PUBLIC SALES will take place at the Agents' Offices, in the different Districts within this Province, on the 31st March, 30th June, 30th September, and 31st December, in each year, when such Lots as may have been bid off at Auction above the upset price, and which may have become forfeited for non-compliance with the conditions of such Sale, will be again exposed to public competition;—also such Lands as may be returned to this Department for sale, not heretofore advertised.

The numbers of the first-described Lands may be known, upon application to the Agents of this Department, in their respective Districts: those of the latter will appear in the Upper Canada Gazette, and in one of the newspapers published in each District, one month before the time of such quarterly Sale, above mentioned, or of such special Sale as may be hereafter advertised.

A General Advertisement of Crown Lands, not heretofore offered, will appear so soon as Returns of Inspection of Lots advertised under Order in Council of the 4th April, 1838, have been made by the District Agents, and the necessary authority obtained from His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, to offer for sale such Lands, so advertised, as may have been forfeited by the original Locatees—when Lots returned as vacant since the General Advertisement of Sales of Crown Lands, published last year, will be included.

ENLARGEMENT OF
THE MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

ON THURSDAY, the 3rd June, the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT will appear on a larger sheet, as some time since proposed. As the old size and the new one will not bind together, our paper of that day will be No 1, of a new volume; and an extra number of the first few numbers will be struck off, in order that new subscribers may be supplied from the commencement of the interesting Tales it is proposed to introduce. Advertisements inserted in the 1st No. will have the advantage not only of the present large circulation of the TRANSCRIPT, but of an additional quantity to be printed on that day.

All Advertisements inserted in the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT, shall have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, a new paper to be published on the 9th June.

D. McDONALD,
Proprietor.
Montreal, 25th May, 1841.

THE WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT.

ON WEDNESDAY, the 9th June, a new paper, to be called the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, will be issued from this Office, and will continue to be published every Wednesday, at the low rate of TEN SHILLINGS per annum, in town, and 12s. 6d. in the country, although containing 32 pages of the original TRANSCRIPT size. It will make a handsome volume for binding, amounting in each year to 624 pages, and will enter from its commencement on the popular stories of "BARNABY RUDGE," by Boz, and "OLD ST. PAUL'S," by W. Harrison Ainsworth. These will be followed by a constant succession of selections from the most celebrated authors, and the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will furnish the cheapest and best collection of literary matter to be found in Canada, besides giving the latest news, and the politics of both the Colonies and the Mother Country.

It is a proud recollection with us, that our earliest efforts were nursed into maturity by the distinguished patronage of the fair sex; and a sense of gratitude will induce us to insert in our new weekly paper an occasional piece of MUSIC—sometimes original, sometimes transcribed from the most celebrated professors.

Agriculture, the source from which this country must derive so large a proportion of its future prosperity, will not be lost sight of. Its interests, and those of the Mechanic, will find a steady advocate in the TRANSCRIPT.

Intending subscribers will do well to be early in signifying their intention, and be particular in mentioning whether it is the tri-weekly, or the weekly paper they desire. Subscriptions payable invariably in advance.

Advertisements ordered into the tri weekly TRANSCRIPT, will have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT. If ordered for a longer time, they shall be paid for at the usual rates.

The WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will be under the same editorial management as the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

All orders addressed to the Proprietor, will be duly attended to.

PUBLIC SALES will take place at the Agents' Offices, in the different Districts within this Province, on the 31st March, 30th June, 30th September, and 31st December, in each year, when such Lots as may have been bid off at Auction above the upset price, and which may have become forfeited for non-compliance with the conditions of such Sale, will be again exposed to public competition;—also such Lands as may be returned to this Department for sale, not heretofore advertised.

The numbers of the first-described Lands may be known, upon application to the Agents of this Department, in their respective Districts; those of the latter will appear in the Upper Canada Gazette, and in one of the newspapers published in each District, one month before the time of such quarterly Sale, above mentioned, or of such special Sale as may be hereafter advertised.

A General Advertisement of Crown Lands, not heretofore offered, will appear so soon as Returns of Inspection of Lots advertised under Order in Council of the 4th April, 1838, have been made by the District Agents, and the necessary authority obtained from His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, to offer for sale such Lands, so advertised, as may have been forfeited by the original Locatees—when Lots returned as vacant since the General Advertisement of Sales of Crown Lands, published last year, will be included.

ENLARGEMENT OF
THE MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

ON THURSDAY, the 3rd June, the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT will appear on a larger sheet, as some time since proposed. As the old size and the new one will not bind together, our paper of that day will be No. 1, of a new volume; and an extra number of the first few numbers will be struck off, in order that new subscribers may be supplied from the commencement of the interesting Tales it is proposed to introduce. Advertisements inserted in the 1st No. will have the advantage not only of the present large circulation of the TRANSCRIPT, but of an additional quantity to be printed on that day.

All Advertisements inserted in the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT, shall have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, a new paper to be published on the 9th June.

D. McDONALD,
Proprietor.
Montreal, 25th May, 1841.

THE WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT.

ON WEDNESDAY, the 9th June, a new paper, to be called the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, will be issued from this Office, and will continue to be published every Wednesday, at the low rate of TEN SHILLINGS per annum, in town, and 12s. 6d. in the country, although containing 12 pages of the original TRANSCRIPT size. It will make a handsome volume for binding, amounting in each year to 624 pages, and will enter from its commencement on the popular stories of "BARNABY RUDGE," by BOZ, and "OLD ST. PAULS," by W. Harrison Ainsworth. These will be followed by a constant succession of selections from the most celebrated authors, and the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will furnish the cheapest and best collection of literary matter to be found in Canada, besides giving the latest news, and the politics of both the Colonies and the Mother Country.

It is a proud recollection with us, that our earliest efforts were nursed into maturity by the distinguished patronage of the fair sex; and a sense of gratitude will induce us to insert in our new weekly paper an occasional piece of MUSIC—sometimes original, sometimes transcribed from the most celebrated professors.

Agriculture, the source from which this country must derive so large a proportion of its future prosperity, will not be lost sight of. Its interests, and those of the Mechanic, will find a steady advocate in the TRANSCRIPT.

Intending subscribers will do well to be early in signifying their intention, and be particular in mentioning whether it is the tri-weekly, or the weekly paper they desire. Subscriptions payable invariably in advance.

Advertisements ordered into the tri weekly TRANSCRIPT, will have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT. If ordered for a longer time, they shall be paid for at the usual rates.

The WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will be under the same editorial management as the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

All orders addressed to the Proprietor, will be duly attended to.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly;

In consequence of the severe indisposition of the Governor General, I have been deputed by Him to signify to you Her Majesty's pleasure on the several Bills which you have passed during this Session, and to relieve you from further attendance in Parliament. In performing this duty I beg to congratulate you on the many important measures which you have been enabled to perfect, and on the general harmony which, notwithstanding the difficulties incident to the first meeting of a new Legislature, has marked your proceedings.

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I thank you in the name of Her Majesty for the readiness with which you have voted the Supplies necessary for the public Service, and for maintaining the credit of the Province.

Honorable Gentlemen and Gentlemen:

I am confident that you will sympathize with me in the deep sorrow which I feel for the illness of the Governor-General, and in my hope that the sufferings with which it has pleased Almighty God to afflict him may be but temporary. In the mean time I would urge on you the propriety, on your return to your homes, of endeavouring to carry out the great improvements now in progress; and of inculcating on those by whom you will be surrounded as well an oblivion of past differences as a hopeful spirit of enterprize and contentment for the future. In so doing you will best promote the permanent interests of your Country, and entitle yourselves to the gratitude of your fellow subjects,—and may that Providence which has heretofore so signally protected this land prosper your endeavours.

ENLARGEMENT OF
THE MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

ON THURSDAY, the 3rd June, the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT will appear on a larger sheet, as some time since proposed. As the old size and the new one will not bind together, our paper of that day will be No I, of a new volume; and an extra number of the first few numbers will be struck off, in order that new subscribers may be supplied from the commencement of the interesting Tales it is proposed to introduce. Advertisements inserted in the 1st No. will have the advantage not only of the present large circulation of the TRANSCRIPT, but of an additional quantity to be printed on that day.

All Advertisements inserted in the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT, shall have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, a new paper to be published on the 9th June.

D. McDONALD,
Proprietor.

Montreal, 25th May, 1841.

THE WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT.

ON WEDNESDAY, the 9th June, a new paper, to be called the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, will be issued from this Office, and will continue to be published every Wednesday, at the low rate of TEN SHILLINGS per annum, in town, and 12s. 6d. in the country, although containing 12 pages of the original TRANSCRIPT size. It will make a handsome volume for binding, amounting in each year to 624 pages, and will enter from its commencement on the popular stories of "BARNABY RUDGE," by BOZ, and "OLD ST. PAULS," by W. Harrison Ainsworth. These will be followed by a constant succession of selections from the most celebrated authors, and the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will furnish the cheapest and best collection of literary matter to be found in Canada, besides giving the latest news, and the politics of both the Colonies and the Mother Country.

It is a proud recollection with us, that our earliest efforts were nursed into maturity by the distinguished patronage of the fair sex; and a sense of gratitude will induce us to insert in our new weekly paper an occasional piece of MUSIC—sometimes original, sometimes transcribed from the most celebrated professors.

Agriculture, the source from which this country must derive so large a proportion of its future prosperity, will not be lost sight of. Its interests, and those of the Mechanic, will find a steady advocate in the TRANSCRIPT

Intending subscribers will do well to be early in signifying their intention, and be particular in mentioning whether it is the tri-weekly, or the weekly paper they desire. Subscriptions payable invariably in advance.

Advertisements ordered into the tri weekly TRANSCRIPT, will have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT. If ordered for a longer time, they shall be paid for at the usual rates.

The WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will be under the same editorial management as the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT. All orders addressed to the Proprietor will be duly attended to.

ENLARGEMENT OF
THE MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

ON THURSDAY, the 3rd June, the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT will appear on a larger sheet, as some time since proposed. As the old size and the new one will not bind together, our paper of that day will be No I, of a new volume; and an extra number of the first few numbers will be struck off, in order that new subscribers may be supplied from the commencement of the interesting Tales it is proposed to introduce. Advertisements inserted in the 1st No. will have the advantage not only of the present large circulation of the TRANSCRIPT, but of an additional quantity to be printed on that day.

All Advertisements inserted in the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT, shall have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, a new paper to be published on the 9th June.

Proprietor.

THE WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT.

ON WEDNESDAY, the 9th June, a new paper, to be called the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, will be issued from this Office, and will continue to be published every Wednesday, at the low rate of TEN SHILLINGS per annum, in town, and 12s. 6d. in the country, although containing 12 pages of the original TRANSCRIPT size. It will make a handsome volume for binding, amounting in each year to 624 pages, and will enter from its commencement on the popular stories of "BARNABY RUDGE," by BOZ, and "OLD ST. PAULS," by W. Harrison Ainsworth. These will be followed by a constant succession of selections from the most celebrated authors, and the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will furnish the cheapest and best collection of literary matter to be found in Canada, besides giving the latest news, and the politics of both the Colonies and the Mother Country.

It is a proud recollection with us, that our earliest efforts were nursed into maturity by the distinguished patronage of the fair sex; and a sense of gratitude will induce us to insert in our new weekly paper an occasional piece of MUSIC—sometimes original, sometimes transcribed from the most celebrated professors.

Agriculture, the source from which this country must derive so large a proportion of its future prosperity, will not be lost sight of. Its interests, and those of the Mechanic, will find a steady advocate in the TRANSCRIPT

Intending subscribers will do well to be early in signifying their intention, and be particular in mentioning whether it is the tri-weekly, or the weekly paper they desire. Subscriptions payable invariably in advance.

Advertisements ordered into the tri weekly TRANSCRIPT, will have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT. If ordered for a longer time, they shall be paid for at the usual rates.

The WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will be under the same editorial management as the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT. All orders addressed to the Proprietor will be duly attended to.

ENLARGEMENT OF
THE MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

ON THURSDAY, the 3rd June, the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT will appear on a larger sheet, as some time since proposed. As the old size and the new one will not bind together, our paper of that day will be No 1, of a new volume; and an extra number of the first few numbers will be struck off, in order that new subscribers may be supplied from the commencement of the interesting Tales it is proposed to introduce. Advertisements inserted in the 1st No. will have the advantage not only of the present large circulation of the TRANSCRIPT, but of an additional quantity to be printed on that day.

All Advertisements inserted in the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT, shall have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, a new paper to be published on the 9th June.

D. McDONALD,
Proprietor.

Montreal, 25th May, 1841.

THE WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT.

ON WEDNESDAY, the 9th June, a new paper, to be called the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT, will be issued from this Office, and will continue to be published every Wednesday, at the low rate of TEN SHILLINGS per annum, in town, and 12s. 6d. in the country, although containing 12 pages of the original TRANSCRIPT size. It will make a handsome volume for binding, amounting in each year to 624 pages, and will enter from its commencement on the popular stories of "BARNABY RUDGE," by BOZ, and "OLD ST. PAUL'S," by W. Harrison Ainsworth. These will be followed by a constant succession of selections from the most celebrated authors, and the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will furnish the cheapest and best collection of literary matter to be found in Canada, besides giving the latest news, and the politics of both the Colonies and the Mother Country.

It is a proud recollection with us, that our earliest efforts were nursed into maturity by the distinguished patronage of the fair sex: and a sense of gratitude will induce us to insert in our new weekly paper an occasional piece of MUSIC—sometimes original, sometimes transcribed from the most celebrated professors.

Agriculture, the source from which this country must derive so large a proportion of its future prosperity, will not be lost sight of. Its interests, and those of the Mechanic, will find a steady advocate in the TRANSCRIPT.

Intending subscribers will do well to be early in signifying their intention, and be particular in mentioning whether it is the tri-weekly, or the weekly paper they desire. Subscriptions payable invariably in advance.

Advertisements ordered into the tri weekly TRANSCRIPT, will have one insertion, gratis, in the WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT. If ordered for a longer time, they shall be paid for at the usual rates.

The WEEKLY TRANSCRIPT will be under the same editorial management as the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

All orders addressed to the Proprietor, will be duly attended to.

XII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of each Division Court shall from time to time, and as often as he shall be required so to do by the Treasurer of his District, and at least once in every three months, deliver to him a full account in writing of the fees received in such Court, under the authority of this Act, and a like account of all fines levied by the Court, (accounting for, and deducting the reasonable expenses of levying the same, and any allowance which the Judge may have made out of any such fine, in pursuance of the power herein after given), and a like account of the monies paid into and received out of Court by the Defendants and Plaintiffs in the said Court, under any orders and decrees of the Court, or under process of the Court, and of the balance then remaining in Court belonging to the Plaintiffs or Defendants in the Court; and the amount of such fees from time to time received by such Clerk, shall be paid over from time to time to the Treasurer, (such payment being made at least once in every three months) and shall form part of a fund to be called the General Fee Fund of the Division Courts, which fund shall be applied towards the payment of the salaries of the Judge and Clerks of such Courts.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in case the amount of fees received in the Division Courts in any District, shall not be sufficient to defray the disbursements required on account of such Courts, during the period comprised in the said account, it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Province, forthwith to issue his warrant to the Receiver General of this Province, in favor of the District Treasurer, for the amount which shall be required to make up the salaries of the Judge and Clerks, and the amount of such warrant shall be charged upon the consolidated fund of this Province.

XV. And be it enacted, That the accounts to be kept by the several Treasurers on account of the said Courts, shall be deemed Public Accounts, and shall be inquired into and audited, and shall be within any provision of law now or hereafter to be in force for auditing Public Accounts.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any person having resigned, or having been removed from the office of Treasurer, or of Clerk of a Division Court, shall neglect, after twenty-one days notice to such person, to account for and pay to the Treasurer of the District for the time being, or to such person as he shall appoint to receive the same, all such sums as shall remain in his hands of monies received under the authority of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Treasurer for the time being, in his own proper name only, or by his name and description of office, to sue for and recover the same from such person, with double costs of suit, in any Court of Record in this Province having competent jurisdiction; by action of debt; in which action it shall be sufficient for such Treasurer to declare as for money had and received to the use of such Treasurer for the purposes of this Act; and the Court in which the action shall be brought may, at the instance of either of the parties, refer the account in dispute in a summary manner, to be audited by any officer of the Court, or other fit person, who shall have power to examine both plaintiff and defendant upon oath; and upon the report of the referee (unless either of the parties shall shew good cause to the contrary) the Court may make a rule either for the payment of such sum as upon the report shall appear to be due, or for staying the proceedings in the action, and upon such terms and conditions as to the Court shall appear reasonable; or the Court may order judgment to be entered up as by confession, for such sum as upon the report shall appear to be due.

XVII. And be it enacted, That in case of the death of any person during the time that he shall be holding the office of District Treasurer, or of Clerk of any Division Court, or after he shall have resigned, or be removed from such office, the Treasurer for the time being may in his own proper name only, or by his name and description of office, sue for and recover from the Executors or Administrators of such person deceased, all such sums as shall have been remaining in his hands, of money received under the authority of this Act, by an action of debt, in any Court of Record in this Province having competent jurisdiction; in which action it shall be competent for the plaintiff to declare that the deceased was indebted to the plaintiff for money had and received to his use, for the purposes of this Act; or that the deceased died possessed of money had and received for the purposes of this Act, whereby an action hath accrued to the plaintiff, to demand and have the same from such Executors or Administrators; and a like action may be brought against any Executors or Administrators of Executors, or Administrators; and in all such actions the defendant or defendants may plead in like manner, and avail themselves of the like matters in defence, as in any action founded upon simple contracts of the original testator or intestate; and the Court may refer the account in dispute to be audited by any officer or person, and may proceed upon the report of such referee in like manner as in the case mentioned in the next preceding section.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That in all actions to be brought, as well as in all proceedings whatsoever to be instituted or carried on by any Treasurer, by virtue of this Act, proof of his acting in the execution of the office of Treasurer shall be sufficient evidence of his holding such office, unless the contrary shall be shewn in evidence by the defendants in such actions, or the parties against whom such proceedings shall be instituted and carried on.

XIX. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer, and also every Clerk and Bailiff, who shall receive monies in the execution of their duty, shall give security for such sum, and with so many sureties, and in such manner and form as the Governor of this Province shall see reason to direct, for the due performance of their several offices, and for the due payment of all monies received by them under any provision of this Act.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Judge of every Division Court established under this Act, shall have power, jurisdiction and authority, to hold pleas of all debts and contracts, when the subject matter of the demand shall not exceed the sum of Ten Pounds, and to hear and determine the same in a summary way; and every such Judge shall have power to make such orders, judgments, and decrees thereupon, as shall appear to him to be just and agreeable to equity and good conscience; and that upon any contract for the payment of a sum certain in labour, or in any kind of goods or commodities, or in any manner otherwise than in money, it shall be lawful for the Judge, after the day is passed on which the goods or commodities should have been delivered, or labour or other things performed, to give judgment for the amount in money, as if the contract had been so originally expressed: Provided always, that no action shall be brought or tried in any such Division Court for any gambling debt, nor for any spirituous or malt liquors drunk in a Tavern or Ale House, nor for any cause involving the right or title to real estate: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to constitute and create the said Division Courts Courts of Record.

XXI. And be it enacted, That the plaintiff, in any suit brought in any Division Court, shall enter a copy of his account or demand in writing, which shall be numbered according to the order in which it shall be entered, and thereupon a summons bearing the number of the account or demand on the margin thereof, shall be issued, which shall be in substance in the form of the Schedule to this Act annexed, according to the nature of the demand; and a copy of such summons, to which shall be attached a copy of such account or demand, shall be served on the defendant, eight days at least before the day on which the Division Court shall be holden at which the cause shall be tried; and delivery of such copies of summons and account or demand to the defendant, or delivery thereof to his wife or servant, or any grown person, being an inmate of his dwelling-house or usual place of abode, trading or dealing, shall be deemed a good service of such summons: Provided always, that personal service on the Debtor, of such summons, shall be necessary in all cases where the amount sued for exceeds the sum of Forty Shillings.

XXII. And be it enacted, That no such summons shall be issued, unless the Plaintiff shall, at the time of entering his account or demand, deposite with the Clerk of the Court, for every claim not exceeding twenty shillings, the sum of one shilling, and for every claim exceeding twenty shillings, one twentieth part thereof (neglecting any sum less than six-pence, in estimating such twentieth part,) and if, upon the day of the return of any such summons, or at any continuation or adjournment of the said Court, or of the cause for which the said summons shall have issued, the Plaintiff shall not appear in person, or by some other person in his behalf, or appearing, shall not make proof of his demand to the satisfaction of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Judge, if he shall think fit, to award to the Defendant a part or the whole of such deposite money, by way of costs, and as satisfaction for his trouble and attendance, with such further sum as the Judge in his discretion shall think fit, and to order and compel the Plaintiff to pay such further sum, by such ways and means as any debt ordered to be paid by the same Court, can be recovered; but so much of the said deposite money as shall not be awarded to the Defendant, shall be returned on demand to the Plaintiff.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That all suits brought under this Act, shall be tried at the Court holden for the Division wherein the Defendant, or where there shall be more than one Defendant, wherein any one of the Defendants shall dwell, or carry on his business at the time of entering the account or demand, or at the Court holden for the Division within which the debt was contracted.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Plaintiff to divide any cause of action into two or more suits for the purpose of bringing the same within the jurisdiction of any Division Court, but any Plaintiff having a cause of action above the value of Ten pounds for which a suit might be brought under this Act, if the same were not above the value of Ten pounds, may abandon the excess, and thereupon the Plaintiff shall, on proving his case, recover to an amount not exceeding Ten pounds, and the judgment of the Court upon such suit shall be in full discharge of all demands in respect of such cause of action, and the entry of judgment shall be made accordingly.

XXV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person under the age of twenty-one years, to prosecute any suit in a Division Court, under this Act, for any sum of money not exceeding ten pounds, which may be due to him or her, for wages, in the same manner as if he or she were of full age.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That no privilege shall be allowed to any person to exempt him from the jurisdiction of the Courts created by this Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That where any plaintiff shall have any debt or demand recoverable under this Act, against two or more persons, partners in trade or otherwise, jointly answerable, but residing in different divisions, it shall be sufficient if one of such persons be served with the process, as hereinbefore directed, and judgment may be obtained, and execution issued against such person, notwithstanding others jointly liable may not have been served or sued; reserving always to the person against whom execution may issue, any right which he may have to demand contribution from any other person jointly liable with him.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, that the Judge of the District Court, or his Deputy as aforesaid, shall be the sole Judge to determine all actions brought in the said Division Courts, in the summary manner authorized by this Act, and all matters and questions of fact relating thereto, except when the amount claimed shall exceed two pounds ten shillings, and either of the parties shall require a jury to be summoned, as hereafter mentioned.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That in all actions where the sum of money sought to be recovered shall exceed two pounds ten shillings, it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Defendant to require a jury to be summoned to try the said action, and in every such case a jury shall be summoned according to the provisions hereinafter contained, to try such actions: Provided always, that if the Plaintiff require a jury to be summoned, he shall give notice in writing to the Clerk of the said Court at the time when he shall enter his account or demand, and if the Defendant shall require a jury to be summoned, he shall give to the said Clerk, or leave at the office of the said Clerk, the like notice in writing within five days after the service of the summons on the said Defendant, and the said Clerk shall cause a copy of such notice given either by the Plaintiff or Defendant, to be communicated to the opposite party in the said action, either by post or by causing the same to be delivered at his usual place of abode or business, but it shall not be necessary for either party to prove on the trial that such notice was communicated to the other party by the Clerk.

XXX. And be it enacted, That every party requiring any jury to be summoned shall at the time of giving the notice hereby required, and before he shall be entitled to have such jury summoned, pay to the Clerk of the said Court, such sum of money as is set down in the schedule of fees, for the time being, for or towards the payment of the expenses of the said jury.

XXXI. And be it enacted, that the causes which are to be heard by the Judge alone shall be set down for hearing in a separate list from the list of causes which are to be tried by a jury, which two lists shall be severally called, "The Judge's List," and "The Jury List," and the causes shall be set down in such lists in the order in which they were entered in the first instance with the Clerk of the Division Court, and "The Jury List," shall be first disposed of, and then "The Judge's List."

XXXII. LX. And be it enacted, That no order, verdict or Judgment, or other proceedings made concerning any other matters aforesaid, shall be quashed or vacated for any matter or form.

[17th August, 1841.]

WHEREAS it is desirable to provide by some general Law for the naturalization of certain classes of persons who are not natural born subjects of Her Majesty, but have actually become domiciled in this Province: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled, by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that all Aliens who were actually residing within this Province on the tenth day of February, in the Year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty one, and who were so resident continually for the seven years next before that day, or who shall have been continually resident for seven years from the said day, or from their first residence in this Province before that day, shall be deemed and taken to be natural born subjects of Her Majesty, to all intents and purposes whatsoever; Provided always, that residence within the late Province of Lower Canada, or residence within the late Province of Upper Canada, shall be deemed residence within this Province for the purposes of this Act.

II. Provided always and be it enacted, That temporary personal absence from this Province, without any voluntary profession or act of renewal of allegience to any Foreign State, and without any actual removal of domicile from this Province, shall not be held to interrupt any such residence as aforesaid, for the purposes of this Act.

III. And be it enacted, That each and every person naturalized under the provision of this Act, shall be deemed and taken to have had, from the commencement of the term of residence, by virtue of which such naturalization shall be effected, capacity to have, hold, occupy posses and enjoy, claim, recover, convey, devize, impart, and transmit real estate within this Province, or either of the late Provinces aforesaid, notwithstanding the alien birth of such person.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That no such alien (excepting females) who at the passing of this Act, has been resident within this Province seven years continually as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act, unless within twelve months after the passing thereof, he shall take the oath and make the declaration in the schedule hereunto annexed, or being one of those persons who are allowed by the Laws of this Province to affirm, shall make affirmation to the same effect, before some person whom the Governor, Lieutenant Gouverhor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, shall by commission under the Great Seal thereof, empower to administer the same; and no such alien who has not at the passing of this Act, been for seven years continually resident within this Province, (except as before excepted) shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act, unless within twelve months after he shall have completed such seven years residence, he shall take such oath, or make such affirmation.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any such alien, who at the time of the passing of this Act, or at the time he shall have completed such stated residence of seven years as aforesaid, shall be a minor under the age of sixteen years, shall be entitled to the benefit of this Act, if he shall take such oath or make such affirmation within twelve months after he shall have attained the age of sixteen years.

VI. And be it enacted, That any person who shall wilfully swear falsely, or make any false affirmation before any person authorized to administer the oath or affirmation aforesaid, under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury; and every such person shall, on conviction thereof, in addition to any other punishment authorized by Law, forfeit all the privileges and advantages which he would otherwise, by making such oath or affirmation, have been entitled to under this Act; but the rights of others in respect to estates derived from or held under him shall not thereby be prejudiced, excepting always such others as shall have been cognisant of the perjury at the time the title by which they claim to hold under him was created.

VII. And be it enacted, That each and every person authorized to administer the oath or affirmation by this Act required, shall administer the same to any person above the age of sixteen years, who shall desire to take the same, and shall make such declaration as will, if true, entitle him to all the benefit of this Act, and shall keep Books of Registry, in the beginning of which shall be written the oath and affirmation required by this Act, and which shall contain the columns and specifications described in the declaration which follows the said oath; and in the column appointed for that purpose the person making the oath or affirmation shall set his signature, or, if unable to write, his mark, in the same line of the Register in which entry is made of the name and description of such person, and of the other particulars declared by him and referred to in his oath or affirmation.

VIII. And be it enacted, That duplicate Books of such Registry shall be kept, both of which, being original, shall contain the actual signatures or marks of the persons subscribing; and that on or before the thirty-first day of December in each and every year, each person keeping and having charge of any such Books shall transmit one of them to the Registrar of this Province for the time being, retaining the other in his own office; and such Books of Registry shall remain and be preserved in such respective offices, and shall have the form and effect of public Records.

IX. And be it enacted, that if either of such original Register Books, or any part thereof, shall be lost or destroyed, it shall be supplied by a copy taken from the other original Register Book, attested as a true copy on the oath of the person or officer having lawful custody of the same, made before any Judge of any Superior Court of Record in this Province;—and every such copy so attested shall be regarded to all intents and purposes as the original Register.

X. And be it enacted, That a copy or extract from any Book of Registry made under the authority of this Act, of the whole entry made in such Register with respect to any person whose name is recorded therein, and certified by the person having the lawful custody thereof, under his proper hand, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient evidence of the naturalization of the person therein described.

XI. And be it enacted, That whenever any person shall transmit any book of Registry to the Registrar of the Province as hereinbefore provided, he and his Deputy, if he have a lawful Deputy, (and such and every person appointed to be a Commissioner for the purposes of this Act, is hereby authorised to appoint a Deputy,) shall verify the same by an affidavit subscribed by him or them and written as near as may be to the last entry contained in such book, such affidavit being taken before some one of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace; and in such affidavit such person and his Deputy shall severally depose, that to the best of his and their knowledge and belief, such Book of Registry forms a true and correct record of the statements made to him or them by the several persons therein described, and which they severally verified by oath or affirmation taken before him or them.

XII. And be it enacted, That any person, to whom it shall belong to attest the truth of any record, shall neglect or omit to attest the same in manner aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred pounds, to be recovered by information in any Superior Court of Record in this Province; but no such omission shall prejudice the right of any person who may have taken the oath or made the affirmation required by this Act, or preclude him from receiving a certificate or extract according to the provisions thereof.

XIII. And be it enacted, That a general alphabetical list shall be kept by the Registrar of the Province, and also by the several other persons entrusted with the making and keeping the said Books of Registry, of the names of all persons whose names and descriptions are recorded in such Books, referring to their places in such Books respectively; and such lists and books shall be open at all times to inspection during the hours of business, in the office in which they are kept; and any person desirous of searching the said lists or books shall pay to the person keeping the same one shilling for each name which he shall search for.

XIV. And be it enacted, that for administering the oath or affirmation aforesaid, making the entry required by this Act, and giving a certified copy or extract of such entry, the person authorised to administer or to give the same shall be entitled to demand, receive, and recover from every person making such oath or affirmation the sum of one shilling and three pence, and for searching and giving any such certified copy or extract the sum of one shilling and three pence, and that no greater or other fees than are expressly allowed by this Act shall be demanded, received or recovered for any services done under all or any of its provisions.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any person being an Alien who on the said tenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and forty one, was domiciliated in this Province, shall die before the period limited by this Act for his taking the oath or affirmation according to the provisions thereof, such person shall nevertheless be deemed to have been a natural born subject of Her Majesty, so far as regards the taking, holding, imparting and transferring of any real estate, by gift, marriage, dower, devise, inheritance, or any lawful conveyance of the same.

XVI. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to repeal or in any manner affect or interfere with a certain Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada, passed in the fifty fourth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to declare certain persons therein described Aliens, and to vest their estates in His Majesty," or any proceedings had under the said Act, or to repeal or effect any Law now in force in this Province or in any part thereof, for the naturalization of any Alien or class of Aliens.

XVII. And be it enacted, That such and every person, who being by birth an Alien, had on the said tenth day of February, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty one, become entitled to any or all of the privileges of British Birth within any part of this Province, by virtue of any general or special Act of naturalization then in force in such part of this Province, shall be, and shall be deemed to have have been since the said day, entitled to the same privileges in every part of this Province, to which he was on the said day entitled within any part thereof under any such Act as aforesaid.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act no person shall be disturbed in the possession, or shall be precluded from the recovery of any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this Province, on the ground of his being or having been an Alien, or on the ground of any person from or through whom he may claim being, or having been an Alien, provided the person against whom such disability shall be so objected was resident in the Province on the tenth day of February aforesaid, and was then under the age of sixteen years.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no person shall be disturbed in the possession, or shall be precluded from the recovery of any lands, tenements or hereditaments in this Province, on the ground of his claim to the same being derived from or through an Alien, provided such claim be not so derived after the passing of this Act.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in all cases where any person claiming to hold any estate as next entitled, on account of any person nearer in the line of descent having been an alien, shall in virtue of such claim have taken actual possession of such real estate before the passing of this Act, and have made improvements thereon, and also in all cases where any person claiming to hold as next entitled to any estate, on account of the person nearer in the line of descent having been an alien, shall have actually sold or departed with, or shall have actually contracted to sell or depart with such estate before the passing of this Act, (no person whose claim would have then been good, but for his or her claiming through an alien, being at the time when such estate was so sold or departed with, or when the contract to sell or depart with the same was made in adverse possession of such estate,) the provisions of this Act shall not extend to render invalid any right or title to such estate, but such right or title shall be taken and adjudged to be as if this Act had never been passed.

By His Excellency Sir Richard Downes Jackson, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Administrator of the Government of the Province of Canada, and Commander of Her Majesty's Forces in British North America.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears by information on oath, that on the night of Sunday, the tenth day of October instant, a certain Viaduct belonging to the Company of Proprietors of the Champlain and St Lawrence Rail Road, was maliciously set fire to, burnt and consumed; and whereas for the ends of Justice and for the security of the properties of Her Majesty's subjects, it is most expedient and necessary that the Perpetrators of an act so atrocious and alarming in its character should not escape unpunished, I have thought fit, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Executive Council of this Province, to issue this Proclamation, and I do hereby charge and command all and singular Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Sheriff's and other Officers, and Ministers of Justice, and all others, Her Majesty's loving subjects in this Province, to be diligent and use their best endeavours to discover and bring to Justice, the person or persons, by whom the said act of violence may have been committed, in order that he or they may be dealt with according to Law. And as an encouragement to the making of a discovery, I do hereby declare, that whosoever will give such information respecting the said burning, as may cause the Perpetrator or Perpetrators thereof to be apprehended and brought to Justice, shall receive a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS current money of this Province, to be paid on conviction of him or them of the act or acts so committed as aforesaid. And I further offer Her Majesty's free pardon to such informant if he be an accessory to the said offence, but not a principal thereto.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms, at the Government House, in the Town of Kingston, in the said Province of Canada, the fourteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and forty one, and in the fifth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

II. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully or corruptly swear falsely in any matter deposed under this Act, such false swearing shall be deemed wilful and corrupt perjury.

IV. And be it enacted, that all evidence to be taken by any Surveyor as aforesaid, shall be reduced into writing, and shall be read over and signed by the persons giving the same; and that all such evidence shall be filed in the Registry Office of the County in which it shall be taken, subject to be produced thereafter as evidence in any Court of Law within that part of this Province aforesaid.

[18th September, 1841.]

WHEREAS it is just and expedient that the Laws passed by the Legislature of this Province, as well as the Acts of the Imperial Parliament relating to this Province, be translated into the French Language for the information and guidance of a great portion of Her Majesty's subjects in this Province: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, to appoint one proper and competent person, versed in legal knowledge and having received a classical French education, and possessing a sufficient knowledge of the English language, to translate into the French language the Laws passed by the Legislature of this Province, or by the Imperial Parliament, relating to or affecting this Province.

II. And be it enacted, that the said translation shall be printed under the direction of the Executive Authority, and distributed among the People of this Province speaking the French language, in the same manner in which the English text of the said Laws shall be printed and distributed among those speaking the English language, and under the same provisions.

III. And be it enacted, that the Act of the Imperial Parliament, passed in the Session held in the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty's Reign, and intituled, "An Act to re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," shall be translated into the French language and distributed as hereinbefore provided with regard to the Laws passed by the Legislature of this Province.

CAP. XII.

An Act to require Justices of the Peace, to make returns of Convictions and Fines, and for other purposes therein mentioned.

[27th August, 1841.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce the amount of Fees payable to Justices of the Peace for the exercise of their duties—And whereas for the more effectual recovery and application of penalties, fines and damages imposed by Justices of the Peace according to Law, it is necessary and expedient that such Justices shall, together with the convictions, make a due return thereof to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the District, in which such penalties, fines, and damages have accrued, in the manner and form set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be the duty of every Justice of the Peace, before whom any trial or hearing shall be had under any Law, now or hereafter to be in force, giving jurisdiction in the premises, and imposing any fines, forfeitures, penalties or damages upon the Defendant or Defendants, in case any conviction shall ensue thereupon, to make a due return thereof in writing under his hand, to the next ensuing General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the District in which such conviction shall have taken place, and of the receipt and application by him of the monies received from any such Defendant or Defendants; and in case such conviction shall have taken place before two or more Justices, it shall be the duty of each and every of such Justices, being present and joining in such conviction, to make an immediate return thereof, which shall be as nearly as circumstances permit in the form set forth in the said Schedule, and that the Justices to whom any such monies shall be afterwards paid, shall make a return of the receipts and application thereof to the next General Quarter Sessions, which return or returns shall be filed by the Clerk of the Peace, with the records of his office.

II. And be it enacted, that in case any Justice or Justices, before whom any such conviction shall have taken place as aforesaid, or who shall have received any such moneys, as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to make such due return thereof in the manner and form herein before required, and according to the requisitions of this Act, or in case any such Justice or Justices shall wilfully make a false, partial or incorrect return, or shall wilfully receive a larger amount of fees than is by Law authorized to be received, then and in any or either of such cases, such Justice or Justices, and each and every of them so neglecting, or refusing to make such returns in the manner aforesaid, or wilfully making such false, partial or incorrect return, or wilfully receiving a larger amount of fees as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty pounds, together with full costs of suit, to be recovered by every person or persons, who shall sue for the same by bill, plaint, or information in any Court of record in Canada West, one moiety of which said sum of twenty pounds shall be paid to the party suing, and the other moiety shall be paid into the hands of Her Majesty's Receiver General to and for the Public uses of this Province.

III. And be it enacted, that all prosecutions for penalties arising under the provisions of this Act, shall be commenced within six months after the cause of action shall have accrued, and the same shall be tried in the District wherein such penalties shall have accrued; and if a verdict shall pass for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue any such action after issue joined, or if upon demurrer, or otherwise, judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall recover his full costs of suit, as between Attorney and Client, and have the like remedy, for the same, as any Defendant hath by law in other cases.

IV. And be it enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Peace of the District, in which such return shall be made, within seven days after the General Quarter Sessions shall have been first adjourned, to cause to be published the said returns in one public Newspaper in the said District, and if there be no such Newspaper, then in a Newspaper of an adjoining District, and also to fix up in the Court House of the said District, and also in a conspicuous place in the Office of such Clerk of the Peace, for public inspection, a Schedule of the returns so made by such Justices, and the same shall continue to be so fixed up, and exhibited until the end of the next ensuing General Quarter Sessions of the Peace; and for every Schedule so made and exhibited by the said Clerk of the Peace, he shall be entitled to the fee, or sum of one pound, besides the expense of publication, in his accounts with the said District, be paid by the Treasurer thereof.

V. And be it enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Peace of each District, within twenty days after the end of each Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to transmit to the Inspector General of this Province, a true copy of all such returns made within his District.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, that nothing herein contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to exonerate Justices of the Peace from duly returning to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of their respective Districts, all such convictions or records of convictions, as are by Law required to be so returned.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that nothing in this Act contained, shall prevent any person aggrieved, from prosecuting by Indictment, any Justice of the Peace, for any offence, the commission of which would subject him to Indictment at the time of the passing of this Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be the duty of every Sheriff, and he is hereby required to transmit quarterly to the Inspector General of this Province, a just, true and faithful account, to be verified upon oath, of all fines, penalties and forfeitures which he shall have been required and commanded to levy and make by any lawful authority, and of the receipt and application of the same, or of the reason why the same has not been received and applied within the period required for collectors to make their returns under a certain Act of the Parliament of Upper Canada, passed in the third year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to regulate the time for making returns and payments by Collectors and other persons receiving the public Revenues of this Province, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" and that such returns shall be transmitted to the office of the Inspector General within twenty days, next after the expiration of each quarterly period, and that each Sheriff shall pay over to the proper Officer or person lawfully entitled to receive the same, the several sums collected by him as aforesaid, within twenty days next after the expiration of the period within which the same were collected, and that every Sheriff neglecting or refusing to transmit such quarterly account, or to pay over any such sum or sums of money so collected by him, within the period hereby prescribed, shall incur and be subject to the like penalty, and may be sued for the same in the same manner, as is hereinbefore provided and declared with regard to Justices of the Peace neglecting or refusing to make the returns required by this Act.

IX. And be it enacted, that this Act shall be in force, and extend to that part of the Province of Canada, formerly known as Upper Canada, and hereinbefore called "Canada West," and not elsewhere.

An Act to repeal certain Acts of the Common Council therein named, and to provide for the suppression of nuisances and the protection of the Side-walks in the City of Toronto and Liberties.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for improving the Administration of Criminal Justice in this Province.

[18th September, 1841.]

WHEREAS it is expedient, with a view to improve the administration of Justice in Criminal cases in this Province, to define under what circumstances persons may be admitted to bail in cases of Felony; and to make better provision for taking examinations, informations, bailments and recognizances, and returning the same to the proper tribunals; and to relax, in some instances, the technical strictness of Criminal proceedings, so as to insure the punishment of the guilty, without depriving the accused of any just means of defence; and to abolish the benefit of Clergy, and some matters of form which impede the due administration of Justice; and to make better provision for the punishment of offenders in certain cases:—Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That where any person shall be taken on a charge of felony, or suspicion of felony, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the charge shall be supported by positive and credible evidence of the fact, or by such evidence as, if not explained or contradicted, shall, in the opinion of the Justice or Justices, raise a strong presumption of the guilt of the person charged, such person shall be committed to prison by such Justice or Justices in the manner hereinafter mentioned; but if there shall be only one Justice present, and the whole evidence given before him shall be such as neither to raise a strong presumption of guilt, nor to warrant the dismissal of the charge, such Justice shall order the person charged to be detained in custody, and such person shall be taken before two Justices at least; and where any person so taken, or any person in the first instance taken before two Justices of the Peace, shall be charged with felony, or on suspicion of felony, and the evidence given in support of the charge shall, in the opinion of such Justices, not be such as to raise a strong presumption of the guilt of the person charged, and to require the committal of such person, or such evidence shall be adduced on behalf of the person charged as shall, in the opinion of such Justices, weaken the presumption of guilt, but there shall, notwithstanding, appear to such Justices, in either of such cases, to be sufficient ground for judicial inquiry into the guilt of the person charged, such person shall be admitted to bail by such two Justices in the manner hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to require any such Justice or Justices to hear evidence on behalf of any person so charged as aforesaid, unless it shall appear to such Justice or Justices to be meet and conducive to the ends of Justice to hear the same.

II. And be it enacted, That two Justices of the Peace, before they shall admit to bail, and one or more Justice or Justices, before he or they shall commit to prison any person arrested for felony, or on suspicion of felony, shall take the examination of such person, and the information upon oath of those who shall know the facts and circumstances of the case, and shall put the same, or as much thereof as shall be material, into writing, in the presence of the party accused, if he be in custody, who shall have full opportunity afforded him of cross examining such witnesses if he shall think proper so to do, and the two Justices admitting to bail shall certify the bailment in writing; and every such Justice shall have authority to summon any person likely in his jurisdiction, whom he shall have reason to consider capable of giving material evidence concerning any such felony, or suspicion of felony, and to examine such person on oath touching the same, and to bind by recognizance all such persons as know or declare any thing material touching any such felony, or suspicion of felony, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol delivery, or other Court at which the trial of such offence is intended to be had, then and there to prosecute and give evidence against the party accused; and such Justices and Justice respectively shall subscribe all such examinations, informations, bailments and recognizances, and deliver, or cause to be delivered, the same, to the proper Officer of the Court in which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court; and in case any person so summoned shall refuse to submit to such examination, or to enter into such recognizance, it shall be lawful for the Justice or Justices to commit such persons to the Common Gaol of the District, County, City or Town, until such person shall submit to such examination, or shall enter into such recognizance, or be discharged by due course of Law: Provided, that no such examination shall subject the party examined to any prosecution or penalty, or be given in evidence against such party, save on any indictment for having committed wilful and corrupt perjury in such examination.

III. And be it enacted, That every Justice of the Peace before whom any person shall be taken on a charge of misdemeanor, or suspicion thereof, shall take the examination of the person charged, and the information upon oath of those who shall know the facts and circumstances of the case, and shall put the same, or as much thereof as shall be material, into writing, before he shall commit to prison, or require bail from the person so charged; and in every case of bailment shall certify the bailment in writing, and shall have authority to bind all persons by recognizance to appear to prosecute, or give evidence against the party accused, in like manner as in cases of felony, and shall subscribe all examinations, informations, bailments and recognizances, and deliver, or cause to be delivered, the same, to the proper Officer of the Court in which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court, in like manner as in cases of felony, and that no traverse or other postponement of any trial thereupon had, shall be allowed except upon special cause shown to the satisfaction of the said Court, or by consent of the Prosecutor.

IV. And be it enacted, That every Coroner, upon any inquisition taken before him, whereby any person shall be indicted for manslaughter or murder, or as an accessory to murder before the fact, shall in presence of the party accused, if he can be apprehended, put in writing the evidence given to the jury before him, or as much thereof as shall be material, giving the party accused full opportunity of cross examination: and shall have authority to bind, by recognizance, all such persons as know or declare any thing material touching the said manslaughter or murder, or the said offence of being accessory to murder, to appear at the next Court of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or other Court at which the trial is to be, then and there to prosecute or give evidence against the party charged; and every such Coroner shall certify and subscribe the same evidence, and all such recognizances, and also the information before him taken, and shall deliver the same to the proper Officer of the Court in which the trial is to be, before or at the opening of the Court.

V. And be it enacted, That when and so often as any person shall be committed for trial by any Justice or Justices, or Coroner as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Prisoner, his Counsel, Attorney or Agent, to notify the said committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, that he will so soon as Counsel can be heard, move Her Majesty's Court of Superior Jurisdiction for that part of the Province in which such person stands committed, or one of the Judges thereof, for an order to the Justices of the Peace, or Coroner, for the District where such Prisoner shall be confined, to admit such Prisoner to bail, whereupon it shall be the duty of such committing Justice or Justices, or Coroner, with all convenient expedition, to transmit to the office of the Clerk of the Crown, close under the hand and seal of one of them, a certified copy of all the informations, examinations, and other evidences, touching the offence wherewith such Prisoner shall be charged, together with a copy of the warrant of commitment and inquest, if any such there be, and that the packet containing the same shall be handed to the person applying therefor in order to such transmission, and shall be certified on the outside thereof to contain the information touching the case in question.

VI. And be it enacted, That upon any application to Her Majesty's Court of Superior Criminal Jurisdiction, for that part of the Province within which such person stands committed, or to any Judge thereof, the same order touching the prisoner being bailed or continued in custody, shall be made as if the party were brought up upon a Habeas Corpus,

VII. And be it enacted, That if any Justice or Coroner shall neglect or offend in any thing contrary to the true intent and meaning of any of the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Court, to whose Officer any such examination, information, evidence, bailment, recognizance, or inquisition ought to have been delivered, and such Court is hereby authorized and required, upon examination and proof of the offence in a summary manner, to set such fine upon every such Justice or Coroner, as the Court shall think meet.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this Act relating to Justices and Coroners shall apply to the Justices and Coroners, not only of Districts and Counties at large, but also of all other jurisdiction.

IX. And be it enacted, That all persons tried for felonies shall be admitted, after the close of the case for the prosecution, to make full answer and defence thereto by Counsel, learned in the law, or by Attorney in the Courts where Attornies practice as Counsel.

X. And be it enacted, That in all cases of summary conviction, persons accused shall be admitted to make their full answer and defence, and to have all witnesses examined and cross-examined by Counsel or Attorney.

XI. And be it enacted, That when and so often as the attendance of any person confined in any Gaol or Prison in this Province, or upon the limits thereof, shall be required in any Court of Assize and Nisi Prius, or Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, or other Court, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom such Prisoners shall be required to attend, in its discretion to make order upon the Sheriff, Gaoler or other person having the custody of such Prisoner, to deliver such Prisoner to the person named in such order to receive him, which person shall thereupon instantly convey such Prisoner to the place where the Court issuing such order shall be sitting, there to receive and obey such further order as to the said Court shall seem meet: Provided always, that no Prisoner confined for any debt or damages in any civil suit, shall be thereby removed out of the District where he shall be confined.

XII. And be it enacted, That all persons who, after the passing of this Act, shall be held to bail, or committed to prison, for any offence against the law, shall be entitled to require and have on demand, (from the person who shall have the lawful custody thereof, and who is hereby required to deliver the same), copies of the examinations of the witnesses respectively, upon whose depositions they have been so held to bail or committed to prison, on payment of a reasonable sum for the same, not exceeding three pence for each folio of one hundred words: Provided always, that if such demand shall not be made before the day appointed for the commencement of the Assize or Sessions, at which the trial of the person, on whose behalf such demand shall be made, is to take place, such person shall not be entitled to have any copy of such examination of witnesses, unless the Judge or other person to preside at such trial, shall be of opinion that such copy may be made and delivered, without delay or inconvenience to such trial, but it shall nevertheless be competent for such Judge or other person so to preside at such trial, if he shall think fit, to postpone such trial, on account of such copy of the examination of witnesses, not having been previously had by the party charged.

XIII. And be it enacted, That all persons under trial shall be entitled, at the time of their trial, to inspect without fee or reward all depositions (or copies thereof), which have been taken against them, and returned into the Court before which such trial shall be had.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any person whatever being arraigned upon any indictment for treason, felony, or piracy, shall plead thereto a plea of "not guilty," such person shall by such plea, without any further form, be deemed to have put himself or herself upon the Country for trial, and the Court shall in the usual manner order a Jury for the trial of such person accordingly.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any person being arraigned upon, or charged with any indictment or information for treason, felony, piracy, or misdemeanor, shall stand mute of malice, or will not answer directly to the indictment or information, in every such case it shall be lawful for the Court, if it shall so think fit, to order the proper Officer to enter a plea of "not guilty" on behalf of such person, and the plea so entered shall have the same force and effect as if such person had actually pleaded the same.

XVI. And be it enacted, That if any person indicted for any treason, felony, or piracy, shall challenge peremptorily a greater number of the men returned to try of the Jury than such person is entitled by Law so to challenge, in any of the said cases, every peremptory challenge beyond the number allowed by Law in any of the said cases, shall be entirely void, and the trial of such person shall proceed as if no such challenge had been made.

XVII. And be it enacted, That no plea setting forth any attainder shall be pleaded in bar of any indictment, unless the attainder be for the same offence as that charged in the indictment.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That where any person shall be indicted for treason or felony, the jury impanelled to try such person, shall not be charged to inquire concerning his lands, tenements, or goods, nor whether he fled for such treason or felony.

XIX. And be it enacted, That benefit of Clergy, with respect to persons convicted of felony, shall be abolished; but that nothing herein contained, shall prevent the joinder in any indictment of any counts, which might have been joined before the passing of this Act.

XX. And be it enacted, That no person convicted of felony shall suffer death, unless it be for some felony which was excluded from the benefit of Clergy, by the law in force in that part of this Province in which the trial shall be, before the commencement of this Act, or which shall be made punishable with death by some Act passed after that day.

XXI. And whereas it is expedient to prevent all doubts respecting the civil rights of persons convicted of felonies not capital, who have undergone the punishment to which they were adjudged, Be it therefore enacted, That where any offender hath been, or shall be convicted of any felony not punishable with death, and hath endured, or shall endure the punishment to which such offender hath been or shall be adjudged for the same, the punishment so endured hath and shall have the like effects and consequences as a pardon under the Great Seal, as to the felony whereof the offender was so convicted: Provided always, that nothing herein contained, nor the enduring of such punishment, shall prevent or mitigate any punishment to which the offender might otherwise be lawfully sentenced on a subsequent conviction for any other felony.

XXII. And whereas there are certain misdemeanors which render the parties convicted thereof incompetent witnesses, and it is expedient to restore the competency of such parties, after they have undergone their punishment; Be it therefore enacted, That where any offender hath been, or shall be convicted of any such misdemeanor, (except perjury, or subornation of perjury) and hath endured, or shall endure the punishment to which such offender hath been or shall be adjudged for the same, such offender shall not, after the punishment so endured, be deemed to be by reason of such misdemeanor an incompetent witness in any Court or proceeding, civil or criminal.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That in all cases in which any person shall be charged with felony, the Officers of the Court before which such person shall be tried, or any proceeding had, with regard to such charge, and who shall render any official services in the matter of such charge, or in the course of such trial, to the person so charged with felony, shall be paid their lawful fees for all such services out of the public funds, in the same manner as other fees due and payable to them in respect of official services by them rendered to the Crown, in the conduct of public prosecutions, are now paid, and no such fees shall in any case be demanded of, or payable by the person charged with such felony.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of any felony, not punishable with death, shall be punished in the manner prescribed by the statute or statutes specially relating to such felony; and that every person convicted of any felony for which no punishment hath been or hereafter may be specially provided, shall be deemed to be punishable under this Act, and shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement for any term not exceeding two years.

XXV. And be it enacted, That if any person sentenced or ordered, or hereafter to be sentenced or ordered, to be transported, or who shall have agreed, or shall agree to transport or banish himself or herself on certain conditions, either for life or for any number of years, shall be afterwards at large within any part of this Province, contrary to such sentence, order or agreement, without some lawful cause, before the expiration of his or her term of transportation or banishment, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and shall be liable to be transported beyond the Seas for his or her natural life, and previously to transportation shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding four years; and every such offender may be tried either in the District, County, or place where such offender shall be found at large, or in the District, County, or place, in or at which such sentence or order of transportation or banishment was passed or made.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That in any indictment or information against any offender for being at large within this Province, contrary to the provisions of this Act, or of any other Act hereafter to be in force in this Province, it shall be sufficient to allege the sentence, or order of transportation or banishment of such offender, without alleging any indictment, information, trial, conviction, judgment or other proceeding, or any pardon or intention of mercy, or signification thereof, of or against or in any manner relating to such offender.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of the Court, or other Officer, having the custody of the Records of the Court where any such sentence or order of transportation or banishment shall have been passed or made, or his deputy, shall, at the request of any person on the behalf of Her Majesty, make out and give a certificate in writing, signed by him, containing the effect and substance only (omitting the formal part) of any indictment, information, and conviction of such offender, and of the sentence or order for his or her transportation or banishment, (not taking for the same more than the sum of five shillings) which certificate shall be sufficient evidence of the conviction and sentence, or order for the transportation or banishment of such offender; and every such certificate shall be received in evidence, upon proof of the signature of the person signing the same.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That where any person shall be convicted of any offence punishable under this Act, for which imprisonment may be awarded, it shall be lawful for the Court to sentence the offender to be imprisoned, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, and also to direct that the offender shall be kept in solitary confinement, for any portion or portions of the term of such imprisonment, or of such imprisonment with hard labour, not exceeding one month at any one time, and not exceeding three months in any one year, as to the Court in its discretion shall seem meet.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That whenever sentence shall be passed for felony on a person already imprisoned under sentence for another crime, it shall be lawful for the Court to award imprisonment for the subsequent offence, to commence at the expiration of the imprisonment to which such person shall have been previously sentenced; and where such person shall be already under sentence, the Court may award such sentence for the subsequent offence, to commence at the expiration of the imprisonment to which such person shall have been previously sentenced, although the aggregate term of imprisonment may exceed the term for which such punishment could be otherwise awarded.

XXX. And whereas it is expedient to provide for the more exemplary punishment of offenders who commit felony, after a previous conviction for felony, whether such conviction shall have taken place before or after the commencement of this Act; Be it therefore enacted, That if any person shall be convicted of any felony not punishable with death, committed after a previous conviction for felony, such person shall on such subsequent conviction be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour, in the Provincial Penitentiary, for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years; and in any indictment for any such felony committed after a previous conviction for felony, it shall be sufficient to state that the offender was at a certain time and place convicted of felony, without otherwise describing the previous felony; and a certificate containing the substance and effect only (omitting the formal part) of the indictment, and conviction for the previous felony, purporting to be signed by the Clerk of the Court, or other Officer having the custody of the Records of the Court where the offender was first convicted, or by the Deputy of such Clerk or Officer, (for which certificate a fee of five shillings, and no more, shall be demanded or taken) shall upon proof of the identity of the person of the offender be sufficient evidence of the first conviction, without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed the same; and if any such Clerk, Officer or Deputy, shall utter any false certificate of any indictment and conviction for a previous felony, or of any sentence or order of transportation or banishment, or if any person, other than such Clerk, Officer, or Deputy, shall sign any such certificate as such Clerk, Officer or Deputy, or shall utter any such certificate with a false or counterfeit signature thereto, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

XXXI. And whereas it is expedient to abolish the punishment of the pillory, Be it therefore enacted, that from and after the commencement of this Act, judgment shall not be given and awarded against any person or persons convicted of any offence, that such person or persons do stand in or upon the pillory, any law, statute or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any manner to change, alter or affect any punishment whatever which may now be by law inflicted in respect of any offence, excepting only the punishment of the pillory.

XXXII. And be it enacted, that from and after the commencement of this Act, it shall not be necessary that any report should be made to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government, in the case of any prisoner convicted before any Court and now under sentence of death, or who may be hereafter convicted before any Court and sentenced to the like punishment, previously to such sentence being carried into execution, any law, usage, or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, that whenever any offender shall hereafter be convicted before any Court or Criminal Judicature, of any crime for which such offender shall be liable to the punishment of death, and the Court shall be of opinion that, under the particular circumstances of the case, such offender is a fit and proper subject to be recommended for the Royal mercy, it shall and may be lawful for such Court, if it shall think fit so to do, to direct the proper officer, then being present in the Court, to require and ask, (whereupon such officer shall require and ask) whether such offender hath or knoweth any thing to say why judgment of death should not be recorded against such offender, and in case such offender shall not allege any matter or thing, sufficient in law to arrest or bar such judgment, the Court shall and may, and is hereby authorized to abstain from pronouncing judgment of death upon such offender, and instead of pronouncing such judgment to order the same to be entered of record, and thereupon such proper officer as aforesaid shall, and may, and is hereby authorized to enter judgment of death on record against such offender, in the usual and accustomed form, and in such and the same manner as is now used, and as if judgment of death had actually been pronounced in open Court against such offender by the Court.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That a record of every such judgment so entered as aforesaid, shall have the like effect to all intends, and be followed by all the same consequences as if such judgment had actually been pronounced in open Court.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That whenever any offender shall hereafter be convicted before any Court of Criminal Judicature, of any offence for which such offender shall be liable to and shall receive sentence of death, and the Court shall be of opinion that, under the circumstances of the case, the judgment of the law ought to be carried into effect, it shall be lawful for the said Court, and such Court is hereby required to order and direct execution to be done on such offender in the same manner as any Court is impowered to order and direct execution by the law as it stood before the passing of this Act.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall affect Her Majesty's Royal Prerogative of mercy.

XXXVII. And in order that all accessories may be convicted and punished in cases where the principal felon is not attainted, Be it enacted, That if any principal offender shall be in anywise convicted of any felony, it shall be lawful to proceed against any accessory either before or after the fact, in the same manner as if such principal felon had been attainted thereof, notwithstanding such principal felon shall die, or be pardoned, or otherwise delivered before attainder; and every such accessory shall suffer the same punishment, if such accessory be in anywise convicted, as such accessory should have suffered if the principal had been attainted.

XL. And for the more effectual prosecution of offences committed near the boundaries of Districts or of Counties, or partly in one District or County and partly in an other; Be it enacted, that where any felony or misdemeanor shall be committed on the boundary or boundaries of two or more Districts or Counties, or within the distance of five hundred yards of any such boundary or boundaries, or shall be begun in one District or County and completed in an other, every such felony or misdemeanor may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in any of the said Districts or Counties, in the same manner as if it had been actually committed therein.

XLII. And in order to remove the difficulty of stating the names of all the owners of property, in the case of partners and other joint-owners, Be it enacted, That in any indictment or information for any felony or misdemeanor, wherein it shall be requisite to state the ownership of any property whatsoever, whether real or personal, which shall belong to or be in the possession of more than one person, whether such persons be partners in trade, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to name one of such persons, and to state such property to belong to the person so named, and another or others, as the case may be; and whenever in any indictment or information, for any felony or misdemeanor, it shall be necessary to mention for any purpose whatsoever, any partners, joint-tenants, parceners, or tenants in common, it shall be sufficient to describe them in the manner aforesaid; and this provision shall be construed to extend to all joint-stock companies and trustees.

XLIII. And be it enacted, That in any indictment or information, for any felony or misdemeanor, committed in, upon, or with respect to any Church, Chapel, or place of religious worship, or to any bridge, court, court-house, gaol, house of correction, penitentiary, infirmary, asylum, or other public building, or any canal, lock, drain, or sewer, erected, or maintained in whole or in part, at the expense of the Province, or of any division or sub-division thereof, or on, or with respect to any materials, goods, or chattels whatsoever, provided for, or at the expense of the Province, or of any division or sub-division thereof, to be used for making, altering or repairing, any bridge or highway, or any court, or other such building, canal, lock, drain, or sewer, as aforesaid, or to be used in, or with any such court or other building, canal, lock, drain, or sewer, it shall not be necessary to state such church, chapel, or place of religious worship, or such bridge, court, court-house, gaol, house of correction, penitentiary, infirmary, asylum, or other building, or such canal, lock, drain, or sewer, or any such materials, goods, or chattels, to be the property of any person.

XLIV. And with respect to property under Turn-Pike trusts, Be it enacted, That in any indictment or information, for any felony or misdemeanor, committed on, or with respect to any house, building, gate, machine, lamp, board, stone, post, fence, or other thing, erected, or provided, in pursuance of any Act in force in this Province, for making any turnpike road, or of any conveniences or appurtenances thereunto respectively belonging, or any materials, tools, or implements, provided for making, altering, or repairing any such road, it shall be sufficient to state any such property to belong to the Trustees or Commissioners of such road, and it shall not be necessary to specify the names of any such Trustees or Commissioners.

XLV. And for preventing abuses from dilatory pleas, Be it enacted, That no indictment or information shall be abated by reason of any dilatory plea of misnomer, or of want of addition, or of wrong addition of any party offering such plea, if the Court shall be satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise, of the truth of such plea; but in such case the Court shall forthwith cause the indictment or information to be amended accordieg to the truth, and shall call upon such party to plead thereto, and shall proceed as if no such dilatory plea had been pleaded.

XLVI. And in order that the punishment of offenders may be less frequently intercepted in consequence of technical niceties, Be it enacted, That no judgment upon any indictment or information, for any felony or misdemeanor, whether after verdict or outlawry, or by confession, default or otherwise, shall be stayed or reversed, for want of the averment of any matter unnecessary to be proved, nor for the omission of the words "as appears by the record," or of the words "with force and arms," or of the words "against the peace," nor for the insertion of the words "against the form of the Statute," instead of the words "against the form of the Statutes, or vice versa, nor for that any person or persons mentioned in the indictment or information is, or are, designated by a name of office or other descriptive appellation, instead of his, her, or their proper name, or names, nor for omitting to state the time at which the offence was committed, in any case where time is not of the essence of the offence, nor for stating the time imperfectly, nor for stating the offence to have been committed on a day subsequent to the finding of the indictment, or exhibiting the information, or on an impossible day, or on a day that never happened, nor for a want of a proper or perfect venue, where the Court shall appear by the indictment or information, to have had jurisdiction over the offence.

XLVII. And be it enacted, That no judgment after verdict upon any indictment or information, for any felony or misdemeanor, shall be stayed or reserved for want of a similiter, nor by reason that the jury process had been awarded to a wrong officer upon an insufficient suggestion, nor for any misnomer or misdescription of the officer returning such process, or of any of the Jurors, nor because any person has served upon the Jury who has not been returned as a Juror by the Sheriff or other Officer; and that where the offence charged shall be an offence theretofore created by any Statute, or subjected to a greater degree of punishment, or excluded from the benefit of Clergy, by any Statute, the indictment or information shall, after verdict, be held sufficient, if it describes the offence in the words of the Statute, creating the offence or prescribing the punishment, or excluding the offender from the benefit of Clergy.

XLVIII. And be it declared and enacted, That where the Queen's Majesty, or the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, for the time being, shall be pleased to extend the Royal mercy to any offender convicted of any felony, punishable with death, or otherwise, and by warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, countersigned by one of the Principal Secretaries of State, or by warrant under the hand and seal at arms of such Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Person administering the Government as aforesaid, shall grant to such offender, either a free or a conditional pardon, the discharge of such offender out of custody, in case of a free pardon, and the performance of the condition in the case of a conditional pardon, shall have the effect of a pardon under the Great Seal for such offender, as to the felony for which such pardon shall have been granted: Provided always, that no free pardon, or any such discharge in consequence thereof, nor any conditional pardon, nor the performance of the condition thereof, in any of the cases aforesaid, shall prevent, or mitigate the punishment, to which the offender might otherwise be lawfully sentenced, on a subsequent conviction, for any felony committed after the granting of any such pardon.

XLIX. And whereas the practice of indiscriminately estreating recognizances for the appearance of persons to prosecute or give evidence, or to answer for a common assault, or in the other cases hereinafter specified, has been found in many instances, productive of hardship to persons who have entered into such recognizances, Be it therefore enacted, That in every case where any person bound by recognizance for his, or her appearance, (or for whose appearance any other person shall be so bound), to prosecute, or give evidence, in any case of felony or misdemeanor, or to answer for any common assault, or to articles of the peace, shall therein make default, the Officer of the Court by whom the estreats are made out, shall, and such Officer is hereby required, to prepare a list in writing, specifying the name of every person so making default, and the nature of the offence, in respect of which every such person, or his, or her surety, was so bound, together with the residence, trade, profession, or calling, of every such person and surety, and shall in such list distinguish the principals from the sureties, and shall state the cause, if known, why each such person has not appeared, and whether by reason of the non-appearance of such person, the ends of justice have been defeated or delayed; and every such officer shall, and such officer is hereby required, before any such recognizance shall be estreated, to lay such list, if at a Court of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, in any District or County, or at any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record in this Province, before one of the Justices of those Courts respectively, or if at a Session of the Peace, before two of the Justices of the Peace, who shall have attended such Courts, who are respectively authorized and required to examine such list, and to make such order touching the estreating, or putting in process any such recognizance, as shall appear to them respectively, to be just; and it shall not be lawful for the officer of any Court to estreat or put in process, any such recognizance, without the written order of the Justice, or Justices of the Peace, before whom respectively, such list shall have been laid

L. And be it enacted, That wherever in this Act, or in any other Act, relating to any offence, whether punishable upon indictment or summary conviction, in describing or referring to the offence, or the subject matter, on or with respect to which it shall be committed, or the offender or the party affected, or intended to be affected by the offence, any word or words have been, or shall be used or employed, importing the singular number, or the masculine gender only, every such Act shall be understood to include several matters of the same kind, as well as one matter, and several persons as well as one person, and females as well as males, and bodies corporate, as well as individuals, unless it be otherwise specially provided, or there be something in the subject or context, repugnant to such construction; and wherever any forfeiture or penalty is, or shall be made payable to a party aggrieved, it shall be payable to a body corporate, in every case where such a body shall be the party aggrieved.

LI. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts, or provisions of Law in force in this Province, or any part thereof, immediately before the time when this Act shall come into force, which shall be inconsistent with or contradictory to this Act, or which make any provisions in any matter provided for by this Act, other than such as is hereby made in such matter, shall from and after the time when this Act shall come into force, be and they are hereby repealed, except in so far as may relate to any offence committed before the passing of this Act, which shall be dealt with and punished as if this Act had not been passed.

And be it enacted, That the period of imprisonment in the Provincial Penitentiary in pursuance of any sentence passed under this Act, or under any other Act relating to the punishment of offences by confinement and imprisonment in the Provincial Penitentiary, shall be held to commence from the period of passing such sentence, whether the convict upon whom such sentence shall be passed, shall be removed to the said Provincial Penitentiary forthwith, or be detained in custody in any other prison or place of confinement, previously to such removal.

And for the more effectual prosecution of all offences punishable on summary conviction under this Act, be it enacted, That upon any person being charged on the oath of a credible witness before any Justice of the Peace, with any such offence, the Justice may summon the person charged to appear at a certain time and place to be named in such summons, and if he shall not appear accordingly, then upon proof of the due service of the summons upon such person, or delivering the same to him personally, or by leaving the same at his usual place of abode, the Justice may either proceed to hear and determine the case ex parte, or issue his warrant for apprehending such person, and bringing him before himself, or some other Justice of the Peace; or the Justice before whom the charge shall be made may, if he shall so think fit, when any previous summons (unless where this Act is especially directed) issue such warrant; and the Justice before whom the person charged shall appear, or be brought, shall proceed to hear and determine the case.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That where any offence is by this Act punishable on summary conviction, any person who shall aid, abet, counsel, or procure the commission of such offence, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, be liable for every such offence of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring, to the same forfeitures and punishment to which a person guilty of such offence as a principal offender is by this Act made liable.

XXXIII. And with regard to the application of all forfeitures and penalties upon summary convictions under this Act: Be it enacted, that every sum of money which shall be forfeited for the amount of any injury done, (such amount to be ascertained in each case by the convicting Justice) shall be paid to the party aggrieved, if known, except where such party shall have been examined in proof of the offence; and in that case, or where the party aggrieved is unknown, such sum shall be applied in the same manner as a penalty; and every sum which shall be imposed as a penalty by any Justice of the Peace, whether in addition to such amount or otherwise, shall be paid to the convicting Justice: Provided always, that where several persons shall join in the commission of the same offence, and shall upon conviction thereof, each be adjudged to forfeit a sum equivalent to the amount of the injury done, no more than such sum shall be paid to the party aggrieved than that which shall be forfeited by one of such offenders only, and the corresponding sum or sums forfeited by the other offender or offenders together with all penalties, shall be applied in the same manner as any penalty is by law directed to be applied.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That in every case of a summary conviction under this Act, where the sum which shall be forfeited for the amount of the injury done, or which shall be imposed as a penalty by the Justice, shall not be paid, either immediately after the conviction, or within such period as the Justice shall, at the time of conviction, appoint, it shall be lawful for the convicting Justice, (unless where otherwise specially directed) to commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour, according to the discretion of the Justice, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the sum forfeited or of the penalty imposed, or of both (as the case may be) together with the costs, shall not exceed five pounds; and for any term not exceeding four calendar months where the amount with the costs shall exceed five pounds, and not exceed ten pounds; and for any term not exceeding six calendar months where the amount with costs shall exceed ten pounds; the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid upon the payment of the amount and costs.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it enacted, that where any person shall be summarily convicted before a Justice of the Peace of any offence against this Act, and it shall be a first conviction, it shall be lawful for the Justice, if he shall so think fit, instead of adjudging the offender to the penalty hereinbefore mentioned for such offence, to direct that the offender shall be discharged upon his entering into a recognizance, with or without a surety or sureties, in the discretion of the Justice, in such sum as he shall think fit, conditioned for his appearance at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, which may happen in the District, County or place wherein the offence was committed, and to abide such judgment as the Court may think fit to give thereupon, and to be then and there publicly called upon his recognizance; and if the offender shall appear at the said Sessions, and shall then and there enter into such recognizance, with or without a surety or sureties, as the Court shall require, videlicet:—

STATUTES OF THE PROVINCE OF CANADA.

ANNO QUARTO ET QUINTO VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for consolidating and amending the Statutes in this Province, relative to Offences against the Person.

[18th September, 1841.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the provisions contained in various Statutes now in force in this Province, relative to offences against the Person, Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That this Act shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

II. And be it enacted, That every offence, which before the commencement of this Act, would have amounted to petit treason, shall be deemed to be murder only, and no greater offence; and all persons guilty in respect thereof, whether as principals or as accessories, shall be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished as principals and accessories in murder.

III. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of murder, or of being an accessory before the fact to murder, shall suffer death as a felon; and every accessory after the fact to murder, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for the term of his natural life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be confined in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

IV. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, sentence of Death may be pronounced after convictions for murder in the same manner, and the Court before which the conviction may be had, shall have the same power in all respects as after convictions for other capital offences.

V. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of murder, shall after judgment, be confined in some safe place within the prison, apart from all other prisoners, and shall be fed with bread and water only, and with no other food or liquor, except in case of receiving the Sacrament, or in case of any sickness or wound, in which case the surgeon of the prison may order other necessaries to be administered; and no person but the gaoler and his servants, and the chaplain and surgeon of the prison, shall have access to any such convict, without the permission, in writing, of the Court or Judge before whom such convict shall have been tried, or of the Sheriff or his Deputy.

VI. And be it enacted, That where any person, being feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt upon the sea, or at any place out of this Province, shall die of such stroke, poisoning or hurt, in this Province, or being feloniously stricken, poisoned, or otherwise hurt at any place in this Province, shall die of such stroke, poisoning, or hurt upon the sea, or at any place out of this Province, every offence committed in respect of any such case, whether the same shall amount to the offence of murder or of manslaughter, or of being accessory before the fact to murder, or after the fact to murder or manslaughter, may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the District, County, or place in this Province, in which such death, stroke, poisoning, or hurt shall happen, in the same manner, in all respects, as if such offence had been wholly committed in such District, County or place.

VII. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of manslaughter, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for the term of his natural life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years, or to pay such fine as the Court shall award.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no punishment or forfeiture, shall be incurred by any person who shall kill another by misfortune or in his own defence, or in any other manner without felony.

IX. And be it enacted, That whosoever shall administer or cause to be taken by any person, any poison or other destructive thing, or shall stab, cut or wound, any person, or shall by any means whatsoever, cause to any person any bodily injury, dangerous to life, with intent in any of the cases aforesaid to commit murder, such person, being convicted thereof, shall suffer death.

X. And be it enacted, That whosoever shall attempt to administer to any person any poison or other destructive thing, or shall shoot at any person, or shall, by drawing a trigger, or in any other manner, attempt to discharge any kind of loaded arms at any person, or shall attempt to drown, suffocate, or strangle any person, with intent in any of the cases aforesaid, to commit the crime of murder, shall, although no bodily injury shall be effected, be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for the term of his natural life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

XI. And be it enacted, That whosoever unlawfully and maliciously shall shoot at any person, or shall, by drawing a trigger, or in any other manner, attempt to discharge any kind of loaded arms at any person, or shall stab, cut, or wound any person, with intent in any of the cases aforesaid to maim, disfigure, or disable such person, or to do some other grievous bodily harm to such person, or with intent to resist or prevent the lawful apprehension or detainer of any person, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for the term of his natural life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

XII. And be it enacted, That whosoever shall unlawfully and maliciously send, or deliver to, or cause to be taken, or received by any person, any explosive substance, or any other dangerous or noxious thing, or shall cast or throw upon, or otherwise apply to any person, any corrosive fluid, or other destructive matter, with intent in any of the cases aforesaid, to burn, maim, disfigure, or disable any person, or to do some other grievous bodily harm to any person, and whereby in any of the cases aforesaid, any person shall be burnt, maimed, disfigured, or disabled, or receive some other grievous bodily harm, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for the term of his natural life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

XIII. And be it enacted, That whosoever, with intent to procure the miscarriage of any woman, shall unlawfully administer to her, or cause to be taken by her, any poison or other noxious thing, or shall unlawfully use any instrument or other means whatsoever with the like intent, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable at the discretion of the Court, to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for the term of his natural life, or for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

XIV. And be it enacted, That if any woman shall be delivered of a child, and shall, by secret burying, or otherwise disposing of the dead body of the said child, endeavour to conceal the birth thereof, every such offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years; and it shall not be necessary to prove whether the child died before, at, or after its birth: Provided always, that if any woman, tried for the murder of her child, shall be acquitted thereof, it shall be lawful for the jury, by whose verdict she shall be acquitted, to find, in case it shall so appear in evidence, that she was delivered of a child, and that she did by secret burying, or otherwise disposing of the dead body of such child, endeavour to conceal the birth thereof, and thereupon the Court may pass such sentence as if she had been convicted upon an indictment for the concealment of the birth.

XV. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of the abominable crime of Buggery, committed either with mankind or with any animal, shall suffer death as a felon.

XVI. And be it enacted, That every person convicted of the crime of Rape, shall suffer death as a felon.

XVII. And be it enacted, That if any person shall unlawfully and carnally know and abuse any girl under the age of ten years, every such offender shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer death as a felon; and if any person shall unlawfully and carnally know and abuse any girl, being above the age of ten years, and under the age of twelve years, every such offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for such term as the Court shall award.

XVIII. And whereas upon trial for the crimes of buggery, and of rape, and of carnally abusing girls under the respective ages hereinbefore mentioned, offenders frequently escape, by reason of the difficulty of the proof which has been required of the completion of those several crimes; for remedy thereof, Be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary in any of those cases, to prove the actual emission of seed in order to constitute a carnal knowledge, but the carnal knowledge shall be deemed complete upon proof of penetration only.

XIX. And be it enacted, That where any woman shall have any interest, whether legal or equitable, present or future, absolute, conditional or contingent, in any real or personal estate, or shall be an heiress presumptive, or next of kin to any one having such interest, if any person shall from motives of lucre, take away or detain such woman against her will, with intent to marry or defile her, or to cause her to be married or defiled by any other person, every such offender, and every person counselling, aiding or abetting such offender, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

XX. And be it enacted, That if any person shall unlawfully take, or cause to be taken, any unmarried girl, being under the age of sixteen years, out of the possession and against the will of her father or mother, or of any other person having the lawful care or charge of her, every such offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to suffer such punishment, by fine or imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if any person shall maliciously, either by force or fraud, lead or take away, or decoy, or entice away or detain, any child under the age of ten years, with intent to deprive the parent or parents, or any other person having the lawful care or charge of such child, of the possession of such child, or with intent to steal any article upon or about the person of such child, to whomsoever such article may belong; or if any person shall, with any such intent as aforesaid, receive or harbour any such child, knowing the same to have been by force or fraud, led, taken, decoyed, enticed away or detained as hereinbefore mentioned, every such offender, and every person counselling, aiding, or abetting such offender, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years; Provided always, that no person who shall have claimed to be the father of an illegitimate child, or to have any right to the possession of such child, shall be liable to be prosecuted by virtue hereof, on account of his getting possession of such child, or taking such child out of the possession of the mother, or any other person having the lawful charge thereof.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if any person, being married, shall marry any other person during the life of the former husband or wife, whether the second marriage shall have taken place in this Province or elsewhere, every such offender, and every person counselling, aiding, or abetting such offender, shall be guilty of felony, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years; and any such offence may be dealt with, enquired of, tried, determined, and punished in the District or County, where the offender shall be apprehended or be in custody, as if the offence had been actually committed in that District or County: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any second marriage contracted out of this Province by any other than a subject of Her Majesty, resident in this Province, and leaving the same with intent to commit the offence, or to any person marrying a second time, whose husband or wife shall have been continually absent from such person for the space of seven years then last past, and shall not have been known by such person to be living within that time; or shall extend to any person, who, at the time of such second marriage, shall have been divorced from the bond of the first marriage, or to any person whose former marriage shall have been declared void by the sentence of any Court of competent jurisdiction.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any person shall arrest any Clergyman or Minister of the Gospel, upon any civil process, while he shall be performing Divine Service, or shall with the knowledge of such person, be going to perform the same, or returning from the performance thereof, every such offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer such punishment, by fine or imprisonment, or by both, as the Court shall award.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if any person shall assault and strike or wound any Magistrate, Officer, or other person whatsoever, lawfully authorized, on account of the exercise of his duty, in or concerning the preservation of any vessel in distress, or of any vessel, goods or effects, wrecked, stranded, or cast on shore, or lying under water, every such offender being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned at hard labour in the Provincial Penitentiary, for any term not less than seven years, or to be imprisoned in any other prison or place of confinement, for any term not exceeding two years.

XXV. And be it enacted, That where any person shall be charged with and convicted of any of the following offences as misdemeanors: that is to say, of any assault with intent to commit felony; of any assault upon any Peace Officer or Revenue Officer, in the due execution of his duty, or upon any person acting in aid of such Officer; of any assault upon any person with intent to resist or prevent the lawful apprehension or detainer of the party so assaulting, or of any other person, for any offence for which he or they may be liable by Law, to be apprehended or detained; or of any assault committed in pursuance of any conspiracy to raise the rate of wages; in any such case, the Court may sentence the offender to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years; and may also (if it shall so think fit) fine the offender, and require him to find sureties for keeping the peace.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That if any person shall unlawfully and with force, hinder any Seaman from working at or exercising his lawful trade, business or occupation, or shall beat, wound, or use any other violence to him, with intent to deter or hinder him from working at or exercising the same; or if any person shall beat, wound, or use any other violence to any person, with intent to deter or hinder him from selling or buying any wheat or other grain, flour, meal, or malt, in any market or other place, or shall beat, wound, or use any other violence to any person having the care or charge of any wheat or other grain, flour, meal, or malt, whilst on its way to or from any city, market-town, or other place, with intent to stop the conveyance of the same, every such offender may be convicted thereof before two Justices of the Peace, and imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the Common Gaol or House of Correction, for any term not exceeding three calendar months: Provided always, that no person who shall be punished for any such offence, by virtue of this provision, shall be punished for the same offence by virtue of any other Law whatsoever.

XXVII. And whereas it is expedient that a summary power of punishing persons for common assaults and batteries, should be provided under the limitations hereinafter mentioned, Be it therefore enacted, That where any person shall unlawfully assault or beat any other person, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon complaint of the party aggrieved, praying him to proceed summarily under this Act, to hear and determine such offence; and the offender upon conviction thereof before him, shall forfeit and pay such fine as shall appear to him to be meet, not exceeding together with costs, (if ordered) the sum of five pounds, which fine shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Municipal District, or place in which the offence shall have been committed, and made part of the funds of such District, or if the conviction be had in any place not within any Municipal District, then such fine shall be paid over to such office, and be applicable to such purposes as other fines and penalties by Law are; and the evidence of any inhabitant of the Municipal District, shall be admitted in proof of the offence, notwithstanding such inhabitant of the fine incurred thereby; and if such fine as shall be awarded by the said Justice, together with the costs, (if ordered) shall not be paid, either immediately after the conviction, or within such period as the said Justice shall at the time of the conviction appoint, it shall be lawful for him to commit the offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two calendar months, unless such fine and costs be sooner paid; but if the Justice, upon the hearing of any such case of assault or battery shall deem the offence not to be proved, or shall find the assault or battery to have been justified, or so trifling as not to merit any punishment, and shall accordingly dismiss the complaint, he shall forthwith make out a certificate under his hand, stating the fact of such dismissal, and shall deliver such certificate to the party against whom the complaint was preferred, and if such costs shall not be paid immediately upon dismissal, or within such period as the Justice shall at the time of such dismissal appoint, it shall be lawful for him to issue his warrant to levy the amount of such costs within a certain time to be in the said warrant expressed, and in case no distress sufficient to satisfy the amount of such warrant shall be found, to commit the party by whom such costs shall be so ordered to be paid as aforesaid to the Common Gaol of the District, County or Division where such offence shall be alledged to have been committed, there to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding ten days, unless such costs shall be sooner paid.

XXVIII. CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to facilitate the negotiation of a Loan in England and for other purposes therein mentioned.

[18th September 1841.]

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

WE, Your Majesty's Most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada to Parliament assembled, having taken into our serious consideration the present state of the Public Debt of this Province, and the Message of Your Majesty's Governor General of this Province, transmitting a Despatch from Your Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, bearing date the third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and containing among other things, the following passage:—

"The Queen's Government coincide in your views of the expediency of making such an arrangement as may employ the credit of this Country for the benefit of the finances of Canada, and have given their consideration to the plan proposed in your Despatches. They are of opinion that such an arrangement, if it can be carried into effect with the consent of the Creditors, would be in every way desirable; but they feel that the objections to a Bill compelling parties to receive payment of their money, in breach of agreements entered into with them by competent authority are insuperable.

"Her Majesty's Government are ready to give any assistance in conformity with your proposal, which does not appear to them inconsistent with good faith. They are ready to propose to Parliament to guarantee a Loan, which may be required for Public Works, (under the restrictions suggested by you), for the repayment of such part of the Debt as may be now redeemable, or may be held by Creditors who shall declare themselves willing to accept reasonable terms,"—and being desirous of lessening the charge of the said debt, as well as of making provisions for the continuance and completion of Public Works, commenced in this Province by means of a Loan, at a reduced rate of interest, under the guarantee proposed in the said Despatch, humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted:—Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada;" and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That after the charges made on the consolidated Revenue Fund of this Province, under and by virtue of the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, the said consolidated Fund shall be charged and chargeable with the payment of the interest and principal of any new Debentures, Loan or Stock, not exceeding the sum of one million and a half pounds, sterling money of Great Britain, which shall be raised or created on behalf of this Province by virtue of this Act, or of any Act or Acts of the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, to be passed for the raising and creating any such Loan or Stock, or for the purpose of guaranteeing the payment of the same and interest thereon by this Province.

II. And be it enacted, That in case it shall be necessary to effect such Loan, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Province, to authorize Debentures to the amount of one million, five hundred thousand pounds of sterling money, to be issued in such form, and payable at such period, and for such sums, and at such rate of interest as shall be most convenient, and as shall be in accordance with the terms in which such new Loan may be guaranteed as aforesaid.

III. And be it enacted, That all and every the provisions of a certain Act of the Parliament of Upper Canada, passed in the seventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, and intituled, "An Act to authorize the Government to borrow a certain sum of money upon Debenture, to be loaned to the Welland Canal Company," which relate to the Debentures authorized by that Act, passing current with certain public accountants,—the suspension of interest in certain cases,—the forwarding to the Legislature accounts of such Debentures and the interest paid thereon, and the expenses attending the same,—and the paying off and cancelling the said Debentures,—and also the provisions contained in the seventh section of the said Act, declaring and making the forging any such Debenture, or any stamp, writing, or indorsement thereon or therein,—and the tendering in payment any such forged Debenture, or any Debenture with such counterfeit stamp, writing, or indorsement, or writing thereupon,—and the demanding to have such counterfeit Debenture, or any Debenture with such counterfeit stamp, indorsement, or writing thereupon or therein, exchanged for ready money, by any person or persons who shall be obliged to, or required to exchange the same, or by any other person or persons whomsoever, knowing such Debenture, or the stamp, indorsement, or writing thereupon or therein, to be forged or counterfeited, and with intent to defraud, as in the said Act is mentioned, felony,—and subjecting the person or persons guilty thereof, to suffer as in cases of felony, shall be and are hereby enacted and declared to be in force, with regard and in respect to all and every Debenture or Debentures, to be issued in pursuance of this Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor of this Province, to nominate and appoint such person or persons, as he shall think the most fit, for the purpose of arranging and negociating the mode and terms in, and upon which such new Loan or Stock, may be most advantageously raised or created, and to advance and pay to the person or persons so employed, such sums of money as shall be reasonable and necessary to defray the expenses attending his or their employment; and that such person or persons, (subject to instructions, to be from time to time given to him or them, by the Governor of this Province), shall have full power and authority to negociate on behalf of this Province, in such form and manner, as shall be rendered necessary by any such Act or Acts, to be passed by the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, or as shall be directed and approved by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies for the time being.

And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Province, to authorize and direct the redemption of any Debenture or Debentures, of either of the said late Provinces, out of the monies so to be raised as aforesaid, at such rates and upon such terms and conditions, as shall and may be agreed upon with the holder or holders thereof; Provided always, that in no case shall any greater sum than is expressed in any such Debenture, together with the interest due and unpaid, be paid for the redemption of the same.

VII. And be it enacted, That all Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Trustees, Tutors, Curators, and all Curators, or Committees of the Estates of Idiots and Lunatics, or Absentees, who shall as such have the custody or controul of, or over any such Debentures in this Province, may agree for the redemption thereof, and receive the sums of money to be respectively paid therefor, and shall hold and be accountable for such sums as they shall respectively receive for any such Debenture, upon, with, under, and subject to the same uses, trusts, powers, conditions and purposes, as such Debentures were subject or liable to, when in their possession, or custody, or controul.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the residue of the monies so to be raised as aforesaid, after redemption of such Debentures shall be paid to, and remain in the hands of the Receiver General of this Province, subject to such disposal and appropriation as the Legislature may from time to time, by any Act or Acts direct and appoint.

IX. And be it enacted, That all monies to be raised by such Loan or Stock as aforesaid, shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in such manner and form as Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct.

II. And be it enacted, That the annual Meeting or conference of the Ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, mentioned and provided for in the hereinbefore recited Charter, for the filling up of vacancies in the Board of Trustees and Visitors, and for other purposes, shall be held each year at any time and place the said Meeting or Conference may from time to time appoint.

III. And be it enacted, That the Principal and Professors in the said College together with the Members of the Board, (a majority of whom shall form a quorum) shall constitute "the College Senate," which may be assembled as occasion may require by the Principal, by giving one months notice in the Official Gazette of this Province; and which whenever there shall be a Principal and four Professors employed in said College, shall have power and authority to confer the degrees of Bachelor, Master and Doctor in the several Arts and Faculties.

X. And be it enacted, That the said Board may suggest to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, any public works or improvements therein, which it may appear to the Board, could be undertaken with advantage to the Province; but shall incur no expense relative to the object of such suggestion, unless with the sanction and approval of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government as aforesaid.

XI. XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no part of any sum so appropriated, shall be expended or advanced, until the said Board shall have reported to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government, in detail, the mode in which it is proposed to expend the same, nor until such report shall have been approved by him; nor shall any contract be entered into by the said Board, for the performance of any work, except good and sufficient security to the satisfaction of the Board and of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government, be given for the performance of the contract, within a time to be specified in the contract.

XV. And be it enacted, That no contract shall be entered into, or any money expended on any work, for which any Public Money shall have been or shall be appropriated, unless it shall appear that the work can be completed, according to the intention of the Legislature, for the sum appropriated for it; excepting always such preliminary expenses as shall be necessary to ascertain whether it can or cannot be so completed.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the said Board shall (with the approval of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government, as aforesaid) employ for the accomplishment of the objects for which it is constituted, such and so many Engineers, Surveyors, Architects, Clerks, Draughtsmen, Superintendents, and other persons as may be necessary, and allow and pay them a fair and adequate compensation, not exceeding the usual allowances, salary, or pay allowed to such persons respectively, by other persons.

XVII. XIX. And be it enacted, That the said Board shall have power to acquire and hold all such land and real property of any description as may be necessary or useful for the performance of any work directed, or to be hereafter directed by the Legislature, and may for that purpose contract and agree with all persons, bodies corporate, guardians, tutors, curators and trustees, whatsoever, not only for and on behalf of themselves, their heirs, successors and assigns, but also for and on behalf of those whom they shall represent, whether infants, (Minor Children) absentees, lunatics, idiots, femes covert, or other persons otherwise incapable of contracting, who are or shall be possessed of or interested in such property, and all such contracts and agreements, and all conveyances or other instruments made in pursuance thereof, shall be valid and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

XX. And be it enacted, That whenever the owner, or person so representing, as aforesaid, the owner of any such land or real property, shall refuse to agree for the sale and conveyance thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Board of Works to make a legal tender to him or her of the probable and reasonable value of such land or real property, with a notification that the said Board of Works will submit the settlement of the value thereof to arbitration; and upon such tender and notification having been so made, it shall be lawful for the said Board of Works to enter upon and take possession of the land and real property to which such tender shall relate: Provided always, that the said Board of Works, shall within three days after so taking possession, name an Arbitrator, and the owner, or person representing the owner of the land or real property so taken possession of, shall within three days from such nomination also name an Arbitrator, and the two Arbitrators so named shall before proceeding name a third Arbitrator; and the said three Arbitrators shall inquire of, and they or any two of them, shall award and adjudge upon the value of such lands and real property, and shall signify their award and judgment to the parties interested, within a period not exceeding ten days next after the appointment of the said third Arbitrator; and the said Board of Works shall upon the signification of any such award and judgment, forthwith tender to the owner, or person representing the owner of such land or real property, the sum so demanded and adjudged; and if the same exceed the sum originally tendered, the Board of Works shall pay the costs of Arbitration, but if not, the costs shall be paid by the person so refusing the tender made by the said Board as aforesaid.

XXI. And be it enacted, That any award made under this Act, concerning land or real property situate in that part of this Province formerly called Upper Canada, shall be subject to be set aside on application to the Court of Queen's Bench, in the same manner and on the same grounds as in ordinary cases of submission to arbitration by the parties, in which case a reference may be again had to arbitrators as hereinbefore provided; and any award made under this Act concerning land or real property, situate in that part of the Province formerly called Lower Canada, shall be liable to be set aside at the instance of any party interested by the judgment of any Court of competent jurisdiction, in that part of the said Province, if the Court shall be of opinion that injustice has been done by the award to the party complaining, and the value to be paid by the Board for such land or real property shall in such case be finally determined by the judgment of such Court: Provided always, that no such award shall be set aside in any case unless the application to the Court shall be made within one year from the date of such award.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if the said Board shall neglect in any way to comply with any of the requirements of this Act, touching the appointment of an Arbitrator, or if no award shall be made within the period hereinbefore prescribed for making the same, then the party to whom the compensation is due shall have an action against the Board for the amount of such compensation, which shall then be ascertained, as to Law may appertain, saving the right of the Board to plead any tender made of the amount of such compensation: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the parties from agreeing to the extension of the period for making any such award, and such period shall in any such case be extended accordingly, for all the purposes of this Act.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the Arbitrators so appointed, as aforesaid, shall have power to examine any person upon oath, touching the value of the property, or the amount of any compensation which they shall be required to ascertain, and they or any one of them may administer such oath; and the said Arbitrators shall themselves be sworn to the due performance of their duties, before some Judge or Justice of the Peace, before they shall proceed to perform such duties.

XXIV. XXV. And be it enacted, That the said Board shall have power to send for, and examine on oath, all such persons as it shall deem necessary to examine, touching any matter referred to the Board as aforesaid, and to cause such persons to bring with them such papers, documents and things as it may be necessary to examine, with reference to such matter, and to pay such persons a reasonable compensation for their time and disbursements; and such person shall be bound to attend at the summons of the said Board, after due notice, under penalty of such damages as may be awarded in favor of the said Board, as the loss the public may have sustained by the non-attendance of such person, in an action to be brought by the Board in their behalf.

And be it enacted, That the Board may require any account sent in by any Contractor, or any person in its employ, to be attested on oath, which oath, as well as the oath to be taken by any witness, the Secretary or any Member of the Board may administer; and any false statement wilfully made under any such oath, or in any case where an oath is required or authorised by this Act, shall be perjury.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That no warrant shall be issued for any sum of the public money appropriated for any Public Work, under the superintendence of the said Board, except on the certificate of the Chairman, sealed with the seal of the said Board, that such sum ought to be paid to the person or persons named in the certificate, in whose favor a warrant may be issued accordingly.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Board, from time to time, to grant such certificates in favor of their Secretary, for such sums as may be necessary to meet any disbursements allowed to him, or the Members of the Board, when on duty, or which the Board may order to be made immediately by the Secretary, in any report approved by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government; but the sum which shall at any one time be in the hands of the said Secretary, shall in no case exceed Five Hundred Pounds, Currency.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That the said Secretary shall make up detailed accounts of the expenditure of all monies advanced or paid under certificates of the said Board, showing the sum appropriated for each Public Work, the sum so paid or advanced, and the balance, if any, remaining unexpended, and in whose hands; and each such account shall be accompanied by vouchers, corresponding with the numbering of the items of such account, and shall be made up to, and closed on the first day of January, and the first day of July, in each year, and shall be attested before some Judge of the Court of King's Bench, or of the Court of Queen's Bench, or before some Justice of the Peace, and shall be transmitted to the Officer whose duty it shall be to receive it, within fifteen days after the said periods respectively.

XXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Chairman of the said Board of Works, to transmit to the Executive Government of this Province, to be laid before the other two branches of the Legislature, within fifteen days after the opening of the Session, a detailed statement of the several Public Works carried on under the direction of the Board, and of the progress made in the said Works since the previous Session of the Legislature, and of the said amount of monies so far expended upon them, respectively, together with all such further information as the said Chairman may deem proper to be submitted for the information of the Provincial Parliament.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be taken or construed to authorise the expenditure of any greater or further sum of money, in the payment of the yearly salary of the Chairman and Secretary, or in the payment of their travelling expenses, or in the payment of the actual disbursements and travelling expenses of the other Members of the Board, than is at present provided for by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the third and fourth years of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada."

XXXII. CANADA.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada, relative to District Turnpike Trusts.

[18th September, 1841.]

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether the Commissioners of the several Turnpike Trusts, in that part of the Province called Upper Canada, under and by virtue of an Act of the Parliament of the late Province of Upper Canada, passed in the third year of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled "An Act to repeal, alter and amend the Laws now in force for the regulation of the several Macadamized Roads within this Province," have not power and authority to compel all persons living within half a mile of either side of the Roads placed by that Act under the care and management of such Commissioners, and who are by the existing Laws of the Province liable to perform statute labour, to commute the same and pay the amount in money, notwithstanding the road in front of the land of such persons has not been macadamized, or otherwise improved by such Commissioners: and whereas it would be manifestly unjust that such power should exist, and it is expedient to remove all doubt in that behalf: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and intituled, "An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada," and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no person living within half a mile of either side of any road placed by the hereinbefore recited Act, under the care and management of the said Commissioners, shall be held liable, or required to commute his or her statute labour and pay the amount in money, until the Commissioners shall have macadamized or otherwise improved that part of such road lying within half a mile of the land in respect of which such commutation shall be demanded; any thing in the hereinbefore recited Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

II. And be it enacted, That so much of the second section or of any other part of the Act of the Parliament of Upper Canada, cited in the Preamble to this Act, as enacts in effect that the Trustees of the several Turnpike Trusts in the Home District, shall form one Board, to be known by the style and title of "The Commissioners of the Home District Turnpike Trust," and shall have power and authority over the macadamized Roads within the limits of the said District, as far as the improvement thereof has been authorized by any Act of the Legislature of Upper Canada, or as may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, shall be and so much of the said Act is hereby repealed; and that from and after the passing of this Act the Trustees or Commissioners of each macadamized Road within the said District, or so many of them as under the Act or Acts by virtue of which they were respectively appointed may exercise the powers thereby vested in such Trustees or Commissioners, shall with regard to the Road or Roads for which they were respectively appointed, and all matters and things therewith connected, have the same powers and authority and shall perform the same duties as were vested in or assigned to the Commissioners of the Home District Turnpike Trust, with regard to such Road or Roads, respectively, and the matters and things therewith connected, by the Act cited in the Preamble to this Act.

III. And be it enacted, That if in any case where lands shall, before the passing of the Act first above-cited, have been taken by the Commissioners or Trustees of any Road placed by the said Act under the control of the Commissioners of the District Turnpike Trust, for the purpose of such Road, or any other damage shall have been done to any person by reason of the Laying out, Making or Repairing of any such Road, and no compensation shall before the passing of this Act have been paid or tendered to the party whose land was so taken, or who sustained such damage, as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the District Turnpike Trust to assess and tender such compensation, and if such compensation shall not be so assessed and tendered within six months after the passing of this Act, or if the party to whom it shall be tendered be not satisfied therewith, the amount of such compensation shall be decided by a Jury of the District at the Court of Quarter Sessions to be impanelled and sworn for that purpose at the request of the party entitled to compensation, and if no compensation shall have been offered, and a verdict for compensation shall be given, or if the verdict shall be for a greater sum than that tendered, as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall pay the costs of the proceeding, otherwise they shall be paid by the party claiming compensation, and the amount of the compensation assessed, tendered or awarded by verdict under the provisions of this section shall and may be paid by the Commissioners of the District Turnpike Trust out of any monies in their hands applicable to the purposes of the Act first above cited.
