VICTORIA, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

To our beloved and faithful Legislative Councillors of our Province of Upper Canada, and to our Knights, Citizens and Burgesses of our said Province; to our Provincial Parliament, at our City of Toronto, on Thursday, the second day of November, next, to be commenced, held, called and elected, and to every of you—

GREETING:

WHEREAS by our Proclamation, bearing date the twentieth day of September last, we thought fit to prorogue our Provincial Parliament to Thursday, the second day of November, now next ensuing, at which time at our City of Toronto, you were held and constrained to appear:

NOW KNOW YE, that We taking into our Royal consideration the ease and convenience of our loving Subjects, have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Executive Council, to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking, and by these Presents enjoining you and each of you, that on Tuesday, the Twelfth day of December now next ensuing, you meet us in our Provincial Parliament at our City of Toronto, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of our said Province of Upper Canada, and therein to do as may seem necessary; and herein fail not.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed: WITNESS our trusty and well-beloved SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, BARONET, K.C.H. &c. &c. &c. Lieutenant Governor of our said Province, at Toronto, this Twenty-sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of our reign.

By Command of His Excellency in Council.

D. CAMERON,
SECRETARY.

C. A. HAGERMAN,
ATTORNEY GENERAL.

PROCLAMATION.

By His EXCELLENCY SIR FRANCIS B. HEAD, Baronet, Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

To the Queen's Faithful Subjects in Upper Canada.

IN a time of profound peace, while every one was quietly following his occupations, feeling secure under the protection of our Laws, a band of Rebels, instigated by a few malignant and disloyal men, has had the wickedness and audacity to assemble with Arms, and to attack and Murder the Queen's Subjects on the Highway—to Burn and Destroy their Property—to Rob the Public Mails—and to threaten to Plunder the Banks—and to Fire the City of Toronto.

Brave and Loyal People of Upper Canada, we have been long suffering from the acts and endeavours of concealed Traitors, but this is the first time that Rebellion has dared to shew itself openly in the land, in the absence of invasion by any Foreign Enemy.

Let every man do his duty now, and it will be the last time that we or our children shall see our lives or properties endangered, or the Authority of our Gracious Queen insulted by such treacherous and ungrateful men. MILITIA-MEN OF UPPER CANADA, no Country has ever shewn a finer example of Loyalty and Spirit than YOU have given upon this sudden call of Duty. Young and old of all ranks, are flocking to the Standard of their Country. What has taken place will enable our Queen to know Her Friends from Her Enemies—a Public Enemy is never so dangerous as a concealed Traitor—and now my friends let us complete well what is begun—let us not return to our rest till Treason and Traitors are revealed to the light of day, and rendered harmless throughout the land.

Be vigilant, patient and active,—leave punishment to the Laws,—our first object is, to arrest and secure all those who have been guilty of Rebellion, Murder and Robbery.—And to aid us in this, a Reward is hereby offered of

to any one who will apprehend, and deliver up to Justice, WILLIAM LYON MACKENZIE——and FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any one who will apprehend, and deliver up to Justice, DAVID GIBSON——or SAMUEL LOUNT——or JESSE LLOYD——or SILAS FLETCHER——and the same reward, and a free pardon, will be given to any of their accomplices who will render this public service, except he or they shall have committed, in his own person, the crime of Murder or Arson.

And all, but the Leaders above-named, who have been seduced to join in this unnatural Rebellion, are hereby called to return, to their duty to their Sovereign—to obey the Laws—and to live henceforward as good and faithful Subjects—and they will find the Government of their Queen as indulgent as it is just.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

Thursday, 3 o'clock, P. M.
7th December.

☞ The Party of Rebels, under their Chief Leaders, is wholly dispersed, and flying before the Loyal Militia. The only thing that remains to be done, is to find them, and arrest them.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER,
29th September, 1837.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

THE COUNCIL having taken into consideration the application of the President and Board of Directors of the Commercial Bank of the Midland District, to be allowed to continue the business of Banking, notwithstanding a suspension of Cash Payments, pursuant to the Act of the Provincial Parliament, entitled, "An Act to authorise the Chartered Banks in this Province to suspend the redemption of their Notes in Specie, under certain regulations, for a limited time, and for other purposes therein mentioned"; and having examined the Statement of the affairs of the said Bank, and received from the Vice President and Cashier of the said Bank such information as they deemed necessary for their satisfaction, in respect to the solvency of the said Bank, and the actual condition and management of their affairs, under the oath of the said Vice President and Cashier, according to the form of the said Act; and it appearing proper and advisable to His Excellency in Council that such Bank, under the circumstances disclosed, be allowed to continue their business of Banking, notwithstanding their suspension of Cash Payments:

It is Ordered, that the Commercial Bank of the Midland District, be allowed to continue their business of Banking, notwithstanding their suspension of Cash Payments accordingly, subject to the conditions, regulations, limitations and restrictions, in and by the said Act made and provided.

And it is further Ordered, that this Minute be published in the Upper Canada Gazette, during the time of such suspension.

Now public notice is hereby given, of such application, as required by the Statute in that case made and provided.

VOL. XII. TORONTO, THURSDAY DECEMBER 14, 1837. NO. 31

By Authority.

PROCLAMATION.

UPPER CANADA.

F. B. HEAD.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of GOD, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c.

To our beloved and faithful Legislative Councillors of our Province of Upper Canada, and to our Knights, Citizens and Burgesses of our said Province; to our Provincial Parliament, at our City of Toronto, on Tuesday, the twelfth day of December, instant, to be commenced, held, called and elected, and to every of you—

GREETING:

WHEREAS by our Proclamation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October last, we thought fit to prorogue our Provincial Parliament to Tuesday, the twelfth day of December, instant, at which time, at our City of Toronto, you were held and constrained to appear:

NOW KNOW YE, that We taking into our Royal consideration the ease and convenience of our loving Subjects, have thought fit, by and with the advice of our Executive Council, to relieve you and each of you of your attendance at the time aforesaid, hereby convoking, and by these Presents enjoining you and each of you, that on Thursday, the Twenty-first day of December, instant, you meet us in our Provincial Parliament at our City of Toronto, FOR THE ACTUAL DESPATCH OF PUBLIC BUSINESS, there to take into consideration the state and welfare of our said Province of Upper Canada, and therein to do as may seem necessary; and herein fail not.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of our said Province to be hereunto affixed: WITNESS our trusty and well-beloved SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, BARONET, K.C.H. &c. &c. &c. Lieutenant Governor of our said Province, at Toronto, this Eleventh day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of our reign.

F. B. H.

By Command of His Excellency in Council.

D. CAMERON,
Secretary.

C. A. HAGERMAN,
Attorney General.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Sir FRANCIS B. HEAD, Baronet, Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

To the Queen's Faithful Subjects in Upper Canada.

IN a time of profound peace, while every one was quietly following his occupations, feeling secure under the protection of our Laws, a band of Rebels, instigated by a few malignant and disloyal men, has had the wickedness and audacity to assemble with Arms, and to attack and Murder the Queen's Subjects on the Highway—to Burn and Destroy their Property—to Rob the Public Mails—and to threaten to Plunder the Banks—and to Fire the City of Toronto.

Brave and Loyal People of Upper Canada, we have been long suffering from the acts and endeavours of concealed Traitors, but this is the first time that Rebellion has dared to shew itself openly in the land, in the absence of invasion by any Foreign Enemy.

Let every man do his duty now, and it will be the last time that we or our children shall see our lives or properties endangered, or the Authority of our Gracious Queen insulted by such treacherous and ungrateful men. MILITIA-MEN OF UPPER CANADA, no Country has ever shewn a finer example of Loyalty and Spirit than YOU have given upon this sudden call of Duty. Young and old of all ranks, are flocking to the Standard of their Country. What has taken place will enable our Queen to know Her Friends from Her Enemies—a Public Enemy is never so dangerous as a concealed Traitor—and now my friends let us complete well what is begun—let us not return to our rest till Treason and Traitors are revealed to the light of day, and rendered harmless throughout the land.

Be vigilant, patient and active,—leave punishment to the Laws,—our first object is, to arrest and secure all those who have been guilty of Rebellion, Murder and Robbery.—And to aid us in this, a Reward is hereby offered of

to any one who will apprehend, and deliver up to Justice, WILLIAM LYON MACKENZIE——and FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any one who will apprehend, and deliver up to Justice, DAVID GIBSON——or SAMUEL LOUNT——or JESSE LLOYD——or SILAS FLETCHER——and the same reward, and a free pardon, will be given to any of their accomplices who will render this public service, except he or they shall have committed, in his own person, the crime of Murder or Arson.

And all, but the Leaders above-named, who have been seduced to join in this unnatural Rebellion, are hereby called to return to their duty to their Sovereign—to obey the Laws—and to live henceforward as good and faithful Subjects—and they will find the Government of their Queen as indulgent as it is just.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

£500 REWARD.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, Baronet, Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

WHEREAS it appears that Doctor JOHN ROLPH, of Toronto, absconded hastily from his residence on the breaking out of the Insurrection:

And whereas, from facts which have come to the knowledge of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, it appears that he has been concerned in the traitorous attempt, which has happily been defeated, to subvert the Government of this Province, the above Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, is hereby offered to any one who will apprehend the said JOHN ROLPH, and deliver him up to Justice, in the City of Toronto.

11th December, 1837. 31

10th December, 1837.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor directs, that no Officer, whatever may be his rank, or on whatever service he may be employed, shall take upon himself to release any Prisoner taken in arms against the Government, or any one apprehended on suspicion of Treasonable practices; but all such persons are to await the decision of the Government, upon a careful investigation of the charges against them. 31

11th December, 1837.

HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, has been pleased to confer upon Captain RICHARD BULLOCK, late of Her Majesty's 88th Regiment of Foot, the rank of Colonel; and to appoint COLONEL BULLOCK, Adjutant General of the Militia of Upper Canada, vice COLONEL FITZGIBBON, retired.

RICHARD BULLOCK,
Adjutant General

Toronto, Dec. 19th, 1837.

PROCLAMATION.

By His EXCELLENCY SIR FRANCIS B. HEAD, Baronet, Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

To the Queen's Faithful Subjects in Upper Canada.

IN a time of profound peace, while every one was quietly following his occupations, feeling secure under the protection of our Laws, a band of Rebels, instigated by a few malignant and disloyal men, has had the wickedness and audacity to assemble with Arms, and to attack and Murder the Queen's Subjects on the Highway—to Burn and Destroy their Property—to Rob the Public Mails—and to threaten to Plunder the Banks—and to Fire the City of Toronto.

Brave and Loyal People of Upper Canada, we have been long suffering from the acts and endeavours of concealed Traitors, but this is the first time that Rebellion has dared to shew itself openly in the land, in the absence of invasion by any Foreign Enemy.

Let every man do his duty now, and it will be the last time that we or our children shall see our lives or properties endangered, or the Authority of our Gracious Queen insulted by such treacherous and ungrateful men. MILITIA-MEN OF UPPER CANADA, no Country has ever shewn a finer example of Loyalty and Spirit than YOU have given upon this sudden call of Duty. Young and old of all ranks, are flocking to the Standard of their Country. What has taken place will enable our Queen to know Her Friends from Her Enemies—a Public Enemy is never so dangerous as a concealed Traitor—and now my friends let us complete well what is begun—let us not return to our rest till Treason and Traitors are revealed to the light of day, and rendered harmless throughout the land.

Be vigilant, patient and active,—leave punishment to the Laws,—our first object is, to arrest and secure all those who have been guilty of Rebellion, Murder and Robbery.—And to aid us in this, a Reward is hereby offered of

to any one who will apprehend, and deliver up to Justice, WILLIAM LYON MACKENZIE——and FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any one who will apprehend, and deliver up to Justice, DAVID GIBSON——or SAMUEL LOUNT——or JESSE LLOYD——or SILAS FLETCHER——and the same reward, and a free pardon, will be given to any of their accomplices who will render this public service, except he or they shall have committed, in his own person, the crime of Murder or Arson.

And all, but the Leaders above-named, who have been seduced to join in this unnatural Rebellion, are hereby called to return to their duty to their Sovereign—to obey the Laws—and to live henceforward as good and faithful Subjects—and they will find the Government of their Queen as indulgent as it is just.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

PROCLAMATION.

REWARD.

By command of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor.

A REWARD is hereby offered, of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any one who will apprehend and deliver up to Justice, CHARLES DUNCOMBE—and a Reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS, to any one who will apprehend and deliver up to Justice, ELIAKIM MALCOLM—or FINLAY MALCOLM—or ROBERT ALWAY—and a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any one who will apprehend and deliver up to Justice, ——ANDERSON, (said to be a Captain in the Rebel Forces—or JOSHUA DOAN.

All the above persons are known to have been traitorously in arms against their Sovereign; and to entitle the party apprehending either of them to the Reward, he must be delivered to the Civil Power, at Hamilton, Niagara, London or Toronto.

16th December, 1837. 32

£500 REWARD.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, Baronet, Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

WHEREAS it appears that DOCTOR JOHN ROLPH, of Toronto, absconded hastily from his residence on the breaking out of the Insurrection:

And whereas, from facts which have come to the knowledge of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, it appears that he has been concerned in the traitorous attempt, which has happily been defeated, to subvert the Government of this Province, the above Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, is hereby offered to any one who will apprehend the said JOHN ROLPH, and deliver him up to Justice, in the City of Toronto.

11th December, 1837. 31

TORONTO, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1837.

THIS day at eleven o'clock, HIS EXCELLENCY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR proceeded in State, from the Government House to the Chamber of the Honorable the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, where being arrived, and seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a message from HIS EXCELLENCY to the HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, commanding their attendance. The Members present being come up accordingly, HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to address the two Houses with the following—

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and, Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have deemed it necessary to convene the Legislature of Upper Canada a few days earlier than has been customary, for the purpose of communicating with you on the present state of the Province; but before I draw your attention to this important subject, I cannot refrain from condoling with you on the loss which, since our last meeting, we have sustained in the demise of His late Gracious Majesty King William the Fourth, of blessed memory, whose parental attachment to the Canadas will, I feel confident, long be remembered by its inhabitants with filial gratitude and respect.

The Throne of the British Empire is now adorned by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, whose youth, education, virtues and sex, endearing her to her Subjects, claim their loyal protection and support.

Notwithstanding the prosperity and happiness of this Province, it is with pain I inform you, that I have suddenly been called upon to suppress a rebellion, which must have appeared to the Province at large of so extraordinary a character, that it is proper I should advert to its origin and progress.

With every disinclination to revive political differences of opinion, which must exist in every free country, and which no liberal man would ever be desirous to suppress, I will merely remind you, that shortly after I arrived in this Province with instructions from His late Majesty to correct whatever grievances might exist, it unavoidably became necessary that I should constitutionally appeal to the sense of the people—I did so, and they unequivocally supported me.

A few individuals disappointed at the result did not scruple to declare, that the people of Upper Canada had been mistaken in their verdict, which it was asserted had been obtained by improper means.

This second subject of discussion I deemed it advisable to bring plainly before the public—it was accordingly submitted to the consideration of His late Majesty and the Imperial Government, the House of Commons, and the House of Assembly of Upper Canada, and by all these tribunals the question was decided against those, who with groundless slander had assailed their Government, and who being rapidly deserted by their original supporters, were now reduced to a very few individuals.

Finding that against cool argument they could advance nothing, they desperately determined to try an appeal to physical strength, the avowed object of which was to force Her Majesty's Subjects from their allegience, and to subvert the British Constitution under the pretext of reform.

As soon as this conspiracy became known to me, I determined that for the public good I would allow it to work its own cure, but as I felt convinced that that cure would never be admitted to be perfect if Her Majesty's Troops were required to take any part in the contest, I cheerfully approved of their leaving the Province, in order that the people of Upper Canada, in a state of uncontrolled independence, might be allowed another opportunity of unequivocally demonstrating whether they would support me or desert me in the determination I had evinced, "to maintain for them the British Constitution INVIOLATE."

Besides parting with the troops, I further resolved to place in the hands of the Civil portion of the community all the muskets, (about 4000) which the Government had in store, and I accordingly delivered them over to the custody of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, of the City of Toronto.

Without either soldiers or weapons to enforce my cause, I allowed the leader of the intended insurrection a full opportunity to make his intended experiment—I freely allowed him to write what he chose—say what he chose,

and do what he chose—I allowed him to assemble his deluded adherents for the purpose of drill—I even allowed them unopposed to assemble with loaded fire-arms, and in spite of the remonstrances which, from almost every District in the Province, I received from the peaceable portion of the community, I allowed him to make deliberate preparations for revolt; for I freely confess that I did under-rate the degree of audacity and cruelty which these armed insulters of the law were prepared, as events have proved, to exhibit. It did not seem to me credible, that in the bosom of this peaceful country, where every one was enjoying the protection of equal laws, and reaping the fruit of his labours almost undiminished by taxes, any number of persons could be found willing to assail the lives, plunder the property of their unoffending fellow Subjects, and to attempt the destruction of a Government from which they had received nothing but good.

The ultimate object of the conspiracy was veiled under a mysterious secrecy which I had no desire to penetrate; and relying implicitly on the people, so little did I enquire into it, or impede it, that I was actually in bed and asleep, when I was awakened by a messenger who abruptly informed me that a numerous body of armed rebels had been congregated by their leader—that the murder of a veteran Officer of distinction, a settler in the Province, had already been committed—and that the assailants were within an hour's march of Toronto.

The long-looked for crisis had now evidently arrived; and accordingly defenceless and unarmed, I called upon the Militia of Upper Canada to defend their Government, and then confidently awaited the result.

With an enthusiasm which it is impossible for me to describe, they instantly obeyed the summons.

Upwards of 10,000 men immediately marched towards the Capital—and in the depth of a Canadian winter, with no clothes but those they stood in—without food, and generally speaking without arms—Reformers as well as Constitutionalists—nobly rushed forward to defend the revered Constitution of their ancestors, although the rebel who had dared to attack it was offering to his adherents 300 acres of our land, and the plunder of our Banks!

As soon as the people had organized themselves, I saw it would be necessary to make an attack, however feeling the greatest possible reluctance at the prospect of a sanguinary conflict with the deluded Subjects of Her Majesty who were opposed to me, I despatched to them two of their own party, to tell them that before any collision should take place, I parentally called upon them, as their Governor, to avoid the effusion of human blood.

The answer I received from the rebel leader was, that he would only consent that his demands should be settled by a National Convention, and that he would wait till two o'clock for my answer.

Having now, to the best of my ability, performed the religious as well as moral duty which I owed to the Province, I issued a Proclamation calling upon those who had been seduced to join in the unnatural rebellion, to return to their duty, in which case I informed them that they would find the Government of their Queen as indulgent as it was just; and having given them this last opportunity to disperse, I allowed the brave Militia of Upper Canada to advance, and the result of this trial by battel was the public verdict which I had always anticipated.

The rebels dispersed in all directions, surrendered every where at discretion; those of their leaders who were not taken prisoners, absconded to the United States; and before sunset the whole conspiracy exploded.

In the London District, a similar proof of public opinion was practically evinced. To the Militia nobly commanded by Colonel MacNab, Speaker of the House of Assembly, upwards of three hundred misguided men laid down their arms—craving pardon for their guilt—asking permission to assist the loyal Militia in capturing the fugitive leaders, who they declared had not only deceived, but deserted them—and the affair being thus concluded, there remained not a rebel throughout the whole Province in arms!—indeed so complete was their defeat, that general orders were immediately issued by me, announcing that there was "no further occasion for the resort of Militia to Toronto"—and that the Militia of the Bathurst, Johnstown, Ottawa and Eastern Districts, might march to Lower Canada, in aid of the Queen's Forces.

In all the civil contests which History has been compelled to record, I conceive that there has never been a question more fairly submitted to the judgment of a free people, than that which in Upper Canada has just ended in the total defeat, moral as well as physical, of the opponents of the British Constitution.

The triumph has been that of reason over force—of good laws over anarchy—of bravery, fidelity and generosity on the part of the Militia, over murder, arson and robbery, by the rebels.

Tranquility had returned to the land—angry passions had subsided—the political atmosphere of the Province was becoming healthy after the storm which had passed over it, when, I regret to inform you, that the peace of the Province was suddenly invaded from a quarter from which Her Majesty's Subjects in this Province had certainly never calculated upon receiving an attack.

I need not on this Continent declare that the Americans are a people with whom the British Empire for many years has assiduously cultivated the most friendly connection. Our Government has looked upon them as its allies—our people have intimately connected themselves with their commerce—our capital has irrigated their land—unlimited credit has been fraternally extended to them, with that unsuspecting confidence which in the civilized world is reposed in men of character and truth—we have rejoiced in their success, and we have done all that a generous Nation could do, to save them from the expense and misery of war. It is true, we were once opponents, but the hatchet of war has long been buried, and I must own I had hoped that the spirits of our mutual ancestors were sacredly guarding its tomb!!

Such are the feelings of the British people towards the Americans, and yet I regret to inform you, that in a moment of profound peace and of professed friendship, a considerable number of Americans, regardless of the crimes committed, as well as of the degraded character of the man, have sympathised with the principal rebel, who has lately absconded as a criminal from our land. I regret to inform you, that American Citizens of influence and great wealth have come forward to coerce the brave and independent people of Upper Canada, to change laws and institutions which they have lately, by open and almost universal suffrage, publicly declared that they prefer.

The American Press has, to my astonishment, in many instances advocated this flagrant act of injustice; and such has been the popular excitement, that not only has a body of Americans, headed by American leaders, within a few days, taken possession of Navy Island, (which belongs to the British Empire) but a proclamation has just been issued from this spot, declaring that the standard of liberty is planted in Canada—that a Provisional Government is established there—that a reward of five hundred pounds is offered for my apprehension—that three hundred acres of Her Majesty's lands will be freely bestowed by this Provisional Government upon any volunteer who shall personally assist in invading our freedom; and it is added, that "ten millions of these lands, fair and fertile, will speedily be "at their disposal, with the other vast resources of a "country more extensive and rich in natural treasures "than the United Kingdom, or old France."

I am informed that Americans from various quarters are hastening from the interior to join this standard of avowed plunder and revolt—that cannon and arms are publicly proceeding there,—and under these circumstances, it becomes my painful duty to inform you, that without having offered to the United States the smallest provocation—without having entertained the slightest previous doubt of the sincerity of American alliance, the inhabitants of this Province may in a few days be called upon by me to defend their lives, their properties and their liberties, from an attack by American citizens, which, with no desire to offend, I must pronounce to be unparallelled in the history of the world.

Upon the courage and resolution of the Canadian people, I place the firmest reliance; and if this unwarrantable invasion should proceed, I know I shall not in vain require every British Subject coolly to perform that duty to his country which his own pride, spirit and feelings, will spontaneously suggest.

The interference of foreigners in the domestic policy of a free country, is an aggression which no Nation of character can ever submit to endure, (especially where a band of people, violating their own laws, our laws, as well as the sacred obligations of national amity, intrude themselves upon peaceable inhabitants, lawlessly to advocate by force of arms the practical blessings and advantages of Republican institutions, which, by their own shewing, have at least ended with them in anarchy and plunder,) and as every country is a natural fortress to its inhabitants—as every village is a strong military position—and as every bridge and ravine can be advantageously defended—I must own that deeply as I should lament a conflict of this nature, I entertain no feeling of anxiety for the result. The peaceful inhabitants of Upper Canada will not be left to defend their country alone, for they belong to an Empire which does not suffer its Subjects to be injured with impunity: and if a national war, which it rests with the American Government to avert, should be the unhappy consequence of an intolerant invasion of our freedom, the civilized world, while it sympathises with our just cause, will view with feelings of astonishment and abhorrence this attempt of a body of American citizens treacherously to attack and plunder, in a moment of profound peace, their oldest—their most intimate—and their most natural ally.

A few days will, I trust, demonstrate that the American Government wants neither the will nor the power to control its people. If otherwise, the defensive course which the inhabitants of Upper Canada must be called upon to adopt, is plain and clear.

In the mean while, however, it is but justice to the American Nation to allow them, notwithstanding our territory has been already invaded by their citizens, the opportunity of nobly vindicating, as I firmly believe they will, the integrity of their Government and Institutions; and I have to inform you that with this peaceful object in view, I have communicated with the Governor of the State of New York, with whom I have hitherto been on the most friendly terms, as also with Her Majesty's Minister at Washington: and awaiting their replies, I have re-inforced the gallant Militia of the frontier, by a strong Corps of Observation, and have made arrangements for a general call upon the Militia, in case their services should unfortunately be required.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I shall direct the public accounts, and the estimate for the ensuing year, to be laid before you.

The ordinary supplies necessary for the public service will, I have no doubt, be granted; and it cannot but be expected that the late rash attempt to produce confusion in the Province, will give rise to an increase in the public expenditure, and create some new claims upon the justice and bounty of the Legislature.

You will, I doubt not, consider the propriety of indemnifying any of the inhabitants of this Province who have sustained serious losses from the outrageous acts of the insurgents, and of providing pensions for the very few Subjects of Her Majesty, who may have been disabled by wounds received in the defence of their laws.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

If you were assembled under ordinary circumstances, there would be several matters relating to the improvement of the Province, to the general welfare of its inhabitants, and to the encouragement of immigration, which I should desire to submit to your consideration; but you will probably agree with me in thinking that it may be prudent to admit of your speedy return to your several Districts, by forbearing as much as possible to enter at this time upon the discussion of business which can be properly postponed.

Nothing perhaps presses so earnestly for immediate consideration, as the adoption of such measures as may most effectually secure the inhabitants of this Province against the recurrence of the danger to which they have lately been exposed.

Every one must feel that the people who at this inclement season forsook their families, and rushed in thousands to the defence of their independence and their laws, deserve that every exertion should be made by their Legislature for their future protection; and having seen the misery which the late violent insurrection against the laws has inflicted upon many hundreds of people and their families, we must feel that humanity requires every reasonable precaution to be taken, for enabling the Government in future to suppress such guilty proceedings in their earliest stages.

You are intimately acquainted with the character, the wishes and the interests of your fellow Subjects, for whom it is your privilege to legislate; you are well able to judge of the causes of those evils which we deplore, and I can leave it with confidence to your discretion to devise whatever measures may appear best suited for maintaining the public tranquillity, and for protecting the lives and properties of Her Majesty's Subjects.

You will not fail also to devote your most serious consideration to the means of preventing or repelling such hostile aggressions upon our territory, by the people of a friendly power, as our frontier at this moment exhibits; for we owe it to our honor, and to the British name, to be vigilant and firm at such a crisis.

By Authority.

To His Excellency SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, Baronet, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Council of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to return our respectful thanks for Your Excellency's Speech from the Throne.

On this first occasion of our assembling since the demise of His late Majesty, of blessed memory, we cannot forbear expressing our participation in those feelings with which the recollection of His reign will long be cherished, for the mild benignity of His disposition, and His earnest desire to secure the peace and promote the happiness of His Subjects. We unite with Your Excellency in offering our humble but hearty congratulations upon the accession of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, to whom, we earnestly pray, that the blessings of Divine favor may be extended, through a long, glorious and happy reign.

It may seem an inauspicious commencement of Her Majesty's rule over Her Provinces of Canada, that the standard of rebellion has been recently, for the first time, unfurled in them; but we humbly trust that a wise over-ruling Providence, which orders all things for good, will make even the miseries of these unnatural and hopeless contests productive of lasting advantage to these Colonies, by increasing the security of our free Institutions.

The promptness with which an apparently formidable insurrection in Lower Canada has been suppressed by Lieutenant General Sir John Colborne, with the gallant Troops and Volunteers under his command, and the instant and complete dispersion of the insurgents in this Province, by Your Excellency and the gallant Militia, cannot but afford to the Queen's loyal Subjects in the Colonies the most encouraging hope, that tranquillity is about to succeed to a long period of unreasonable and injurious agitation.

If there were countries on the globe in which rational liberty was enjoyed in its fullest extent—in which the laws were impartially administered—property protected, and the fruits of industry, almost undiminished by public burdens, reaped in security, the Provinces of Canada contained a population which, before these unhappy tumults, possessed those blessings.

But in all communities there are individuals who labor only to produce disorder; and it is not extraordinary, that there have been found in both these Colonies some few men of bad passions, or perverted understandings, who, instead of enjoying with grateful hearts the good so bountifully spread before them, have made it the base employment of their lives to alienate the affections of a happy people from a just and indulgent Government, and to produce jealousies, discord and violence, where nothing but peace, contentment and thankfulness, should have reigned.

But it is, nevertheless, extraordinary that in either Colony any considerable impression should have been made upon the people, by efforts so manifestly wicked and unjust; and it seems as if the dispensations of Divine Providence required that the miserable consequences of an unnatural, causeless and desperate rebellion, against a powerful and just Government, should be actually felt by the people of these favored Provinces, in order that those who had been so long deluded might at length see their own folly, and the wickedness and ingratitude of their leaders, in their strongest light.

We earnestly trust that the afflicting lessons which have been thus afforded, may lead to lasting good. To the number of misguided persons who have submitted themselves to the laws, and acknowledged their crime, it must be evident how grossly they have been deceived; they find their leaders flying from the just vengeance of insulted laws, and leaving their infatuated followers to the mercy of a Government which they had ungratefully endeavoured to destroy; and when they consider for what object they have exposed themselves and their families to ruin, guiltily assailed the lives of their fellow-subjects, and violated their oaths of fidelity to a just and mild Government, they cannot but perceive, that having no wrongs to complain of, they have without excuse allowed themselves to be made the instruments of gratifying the malice, or promoting the ambition, of a few unprincipled men.

We cannot allude to the late wicked insurrection in this Province, of which Your Excellency has described the origin and progress, without expressing our fervent gratitude to Almighty Providence for having preserved Your Excellency, and our loyal fellow-subjects who surrounded you, from the dangers with which you were threatened; nor can we forbear most devoutly to acknowledge the signal interposition displayed by a succession of circumstances in favor of the inhabitants of this City, which combined to defeat the atrocious designs of the insurgents, and to give effect to the spirited exertions made in its defence.

We feel a just pride in being inhabitants of a Country whose Governor could unreservedly throw himself, as Your Excellency did, upon the loyalty and spirit of the people, as the only defence necessary to protect him from danger, and as a sufficient support for the Laws and Constitution, against the open violence of their declared enemies. Such an example, and so glorious a result, cannot fail to raise the character of Upper Canada in the estimation of Her Sovereign and the British Empire.

This extraordinary attempt to subvert our Government has been attended with many beneficial results. It has exposed the gross falsehoods and deceptions to which the leaders of the insurrection had recourse, in order to delude their followers. It has shewn plainly and undeniably, that the agitation, which for many years past has disturbed the Province and impeded its welfare, had for its object to separate us from the Parent State, to gratify private malice and lawless rapacity, by cruel acts of revenge, and by the plunder of public and private property. It has shewn, that the free inhabitants of this Province are loyal, faithful, generous and brave; for nothing could be more animating and affecting than the ardour and courage with which the several Districts of Upper Canada, in the depth of winter, poured forth their thousands at a moment's warning, to rally round their Government in the hour of danger, and to extend their protection to their fellow-subjects, whose lives and liberties were threatened. It has taught the abettors of treason, that those who really value their freedom, and are prepared like men to defend it, infinitely out-number those who falsely pretend to be the advocates of liberty, but who abuse that sacred name for the purposes of faction and guilty ambition.

These lessons, we lament to say, have not been unattended with affliction, but we are confident in the hope, that Your Excellency, and all who are intrusted with authority, and those even against whose lives and property the arm of violence has been raised, will distinguish so far as may be just between such as have been the instigators and willing actors in this unnatural rebellion, and those who by falsehoods and importunity have been seduced unhappily to take part in it. Of the latter, we are persuaded the greater number already look with shame and abhorrence upon that guilty conduct which has roused the indignation of their countrymen, and exposed themselves to the punishment of the offended laws.

We have learned from Your Excellency with concern and astonishment, that the tranquillity which had been so immediately restored to all parts of this Province, has been interrupted, and the services of our gallant and faithful Militia prolonged at this inclement season, in consequence of a most extraordinary and unjustifiable invasion of our Niagara frontier by a band of armed citizens of the United States.

If, in a moment of civil commotion, any thing had been wanting to animate the loyal Subjects of this Province in the discharge of their duty to their Government, the most powerful motive would be supplied by the attempt of a foreign people to intrude themselves upon our soil, and by their insulting threat to appropriate our lands as a booty to their lawless soldiers. But we are convinced the Government of the United States will do justice to their national character by affording ample reparation for this flagrant violation of existing treaties, and when the time of reflection has arrived, and a knowledge of the truth has found its way to our neighbours, they will look back, not without some degree of

TORONTO, THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 1838.

By Authority.

To His Excellency SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, Baronet, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Council of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to return our respectful thanks for Your Excellency's Speech from the Throne.

On this first occasion of our assembling since the demise of His late Majesty, of blessed memory, we cannot forbear expressing our participation in those feelings with which the recollection of His reign will long be cherished, for the mild benignity of His disposition, and His earnest desire to secure the peace and promote the happiness of His Subjects. We unite with Your Excellency in offering our humble but hearty congratulations upon the accession of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, to whom, we earnestly pray, that the blessings of Divine favor may be extended, through a long, glorious and happy reign.

It may seem an inauspicious commencement of Her Majesty's rule over Her Provinces of Canada, that the standard of rebellion has been recently, for the first time, unfurled in them; but we humbly trust that a wise over-ruling Providence, which orders all things for good, will make even the miseries of these unnatural and hopeless contests productive of lasting advantage to these Colonies, by increasing the security of our free Institutions.

The promptness with which an apparently formidable insurrection in Lower Canada has been suppressed by Lieutenant General Sir John Colborne, with the gallant Troops and Volunteers under his command, and the instant and complete dispersion of the insurgents in this Province, by Your Excellency and the gallant Militia, cannot but afford to the Queen's loyal Subjects in the Colonies the most encouraging hope, that tranquillity is about to succeed to a long period of unreasonable and injurious agitation.

If there were countries on the globe in which rational liberty was enjoyed in its fullest extent—in which the laws were impartially administered—property protected, and the fruits of industry, almost undiminished by public burdens, reaped in security, the Provinces of Canada contained a population which, before these unhappy tumults, possessed those blessings.

But in all communities there are individuals who labor only to produce disorder; and it is not extraordinary, that there have been found in both these Colonies some few men of bad passions, or perverted understandings, who, instead of enjoying with grateful hearts the good so bountifully spread before them, have made it the base employment of their lives to alienate the affections of a happy people from a just and indulgent Government, and to produce jealousies, discord and violence, where nothing but peace, contentment and thankfulness, should have reigned.

But it is, nevertheless, extraordinary that in either Colony any considerable impression should have been made upon the people, by efforts so manifestly wicked and unjust; and it seems as if the dispensations of Divine Providence required that the miserable consequences of an unnatural, causeless and desperate rebellion, against a powerful and just Government, should be actually felt by the people of these favored Provinces, in order that those who had been so long deluded might at length see their own folly, and the wickedness and ingratitude of their leaders, in their strongest light.

We earnestly trust that the afflicting lessons which have been thus afforded, may lead to lasting good. To the number of misguided persons who have submitted themselves to the laws, and acknowledged their crime, it must be evident how grossly they have been deceived; they find their leaders flying from the just vengeance of insulted laws, and leaving their infatuated followers to the mercy of a Government which they had ungratefully endeavoured to destroy; and when they consider for what object they have exposed themselves and their families to ruin, guiltily assailed the lives of their fellow-subjects, and violated their oaths of fidelity to a just and mild Government, they cannot but perceive, that having no wrongs to complain of, they have without excuse allowed themselves to be made the instruments of gratifying the malice, or promoting the ambition, of a few unprincipled men.

We cannot allude to the late wicked insurrection in this Province, of which Your Excellency has described the origin and progress, without expressing our fervent gratitude to Almighty Providence for having preserved Your Excellency, and our loyal fellow-subjects who surrounded you, from the dangers with which you were threatened; nor can we forbear most devoutly to acknowledge the signal interposition displayed by a succession of circumstances in favor of the inhabitants of this City, which combined to defeat the atrocious designs of the insurgents, and to give effect to the spirited exertions made in its defence.

We feel a just pride in being inhabitants of a Country whose Governor could unreservedly throw himself, as Your Excellency did, upon the loyalty and spirit of the people, as the only defence necessary to protect him from danger, and as a sufficient support for the Laws and Constitution, against the open violence of their declared enemies. Such an example, and so glorious a result, cannot fail to raise the character of Upper Canada in the estimation of Her Sovereign and the British Empire.

This extraordinary attempt to subvert our Government has been attended with many beneficial results. It has exposed the gross falsehoods and deceptions to which the leaders of the insurrection had recourse, in order to delude their followers. It has shewn plainly and undeniably, that the agitation, which for many years past has disturbed the Province and impeded its welfare, had for its object to separate us from the Parent State, to gratify private malice and lawless rapacity, by cruel acts of revenge, and by the plunder of public and private property. It has shewn, that the free inhabitants of this Province are loyal, faithful, generous and brave; for nothing could be more animating and affecting than the ardour and courage with which the several Districts of Upper Canada, in the depth of winter, poured forth their thousands at a moment's warning, to rally round their Government in the hour of danger, and to extend their protection to their fellow-subjects, whose lives and liberties were threatened. It has taught the abettors of treason, that those who really value their freedom, and are prepared like men to defend it, infinitely out-number those who falsely pretend to be the advocates of liberty, but who abuse that sacred name for the purposes of faction and guilty ambition.

These lessons, we lament to say, have not been unattended with affliction, but we are confident in the hope, that Your Excellency, and all who are intrusted with authority, and those even against whose lives and property the arm of violence has been raised, will distinguish so far as may be just between such as have been the instigators and willing actors in this unnatural rebellion, and those who by falsehoods and importunity have been seduced unhappily to take part in it. Of the latter, we are persuaded the greater number already look with shame and abhorrence upon that guilty conduct which has roused the indignation of their countrymen, and exposed themselves to the punishment of the offended laws.

We have learned from Your Excellency with concern and astonishment, that the tranquillity which had been so immediately restored to all parts of this Province, has been interrupted, and the services of our gallant and faithful Militia prolonged at this inclement season, in consequence of a most extraordinary and unjustifiable invasion of our Niagara frontier by a band of armed citizens of the United States.

If, in a moment of civil commotion, any thing had been wanting to animate the loyal Subjects of this Province in the discharge of their duty to their Government, the most powerful motive would be supplied by the attempt of a foreign people to intrude themselves upon our soil, and by their insulting threat to appropriate our lands as a booty to their lawless soldiers. But we are convinced the Government of the United States will do justice to their national character by affording ample reparation for this flagrant violation of existing treaties, and when the time of reflection has arrived, and a knowledge of the truth has found its way to our neighbours, they will look back, not without some degree of believed the most palpable falsehoods, to the prejudice of the Government and free people of a friendly power, and at the forgetfulness of their obvious duties as men and christians which has marked their conduct on this occasion, and while remembering these efforts to blow the flame of civil discord in a remote portion of Her Majesty's Dominions, they will not fail to recall to mind the very different course which Great Britain pursued when she earnestly offered and exercised her powerful influence to avert from them the miseries of a threatened War with a mighty Nation then in close alliance with herself, without her having any immediate interest in the contest.

We beg to be allowed to assure Your Excellency, of our entire approbation of the measures so promptly taken for calling the attention of the American Government to the unprovoked aggressions of a portion of their people, and for placing on the Niagara frontier a strong defensive force, under the command of Colonel MacNab, the Speaker of the Assembly, whose services there, and in the District of London, at the head of a gallant Militia Band of Volunteers, have been most zealous and efficient.

As we have not been assembled under ordinary circumstances, but at a period of much anxiety, we concur in opinion with Your Excellency, that a return to our several Districts, as soon as the necessary business can be disposed of, would be prudent and satisfactory.

We shall not fail, however, to take into our consideration the adoption of such measures as will most effectually secure the inhabitants of this Province against the recurrence of the danger to which they have lately been exposed. Besides the sympathy which we feel for our fellow subjects who have incurred so many dangers and privations in defence of their independence and laws, whose noble ardour claims the highest admiration, and demands for them protection, through the Legislature, from similar evils, we feel that we owe it to the honor of the British name to be vigilant and firm in adopting measures for repelling all hostile aggressions upon our territory, from any foreign power, as well as for preventing internal dissentions and changes which would only introduce anarchy and confusion into this happy Colony.

To His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, Baronet, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c. &c

May it please Your Excellency:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, do most humbly thank Your Excellency for your gracious Speech from the Throne, at the opening of the present Session; and we most sincerely accord with Your Excellency in your expression of condolence on the loss which has been sustained in the demise of His late Gracious Majesty William the Fourth, whose memory will long be held in filial gratitude and respect by the Inhabitants of this Province.

And we also avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our heart-felt pleasure in the accession of Her Majesty Queen Victoria to the Throne of Her Ancestors, to whom we cheerfully offer the pledge of our enduring loyalty and unshrinking support.

We feel it unnecessary to say, that we participate with Your Excellency in the pain experienced by Your Excellency at the altogether unexpected and unnatural rebellion that has recently appeared in this and one other District of the Province. Your Excellency has truly declared, that looking to the enviable state of happiness and prosperity of the country, this attempt on the part of a few wicked and misguided men is too remarkable not to demand serious notice and consideration; and we assure Your Excellency its origin and progress, now well known and understood, will receive from us the most grave and serious attention. In the mean time we feel proud in the new and convincing proof the brave and loyal Militia of this Province have given of the truth of the assurance that has been many times and confidently transmitted to the Sovereign, by their Representatives in Provincial Parliament, that the British Crown cannot boast of more faithfully devoted Subjects than the inhabitants of Upper Canada.

It is not a matter of surprise to us that, although all the disaffected of this Province (however encouraged, or by whatever hopes led on) having combined to overthrow our Institutions, and to sever the union from the Parent State, which we so dearly cherish as our greatest blessing, but which has been denounced as a "baneful domination," suddenly appeared in arms to effect their purpose—the loyal Subjects of our Queen, at a moment when they believed themselves in perfect security from so foul and unnatural a treason, and were therefore wholly unprepared to defend themselves from the unexpected assault—should have risen in indignant power, and gallantly and patriotically crushed the daring and unprincipled efforts of their assailants. To the calls of honor—of duty—and of patriotism—the great body of the people of Upper Canada have ever shown themselves alive; and by these principles, and these only, have they been actuated in the recent contest—and by them will they be governed in all times to come. Neither can we forbear to notice, and to acknowledge with heartfelt satisfaction and delight that which justice and truth demand at our hands, that among those who flew to arms in defence of our Constitution and our laws, men of all creeds and parties, forgetting local differences and distinctions of politics, were to be found; and we can only hope that these indisputable facts will be remembered by the British Nation, when the enemies of our peace and our honor shall raise their voices against us in the British Senate or elsewhere.

We think it unnecessary at this moment to remark more at large on the origin and progress of the calamity we have been called upon to deplore, as a more fit opportunity will probably present itself before the close of the present Session. It may however be consistent with candour, and the dictates of a solemn duty, that this House should intimate now, and upon all occasions, that the root of the evil is not to be found in this Province, but in the unwise and mistaken policy which has for years past been pursued by those who were bound to consider in what way protection could be best given to the loyal, rather than encouragement to the disaffected, and to have acted accordingly.

The contrition evinced by hundreds of deluded and misguided men, who declare themselves to have been deceived into the commission of the crimes of which they now stand charged, is gratifying to the feelings of every humane and benevolent mind; and we are grateful to Divine Providence, that the effusion of human blood in this unnatural contest has been so slight. Neither can we pass over, without distinct notice and approbation, the able manner in which the service committed by Your Excellency to Colonel MacNab, the Speaker of this House, was performed by that Officer in the London District

We assure Your Excellency, that it is with surprise and regret we learn, that after peace and tranquility had been restored in the Province, by the defeat and dispersion of all those who had taken up arms in rebellion, we should be threatened with a hostile invasion by the citizens of a foreign country, with whom the Government is at peace. The pretext for aiding the cause and enlisting in the service of the few fugitives who, shunning the avenging arm of offended justice which was raised to punish them for murder, arson and robbery, sought to cloak their real character under the sacred names of patriotism and liberty, is too flimsy to impose on any one, or to place their conduct in any other light than that of an atrocious aggression of the laws, liberty and property, of the people of Upper Canada. But we feel it just to express our conviction that the American people, with a due regard to their national honor, will promptly discountenance these unhallowed proceedings, which we believe will turn out to be those of a few unprincipled adventurers; and we look confidently to the Government of the United States for that line of conduct which is consistent with good faith and the solemn obligations of existing treaties with the British Nation. Should we unfortunately be deceived in these just and reasonable anticipations, and should this unwarrantable invasion proceed, we beg to assure Your Excellency that the people of this Province will faithfully perform their duty; and we doubt not that in defending their domestic hearths, their wives and families, from hostility and destruction, they will fight under the protection of the God of Battles, who will give victory to their arms; nor do we fear but that the protection of the mighty Empire of which we form a portion will be extended to our aid, and that her warriors will rush to assist us in this struggle for all that is dear to us as men and as Britons, as well as to vindicate the national honor, and to chastise the unprovoked invaders of the soil.

We await, however, the replies to the communication addressed to the Governor of the State of New York, and to Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, by Your Excellency, in full confidence that they will contain an explicit assurance that we need not apprehend any further aggression on the part of the citizens of the United States, or from any portion of their territory upon the Province of Upper Canada; and we rejoice to hear that in the mean time the defence of the frontier is entrusted to the gallant Militia, and that Your Excellency has made arrangements for calling forth the whole strength of the country, should circumstances render such a course necessary.

The complete success that has attended the operations ably planned and gallantly executed by that distinguished Commander, Lieutenant General Sir John Colborne, in Lower Canada, and the brave Officers and men, Militia and Troops of the line, under his command, claims our warmest admiration and thanks. We however are deeply sensible, that to an over-ruling Providence we are indebted for the preservation and protection with which we have so signally been blessed; and we humbly trust to that Divine and Merciful Power to put a speedy termination to the dissensions that have so deeply affected the peace of these Provinces.

We shall direct our attention to the public accounts, and to a consideration of the estimates for the ensuing year, as soon as they shall be laid before us.

We will not fail to provide for the proper support of the Civil Government, and should an expenditure of a more than ordinary character be requisite for the safety of the Province, we shall not hesitate in making such a provision as the exigency of the case may require.

The propriety of indemnifying any of the inhabitants of this Province who have sustained serious losses from the outrageous acts of the insurgents, and of providing pensions for the very few subjects of Her Majesty, who may have been disabled by wounds received in defence of their laws, will engage our serious consideration. We shall not fail to devote our earliest attention to such measures as are called for by the present state of affairs, and as will tend to secure the safety of the Province, and in favour of these important objects we shall postpone the consideration of such matters as the interests of the country do not require should be at once attended to.

We feel that the people who, at this inclement season, forsook their families, and rushed in thousands to the defence of their independence and their laws, deserve that every exertion should be made by us for their future protection, and we are sensible of the necessity that exists of providing for the suppression of such guilty proceedings as were displayed in the recent insurrection in their earliest stages.

We trust that in the exercise of a sound discretion, we shall be able to devise such measures as may be best suited for maintaining the public tranquillity, and for protecting the lives and properties of Her Majesty's Subjects.

Our most serious consideration shall also be directed to the means of preventing or repelling such hostile aggressions by the people of a friendly power, as the frontier at present exhibits; and we confidently believe that we shall be able to maintain the safety and honor of the Province as an integral portion of the British Empire: that watchful over the designs of our enemies, and prompt in firmly resisting their attacks, the people will endeavour to sustain their character as a British Province, and to shew themselves worthy of the land from which they and their forefathers have sprung.

From the Upper Canada Gazette Extra. of 28th Dec.

Toronto, Thursday, December 28, 1837.

This day at eleven o'clock, His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor proceeded in State, from the Government House to the Chamber of the Honorable the Legislative Council, where being arrived, and seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a message from His Excellency to the House of Assembly, commanding their attendance. The Members present being come up accordingly, His Excellency was pleased to address the two Houses with the following—

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and, Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I have deemed it necessary to convene the Legislature of Upper Canada a few days earlier than has been customary, for the purpose of communicating with you on the present state of the Province; but before I draw your attention to this important subject, I cannot refrain from condoling with you on the loss which, since our last meeting, we have sustained in the demise of His late Gracious Majesty King William the Fourth, of blessed memory, whose parental attachment to the Canadas will, I feel confident, long be remembered by its inhabitants with filial gratitude and respect.

The Throne of the British Empire is now adorned by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, whose youth, education, virtues and sex, endearing her to her Subjects, claim their loyal protection and support.

Notwithstanding the prosperity and happiness of this Province, it is with pain I inform you, that I have suddenly been called upon to suppress a rebellion, which must have appeared to the Province at large of so extraordinary a character, that it is proper I should advert to its origin and progress.

With every disinclination to revive political differences of opinion, which must exist in every free country, and which no liberal man would ever be desirous to suppress, I will merely remind you, that shortly after I arrived in this Province with instructions from His late Majesty to correct whatever grievances might exist, it unavoidably became necessary that I should constitutionally appeal to the sense of the people—I did so, and they unequivocally supported me.

A few individuals disappointed at the result did not scruple to declare, that the people of Upper Canada had been mistaken in their verdict, which it was asserted had been obtained by improper means.

This second subject of discussion I deemed it advisable to bring plainly before the public—it was accordingly submitted to the consideration of His late Majesty and the Imperial Government, the House of Commons, and the House of Assembly of Upper Canada, and by all these tribunals the question was decided against those, who with groundless slander had assailed their Government, and who being rapidly deserted by their original supporters, were now reduced to a very few individuals.

Finding that against cool argument they could advance nothing, they desperately determined to try an appeal to physical strength, the avowed object of which was to force Her Majesty's Subjects from their allegience, and to subvert the British Constitution under the pretext of reform.

As soon as this conspiracy became known to me, I determined that for the public good I would allow it to work its own cure, but as I felt convinced that that cure would never be admitted to be perfect if Her Majesty's Troops were required to take any part in the contest, I cheerfully approved of their leaving the Province, in order that the people of Upper Canada, in a state of uncontrolled independence, might be allowed another opportunity of unequivocally demonstrating whether they would support me or desert me in the determination I had evinced, "to maintain for them the British Constitution inviolate."

Besides parting with the troops, I further resolved to place in the hands of the Civil portion of the community all the muskets, (about 4000) which the Government had in store, and I accordingly delivered them over to the custody of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, of the City of Toronto.

Without either soldiers or weapons to enforce my cause, I allowed the leader of the intended insurrection a full opportunity to make his intended experiment—I freely allowed him to write what he chose—say what he chose,

and do what he chose—I allowed him to assemble his deluded adherents for the purpose of drill—I even allowed them unopposed to assemble with loaded fire-arms, and in spite of the remonstrances which, from almost every District in the Province, I received from the peaceable portion of the community, I allowed him to make deliberate preparations for revolt; for I freely confess that I did under-rate the degree of audacity and cruelty which these armed insulters of the law were prepared, as events have proved, to exhibit. It did not seem to me credible, that in the bosom of this peaceful country, where every one was enjoying the protection of equal laws, and reaping the fruit of his labours almost undiminished by taxes, any number of persons could be found willing to assail the lives, plunder the property of their unoffending fellow Subjects, and to attempt the destruction of a Government from which they had received nothing but good.

The ultimate object of the conspiracy was veiled under a mysterious secrecy which I had no desire to penetrate; and relying implicitly on the people, so little did I enquire into it, or impede it, that I was actually in bed and asleep, when I was awakened by a messenger who abruptly informed me that a numerous body of armed rebels had been congregated by their leader—that the murder of a veteran Officer of distinction, a settler in the Province, had already been committed—and that the assailants were within an hour's march of Toronto.

The long-looked for crisis had now evidently arrived; and accordingly defenceless and unarmed, I called upon the Militia of Upper Canada to defend their Government, and then confidently awaited the result.

With an enthusiasm which it is impossible for me to describe, they instantly obeyed the summons.

Upwards of 10,000 men immediately marched towards the Capital—and in the depth of a Canadian winter, with no clothes but those they stood in—without food, and generally speaking without arms—Reformers as well as Constitutionalists—nobly rushed forward to defend the revered Constitution of their ancestors, although the rebel who had dared to attack it was offering to his adherents 300 acres of our land, and the plunder of our Banks!

As soon as the people had organized themselves, I saw it would be necessary to make an attack, however feeling the greatest possible reluctance at the prospect of a sanguinary conflict with the deluded Subjects of Her Majesty who were opposed to me, I despatched to them two of their own party, to tell them that before any collision should take place, I parentally called upon them, as their Governor, to avoid the effusion of human blood.

The answer I received from the rebel leader was, that he would only consent that his demands should be settled by a National Convention, and that he would wait till two o'clock for my answer.

Having now, to the best of my ability, performed the religious as well as moral duty which I owed to the Province, I issued a Proclamation calling upon those who had been seduced to join in the unnatural rebellion, to return to their duty, in which case I informed them that they would find the Government of their Queen as indulgent as it was just; and having given them this last opportunity to disperse, I allowed the brave Militia of Upper Canada to advance, and the result of this trial by battel was the public verdict which I had always anticipated.

The rebels dispersed in all directions, surrendered every where at discretion; those of their leaders who were not taken prisoners, absconded to the United States; and before sunset the whole conspiracy exploded.

In the London District, a similar proof of public opinion was practically evinced. To the Militia nobly commanded by Colonel MacNab, Speaker of the House of Assembly, upwards of three hundred misguided men laid down their arms—craving pardon for their guilt—asking permission to assist the loyal Militia in capturing the fugitive leaders, who they declared had not only deceived, but deserted them—and the affair being thus concluded, there remained not a rebel throughout the whole Province in arms!—indeed so complete was their defeat, that general orders were immediately issued by me, announcing that there was "no further occasion for the resort of Militia to Toronto"—and that the Militia of the Bathurst, Johnstown, Ottawa and Eastern Districts, might march to Lower Canada, in aid of the Queen's Forces.

In all the civil contests which History has been compelled to record, I conceive that there has never been a question more fairly submitted to the judgment of a free people, than that which in Upper Canada has just ended in the total defeat, moral as well as physical, of the opponents of the British Constitution.

The triumph has been that of reason over force—of good laws over anarchy—of bravery, fidelity and generosity on the part of the Militia, over murder, arson and robbery, by the rebels.

Tranquility had returned to the land—angry passions had subsided—the political atmosphere of the Province was becoming healthy after the storm which had passed over it, when, I regret to inform you, that the peace of the Province was suddenly invaded from a quarter from which Her Majesty's Subjects in this Province had certainly never calculated upon receiving an attack.

I need not on this Continent declare that the Americans are a people with whom the British Empire for many years has assiduously cultivated the most friendly connection. Our Government has looked upon them as its allies—our people have intimately connected themselves with their commerce—our capital has irrigated their land—unlimited credit has been fraternally extended to them, with that unsuspecting confidence which in the civilized world is reposed in men of character and truth—we have rejoiced in their success, and we have done all that a generous Nation could do, to save them from the expense and misery of war. It is true, we were once opponents, but the hatchet of war has long been buried, and I must own I had hoped that the spirits of our mutual ancestors were sacredly guarding its tomb!!

Such are the feelings of the British people towards the Americans, and yet I regret to inform you, that in a moment of profound peace and of professed friendship, a considerable number of Americans, regardless of the crimes committed, as well as of the degraded character of the man, have sympathized with the principal rebel, who has lately absconded as a criminal from our land. I regret to inform you, that American Citizens of influence and great wealth have come forward to coerce the brave and independent people of Upper Canada, to change laws and institutions which they have lately, by open and almost universal suffrage, publicly declared that they prefer.

The American Press has, to my astonishment, in many instances advocated this flagrant act of injustice; and such has been the popular excitement, that not only has a body of Americans, headed by American leaders, within a few days, taken possession of Navy Island, (which belongs to the British Empire) but a proclamation has just been issued from this spot, declaring that the standard of liberty is planted in Canada—that a Provisional Government is established there—that a reward of five hundred pounds is offered for my apprehension—that three hundred acres of Her Majesty's lands will be freely bestowed by this Provisional Government upon any volunteer who shall personally assist in invading our freedom; and it is added, that "ten millions of these lands, fair and fertile, will speedily be "at their disposal, with the other vast resources of a "country more extensive and rich in natural treasures "than the United Kingdom, or old France."

I am informed that Americans from various quarters are hastening from the interior to join this standard of avowed plunder and revolt—that cannon and arms are publicly proceeding there,—and under these circumstances, it becomes my painful duty to inform you, that without having offered to the United States the smallest provocation—without having entertained the slightest previous doubt of the sincerity of American alliance, the inhabitants of this Province may in a few days be called upon by me to defend their lives, their properties and their liberties, from an attack by American citizens, which, with no desire to offend, I must pronounce to be unparallelled in the history of the world.

Upon the courage and resolution of the Canadian people, I place the firmest reliance; and if this unwarrantable invasion should proceed, I know I shall not in vain require every British Subject coolly to perform that duty to his country which his own pride, spirit and feelings, will spontaneously suggest.

The interference of foreigners in the domestic policy of a free country, is an aggression which no Nation of character can ever submit to endure, (especially where a band of people, violating their own laws, our laws, as well as the sacred obligations of national amity, intrude themselves upon peaceable inhabitants, lawlessly to advocate by force of arms the practical blessings and advantages of Republican institutions, which, by their own shewing, have at least ended with them in anarchy and plunder,) and as every country is a natural fortress to its inhabitants—as every village is a strong military position—and as every bridge and ravine can be advantageously defended—I must own that deeply as I should lament a conflict of this nature, I entertain no feeling of anxiety for the result. The peaceful inhabitants of Upper Canada will not be left to defend their country alone, for they belong to an Empire which does not suffer its Subjects to be injured with impunity: and if a national war, which it rests with the American Government to avert, should be the unhappy consequence of an intolerant invasion of our freedom, the civilized world, while it sympathises with our just cause, will view with feelings of astonishment and abhorrence this attempt of a body of American citizens treacherously to attack and plunder, in a moment of profound peace, their oldest—their most intimate—and their most natural ally.

A few days will, I trust, demonstrate that the American Government wants neither the will nor the power to control its people. If otherwise, the defensive course which the inhabitants of Upper Canada must be called upon to adopt, is plain and clear.

In the mean while, however, it is but justice to the American Nation to allow them, notwithstanding our territory has been already invaded by their citizens, the opportunity of nobly vindicating, as I firmly believe they will, the integrity of their Government and Institutions; and I have to inform you that with this peaceful object in view, I have communicated with the Governor of the State of New York, with whom I have hitherto been on the most friendly terms, as also with Her Majesty's Minister at Washington: and awaiting their replies, I have re-inforced the gallant Militia of the frontier, by a strong Corps of Observation, and have made arrangements for a general call upon the Militia, in case their services should unfortunately be required.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I shall direct the public accounts, and the estimate for the ensuing year, to be laid before you.

The ordinary supplies necessary for the public service will I have no doubt, be granted; and it cannot but be expected that the late rash attempt to produce confusion in the Province, will give rise to an increase in the public expenditure, and create some new claims upon the justice and bounty of the Legislature.

You will, I doubt not, consider the propriety of indemnifying any of the inhabitants of this Province who have sustained serious losses from the outrageous acts of the insurgents, and of providing pensions for the very few Subjects of Her Majesty, who may have been disabled by wounds received in the defence of their laws.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

If you were assembled under ordinary circumstances, there would be several matters relating to the improvement of the Province, to the general welfare of its inhabitants, and to the encouragement of immigration, which I should desire to submit to your consideration; but you will probably agree with me in thinking that it may be prudent to admit of your speedy return to your several Districts, by forbearing as much as possible to enter at this time upon the discussion of business which can be properly postponed.

Nothing perhaps presses so earnestly for immediate consideration, as the adoption of such measures as may most effectually secure the inhabitants of this Province against the recurrence of the danger to which they have lately been exposed.

Every one must feel that the people who at this inclement season forsook their families, and rushed in thousands to the defence of their independence and their laws, deserve that every exertion should be made by their Legislature for their future protection; and having seen the misery which the late violent insurrection against the laws has inflicted upon many hundreds of people and their families, we must feel that humanity requires every reasonable precaution to be taken, for enabling the Government in future to suppress such guilty proceedings in their earliest stages.

You are intimately acquainted with the character, the wishes and the interests of your fellow Subjects, for whom it is your privilege to legislate; you are well able to judge of the causes of those evils which we deplore, and I can leave it with confidence to your discretion to devise whatever measures may appear best suited for maintaining the public tranquillity, and for protecting the lives and properties of Her Majesty's Subjects.

You will not fail also to devote your most serious consideration to the means of preventing or repelling such hostile aggressions upon our territory, by the people of a friendly power, as our frontier at this moment exhibits; for we owe it to our honor, and to the British name, to be vigilant and firm at such a crisis.

To His Excellency SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, Baronet, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Council of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to return our respectful thanks for Your Excellency's Speech from the Throne.

On this first occasion of our assembling since the demise of His late Majesty, of blessed memory, we cannot forbear expressing our participation in those feelings with which the recollection of His reign will long be cherished, for the mild benignity of His disposition, and His earnest desire to secure the peace and promote the happiness of His Subjects. We unite with Your Excellency in offering our humble but hearty congratulations upon the accession of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, to whom, we earnestly pray, that the blessings of Divine favor may be extended, through a long, glorious and happy reign.

It may seem an inauspicious commencement of Her Majesty's rule over Her Provinces of Canada, that the standard of rebellion has been recently, for the first time, unfurled in them; but we humbly trust that a wise over-ruling Providence, which orders all things for good, will make even the miseries of these unnatural and hopeless contests productive of lasting advantage to these Colonies, by increasing the security of our free Institutions.

The promptness with which an apparently formidable insurrection in Lower Canada has been suppressed by Lieutenant General Sir John Colborne, with the gallant Troops and Volunteers under his command, and the instant and complete dispersion of the insurgents in this Province, by Your Excellency and the gallant Militia, cannot but afford to the Queen's loyal Subjects in the Colonies the most encouraging hope, that tranquillity is about to succeed to a long period of unreasonable and injurious agitation.

If there were countries on the globe in which rational liberty was enjoyed in its fullest extent—in which the laws were impartially administered—property protected, and the fruits of industry, almost undiminished by public burdens, reaped in security, the Provinces of Canada contained a population which, before these unhappy tumults, possessed those blessings.

But in all communities there are individuals who labor only to produce disorder; and it is not extraordinary, that there have been found in both these Colonies some few men of bad passions, or perverted understandings, who, instead of enjoying with grateful hearts the good so bountifully spread before them, have made it the base employment of their lives to alienate the affections of a happy people from a just and indulgent Government, and to produce jealousies, discord and violence, where nothing but peace, contentment and thankfulness, should have reigned.

But it is, nevertheless, extraordinary that in either Colony any considerable impression should have been made upon the people, by efforts so manifestly wicked and unjust; and it seems as if the dispensations of Divine Providence required that the miserable consequences of an unnatural, causeless and desperate rebellion, against a powerful and just Government, should be actually felt by the people of these favored Provinces, in order that those who had been so long deluded might at length see their own folly, and the wickedness and ingratitude of their leaders, in their strongest light.

We earnestly trust that the afflicting lessons which have been thus afforded, may lead to lasting good. To the number of misguided persons who have submitted themselves to the laws, and acknowledged their crime, it must be evident how grossly they have been deceived; they find their leaders flying from the just vengeance of insulted laws, and leaving their infatuated followers to the mercy of a Government which they had ungratefully endeavoured to destroy; and when they consider for what object they have exposed themselves and their families to ruin, guiltily assailed the lives of their fellow-subjects, and violated their oaths of fidelity to a just and mild Government, they cannot but perceive, that having no wrongs to complain of, they have without excuse allowed themselves to be made the instruments of gratifying the malice, or promoting the ambition, of a few unprincipled men.

We cannot allude to the late wicked insurrection in this Province, of which Your Excellency has described the origin and progress, without expressing our fervent gratitude to Almighty Providence for having preserved Your Excellency, and our loyal fellow-subjects who surrounded you, from the dangers with which you were threatened; nor can we forbear most devoutly to acknowledge the signal interposition displayed by a succession of circumstances in favor of the inhabitants of this City, which combined to defeat the atrocious designs of the insurgents, and to give effect to the spirited exertions made in its defence.

We feel a just pride in being inhabitants of a Country whose Governor could unreservedly throw himself, as Your Excellency did, upon the loyalty and spirit of the people, as the only defence necessary to protect him from danger, and as a sufficient support for the Laws and Constitution, against the open violence of their declared enemies. Such an example, and so glorious a result, cannot fail to raise the character of Upper Canada in the estimation of Her Sovereign and the British Empire.

This extraordinary attempt to subvert our Government has been attended with many beneficial results. It has exposed the gross falsehoods and deceptions to which the leaders of the insurrection had recourse, in order to delude their followers. It has shewn plainly and undeniably, that the agitation, which for many years past has disturbed the Province and impeded its welfare, had for its object to separate us from the Parent State, to gratify private malice and lawless rapacity, by cruel acts of revenge, and by the plunder of public and private property. It has shewn, that the free inhabitants of this Province are loyal, faithful, generous and brave; for nothing could be more animating and affecting than the ardour and courage with which the several Districts of Upper Canada, in the depth of winter, poured forth their thousands at a moment's warning, to rally round their Government in the hour of danger, and to extend their protection to their fellow-subjects, whose lives and liberties were threatened. It has taught the abettors of treason, that those who really value their freedom, and are prepared like men to defend it, infinitely out-number those who falsely pretend to be the advocates of liberty, but who abuse that sacred name for the purposes of faction and guilty ambition.

These lessons, we lament to say, have not been unattended with affliction, but we are confident in the hope, that Your Excellency, and all who are intrusted with authority, and those even against whose lives and property the arm of violence has been raised, will distinguish so far as may be just between such as have been the instigators and willing actors in this unnatural rebellion, and those who by falsehoods and importunity have been seduced unhappily to take part in it. Of the latter, we are persuaded the greater number already look with shame and abhorrence upon that guilty conduct which has roused the indignation of their countrymen, and exposed themselves to the punishment of the offended laws.

We have learned from Your Excellency with concern and astonishment, that the tranquility which had been so immediately restored to all parts of this Province, has been interrupted, and the services of our gallant and faithful Militia prolonged at this inclement season, in consequence of a most extraordinary and unjustifiable invasion of our Niagara frontier by a band of armed citizens of the United States.

If, in a moment of civil commotion, any thing had been wanting to animate the loyal Subjects of this Province in the discharge of their duty to their Government, the most powerful motive would be supplied by the attempt of a foreign people to intrude themselves upon our soil, and by their insulting threat to appropriate our lands as a booty to their lawless soldiers. But we are convinced the Government of the United States will do justice to their national character by affording ample reparation for this flagrant violation of existing treaties, and when the time of reflection has arrived, and a knowledge of the truth has found its way to our neighbours, they will look back, not without some degree of shame, at the credulity with which they believed the most palpable falsehoods, to the prejudice of the Government and free people of a friendly power, and at the forgetfulness of their obvious duties as men and christians which has marked their conduct on this occasion, and while remembering these efforts to blow the flame of civil discord in a remote portion of Her Majesty's Dominions, they will not fail to recall to mind the very different course which Great Britain pursued when she earnestly offered and exercised her powerful influence to avert from them the miseries of a threatened War with a mighty Nation then in close alliance with herself, without her having any immediate interest in the contest.

We beg to be allowed to assure Your Excellency, of our entire approbation of the measures so promptly taken for calling the attention of the American Government to the unprovoked aggressions of a portion of their people, and for placing on the Niagara frontier a strong defensive force, under the command of Colonel MacNab, the Speaker of the Assembly, whose services there, and in the District of London, at the head of a gallant Militia Band of Volunteers, have been most zealous and efficient.

As we have not been assembled under ordinary circumstances, but at a period of much anxiety, we concur in opinion with Your Excellency, that a return to our several Districts, as soon as the necessary business can be disposed of, would be prudent and satisfactory.

We shall not fail, however, to take into our consideration the adoption of such measures as will most effectually secure the inhabitants of this Province against the recurrence of the danger to which they have lately been exposed. Besides the sympathy which we feel for our fellow subjects who have incurred so many dangers and privations in defence of their independence and laws, whose noble ardour claims the highest admiration, and demands for them protection, through the Legislature, from similar evils, we feel that we owe it to the honor of the British name to be vigilant and firm in adopting measures for repelling all hostile aggressions upon our territory, from any foreign power, as well as for preventing internal dissentions and changes which would only introduce anarchy and confusion into this happy Colony.

To His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, Baronet, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c. &c

May it please Your Excellency:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament assembled, do most humbly thank Your Excellency for your gracious Speech from the Throne, at the opening of the present Session; and we most sincerely accord with Your Excellency in your expression of condolence on the loss which has been sustained in the decease of His late Gracious Majesty William the Fourth, whose memory will long be held in filial gratitude and respect by the Inhabitants of this Province.

And we also avail ourselves of this opportunity to express our heart-felt pleasure in the accession of Her Majesty Queen Victoria to the Throne of Her Ancestors, to whom we cheerfully offer the pledge of our enduring loyalty and unshrinking support.

We feel it unnecessary to say, that we participate with Your Excellency in the pain experienced by Your Excellency at the altogether unexpected and unnatural rebellion that has recently appeared in this and one other District of the Province. Your Excellency has truly declared, that looking to the enviable state of happiness and prosperity of the country, this attempt on the part of a few wicked and misguided men is too remarkable not to demand serious notice and consideration; and we assure Your Excellency its origin and progress, now well known and understood, will receive from us the most grave and serious attention. In the mean time we feel proud in the new and convincing proof the brave and loyal Militia of this Province have given of the truth of the assurance that has been many times and confidently transmitted to the Sovereign, by their Representatives in Provincial Parliament, that the British Crown cannot boast of more faithfully devoted Subjects than the inhabitants of Upper Canada.

It is not a matter of surprise to us that, although all the disaffected of this Province (however encouraged, or by whatever hopes led on) having combined to overthrow our Institutions, and to sever the union from the Parent State, which we so dearly cherish as our greatest blessing, but which has been denounced as a "baneful domination," suddenly appeared in arms to effect their purpose—the loyal Subjects of our Queen, at a moment when they believed themselves in perfect security from so foul and unnatural a treason, and were therefore wholly unprepared to defend themselves from the unexpected assault—should have risen in indignant power, and gallantly and patriotically crushed the daring and unprincipled efforts of their assailants. To the calls of honor—of duty—and of patriotism—the great body of the people of Upper Canada have ever shown themselves alive; and by these principles, and these only, have they been actuated in the recent contest—and by them will they be governed in all times to come. Neither can we forbear to notice, and to acknowledge with heartfelt satisfaction and delight that which justice and truth demand at our hands, that among those who flew to arms in defence of our Constitution and our laws, men of all creeds and parties, forgetting local differences and distinctions of politics, were to be found; and we can only hope that these indisputable facts will be remembered by the British Nation, when the enemies of our peace and our honor shall raise their voices against us in the British Senate or elsewhere.

We think it unnecessary at this moment to remark more at large on the origin and progress of the calamity we have been called upon to deplore, as a more fit opportunity will probably present itself before the close of the present Session. It may however be consistent with candour, and the dictates of a solemn duty, that this House should intimate now, and upon all occasions, that the root of the evil is not to be found in this Province, but in the unwise and mistaken policy which has for years past been pursued by those who were bound to consider in what way protection could be best given to the loyal, rather than encouragement to the disaffected, and to have acted accordingly.

The contrition evinced by hundreds of deluded and misguided men, who declare themselves to have been deceived into the commission of the crimes of which they now stand charged, is gratifying to the feelings of every humane and benevolent mind; and we are grateful to Divine Providence, that the effusion of human blood in this unnatural contest has been so slight. Neither can we pass over, without distinct notice and approbation, the able manner in which the service committed by Your Excellency to Colonel MacNab, the Speaker of this House, was performed by that Officer in the London District.

We assure Your Excellency, that it is with surprise and regret we learn, that after peace and tranquillity had been restored in the Province, by the defeat and dispersion of all those who had taken up arms in rebellion, we should be threatened with a hostile invasion by the citizens of a foreign country, with whom the Government is at peace. The pretext for aiding the cause and enlisting in the service of the few fugitives who, shunning the avenging arm of offended justice which was raised to punish them for murder, arson and robbery, sought to cloak their real character under the sacred names of patriotism and liberty, is too flimsy to impose on any one, or to place their conduct in any other light than that of an atrocious aggression of the laws, liberty and property, of the people of Upper Canada. But we feel it just to express our conviction that the American people, with a due regard to their national honor, will promptly discountenance these unhallowed proceedings, which we believe will turn out to be those of a few unprincipled adventurers; and we look confidently to the Government of the United States for that line of conduct which is consistent with good faith and the solemn obligations of existing treaties with the British Nation. Should we unfortunately be deceived in these just and reasonable anticipations, and should this unwarrantable invasion proceed, we beg to assure Your Excellency that the people of this Province will faithfully perform their duty; and we doubt not that in defending their domestic hearths, their wives and families, from hostility and destruction, they will fight under the protection of the God of Battles, who will give victory to their arms; nor do we fear but that the protection of the mighty Empire of which we form a portion will be extended to our aid, and that her warriors will rush to assist us in this struggle for all that is dear to us as men and as Britons, as well as to vindicate the national honor, and to chastise the unprovoked invaders of the soil.

We await, however, the replies to the communication addressed to the Governor of the State of New York, and to Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, by Your Excellency, in full confidence that they will contain an explicit assurance that we need not apprehend any further aggression on the part of the citizens of the United States, or from any portion of their territory upon the Province of Upper Canada; and we rejoice to hear that in the mean time the defence of the frontier is entrusted to the gallant Militia, and that Your Excellency has made arrangements for calling forth the whole strength of the country, should circumstances render such a course necessary.

The complete success that has attended the operations ably planned and gallantly executed by that distinguished Commander, Lieutenant General Sir John Colborne, in Lower Canada, and the brave Officers and men, Militia and Troops of the line, under his command, claims our warmest admiration and thanks. We however are deeply sensible, that to an over-ruling Providence we are indebted for the preservation and protection with which we have so signally been blessed; and we humbly trust to that Divine and Merciful Power to put a speedy termination to the dissensions that have so deeply affected the peace of these Provinces.

We shall direct our attention to the public accounts, and to a consideration of the estimates for the ensuing year, as soon as they shall be laid before us.

We will not fail to provide for the proper support of the Civil Government, and should an expenditure of a more than ordinary character be requisite for the safety of the Province, we shall not hesitate in making such a provision as the exigency of the case may require.

The propriety of indemnifying any of the inhabitants of this Province who have sustained serious losses from the outrageous acts of the insurgents, and of providing pensions for the very few subjects of Her Majesty, who may have been disabled by wounds received in defence of their laws, will engage our serious consideration. We shall not fail to devote our earliest attention to such measures as are called for by the present state of affairs, and as will tend to secure the safety of the Province, and in favour of these important objects we shall postpone the consideration of such matters as the interests of the country do not require should be at once attended to.

We feel that the people who, at this inclement season, forsook their families, and rushed in thousands to the defence of their independence and their laws, deserve that every exertion should be made by us for their future protection, and we are sensible of the necessity that exists of providing for the suppression of such guilty proceedings as were displayed in the recent insurrection in their earliest stages.

We trust that in the exercise of a sound discretion, we shall be able to devise such measures as may be best suited for maintaining the public tranquillity, and for protecting the lives and properties of Her Majesty's Subjects.

Our most serious consideration shall also be directed to the means of preventing or repelling such hostile aggressions by the people of a friendly power, as the frontier at present exhibits; and we confidently believe that we shall be able to maintain the safety and honor of the Province as an integral portion of the British Empire: that watchful over the designs of our enemies, and prompt in firmly resisting their attacks, the people will endeavour to sustain their character as a British Province, and to shew themselves worthy of the land from which they and their forefathers have sprung.

H. RUTTAN,
Commons House of Assembly. Speaker.
First day of January, 1838.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

OFFICERS commanding Regiments or Detachments are apprised, that it is of importance that an Order Book be kept in every corps, to contain all orders, regulations, and circular letters, which may from time to time be issued; this book is to be regularly and correctly kept, under the immediate direction of the several Adjutants.

Commanding Officers of Regiments, or Detachments, will be held responsible that all orders, &c. are communicated without delay to the Captains or Officers commanding companies, for the purpose of being copied in a fair hand, into a Company Order Book; and all orders relating to the men, are to be communicated to them as soon as possible. On active service, the orders are to be read at the head of every troop or company, at two or three successive parades, immdeiately after such orders are received.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

THE public service having suffered considerable embarrassment and perplexity, attended with loss of time, from the injudicious and irregular manner in which correspondence is usually carried on with the Adjutant General's Department; and in order that the business of that office may be confined to the proper objects of its superintendence, in addition to the several orders formerly issued regulating the official correspondence with this office, the following instructions are now promulgated, which it is expected will be adhered to, and in the event of future departures from them, the individuals infringing them must regard the cause of their correspondence not being satisfactory, as entirely proceeding from themselves, for it is found to be quite impossible in this office to transact business in every case of irregular or perplexed correspondence:

1stly.—Official letters to this office must be confined to one subject, in every case when it is practicable; nothing of a desultory, miscellaneous or irrelevant nature, is to be introduced; too much of the time of the Officers of the Department is taken up in reading letters quite unconnected with the proper business of the office.

2ndly.—Subordinate Officers, when not at detached or independent posts, will always conduct their correspondence through the channel of their Commanding Officers; and these last will, in every case requiring it, with a view to prevent dilatory references, furnish the Adjutant General with their opinion of the subject

[Received the Royal Assent, 12th January, 1838.]

WHEREAS a traitorous conspiracy hath been formed for the purpose of overthrowing, by means of insurrection, the Government, Laws and Constitution, of this Province, and the happy connection thereof with the Mother Country: And whereas, designs and practices of a treasonable and highly dangerous nature are now carrying on in some parts of this Province: Therefore for the better preservation of the peace, laws and liberties, of this Province, Be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That all or any person or persons that are or shall be in prison in this Province, at or upon the day on which this Act shall receive the Royal Assent, or after by warrant by the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, in Council, for High Treason, suspicion of High Treason, or treasonable practices, may be detained in safe custody, without bail or mainprize, during the continuance of this Act; and that no Judge or Justice of the Peace shall, during such continuance, bail or try any such person or persons so committed, without an order from the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, in Council, any law or statute to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any seditious language or other act of sedition, only uttered, spoken, committed or done, before the first day of December last past.

2. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the expiration of this Act, the said persons so committed shall have the benefit and advantage of all laws and statutes in any way relating to or providing for the liberty of the subjects of this Province.

TORONTO, MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1838.

By Authority.

F. B. HEAD.

The Lieutenant Governor informs the Legislative Council, that in consequence of this Province being invaded and assailed by a foreign enemy, and being the scene of actual Military operations, Colonel Foster, the Officer in command of Her Majesty's land Forces, has assumed the entire military authority and command over the Troops; that he is also in command of the Militia; and that the Commissary General at Quebec has communicated to the Officer in charge of the Commissariat here, that consistently with the rules of the Service, no expenses can be allowed unless sanctioned by the authority of the Military Commander, upon whom the protection of the Province has thus necessarily devolved.

The Lieutenant Governor takes this opportunity to communicate to the Legislative Council, that having had the misfortune to differ from Her Majesty's Government, on one or two points of Colonial Policy, he felt it his duty, on the 10th of September last, respectfully to tender to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, the resignation of the important station, which for a short time, he has had the honor to hold in this Province.

His resignation having been graciously accepted, the Lieutenant Governor has to inform the Legislative Council, that he yesterday received official information that Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint Colonel Sir George Arthur, to be Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, and that His Excellency may be expected to arrive here in a few days.

Under the peculiar circumstances in which the Province is at present placed, the Lieutenant Governor feels confident, that the Legislative Council will rejoice with him at the approaching arrival of an Officer of high character and considerable experience, whose rank in the Army will enable him to combine the Military command with the Civil Government of this Province.

Government House,
15th January, 1838.

To His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, Baronet, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c. &c.

May it please Your Excellency:

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Council of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg to return our respectful thanks to Your Excellency for communicating to us the fact, which is at this crisis particularly important, that by the regulations of Her Majesty's Service the command of the Troops, and of the Militia employed in defence of this Province, cannot be united in Your Excellency's person with the Administration of the Civil Government.

If Your Excellency were to continue to represent Her Majesty in this Colony, we are persuaded, that under present circumstances, such a separation of the Civil power from the Military Command would be likely to lead to very unfortunate results, since military rank and experience, although they are by no means incompatible with the peculiar qualifications which are requisite to give confidence, animation and effect, to the Military Force, are not always to be found united with them.

We beg to assure Your Excellency that we learn with extreme regret, that the Civil Government of this Province is to continue for so short a time in Your Excellency's charge.—It is not known to us upon what particular points Your Excellency's views have differed so essentially from those of Her Majesty's Government that Your Excellency was induced to tender Your resignation; but we know, that at no period in the history of Upper Canada has its political condition been such as ought to be more satisfactory to the Ministers of the Crown: and we feel that not Upper Canada only, but the Empire, owes to Your Excellency a large debt of gratitude, for your firm and manly avowal, upon all occasions, of those sentiments which became the Representative of a British Monarch, and for the unwavering support which Your Excellency has never failed to give to the established principles of the Constitution.

It is this fearless adherence to right principles, rather than to expediency, which has enabled Your Excellency to rally round the Government, in a moment of danger, the arms of an united People: and to exhibit this Province to our Sovereign and to the world, in a posture which must command for its brave and loyal inhabitants the highest admiration and respect.

If the result of Your Excellency's firm and uncompromising policy shall impress upon Her Majesty's Government the conviction, that they need not fear to support in Upper Canada the principles of the British Constitution, it will have produced an effect of infinite value to this Colony; and will have supplied what we believe has been chiefly wanting to insure its permanent tranquillity.

But the Legislative Council cannot refrain from expressing the regret with which they have observed, in the case of Your Excellency, and of your respected and gallant Predecessor, that your connection with the Government of this Colony has seemed incapable of being protracted, with satisfaction to yourselves, beyond the period when it became evident that no submission would be made by you to a spirit of factious discontent, which nothing can appease but the destruction of British rule.

We beg Your Excellency to believe, that the Legislative Council will ever entertain a grateful recollection of the justice and condescension which they have always had occasion to acknowledge in their intercourse with Your Excellency; and that they participate deeply in the feeling of general regret at Your Excellency's approaching departure from this Province.

JOHN B. ROBINSON,
Speaker.

Legislative Council Chamber,

F. B. HEAD.

The Lieutenant Governor informs the House of Assembly, that in consequence of this Province being invaded and assailed by a foreign enemy, and being the scene of actual military operations, Colonel Foster, the Officer in command of Her Majesty's land Forces, has assumed the entire military authority and command over the Troops; that he is also in command of the Militia; and that the Commissary General at Quebec has communicated to the Officer in charge of the Commissariat here, that consistently with the rules of the Service, no expenses can be allowed unless sanctioned by the authority of the Military Commander, upon whom the protection of the Province has thus necessarily devolved.

The Lieutenant Governor takes this opportunity to communicate to the House of Assembly, that having had the misfortune to differ from Her Majesty's Government, on one or two points of Colonial policy, he felt it his duty, on the 10th of September last, respectfully to tender to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, the resignation of the important station, which for a short time, he has had the honor to hold in this Province.

His resignation having been graciously accepted, the Lieutenant Governor has to inform the House of Assembly, that he yesterday received official information that Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint Colonel Sir George Arthur, to be Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, and that

His Excellency may be expected to arrive here in a few days.

Under the peculiar circumstances in which the Province is at present placed, the Lieutenant Governor feels confident, that the House of Assembly will rejoice with him at the approaching arrival of an Officer of high character and considerable experience, whose rank in the Army will enable him to combine the Military command with the Civil Government of this Province.

Government House,
15th January, 1838.

To His Excellency SIR FRANCIS BOND HEAD, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight of the Prussian Military Order of Merit, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Upper Canada, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons House of Assembly, in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly thank Your Excellency for Your Excellency's Message of the 15th instant, communicating to this House, that "in consequence of this Province being invaded "and assailed by a Foreign enemy, and "being the scene of actual Military operations, Colonel Foster, the Officer in "command of Her Majesty's Land Forces, "has assumed the entire Military authority "and command over the Troops—that he "is also in command of the Militia, and that the Commissary General at Quebec "has communicated to the Officer in charge "of the Commissariat here, that consistently with the Rules of the Service, no "expenses can be allowed unless sanctioned by the authority of the Military Commander, upon whom the protection of the "Province has thus necessarily devolved."

In reference to this subject, we can only express our earnest hope that this regulation, which the rules of the Service appear to have rendered necessary, may in no respect impair the efficiency of the operations hitherto planned and directed by Your Excellency, with so much success for the preservation and defence of the Province against the attack of foreign and domestic enemies.

We are further informed by Your Excellency, that having had the misfortune to differ from Her Majesty's Government on one or two points of Colonial policy, Your Excellency felt it your duty, on the 10th of September last, respectfully to tender to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, the resignation of the important station which for a short time Your Excellency has had the honor to hold in this Province, and that Your Excellency's resignation had been graciously accepted. When this House recalls to recollection the events of Your Excellency's administration of the affairs of this Province—the universal respect and confidence with which you are regarded, arising from Your Excellency's firm and uncompromising adherence to the principles of the Constitution, and which has afforded to the inhabitants of this Colony various opportunities of proving, not by words merely, but by acts the most convincing and undeniable, their firm unshaken loyalty to their Sovereign, and their desire to maintain their connection with the Parent State, in contradiction to assertions and insinuations of a contrary tendency, we cannot but view with alarm the disclosure now made, that Your Excellency has felt yourself called upon to resign the administration of the Government on the grounds stated in Your Excellency's Message.

If Your Excellency's measures and policy have not given satisfaction to Our Gracious Queen, we are driven to enquire, in the most humble and respectful, but solemn manner, what course of policy it is that is expected by Her Majesty from Her Majesty's Representative in this Province? Deeply impressed with the duty of submission to the Constitutional exercise of the Royal Prerogative, we do not question the right of the Sovereign to select Her Representatives in this or any other Colony of the Empire—but we nevertheless feel ourselves impelled by a sense of duty, suggested by a desire to maintain our allegiance, (and which, on our part, can never be laid aside or forgotten,) humbly, but earnestly and emphatically to declare, that if any thing be calculated to shake the attachment of Her Majesty's now truly loyal and devoted Subjects to Her Royal Person and Government, it is by acts of injustice, or the manifestation of ungenerous distrust towards Servants, who have served the British Nation so faithfully and nobly as Your Excellency has done. It will be the duty of this House, before the close of the present Session, and when more fully informed of facts, to express more at large the feelings and opinions they entertain on this painfully interesting and important subject.

In the meantime, we beg to assure Your Excellency, that this House, and the people of the Province, will regard Your Excellency's relinquishment of its Government as a calamity of the most serious nature, and which may result in difficulties and dissensions that cannot be easily repaired or reconciled. We however are fully persuaded, that the blame cannot rest with Your Excellency; and while we sincerely and most willingly acknowledge the zeal, ability, justice and honorable disinterestedness, with which you have conducted the Government of this Province, during your short but eventful and arduous administration of its affairs, we beg respectfully and affectionately to express, on behalf of this Province, our earnest hope, that Your Excellency's prosperity in future life may be commensurate with the claims, deep and lasting as they are, upon our gratitude—the approbation of our Gracious Queen—and the applause and acknowledgment of the British Nation.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Council of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly pray that Your Excellency will be pleased to transmit to this House copies of so much of Your Excellency's correspondence with the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, as relates to Your Excellency's resignation of the Government of this Province, embracing the matter of Policy upon which Your Excellency had the misfortune to differ from Her Majesty's Government, so far as the same may, in Your Excellency's opinion, be with propriety communicated.

HIS EXCELLENCY'S REPLY.

Honorable Gentlemen:

It would afford me the greatest satisfaction to transmit to the Legislative Council, according to its request, so much of my correspondence with the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, as relates to my resignation of the Government of this Province; but after deliberate consideration I have come to the conclusion, that the publication of these documents might, under existing circumstances, embarrass my Successor, and might be considered as a violation of official confidence.

So long as I remain in the service of Her Majesty's Government, I do not consider myself justified in defending my own conduct, by any vindication that may embarrass their policy.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly request that Your Excellency will be pleased to lay before this House the correspondence between Her Majesty's Government and Your Excellency, which induced Your Excellency to tender your resignation of the Government of this Province; and also any subsequent correspondence between Her Majesty's Government and Your Excellency, on the same subject.

To all our loving and faithful Subjects, in our Province of Upper Canada—

GREETING:

KNOW YE, that taking into our most serious consideration, the merciful interposition of DIVINE PROVIDENCE, and that it hath pleased ALMIGHTY GOD to deliver us from the dangers and calamities of the unnatural Insurrection and Rebellion with which we have been lately afflicted: WE have resolved, and by the advice of our Executive Council, for our Province of Upper Canada, do hereby command, that a day of PUBLIC THANKSGIVING be observed throughout our said Province, on TUESDAY, the Sixth day of February next, so that all our people therein may humble themselves before ALMIGHTY GOD, and in the most devout and solemn manner send up their Prayers, Praises and Thanksgivings, to the Divine Majesty, for having removed the heavy Judgments which our manifold provocations have most justly deserved; and for beseeching GOD still to continue to us His mercies, favour and protection: AND WE do strictly charge and command, that the said day of PUBLIC THANKSGIVING be reverently and devoutly observed by all our loving Subjects, in our said Province of Upper Canada, as they tender the favour of ALMIGHTY GOD, and would avoid His wrath and indignation, and upon pain of such punishment as we may justly inflict on all such as contemn or neglect the performance of so Religious and necessary a duty.

(A similar Message to the House of Assembly)

Government House, Fredericton, N.B.

With the highest satisfaction I comply with the wishes of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of this Province, by transmitting to Your Excellency, Resolutions jointly concurred in by these bodies, tendering to Your Excellency, and to the gallant Militia of Upper Canada, the unanimous thanks of the Legislature, and of the People of New Brunswick, for the able, prompt, and energetic suppression by them, and by Your Excellency, unaided by any portion of Her Majesty's Troops, of the late Insurrection in the neighbourhood of Toronto.

In doing this, I beg to add the expression of my warmest concurrence in the sentiments embodied in those Resolutions, with the assurance that, while we feel the most entire confidence in the ability of Her Majesty's loyal Subjects of Upper Canada, under Your Excellency's guidance, to put down Rebellion wherever it may shew itself, yet we cannot but regret that our remote position with respect to that Province, prevents our offering our more active co-operation.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Council of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg to return our respectful thanks to Your Excellency for communicating to us the fact, which is at this crisis particularly important, that by the regulations of Her Majesty's Service the command of the Troops, and of the Militia employed in defence of this Province, cannot be united in Your Excellency's person with the Administration of the Civil Government.

If Your Excellency were to continue to represent Her Majesty in this Colony, we are persuaded, that under present circumstances, such a separation of the Civil power from the Military Command would be likely to lead to very unfortunate results, since military rank and experience, although they are by no means incompatible with the peculiar qualifications which are requisite to give confidence, animation and effect, to the Military Force, are not always to be found united with them.

We beg to assure Your Excellency that we learn with extreme regret, that the Civil Government of this Province is to continue for so short a time in Your Excellency's charge.—It is not known to us upon what particular points Your Excellency's views have differed so essentially from those of Her Majesty's Government that Your Excellency was induced to tender Your resignation; but we know, that at no period in the history of Upper Canada has its political condition been such as ought to be more satisfactory to the Ministers of the Crown: and we feel that not Upper Canada only, but the Empire, owes to Your Excellency a large debt of gratitude, for your firm and manly avowal, upon all occasions, of those sentiments which became the Representative of a British Monarch, and for the unwavering support which Your Excellency has never failed to give to the established principles of the Constitution.

It is this fearless adherence to right principles, rather than to expediency, which has enabled Your Excellency to rally round the Government, in a moment of danger, the arms of an united People: and to exhibit this Province to our Sovereign and to the world, in a posture which must command for its brave and loyal inhabitants the highest admiration and respect.

If the result of Your Excellency's firm and uncompromising policy shall impress upon Her Majesty's Government the conviction, that they need not fear to support in Upper Canada the principles of the British Constitution, it will have produced an effect of infinite value to this Colony; and will have supplied what we believe has been chiefly wanting to insure its permanent tranquillity.

But the Legislative Council cannot refrain from expressing the regret with which they have observed, in the case of Your Excellency, and of your respected and gallant Predecessor, that your connection with the Government of this Colony has seemed incapable of being protracted, with satisfaction to yourselves, beyond the period when it became evident that no submission would be made by you to a spirit of factious discontent, which nothing can appease but the destruction of British rule.

We beg Your Excellency to believe, that the Legislative Council will ever entertain a grateful recollection of the justice and condescension which they have always had occasion to acknowledge in their intercourse with Your Excellency; and that they participate deeply in the feeling of general regret at Your Excellency's approaching departure from this Province.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons House of Assembly, in Provincial Parliament assembled, humbly thank Your Excellency for Your Excellency's Message of the 15th instant, communicating to this House, that "in consequence of this Province being invaded "and assailed by a Foreign enemy, and "being the scene of actual Military operations, Colonel Foster, the Officer in "command of Her Majesty's Land Forces, "has assumed the entire Military authority "and command over the Troops—that he "is also in command of the Militia, and "that the Commissary General at Quebec "has communicated to the Officer in charge "of the Commissariat here, that consistently with the Rules of the Service, no "expenses can be allowed unless sanctioned by the authority of the Military Commander, upon whom the protection of the "Province has thus necessarily devolved."

If Your Excellency's measures and policy have not given satisfaction to Our Gracious Queen, we are driven to enquire, in the most humble and respectful, but solemn manner, what course of policy it is that is expected by Her Majesty from Her Majesty's Representative in this Province? Deeply impressed with the duty of submission to the Constitutional exercise of the Royal Prerogative, we do not question the right of the Sovereign to select Her Representatives in this or any other Colony of the Empire—but we nevertheless feel ourselves impelled by a sense of duty, suggested by a desire to maintain our allegiance, (and which, on our part, can never be laid aside or forgotten,) humbly, but earnestly and emphatically to declare, that if any thing be calculated to shake the attachment of Her Majesty's now truly loyal and devoted Subjects to Her Royal Person and Government, it is by acts of injustice, or the manifestation of ungenerous distrust towards Servants, who have served the British Nation so faithfully and nobly as Your Excellency has done. AN ACT to regulate the future erection of Gaols in this Province.

[Passed 12th January, 1838.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that measures should be taken for ascertaining and determining upon the plan of a Gaol, which will be best adapted to insure the health and comfort, as well as the safe custody of the prisoners to be confined therein, in order that by the adoption of such plan in the first instance the expense of future alterations may be avoided, and much unnecessary suffering prevented; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, after the passing of this Act, to appoint three Commissioners who, together with the Chief Justice of this Province, the Vice-Chancellor, the Judges of Her Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and the Sheriffs of the several Districts in this Province, shall compose a Board of Commissioners, for the purposes of this Act.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, every gaol that shall be erected in this Province shall be made and built according to a plan which shall be approved of by such Commissioners, or a majority of them; and no gaol that shall be built in any District otherwise than according to a plan prescribed by them, or that shall not after its completion receive their sanction and approbation, shall be deemed to be in law the gaol of such District.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if a contract shall, before the passing of this Act, have been entered into for the erection of any gaol in this Province, which contract shall only have been partly carried into effect, or shall not have been to any extent proceeded in, the Justices or other persons superintending or directing the erection of such building, or any who shall have entered into the contract for the same, shall immediately, on having notice of this Act, suspend all proceeding under such contract, and shall forthwith submit their contract, with the plans and specifications, to the consideration of the Board of Commissioners, and the Board shall determine as soon as may be practicable whether it may be expedient to proceed upon such contract or to abandon the same, or to erect such gaol wholly or in part upon a different plan; and that in case it shall be determined by the Commissioners not to proceed under the existing contract, then the amount of damages, if any, which the Contractor or Contractors may be justly entitled to receive on account of the abandonment of such contract, shall be ascertained by arbitration, and that the said Board of Commissioners shall appoint two persons, and the Contractor or Contractors two other persons, to be respectively Arbitrators in their behalf, which four persons shall choose a fifth, and the award of such five Arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall be final: Provided always, that the proceedings of such Arbitrators shall be governed by the same rules, and the Arbitrators shall have the same power as in ordinary cases of arbitration, and the award to be made by them shall be subject to be set aside by the Court of King's Bench, in like manner as awards made in other cases.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sum which may be awarded in any case shall be paid out of the funds of the District in which such gaol was to have been built, by order of the Justices of the Peace for such District.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Board of Commissioners appointed under the authority of this Act, before deciding in any case upon the plan of a gaol most proper to be adopted, shall take into their consideration the nature and extent of the ground on which such gaol is to be built—its relative situation to streets and buildings, and to any river or other water—its comparative elevation and capability of being drained—the materials of which it is to be composed—the necessity of guarding against cold and damp, and of providing properly for ventilation—the proper classification of prisoners, having respect to their age, sex, and the cause of their confinement—the best means of ensuring their safe custody, without the necessity of resorting to severe treatment—the due accommodation of the Keeper of the Gaol, so that he may have ready access to the prisoners, and may conveniently oversee them—the exclusion of any intercourse with persons without the walls of the building—the prevention of unwholesome nuisances from whatever cause—the combining provision for the reformation of Convicts, so far as may be practicable, and for their employment, in order that the common gaols may really serve for places of correction, according to the intention of the law—the admission of prisoners to air and exercise without the walls of the building, when that may be proper, and the enclosure of the yards and premises with a secure wall, and that regard shall also be had to the ability of the District to meet the expense of any proposed building, and to the expediency of adopting such a plan as may most conveniently and properly admit of the erection of additional cells and apartments, when the same may be required.

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Board of Commissioners shall, as soon as may be convenient, frame a set of rules and regulations for the government of Common Gaols in this Province, extending to the maintenance of the prisoners, in regard to diet, clothing, bedding and other necessaries, medical attendance, religious instruction, the conduct of the prisoners, and the restraint and punishment to which they may be subjected, and also to the treatment and custody of the prisoners generally, and to the whole internal economy and management of the gaol, and all such matters connected therewith as shall be thought by them expedient, which rules and regulations shall be transmitted to the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, to be laid before each House of the Legislature at their next Session, and shall not take effect until after the termination of such Session.

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the first meeting of the Commissioners to be appointed under this Act, shall be holden on the first Monday in the month of May next, and that they shall at such meeting arrange certain regular days of meeting thereafter, and may meet at such other times as may be thought by them convenient, at the call of the Chairman of such Board, and that a majority of the Members present at any such meeting shall be competent to transact business.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a yearly report of the Commissioners shall be made to both branches of the Legislature. 37-s

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

COLONEL FOSTER, Commanding Her Majesty's Forces, directs, that the whole of the Cavalry on the Niagara Frontier, with exception of the Troop attached to the 1st Reg't. Lincoln, under the command of Captain Dickson, shall forthwith return to their homes.

Adjutant General's Office,
Toronto, 30th January, 1838.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

THE provisions of the General Order, dated the 30th December last, with regard to pay and allowances respective to future enlistments, are not applicable to the two Corps of Incorporated Militia first raised under a different arrangement, nor to the 1st Simcoe Incorporated Militia; therefore these three Corps—the Queen's Rangers, Queen's Light Infantry, and 1st Simcoe Incorporated Militia, will be considered as entitled to the conditions promulgated in the General Order, 15th December, 1837.

By Command.
RICHARD BULLOCK,
39-s Adjutant General.

Adjutant General's Office,
Toronto, 30th January, 1838.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, has approved of the 1st Simcoe Incorporated Militia assuming the name of the "Royal Foresters," and to make the following appointment therein:

RICHARD BULLOCK,
39-s Adjutant General.

Adjutant General's Office,
Toronto, 31st January, 1838.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDERS.

No. 1.

IT having been hitherto found impracticable, from the nature of the service, and the duties in which the Militia have been employed since the commencement of the Rebellion and invasion of the Province, to collect the usual payment for the Ration of Provisions issued to the Officers of the Militia generally, the Colonel Commanding deems it necessary to direct, that such Rations, hitherto issued, be considered as Free Rations, in the same manner as those are which are granted to the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates of the Militia.

No. 2.—But as the confusion unavoidably consequent on the Rebellion and Invasion has ceased, and a regular system of conducting the duties of the Queen's Service now prevails, the usual payment of 1½d. Sterling, which without a fraction, is to be considered as Two-pence Currency, is to be made for each Ration drawn by the Officers of Militia, for themselves and for their male civil servants, from to-morrow, the 1st February, inclusive.

No. 3.—From the 1st February likewise, the regulated stoppage of 8½d. Sterling, which without a fraction, is to be considered as Ten-pence Currency, is to be deducted in the Pay Lists of the Troops of Militia Cavalry, from the pay of the Officers of such Troops, when the Officers draw Forage in kind, in the following proportions, viz. a Captain, three Horses, and a Subaltern, two; provided the Horses shall be effective, and present with the Troop.

By Command.

RICHARD BULLOCK,
39-s Adjutant General.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Toronto, 2nd February, 1838.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDER.

CIRCUMSTANCES permitting the disbanding of three hundred men from the effective force of the Provisional Battalion, the Lieutenant Governor is therefore pleased to dispense with the services of that number.

The Officer commanding that Corps will proceed accordingly to discharge such individuals comprising that number, as the service can best dispense with.

One month's nett pay will be issued to the above number of men, on their disbandment, to enable them to return to their homes.

By Command.

RICHARD BULLOCK,
39-s Adjutant General.

THIS is strictly to forbid all and every person from trespassing upon what is generally termed the Secord Estate, adjoining the Town of Niagara, or in its precincts, from felling timber or carrying away from off the beach either sticks or stones, as the original Patent is in the possession of the rightful owner, hereinafter subscribed to this notice. MILITIA GENERAL ORDERS.

No. 1.

THE Woman and Children of the Queen's Light Infantry, entitled to rations, and who have been left behind at this station, will with a view to their subsistadce, until further orders, be attached to the Queen's Rangers and included in their requisitions for rations.

No. 2—The Company of Durham Volunteers, now on active duty at this station, will be incorporated with the "Queen's Own," under the command of Colonel Kingsmill, from the present date.

No. 3—Officers commanding militia corps, on active service, will give the most minute attention to the important subject of the men's messing—directing the orderly officer to report to him daily upon this subject, stating that he was present at the men's messes, that he saw the distribution, and that the mess was of good or indifferent quality, and gave, or not, satisfaction.

The following extracts from Her Majesty's regulations on this important subject (applicable to the regular army) are herewith promulgated, for the guidance of the militia :

"The regularity of the men's messing is an object of primary importance. In camp or barracks the Captain or Subaltern of the day must visit and inspect the kettles at the hour appointed for cooking, and no kettle is to be taken from the kitchens till this inspection is made, and the signal is given for the men to dine, which should be at the same hour throughout the Garrison or Camp. Independent of this regimental arrangement, the Officers must daily and hourly attend to the messing, and to every circumstance connected with the economy of their Troops and Companies.

"Commanding Officers are enjoined, when practicable, to form a Sergeant's mess as the means of supporting their consequence and respectability in the corps."

No. 4—It is strictly prohibited to militiamen, when billited, to demand of their entertainers Provisions of any kind. The rations which they receive precludes the necessity for and bars all claims. Should however any instance be discovered where in such demands are made, it will not only be considered an infraction of orders but the amount will be charged against the Regiment wherein it occurs.

No. 5—Private James Johnson of the Queen's Light Infantry, is attached to the Queen's Own, until further orders, and will derive pay and subsistance accordingly.

By Authority.

TORONTO, TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 1838.

This day at four o'clock, HIS EXCELLENCY the LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR proceeded in State, from the Government House to the Chamber of the Honorable the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, where being arrived, and seated on the Throne, the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod was sent with a message from HIS EXCELLENCY to the HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, commanding their attendance.—The Members present being come up accordingly, HIS EXCELLENCY was pleased to prorogue the Session of the Legislature with the following—

SPEECH:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council; and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

Considering the circumstances under which you were hastily assembled, it is satisfactory to me to observe that you have been enabled, notwithstanding occasional anxiety from attempted invasions of our frontier, to give your deliberate attention to the public interests, and to mature some valuable measures.

The Act for the amendment of the Militia Law, will I trust remove any obstacles that may have prevented the full efficiency of a force, upon which this Province must principally rely for its safety and independence. The other measures which late events have induced you to adopt, will be found, I doubt not, well suited to the exigency, and nothing can be more satisfactory than the readiness and unanimity with which the Legislature have applied themselves to meet the emergencies of the present remarkable crisis.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I thank you for the supplies which you have granted for the support of the Civil Government during the present year.

It is much to be lamented that at a moment when the disturbed state of Lower Canada, and the depression of commerce occasioned by it, must tend materially to diminish our revenue, the necessity for new charges should be created to an inconvenient extent, by the unexpected hostility of our allies, which has forced us, for a continued length of time, into a state of actual warfare along the whole extent of our frontier.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

I regret to say that there still exists among a portion of the American people, so strong a desire to force upon the free inhabitants of this Province, republican institutions, that with scarcely an exception every Government arsenal from Lake Champlain to Lake Michigan, has within the last two months been broken open and plundered, to furnish arms for the invasion of this portion of the British Empire; and however the circumstance may be explained, it is certainly a remarkable fact, that all these robberies have been effected without the sacrifice of a single life, and without even the imprisonment of the person who is notoriously the instigator of these acts.

The wrong which citizens of the neighbouring States have committed, by thus attempting to dictate to the inhabitants of Upper Canada the form of Government under which they are henceforward to exist, will, as the assertion of a new theory, be condemned by the civilized world as severely, as in practice it has been repudiated by the people of this Province.

What right, it will be calmly asked, have the inhabitants of one country, armed with the artillery and weapons of their Government, to interfere with the political institutions of another? What excuse, it will be gravely considered, had citizens of the United States for invading the territory of Upper Canada?

When our coloured population were informed that American citizens, sympathising with their sufferings, had taken violent possession of Navy Island, for the double object of liberating them from the domination of British rule, and of imparting to them the blessings of republican institutions, based upon the principle that all men are born equal, did our coloured brethren hail their approach?—No! on the contrary, they hastened as volunteers in waggon loads to the Niagara frontier to beg from me permission, that in the intended attack upon Navy Island they might be permitted to form the forlorn hope—in short they supplicated, that they might be allowed to be foremost to defend the glorious institutions of Great Britain.

When the mild Aborigines of this Continent, who live among us uninjured and respected, were informed that citizens of the United States, disregarding the wampum-belt which was sacredly connecting them with Great Britain, had invaded our shores to sympathise with the sufferings of the red tenants of the forest, and to offer them American friendship instead of the enmity of British rule, did our Indian brethren hail their approach? No, their chiefs and warriors instantly painted their faces for battle, and with rifles in their hands these free-born defenders of their virgin soil appeared before me with a solitary request, namely, that in case of their death their wives and children might be pensioned. The Six Nations Indians, the Missisaguas, the Chippewas, the Hurons and the Ottawas, spontaneously competed with each other in a determination to die, if necessary in defending the British Government, under whose parental protection they and their fathers had been born.

When the Canadian farmers and yeomen of British origin were informed that citizens of the United States, sympathising with their sufferings, had in three instances taken forcible possession of Her Majesty's territory, for the purpose of liberating them from British domination—that, with this object in view, the American leaders had issued proclamations promising to each liberator three hundred acres of the best lands of Upper Canada, with one hundred dollars in silver—that the American self-styled General in command of the liberators had called upon the citizens of Upper Canada "to free their land from tyranny" "—to rally round the standard of liberty"—"to lay down their arms"—in which case, it was beneficently promised to them, that "their persons and property should be protected," and that if they would "cease resistance, all would be well with them."—Did the Canadian inhabitants hail their approach? No, on the contrary, their brave and loyal militia, although totally deprived of the assistance of Her Majesty's regular troops, rose simultaneously, and regardless of every private consideration, wherever the invaders appeared, thousands of bayonets were seen bristling on our shore, ready to receive them. On the eastern, as well as on the western frontier, but one feeling prevailed,—it was a noble determination on the part of free men, to conquer or die in defence of their religion—their constitution—their character—their families—and their farms,—yet, notwithstanding their excited feelings, when the American citizens, who from an armed schooner, had cruelly battered the town of Amherstburgh, fell into the hands of the brave militia of the Western District, (in which not a single rebel had been in arms,) did these prisoners fall victims to popular fury, or were they even insulted? No; the instant our invaders surrendered to British power, they experienced that mercy which adorns the British name,—their wounds were healed at our hospitals—and from the western extremity of Upper Canada, they were conducted unharmed through the Province, safe under the protecting ægis of our laws!

When a band of rebels, defeated in their cruel object to reduce this Capital to ashes in the depth of a Canadian winter, were, after the conflict at Gallows-hill, brought to me as prisoners on the field—was any distinction made between American-born and our other Canadian Subjects? No, all were released. Before the assembled Militia of Upper Canada all were equally pardoned; and though many of our brave men, smarting under feelings natural at the moment, evidently disapproved of the decision, yet all bowed in obedience to the administrator of their laws, and, under the noble influence of Monarchical Government, they allowed their assailants to pass uninjured through their ranks.

When the gallant inhabitants of the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia received intelligence that American citizens had commenced an attempt to free the British North American Colonies "from the tyranny of British rule," did they rejoice at the event? No; a burst of loyalty resounded through their lands, and a general desire to assist us was evinced.

If Upper Canada were merely a young, healthy Province, with no protection on the Continent of America but its character, its industry, and the agricultural difficulties it has to contend with—its filial attachment to its Government—the bravery it has shewn in its defence—and the mercy it has extended to its captured assailants, ought to be sufficient to make its aggressors ashamed of their late attempt to force upon their neighbours, institutions which they conscientiously and unequivocally reject. But when it is considered that Upper Canada is an integral portion of the British Empire, and that the two countries are at this moment bound together by a solemn treaty of peace, the faithless attack of citizens of the United States upon the Province, after it had completely quelled a slight domestic insurrection, will, if persisted in, excite feelings among the generous nations of Europe, which will add but little to the character of Republican institutions: for surely the smile of a nation should not be more dreaded than its frown, or its extended hand be more fatal than its uplifted arm.

When the facts just stated are clearly comprehended by intelligent men, how will the American citizens, who have so wantonly attacked the British Empire, find it possible to explain, that the Province of Upper Canada required them to interfere in its concerns?

But it seems now to be admitted, that our invaders have been deceived—that they falsely estimated the Canadian people—and that they have at last learned that the Yeomen, Farmers, Militia, Indians, and Coloured Population of this Province, prefer British Institutions to Democracy; nevertheless, as an ex post facto excuse for the sinful and repeated invasion of the Province, it is urged that the crew of the Caroline steam-boat, which was captured more than fourteen days after Navy Island had been forcibly taken from us, have been "assassinated," and that "an extraordinary outrage" has been committed upon the Americans by our Militia, who so ably and gallantly cut out that pirate vessel.

If Navy Island had been violently taken possession of by Canadian rebels, instead of by a body of Americans, armed, fed and commanded by American citizens,—if these Canadian rebels had then thought proper to invade the United States—to break open half a dozen of their State arsenals—to rob each of many hundred stand of arms—to plunder from the American Government twenty-two pieces of cannon—and to set the laws and authorities of the Republic at defiance,—could any reasonable man declare, that we should offer, or that we could be supposed to intend to offer, any offence to our allies, if in a moment of profound peace, we were to pursue in the Niagara River, the guilty vessel which had transported to the Island these American arms, and capture her, whether she were in British waters—in American waters—moored to the British shore—or to the American shore?—would it not be our bounden duty to the American people, to capture this pirate vessel?—and if we were to fail to do so, might not our allies hold us responsible for acts of such unprovoked aggression committed upon them by British Subjects, inhabiting a British Island?

Again, supposing that the Americans were to co-operate with us (as under such circumstances of course they would have done,) in chasing this pirate vessel, could it be supposed for a moment, that each power would only be permitted by the other to capture her, so long only as she continued in their own half of the River: and that if our British boat-men, at the peril of their lives, were to capture the vessel in American waters, or on the American shore, it would be considered by the Americans as a "violent outrage"? There can be no doubt in the mind of any reasonable man, that we should only perform our duty to the Americans, by destroying a vessel belonging to our own Islanders, which had so grossly insulted them—which had completely overpowered their Government—and which in a moment of peace, had so flagrantly violated the laws of nations. And if we should be justified in capturing the vessel of our Islanders, on account of the wrongs they had perpetrated upon the American nation, surely we should have additional right to do so on our own account, if the twenty-two pieces of cannon forcibly wrested from the American Government, had not only been employed for a fortnight, in firing from the Island upon the peaceable Subjects of Her Majesty, but to our certain knowledge, were about to be transported to our main land for the purpose of committing murder, arson and robbery in this Province!

It is, however, declared by our allies, that because these lawless possessors of our Island turned out to be American citizens, and because their own Government was totally unable to control them, the capture of their vessel by us, became a "violent outrage"!

It would not have been considered by them an outrage, had we by force of arms, prevented Canadian Islanders from violating American arsenals—from insulting American authorities—and from firing twenty-two pieces of the United States' cannon upon British Subjects,—but it is considered as an outrage, for us to prevent an American vessel from enabling American citizens to commit these unparalleled aggressions.

In the history of this Province, the capture of the Caroline (whoever might have been her crew,) will, I maintain, be respected by future ages, as a noble proof of the sincerity of the Canadian people to fulfil their engagements, by crushing a pirate force, which in violation of existing treaties, was insulting from a British Island, their American allies, and which General Arcularius, Governor Mason, Governor Marcy, the President, and Legislature of the United States, had absolutely found too powerful for the Executive force of the Republic to control.

The fact that the pirate force was composed of and commanded by American citizens, adds to the aggression committed against the Canadians, but subtracts nothing from the crime of robbery perpetrated upon the United States arsenals, unless indeed the American people, or the American authorities, should deem it proper to declare that it was no robbery at all, for that the aggression was approved of, that the State cannon and State muskets were knowingly and wilfully lent to the invaders of Navy Island, for the purpose of forcing Republican Institutions upon the people of Upper Canada, and that under these circumstances (which are incredible,) the attack of Canadian militia upon the American citizens who were on board the Caroline, was "an extraordinary outrage."

But supposing for a moment this false reasoning to be unanswerable—supposing even that the commission of the outrage were to be admitted by the Canadians—and that it were also to be admitted by them that the capture, by Canadians, of a small steam-boat moored to the American shore was an outrage, equal in magnitude to the capture of Navy Island by American citizens, still to make the Canadian outrage as flagrant as that which had been committed upon us by citizens of the United States, it would have been necessary for the Canadians after they had taken possession of the Caroline, to have fired from her deck with twenty-two pieces of cannon, for more than a fortnight, upon the American shore; and even then, though the outrages would certainly have been rendered apparently equal, still the former would have been an outrage of retaliation upon an enemy, the latter an outrage of unprovoked attack upon a friend.

There are two facts which the American Nation have not power to deny.

1st.—That it is their interest as well as their duty to fulfil their treaties.

2nd.—That if their people be permitted to rob the United States arsenals in order to invade a friendly power, the lawless body will very soon find out, that it is easier to plunder their own wealthy, defenceless citizens, than the poor, brave, well-armed people of Upper Canada.

I have felt it to be the especial duty of the legislative station I hold, not only to protest against the unprincipled invasion of this Province by its allies, but to vindicate the inhabitants from the unreasonable accusation, which without due inquiry, was made against them by the Federal Government of the United States, of having "assassinated" the crew of the Caroline.

The memoir of the attack which has just been made upon us, offers a moral to the Mother-Country which I feel confident will create throughout the Empire considerable sensation; for although the old country is not without its share of human misapprehension and prejudice, particularly as regards its transatlantic possessions, yet when facts are clearly submitted to it, its judgment is always sound, and its verdict nobly impartial.

The struggle on this continent between Monarchy and Democracy, has been a problem which Upper Canada has just solved.

It had been very strongly argued, even in England, that Democracy was the only form of Government indigenous to the soil of America, and that Monarchy was a power which required here artificial support.

With a view to subvert this theory the whole of the Queen's troops were allowed to retire from the Province, and the result, as had been anticipated, was that the people of Upper Canada were no sooner left uncontrolled than they proclaimed themselves in favor of Monarchical Institutions. Surrounded by temptations on almost every side they indignantly rejected them all; in a few hours they successfully put down insurrection in their own land, and when American citizens, astonished as well as disappointed at their loyalty, determined to force them to become Republicans, people of all religions and of all politics, rushed to the frontier to die in defence of their gloriousConstitution.

The conduct of the Militia of Upper Canada attracted the attention of the gallant and loyal inhabitants of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, whose Legislatures have done themselves, as well as this Province, the honor of promptly expressing their unqualified approbation of the attachment which has been evinced here to the British Constitution.

When these facts shall arrive before the English people, and when they shall also have taken into their consideration the devoted and unalterable attachment which the British population of Lower Canada have evinced for our revered institutions, surely they will come to the conclusion, that the concurrent opinions of Her Majesty's North American Colonies, respecting the relative advantages between Monarchy and Democracy in America, must be sounder than their own can be, inasmuch as eye witnesses judge more correctly than people can possibly do who are living 4,000 miles off.

The people of England will, I trust, not fail to admire the calmness, the resolution, the generosity, and the honorable subjection to their laws, which have distinguished the inhabitants of Upper Canada; and on the other hand they certainly can not fail to observe, that the republican project of our English Reformers, namely, to make the people bit by bit responsible only to themselves, has ended in America by the Government of the United States confessing its total inability to restrain the passions of its citizens, to guard its State arsenals, or to maintain its treaties with its oldest and most natural ally.

Lastly—the British people will, I trust, observe with considerable alarm, that the leading advocates for organic changes in our institutions, are either at this moment lying in our gaols as traitors, or from having absconded, are self-banished from the Province;—in short, that their pretended efforts to obtain in Upper Canada what they called "LIBERTY FOR THE PEOPLE," has ended in a most infamous and self-interested attempt to plunder private property, rob the Banks, and burn to ashes the rising capitol of their country!

With this experience before our eyes, I must confess I join with the Legislature and people of Upper Canada, in shuddering at the abused name of "reform," just as we now recoil with abhorrence, when we hear suddenly pronounced the word "sympathy."

As my successor is hourly expected here, I return to the Mother Country as I left it, totally unconnected with party or with politics; but in retirement I shall remember the lessons which the people of Upper Canada have taught me; and I feel it my duty to declare, that I leave the Continent of America with my judgment perfectly convinced, that the inhabitants of Europe, Asia and Africa, are right in their opinion that all men are not by nature equal—that the assertion of the contrary in America is a fallacy—and that talent, industry and character, must elevate individuals, as they do nations, in the graduated scale of society.

May the resplendent genius of the British Constitution ever continue to illuminate this noble land, and animated by its influence, may its inhabitants continue to be distinguished for humility of demeanor—nobility of mind—fidelity to their allies—courage before their enemy—mercy in victory—integrity in commerce—reverence for their religion—and at all times, and under all circumstances, implicit obedience to their laws.

Honorable Gentlemen, and Gentlemen:

FAREWELL!

R. STANTON, PRINTER TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

HIS Excellency the Lieut. GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
Halifax, 6th Feb. 1838.

SIR,

At the request of the Legislative Council of this Province, I have the pleasure to transmit to Your Excellency the enclosed Resolutions of that Honorable Body, expressing their high admiration of the energetic measures adopted by your Excellency to suppress the recent rebellious outbreak in Upper Canada, and offering their thanks to Colonel Allan Napier MacNab, and the Militia under his command, for their gallant conduct on that occasion.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your Excellency's most obed't.
Humble Servant,
C. CAMPBELL.

His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, Baronet, &c. &c. &c. Toronto.

Legislative Council Chambers,
29th January, 1838.

On motion of Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. Ousley—

Resolved unanimously—That while the Members of this House view with the deepest regret the existence of rebellion in the Provinces of Lower and Upper Canada, they cannot refrain from expressing the gratification they have derived from those warm and animating displays of universal loyalty and attachment to the British Constitution and Government, to which it has given occasion throughout the British North American Colonies.

Resolved unanimously—That the grateful acknowledgements of this House ought to be immediately conveyed to His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, the Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada, for the penetration with which he discovered, and the firm, prompt, and energetic manner in which he baffled and defeated the mad designs of traitorous men, to rob and murder those who prefer the blessings of the British Government to Republican institutions, but more especially for the noble-minded reliance upon the courage and loyalty of the people alone, by which he was enabled to render most important aid towards the suppression of the unnatural rebellion in Lower Canada.

Resolved unanimously—That the thanks of this House are also due to Col. Allan Napier MacNab, and the loyal Militia of Upper Canada, for their gallant conduct in crushing in its infancy this rebellious attempt, and in exhibiting a noble example of the spirit with which Her Majesty's North American Subjects are determined to preserve their connection with their Mother Country, and to put down all endeavours to weaken or destroy it.

Resolved unanimously—That this House view with astonishment and regret, the support and assistance, which in a time of profound peace and amity between the two Governments, have been afforded to the expatriated rebels by many citizens of the American Union, and this House trusts, that the efforts of the General Government of the United States will not be remitted, until such of its citizens as have been guilty of so unjustifiable a violation of the existing treaty and the law of nations, shall be punished with that severity which they deserve.

Resolved unanimously—That while this House recognize in the British Soldier that devotion to his Sovereign and country, which has led to the effectual suppression of the rebellion in Lower Canada, and also to a long and dreary march at this inclement season, they cannot but rejoice that the absence of the troops from the Upper Province has afforded gratifying and irresistible evidence of the deep-rooted attachment of the people to the British Constitution.

Resolved unanimously—That an humble address be presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, praying that he will be pleased to transmit these resolutions to His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, the Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada.

JOHN C. HALLIBURTON,
CLERK.

Legislative Council Chamber,
31st January, 1838.

AN ACT to provide for the more speedy Attainder of persons Indicted for High Treason who have fled from this Province, or remain concealed therein, to escape from Justice.

[Passed 6th March, 1838.]

WHEREAS a wicked and unnatural Rebellion against Her Majesty hath been raised and carried on within this Province; And whereas divers persons who were concerned in such Rebellion have fled from this Province, or remain concealed therein, in order to escape from justice; And whereas it is expedient and necessary to provide for the speedy attainder of such persons, in order to deter others from the like high crimes and offences; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectal provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, in case any indictment shall be found by a Grand Jury, at and before any Court of competent jurisdiction in this Province, against any person or persons for High Treason, Misprision of Treason, or Treasonable Practices, and when the Sheriff shall make return to any Warrant or Capias that may issue thereupon, that such persons, or any of them, is or are not to be found in his District, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Province, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, immediately upon the making of such return, to issue a Proclamation, to be published not less than six weeks in the Upper Canada Gazette, calling upon and requiring the person or persons against whom any such indictment or indictments shall have been found, to surrender himself or themselves to the custody of the Sheriff of the District within which the Court before whom such indictment or indictments were found was held, by a day to be within the said Proclamation named, such day not to be less than three Calendar months, from the first publication of such Proclamation in the Gazette, and if such person or persons shall not, by the day in such Proclamation named, surrender themselves to the custody aforesaid and submit to justice, then and in such case they, and every of them, after the day in such Proclamation named, shall stand and be adjudged attainted of the crime expressed and set forth in such indictment or indictments, and shall suffer and forfeit as a person attainted of such crime by the Laws of the land ought to suffer and forfeit.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Justices of all and every Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, at which any such indictment shall be found as aforesaid, shall, upon the return of the Sheriff that the person or persons named in such indictment is not to be found within the District of such Sheriff, certify the said indictment, and the proceedings thereon, into the Court of King's Bench in this Province, and it shall be the duty of every such Sheriff, at the expiration of the term limited in such Proclamation, to make a return to the said Court of King's Bench of the names of all and every such person or persons, who being named in any such Proclamation as aforesaid, shall not have surrendered themselves to the custody of the said Sheriff, pursuant to the exigency of such Proclamation, and the said Court of King's Bench shall, during the Term in or before which such last-mentioned return shall be made, direct judgment of attainder against all and every such person or persons to be entered on record.

AN ACT to enable the Government of this Province to extend a conditional Pardon, in certain cases, to persons who have been concerned in the late Insurrection.

[Passed 6th March, 1838.]

WHEREAS there is reason to believe that among the persons concerned in the late treasonable insurrection in this Province, there were some to whom the lenity of the Government may not improperly be extended, on account of the artifices used by desperate and unprincipled persons to seduce them from their allegiance: Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That upon the petition of any person charged with High Treason committed in this Province, preferred to the Lieutenant Governor before the arraignment of such person, and praying to be pardoned for his offence, it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, to grant, if it shall seem fit, a pardon to such person, in Her Majesty's name, upon such terms and conditions as may appear proper, which pardon being granted under the Great Seal of this Province, and reciting in substance the prayer of such petition, shall have the same effect as an attainder of the person therein named for the crime of High Treason, so far as regards the forfeiture of his estate and property, real and personal: Provided always, that in case a pardon shall not be granted upon any such petition, no evidence shall be given of any admission or statement therein contained, upon any trial to be afterwards had.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person shall be pardoned under this Act, upon condition of being transported, or of banishing himself from this Province, either for life or for any term of years, such person, if he shall afterwards voluntarily return to this Province, without lawful excuse, contrary to the condition of his pardon, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall suffer death as in cases of felony.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the provisions of this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend to such persons as have fled, and are still absent from this Province under a charge of High Treason, and for whose apprehension a reward has been offered. 44-s

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, or for any Constable or Peace Officer, or for any person acting in their aid or assistance, to disperse any such unlawful meeting or assembly as aforesaid, and to arrest and detain any person present at or aiding, assisting or abetting, any such assembly or meeting as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace who shall arrest any such person, or before whom any person so arrested shall be brought, to commit such person for trial for such offence under the provisions of this Act, unless such person can and shall give bail for his appearance at the next Assizes, to answer to any indictment which may be preferred against him, for any such offence against this Act.

3. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent any prosecution, by indictment or otherwise, for any thing that shall be an offence within the intent and meaning of this Act, and which might have been so prosecuted if this Act had not been made, unless the offender shall have been prosecuted for such offence under this Act, and convicted or acquitted of such offence.

4. And whereas, Arms and weapons of various sorts have, in some parts of this Province, been collected, and are kept for purposes dangerous to the public peace, and it is expedient that the Justices of the Peace should be authorised and empowered to seize and detain such arms and weapons: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon information on oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, that any pike, pike-head or spear, is in possession of any person or persons, or in any house or place, or that any dirk, dagger, sword, pistol, gun, rifle or other weapon, is, for any purpose dangerous to the public peace, in the possession of any person, or in any house or place, to issue his warrant to any Constable or other Peace Officer, to search for and seize any such pike, pike-head, spear, dirk, dagger, sword, pistol, gun, rifle or other weapon, being in the possession of any such person, or in any such house or place as aforesaid; and in case admission into such house or place be refused, or not obtained within a reasonable time after it shall have been first demanded, to enter by force, by day or by night, into every such house or place whatsoever, and to detain or cause to be detained in safe custody, in such place as the said Justice shall appoint and direct, the arms and weapons so found or seized as aforesaid, unless the owner thereof shall prove, to the satisfaction of such Justice, that such arms or weapons were not kept for any purpose dangerous to the public peace.

AN ACT for indemnifying persons who since the Second of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have acted in apprehending, imprisoning, or detaining in custody, persons suspected of High Treason, or Treasonable Practices, and in the suppression of Unlawful Assemblies, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

[Passed, 6th March, 1838.]

WHEREAS a late armed insurrection of certain Subjects of Her Majesty, in this Province, with intent to subvert the Government, and to plunder and destroy the property of the loyal Inhabitants, has been happily subdued, but not until the insurgents had committed acts of murder, robbery and arson, and had occasioned much alarm for the peace and security of the Province: And whereas, immediately before and during the said insurrection, and in consequence thereof, it became necessary for Justices of the Peace, Officers of the Militia, and other persons in authority in this Province, and for divers loyal Subjects of Her Majesty, to take all possible measures for apprehending, securing, detaining and bringing, to Justice, persons charged or suspected of joining in the said insurrection, or of aiding or abetting the same, or of other Treasonable Practices dangerous to the peace of this Province, and the security of its Government, and also for the purpose of defeating and putting down the said insurrection, and for maintaining the peace of this Province, and securing the lives and properties of the Inhabitants thereof: And whereas, some of such acts may not have been strictly legal and formal, but it is nevertheless just and necessary that the persons doing or advising the same should be kept harmless, and indemnified against actions at Law, or other proceedings, with which they might otherwise be harrassed: Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That all personal actions, suits, indictments and prosecutions, heretofore brought, commenced, preferred or exhibited, or now depending, or to be hereafter brought, commenced, preferred or exhibited, and all judgments thereupon obtained, if any such there be or shall be, and all proceedings whatsoever against any person or persons, for or on account of any act, matter or thing, by him or them done or commanded, ordered or directed, or advised to be done, since the second day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, for apprehending, committing, imprisoning, detaining in custody, or discharging any person or persons who hath or have been imprisoned or detained in custody for High Treason, or suspicion of High Treason, or treasonable practices, or for apprehending, committing, imprisoning, or detaining in custody, any person or persons who hath or have been imprisoned or detained in custody, for having been so tumultuously, unlawfully and traitorously, assembled in arms as aforesaid, or for dispersing by force of arms any persons so assembled as aforesaid, or for suppressing the said traitorous insurrection, and discovering and guarding against any other the treasonable proceedings aforesaid, or for the discovering and bringing to justice the persons concerned therein, or for maintaining the public peace and the security of Her Majesty's Subjects in their persons and property, or for supporting the Government and Constitution of this Province against the treasonable practices and proceedings aforesaid, shall be discharged and made void, and that every person by whom any such act, matter or thing, shall have been done, or commanded, ordered, directed, or advised to be done, shall be freed, acquitted, discharged and indemnified, as well against the Queen's Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as against all and every other person and persons.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any action or suit shall be brought, commenced or had, in any superior Court in this Province, against any person or persons, for and on account of any such act, matter or thing, as aforesaid, he and they may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become non-suit, or forbear further prosecution, or suffer discontinuance in any such action or suit, or if a verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, the Defendant or Defendants therein shall be entitled to double costs, for which he or they shall have the like remedy as in other cases in which costs by law are given to Defendants.

3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any action, suit, indictment, information, prosecution or proceeding, shall be brought, commenced, preferred, exhibited or had in any Court, against any person or persons, for or on account of any such act, matter or thing as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants in any such action, suit, indictment, information, prosecution or proceeding, or for any of them, to apply by motion, petition, or otherwise, in a summary way, to the Court in which the same hath been or shall be brought, commenced, preferred, exhibited or had, or shall be depending, if such Court shall be sitting, and if not sitting, then to any one of the Judges, or Justices of such Court, to stay all further proceedings in such action, suit, indictment, information, prosecution or proceeding; and such Court, and any Judge or Justice thereof when the said Court shall not be sitting, is hereby authorised and required to examine the matter of such application, and upon proof, by the oath or affidavit of the person or persons making such application, or any of them, or other proof to the satisfaction of such Court, Judge or Justice, that such action, suit, indictment, information, prosecution or proceeding, is brought, commenced, preferred, exhibited or had, for or on account of any such act, matter or thing as aforesaid, to make an order for staying execution and all other proceedings in such action, suit, indictment, information, prosecution or proceeding, in whatever state the same shall or may then be, and the Court or the Judge or Justice making such order for stay of proceedings, in any action or suit as aforesaid, shall also order unto the Defendant or Defendants, and he or they shall have or be entitled to double costs for all such proceedings as shall be had or carried on in any such action or suit, after the passing of this Act, and for which costs he and they shall have the like remedy as in cases where costs are by Law given to Defendants: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any person or persons being a party or parties to any such action, suit, indictment, information, prosecution or other proceeding, to apply by motion, petition or otherwise, in a summary way, to the Court in which the same shall have been brought, commenced, preferred, exhibited or had, or shall be depending, to vacate, discharge or set aside, any order made by any Judge or Justice of that Court for staying proceedings, or for payment of costs as aforesaid, so as such application be made within the first four days of the Term next ensuing the making of any such order by any Judge or Justice as aforesaid, and such Court is required to examine the matter of such application, and to make such order therein, as if the application had been originally made to the said Court: But nevertheless, in the mean time, and until such application shall be made to the said Court, and unless the said Court shall think fit to vacate, discharge, set aside, or reverse the order made by any such Judge or Justice as aforesaid, the same shall continue in full force to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all and every person or persons discharged out of custody as aforesaid, although he shall not have been discharged according to Law, shall be deemed and taken to have been legally discharged out of custody. 44-s

[Passed 6th March, 1838.]

WHEREAS during the late unnatural rebellion, certain Inhabitants of this Province sustained much loss and damage, by the destruction of their dwellings and other buildings by the rebels: And whereas it is expedient that a diligent and impartial inquiry should be made into the amount of such losses: Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, from time to time, by Commission under the Great Seal of said Province, to appoint three persons as Commissioners, whose duty it shall be to inquire into the losses so sustained by Her Majesty's Subjects during the late unnatural rebellion.

COURT OF PROBATE, Upper Canada, City of Toronto, to wit: } WHEREAS application in writing hath been duly made to the Judge of the Court of Probate, by William Duncan Taylor, of Burford, in the District of London, ———, setting forth, that on the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, a certain William Taylor, then residing in Landen County, State of Virginia, in the United States, departed this life, possessed of considerable real and personal estate, leaving by his last will and testament, dated the thirtieth August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, to such of his three Sisters, viz.—Margaret Taylor, Elizabeth Rodgers, and Mary Kee, the sum of two thousand dollars, and having given the above Legacies, and emancipated his Slaves, he devised the residue of his estate, real and personal, to his relative, Robert J. Taylor, of Alexandria, and appointed him the Executor of his said Will: And whereas, all of the three Sisters stated above are dead, and the said sums of money have never been paid by the said Executor, Robert Johnston Taylor: And whereas by the provisions of the said Will, this Petitioner and his Brothers and Sisters are the legal claimants to the sum of two thousand dollars left to one of the said Sisters, Elizabeth Rodgers, and the legal representatives of a portion of the further sum of two thousand dollars left to Mary Taylor, another of the said three Sisters: And whereas three of the Brothers of this Petitioner are Minors, viz.—Frederick Taylor, Henry Taylor, and George Taylor, as also are three of the Sisters of this Petitioner, viz.—Eliza Taylor, Margaret Amelia Taylor, and Jane Taylor, and on that account, as well as from both of their Parents being dead, are deprived from having recourse to a just and legal course of proceeding by which to recover, for their use and benefit, their share of the Legacies so bequeathed, to their great detriment and loss. This Petitioner being one of the elder Brothers of these Minors, and their only natural guardian and protector in this country, prayed that he may, by the said Court of Probate of Upper Canada, be invested with legal authority to sue for, recover, receive, apply and retain, to and for the special use and benefit of the said Frederick Taylor, Henry Taylor, and George Taylor, Eliza Taylor, Margaret Amelia Taylor, and Jane Taylor, and to be appointed their legal Guardian, to so receive from the said Executor, Robert Johnston Taylor, his Executors, Administrators, Assigns or Representatives, whatever sum or sums of money, with interest thereon, as may accrue to the said Minors, under the Will of the said deceased William Taylor, and that this Petitioner is prepared to enter into the usual securities for his proper discharge of said trust and guardianship.

Now public notice is hereby given of such application, as required by the Statute in that case made and provided.

Given under my hand and Seal of the said Court of Probate, in the City of Toronto, this seventeenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

Majesty as an Officer in any Military capacity, and being a Non-commissioned Officer, or Private, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty pounds; and in default of payment for such refusal or neglect, such Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, or Private, shall be committed to the common Gaol of the District, for any time not less than six, nor more than twelve calendar months, except such person shall satisfy the Colonel or Officer commanding such Regiment or Battalion to which he belongs, that such refusal or neglect arose from sickness, or that he was absent upon leave; and that all such penalties shall be levied and collected in the same manner as penalties are authorised to be levied and collected by the authority of this Act, for disobedience of orders in time of peace: Provided always, that whenever it shall happen that only part of the Militia of this Province shall be called out for actual service, it shall and may be lawful for any person being of the Militia of the County or Riding that may be so called out, or of any City within the same, duly chartered by any Act of the Parliament of this Province, to provide and send an able-bodied man to serve in the said Militia in his stead, and such able-bodied man shall be taken and received as a proper substitute for such person living in the County, Riding or City, that would otherwise be obliged to serve in the said part of the Militia called out as aforesaid.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor, to embody the Militia of this Province, or such portion thereof as he may think necessary and expedient, and to march the same into the Province of Lower Canada at any time when the same shall be actually invaded, or threatened with invasion, or in a state of insurrection; or to march the said Militia, or any portion thereof, to any place without the limits of this Province, for the attack of any enemy that may have invaded, or may be marching or collected for the purpose of invading this Province; or for the destruction of any vessel or vessels built or building, or any fort, depot or magazine, formed or forming by any Foreign Power at war with our Sovereign Lady the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, from whence the invasion of this Province may be apprehended.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all Officers of Militia appointed under and by virtue of this Act shall hold their Commissions during pleasure.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Colonel or Officer commanding any Regiment or Battalion of Militia within this Province, shall have power and authority to assemble his respective Regiment or Battalion two days in each year, and oftener if thereunto directed by the Lieutenant Governor, at such place or places as he shall appoint, for the purpose of drill and inspection.

X. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That on or before the fourteenth day of June in each and every year, the Colonel or Officer commanding any Regiment or Battalion of Militia in this Province, shall transmit to the Adjutant General of the Province, a return of the effective strength of the same; the vacancies that may have occurred from any cause among the Officers of such Regiment or Battalion; and the names of persons recommended to fill such vacancies, together with such further information as the Lieutenant Governor shall from time to time direct to be included in such return.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Lieutenant Governor shall have full power and authority to appoint persons belonging to his personal Staff, or on the Staff of the Militia, to such Militia rank as he may think proper to confer, not exceeding the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, independent of and apart from any rank that may be held by such person in any Regiment or Battalion of Militia in this Province.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor, from time to time, to prescribe the uniform to be worn by the Militia of the Province, when on duty or assembled for drill or inspection.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any Officer of Militia who shall not, within one year from the time the Lieutenant Governor shall prescribe the uniform for the respective Regiments or Battalions, provide himself with such uniform, including a sword, and who shall appear at any muster or inspection of the Regiment or Battalion to which he belongs, without being dressed in such uniform and sword, shall be and he is hereby declared superseded.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor, in his discretion, to constitute Regiments or Battalions of Dragoons, Artillery or Light Infantry, separate and distinct from other Regiments or Battalions in the several Districts of this Province, to be selected from the different Regiments or Battalions therein, as the Lieutenant Governor may direct: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing in this clause contained, shall be construed to prevent the formation of Companies of Artillery, or Troops of Dragoons, within the limits assigned to the several Regiments or Battalions of Militia, to be independent of or attached to such Regiments or Battalions, according to such orders or directions as the Lieutenant Governor may, from time to time, make in that behalf.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That Regiments or Battalions of Dragoons, Artillery or Light Infantry, so constituted as aforesaid, shall be subject to such orders, rules and regulations, with respect to drill, inspection or other duty, as from time to time, may be issued by the Lieutenant Governor, for their efficient organization for actual service, apart from the other Regiments or Battalions of Militia in the Province.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any Officer of Militia, who, in time of peace, shall be guilty of wilful neglect or disobedience of orders, or of any act of insubordination, in the performance of his duty, shall, on conviction, be liable to pay a fine, not less than one pound nor more than twenty pounds, besides costs of conviction, and to be cashiered and deprived of his commission and rank in the Militia.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any non-commissioned Officer or private Militia-man, who, in time of peace, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to enrol himself, as herein-before provided, or who shall be guilty of wilful neglect or disobedience of orders, or of any act of insubordination or misconduct, while on parade, or engaged in the performance of Militia duty, shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than five shillings nor more than five pounds, over and above the costs of conviction, and in default of payment, shall be liable to imprisonment in the common gaol of the District, for a term not less than three days nor more than one month.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Colonel, or other Officer commanding any Regiment or Battalion of Militia in this Province, shall have full power and authority, in time of peace, to assemble a Court, to be composed of not less than three Officers of the Regiment or Battalion under his command, one of whom at least shall be of the rank of Captain, and which Court shall have full power and authority to hear evidence and investigate all charges that may be brought against any non-commissioned Officer, or private Militia-man, for any offence or neglect of duty contrary to the provisions of this Act, and to give such judgment thereupon as they, in their discretion, shall think just and reasonable, the same being in accordance with and authorised by the enactments herein-contained.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Colonel, or Officer commanding any Regiment or Battalion, shall direct a notice to be given to the Captains, or Officers commanding Companies under his command, of the time and place where such Court shall be held, at least fifteen days before the time for its assembling.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That after receiving such notice, and at least eight days before the meeting of such Court, Captains or other Officers commanding Companies, shall cause a notice in writing to be served on any non-commissioned officer, or private Militia-man belonging to the Company under his command, against whom it may be intended to prefer any complaint of neglect of duty or misconduct, of such non-commissioned officer, or private Militia man, requiring him to appear to answer such complaint; which notice, signed by the Captain or Officer commanding such Company, may be in the words or to the effect following:—"Mr. A. B. You are hereby required to attend before the Court appointed for the trial of Militia offenders belonging to the ——— Regiment of Militia, which will assemble at ——, on the —— day of ——, at ten o'clock, forenoon, to answer a charge—(for not enrolling yourself as a Militia-man, or for not attending Militia muster, or for insubordination, as the case may be.) Dated this —— day of ——, C. D. Captain, or Officer commanding —— Company, —— Regiment, Militia."

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no Non-commissioned Officer, or Private Militia-man, shall be condemned, or be liable to answer any charge preferred against him, unless it be proved at the time appointed for the trial of such charge, that he had been served with a notice as herein before provided, at least eight days before the meeting of the said Court, to appear and answer the charge to be preferred against him.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid. That it shall be lawful for the said Court, to command the appearance and to examine witnesses on oath, relative to any complaint that may be brought before them, and to commit the person summoned as a witness for non-attendance, as in ordinary cases of contempt.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Officers composing the said Court, shall be entitled to receive the sum of five shillings each, for each day they shall be engaged as members of the said Court.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the person who shall serve notices as herein before required, shall be entitled to receive four-pence for each mile he shall necessarily travel to effect such service, and that for every fine levied and collected under a warrant from the said Court, the person levying the same shall be entitled to the same fees as are now paid, for service of a like nature, to any Constable or Peace Officer in this Province: Provided always, that it shall be in the discretion of the said Court to appoint such person as they may think fit to execute the warrants or other process issued by them.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the judgments of the said Court shall, without appeal, be carried into effect, and the fines imposed by them, shall be levied upon a warrant signed by the senior member of the Court, in the same manner as the judgments of the Justices of the Peace are carried into effect under the provisions of an Act passed in the fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act to provide for the summary punishment of petty trespasses and other offences."

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all Officers who may be appointed to compose any Board for the trial of any offender or offenders under this Act, shall, before proceeding to the trial of such offender or offenders, take the following oath:—"I do sincerely promise and swear, that in all such matters as shall be brought before me under the Militia Laws of this Province, I will faithfully act according to the best of my judgment, agreeably to the said Laws, without favor or partiality to any person.—So help me God." Which oath may be administered by any one member to the other members of the said Board.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all monies arising from fines levied and collected under the provisions of this Act, shall be paid into the hands of the Colonel or Officer Commanding the Regiment or Battalion within which the same shall have been imposed, and shall be applied under the direction of the Field Officers of such Regiment or Battalion—first, to the payment of the allowance to the members of the Court and other incidental expenses, the payment of which is not otherwise provided for—and secondly, to the purchase of colors, musical instruments, or other purposes tending to advance the discipline and efficiency of the Regiment or Battalion.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That twice in each year, that is to say, on the first day of March, and the first day of September, the Colonels or Officers in command of Regiments or Battalions in this Province, shall make a return to the Adjutant General of Militia of this Province, of the number and names of persons complained against; the judgments of the Court; the amount of fines levied; and the manner in which the same shall have been distributed and disposed of.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in time of peace, and when any charge shall be made against any Officer of the Militia of this Province, for disobedience of orders, or any act of insubordination, or misconduct as an Officer of the Militia, it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor in his discretion to assemble a Court Martial, (the President of which shall be a Field Officer,) to be composed of seven or more Officers belonging to one or more of the Regiments of Militia, organized or embodied within the County or District to which the accused party belongs, to investigate the charges made against such Officer, and to examine witnesses on oath, as well in support of, as against such charge, and award such sentence as in their opinion may be just and reasonable, and not inconsistent with, or contradictory to the provisions of this Act: Provided always, that in the appointment of Judge Advocate, the administration of oaths, and forms of proceeding to be observed by the said Courts Martial, respect shall be had to the provisions hereinafter contained for the constitution and regulation of Courts Martial, in cases where the same shall be required during the period of actual service by any part of the Militia of this Province: And provided also, that such sentence shall, before being carried into effect, be approved of by the Lieutenant Governor.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer of Militia, shall be sentenced to the payment of a fine, under the provisions of this Act, and shall make default in payment thereof, the same shall be levied by sale and distress of his effects under a warrant to be signed by the senior Officer composing the said Court Martial, in the same manner as fines awarded against Non-commissioned Officers and private Militia-men are by this Act directed to be levied, and shall be appropriated and accounted for in the same manner as the said last mentioned fines are directed to be appropriated and accounted for.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That during the time any portion of the Militia of this Province shall be embodied for actual service, under and by virtue of this Act, they and every of them, as well Officers as Privates, shall be liable and subject to all the rules, regulations, pains and penalties, of any Act or Acts of the British Parliament that are or may be in force for the punishment of mutiny, desertion, or other crimes, in the Army of Her Majesty the Queen, Her Heirs or Successors: Provided, nevertheless, that no Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Private Militia-man, shall be sentenced to the loss of life, unless for desertion to the enemy, traitorous correspondence, or for traitorously delivering up to the enemy any garrison, fortress, post, or guard, or vessel, either armed or employed in the service of Government, any thing herein contained, or any statute, law or usage, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided also, that no Officer, Non-commissioned Officer or Private of Militia, shall be liable to the punishment of being flogged, by the sentence of any Court Martial.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when the Militia of this Province shall be called out on actual service, in all cases where a General Court Martial shall be required, the Lieutenant Governor, upon application to him made through the Officer commanding the body of Militia to which the party accused may belong, or in case he be the accuser or the accused, then through the next Senior Officer, shall issue his order to assemble a General Court Martial; which said Court Martial shall consist of a President, who shall be a Field Officer, and not less than eight other Commissioned Officers of the Militia: Provided always, that in all trials by General Courts Martial to be held by virtue of this Act, the Lieutenant Governor shall nominate and appoint the person who shall act as Judge Advocate; and that every member of the said Court Martial, before any proceeding be had before the Court, shall take the following oath before the Judge Advocate, who is hereby authorised to administer the same, viz:—"You, A. B., do swear, that you will administer justice to the best of your understanding, in the matter now before you, according to the evidence and the Militia Laws now in force in this Province, without partiality, favor or affection; and you further swear, that you will not divulge the sentence of the Court, until it shall be approved by the Lieutenant Governor; neither will you upon any account, at any time whatever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the Court Martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a Court of Justice, in due course of law: So help you God": And so soon as the said oath shall have been administered to the respective Members, the President of the Court is hereby authorised and required to administer to the Judge Advocate, or the person officiating as such, an oath in the following words:—"You, A.
