second and third Stories, are so arranged that Families can be accommodated, or separate apartments provided.

TO LET,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS,

As a Private BOARDING HOUSE.

THE newly built and commodious THREE STORY BRICK HOUSE, situated in the most central part of the City of Toronto, at the Corner of King and Bay Streets.

Every attention has been paid in the construction of the Building, to make it in all respects convenient for a PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE, an establishment which is much required in the City.

The Dining, Drawing, and Sitting Rooms, on the first floor, are spacious—finished in the best style, and fitted up with Dumb Waiter from the Kitchen, Butler's Pantry, Sideboard Recesses, Centres for Lamps, with neat Cornices, and Folding Doors.

The Sitting and Bed Rooms, on the second and third Stories, are so arranged that Families can be accommodated, or separate apartments provided.

The basement Story contains a large Kitchen, with Servants' Room, besides fine roomy apartments for dwelling, with private stairs leading to the upper Stories; the Attic is well fitted up for extra Bed Rooms, when required—the Out-buildings connected by Covered Galleries from the first and second Stories.

A good Well, Stable, and Coach-house, with sufficient Yard room.

The Building being on the principal business Street in the City, and at about equal distances from the Market, Steamboat Landings, Post Office, Banks, and Churches, &c. to the East; and from the Government House, Public Offices, and Parliament Buildings, &c. to the West, (all within a few minutes walk,) renders it a very convenient situation for a Private Boarding House.

Any person qualified to conduct such an establishment in a respectable manner, and desirous of renting the premises, would be treated with on liberal terms.

By Authority.

From the Upper Canada Gazette, Extra, of the 9th November.

TUESDAY, 8th NOVEMBER, 1836.

This day, at three o'clock, HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR proceeded in State to the Legislative Council Chamber, and being seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent to direct the attendance of the COMMONS HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY at the Bar of that Honorable House, who being come thereto—

The Honorable the SPEAKER of the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL said, it was HIS EXCELLENCY'S command that they should repair to their usual place of sitting, and there choose a fit person to be their Speaker; and that the person so chosen be presented for HIS EXCELLENCY'S approbation on the following day. The House then withdrew.

WEDNESDAY, 9th NOVEMBER, 1836.

The House of Assembly being again assembled at the Bar of the Honorable the Legislative Council, ARCHIBALD McLEAN, Esquire, informed HIS EXCELLENCY that the House of Assembly had chosen him for their SPEAKER, and claimed the usual privileges.

HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR was pleased to approve of the choice of the House of Assembly, and then addressed both Houses of the Provincial Parliament in the following

SPEECH:

Honourable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and,

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

With great satisfaction I congratulate you on the loyal feeling which pervades this Province, and on the stillness and serenity of the public mind.

The auspicious tranquillity of the country offers you advantages, which the Legislature of Upper Canada has long been unhappily deprived of, and I gladly avail myself of the opportunity, to bring before your grave consideration some of those subjects, which the country has now reason to expect will be met by its Legislature, with a firm determination to bring them to a final settlement.

The most important of these, is the long disputed question of the Clergy Reserves.

I invite your serious attention to this subject, in the full confidence that by moderation and sound discretion, you will overcome the obstacles that have hitherto attended its discussion.

The beneficent intentions of His Majesty in granting a charter of incorporation to the University of King's College, have hitherto been productive of no useful result.

In calling your attention to this fact, I trust that the Province will shortly be indebted to your deliberations, for possessing within itself, the means of bestowing upon youth, the inestimable blessings of a refined and liberal education.

The disposal of the School Lands, and the promotion of general education, are so intimately connected with the future destinies of this Colony, that I feel confident they will suggest themselves to your early consideration.

The term which intervenes between the Courts of Oyer and Terminer in this Province—the consequent crowded state of the Gaols—as well as the length of imprisonment suffered by persons charged with crime, are evils which I deeply lament, and I trust you will determine whether by an increase to the present number of Judges, they would not be effectually removed.

Having been made aware that cases of neglected misery and distress have long existed within the Province, from the want of some place of public refuge for those of our fellow creatures, to whom, in His Divine Providence, the Almighty, by depriving them of reason, has given peculiar claims upon our care, I feel satisfied that the necessity of establishing a Provincial Asylum for Lunatics, need only be suggested, to receive your benevolent consideration.

I feel it my duty to rally our attention, to the advantages which would be derived from opening communications, by which the agricultural produce of this Province might readily be brought to a market.

Among various improvements of this nature, a great Western Rail-road will no doubt claim your favorable notice, as being of infinite benefit to this Province, as well as promoting our friendly intercourse with the neighbouring States.

I also recommend to your consideration, an immediate inquiry into the state of the Welland Canal.

I regret to say, that under existing circumstances it may not be deemed advisable to commence negociations with the adjoining Province for the improvement of the navigation of the Ottawa, but I recommend to your consideration the propriety of causing a survey and accurate estimate to be made, of the expense of connecting by the waters of that noble River, Lake Huron with the Ocean.

Having during the recess of the Legislature given considerable attention to the neglected state of the Roads throughout the Province, I beg you to consider whether some efficient system might not be devised, for placing them under a superintendence, to be held responsible, that the Statute Labour as well as the large sums of money annually voted for their repair, should be scientifically, economically, and impartially expended.

I have to inform you that for the purpose of encouraging Immigration, I have recommended to His Majesty's Government that such portions of the Military Reserves as are not required for defence, should, as early as possible, be offered to the public. I also hope to be authorised to adopt a quicker more convenient and more beneficial system, in the Land Granting Department; and I am happy to add, that I have concluded negociations by which I have obtained from the Indians very extensive tracts of rich land, which from feelings highly creditable to their race, they have cheerfully relinquished for the public good.

As the Constitution of Upper Canada secures to British Emigrants their own revered Institutions—as this noble climate and luxuriant soil offer them immediate independence and support, with a moral insurance that their land, whether it be cultivated well or ill, must in a few years unavoidably increase in value to a great extent—we may reasonably expect that the redundant enterprise, capital, and population of the Empire, will now flow towards this favored Province, in which I conscientiously believe British Capital to be as secure, as it is in the Mother Country.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I trust you will take immediate measures for relieving the Government of this Province from the embarassment it has laboured under, and is still suffering, from the Supplies for the Public Service having been withheld.

I shall direct the Public Accounts, together with estimates for the sums required for the support of the Civil Government, for the current and ensuing years, to be laid before you.

Honourable Gentlemen; and,
Gentlemen:

I feel confident that the distinguished and conspicuous station which the people of Upper Canada have attained in the estimation, not only of the Empire, but of the civilized world, will, throughout the Session we this day commence, be firmly upheld, by the dignity of your deliberations—by the wisdom of your proceedings—by the purity of your Legislation, and by your unceasing zeal for the public good.

As regards the duties of my station in the Legislature, it is my intention so long as they may graciously be confided to me, to occupy myself to the best of my ability, in the internal improvement of the Country—in the impartial administration of Justice—and in maintaining, unsullied, the commercial integrity of the Province.

The constant obedience which the British Constitution demands for its sacred Institutions, educates and dignifies the public mind—the moral discipline of their passions, organizes the power of the people, and eventually implants in the national character, justice, mercy, generosity and forbearance.

It has long been asserted, that these British sentiments which would vegetate in the deserts of Arabia, are uncongenial to the soil of America; but the voice of Upper Canada has repudiated this libel on the land—and both reason and truth are now daily demonstrating that the safest description of Self-Government, the securest mode of protecting life property and liberty, is that honorable submission, and virtuous obedience to the laws, which the three branches of the Legislature, as well as the people of this Province, I trust, will ever continue to be proud to acknowledge.

The Legislature of Upper Canada is not imbued with power to alter the Constitution imparted to it by an Act of the Imperial Parliament. I therefore shortly after my arrival here publicly declared, that if the inhabitants of the whole Province were simultaneously to petition me to alter a single letter of that solemn Act, I had neither power nor inclination to do so.

Grateful for the manly support which the expression of this sentiment has procured for me, I feel it my duty again unequivocally to assure you of my determination, to carry into effect His Majesty's Instructions, and thus "to maintain the happy Constitution of this Province INVIOLATE."

To His Excellency SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, Knight Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Council of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, return our most respectful thanks, for Your Excellency's Speech from the Throne at the opening of the present Session.

We rejoice most cordially with Your Excellency, in the loyal feeling which pervades this Province, and in the return of that tranquillity which is so essential to the public prosperity.

This auspicious change, we attribute chiefly to the firmness and decision with which Your Excellency has avowed your determination to support the Constitution of the Province, animating with confidence those who justly revere the institutions of their native land—and discouraging any, who under the specious pretext of Reform, may have been insidiously labouring to effect changes in our Government and Laws, to which the majority of the people are from reason and duty wholly opposed.

The tranquillity so happily restored to us, will afford an opportunity for the Legislature to discuss calmly and dispassionately, those subjects which the country has now reason to expect will be the objects of their earnest and deliberate attention: and we beg to assure Your Excellency, of our anxious desire to co-operate with the other branches of the Legislature, in effecting a just, liberal, and permanent settlement of the several important questions to which Your Excellency has been pleased to refer.

The provision which has been made by Law for the religious instruction of the people, will again occupy our serious attention; and we sincerely trust, that the difficulties which have hitherto attended its discussion, may at length be overcome—and that with the sanction of the Imperial Parliament, some measure may be matured, which will happily set at rest, a subject of an engrossing and paramount interest to the inhabitants of Upper Canada.

We feel deeply the injury this Province has sustained, from the circumstances which have hitherto frustrated the gracious intentions of His late Majesty, in granting a charter of incorporation to the University of King's College; and we shall be happy to concur with the other branches of the Legislature, in rendering the institution effectual for bestowing on the youth of the Province, the inestimable blessings of a refined and liberal education. The proper disposal of the School Lands, and the promotion of general education, are matters so intimately connected with the best interests of this Colony, that we shall feel it our duty to bestow on them our most attentive consideration.

The convenient and satisfactory administration of justice, and particularly in the criminal department, is an object of such general interest, that we trust, if any measures are necessary for enabling the Government to provide for more frequent deliveries of the Gaols in the several Districts, such measures will no longer be delayed. The long period which so often intervenes between the apprehension and trial of a prisoner, is productive of much hardship and inconvenience, and in the present advanced state of this Colony, we can see no sufficient reason for suffering the evil to continue.

We doubt not, that cases of neglected misery from the cause Your Excellency has alluded to, have long existed in this Province; and we concur with Your Excellency in thinking, that humanity now calls loudly for the institution of some place of Refuge for such of our Fellow-Creatures as are affected by the loss of their reason. We should have much pleasure in uniting with the other branches of the Legislature, in lightening so far as may be done by human means, the pressure of calamity so distressing.

Our attention shall be studiously given to any suggestions which may be offered relative to the opening communications by which the Agricultural produce of this Province may be more readily brought to market, and among the various improvements of this nature, a great Western Rail Road, will no doubt, claim our early consideration, as an undertaking of the first importance to this country, and tending to promote that friendly intercourse with the neighbouring States, which it should be our desire to cultivate.

The state of the Welland Canal, and the most expedient means of rendering it secure and useful to the public, shall engage our serious attention; and we trust it may be found practicable to adopt some decisive measure, for the future management and care of that important work.

We participate in the regret, that under existing circumstances, it should not be deemed advisable to commence negotiations with the adjoining Province for the improvement of the navigation of the Ottawa—but this temporary difficulty, we trust, will not be suffered to deter the Legislature, from causing a survey and accurate estimates to be made, of the expense of connecting Lake Huron with the Ocean, by the waters of that noble River.

We have been a long time aware, that the system sanctioned by the Road Laws, has been inadequate to the wants and expectations of the public, that a loose, irresponsible, and forbearing execution of those laws, has hitherto prevailed, and that some efficient means ought to be devised, for placing the highways under such superintendence as shall involve responsibility, in order that the Statute labour, as well as the large sums of money annually voted, shall be scientifically, economically, and impartially applied.

We thank Your Excellency for informing us, that you have recommended to His Majesty's Government that such portions of the Military Reserves, as are not required for defence, should, as early as possible, be offered to the public, as a means of encouraging immigration; and that Your Excellency hopes to be authorised to adopt a more convenient and beneficial system in the Land Granting Department.

We beg also to congratulate Your Excellency on the conclusion of negotiations, by which very extensive tracts of rich land have been obtained from the Indians, which, from feelings highly creditable to their race, they have cheerfully relinquished for the public good.

It is with much satisfaction that we receive the assurance of Your Excellency's conviction, of the advantages which this Province presents to such of our fellow-subjects, as desire to emigrate from the United Kingdom; and as Your Excellency's judgment must undoubtedly have been formed without prejudice from local interests, we cannot but anticipate great benefit to the Colony, from the open and decided declaration of Your Excellency's opinion, in regard to those advantages, and in particular, as it respects the security presented for the investment of capital.

While Your Excellency has thus pledged the responsibility of your high station, in order to disabuse the public mind of impressions prejudicial to the character and interests of this Province, we should be inexcusably wanting in a sense of the duty imposed upon us by the Constitution, if we failed, on our part, to promote, with sincerity and zeal, whatever measures may seem best calculated, to uphold the reputation and advance the welfare of this very valuable possession of the British Crown.

That Your Excellency will continue to be occupied in the most earnest endeavours, to discharge with advantage to the Colony, the high powers committed to you by our Sovereign, we can entertain no doubt, and in the present stage of advancement at which the Province has arrived, we are persuaded that too much stress cannot be laid upon the necessity which Your Excellency has adverted to, of supporting, unsullied, its commercial integrity.

Amidst the efforts which have been industriously used to unsettle institutions, wisely framed and approved by the experience of ages, it is gratifying to every friend of order and good government, to observe the resolution with which Your Excellency has determined to abide by the principles of our Constitutional Charter; and the character of the people of Upper Canada must be raised in the estimation of their Sovereign, and of the supporters of rational liberty in all countries, when it is seen that the open and unhesitating avowal of Your Excellency's determination, has called forth that ardent and manly support which Your Excellency has been pleased to acknowledge.

JOHN B. ROBINSON,
SPEAKER.

Legislative Council Chamber,
Fourteenth day of November, 1836.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S REPLY:

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL:

I have great pleasure in thanking you for the loyal Address I have just received from you, and for the satisfactory assurances it contains.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly beg leave to thank Your Excellency for your gracious Speech from the Throne at the opening of the present Parliament, and to assure Your Excellency that we view with sincere gratification the present tranquillity of the Province, and will most readily embrace the opportunity afforded to give due consideration to those subjects especially, which the welfare of the country requires should be finally settled.

We will devote our serious attention to the important question of the Clergy Reserves, and endeavour, by every means in our power, to overcome the obstacles which have hitherto prevented its final and satisfactory adjustment.

We regret that no useful result has hitherto attended the beneficent intentions of His Majesty in granting a Charter of Incorporation to the University of King's College, and we cordially concur in the hope expressed by Your Excellency, that the Province will shortly possess within itself the means of bestowing upon youth, the inestimable benefits of a refined and liberal education.

Deeply sensible of the importance of promoting general education, we will not fail to give the subject our early consideration, and by a judicious disposal of the School Lands, and the adoption of other efficient measures, will endeavour to secure to the inhabitants of this Province this invaluable advantage.

We are fully aware of the evils and inconveniences resulting from the long period which intervenes between the Courts of Oyer and Terminer in this Province, and will carefully consider Your Excellency's recommendation on the subject of increasing the number of Judges.

We will not fail to give every attention to the suggestion of Your Excellency, on the subject of establishing a Provincial Asylum for Lunatics, and will endeavour to alleviate the misery of those unhappy and friendless individuals, who, deprived of reason, and without protection, are suffering from the want of some place of public refuge.

We are fully sensible of the advantages to be derived from opening communications by which the agricultural produce of this Province might be readily brought to market, and will give our most favourable consideration to the construction of a great western Rail-road, or to such other internal improvements, as will both benefit the Province and promote a friendly intercourse with the neighboring States.

We will not fail to institute an immediate and careful inquiry into the state of the Welland Canal, with a view to ascertain how that important work may be rendered most available for the great objects for which it was commenced, and which it is calculated to effect.

We concur with Your Excellency in the expression of regret that there are existing circumstances to prevent the immediate commencement of negotiations with the adjoining Province, for the improvement of the navigation of the Ottawa; but in the sincere hope that any such difficulties may speedily be removed, we will devote our attention to the recommendation of Your Excellency, as to the propriety of causing a survey and accurate estimate to be made of the expense of connecting Lake Huron with the Ocean.

We will devote that attention to the adoption of an effectual system for the maintenance and repair of the public highways in this Province, which the important bearing of the subject on the interests and prosperity of the community demands.

Alive to the advantages resulting from the immigration of our fellow subjects from Great Britain and Ireland, and their settlement among us, we are happy to learn that Your Excellency has recommended measures to His Majesty's Government calculated to give encouragement to it, and sincerely hope that no time will be lost in the adoption of an improved system in the Land-Granting Department.

As the Constitution of Upper Canada happily secures to British Emigrants their own revered and cherished institutions—as this noble climate and luxuriant soil offer them immediate independence and support, with a moral assurance that their land must in a few years unavoidably increase in value to a great extent—we reasonably hope, and will earnestly endeavour, to attract the redundant enterprise, capital and population of the Empire, by setting before them these solid advantages in the most prominent and conspicuous manner; and it is but natural for us to expect that capital and industry will now flow towards this favored Province, in which we agree with Your Excellency in the conviction that such capital is fully as secure as in the Mother Country. And while happy to learn that extensive tracts of rich land have been obtained from the Indians, (whose liberal motives and feelings in the cession we fully appreciate)—we cannot refrain from expressing our anxious wish that these lands may be thrown open to settlement, upon terms of the most favourable nature for those who desire to become residents upon them.

We will give our prompt and careful attention as well to the public accounts as to the estimates of the sums required for the necessary support of the public service, as soon as the same are laid before us, and will not fail to take into our immediate consideration measures for relieving the Government of this Province from the embarrassment it has labored under, and is still suffering, from the supplies for the public service having been withheld.

We most sincerely hope that the important trust reposed in us by our constituents will be discharged in a manner calculated to raise the Province in the estimation of the British Empire, and to secure to it those advantages which we have hitherto derived from its fostering care and protection.

The principles of our Constitution, in the maintenance of which consists the safeguard of our lives, liberties and property, are identical with those of the Constitution of the Mother Country, and if maintained in their purity, cannot fail to produce peace, prosperity, and good government.

We are fully satisfied that the people of this Province desire nothing more ardently than to see those principles supported, and the connexion with the British Empire sustained, and we therefore cordially respond to Your Excellency's determination to maintain this, our happy Constitution, inviolate. Protected from external danger by the overshadowing power of the Mother Country, and free to pursue any measures calculated to promote our internal welfare and improvement—we feel that there is a course before us leading to the most auspicious results, and that the time has arrived, when, preserving our character as a loyal British Province, our institutions may be settled on a firm basis—our resources developed—all well-founded causes of complaint removed—and peace and prosperity secured for us and our posterity.

ARCHIBALD McLEAN,
SPEAKER.

Every attention has been paid to the construction of the Building, to make it in all respects convenient for a PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE, an establishment which is much required in the City.

The Dining, Drawing, and Sitting Rooms, on the first floor, are spacious—finished in the best style, and fitted up with Dumb Waiter from the Kitchen, Butler's Pantry, Sideboard Recesses, Centres for Lamps, with neat Cornices, and Folding Doors.

The Sitting and Bed Rooms, on the second and third Stories, are so arranged that Families can be accommodated, or separate apartments provided.

TO LET,
FOR A TERM OF YEARS,
As a Private BOARDING HOUSE.

THE newly built and commodious THREE STORY BRICK HOUSE, situated in the most central part of the City of Toronto, at the Corner of King and Bay Streets.

Every attention has been paid in the construction of the Building, to make it in all respects convenient for a PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE, an establishment which is much required in the City.

The Dining, Drawing, and Sitting Rooms, on the first floor, are spacious—finished in the best style, and fitted up with Dumb Waiter from the Kitchen, Butler's Pantry, Sideboard Recesses, Centres for Lamps, with neat Cornices, and Folding Doors.

The Sitting and Bed Rooms, on the second and third Stories, are so arranged that Families can be accommodated, or separate apartments provided.

The basement Story contains a large Kitchen, with Servants' Room, besides five roomy apartments for dwelling, with private stairs leading to the upper Stories; the Attic is well fitted up for extra Bed Rooms, when required—the Out-buildings connected by Covered Galleries from the first and second Stories.

A good Well, Stable, and Coach-house, with sufficient Yard room.

The Building being on the principal business Streets in the City, and at about equal distances from the Market, Steamboat Landings, Post Office, Banks, and Churches, &c. to the East; and from the Government House, Public Offices, and Parliament Buildings, &c. to the West, (all within a few minutes walk,) renders it a very convenient situation for a Private Boarding House.

Any person qualified to conduct such an establishment in a respectable manner, and desirous of renting the premises, would be treated with on liberal terms.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

WHEREAS Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834: that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed, that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such properties may exist, liable to damage or injury.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

WHEREAS Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834: that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed, that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such properties may exist, liable to damage or injury.

Now, therefore, these are to cite and require you the said next of kin, to be and appear in the said Court of Probate, to be held in the City of Toronto, in the said Province, on the last Monday in September, next ensuing the date hereof, then and there to shew cause, if any you have, why Letters of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Samuel Sawyers, at the time of his death, should not be granted to the said Anthony Manahan.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

WHEREAS Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834: that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed, that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such property as may exist, liable to damage or injury.

TORONTO, SATURDAY MARCH 4, 1837.

This day at three o'clock HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR proceeded in State from the Government House, to the Chamber of the HONORABLE the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, where being arrived, and seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a message from HIS EXCELLENCY to the HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, commanding their attendance.—The Members present being come up accordingly, HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to Prorogue the Session of the Legislature with the following,

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

IN closing this eventful Session, I feel it my duty to acknowledge the patient and unremitting attention you have bestowed on the various subjects which have so successfully claimed your consideration.

The important law improvements which you have introduced will give stability to the commercial character of this Province; for society becomes licentious and property insecure, the moment the national passion for acquiring wealth is permitted to outstrip the legislative judgment necessary for securing it: or in other words, so soon as the will of the people becomes stronger than the power of the law; but with satisfaction I observe, you have wisely guarded against the occurrence of this evil.

By the appointment of two additional Judges to the Court of King's Bench, the outer Districts will receive the advantage of a second Circuit, while the extension of the jurisdiction of the Courts of Quarter Sessions, will tend to prevent those long and demoralizing imprisonments which have hitherto preceded the trial of the parties accused.

The establishment of a Court of Equity, will give immediate relief to a numerous class of cases which have hitherto lingered without remedy in law. Titles honestly acquired, but defective from accident or mistake, will now be secured. Frauds beyond the reach of Courts of Common Law, will now be overtaken. Infants and lunatics will henceforward be protected in their persons and estates.

Second only in importance to securing in Upper Canada a prompt and perfect administration of justice, are those amendments in the Charter of King's College, by which, on very liberal principles, you have established this Capital as the principal seat of learning in British North America. This long disputed subject being finally settled, the munificent endowment of our Sovereign will, in addition to other important advantages, now provide a constant supply of teachers, qualified to diffuse over the remote parts of the Province the inestimable blessings of education.

The next of the measures of this Session, to which I deem it proper particularly to advert, are those which relate to the internal Improvement of the Province, such as the completion of that noble undertaking, the Welland Canal—the formation of a great Western, and also of a

Northern Rail-road—the opening of the Navigation of the Trent—the Survey of the Ottawa—the general Improvement of the Roads, (a portion of which are to be Macadamized,)—and various grants for the formation of Harbours.

I trust that during the approaching recess your influence will individually be exerted in carrying these operations into effect, with the strictest possible economy.

In consequence of the arrangement you lately submitted to me, having felt myself authorised to order the payment of the whole of the War Losses, with pleasure I announce, that this question, which has been upwards of twenty years under discussion, is now adjusted.

The important alterations you have recommended in the Land-Granting Department will, I am confident, produce a feeling of general satisfaction throughout the Province, and I shall exert the new authority proposed to be invested in me (to grant land to actual Settlers on terms more advantageous than the market price, and consequently contrary to your own private interests,) solely for the encouragement of Emigration;—indeed, I believe that your labours during this Session will materially promote that desirable object; for British Capital is ever ready to flow spontaneously to the Colony whose laws appear most capable to protect it, while the best description of our Emigrants are equally eager to direct their enterprising steps to any spot where, (as in Upper Canada) in real independence, they can enjoy British sentiments—religious and moral education for their children—a healthy climate, and rich land.

The reasons which have made it necessary for me to reserve the various Bills granting Corporate Banking Powers, have been already fully communicated to you. I shall lose no time in submitting these measures for the consideration of His Majesty's Government, and have no doubt they will promptly receive the attention which is due to their importance.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I thank you for the promptitude with which you relieved the King's Government from the embarrassment it had been labouring under, in consequence of the Supplies for the Public Service having been withheld, and I also acknowledge the liberality with which you have granted the Supplies for the current year.

The numerous appointments and the Commissionerships for the expenditure of the Public Money which you have entrusted to my selection, shall be made without favor or partiality.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

I have not failed to observe the harmony and mutual good feeling which have prevailed between the two branches of the Legislature to which you respectively belong, and I trust that in the various Districts of this Province to which you are about to repair, you will endeavour, by every means in your power, to encourage those feelings of loyalty and unanimity which have distinguished your own deliberations during a Session, the result of which will, I believe, be gratifying to your Sovereign—advantageous to your Country, and conducive to the general prosperity of the Empire.

TORONTO, SATURDAY MARCH 4, 1837.

This day at three o'clock, His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor proceeded in State from the Government House, to the Chamber of the Honorable the Legislative Council, where being arrived, and seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a message from His Excellency to the House of Assembly, commanding their attendance.—The Members present being come up accordingly, His Excellency was pleased to Prorogue the Session of the Legislature with the following,

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

In closing this eventful Session, I feel it my duty to acknowledge the patient and unremitting attention you have bestowed on the various subjects which have so successfully claimed your consideration.

The important law improvements which you have introduced will give stability to the commercial character of this Province; for society becomes licentious and property insecure, the moment the national passion for acquiring wealth is permitted to outstrip the legislative judgment necessary for securing it: or in other words, so soon as the will of the people becomes stronger than the power of the law; but with satisfaction I observe, you have wisely guarded against the occurrence of this evil.

By the appointment of two additional Judges to the Court of King's Bench, the outer Districts will receive the advantage of a second Circuit, while the extension of the jurisdiction of the Courts of Quarter Sessions, will tend to prevent those long and demoralizing imprisonments which have hitherto preceded the trial of the parties accused.

The establishment of a Court of Equity, will give immediate relief to a numerous class of cases which have hitherto lingered without remedy in law. Titles honestly acquired, but defective from accident or mistake, will now be secured. Frauds beyond the reach of Courts of Common Law, will now be overtaken. Infants and Lunatics will henceforward be protected in their persons and estates.

WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

To all to whom these Presents shall come—

GREETING:

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that it would greatly facilitate and promote the ends of commerce, and the welfare and prosperity of our loving Subjects, if the Mouth of the River Trent, in our Province of Upper Canada, were declared a Port of Entry and Clearance. THEREFORE KNOW YE, that by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of our said Province, and in pursuance of the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, in the Sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to regulate the Trade of the British Possessions abroad:" We have thought fit to appoint, and do hereby appoint, the Mouth of the River Trent aforesaid to be a Port of Entry and Clearance, by the name of "TRENT PORT," for the entry of goods brought or imported into this Province from any adjoining foreign Country. And We do hereby further declare, that the said Port shall include within its limits Lot lettered A, with the broken lot in front thereof, in the Township of Sidney, in the Midland District: and Lots Numbers One, Two and Three, in the First Concession, together with Lots Nos. C. H. &c. &c. &c. at Toronto, this fourth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the seventh year of our Reign.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery, and of Assize and Nisi Prius, will be held at Toronto, in and for the Home District, on Tuesday the 28th day of March next, of which all Coroners, Magistrates, Gaolers, Constables, and other Peace Officers, are requested to take notice.

By order of the Court,

AN ACT authorising the renewal of the Leases, and the granting of new Leases, for the ground situate between the Market-House and Church-street, King-street and Market-street, commonly called the Market Block, upon the conditions, and upon the restrictions therein specified.

[Passed March 2, 1837.]

WHEREAS, to increase the prosperity of the City of Toronto and its Revenues, to secure the public buildings from accidents by fire, to promote public improvement, to encourage the outlay of capital and the extension of commerce within the said City—it is expedient to offer new Leases for the land west of the Market Buildings, commonly known as The Market Block, to the present Lessees, or their Assigns, and to authorise the Mayor of the City to receive surrenders of the present leases.

Be it therefore enacted, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, of the City of Toronto, in Common Council assembled, as follows:—

1st. That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Mayor of the said City, to receive surrenders from the Lessees, or their Assigns, of any Lease or Leases now held for Lands in the said Market Block; to make or receive proposals for renewing any former Lease, or granting any new Lease or Leases, for the Lands so surrendered; to sign all Bonds, Deeds or Contracts, relative to the same; to grant new Leases therefor, and to affix the Seal of the City thereto: subject nevertheless, to the conditions and restrictions hereinafter prescribed, or hereafter to be prescribed by any future Act, Rule or Regulation, of the Common Council.

2nd. That no renewal of any Lease, nor any new Lease shall be granted, under this Act, until the party desiring the same shall have made application in writing therefor, to the Clerk of the Common Council—such application to be laid by the said Clerk before the Mayor;—nor until the person desiring such renewal or new Lease shall have executed a Bond, with two sufficient Sureties, to the City of Toronto, in a penalty to be determined by the Mayor and Chairman of the Finance Committee, for the due performance of the covenants in the Leases so to be granted: Provided also, that no application for a renewal of a Lease, or a new Lease, shall be received, until all arrearages of Rent shall be paid up.

3rd. That all Leases to be granted or renewed under this Act, shall contain one or more covenants on the part of the Lessee, or his Assigns, for the erection, within one year from the date of the same, of such Dwelling-houses, Out-houses, and other improvements, to be constructed according to the Plans adopted and approved of by the Common Council, and also a proviso of forfeiture in case of a breach of such covenants as aforesaid.

4th. That all Leases under this Act shall be for a term of forty-two years next after the expiration of the Leases now held.

5th. That the following shall be the rates per annum at which the said Leases shall be renewed or granted, that is to say: for Lots Nos. 1 and 16, on King-street, 30s. per foot frontage of 27 feet; for Lots Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15, on King-street, £1 per foot frontage; for Lots Nos. 1, 2, 3, 6, 7 and 8, on Church-street, 15s. per foot frontage; for Lots Nos. 4 and 5, on Church-street, £1 2s. 6d. per foot frontage; for Lot No. 1, in Front-street, £1 5s. per foot frontage; for Lots Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7, on Front-street, 15s. per foot frontage; for Lots Nos. 8, 9, 10, and 11, on Front-street, 11s. 3d. per foot frontage; for Lot No. 12, in Front-street, 17s. 6d. per foot frontage; for Lots Nos. 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, and 8, on the Street fronting the west Market wall, 12s. 6d. per foot frontage; for Lots 4 and 5, on the same street, 17s. 6d. per foot frontage; and for all the Lots on both sides of the Market Lane, 7s. 6d. per foot frontage.

6th. That the Mayor, together with the Standing Committee on Finance and Assessment for the said City, for the time being, shall have power and authority to treat with any person or persons for the purchase of the unexpired term of any Lease or Leases now in existence for any Lot or Lots, or any portion of any Lot or Lots, of which the present Lessee or Lessees, or their Assigns, may be desirous of selling, in order the earlier to carry into effect the improvements contemplated by this Act.

7th. That all Leases or renewals of Leases under this Act, shall be for the Lots on the plan and survey thereof, and adopted by the Council, laid out in the said Market Block, or for such portions as may be held by the Lessees or their Assigns now in legal possession.

8th. That any person or persons now in the legal occupation of more than one Lot, or of any part of a Lot, as laid out as aforesaid, shall nevertheless be compelled, upon receiving a new Lease under this Act, to comply with such regulations, for the erection of Buildings upon the said Lot or Lots, or part of any Lot respectively, as the Common Council may have adopted, for such Lot or Lots, or part of any Lot.

9th. That in all the new Leases or renewals of Leases to be granted under the authority of this Act, shall be contained a reservation of the Lanes, as specified upon the plan adopted by the Council, and that no Building shall be erected on such Lanes, except such as may be for the purpose of Stores, Ware-houses and Offices, connected with Mercantile business, or with any Trade or Manufacture carried on in the buildings erected in the front of the Lots.

10th. That at the expiration of any new Lease for any premises granted under the authority of this Act, upon which Buildings have been erected pursuant to the plans adopted by the Common Council, it shall be in the option of the Common Council for the time being, to grant a new Lease for a further term of years of such premises for which the Lease has expired, upon such rents and terms as the said Common Council shall deem meet and proper: Provided always, that in case the Council shall not deem it expedient to grant such new Lease for a term of years, the City of Toronto shall pay to the Lessee at the time of the expiration of the old Lease, legally entitled to the premises, the value of the Buildings erected thereon, which value shall be ascertained by three indifferent persons or Arbitrators, to be chosen as follows:—one to be chosen by the Mayor for the time being; one other to be chosen by the Lessee; and the third to be chosen by the two Arbitrators, who shall award and determine the value of the buildings in question, at the time of Arbitration; and the amount determined upon by them shall be paid by the Chamberlain to the Lessee, or his order, within six calendar months from the making of such award as aforesaid: Provided also, that such Lessee shall not be compelled to give up possession of his premises until he shall be paid in full such award.

Provided always, That the prices and terms by this Act affixed to the said Lots shall be and remain open for one year only from the passing thereof, when the same may be altered.

WHEREAS it is inconsistent, with a due regard to the protection of Commerce, and to the welfare and security of the inhabitants of this Province, that any individual, or any number of persons, should be allowed, without Legislative authority, to issue bills, notes, or other undertakings for the payment of money intended to form a circulating medium, and to supply the place of specie, whereby great public injury may be sustained from the quantity of such bills, notes, or other undertakings which may be issued by persons of doubtful solvency, and not subject to those checks which it is thought necessary to impose in regard to Banks chartered by the Legislature: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province"—and by the authority of the same, That after the passing of this Act, (except in the cases hereinafter mentioned) it shall not be lawful for any person in this Province, or for any number of persons, either associated without Legislative authority or incorporated for any other purpose than Banking, to make or issue any bill, note, or undertaking of any description, or in any form, in the nature of a Bank bill or note, and intended to pass as money; and that if any bill, note or undertaking, shall be issued or put in circulation contrary to this Act, such bill, note or undertaking, shall be void; and any mortgage, or other deed bond, note, bill, or other security which may be taken for securing any loan or advance made in such bills, notes or undertakings, shall be absolutely null and void.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person, after the passing of this Act, shall act as President, Director, Cashier, or other Officer of any association of persons acting in violation of this Act, such person shall, on conviction thereof before any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person, after the first day of July next after the passing of this Act, shall knowingly utter, or tender in payment or in exchange, any bill or note in the nature of a bank note, which shall not have been issued by some person or association of persons, or body corporate, legally authorised to issue such bill or note within this Province, or within the Country in which such note or bill shall have first issued, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to be punished as before provided for other persons offending against the provisions of this Act.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the prohibitions contained in this Act shall not apply to, the Bank of British North America, the Farmers Joint Stock Banking Company, the Agricultural Bank, or to the Bank of the People, or to the Niagara Suspension Bridge Bank: Provided the Directors of the said last-mentioned Bank are Subjects of His Majesty, and residing within the Province, being Stockholders or Co-partners in the said Company, and that the associations or companies of persons who have heretofore issued bills or notes under the names aforesaid respectively, shall have the same and no other rights and privileges, and be subject to the same liabilities as before the passing of this Act.

AN ACT to amend the Laws now in force regulating the sale of Lands for arrear of Taxes, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to afford to the proprietors of land sold to pay assessments in arrear, as much protection as may be consistent with the carrying fully into effect the laws in that behalf: And whereas, experience has shewn that the provisions hereinafter contained are necessary for that purpose: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, notwithstanding any thing contained in any former law to the contrary, all sales of land for the payment of assessments, in whatever township of any District the same may be situated, shall take place in the town in which the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace shall be holden for such District, on the second day of the sitting of the said Court, and at or near the Court House of the said District, and that every sale shall be advertised accordingly.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That at every such sale the land shall be put up at an upset price of two shillings and sixpence per acre; and only so much of the lands shall be exposed to sale as will, at such a price, produce the amount to be levied, leaving the quantity of land to be reduced by bidding in the manner now provided by law, according as bidders may appear, who will, for a less quantity of land, pay the amount required; and in case no bidder shall be found who will accept the quantity of land exposed to sale at its valuation, then the Sheriff of the District shall, without any new writ, expose so much of the land for sale under the provisions of the law now in force, as if this Act had not been passed, as may be necessary for making the amount he is directed to levy, together with lawful interest thereon, from the time the same became due, at the next Court of General Quarter Sessions, which shall occur after the expiration of the six months notice required by law.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no Treasurer, Sheriff, or Clerk of the Peace, nor any Deputy of any such Officer, shall directly or indirectly purchase any of the lands hereafter to be sold within the District in which he is serving, for payment of assessments in arrears, upon pain of forfeiture of office upon conviction, by indictment, before a Court of Over and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery; and any purchase made contrary to this provision shall be wholly and absolutely void.

4. And to the end that ready means of reference may be afforded at some one public office, where information respecting all the lands sold for payment of assessments throughout the Province, may be acquired within the period for redemption: Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the several Sheriffs in this Province shall, within one month after each sale of land by him made for the payment of assessments, make out a general return of the lots or parcels of land by him sold: the time of sale: the amount for which the same was sold: and the name of the purchaser thereof, and transmit the same to the Secretary and Registrar of this Province, who shall permit the same to be inspected by any person applying for that purpose.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in all future sales of land for arrear of taxes, it shall be lawful for the Sheriff, or other officer whose duty it is to offer the same, at his option to put up and adjudge to the purchaser of any part of a lot liable to be sold for such arrears, such part of the said lot as he may, in his discretion, think best for the interest of the proprietor, any thing in any Act of the Parliament of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding.

[Passed March 2, 1837.]

That in all the new Leases or renewals of Leases to be granted under the authority of this Act, shall be contained a reservation of the Lanes, as specified upon the plan adopted by the Council, and that no Building shall be erected on such Lanes, except such as may be for the purpose of Stores, Ware-houses and Offices, connected with Mercantile business, or with any Trade or Manufacture carried on in the buildings erected in the front of the Lots.

10th. That at the expiration of any new Lease for any premises granted under the authority of this Act, upon which Buildings have been erected pursuant to the plans adopted by the Common Council, it shall be in the option of the Common Council for the time being, to grant a new Lease for a further term of years of such premises for which the Lease has expired, upon such rents and terms as the said Common Council shall deem meet and proper: Provided always, that in case the Council shall not deem it expedient to grant such new Lease for a term of years, the City of Toronto shall pay to the Lessee at the time of the expiration of the old Lease, legally entitled to the premises, the value of the Buildings erected thereon, which value shall be ascertained by three indifferent persons or Arbitrators, to be chosen as follows:—one to be chosen by the Mayor for the time being; one other to be chosen by the Lessee; and the third to be chosen by the two Arbitrators, who shall award and determine the value of the buildings in question, at the time of Arbitration; and the amount determined upon by them shall be paid by the Chamberlain to the Lessee, or his order, within six calendar months from the making of such award as aforesaid: Provided also, that such Lessee shall not be compelled to give up possession of his premises until he shall be paid in full such award.

Provided always, That the prices and terms by this Act affixed to the said Lots shall be and remain open for one year only from the passing thereof, when the same may be altered.

JAMES FITZGIBBON, Reg'r. Court of Probate.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

WHEREAS Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834; that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such properties may exist, liable to damage or injury.

Now, therefore, these are to cite and require you the said next of kin, to be and appear in the said Court of Probate, to be held in the City of Toronto, in the said Province, on the last Monday in September, next ensuing the date hereof, then and there to shew cause, if any you have, why Letters of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Samuel Sawyers, at the time of his death, should not be granted to the said Anthony Manahan.

Dated at the City of Toronto aforesaid, in the Province aforesaid, this Twenty-ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

By Authority.

AN ACT to increase the present number of the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province; to alter the terms for the sitting of the said Court; and for other purposes therein mentioned.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS an addition to the number of Judges of the Court of King's Bench in this Province has become indispensible from the great increase of the population, the formation of new Districts, and the necessity of providing for the more frequent delivery of the Gaols: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That notwithstanding any thing contained in a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to establish a Superior Court of Civil and Criminal Jurisdiction, and to regulate the Court of Appeal;" His Majesty's Court of King's Bench for the Province of Upper Canada shall consist of the Chief Justice of the said Province, and of four Puisne Judges, andthat the two additional Puisne Judges, to be appointed by His Majesty under the authority of this Act, shall hold their offices during their good behaviour, and subject to the same conditions as the present Judges of the said Court.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, shall, as soon as it may be convenient after the passing of this Act, appoint two fit and proper persons to be Judges of the said Court, to hold the said office until His Majesty's pleasure shall be made known.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and out of the rates and duties now levied and collected, or which hereafter may be raised, levied and collected, and remaining in the hands of the Receiver General, there be granted to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the sum of Two Thousand Pounds annually, to provide for the payment of the Salaries of the said two additional Judges, the Salary of each to be One Thousand Pounds.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, from time to time to issue his Warrant, or Warrants, to the Receiver General of this Province for the said sums of money by this Act granted, half yearly; and the said Receiver General shall account to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the same, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after such appointments shall be made, the Puisne Judges of the said Court shall sit by rotation in each term, or otherwise as they shall agree among themselves, so that no greater number than three of such Puisne Judges shall sit at the same time in Banc for the transaction of business in Term, unless in the absence of the Chief Justice; and that it shall be lawful for any one of the said Judges, when occasion shall require, while the other Judges of the said Courts are sitting in Banc, to sit apart from them for the business of adding and justifying Special Bail; discharging Insolvent Debtors; administering oaths; hearing and deciding upon matters on motion, and making rules and orders in causes, and business depending in the Court, in the same manner and with the same force and validity as may be done by the Court sitting in Banc.

6. And whereas it is necessary to make a new arrangement of the Terms of sitting of the Court of King's Bench, in order to admit more conveniently of two Circuits in each year, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to remove certain doubts with respect to the commencement of the Terms of Michaelmas in the last year, and of Hilary in this present year, and to appoint the periods of holding the several Law Terms," and of a certain other Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, entitled, "An Act respecting the time and place of sitting of the Court of King's Bench," as appoints the terms of sitting of the said Court, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed: Provided, that such repeal shall not take effect until after the termination of next Easter Term, which shall commence and be holden at the same time, and in the same manner, as if this Act had not been passed.

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the termination of next Easter Term, the times of sitting of the said Court of King's Bench shall be as follows, that is to say: Trinity Term shall begin on the second Monday in June, and end on the Saturday of the following week:—Michaelmas Term shall begin on the first Monday in August, and end on Saturday of the following week:—Hilary Term shall begin on the first Monday in December, and end on Saturday of the following week:—and Easter Term shall begin on the first Monday in February, and end on the Saturday of the following week.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the twenty-seventh clause of an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to repeal part of and amend the laws now in force respecting the practice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province," shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and that after the end of Trinity Term next as appointed by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, to issue yearly and every year, in the vacation between Easter and Trinity Terms, and also in the vacation between Michaelmas and Hilary Terms, such Commissions of Assize and Nisi Prius into the several Districts, as may be necessary for the purpose of trying all issues joined in the said Court, in any suit or action, which according to the practise of the Court ought to be tried in such Districts respectively, and that in like manner Commissions of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery, shall be issued into the several Districts of this Province twice in the year, within the periods aforesaid: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be in the power of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, to issue a special Commission or Special Commissions for the trial of one or more offender or offenders, upon extraordinary occasions, when he shall deem it requisite or expedient that such Commission should issue: And provided also, that nothing contained in this Act shall render it necessary to hold any Court in any new District of this Province, lately organized or hereafter to be organized, at an earlier period than is or may be provided in the Act erecting such new District.

9. And whereas, it may happen that from some unforeseen casualty it may be impracticable to open a Court of Assize and Nisi Prius, or of Oyer and Terminer, or General Gaol Delivery, on the very day appointed in the Commission or Precept for the opening of the same, and it would be attended with great public inconvenience if such Court could, on that account, not be opened until Juries were again summoned, and a new day appointed for holding such Court, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever from illness of the Judge, or from unavoidable detention at the last Assize Town, or from other casualty, it may happen that the Judge appointed to hold any Court of Assize and Nisi Prius, Oyer and Terminer, or General Gaol Delivery, shall not arrive in time, or shall not be able to open such Court on the day appointed for that purpose, it shall and may be lawful for the Sheriff of the District in which such Court should be holden, or in his absence for his Deputy, after the hour of eight of the clock in the afternoon of such day, to adjourn, by proclamation, all and every the Courts which shall be appointed to be opened on that day, to an hour on the following day to be by him named, and so from day to day until the Judge shall arrive to open such Court or Courts, or until he shall receive other direction from the Judge in that behalf.

10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and out of the said rates and duties there be granted to His said Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a sufficient sum annually, to enable His Majesty to pay to the Judges of Assize and Nisi Prius, Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery, the sum of twenty-five pounds for each time that they shall hold any such Court or Courts in any District of this Province, except the Home District, for the purpose of defraying their travelling expenses; and also a sum sufficient to enable His Majesty to pay the Clerks of Assize their usual and accustomed fees for the duties performed by them as Officers of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery; and also to pay the Sheriff of the Home District the sum of eleven shillings and eightpence per day for attending the terms of the Court of King's Bench at the Seat of Government. 45

AN ACT to abolish the distinction between Grand and Petit Larceny, and to enable the Courts of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to try all cases of Simple Larceny, under certain restrictions, and to amend the Law respecting the punishment of Larceny.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to abolish the distinction between Grand and Petit Larceny, and to allow the Courts of Quarter Sessions of the Peace to entertain jurisdiction in cases of Simple Larceny, under certain restrictions, by which means persons charged with Larceny will be more speedily brought to trial: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That the distinction between Grand Larceny and Petit Larceny shall be abolished; and every Larceny, whatever may be the value of the property stolen, shall be deemed to be of the same nature, and shall be subject to the same incidents, in all respects, as Grand Larceny was before the passing of this Act.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Courts of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in the several Districts of this Province, shall have power to try every case of Simple Larceny, and also to try all accessories to such Larceny: Provided always, that unless the Justice presiding in any such Court shall be a Barrister duly admitted to practice at the Bar of this Province, then it shall not be lawful for such Court to try any case of Larceny, when the Goods charged to have been stolen shall exceed in value the sum of twenty pounds.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no Court whose jurisdiction in cases of Larceny is extended by this Act, shall have power to sentence a person convicted of Larceny to be transported for any period; or to be banished for a longer period than seven years; or to be imprisoned in a Common Gaol for a longer period than eight months; or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in any Penitentiary or House of Correction, for a longer period than two years.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Court having jurisdiction in cases of Larceny, if they shall think fit, to sentence any person convicted thereof to be banished from the Province for any number of years not exceeding seven, to commence from the expiration of the term for which the same person may, upon the same conviction, be sentenced to be imprisoned in the Common Gaol, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour in a Penitentiary or House of Correction.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, it shall not be necessary for any Court of Quarter Sessions to deliver the Gaol of all Prisoners who may be confined upon charges of Simple Larceny, but it shall be in the discretion of such Court to leave such case to be tried at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery, if by reason of the difficulty or importance of the case, or for any cause, it shall appear to them proper so to do.

6. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That if upon the trial of any case of Larceny, in which the value of the goods stolen shall be stated in the Indictment, at a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, it shall appear in evidence that the value of such goods was in reality greater than twenty pounds; such trial may nevertheless proceed, and no legal exception to the jurisdiction of the Court shall lie on that account; but the provision of this Act, restraining such Court to cases where the value of the goods shall not exceed twenty pounds, shall be deemed, and taken merely to be a direction to such Court, but shall not be construed to affect their legal jurisdiction.

AN ACT to amend the Law respecting Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS the present construction of law in regard to Bills of Exchange accepted, payable at a particular place, and Promissory Notes made payable at a particular place, leads to much inconvenience and expense, by rendering it necessary to produce evidence of presentment at such place, and sometimes subjecting the Plaintiff to be non-suited for failure of proof thereof: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of June now next ensuing, if any person shall accept a Bill of Exchange payable at a Bank, or at any other particular place, without further expression in his acceptance; or if any person shall after that day make a Promissory Note, payable at a Bank, or at any other particular place, without further expression in that respect, such acceptance shall be deemed and taken to be, to all intents and purposes, a general acceptance, and such promise shall be deemed and taken to be a promise to pay generally; but if the acceptor shall in his acceptance express that he accepts the bill payable at a Bank, or at any other particular place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, or if the maker of a Promissory Note, shall in the body of the note express that he promises to pay at a Bank, or at any other particular place only, and not otherwise or elsewhere, then such acceptance or promise shall be deemed and taken to be respecticeiy, a qualified acceptance or promise; and the acceptor or maker shall not be liable to pay the bill or note, except in default of payment, when such payment shall have been first duly demanded at such Bank or other place.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first day of June, no acceptance of any inland Bill of Exchange shall be sufficient to charge any person, unless such acceptance be in writing on such bill, or if there be more than one part to such bill, on one of the said parts.

3. And whereas, by law, all contracts and assurances whatsoever for payment of money made for an usurious consideration are utterly void: And whereas, in the course of mercantile transactions, negociable securities often pass into the hands of persons who have discounted the same, without any knowledge of the original considerations for which the same were given, and the avoidance of such securities in the hands of such bona fide endorsers, without notice, is attended with great hardship and injustice: for remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note that shall be drawn or made after the passing of this Act shall, though it may have been given for an usurious consideration, or upon an usurious contract, be void in the hands of an endorsee, or in the case of a note transferable, by delivery in the hands of a person who shall have acquired the same as bearer for valuable consideration, unless such endorsee or bearer, had at the time of discounting or paying such consideration for the same, actual knowledge that such Bill of Exchange or Promissory Note had been originally given for an usurious consideration, or upon an usurious contract.

AN ACT to provide more effectually for the punishment of certain offences, and to enable the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, to commute the sentence of death, in certain cases, for other punishment in this Act mentioned.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

AN ACT respecting the Transportation of Convicts.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the transportation of offenders to such place or places in His Majesty's dominions as may be assigned for the reception of convicts, and to make further provision in respect to the punishment of transportation: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That notwithstanding anything contained in a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fortieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act for the further introduction of the criminal Law of England in this Province, and for the more effectual punishment of certain offenders," it shall be lawful, after the passing of this Act, to sentence offenders to transportation, not only in such cases where by any law now in force or hereafter to be passed it is expressly provided that such offenders may be transported, but also in every case in which by the provisions of the said Act passed in the fortieth year of the reign of his late Majesty King George the Third, the person convicted would be liable to be banished from this Province: Provided always, nevertheless, that no offender shall, under the authority of this Act, be sentenced to be transported, except by such Court, and in such cases, and for such term of time, as the same offender might, according to the said Act, be banished from this Province; and that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to take away or affect the power of sentencing offenders to be banished according to the Act herein-before recited, when it shall appear proper to pass such sentence.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and singular the provisions now in force which are contained in the said Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fortieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, respecting persons returning to this Province before the expiration of the period for which they have been banished by sentence of a Court, or have consented to be banished according to the terms of any conditional pardon granted to a convict sentenced to suffer death, shall equally extend to and be in force with respect to any person returning from transportation after this Act, whether such person shall have been sentenced to be transported, or having been capitally convicted, shall have been pardoned on condition of being transported.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sentence in case of transportation shall be, that the offender shall be transported for a time to be mentioned in such sentence, or for life, where that may be lawful, and shall in the opinion of the Court passing such sentence appear proper, to such place as the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, shall appoint.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person, administering the Government of this Province, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, to determine, upon reference to His Majesty's Government in England, to what foreign possession of His Majesty, convicts shall be transported from this Province, under the provisions of this Act.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That an Instrument under the sign manual of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, and directed to the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, declaring to what Colony or place it has been determined to transport any convict, shall be sufficient authority for the Judge who passed sentence on such convict, or in his absence, for any other Judge of the said Court, to make his warrant, authorizing any person or persons to carry and secure such convict in and through this Province, towards the sea-port or place from whence he or she is to be transported; and if any person or persons shall rescue such convicts, or any of them, or assist them, or any of them, in making their escape from such person or persons as shall have them in their custody, as aforesaid, such offence shall be punishable in the same manner as if such convict had, at the time it was committed, been confined in a gaol or prison, in the custody of the Sheriff or Gaoler, after sentence for the crime of which he shall have been convicted.

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the time during which any offender shall have continued in gaol under sentence of transportation, shall be taken and reckoned in part discharge or satisfaction of the term of his transportation.

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the expenses of carrying this Act into effect, so far as respects the removal of convicts in order to their being transported, shall be annually laid before both Houses of the Legislature.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if by reason of any difficulty occurring which may prevent the transportation, or reception of any convict in any Colony or Possession of His Majesty, the sentence which shall have been passed on any such convict cannot be carried into effect, such convict may be detained in prison for a period not longer than that for which he shall have been sentenced to be transported, unless it shall appear expedient to pardon such convict, in which case it may be made a condition of such pardon, that the convict shall banish himself from this Province, for a period not exceeding the residue of the time for which he was to have been transported.

AN ACT to make the remedy in cases of Seduction more effectual, and to render the Fathers of illegitimate Children liable for their support.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS in some cases the law fails in affording redress to parents whose daughters have been seduced: And whereas the law makes no provision in this Province for compelling the fathers of illegitimate children to contribute to their support: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province"—and by the authority of the same, That the father, or in case of his death, the mother of any unmarried female who may be seduced after the passing of this Act, and for whose seduction such father or mother could sustain an action in case such unmarried female were at the time dwelling under his or her protection, shall be entitled to maintain an action for seduction, notwithstanding such unmarried female was, at the time of her seduction, serving or residing with any other person, upon hire or otherwise—any former law or statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon the trial of any action for seduction brought by the father or mother, it shall not be necessary to give proof of any act or acts of service performed by the person seduced, but the same shall be in all cases presumed, and no proof shall be received to the contrary.—Provided always, nevertheless, that in case the father or mother of such female who shall be seduced shall before the seduction have abandoned her, and refused to provide for or retain her as an inmate, then any other person who before the passing of this Act might have maintained an action for such seduction, shall be entitled to such action in the same manner as the father or mother would otherwise have been.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any person, other than the father or mother, who by reason of the relation of master, or other wise, would have been entitled if this Act had not been passed, to maintain an action for the seduction of an unmarried female, shall be entitled to maintain such action, notwithstanding this Act, if the father or mother who might sue, according to this Act, shall not be resident in this Province at the time of the birth of the child, which shall take place in consequence of such seduction, or being resident within the Province, shall not bring any action for the seduction within six months from the birth of such child.

4. And in order that some check may be imposed upon the unfeeling conduct of persons who refuse to make provision for the support of their illegitimate children—Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person who shall furnish food, clothing, lodging, or other necessaries, to any child who shall be born after the passing of this Act not in lawful wedlock, shall be entitled to maintain an action for the value thereof, against the father of such illegitimate child: Provided, such illegitimate child shall have been a minor at the time of such necessaries found, and shall not have been then residing with his or her reputed father, and maintained by him as a member of his family: And provided also, that where the person suing for the value of such necessaries shall be the mother of such child, or any person to whom the mother has become accountable for such necessaries, then the fact of the defendant being the father of such child, must be proved by other testimony than that of the mother: And provided also, that no action shall be sustained under this Act, unless it shall be shewn upon the trial thereof, that while the mother of such child was pregnant, or within six months after the birth of her child, she did voluntarily make an affidavit in writing, before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the district in which she shall be residing, declaring that the person who may be afterwards charged in such action is really the father of such child, and unless she has deposited such affidavit, within the time aforesaid, in the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the district, there to remain filed; which affidavit shall nevertheless not be evidence of the fact of the defendant being the father of such child, but such fact must be proved by legal evidence, independently of such affidavit.

5. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not be construed to take away or abridge any right of action or any remedy which without this Act might have been had and maintained against the Father of an illegitimate child; but the same may be pursued in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That one of the said rolls shall be transmitted to the Office of the Clerk of the Crown, on or before the first day of the Term next succeeding such Court, and that the other of such rolls shall, so soon as the same shall be prepared, be sent by the Clerk of Assize, or in case of his death or absence, by such Judge as aforesaid, with a writ of Fieri Facias and Capias, according to the form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked A, to the Sheriff of the District in or for which such Court was holden, which writ shall be authority to such Sheriff for proceeding to the immediate levying and recovering of such fines, issues, amerciaments and forfeited recognizances, or any of them, as remain to be levied and recovered, on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of such several persons, or for taking into custody the bodies of such persons, in case sufficient goods and chattels, lands or tenements shall not be found, whereof the same can be made; and every person so taken shall be lodged in the common gaol of the District, until satisfaction be made, or until the Court of King's Bench shall, upon cause shewn by the party, as hereinafter mentioned, make an order in the case, and until such order shall be fully complied with.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the first day of June, next after the passing of this Act, all fines, issues, amerciaments and forfeited recognizances, save and except such as shall, by virtue of any Act or Acts of the Parliament of this Province, made or to be made, be directed to be otherwise levied, recovered, appropriated or disposed of, which shall be set, imposed, lost or forfeited, by or before any Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, shall, within twenty-one days after the adjournment of such Court, be fairly entered and extracted on a roll, by the Clerk of the Peace, which roll shall be made out in duplicate, and shall be signed by the Clerk of the Peace.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That one of the said rolls shall remain deposited in the Office of the Clerk of the Peace, and that the other of such rolls shall, so soon as the same shall be prepared, be sent by the Clerk of the Peace, with a writ of fieri facias and capias, according to the form in the Schedule, to this Act annexed, marked B, to the Sheriff of the District in which such Court of Quarter Sessions shall have been holden, which Writ shall be authority to such Sheriff, for proceeding to the immediate levying and recovering of such fines, issues, amerciaments and forfeited recognizances, or any of them, as remain to be levied and recovered, on the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of such several persons, or for taking into custody the bodies of such persons, in case sufficient goods and chattels, lands or tenements, shall not be found, whereof the same can be made, and every person so taken, shall be lodged in the Common Gaol of the District, until satisfaction be made, or until the Court of General Quarter Sessions of such District shall, upon cause shewn by the party, as hereinafter mentioned, make an order in the case, and until such order shall be fully complied with.

5. And whereas the estreating indiscriminately of all recognizances for the appearance of persons to prosecute or give evidence, or to answer to criminal charges, would, in many instances, be productive of hardship: Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in every case of default, whereby a recognizance may be forfeited, if the cause of absence be made known to the Court in which the party shall be bound to appear, the Court, on consideration of such cause, and considering also whether, by the non-appearance of such person, the ends of justice have been defeated, or delayed, may forbear to order the recognizance to be estreated—and that, with respect to all recognizances which shall be estreated in any Court, and also, with respect to all fines which may be imposed by any Court, for the non-attendance of any Juror or Constable, or of any Public Officer, bound to attend at such Court, it shall be in the power of the Judge who presided at such Court, or in the case of proceedings before any Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the Chairman, and for any two of the Justices who presided at such Court, to make an order, directing that the sum forfeited upon such estreated recognizance, or the fine imposed in any such case, as aforesaid, shall not be levied, provided it shall appear, to the satisfaction of such Judge, or of the Chairman and Justices, as aforesaid, that the absence of the person for whose appearance any recognizance was entered into, or of any person fined for non-attendance, was owing to circumstances which rendered such absence justifiable; and for such purpose, it shall be necessary for the Clerk of Assize, or Clerk of the Peace respectively, before sending to the Sheriff any roll, with a writ of fieri facias and capias, as directed by this Act, to submit the same to the Judge who presided at the Assizes, or to the Chairman who presided at the Court of Quarter Sessions respectively, for his revision, and that the Judge, or the Chairman of the Court of Quarter Sessions, taking to his assistance two of the Justices who presided with him at the Sessions, shall and may make a minute on the said roll and writ, of such forfeited recognizances and fines as they may think fit to direct not to be levied, and the Sheriff shall observe the direction in such minute, written upon such roll and writ, or endorsed thereon, and shall forbear accordingly to levy any such forfeited recognizance or fine.

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if upon any writ to be issued under this Act, the Sheriff shall take lands or tenements in execution, he shall advertise the same, in like manner as he is required to do before the sale of lands in execution in other cases, and no sale shall take place in less than twelve calendar months, from the time the writ shall come into the hands of the Sheriff.

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Clerk of Assize, or Clerk of the Peace, shall, at the foot of each roll made out, as herein directed, make and take an affidavit, in the following form, (that is to say,) I, A. B., (describing his office,) make oath that this roll is truly and carefully made up and examined, and that all fines, issues, amerciaments, recognizances and forfeitures, which were set, lost, imposed or forfeited, at or by the Court therein mentioned, and which in right and due course of law, ought to be levied and paid, are, to the best of my knowledge and understanding, inserted in the said roll, and that in the said roll are also contained and expressed, all such fines as have been paid to, or received by me, either in Court or otherwise, without any wilful discharge, omission, misnomer or defect whatsoever—so help me God: which oath any Justice of the Peace for such District, is hereby authorised to administer.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That each and every Justice of the Peace, before whom any recognizance shall be entered into or taken, shall give, or cause to be given, at the time of entering into such recognizance, to the person or persons so entering into the same, and to each of his sureties, a written or printed paper or notice, in the form or to the effect stated in the Schedule, marked C to this Act annexed, adapting the same to the particular circumstances of the case, and each and every such Justice, shall, in such recognizance, state and specify particularly the profession, art or trade, of every person so entering into such recognizance, together with the Christian name and surname, and also the place of his or her residence.

9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person on whose goods and chattels such Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Officer, shall be authorised to levy any such forfeited recognizance, shall give security to the said Sheriff, or Officer, for his appearance at the return day mentioned in the writ, in the Court into which such writ shall be returnable, then and there to abide the decision of such Court, and also to pay such forfeited recognizance, or sum of money to be paid in lieu, or satisfaction thereof, together with all such expenses as shall be adjudged and ordered by the Court; it shall be lawful for such Sheriff or Officer, to discharge such person so giving such security, out of custody, provided that in case such party so giving such security, shall not appear in pursuance of his undertaking, it shall be lawful for the Court forthwith, to issue a writ of fieri facias and capias against the surety or sureties of the person so bound as aforesaid.

10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Court of King's Bench, or Court of General Quarter Sessions, into which any writ of fieri facias and capias, to be issued under this Act, shall be returnable, is authorised by this Act to enquire into the circumstances of the case, and may in its discretion, order the discharge of the whole of the forfeited recognizance, or sum of money paid, or to be paid in lieu or satisfaction thereof, and make such order thereon as may to them appear just; which order shall accordingly be a discharge to the Sheriff, or to the party, according to the circumstances of the case.

11. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff to whom any writ shall be directed under this Act, shall return the same on the day on which the same is made returnable, and shall state on the back of the roll attached to such writ, what shall have been done in the execution of such process, which return shall be filed in the Court respectively into which such return is made—and that a copy of such roll and return, certified by the Clerk of the Peace, or by the Clerk of the Crown, (as the case may be,) shall be forthwith transmitted to the Receiver General of this Province, with a minute thereon of any of the sums therein mentioned, which may have been remitted by order of the Court, in the whole, or in part, or directed to be forborne, under the authority of this Act.

12. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff shall, without delay, pay over all monies by him collected, to the Receiver General of this Province, for the time being.

WHEREAS in some cases the law fails in affording redress to parents whose daughters have been seduced: And whereas the law makes no provision in this Province for compelling the fathers of illegitimate children to contribute to their support: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province"—and by the authority of the same, That the father, or in case of his death, the mother of any unmarried female who may be seduced after the passing of this Act, and for whose seduction such father or mother could sustain an action in case such unmarried female were at the time dwelling under his or her protection, shall be entitled to maintain an action for seduction, notwithstanding such unmarried female was, at the time of her seduction, serving or residing with any other person, upon hire or otherwise—any former law or statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That upon the trial of any action for seduction brought by the father or mother, it shall not be necessary to give proof of any act or acts of service performed by the person seduced, but the same shall be in all cases presumed, and no proof shall be received to the contrary.—Provided always, nevertheless, that in case the father or mother of such female who shall be seduced shall before the seduction have abandoned her, and refused to provide for or retain her as an inmate, then any other person who before the passing of this Act might have maintained an action for such seduction, shall be entitled to such action in the same manner as the father or mother would otherwise have been.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any person, other than the father or mother, who by reason of the relation of master, or other wise, would have been entitled if this Act had not been passed, to maintain an action for the seduction of an unmarried female, shall be entitled to maintain such action, notwithstanding this Act, if the father or mother who might sue, according to this Act, shall not be resident in this Province at the time of the birth of the child, which shall take place in consequence of such seduction, or being resident within the Province, shall not bring any action for the seduction within six months from the birth of such child.

4. And in order that some check may be imposed upon the unfeeling conduct of persons who refuse to make provision for the support of their illegitimate children—Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person who shall furnish food, clothing, lodging, or other necessaries, to any child who shall be born after the passing of this Act not in lawful wedlock, shall be entitled to maintain an action for the value thereof, against the father of such illegitimate child: Provided, such illegitimate child shall have been a minor at the time of such necessaries found, and shall not have been then residing with his or her reputed father, and maintained by him as a member of his family: And provided also, that where the person suing for the value of such necessaries shall be the mother of such child, or any person to whom the mother has become accountable for such necessaries, then the fact of the defendant being the father of such child, must be proved by other testimony than that of the mother: And provided also, that no action shall be sustained under this Act, unless it shall be shewn upon the trial thereof, that while the mother of such child was pregnant, or within six months after the birth of her child, she did voluntarily make an affidavit in writing, before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the district in which she shall be residing, declaring that the person who may be afterwards charged in such action is really the father of such child, and unless she has deposited such affidavit, within the time aforesaid, in the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the district, there to remain filed; which affidavit shall nevertheless not be evidence of the fact of the defendant being the father of such child, but such fact must be proved by legal evidence, independently of such affidavit.

5. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not be construed to take away or abridge any right of action or any remedy which without this Act might have been had and maintained against the Father of an illegitimate child; but the same may be pursued in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

JAMES FITZGIBBON, Reg'r. Court of Probate.

To the next of Kin of the late Samuel Sawyers, of the Township of Hope, in the Newcastle District, deceased:—

WHEREAS Anthony Manahan, of the Town of Kingston, in the Midland District, and Province of Upper Canada, Esquire, lately exhibited a petition in the said Court of Probate, setting forth that the said Samuel Sawyers died intestate, about the year 1834: that at the time the said Samuel Sawyers died he stood indebted to petitioner, under judgment of the Court of King's Bench, in this Province, in a large sum, and has left goods and chattels, and money and debts owing to him in the said Newcastle District, as well as in the Home District of this Province, without heir or any of his kindred residing in the said Province. Petitioner therefore prayed, that to answer the ends of justice, and to secure to the heirs and kindred of the said Samuel Sawyers, their just rights, His Excellency would be pleased to grant him Letters of Administration to the said Estate, under sufficient securities for the just and due administration thereof, and to prevent the further deterioration of such property as may exist, liable to damage or injury.

Now, therefore, these are to cite and require you the said next of kin, to be and appear in the said Court of Probate, to be held in the City of Toronto, in the said Province, on the last Monday in September, next ensuing the date hereof, then and there to shew cause, if any you have, why Letters of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, which were of the said Samuel Sawyers, at the time of his death, should not be granted to the said Anthony Manahan.

TO LET,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS,

As a Private Boarding House,

THE newly built and commodious Three Story Brick House, situated in the most central part of the City of Toronto, at the Corner of King and Bay Streets.

Every attention has been paid in the construction of the Building, to make it in all respects convenient for a PRIVATE BOARDING HOUSE, an establishment which is much required in the City.

The Dining, Drawing, and Sitting Rooms, on the first floor, are spacious—finished in the best style, and fitted up with Dumb Waiter from the Kitchen, Butler's Pantry, Sideboard Recesses, Centres for Lamps, with neat Cornices, and Folding Doors.

The Sitting and Bed Rooms, on the second and third Stories, are so arranged that Families can be accommodated, or separate apartments provided.

The basement Story contains a large Kitchen, with Servants' Room, besides fine roomy apartments for dwelling, with private stairs leading to the upper Stories; the Attic is well fitted up for extra Bed Rooms, when required—the Out-buildings connected by Covered Galleries from the first and second Stories.

A good Well, Stable, and Coach-house, with sufficient Yard room.

The Building being on the principal business Street in the City, and at about equal distances from the Market, Steamboat Landings, Post Office, Banks, and Churches, &c. to the East; and from the Government House, Public Offices, and Parliament Buildings, &c. to the West, (all within a few minutes walk,) renders it a very convenient situation for a Private Boarding House.

AN ACT to establish a Court of Chancery in this Province.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

FOR the more perfect administration of Justice in this Province, Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That there be constituted and established, and there is hereby constituted and established, a Court of Chancery, to be called and known by the name and style of "The Court of Chancery for the Province of Upper Canada," of which Court, the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, shall be Chancellor. And that for the better administration of Justice in the said Court, the Judicial powers thereof, both legal and equitable, shall be exercised by a Judge, to be appointed by His Majesty under the Great Seal of the Province, and to be called and known as "the Vice Chancellor of Upper Canada;" and who shall hold his Office during good behaviour; which said Court shall be holden at the Seat of Government in the said Province, or in such other place as shall be appointed by Proclamation of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of the Province.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Court shall have jurisdiction, and possess the like power and authority as, by the Laws of England, are possessed by the Court of Chancery in England, in respect of the matters hereinafter enumerated; that is to say; In all cases of Fraud; In all matters relating to Trusts; In all matters relating to Executors and Administrators; In all matters relating to Mortgages; In Dower; In all matters relating to Infants, Idiots and Lunatics, and their Estates, except where special provision hath been or may hereafter be made with respect to them or either of them by any law of this Province; In all matters relating to Awards; To compel the Specific Performance of Agreements; To compel the discovery of concealed papers or evidence, or such as may be wrongfully withheld from the party claiming the benefit of the same; To prevent multiplicity of Suits and to stay proceedings in a Court of Law, prosecuted against Equity and good conscience; To decree the issue of Letters Patent from the Crown to rightful Claimants; To institute proceedings for the repeal of Letters Patent erroneously or improvidently issued; To stay Waste; In all cases of Accident; All cases of Account; And all cases relating to Co-Partnership: Provided always nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to supersede or interfere with the authority of the Commissioners appointed under the Laws of this Province for ascertaining the titles of any person claiming Lands as the Heir, Devisee or Assignee, of the original nominee of the Crown, in cases where no Patent has issued for such Lands, or claiming title under such Heir, Devisee, or Assignee.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Court of Chancery shall have the like power, authority and jurisdiction, in all cases of claim for Alimony, that is exercised and possessed by any Ecclesiastical or other Court in England.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Vice Chancellor of the said Court of Chancery hereby constituted and established, shall have full power and authority from time to time, to settle and declare the form of Process, and to define the Practice and Proceedings to be observed in the said Court of Chancery, in prosecuting or defending suits therein; to regulate the amount of Fees and Disbursements to be taxed to parties, their Counsel and Solicitors, and to the Officers of the said Court; and make such other Rules and Regulations respecting the practice of the said Court, as in his opinion shall be necessary to facilitate the despatch of business, and occasion the least expense.

5. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all Witnesses in any matter pending before the said Court of Chancery, or before any or either of the Masters thereof, shall deliver in their testimony viva voce, and be subject to examination by Counsel, in the presence of the Vice Chancellor, or of the said Masters, unless it be otherwise specially ordered by the said Vice Chancellor, or by consent of parties, in the suit or controversy to which the testimony of such Witness or Witnesses relates.

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Rules of Decision, in the Court of Chancery hereby constituted and established, shall be the same as govern the Court of Chancery in England; and it shall possess full power and authority to enforce and compel obedience to its Orders, Judgments and Decrees, to the same extent as is possessed by the Court of Chancery in England, in respect of all matters within its Jurisdiction, except when otherwise provided by the Laws of this Province.

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all monies that shall or may from time to time become subject to the control and distribution of the said Court of Chancery, shall be paid into the hands of such person or persons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, as the said Vice Chancellor shall from time to time direct, or be vested in the Public Funds of the Province, or in such other Securities as the said Vice Chancellor shall direct, in the name of the Accountant General of the said Court; and all Interest arising from such sums, so deposited or vested, shall be added to the principal sum, and be distributed therewith to the persons entitled to receive the same.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in the event of the temporary absence or illness of the said Vice Chancellor, or if from any cause he shall be unable to perform the duties of his Office, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government, from time to time, during pleasure, to appoint another fit and proper person to execute the duties of Vice Chancellor.

9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, from time to time, under the Great Seal of the Province, to appoint during pleasure, one Register, two Masters, one Accountant, and a Sergeant-at-Arms, to the said Court of Chancery, who, when appointed, shall, in addition to the duties usually performed by the like Officers in England, be liable to perform such other duties as shall be assigned to them by the Vice Chancellor of Upper Canada.

10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Vice Chancellor of the said Court, for the time being, shall and may, by one or more Commission or Commissions, under the Seal of the said Court, from time to time as need shall require, empower as many persons as he shall think fit and necessary, in the several Districts of this Province, to be Masters Extraordinary and Examiners, to take and receive all and every such affidavit and affidavits, deposition and depositions, as any person or persons shall be willing and desirous to make before any of the persons so empowered, in or concerning any cause, matter or thing, depending or in anywise concerning any proceedings in the said Court of Chancery.

11. And whereas, the Law of England was at an early period introduced into this Province, and has continued to be the rule of decision in all matters of controversy relative to Property and Civil Rights, while at the same time, from the want of an equitable jurisdiction, it has not been in the power of Mortgagees to foreclose, and Mortgagors being out of possession have been unable to avail themselves of their equity of redemption, and in consequence of the want of these remedies, the rights of the respective Parties, or of their Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, may be found to be attended with peculiar equitable considerations, as well in regard to compensation for improvements, as in respect to the right to redeem, depending on the circumstances of each case, and a strict application of the Rules established in England, might be attended with injustice: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Vice Chancellor of the said Court, shall have power and authority in all cases of Mortgage, where before the passing of this Act the estate has become absolute in Law, by failure in performing the condition, to make such order and decree in respect to Foreclosure or Redemption, and with regard to Compensation for Improvements, and generally, with respect to the rights and claims of the Mortgagee and Mortgagee, and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, as may appear to him just and reasonable under all the circumstances of the case, subject however to the appeal provided by this Act.

12. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all Barristers and Attornies admitted to practise in the Courts of Common Law in this Province, shall be permitted and have full power and authority to practise in the Court of Chancery in this Province, as Counsel or Solicitor, respectively.

13. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Vice Chancellor of Upper Canada shall be, and he is hereby declared to be, a Member of the Court of Appeals in this Province.

14. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That His Majesty's Common Gaols in the several Districts of this Province, as well as all other Gaols which may be erected in any District now existing, or which may hereafter be constituted and set apart, shall be Prisons of the said Court of Chancery; and that all Sheriffs, Deputy Sheriffs, Gaolers, Constables and other Peace Officers, shall be aiding, assisting and obeying the said Court, in the exercise of its jurisdiction, whenever required so to do by the said Vice Chancellor.

15. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall wilfully swear falsely, or make false affirmation, in writing or by parole, in any proceeding pending in the said Court of Chancery, or in any matter in which an Oath or Affirmation is required by this Act, every such person, being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and shall suffer the like punishment as by Law may now be inflicted on persons convicted of the crime of perjury.

16. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That Appeals shall lie from the Judgments and Decrees of the said Vice Chancellor of the said Court of Chancery, to the Governor and Council of the Province of Upper Canada, and from the Judgments of the said Governor and Council, to the King in Council, in England, in like manner as Appeals now lie from the Judgments of the Court of King's Bench in this Province: Provided that security be given upon such Appeal to the satisfaction of the Vice Chancellor, in like manner as is provided with respect to Appeals from Judgments of the Court of King's Bench.

17. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Puisne Judges of the Court of King's Bench, shall be Members of the Court of Appeals in this Province, in all cases of Appeal from the Judgments and Decrees of the said Vice Chancellor, in like manner as the Chief Justice is now by Law a Member of the Court of Appeals.

18. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, to determine and declare the Seal to be used in the said Court of Chancery, and by which its Judgments and Proceedings shall be certified and authenticated.

19. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Vice Chancellor aforesaid shall have full power and authority, from time to time, to make such further and other regulations as to him shall appear necessary and expedient, to secure the safe and due performance of the duties required, or to be required of the several Officers of the said Court of Chancery, appointed under and by virtue of this Act.

20. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Vice Chancellor, and the other Officers created or to be created under or by virtue of this Act, shall take and subscribe the following Oath, before they enter upon the duties of their respective Offices, which Oath shall be administered to the Vice Chancellor, by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, for the time being, and afterwards by the said Vice Chancellor to the other Officers in open Court:—

"I, A. B. of ——, do hereby solemnly swear, that I will, according to the best of my skill, learning, ability, and judgment, well and faithfully execute and fulfil the duties of the office of Vice Chancellor of Upper Canada, (or of Master, &c. as the case may be,) without favour or affection, prejudice, or partiality, to any person or persons whomsoever—So HELP ME GOD."

21. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if at any time the Honorable the Legislative Council, and House of Assembly of this Province, shall unite in an Address to His Majesty, or His Successors, to remove the Vice Chancellor of this Province from his office, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, or his Successors, to revoke the Commission of such Vice Chancellor, and to appoint another fit and proper person to fill the said Office: Provided always, that the Vice Chancellor shall have the same right of appeal to His Majesty, in His Privy Council, against such removal, as is by law given to the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province.

22. And whereas, it may be beneficial to facilitate the admission of a limited number of persons experienced in the practice of Courts of Equity in the United Kingdom, to practice as Solicitors in this Province, be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Vice Chancellor to admit persons to be Solicitors of the said Court, (not exceeding six in number,) upon their producing evidence to his satisfaction, of their having been respectively admitted and sworn as Solicitors of the High Court of Chancery in England or Ireland, and of their having been in actual practice in such Court as Solicitors: Provided always, that the Vice Chancellor shall not admit any such person to be Solicitor, until he shall have satisfied himself in respect to his competent knowledge of the law, and practice of the High Court of Chancery in England or Ireland, and also in respect to his moral character.

23. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no higher fees shall be charged for the services hereinafter mentioned than are set down in the following table, nor shall higher fees be charged for any similar services rendered in other cases.

AN ACT for the further amendment of the Law, and the better advancement of Justice.

[Passed 4th March, 1837.]

WHEREAS it would greatly contribute to the diminishing of expense in suits in the Court of King's Bench, if the pleadings therein were in some respects altered, and the questions to be tried by the Jury left less at large than they now are, according to the course and practice of pleading in several forms of action, but this cannot be conveniently done, otherwise than by rules or orders of the Judges of the said Court, from time to time to be made; and doubts may arise as to the power of the said Judges to make such alterations without the authority of the Legislature: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America,' and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That the Judges of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province, or the majority of them, including the Chief Justice, shall and may by any rule or order to be from time to time by them made in Term or Vacation, at any time within five years from the time when this Act shall take effect, make such alterations in the mode of pleading in the said Court, and in the mode of entering and transcribing pleadings, judgments, and other proceedings, in actions at law, and such regulations as to the payment of costs, and otherwise for carrying into effect the said alterations, as to them may seem expedient; and all such rules, orders or regulations, shall be laid before both Houses of the Legislature, if they shall be then sitting, immediately upon the making of the same, or if the Legislature be not then sitting, then within five days after the next meeting thereof; and no such rule, order or regulation, shall have effect until six weeks after the same shall have been so laid before both Houses of the Legislature; and any rule or order so made, shall, from and after such time aforesaid, be binding and obligatory on the said Court, and all other Courts of Common Law in this Province, to which the same shall be made expressly to extend, and on all Courts of Appeal or Courts of Error in this Province, into which the Judgments of the said Courts, or any of them, shall be carried by Appeal or by any Writ of Error, and be of the like force and effect as if the provisions contained therein had been expressly enacted by the Legislature of this Province: Provided always, that no such rule or order shall have the effect of depriving any person of the power of pleading the general issue, and giving the special matter in evidence, in any case wherein he is now or hereafter shall be entitled to do so, by virtue of any Act of Parliament now or hereafter to be in force.

2. And whereas, there is no remedy provided by law for injuries to the real estate of any person deceased, committed in his lifetime, nor for certain wrongs done by a person deceased in his lifetime to another, in respect of his property, real or personal: for remedy thereof, be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That an action of trespass, or trespass on the case, as the case may be, may be maintained by the executors or administrators of any person deceased, for any injury to the real estate of such person, committed in his lifetime, for which an action might have been maintained by such person, so as such injury shall have been committed within six calendar months before the death of such deceased person: And provided, such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person, and the damages when recovered, shall be part of the personal estate of such person: And further, that an action of trespass, or trespass on the case, as the case may be, may be maintained against the executors or administrators of any person deceased, for any wrong committed by him in his lifetime to another, in respect of his property, real or personal, so as such injury shall have been committed within six calendar months before such person's death, and so as such action shall be brought within six calendar months after such executors or administrators shall have taken upon themselves the administration of the estate and effects of such person; and the damages to be recovered in such action shall be payable in like order of administration, as the simple contract debts of such persons.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all actions of debt for rent, upon an indenture of demise; all actions of covenant or debt, upon any bond or other speciality; and all actions of debt or Scire Facias, upon any recognizance; and also all actions of debt upon any award, where the submission is not by speciality, or for an escape, or for money levied on any Fieri Facias; and all actions for penalties, damages, or sums of money, given to the party grieved by any Statute now or hereafter to be in force, that shall be sued or brought at any time after the passing of this Act, shall be commenced and sued within the time and limitation hereinafter expressed, and not after, that is to say: The said actions of debt for rent, upon an indenture of demise or covenant, or debt upon any bond or other specialty, actions of debt or Scire Facias upon recognizance, within ten years after the passing of this Act, or within twenty years after the cause of such actions or suits, but not after; the said actions by the party grieved, one year after the passing of the Act, or within two years after the cause of such actions or suits, but not after; and the said other actions, within three years after the passing of this Act, or within six years after the cause of such actions or suits, but not not after: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any action given by any Statute, where the time for bringing such action is or shall be by any Statute specially limited.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons that is or are, or shall be entitled to any such action or suit, or to such Scire Facias, is or are, or shall be at the time of any such cause of action accruing, within the age of twenty-one years, femme covert, non compos mentis, or without the limits of this Province, then such person or persons shall be at liberty to bring the same actions, so as they commence the same within such times after their coming to or being of full age, discovert, of sound memory, or returned to this Province, as other persons having no such impediment should, according to the provisions of this Act, have done; and that if any person or persons, against whom there shall be any such cause of action, is or are, or shall be at the time such cause of action accrued, without this Province, the person or persons entitled to any such cause of action, shall be at liberty to bring the same against such person or persons, within such times as are before limited, after the return of such person or persons to this Province: Provided always, that if any acknowledgment shall have been made, either by writing signed by the party liable, by virtue of such indenture, speciality, or recognizance, or his agent, or by part payment, or part satisfaction, on account of any principal or interest being then due thereon, it shall and may be lawful for the person or persons entitled to such actions, to bring his or their action for the money remaining unpaid, and so acknowledged to be due, within twenty years after such acknowledgment by writing, or part payment, or part satisfaction, as aforesaid; or in case the person or persons entitled to such action shall, at the time of such acknowledgment, be under such disability as aforesaid, or the party making such acknowledgment be, at the time of making the same, without this Province, then within twenty years after such disability shall have ceased, as aforesaid, or the party shall have returned to this Province, as the case may be; and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any such action, on any indenture, speciality, or recognizance may, by way of replication, state such acknowledgment, and that such action was brought within the time aforesaid, in answer to a plea of this Statute.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if in any of the said actions, Judgment be given for the Plaintiff, and the same be reversed for Error in a Court of Error or Appeal, or if a verdict pass for the Plaintiff, and upon matter alleged in arrest of Judgment, the Judgment be given against the Plaintiff, that he take nothing for his plaint, writ, or bill; or if in any of the said actions the Defendant shall be outlawed, and shall reverse the outlawry, that in all such cases the party Plaintiff, his executors, or administrators, as the case shall require, may commence a new action or suit, from time to time, within a year after such Judgment reversed, or such Judgment given against the Plaintiff, or outlawry reversed, and not after.

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no plea in abatement for the non-joinder of any person as a co-Defendant, shall be allowed in any Court of Common Law, unless it shall be stated in such plea that such person is resident within the jurisdiction of the Court, and unless the place of residence of such person shall be stated with convenient certainty, in an affidavit verifying such plea.
